45N 4 13 For not through the law was the promise to Abraham, or to his seed, that he should be heir of the world; but through the justice of faith.

45N 4 14 For if they who are of the law be heirs, faith is made void, the promise is made of no effect.

45N 4 15 For the law worketh wrath. For where there is no law, neither is there transgression.

45N 4 16 Therefore is it of faith, that according to grace the promise might be firm to all the seed; not to that only which is of the law, but to that also which is of the faith of Abraham, who is the father of us all,

45N 4 17 (As it is written: I have made thee a father of many nations,) before God, whom he believed, who quickeneth the dead; and calleth those things that are not, as those that are.

45N 4 18 Who against hope believed in hope; that he might be made the father of many nations, according to that which was said to him: So shall thy seed be.

45N 4 19 And he was not weak in faith; neither did he consider his own body now dead, whereas he was almost an hundred years old, nor the dead womb of Sara.

45N 4 20 In the promise also of God he staggered not by distrust; but was strengthened in faith, giving glory to God:

45N 4 21 Most fully knowing, that whatsoever he has promised, he is able also to perform.

45N 4 22 And therefore it was reputed to him unto justice.
 45N 4 23 Now it is not written only for him, that it was reputed to him unto justice, 45N 4 24 But also for us, to whom it shall be reputed, if we believe in him, that raised up Jesus Christ, our Lord, from the dead, 45N 4 25 Who was delivered up for our sins, and rose again for our justification.
 45N 5 1 Being justified therefore by faith, let us have peace with God, through our Lord Jesus Christ:
 45N 5 2 By whom also we have access through faith into this grace, wherein we stand, and glory in the hope of the glory of the sons of God.
 45N 5 3 And not only so; but we glory also in tribulations, knowing that tribulation worketh patience;
 45N 5 4 And patience trial; and trial hope;
 45N 5 5 And hope confoundeth not: because the charity of God is poured forth in our hearts, by the Holy Ghost, who is given to us.
 45N 5 6 For why did Christ, when as yet we were weak, according to the time, die for the ungodly?
 45N 5 7 For scarce for a just man will one die; yet perhaps for a good man some one would dare to die.
 45N 5 8 But God commendeth his charity towards us; because when as yet we were sinners, according to the time,
 45N 5 9 Christ died for us; much more therefore, being now justified by his blood, shall we be saved from wrath through him.
 45N 5 10 For if, when we were enemies, we were reconciled to God by the death of his Son; much more, being reconciled, shall we be saved by his life.
 45N 5 11 And not only so; but also we glory in God, through our Lord Jesus Christ, by whom we have now received reconciliation.
 45N 5 12 Wherefore as by one man sin entered into this world, and by sin death; and so death passed upon all men, in whom all have sinned.
 45N 5 13 For until the law sin was in the world; but sin was not imputed, when the law was not.
 45N 5 14 But death reigned from Adam unto Moses, even over them also who have not sinned after the similitude of the transgression of Adam, who is a figure of him who was to come.
 45N 5 15 But not as the offence, so also the gift. For if by the offence of one, many died; much more the grace of God, and the gift, by the grace of one man, Jesus Christ, hath abounded unto many.
 45N 5 16 And not as it was by one sin, so also is the gift. For judgment indeed was by one unto condemnation; but grace is of many offences, unto justification.
 45N 5 17 For if by one man's offence death reigned through one; much more they who receive abundance of grace, and of the gift, and of justice, shall reign in life through one, Jesus Christ.
 45N 5 18 Therefore, as by the offence of one, unto all men to condemnation; so also by the justice of one, unto all men to justification of life.
 45N 5 19 For as by the disobedience of one man, many were made sinners; so also by the obedience of one, many shall be made just.
 45N 5 20 Now the law entered in, that sin might abound. And where sin abounded, grace did more abound.
 45N 5 21 That as sin hath reigned to death; so also grace might reign by justice unto life everlasting, through Jesus Christ our Lord.
 45N 6 1 What shall we say, then? shall we continue in sin, that grace may abound?
 45N 6 2 God forbid. For we that are dead to sin, how shall we live any longer therein?
 45N 6 3 Know you not that all we, who are baptized in Christ Jesus, are baptized in his death?

45N 6 4 For we are buried together with him by baptism into death; that as Christ is risen from the dead by the glory of the Father, so we also may walk in newness of life.

45N 6 5 For if we have been planted together in the likeness of his death, we shall be also in the likeness of his resurrection.

45N 6 6 Knowing this, that our old man is crucified with him, that the body of sin may be destroyed, to the end that we may serve sin no longer.

45N 6 7 For he that is dead is justified from sin.

45N 6 8 Now if we be dead with Christ, we believe that we shall live also together with Christ:

45N 6 9 Knowing that Christ rising again from the dead, dieth now no more, death shall no more have dominion over him.

45N 6 10 For in that he died to sin, he died once; but in that he liveth, he liveth unto God:

45N 6 11 So do you also reckon, that you are dead to sin, but alive unto God, in Christ Jesus our Lord.

45N 6 12 Let no sin therefore reign in your mortal body, so as to obey the lusts thereof.

45N 6 13 Neither yield ye your members as instruments of iniquity unto sin; but present yourselves to God, as those that are alive from the dead, and your members as instruments of justice unto God.

45N 6 14 For sin shall not have dominion over you; for you are not under the law, but under grace.

45N 6 15 What then? Shall we sin, because we are not under the law, but under grace? God forbid.

45N 6 17 But thanks be to God, that you were the servants of sin, but have obeyed from the heart, unto that form of doctrine, into which you have been delivered.

45N 6 18 Being then freed from sin, we have been made servants of justice.

45N 6 19 I speak an human thing, because of the infirmity of your flesh. For as you have yielded your members to serve uncleanness and iniquity, unto iniquity; so now yield your members to serve justice, unto sanctification.

45N 6 20 For when you were the servants of sin, you were free men to justice.

45N 6 21 What fruit therefore had you then in those things, of which you are now ashamed? For the end of them is death.

45N 6 22 But now being made free from sin, and become servants to God, you have your fruit unto sanctification, and the end life everlasting.

45N 6 23 For the wages of sin is death. But the grace of God, life everlasting, in Christ Jesus our Lord.

45N 7 1 Know you not, brethren, (for I speak to them that know the law,) that the law hath dominion over a man, as long as it liveth?

45N 7 2 For the woman that hath an husband, whilst her husband liveth is bound to the law. But if her husband be dead, she is loosed from the law of her husband.

45N 7 3 Therefore, whilst her husband liveth, she shall be called an adulteress, if she be with another man: but if her husband be dead, she is delivered from the law of her husband; so that she is not an adulteress, if she be with another man.

45N 7 4 Therefore, my brethren, you also are become dead to the law, by the body of Christ; that you may belong to another, who is risen again from the dead, that we may bring forth fruit to God.

45N 7 5 For when we were in the flesh, the passions of sins, which were by the law, did work in our members, to bring forth fruit unto death.

45N 7 6 But now we are loosed from the law of death, wherein we were detained; so that we should serve in newness of spirit, and not in the oldness of the letter.

45N 7 7 What shall we say, then? Is the law sin? God forbid. But I do not know sin, but by the law; for I had not known concupiscence, if the law did not say: Thou shalt not covet.

45N 7 8 But sin taking occasion by the commandment, wrought in me all manner of concupiscence. For without the law sin was dead.

45N 7 9 And I lived some time without the law. But when the commandment came, sin revived, 45N 7 10 And I died. And the commandment that was ordained to life, the same was found to be unto death to me.

45N 7 11 For sin, taking occasion by the commandment, seduced me, and by it killed me.

45N 7 12 Wherefore the law indeed is holy, and the commandment holy, and just, and good.

45N 7 13 Was that then which is good, made death unto me? God forbid. But sin, that it may appear sin, by that which is good, wrought death in me; that sin, by the commandment, might become sinful above measure.

45N 7 14 For we know that the law is spiritual; but I am carnal, sold under sin.

45N 7 15 For that which I work, I understand not. For I do not that good which I will; but the evil which I hate, that I do.

45N 7 16 If then I do that which I will not, I consent to the law, that it is good.

45N 7 17 Now then it is no more I that do it, but sin that dwelleth in me.

45N 7 18 For I know that there dwelleth not in me, that is to say, in my flesh, that which is good. For to will, is present with me; but to accomplish that which is good, I find not.

45N 7 19 For the good which I will, I do not; but the evil which I will not, that I do.

45N 7 20 Now if I do that which I will not, it is no more I that do it, but sin that dwelleth in me.

45N 7 21 I find then a law, that when I have a will to do good, evil is present with me.

45N 7 22 For I am delighted with the law of God, according to the inward man:

45N 7 23 But I see another law in my members, fighting against the law of my mind, and captivating me in the law of sin, that is in my members.

45N 7 24 Unhappy man that I am, who shall deliver me from the body of this death?

45N 7 25 The grace of God, by Jesus Christ our Lord. Therefore, I myself, with the mind serve the law of God; but with the flesh, the law of sin.

45N 8 1 There is now therefore no condemnation to them that are in Christ Jesus, who walk not according to the flesh.

45N 8 2 For the law of the spirit of life, in Christ Jesus, hath delivered me from the law of sin and of death.

45N 8 3 For what the law could not do, in that it was weak through the flesh; God sending his own Son, in the likeness of sinful flesh and of sin, hath condemned sin in the flesh;

45N 8 4 That the justification of the law might be fulfilled in us, who walk not according to the flesh, but according to the spirit.

45N 8 5 For they that are according to the flesh, mind the things that are of the flesh; but they that are according to the spirit, mind the things that are of the spirit.

45N 8 6 For the wisdom of the flesh is death; but the wisdom of the spirit is life and peace.

45N 8 7 Because the wisdom of the flesh is an enemy to God; for it is not subject to the law of God, neither can it be.

45N 8 8 And they who are in the flesh, cannot please God.

45N 8 9 But you are not in the flesh, but in the spirit, if so be that the Spirit of God dwell in you. Now if any man have not the Spirit of Christ, he is none of his.

45N 8 10 And if Christ be in you, the body indeed is dead, because of sin; but the spirit liveth, because of justification.

45N 8 11 And if the Spirit of him that raised up Jesus from the dead, dwell in you; he that raised up Jesus Christ from the dead, shall quicken also your mortal bodies, because of his Spirit that dwelleth in you.

45N 8 12 Therefore, brethren, we are debtors, not to the flesh, to live according to the flesh.

45N 8 13 For if you live according to the flesh, you shall die: but if by the Spirit you mortify the deeds of the flesh, you shall live.

45N 8 14 For whosoever are led by the Spirit of God, they are the sons of God.

45N 8 15 For you have not received the spirit of bondage again in fear; but you have received the spirit of adoption of sons, whereby we cry: Abba (Father).

45N 8 16 For the Spirit himself giveth testimony to our spirit, that we are the sons of God.

45N 8 17 And if sons, heirs also; heirs indeed of God, and joint heirs with Christ: yet so, if we suffer with him, that we may be also glorified with him.

45N 8 18 For I reckon that the sufferings of this time are not worthy to be compared with the glory to come, that shall be revealed in us.

45N 8 19 For the expectation of the creature waiteth for the revelation of the sons of God.

45N 8 20 For the creature was made subject to vanity, not willingly, but by reason of him that made it subject, in hope:

45N 8 21 Because the creature also itself shall be delivered from the servitude of corruption, into the liberty of the glory of the children of God.

45N 8 22 For we know that every creature groaneth and travaileth in pain, even till now.

45N 8 23 And not only it, but ourselves also, who have the firstfruits of the Spirit, even we ourselves groan within ourselves, waiting for the adoption of the sons of God, the redemption of our body.

45N 8 24 For we are saved by hope. But hope that is seen, is not hope. For what a man seeth, why doth he hope for?

45N 8 25 But if we hope for that which we see not, we wait for it with patience.

45N 8 26 Likewise the Spirit also helpeth our infirmity. For we know not what we should pray for as we ought; but the Spirit himself asketh for us with unspeakable groanings.

45N 8 27 And he that searcheth the hearts, knoweth what the Spirit desireth; because he asketh for the saints according to God.

45N 8 28 And we know that to them that love God, all things work together unto good, to such as, according to his purpose, are called to be saints.

45N 8 29 For whom he foreknew, he also predestinated to be made conformable to the image of his Son; that he might be the firstborn amongst many brethren.

45N 8 30 And whom he predestinated, them he also called. And whom he called, them he also justified. And whom he justified, them he also glorified.

45N 8 31 What shall we then say to these things? If God be for us, who is against us?

45N 8 32 He that spared not even his own Son, but delivered him up for us all, how hath he not also, with him, given us all things?

45N 8 33 Who shall accuse against the elect of God? God that justifieth.

45N 8 34 Who is he that shall condemn? Christ Jesus that died, yea that is risen also again; who is at the right hand of God, who also maketh intercession for us.

45N 8 35 Who then shall separate us from the love of Christ? Shall tribulation? or distress? or famine? or nakedness? or danger? or persecution? or the sword?

45N 8 36 (As it is written: For thy sake we are put to death all the day long. We are accounted as sheep for the slaughter.)

45N 8 37 But in all these things we overcome, because of him that hath loved us.

45N 8 38 For I am sure that neither death, nor life, nor angels, nor principalities, nor powers, nor things present, nor things to come, nor might,

45N 8 39 Nor height, nor depth, nor any other creature, shall be able to separate us from the love of God, which is in Christ Jesus our Lord.

45N 9 1 And not only she. But when Rebecca also had conceived at once, of Isaac our father.

45N 9 11 For when the children were not yet born, nor had done any good or evil (that the purpose of God, according to election, might stand,)

45N 9 12 Not of works, but of him that calleth, it was said to her: The elder shall serve the younger.

45N 9 13 As it is written: Jacob I have loved, but Esau I have hated.

45N 9 14 What shall we say then? Is there injustice with God? God forbid.

45N 9 15 For he saith to Moses: I will have mercy on whom I will have mercy; and I will shew mercy to whom I will shew mercy.

45N 9 16 So then it is not of him that willeth, nor of him that runneth, but of God that sheweth mercy.

45N 9 17 For the scripture saith to Pharaoh: To this purpose have I raised thee, that I may shew my power in thee, and that my name may be declared throughout all the earth.

45N 9 18 Therefore he hath mercy on whom he will; and whom he will, he hardeneth.

45N 9 19 Thou wilt say therefore to me: Why doth he then find fault? for who resisteth his will?

45N 9 20 O man, who art thou that repliest against God? Shall the thing formed say to him that formed it: Why hast thou made me thus?

45N 9 21 Or hath not the potter power over the clay, of the same lump, to make one vessel unto honour, and another unto dishonour?

45N 9 22 What if God, willing to shew his wrath, and to make his power known, endured with much patience vessels of wrath, fitted for destruction, 45N 9 23 That he might shew the riches of his glory on the vessels of mercy, which he hath prepared unto glory?

45N 9 24 Even us, whom also he hath called, nor only of the Jews, but also of the Gentiles.

45N 9 25 As in Osee he saith: I will call that which was not my people, my people; and her that was not beloved, beloved; and her that had not obtained mercy, one that hath obtained mercy.

45N 9 26 And it shall be, in the place where it was said unto them, You are not my people; there they shall be called the sons of the living God.

45N 9 27 And Isaias crieth out concerning Israel: If the number of the children of Israel be as the sand of the sea, a remnant shall be saved.

45N 9 28 For he shall finish his word, and cut it short in justice; because a short word shall the Lord make upon the earth.

45N 9 29 And as Isaias foretold: Unless the Lord of Sabaoth had left us a seed, we had been made as Sodom, and we had been like unto Gomorrhah.

45N 9 30 What then shall we say? That the Gentiles, who followed not after justice, have attained to justice, even the justice that is of faith.

45N 9 31 But Israel, by following after the law of justice, is not come unto the law of justice.

45N 9 32 Why so? Because they sought it not by faith, but as it were of works. For they stumbled at the stumblingstone.

45N 9 33 As it is written: Behold I lay in Sion a stumblingstone and a rock of scandal; and whosoever believeth in him shall not be confounded.

45N 10 1 Brethren, the will of my heart, indeed, and my prayer to God, is for them unto salvation.

45N 10 2 For I bear them witness, that they have a zeal of God, but not according to knowledge.

45N 10 3 For they, not knowing the justice of God, and seeking to establish their own, have not submitted themselves to the justice of God.

45N 10 4 For the end of the law is Christ, unto justice to every one that believeth.

45N 10 5 For Moses wrote, that the justice which is of the law, the man that shall do it, shall live by it.

45N 10 6 But the justice which is of faith, speaketh thus: Say not in thy heart, Who shall ascend into heaven? that is, to bring Christ down;

45N 10 7 Or who shall descend into the deep? that is, to bring up Christ again from the dead.

45N 10 8 But what saith the scripture? The word is nigh thee, even in thy mouth, and in thy heart. This is the word of faith, which we preach.

45N 10 9 For if thou confess with thy mouth the Lord Jesus, and believe in thy heart that God hath raised him up from the dead, thou shalt be saved.

45N 10 10 For, with the heart, we believe unto justice; but, with the mouth, confession is made unto salvation.

45N 10 11 For the scripture saith: Whosoever believeth in him, shall not be confounded.

45N 10 12 For there is no distinction of the Jew and the Greek: for the same is Lord over all, rich unto all that call upon him.

45N 10 13 For whosoever shall call upon the name of the Lord, shall be saved.

45N 10 14 How then shall they call on him, in whom they have not believed? Or how shall they believe him, of whom they have not heard? And how shall they hear, without a preacher?

45N 10 15 And how shall they preach unless they be sent, as it is written: How beautiful are the feet of them that preach the gospel of peace, of them that bring glad tidings of good things!

45N 10 16 But all do not obey the gospel. For Isaias saith: Lord, who hath believed our report?

45N 10 17 Faith then cometh by hearing; and hearing by the word of Christ.

45N 10 18 But I say: Have they not heard? Yes, verily, their sound hath gone forth into all the earth, and their words unto the ends of the whole world.

45N 10 19 But I say: Hath not Israel known? First, Moses saith: I will provoke you to jealousy by that which is not a nation; by a foolish nation I will anger you.

45N 10 20 But Isaias is bold, and saith: I was found by them that did not seek me: I appeared openly to them that asked not after me.

45N 10 21 But to Israel he saith: All the day long have I spread my hands to a people that believeth not, and contradicteth me.

45N 11 1 Let their eyes be darkened, that they may not see: and bow down their back always.

45N 11 11 I say then, have they so stumbled, that they should fall? God forbid. But by their offence, salvation is come to the Gentiles, that they may be emulous of them.

45N 11 12 Now if the offence of them be the riches of the world, and the diminution of them, the riches of the Gentiles; how much more the fulness of them?

45N 11 13 For I say to you, Gentiles: as long indeed as I am the apostle of the Gentiles, I will honour my ministry, 45N 11 14 If, by any means, I may provoke to emulation them who are my flesh, and may save some of them.

45N 11 15 For if the loss of them be the reconciliation of the world, what shall the receiving of them be, but life from the dead?

45N 11 16 For if the firstfruit be holy, so is the lump also: and if the root be holy, so are the branches.

45N 11 17 And if some of the branches be broken, and thou, being a wild olive, art ingrafted in them, and art made partaker of the root, and of the fatness of the olive tree, 45N 11 18 Boast not against the branches. But if thou boast, thou bearest not the root, but the root thee.

45N 11 19 Thou wilt say then: The branches were broken off, that I might be grafted in.
 45N 11 20 Well: because of unbelief they were broken off. But thou standest by faith: be not highminded, but fear.
 45N 11 21 For if God hath not spared the natural branches, fear lest perhaps he also spare not thee.
 45N 11 22 See then the goodness and the severity of God: towards them indeed that are fallen, the severity; but towards thee, the goodness of God, if thou abide in goodness, otherwise thou also shalt be cut off.
 45N 11 23 And they also, if they abide not still in unbelief, shall be grafted in: for God is able to graft them in again.
 45N 11 24 For if thou wert cut out of the wild olive tree, which is natural to thee; and, contrary to nature, were grafted into the good olive tree; how much more shall they that are the natural branches, be grafted into their own olive tree?
 45N 11 25 For I would not have you ignorant, brethren, of this mystery, (lest you should be wise in your own conceits), that blindness in part has happened in Israel, until the fulness of the Gentiles should come in.
 45N 11 26 And so all Israel should be saved, as it is written: There shall come out of Sion, he that shall deliver, and shall turn away ungodliness from Jacob.
 45N 11 27 And this is to them my covenant: when I shall take away their sins.
 45N 11 28 As concerning the gospel, indeed, they are enemies for your sake: but as touching the election, they are most dear for the sake of the fathers.
 45N 11 29 For the gifts and the calling of God are without repentance.
 45N 11 30 For as you also in times past did not believe God, but now have obtained mercy, through their unbelief;
 45N 11 31 So these also now have not believed, for your mercy, that they also may obtain mercy.
 45N 11 32 For God hath concluded all in unbelief, that he may have mercy on all.
 45N 11 33 O the depth of the riches of the wisdom and of the knowledge of God! How incomprehensible are his judgments, and how unsearchable his ways!
 45N 11 34 For who hath known the mind of the Lord? Or who hath been his counsellor?
 45N 11 35 Or who hath first given to him, and recompense shall be made him?
 45N 11 36 For of him, and by him, and in him, are all things: to him be glory for ever.
 Amen.
 45N 12 1 I BESEECH you therefore, brethren, by the mercy of God, that you present your bodies a living sacrifice, holy, pleasing unto God, your reasonable service.
 45N 12 2 And be not conformed to this world; but be reformed in the newness of your mind, that you may prove what is the good, and the acceptable, and the perfect will of God.
 45N 12 3 For I say, by the grace that is given me, to all that are among you, not to be more wise than it behoveth to be wise, but to be wise unto sobriety, and according as God hath divided to every one the measure of faith.
 45N 12 4 For as in one body we have many members, but all the members have not the same office:
 45N 12 5 So we being many, are one body in Christ, and every one members one of another.
 45N 12 6 And having different gifts, according to the grace that is given us, either prophecy, to be used according to the rule of faith;
 45N 12 7 Or ministry, in ministering; or he that teacheth, in doctrine;
 45N 12 8 He that exhorteth, in exhorting; he that giveth, with simplicity; he that ruleth, with carefulness; he that sheweth mercy, with cheerfulness.
 45N 12 9 Let love be without dissimulation. Hating that which is evil, cleaving to that which is good.
 45N 12 10 Loving one another with the charity of brotherhood, with honour preventing one another.

- 45N 12 11 In carefulness not slothful. In spirit fervent. Serving the Lord.
- 45N 12 12 Rejoicing in hope. Patient in tribulation. Instant in prayer.
- 45N 12 13 Communicating to the necessities of the saints. Pursuing hospitality.
- 45N 12 14 Bless them that persecute you: bless, and curse not.
- 45N 12 15 Rejoice with them that rejoice; weep with them that weep.
- 45N 12 16 Being of one mind one towards another. Not minding high things, but consenting to the humble. Be not wise in your own conceits.
- 45N 12 17 To no man rendering evil for evil. Providing good things, not only in the sight of God, but also in the sight of all men.
- 45N 12 18 If it be possible, as much as is in you, have peace with all men.
- 45N 12 19 Revenge not yourselves, my dearly beloved; but give place unto wrath, for it is written: Revenge is mine, I will repay, saith the Lord.
- 45N 12 20 But if thy enemy be hungry, give him to eat; if he thirst, give him to drink. For, doing this, thou shalt heap coals of fire upon his head.
- 45N 12 21 Be not overcome by evil, but overcome evil by good.
- 45N 13 1 Let every soul be subject to higher powers: for there is no power but from God: and those that are, are ordained of God.
- 45N 13 2 Therefore he that resisteth the power, resisteth the ordinance of God. And they that resist, purchase to themselves damnation.
- 45N 13 3 For princes are not a terror to the good work, but to the evil. Wilt thou then not be afraid of the power? Do that which is good: and thou shalt have praise from the same.
- 45N 13 4 For he is God's minister to thee, for good. But if thou do that which is evil, fear: for he beareth not the sword in vain. For he is God's minister: an avenger to execute wrath upon him that doth evil.
- 45N 13 5 Wherefore be subject of necessity, not only for wrath, but also for conscience' sake.
- 45N 13 6 For therefore also you pay tribute. For they are the ministers of God, serving unto this purpose.
- 45N 13 7 Render therefore to all men their dues. Tribute, to whom tribute is due: custom, to whom custom: fear, to whom fear: honour, to whom honour.
- 45N 13 8 Owe no man any thing, but to love one another. For he that loveth his neighbour, hath fulfilled the law.
- 45N 13 9 For Thou shalt not commit adultery: Thou shalt not kill: Thou shalt not steal, Thou shalt not bear false witness: Thou shalt not covet: and if there be any other commandment, it is comprised in this word, Thou shalt love thy neighbour as thyself.
- 45N 13 10 The love of our neighbour worketh no evil. Love therefore is the fulfilling of the law.
- 45N 13 11 And that knowing the season; that it is now the hour for us to rise from sleep. For now our salvation is nearer than when we believed.
- 45N 13 12 The night is passed, and the day is at hand. Let us therefore cast off the works of darkness, and put on the armour of light.
- 45N 13 13 Let us walk honestly, as in the day: not in rioting and drunkenness, not in chambering and impurities, not in contention and envy:
- 45N 13 14 But put ye on the Lord Jesus Christ, and make not provision for the flesh in its concupiscences.
- 45N 14 1 Now him that is weak in faith, take unto you: not in disputes about thoughts.
- 45N 14 2 For one believeth that he may eat all things: but he that is weak, let him eat herbs.
- 45N 14 3 Let not him that eateth, despise him that eateth not: and he that eateth not, let him not judge him that eateth. For God hath taken him to him.
- 45N 14 4 Who art thou that judgest another man's servant? To his own lord he standeth or falleth. And he shall stand: for God is able to make him stand.

45N 14 5 For one judgeth between day and day: and another judgeth every day: let every man abound in his own sense.

45N 14 6 He that regardeth the day, regardeth it unto the Lord. And he that eateth, eateth to the Lord: for he giveth thanks to God. And he that eateth not, to the Lord he eateth not, and giveth thanks to God.

45N 14 7 For none of us liveth to himself; and no man dieth to himself.

45N 14 8 For whether we live, we live unto the Lord; or whether we die, we die unto the Lord. Therefore, whether we live, or whether we die, we are the Lord's.

45N 14 9 For to this end Christ died and rose again; that he might be Lord both of the dead and of the living.

45N 14 10 But thou, why judgest thou thy brother? or thou, why dost thou despise thy brother? For we shall all stand before the judgment seat of Christ.

45N 14 11 For it is written: As I live, saith the Lord, every knee shall bow to me, and every tongue shall confess to God.

45N 14 12 Therefore every one of us shall render account to God for himself.

45N 14 13 Let us not therefore judge one another any more. But judge this rather, that you put not a stumblingblock or a scandal in your brother's way.

45N 14 14 I know, and am confident in the Lord Jesus, that nothing is unclean of itself; but to him that esteemeth any thing to be unclean, to him it is unclean.

45N 14 15 For if, because of thy meat, thy brother be grieved, thou walkest not now according to charity. Destroy not him with thy meat, for whom Christ died.

45N 14 16 Let not then our good be evil spoken of.

45N 14 17 For the kingdom of God is not meat and drink; but justice, and peace, and joy in the Holy Ghost.

45N 14 18 For he that in this serveth Christ, pleaseth God, and is approved of men.

45N 14 19 Therefore let us follow after the things that are of peace; and keep the things that are of edification one towards another.

45N 14 20 Destroy not the work of God for meat. All things indeed are clean: but it is evil for that man who eateth with offence.

45N 14 21 It is good not to eat flesh, and not to drink wine, nor any thing whereby thy brother is offended, or scandalized, or made weak.

45N 14 22 Hast thou faith? Have it to thyself before God. Blessed is he that condemneth not himself in that which he alloweth.

45N 14 23 But he that discerneth, if he eat, is condemned; because not of faith. For all that is not of faith is sin.

45N 15 1 Now we that are stronger, ought to bear the infirmities of the weak, and not to please ourselves.

45N 15 2 Let every one of you please his neighbour unto good, to edification.

45N 15 3 For Christ did not please himself, but as it is written: The reproaches of them that reproached thee, fell upon me.

45N 15 4 For what things soever were written, were written for our learning: that through patience and the comfort of the scriptures, we might have hope.

45N 15 5 Now the God of patience and of comfort grant you to be of one mind one towards another, according to Jesus Christ:

45N 15 6 That with one mind, and with one mouth, you may glorify God and the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ.

45N 15 7 Wherefore receive one another, as Christ also hath received you unto the honour of God.

45N 15 8 For I say that Christ Jesus was minister of the circumcision for the truth of God, to confirm the promises made unto the fathers.

45N 15 9 But that the Gentiles are to glorify God for his mercy, as it is written:

Therefore will I confess to thee, O Lord, among the Gentiles, and will sing to thy name.

45N 15 10 And again he saith: Rejoice, ye Gentiles, with his people.

45N 15 11 And again: Praise the Lord, all ye Gentiles; and magnify him, all ye people.

45N 15 12 And again Isaias saith: There shall be a root of Jesse; and he that shall rise up to rule the Gentiles, in him the Gentiles shall hope.

45N 15 13 Now the God of hope fill you with all joy and peace in believing; that you may abound in hope, and in the power of the Holy Ghost.

45N 15 14 And I myself also, my brethren, am assured of you, that you also are full of love, replenished with all knowledge, so that you are able to admonish one another.

45N 15 15 But I have written to you, brethren, more boldly in some sort, as it were putting you in mind: because of the grace which is given me from God.

45N 15 16 That I should be the minister of Christ Jesus among the Gentiles; sanctifying the gospel of God, that the oblation of the Gentiles may be made acceptable and sanctified in the Holy Ghost.

45N 15 17 I have therefore glory in Christ Jesus towards God.

45N 15 18 For I dare not to speak of any of those things which Christ worketh not by me, for the obedience of the Gentiles, by word and deed, 45N 15 19 By the virtue of signs and wonders, in the power of the Holy Ghost, so that from Jerusalem round about as far as unto Illyricum, I have replenished the gospel of Christ.

45N 15 20 And I have so preached this gospel, not where Christ was named, lest I should build upon another man's foundation.

45N 15 21 But as it is written: They to whom he was not spoken of, shall see, and they that have not heard shall understand.

45N 15 22 For which cause also I was hindered very much from coming to you, and have been kept away till now.

45N 15 23 But now having no more place in these countries, and having a great desire these many years past to come unto you,

45N 15 24 When I shall begin to take my journey into Spain, I hope that as I pass, I shall see you, and be brought on my way thither by you, if first, in part, I shall have enjoyed you:

45N 15 25 But now I shall go to Jerusalem, to minister unto the saints.

45N 15 26 For it hath pleased them of Macedonia and Achaia to make a contribution for the poor of the saints that are in Jerusalem.

45N 15 27 For it hath pleased them; and they are their debtors. For if the Gentiles have been made partakers of their spiritual things, they ought also in carnal things to minister to them.

45N 15 28 When therefore I shall have accomplished this, and consigned to them this fruit, I will come by you into Spain.

45N 15 29 And I know, that when I come to you, I shall come in the abundance of the blessing of the gospel of Christ.

45N 15 30 I beseech you therefore, brethren, through our Lord Jesus Christ, and by the charity of the Holy Ghost, that you help me in your prayers for me to God, 45N 15 31 That I may be delivered from the unbelievers that are in Judea, and that the oblation of my service may be acceptable in Jerusalem to the saints.

45N 15 32 That I may come to you with joy, by the will of God, and may be refreshed with you.

45N 15 33 Now the God of peace be with you all. Amen.

45N 16 1 And I commend to you Phebe, our sister, who is in the ministry of the church, that is in Cenchrae:

45N 16 2 That you receive her in the Lord as becometh saints; and that you assist her in whatsoever business she shall have need of you. For she also hath assisted many, and myself also.

45N 16 3 Salute Prisca and Aquila, my helpers in Christ Jesus,

45N 16 4 (Who have for my life laid down their own necks: to whom not I only give thanks, but also all the churches of the Gentiles,)

45N 16 5 And the church which is in their house. Salute Epenetus, my beloved: who is the firstfruits of Asia in Christ.
 45N 16 6 Salute Mary, who hath laboured much among you.
 45N 16 7 Salute Andronicus and Junias, my kinsmen and fellow prisoners: who are of note among the apostles, who also were in Christ before me.
 45N 16 8 Salute Ampliatus, most beloved to me in the Lord.
 45N 16 9 Salute Urbanus, our helper in Christ Jesus, and Stachys, my beloved.
 45N 16 10 Salute Apelles, approved in Christ.
 45N 16 11 Salute them that are of Aristobulus' household. Salute Herodian, my kinsman. Salute them that are of Narcissus' household, who are in the Lord.
 45N 16 12 Salute Tryphaena and Tryphosa, who labour in the Lord. Salute Persis, the dearly beloved, who hath much laboured in the Lord.
 45N 16 13 Salute Rufus, elect in the Lord, and his mother and mine.
 45N 16 14 Salute Asyncritus, Phlegon, Hermas, Patrobas, Hermes, and the brethren that are with them.
 45N 16 15 Salute Philologus and Julia, Nereus and his sister, and Olympias; and all the saints that are with them.
 45N 16 16 Salute one another with an holy kiss. All the churches of Christ salute you.
 45N 16 17 Now I beseech you, brethren, to mark them who make dissensions and offences contrary to the doctrine which you have learned, and avoid them.
 45N 16 18 For they that are such, serve not Christ our Lord, but their own belly; and by pleasing speeches and good words, seduce the hearts of the innocent.
 45N 16 19 For your obedience is published in every place. I rejoice therefore in you. But I would have you to be wise in good, and simple in evil.
 45N 16 20 And the God of peace crush Satan under your feet speedily. The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you.
 45N 16 21 Timothy, my fellow labourer, saluteth you, and Lucius, and Jason, and Sosipater, my kinsmen.
 45N 16 22 I Tertius, who wrote this epistle, salute you in the Lord.
 45N 16 23 Caius, my host, and the whole church, saluteth you. Erastus, the treasurer of the city, saluteth you, and Quartus, a brother.
 45N 16 24 The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you all. Amen.
 45N 16 25 Now to him that is able to establish you, according to my gospel, and the preaching of Jesus Christ, according to the revelation of the mystery, which was kept secret from eternity,
 45N 16 26 (Which now is made manifest by the scriptures of the prophets, according to the precept of the eternal God, for the obedience of faith,) known among all nations;
 45N 16 27 To God the only wise, through Jesus Christ, to whom be honour and glory for ever and ever. Amen.
 46N 1 1 Paul, called to be an apostle of Jesus Christ by the will of God, and Sosthenes a brother, 46N 1 2 To the church of God that is at Corinth, to them that are sanctified in Christ Jesus, called to be saints, with all that invoke the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, in every place of theirs and ours.
 46N 1 3 Grace to you, and peace from God our Father, and from the Lord Jesus Christ.
 46N 1 4 I give thanks to my God always for you, for the grace of God that is given you in Christ Jesus,
 46N 1 5 That in all things you are made rich in him, in all utterance, and in all knowledge;
 46N 1 6 As the testimony of Christ was confirmed in you,
 46N 1 7 So that nothing is wanting to you in any grace, waiting for the manifestation of our Lord Jesus Christ.

46N 1 8 Who also will confirm you unto the end without crime, in the day of the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ.

46N 1 9 God is faithful: by whom you are called unto the fellowship of his Son Jesus Christ our Lord.

46N 1 10 Now I beseech you, brethren, by the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, that you all speak the same thing, and that there be no schisms among you; but that you be perfect in the same mind, and in the same judgment.

46N 1 11 For it hath been signified unto me, my brethren, of you, by them that are of the house of Chloe, that there are contentions among you.

46N 1 12 Now this I say, that every one of you saith: I indeed am of Paul; and I am of Apollo; and I am of Cephas; and I of Christ.

46N 1 13 Is Christ divided? Was Paul then crucified for you? or were you baptized in the name of Paul?

46N 1 14 I give God thanks, that I baptized none of you but Crispus and Caius; 46N 1 15 Lest any should say that you were baptized in my name.

46N 1 16 And I baptized also the household of Stephanus; besides, I know not whether I baptized any other.

46N 1 17 For Christ sent me not to baptize, but to preach the gospel: not in wisdom of speech, lest the cross of Christ should be made void.

46N 1 18 For the word of the cross, to them indeed that perish, is foolishness; but to them that are saved, that is, to us, it is the power of God.

46N 1 19 For it is written: I will destroy the wisdom of the wise, and the prudence of the prudent I will reject.

46N 1 20 Where is the wise? Where is the scribe? Where is the disputer of this world? Hath not God made foolish the wisdom of this world?

46N 1 21 For seeing that in the wisdom of God the world, by wisdom, knew not God, it pleased God, by the foolishness of our preaching, to save them that believe.

46N 1 22 For both the Jews require signs, and the Greeks seek after wisdom:

46N 1 23 But we preach Christ crucified, unto the Jews indeed a stumblingblock, and unto the Gentiles foolishness:

46N 1 24 But unto them that are called, both Jews and Greeks, Christ the power of God, and the wisdom of God.

46N 1 25 For the foolishness of God is wiser than men; and the weakness of God is stronger than men.

46N 1 26 For see your vocation, brethren, that there are not many wise according to the flesh, not many mighty, not many noble:

46N 1 27 But the foolish things of the world hath God chosen, that he may confound the wise; and the weak things of the world hath God chosen, that he may confound the strong.

46N 1 28 And the base things of the world, and the things that are contemptible, hath God chosen, and things that are not, that he might bring to nought things that are:

46N 1 29 That no flesh should glory in his sight.

46N 1 30 But of him are you in Christ Jesus, who of God is made unto us wisdom, and justice, and sanctification, and redemption:

46N 1 31 That, as it is written: He that glorieth, may glory in the Lord.

46N 2 1 And I, brethren, when I came to you, came not in loftiness of speech or of wisdom, declaring unto you the testimony of Christ.

46N 2 2 For I judged not myself to know anything among you, but Jesus Christ, and him crucified.

46N 2 3 And I was with you in weakness, and in fear, and in much trembling.

46N 2 4 And my speech and my preaching was not in the persuasive words of human wisdom, but in shewing of the Spirit and power;

46N 2 5 That your faith might not stand on the wisdom of men, but on the power of God.

46N 2 6 Howbeit we speak wisdom among the perfect: yet not the wisdom of this world, neither of the princes of this world that come to nought;

46N 2 7 But we speak the wisdom of God in a mystery, a wisdom which is hidden, which God ordained before the world, unto our glory :

46N 2 8 Which none of the princes of this world knew; for if they had known it, they would never have crucified the Lord of glory.

46N 2 9 But, as it is written: That eye hath not seen, nor ear heard, neither hath it entered into the heart of man, what things God hath prepared for them that love him.

46N 2 10 But to us God hath revealed them, by this Spirit. For the Spirit searcheth all things, yea, the deep things of God.

46N 2 11 For what man knoweth the things of a man, but the spirit of a man that is in him? So the things also that are of God no man knoweth, but the Spirit of God.

46N 2 12 Now we have received not the spirit of this world, but the Spirit that is of God; that we may know the things that are given us from God.

46N 2 13 Which things also we speak, not in the learned words of human wisdom; but in the doctrine of the Spirit, comparing spiritual things with spiritual.

46N 2 14 But the sensual man perceiveth not these things that are of the Spirit of God; for it is foolishness to him, and he cannot understand, because it is spiritually examined.

46N 2 15 But the spiritual man judgeth all things; and he himself is judged of no man.

46N 2 16 For who hath known the mind of the Lord, that we may instruct him? But we have the mind of Christ.

46N 3 1 And I, brethren, could not speak to you as unto spiritual, but as unto carnal. As unto little ones in Christ.

46N 3 2 I gave you milk to drink, not meat; for you were not able as yet. But neither indeed are you now able; for you are yet carnal.

46N 3 3 For, whereas there is among you envying and contention, are you not carnal, and walk according to man ?

46N 3 4 For while one saith, I indeed am of Paul; and another, I am of Apollo; are you not men ? What then is Apollo, and what is Paul?

46N 3 5 The ministers of him whom you have believed; and to every one as the Lord hath given.

46N 3 6 I have planted, Apollo watered, but God gave the increase.

46N 3 7 Therefore, neither he that planteth is any thing, nor he that watereth; but God that giveth the increase.

46N 3 8 Now he that planteth, and he that watereth, ate one. And every man shall receive his own reward, according to his own labour.

46N 3 9 For we are God's coadjutors: you are God's husbandry; you are God's building.

46N 3 10 According to the grace of God that is given to me, as a wise architect, I have laid the foundation; and another buildeth thereon. But let every man take heed how he buildeth thereupon.

46N 3 11 For other foundation no man can lay, but that which is laid; which is Christ Jesus.

46N 3 12 Now if any man build upon this foundation, gold, silver, precious stones, wood, hay, stubble:

46N 3 13 Every man's work shall be manifest; for the day of the Lord shall declare it, because it shall be revealed in fire; and the fire shall try every man's work, of what sort it is.

46N 3 14 If any man's work abide, which he hath built thereupon, he shall receive a reward.

46N 3 15 If any man's work burn, he shall suffer loss; but he himself shall be saved, yet so as by fire.

46N 3 16 Know you not, that you are the temple of God, and that the Spirit of God dwelleth in you ?

46N 3 17 But if any man violate the temple of God, him shall God destroy. For the temple of God is holy, which you are.

46N 3 18 Let no man deceive himself: if any man among you seem to be wise in this world, let him become a fool, that he may be wise.

46N 3 19 For the wisdom of this world is foolishness with God. For it is written: I will catch the wise in their own craftiness.

46N 3 20 And again: The Lord knoweth the thoughts of the wise, that they are vain.

46N 3 21 Let no man therefore glory in men.

46N 3 22 For all things are yours, whether it be Paul, or Apollo, or Cephas, or the world, or life, or death, or things present, or things to some; for all are yours;

46N 3 23 And you are Christ's; and Christ is God's.

46N 4 1 Let a man so account of us as of the ministers of Christ, and the dispensers of the mysteries of God.

46N 4 2 Here now it is required among the dispensers, that a man be found faithful.

46N 4 3 But to me it is a very small thing to be judged by you, or by man's day; but neither do I judge my own self.

46N 4 4 For I am not conscious to myself of any thing, yet am I not hereby justified; but he that judgeth me, is the Lord.

46N 4 5 Therefore judge not before the time; until the Lord come, who both will bring to light the hidden things of darkness, and will make manifest the counsels of the hearts; and then shall every man have praise from God.

46N 4 6 But these things, brethren, I have in a figure transferred to myself and to Apollo, for your sakes; that in us you may learn, that one be not puffed up against the other for another, above that which is written.

46N 4 7 For who distinguisheth thee ? Or what hast thou that thou hast not received ? And if thou hast received, why dost thou glory, as if thou hadst not received it ?

46N 4 8 You are now full; you are now become rich; you reign without us; and I would to God you did reign, that we also might reign with you.

46N 4 9 For I think that God hath set forth us apostles, the last, as it were men appointed to death: we are made a spectacle to the world, and to angels, and to men.

46N 4 10 We are fools for Christ's sake, but you are wise in Christ; we are weak, but you are strong; you are honourable, but we without honour.

46N 4 11 Even unto this hour we both hunger and thirst, and are naked, and are buffeted, and have no fixed abode;

46N 4 12 And we labour, working with our own hands: we are reviled, and we bless; we are persecuted, and we suffer it.

46N 4 13 We are blasphemed, and we entreat; we are made as the refuse of this world, the offscouring of all even until now.

46N 4 14 I write not these things to confound you; but I admonish you as my dearest children.

46N 4 15 For if you have ten thousand instructors in Christ, yet not many fathers. For in Christ Jesus, by the gospel, I have begotten you.

46N 4 16 Wherefore I beseech you, be ye followers of me, as I also am of Christ.

46N 4 17 For this cause have I sent to you Timothy, who is my dearest son and faithful in the Lord; who will put you in mind of my ways, which are in Christ Jesus; as I teach every where in every church.

46N 4 18 As if I would not come to you, so some are puffed up.

46N 4 19 But I will come to you shortly, if the Lord will: and will know, not the speech of them that are puffed up, but the power.

46N 4 20 For the kingdom of God is not in speech, but in power.

46N 4 21 What will you ? shall I come to you with a rod; or in charity, and in the spirit of meekness ?

46N 5 1 It is absolutely heard, that there is fornication among you, and such fornication as the like is not among the heathens; that one should have his father's wife.

46N 5 2 And you are puffed up; and have not rather mourned, that he might be taken away from among you, that hath done this deed.

46N 5 3 I indeed, absent in body, but present in spirit, have already judged, as though I were present, him that hath so done,

46N 5 4 In the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, you being gathered together, and my spirit, with the power of our Lord Jesus;

46N 5 5 To deliver such a one to Satan for the destruction of the flesh, that the spirit may be saved in the day of our Lord Jesus Christ.

46N 5 6 Your glorying is not good. Know you not that a little leaven corrupteth the whole lump ?

46N 5 7 Purge out the old leaven, that you may be a new paste, as you are unleavened. For Christ our pasch is sacrificed.

46N 5 8 Therefore let us feast, not with the old leaven, nor with the leaven of malice and wickedness; but with the unleavened bread of sincerity and truth.

46N 5 9 I wrote to you in an epistle, not to keep company with fornicators.

46N 5 10 I mean not with the fornicators of this world, or with the covetous, or the extortioners, or the servers of idols; otherwise you must needs go out of this world.

46N 5 11 But now I have written to you, not to keep company, if any man that is named a brother, be a fornicator, or covetous, or a server of idols, or a railer, or a drunkard, or an extortioner: with such a one, not so much as to eat.

46N 5 12 For what have I to do to judge them that are without ? Do not you judge them that are within ?

46N 5 13 For them that are without, God will judge. Put away the evil one from among yourselves.

46N 6 1 Dare any of you, having a matter against another, go to be judged before the unjust, and not before the saints ?

46N 6 2 Know you not that the saints shall judge this world ? And if the world shall be judged by you, are you unworthy to judge the smallest matters ?

46N 6 3 Know you not that we shall judge angels ? how much more things of this world ?

46N 6 4 If therefore you have judgments of things pertaining to this world, set them to judge, who are the most despised in the church.

46N 6 5 I speak to your shame. Is it so that there is not among you any one wise man, that is able to judge between his brethren ?

46N 6 6 But brother goeth to law with brother, and that before unbelievers.

46N 6 7 Already indeed there is plainly a fault among you, that you have lawsuits one with another. Why do you not rather take wrong? Why do you not rather suffer yourselves to be defrauded?

46N 6 8 But you do wrong and defraud, and that to your brethren.

46N 6 9 Know you not that the unjust shall not possess the kingdom of God? Do not err: neither fornicators, nor idolaters, nor adulterers, 46N 6 10 Nor the effeminate, nor liars with mankind, nor thieves, nor covetous, nor drunkards, nor railers, nor extortioners, shall possess the kingdom of God.

46N 6 11 And such some of you were; but you are washed, but you are sanctified, but you are justified in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, and the Spirit of our God.

46N 6 12 All things are lawful to me, but all things are not expedient. All things are lawful to me, but I will not be brought under the power of any.

46N 6 13 Meat for the belly, and the belly for the meats; but God shall destroy both it and them: but the body is not for fornication, but for the Lord, and the Lord for the body.

46N 6 14 Now God hath both raised up the Lord, and will raise us up also by his power.

46N 6 15 Know you not that your bodies are the members of Christ ? Shall I then take the members of Christ, and make them the members of an harlot ? God forbid.

46N 6 16 Or know you not, that he who is joined to a harlot, is made one body ? For they shall be, saith he, two in one flesh.

46N 6 17 But he who is joined to the Lord, is one spirit.

46N 6 18 Fly fornication. Every sin that a man doth, is without the body; but he that committeth fornication, sinneth against his own body.

46N 6 19 Or know you not, that your members are the temple of the Holy Ghost, who is in you, whom you have from God; and you are not your own ?

46N 6 20 For you are bought with a great price. Glorify and bear God in your body.

46N 7 1 Now concerning the thing whereof you wrote to me: It is good for a man not to touch a woman.

46N 7 2 But for fear of fornication, let every man have his own wife, and let every woman have her own husband.

46N 7 3 Let the husband render the debt to his wife, and the wife also in like manner to the husband.

46N 7 4 The wife hath not power of her own body, but the husband. And in like manner the husband also hath not power of his own body, but the wife.

46N 7 5 Defraud not one another, except, perhaps, by consent, for a time, that you may give yourselves to prayer; and return together again, lest Satan tempt you for your incontinency.

46N 7 6 But I speak this by indulgence, not by commandment.

46N 7 7 For I would that all men were even as myself: but every one hath his proper gift from God; one after this manner, and another after that.

46N 7 8 But I say to the unmarried, and to the widows: It is good for them if they so continue, even as I.

46N 7 9 But if they do not contain themselves, let them marry. For it is better to marry than to be burnt.

46N 7 10 But to them that are married, not I but the Lord commandeth, that the wife depart not from her husband.

46N 7 11 And if she depart, that she remain unmarried, or be reconciled to her husband. And let not the husband put away his wife.

46N 7 12 For to the rest I speak, not the Lord. If any brother hath a wife that believeth not, and she consent to dwell with him, let him not put her away.

46N 7 13 And if any woman hath a husband that believeth not, and he consent to dwell with her, let her not put away her husband.

46N 7 14 For the unbelieving husband is sanctified by the believing wife; and the unbelieving wife is sanctified by the believing husband: otherwise your children should be unclean; but now they are holy.

46N 7 15 But if the unbeliever depart, let him depart. For a brother or sister is not under servitude in such cases. But God hath called us in peace.

46N 7 16 For how knowest thou, O wife, whether thou shalt save thy husband ? Or how knowest thou, O man, whether thou shalt save thy wife ?

46N 7 17 But as the Lord hath distributed to every one, as God hath called every one, so let him walk: and so in all churches I teach.

46N 7 18 Is any man called, being circumcised ? let him not procure uncircumcision. Is any man called in uncircumcision ? let him not be circumcised.

46N 7 19 Circumcision is nothing, and uncircumcision is nothing: but the observance of the commandments of God.

46N 7 20 Let every man abide in the same calling in which he was called.

46N 7 21 Wast thou called, being a bondman ? care not for it; but if thou mayest be made free, use it rather.

46N 7 22 For he that is called in the Lord, being a bondman, is the freeman of the Lord. Likewise he that is called, being free, is the bondman of Christ.

46N 7 23 You are bought with a price; be not made the bondslaves of men.

46N 7 24 Brethren, let every man, wherein he was called, therein abide with God.

46N 7 25 Now concerning virgins, I have no commandment of the Lord; but I give counsel, as having obtained mercy of the Lord, to be faithful.

46N 7 26 I think therefore that this is good for the present necessity, that it is good for a man so to be.

46N 7 27 Art thou bound to a wife ? seek not to be loosed. Art thou loosed from a wife ? seek not a wife.

46N 7 28 But if thou take a wife, thou hast not sinned. And if a virgin marry, she hath not sinned: nevertheless, such shall have tribulation of the flesh. But I spare you.

46N 7 29 This therefore I say, brethren; the time is short; it remaineth, that they also who have wives, be as if they had none;

46N 7 30 And they that weep, as though they wept not; and they that rejoice, as if they rejoiced not; and they that buy, as though they possessed not;

46N 7 31 And they that use this world, as if they used it not: for the fashion of this world passeth away.

46N 7 32 But I would have you to be without solicitude. He that is without a wife, is solicitous for the things that belong to the Lord, how he may please God.

46N 7 33 But he that is with a wife, is solicitous for the things of the world, how he may please his wife: and he is divided.

46N 7 34 And the unmarried woman and the virgin thinketh on the things of the Lord, that she may be holy both in body and in spirit. But she that is married thinketh on the things of the world, how she may please her husband.

46N 7 35 And this I speak for your profit: not to cast a snare upon you; but for that which is decent, and which may give you power to attend upon the Lord, without impediment.

46N 7 36 But if any man think that he seemeth dishonoured, with regard to his virgin, for that she is above the age, and it must so be: let him do what he will; he sinneth not, if she marry.

46N 7 37 For he that hath determined being steadfast in his heart, having no necessity, but having power of his own will; and hath judged this in his heart, to keep his virgin, doth well.

46N 7 38 Therefore, both he that giveth his virgin in marriage, doth well; and he that giveth her not, doth better.

46N 7 39 A woman is bound by the law as long as her husband liveth; but if her husband die, she is at liberty: let her marry to whom she will; only in the Lord.

46N 7 40 But more blessed shall she be, if she so remain, according to my counsel; and I think that I also have the spirit of God.

46N 8 1 Now concerning those things that are sacrificed to idols, we know that we all have knowledge. Knowledge puffeth up; but charity edifieth.

46N 8 2 And if any man think that he knoweth any thing, he hath not yet known as he ought to know.

46N 8 3 But if any any love God, the same is known by him.

46N 8 4 But as for the meats that are sacrificed to idols, we know that an idol is nothing in the world, and that there is no God but one.

46N 8 5 For although there be that are called gods, either in heaven or on earth (for there be gods many, and lords many);

46N 8 6 Yet to us there is but one God, the Father, of whom are all things, and we unto him; and one Lord Jesus Christ, by whom are all things, and we by him.

46N 8 7 But there is not knowledge in every one. For some until this present, with conscience of the idol: eat as a thing sacrificed to an idol, and their conscience, being weak, is defiled.

46N 8 8 But meat doth not commend us to God. For neither, if we eat, shall we have the more; nor, if we eat not, shall we have the less.

46N 8 9 But take heed lest perhaps this your liberty become a stumblingblock to the weak.

46N 8 10 For if a man see him that hath knowledge sit at meat in the idol's temple, shall not his conscience, being weak, be emboldened to eat those things which are sacrificed to idols ?

46N 8 11 And through thy knowledge shall the weak brother perish, for whom Christ hath died ?

46N 8 12 Now when you sin thus against the brethren, and wound their weak conscience, you sin against Christ.

46N 8 13 Wherefore, if meat scandalize my brother, I will never eat flesh, lest I should scandalize my brother.

46N 9 1 Am not I free? Am not I an apostle? Have not I seen Christ Jesus our Lord? Are not you my work in the Lord?

46N 9 2 And if unto others I be not an apostle, but yet to you I am. For you are the seal of my apostleship in the Lord.

46N 9 3 My defence with them that do examine me is this.

46N 9 4 Have not we power to eat and to drink?

46N 9 5 Have we not power to carry about a woman, a sister, as well as the rest of the apostles, and the brethren of the Lord, and Cephas?

46N 9 6 Or I only and Barnabas, have not we power to do this?

46N 9 7 Who serveth as a soldier at any time, at his own charges? Who planteth a vineyard, and eateth not of the fruit thereof? Who feedeth the flock, and eateth not of the milk of the flock?

46N 9 8 Speak I these things according to man? Or doth not the law also say these things?

46N 9 9 For it is written in the law of Moses: Thou shalt not muzzle the mouth of the ox that treadeth out the corn. Doth God take care for oxen?

46N 9 10 Or doth he say this indeed for our sakes? For these things are written for our sakes: that he that plougheth, should plough in hope; and he that thrasheth, in hope to receive fruit.

46N 9 11 If we have sown unto you spiritual things, is it a great matter if we reap your carnal things?

46N 9 12 If others be partakers of this power over you, why not we rather? Nevertheless, we have not used this power: but we bear all things, lest we should give any hindrance to the gospel of Christ.

46N 9 13 Know you not, that they who work in the holy place, eat the things that are of the holy place; and they that serve the altar, partake with the altar?

46N 9 14 So also the Lord ordained that they who preach the gospel, should live by the gospel.

46N 9 15 But I have used none of these things. Neither have I written these things, that they should be so done unto me: for it is good for me to die, rather than that any man should make my glory void.

46N 9 16 For if I preach the gospel, it is no glory to me, for a necessity lieth upon me: for woe is unto me if I preach not the gospel.

46N 9 17 For if I do this thing willingly, I have a reward: but if against my will, a dispensation is committed to me:

46N 9 18 What is my reward then? That preaching the gospel, I may deliver the gospel without charge, that I abuse not my power in the gospel.

46N 9 19 For whereas I was free as to all, I made myself the servant of all, that I might gain the more.

46N 9 20 And I became to the Jews, a Jew, that I might gain the Jews:

46N 9 21 To them that are under the law, as if I were under the law, (whereas myself was not under the law,) that I might gain them that were under the law. To them that were without the law, as if I were without the law, (whereas I was not without the law of God, but was in the law of Christ,) that I might gain them that were without the law.

46N 9 22 To the weak I became weak, that I might gain the weak. I became all things to all men, that I might save all.

46N 9 23 And I do all things for the gospel's sake: that I may be made partaker thereof.

46N 9 24 Know you not that they that run in the race, all run indeed, but one receiveth the prize ? So run that you may obtain.

46N 9 25 And every one that striveth for the mastery, refraineth himself from all things: and they indeed that they may receive a corruptible crown; but we an incorruptible one.

46N 9 26 I therefore so run, not as at an uncertainty: I so fight, not as one beating the air:

46N 9 27 But I chastise my body, and bring it into subjection: lest perhaps, when I have preached to others, I myself should become a castaway.

46N 10 1 For I would not have you ignorant, brethren, that our fathers were all under the cloud, and all passed through the sea.

46N 10 2 And all in Moses were baptized, in the cloud, and in the sea:

46N 10 3 And did all eat the same spiritual food,

46N 10 4 And all drank the same spiritual drink; (and they drank of the spiritual rock that followed them, and the rock was Christ.)

46N 10 5 But with most of them God was not well pleased: for they were overthrown in the desert.

46N 10 6 Now these things were done in a figure of us, that we should not covet evil things as they also coveted.

46N 10 7 Neither become ye idolaters, as some of them, as it is written: The people sat down to eat and drink, and rose up to play.

46N 10 8 Neither let us commit fornication, as some of them committed fornication, and there fell in one day three and twenty thousand.

46N 10 9 Neither let us tempt Christ: as some of them tempted, and perished by the serpents.

46N 10 10 Neither do you murmur: as some of them murmured, and were destroyed by the destroyer.

46N 10 11 Now all these things happened to them in figure: and they are written for our correction, upon whom the ends of the world are come.

46N 10 12 Wherefore he that thinketh himself to stand, let him take heed lest he fall.

46N 10 13 Let no temptation take hold on you, but such as is human. And God is faithful, who will not suffer you to be tempted above that which you are able: but will make also with temptation issue, that you may be able to bear it.

46N 10 14 Wherefore, my dearly beloved, fly from the service of idols.

46N 10 15 I speak as to wise men: judge ye yourselves what I say.

46N 10 16 The chalice of benediction, which we bless, is it not the communion of the blood of Christ ? And the bread, which we break, is it not the partaking of the body of the Lord ?

46N 10 17 For we, being many, are one bread, one body, all that partake of one bread.

46N 10 18 Behold Israel according to the flesh: are not they, that eat of the sacrifices, partakers of the altar ?

46N 10 19 What then ? Do I say, that what is offered in sacrifice to idols, is any thing ? Or, that the idol is any thing ?

46N 10 20 But the things which the heathens sacrifice, they sacrifice to devils, and not to God. And I would not that you should be made partakers with devils.

46N 10 21 You cannot drink the chalice of the Lord, and the chalice of devils: you cannot be partakers of the table of the Lord, and of the table of devils.

46N 10 22 Do we provoke the Lord to jealousy ? Are we stronger than he? All things are lawful for me, but all things are not expedient.
 46N 10 23 All things are lawful for me, but all things do not edify.
 46N 10 24 Let no man seek his own, but that which is another's.
 46N 10 25 Whatsoever is sold in the shambles, eat; asking no question for conscience' sake.
 46N 10 26 The earth is the Lord's, and the fulness thereof.
 46N 10 27 If any of them that believe not, invite you, and you will be willing to go; eat of any thing that is set before you, asking no question for conscience' sake.
 46N 10 28 But if any man say: This has been sacrificed to idols, do not eat of it for his sake that told it, and for conscience' sake.
 46N 10 29 Conscience, I say, not thy own, but the other's. For why is my liberty judged by another man's conscience ?
 46N 10 30 If I partake with thanksgiving, why am I evil spoken of, for that for which I give thanks ?
 46N 10 31 Therefore, whether you eat or drink, or whatsoever else you do, do all to the glory of God.
 46N 10 32 Be without offence to the Jews, and to the Gentiles, and to the church of God:
 46N 10 33 As I also in all things please all men, not seeking that which is profitable to myself, but to many, that may be saved.
 46N 11 1 Be ye followers of me, as I also am of Christ.
 46N 11 2 Now I praise you, brethren, that in all things you are mindful of me: and keep my ordinances as I have delivered them to you.
 46N 11 3 But I would have you know, that the head of every man is Christ; and the head of the woman is the man; and the head of Christ is God.
 46N 11 4 Every man praying or prophesying with his head covered, disgraceth his head.
 46N 11 5 But every woman praying or prophesying with her head not covered, disgraceth her head: for it is all one as if she were shaven.
 46N 11 6 For if a woman be not covered, let her be shorn. But if it be a shame to a woman to be shorn or made bald, let her cover her head.
 46N 11 7 The man indeed ought not to cover his head, because he is the image and glory of God; but the woman is the glory of the man.
 46N 11 8 For the man is not of the woman, but the woman of the man.
 46N 11 9 For the man was not created for the woman, but the woman for the man.
 46N 11 10 Therefore ought the woman to have a power over her head, because of the angels.
 46N 11 11 But yet neither is the man without the woman, nor the woman without the man, in the Lord.
 46N 11 12 For as the woman is of the man, so also is the man by the woman: but all things of God.
 46N 11 13 You yourselves judge: doth it become a woman, to pray unto God uncovered?
 46N 11 14 Doth not even nature itself teach you, that a man indeed, if he nourish his hair, it is a shame unto him?
 46N 11 15 But if a woman nourish her hair, it is a glory to her; for her hair is given to her for a covering.
 46N 11 16 But if any man seem to be contentious, we have no such custom, nor the church of God.
 46N 11 17 Now this I ordain: not praising you, that you come together not for the better, but for the worse.
 46N 11 18 For first of all I hear that when you come together in the church, there are schisms among you; and in part I believe it.

46N 11 19 For there must be also heresies: that they also, who are approved, may be made manifest among you.

46N 11 20 When you come therefore together into one place, it is not now to eat the Lord's supper.

46N 11 21 For every one taketh before his own supper to eat. And one indeed is hungry and another is drunk.

46N 11 22 What, have you not houses to eat and to drink in? Or despise ye the church of God; and put them to shame that have not? What shall I say to you? Do I praise you? In this I praise you not.

46N 11 23 For I have received of the Lord that which also I delivered unto you, that the Lord Jesus, the same night in which he was betrayed, took bread.

46N 11 24 And giving thanks, broke, and said: Take ye, and eat: this is my body, which shall be delivered for you: this do for the commemoration of me.

46N 11 25 In like manner also the chalice, after he had supped, saying: This chalice is the new testament in my blood: this do ye, as often as you shall drink, for the commemoration of me.

46N 11 26 For as often as you shall eat this bread, and drink the chalice, you shall shew the death of the Lord, until he come.

46N 11 27 Therefore whosoever shall eat this bread, or drink the chalice of the Lord unworthily, shall be guilty of the body and of the blood of the Lord.

46N 11 28 But let a man prove himself: and so let him eat of that bread, and drink of the chalice.

46N 11 29 For he that eateth and drinketh unworthily, eateth and drinketh judgment to himself, not discerning the body of the Lord.

46N 11 30 Therefore are there many inform and weak among you, and many sleep.

46N 11 31 But if we would judge ourselves, we should not be judged.

46N 11 32 But whilst we are judged, we are chastised by the Lord, that we be not condemned with this world.

46N 11 33 Wherefore, my brethren, when you come together to eat, wait for one another.

46N 11 34 If any man be hungry, let him eat at home; that you come not together unto judgment. And the rest I will set in order, when I come.

46N 12 1 Now concerning spiritual things, my brethren, I would not have you ignorant.

46N 12 2 You know that when you were heathens, you went to dumb idols, according as you were led.

46N 12 3 Wherefore I give you to understand, that no man, speaking by the Spirit of God, saith Anathema to Jesus. And no man can say the Lord Jesus, but by the Holy Ghost.

46N 12 4 Now there are diversities of graces, but the same Spirit;

46N 12 5 And there are diversities of ministries, but the same Lord;

46N 12 6 And there are diversities of operations, but the same God, who worketh all in all.

46N 12 7 And the manifestation of the Spirit is given to every man unto profit.

46N 12 8 To one indeed, by the Spirit, is given the word of wisdom: and to another, the word of knowledge, according to the same Spirit;

46N 12 9 To another, faith in the same spirit; to another, the grace of healing in one Spirit;

46N 12 10 To another, the working of miracles; to another, prophecy; to another, the discerning of spirits; to another, diverse kinds of tongues; to another, interpretation of speeches.

46N 12 11 But all these things one and the same Spirit worketh, dividing to every one according as he will.

46N 12 12 For as the body is one, and hath many members; and all the members of the body, whereas they are many, yet are one body, so also is Christ.

46N 12 13 For in one Spirit were we all baptized into one body, whether Jews or Gentiles, whether bond or free; and in one Spirit we have all been made to drink.

46N 12 14 For the body also is not one member, but many.

46N 12 15 If the foot should say, because I am not the hand, I am not of the body; is it therefore not of the body ?

46N 12 16 And if the ear should say, because I am not the eye, I am not of the body; is it therefore not of the body ?

46N 12 17 If the whole body were the eye, where would be the hearing? If the whole were hearing, where would be the smelling?

46N 12 18 But now God hath set the members every one of them in the body as it hath pleased him.

46N 12 19 And if they all were one member, where would be the body?

46N 12 20 But now there are many members indeed, yet one body.

46N 12 21 And the eye cannot say to the hand: I need not thy help; nor again the head to the feet: I have no need of you.

46N 12 22 Yea, much more those that seem to be the more feeble members of the body, are more necessary.

46N 12 23 And such as we think to be the less honourable members of the body, about these we put more abundant honour; and those that are our uncomely parts, have more abundant comeliness.

46N 12 24 But our comely parts have no need: but God hath tempered the body together, giving to that which wanted the more abundant honour, 46N 12 25 That there might be no schism in the body; but the members might be mutually careful one for another.

46N 12 26 And if one member suffer any thing, all the members suffer with it; or if one member glory, all the members rejoice with it.

46N 12 27 Now you are the body of Christ, and members of member.

46N 12 28 And God indeed hath set some in the church; first apostles, secondly prophets, thirdly doctors; after that miracles; then the graces of healing, helps, governments, kinds of tongues, interpretations of speeches.

46N 12 29 Are all apostles? Are all prophets? Are all doctors?

46N 12 30 Are all workers of miracles? Have all the grace of healing? Do all speak with tongues? Do all interpret?

46N 12 31 But be zealous for the better gifts. And I shew unto you yet a more excellent way.

46N 13 1 If I speak with the tongues of men, and of angels, and have not charity, I am become as sounding brass, or a tinkling cymbal.

46N 13 2 And if I should have prophecy and should know all mysteries, and all knowledge, and if I should have all faith, so that I could remove mountains, and have not charity, I am nothing.

46N 13 3 And if I should distribute all my goods to feed the poor, and if I should deliver my body to be burned, and have not charity, it profiteth me nothing.

46N 13 4 Charity is patient, is kind: charity envieth not, dealeth not perversely; is not puffed up;

46N 13 5 Is not ambitious, seeketh not her own, is not provoked to anger, thinketh no evil;

46N 13 6 Rejoiceth not in iniquity, but rejoiceth with the truth;

46N 13 7 Beareth all things, believeth all things, hopeth all things, endureth all things.

46N 13 8 Charity never falleth away: whether prophecies shall be made void, or tongues shall cease, or knowledge shall be destroyed.

46N 13 9 For we know in part, and we prophesy in part.

46N 13 10 But when that which is perfect is come, that which is in part shall be done away.

46N 13 11 When I was a child, I spoke as a child, I understood as a child, I thought as a child. But, when I became a man, I put away the things of a child.

46N 13 12 We see now through a glass in a dark manner; but then face to face. Now I know I part; but then I shall know even as I am known.

46N 13 13 And now there remain faith, hope, and charity, these three: but the greatest of these is charity.

46N 14 1 Follow after charity, be zealous for spiritual gifts; but rather that you may prophesy.

46N 14 2 For he that speaketh in a tongue, speaketh not unto men, but unto God: for no man heareth. Yet by the Spirit he speaketh mysteries.

46N 14 3 But he that prophesieth, speaketh to men unto edification, and exhortation, and comfort.

46N 14 4 He that speaketh in a tongue, edifieth himself: but he that prophesieth, edifieth the church.

46N 14 5 And I would have you all to speak with tongues, but rather to prophesy. For greater is he that prophesieth, than he that speaketh with tongues: unless perhaps he interpret, that the church may receive edification.

46N 14 6 But now, brethren, if I come to you speaking with tongues, what shall I profit you, unless I speak to you either in revelation, or in knowledge, or in prophecy, or in doctrine?

46N 14 7 Even things without life that give sound, whether pipe or harp, except they give a distinction of sounds, how shall it be known what is piped or harped ?

46N 14 8 For if the trumpet give an uncertain sound, who shall prepare himself to the battle ?

46N 14 9 So likewise you, except you utter by the tongue plain speech, how shall it be known what is said ? For you shall be speaking into the air.

46N 14 10 There are, for example, so many kinds of tongues in this world; and none is without voice.

46N 14 11 If then I know not the power of the voice, I shall be to him to whom I speak a barbarian; and he that speaketh, a barbarian to me.

46N 14 12 So you also, forasmuch as you are zealous of spirits, seek to abound unto the edifying of the church.

46N 14 13 And therefore he that speaketh by a tongue, let him pray that he may interpret.

46N 14 14 For if I pray in a tongue, my spirit prayeth, but my understanding is without fruit.

46N 14 15 What is it then ? I will pray with the spirit, I will pray also with the understanding; I will sing with the spirit, I will sing also with the understanding.

46N 14 16 Else if thou shalt bless with the spirit, how shall he that holdeth the place of the unlearned say, Amen, to thy blessing ? because he knoweth not what thou sayest.

46N 14 17 For thou indeed givest thanks well, but the other is not edified.

46N 14 18 I thank my God I speak with all your tongues.

46N 14 19 But in the church I had rather speak five words with my understanding, that I may instruct others also; than ten thousand words in a tongue.

46N 14 20 Brethren, do not become children in sense: but in malice be children, and in sense be perfect.

46N 14 21 In the law it is written: In other tongues and other lips I will speak to this people; and neither so will they hear me, saith the Lord.

46N 14 22 Wherefore tongues are for a sign, not to believers, but to unbelievers; but prophecies not to unbelievers, but to believers.

46N 14 23 If therefore the whole church come together into one place, and all speak with tongues, and there come in unlearned persons or infidels, will they not say that you are mad ?

46N 14 24 But if all prophesy, and there come in one that believeth not, or an unlearned person, he is convinced of all, he is judged of all.

46N 14 25 The secrets of his heart are made manifest; and so, falling down on his face, he will adore God, affirming that God is among you indeed.

46N 14 26 How is it then, brethren ? When you come together, every one of you hath a psalm, hath a doctrine, hath a revelation, hath a tongue, hath an interpretation: let all things be done to edification.

46N 14 27 If any speak with a tongue, let it be by two, or at the most by three, and in course, and let one interpret.

46N 14 28 But if there be no interpreter, let him hold his peace in the church, and speak to himself and to God.

46N 14 29 And let the prophets speak, two or three; and let the rest judge.

46N 14 30 But if any thing be revealed to another sitting, let the first hold his peace.

46N 14 31 For you may all prophesy one by one; that all may learn, and all may be exhorted:

46N 14 32 And the spirits of the prophets are subject to the prophets.

46N 14 33 For God is not the God of dissension, but of peace: as also I teach in all the churches of the saints.

46N 14 34 Let women keep silence in the churches: for it is not permitted them to speak, but to be subject, as also the law saith.

46N 14 35 But if they would learn any thing, let them ask their husbands at home. For it is a shame for a woman to speak in the church.

46N 14 36 Or did the word of God come out from you ? Or came it only unto you ?

46N 14 37 If any seem to be a prophet, or spiritual, let him know the things that I write to you, that they are the commandments of the Lord.

46N 14 38 But if any man know not, he shall not be known.

46N 14 39 Wherefore, brethren, be zealous to prophesy; and forbid not to speak with tongues.

46N 14 40 But let all things be done decently, and according to order.

46N 15 1 Now I make known unto you, brethren, the gospel which I preached to you, which also you have received, and wherein you stand;

46N 15 2 By which also you are saved, if you hold fast after what manner I preached unto you, unless you have believed in vain.

46N 15 3 For I delivered unto you first of all, which I also received: how that Christ died for our sins, according to the scriptures:

46N 15 4 And that he was buried, and that he rose again the third day, according to the scriptures:

46N 15 5 And that he was seen by Cephas; and after that by the eleven.

46N 15 6 Then he was seen by more than five hundred brethren at once: of whom many remain until this present, and some are fallen asleep.

46N 15 7 After that, he was seen by James, then by all the apostles.

46N 15 8 And last of all, he was seen also by me, as by one born out of due time.

46N 15 9 For I am the least of the apostles, who am not worthy to be called an apostle, because I persecuted the church of God.

46N 15 10 But by the grace of God, I am what I am; and his grace in me hath not been void, but I have laboured more abundantly than all they: yet not I, but the grace of God with me.

46N 15 11 For whether I, or they, so we preach, and so you have believed.

46N 15 12 Now if Christ be preached, that he arose again from the dead, how do some among you say, that there is no resurrection of the dead?

46N 15 13 But if there be no resurrection of the dead, then Christ is not risen again.

46N 15 14 And if Christ be not risen again, then is our preaching vain, and your faith is also vain.

46N 15 15 Yea, and we are found false witnesses of God: because we have given testimony against God, that he hath raised up Christ; whom he hath not raised up, if the dead rise not again.

46N 15 16 For if the dead rise not again, neither is Christ risen again.

46N 15 17 And if Christ be not risen again, your faith is vain, for you are yet in your sins.

46N 15 18 Then they also that are fallen asleep in Christ, are perished.

46N 15 19 If in this life only we have hope in Christ, we are of all men most miserable.

46N 15 20 But now Christ is risen from the dead, the firstfruits of them that sleep :

46N 15 21 For by a man came death, and by a man the resurrection of the dead.

46N 15 22 And as in Adam all die, so also in Christ all shall be made alive.

46N 15 23 But every one in his own order: the firstfruits Christ, then they that are of Christ, who have believed in his coming.

46N 15 24 Afterwards the end, when he shall have delivered up the kingdom to God and the Father, when he shall have brought to nought all principality, and power, and virtue.

46N 15 25 For he must reign, until he hath put all his enemies under his feet.

46N 15 26 And the enemy death shall be destroyed last: For he hath put all things under his feet. And whereas he saith, 46N 15 27 All things are put under him; undoubtedly, he is excepted, who put all things under him.

46N 15 28 And when all things shall be subdued unto him, then the Son also himself shall be subject unto him that put all things under him, that God may be all in all.

46N 15 29 Otherwise what shall they do that are baptized for the dead, if the dead rise not again at all? why are they then baptized for them?

46N 15 30 Why also are we in danger every hour?

46N 15 31 I die daily, I protest by your glory, brethren, which I have in Christ Jesus our Lord.

46N 15 32 If (according to man) I fought with beasts at Ephesus, what doth it profit me, if the dead rise not again? Let us eat and drink, for to morrow we shall die.

46N 15 33 Be not seduced: Evil communications corrupt good manners.

46N 15 34 Awake, ye just, and sin not. For some have not the knowledge of God, I speak it to your shame.

46N 15 35 But some man will say: How do the dead rise again? or with what manner of body shall they come?

46N 15 36 Senseless man, that which thou sowest is not quickened, except it die first.

46N 15 37 And that which thou sowest, thou sowest not the body that shall be; but bare grain, as of wheat, or of some of the rest.

46N 15 38 But God giveth it a body as he will: and to every seed its proper body.

46N 15 39 All flesh is not the same flesh: but one is the flesh of men, another of beasts, another of birds, another of fishes.

46N 15 40 And there are bodies celestial, and bodies terrestrial: but, one is the glory of the celestial, and another of the terrestrial.

46N 15 41 One is the glory of the sun, another the glory of the moon, and another the glory of the stars. For star differeth from star in glory.

46N 15 42 So also is the resurrection of the dead. It is sown in corruption, it shall rise in incorruption.

46N 15 43 It is sown in dishonour, it shall rise in glory. It is sown in weakness, it shall rise in power.

46N 15 44 It is sown a natural body, it shall rise a spiritual body. If there be a natural body, there is also a spiritual body, as it is written:

46N 15 45 The first man Adam was made into a living soul; the last Adam into a quickening spirit.

46N 15 46 Yet that was not first which is spiritual, but that which is natural; afterwards that which is spiritual.

46N 15 47 The first man was of the earth, earthly: the second man, from heaven, heavenly.

46N 15 48 Such as is the earthly, such also are the earthly: and such as is the heavenly, such also are they that are heavenly.

46N 15 49 Therefore as we have borne the image of the earthly, let us bear also the image of the heavenly.

46N 15 50 Now this I say, brethren, that flesh and blood cannot possess the kingdom of God: neither shall corruption possess incorruption.

46N 15 51 Behold, I tell you a mystery. We shall all indeed rise again: but we shall not all be changed.

46N 15 52 In a moment, in the twinkling of an eye, at the last trumpet: for the trumpet shall sound, and the dead shall rise again incorruptible: and we shall be changed.

46N 15 53 For this corruptible must put on incorruption; and this mortal must put on immortality.

46N 15 54 And when this mortal hath put on immortality, then shall come to pass the saying that is written: Death is swallowed up in victory.

46N 15 55 O death, where is thy victory? O death, where is thy sting?

46N 15 56 Now the sting of death is sin: and the power of sin is the law.

46N 15 57 But thanks be to God, who hath given us the victory through our Lord Jesus Christ.

46N 15 58 Therefore, my beloved brethren, be ye steadfast and unmoveable; always abounding in the work of the Lord, knowing that your labour is not in vain in the Lord.

46N 16 1 Now concerning the collections that are made for the saints, as I have given order to the churches of Galatia, so do ye also.

46N 16 2 On the first day of the week let every one of you put apart with himself, laying up what it shall well please him; that when I come, the collections be not then to be made.

46N 16 3 And when I shall be with you, whomsoever you shall approve by letters, them will I send to carry your grace to Jerusalem.

46N 16 4 And if it be meet that I also go, they shall go with me.

46N 16 5 Now I will come to you, when I shall have passed through Macedonia. For I shall pass through Macedonia.

46N 16 6 And with you perhaps I shall abide, or even spend the winter: that you may bring me on my way whithersoever I shall go.

46N 16 7 For I will not see you now by the way, for I trust that I shall abide with you some time, if the Lord permit.

46N 16 8 But I will tarry at Ephesus until Pentecost.

46N 16 9 For a great door and evident is opened unto me: and many adversaries.

46N 16 10 Now if Timothy come, see that he be with you without fear, for he worketh the work of the Lord, as I also do.

46N 16 11 Let no man therefore despise him, but conduct ye him on his way in peace: that he may come to me. For I look for him with the breatheren.

46N 16 12 And touching our brother Apollo, I give you to understand, that I much entreated him to come unto you with the breatheren: and indeed it was not his will at all to come at this time. But he will come when he shall have leisure.

46N 16 13 Watch ye, stand fast in the faith, do manfully, and be strengthened.

46N 16 14 Let all your things be done in charity.

46N 16 15 And I beseech you, brethren, you know the house of Stephanas, and of Fortunatus, and of Achaicus, that they are the firstfruits of Achaia, and have dedicated themselves to the ministry of the saints:

46N 16 16 That you also be subject to such, and to every one that worketh with us, and laboureth.

46N 16 17 And I rejoice in the presence of Stephanas, and Fortunatus, and Achaicus, because that which was wanting on your part, they have supplied.

46N 16 18 For they have refreshed both my spirit and yours. Know them, therefore, that are such.

46N 16 19 The churches of Asia salute you. Aquila and Priscilla salute you much in the Lord, with the church that is in their house, with whom I also lodge.

46N 16 20 All the brethren salute you. Salute one another with a holy kiss.

46N 16 21 The salutation of me Paul, with my own hand.

46N 16 22 If any man love not our Lord Jesus Christ, let him be anathema, maranatha.

46N 16 23 The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you.

46N 16 24 My charity be with you all in Christ Jesus. Amen.

47N 1 1 Paul, an apostle of Jesus Christ by the will of God, and Timothy our brother: to the church of God that is at Corinth, with all the saints that are in all Achaia:

47N 1 2 Grace unto you and peace from God our Father, and from the Lord Jesus Christ.

47N 1 3 Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of mercies, and the God of all comfort.

47N 1 4 Who comforteth us in all our tribulation; that we also may be able to comfort them who are in all distress, by the exhortation wherewith we also are exhorted by God.

47N 1 5 For as the sufferings of Christ abound in us: so also by Christ doth our comfort abound.

47N 1 6 Now whether we be in tribulation, it is for your exhortation and salvation: or whether we be comforted, it is for your consolation: or whether we be exhorted, it is for your exhortation and salvation, which worketh the enduring of the same sufferings which we also suffer.

47N 1 7 That our hope for you may be steadfast: knowing that as you are partakers of the sufferings, so shall you be also of the consolation.

47N 1 8 For we would not have you ignorant, brethren, of our tribulation, which came to us in Asia, that we were pressed out of measure above our strength, so that we were weary even of life.

47N 1 9 But we had in ourselves the answer of death, that we should not trust in ourselves, but in God who raiseth the dead.

47N 1 10 Who hath delivered and doth deliver us out of so great dangers: in whom we trust that he will yet also deliver us.

47N 1 11 You helping withal in prayer for us: that for this gift obtained for us, by the means of many persons, thanks may be given by many in our behalf.

47N 1 12 For our glory is this, the testimony of our conscience, that in simplicity of heart and sincerity of God, and not in carnal wisdom, but in the grace of God, we have conversed in this world: and more abundantly towards you.

47N 1 13 For we write no other things to you than what you have read and known. And I hope that you shall know unto the end:

47N 1 14 As also you have known us in part, that we are your glory, as you also are ours, in the day of our Lord Jesus Christ.

47N 1 15 And in this confidence I had a mind to come to you before, that you might have a second grace:

47N 1 16 And to pass by you into Macedonia, and again from Macedonia to come to you, and by you to be brought on my way towards Judea.

47N 1 17 Whereas then I was thus minded, did I use lightness? Or, the things that I purpose, do I purpose according to the flesh, that there should be with me, It is, and It is not?

47N 1 18 But God is faithful, for our preaching which was to you, was not, It is, and It is not.

47N 1 19 For the Son of God, Jesus Christ who was preached among you by us, by me, and Sylvanus, and Timothy, was not, It is and It is not, but, It is, was in him.

47N 1 20 For all the promises of God are in him, It is; therefore also by him, amen to God, unto our glory.
 47N 1 21 Now he that confirmeth us with you in Christ, and that hath anointed us, is God:
 47N 1 22 Who also hath sealed us, and given the pledge of the Spirit in our hearts.
 47N 1 23 But I call God to witness upon my soul, that to spare you, I came not any more to Corinth: not because we exercise dominion over your faith: but we are helpers of your joy: for in faith you stand.
 47N 2 1 But I determined this with myself, not to come to you again in sorrow.
 47N 2 2 For if I make you sorrowful, who is he then that can make me glad, but the same who is made sorrowful by me?
 47N 2 3 And I wrote this same to you; that I may not, when I come, have sorrow upon sorrow, from them of whom I ought to rejoice: having confidence in you all, that my joy is the joy of you all.
 47N 2 4 For out of much affliction and anguish of heart, I wrote to you with many tears: not that you should be made sorrowful: but that you might know the charity I have more abundantly towards you.
 47N 2 5 And if any one have caused grief, he hath not grieved me; but in part, that I may not burden you all.
 47N 2 6 To him who is such a one, this rebuke is sufficient, which is given by many:
 47N 2 7 So that on the contrary, you should rather forgive him and comfort him, lest perhaps such a one be swallowed up with overmuch sorrow.
 47N 2 8 Wherefore, I beseech you, that you would confirm your charity towards him.
 47N 2 9 For to this end also did I write, that I may know the experiment of you, whether you be obedient in all things.
 47N 2 10 And to whom you have pardoned any thing, I also. For, what I have pardoned, if I have pardoned any thing, for your sakes have I done it in the person of Christ.
 47N 2 11 That we be not overreached by Satan. For we are not ignorant of his devices.
 47N 2 12 And when I was come to Troas for the gospel of Christ, and a door was opened unto me in the Lord, 47N 2 13 I had no rest in my spirit, because I found not Titus my brother; but bidding them farewell, I went into Macedonia.
 47N 2 14 Now thanks be to God, who always maketh us to triumph in Christ Jesus, and manifesteth the odour of his knowledge by us in every place.
 47N 2 15 For we are the good odour of Christ unto God, in them that are saved, and in them that perish.
 47N 2 16 To the one indeed the odour of death unto death: but to the others the odour of life unto life. And for these things who is so sufficient?
 47N 2 17 For we are not as many, adulterating the word of God; but with sincerity, but as from God, before God, in Christ we speak.
 47N 3 1 Do we begin again to commend ourselves? Or do we need (as some do) epistles of commendation to you, or from you?
 47N 3 2 You are our epistle, written in our hearts, which is known and read by all men:
 47N 3 3 Being manifested, that you are the epistle of Christ, ministered by us, and written not with ink, but with the Spirit of the living God; not in tables of stone, but in the fleshly tables of the heart.
 47N 3 4 And such confidence we have, through Christ, towards God.
 47N 3 5 Not that we are sufficient to think any thing of ourselves, as of ourselves: but our sufficiency is from God.
 47N 3 6 Who also hath made us fit ministers of the new testament, not in the letter, but in the spirit. For the letter killeth, but the spirit quickeneth.

47N 3 7 Now if the ministration of death, engraven with letters upon stones, was glorious; so that the children of Israel could not steadfastly behold the face of Moses, for the glory of his countenance, which is made void:

47N 3 8 How shall not the ministration of the spirit be rather in glory?

47N 3 9 For if the ministration of condemnation be glory, much more the ministration of justice aboundeth in glory.

47N 3 10 For even that which was glorious in this part was not glorified, by reason of the glory that excelleth.

47N 3 11 For if that which is done away was glorious, much more that which remaineth is in glory.

47N 3 12 Having therefore such hope, we use much confidence:

47N 3 13 And not as Moses put a veil upon his face, that the children of Israel might not steadfastly look on the face of that which is made void.

47N 3 14 But their senses were made dull. For, until this present day, the selfsame veil, in the reading of the old testament, remaineth not taken away (because in Christ it is made void).

47N 3 15 But even until this day, when Moses is read, the veil is upon their heart.

47N 3 16 But when they shall be converted to the Lord, the veil shall be taken away.

47N 3 17 Now the Lord is a Spirit. And where the Spirit of the Lord is, there is liberty.

47N 3 18 But we all beholding the glory of the Lord with open face, are transformed into the same image from glory to glory, as by the Spirit of the Lord.

47N 4 1 Therefore, seeing we have this ministration, according as we have obtained mercy, we faint not;

47N 4 2 But we renounce the hidden things of dishonesty, not walking in craftiness, nor adulterating the word of God; but by manifestation of the truth commending ourselves to every man's conscience, in the sight of God.

47N 4 3 And if our gospel be also hid, it is hid to them that are lost, 47N 4 4 In whom the god of this world hath blinded the minds of unbelievers, that the light of the gospel of the glory of Christ, who is the image of God, should not shine unto them.

47N 4 5 For we preach not ourselves, but Jesus Christ our Lord; and ourselves your servants through Jesus.

47N 4 6 For God, who commanded the light to shine out of darkness, hath shined in our hearts, to give the light of the knowledge of the glory of God, in the face of Christ Jesus.

47N 4 7 But we have this treasure in earthen vessels, that the excellency may be of the power of God, and not of us.

47N 4 8 In all things we suffer tribulation, but are not distressed; we are straitened, but are not destitute;

47N 4 9 We suffer persecution, but are not forsaken; we are cast down, but we perish not:

47N 4 10 Always bearing about in our body the mortification of Jesus, that the life also of Jesus may be made manifest in our bodies.

47N 4 11 For we who live are always delivered unto death for Jesus' sake; that the life also of Jesus may be made manifest in our mortal flesh.

47N 4 12 So then death worketh in us, but life in you.

47N 4 13 But having the same spirit of faith, as it is written: I believed, for which cause I have spoken; we also believe, for which cause we speak also:

47N 4 14 Knowing that he who raised up Jesus, will raise us up also with Jesus, and place us with you.

47N 4 15 For all things are for your sakes; that the grace abounding through many, may abound in thanksgiving unto the glory of God.

47N 4 16 For which cause we faint not; but though our outward man is corrupted, yet the inward man is renewed day by day.

47N 4 17 For that which is at present momentary and light of our tribulation, worketh for us above measure exceedingly an eternal weight of glory.

47N 4 18 While we look not at the things which are seen, but at the things which are not seen. For the things which are seen, are temporal; but the things which are not seen, are eternal.

47N 5 1 For we know, if our earthly house of this habitation be dissolved, that we have a building of God, a house not made with hands, eternal in heaven.

47N 5 2 For in this also we groan, desiring to be clothed upon with our habitation that is from heaven.

47N 5 3 Yet so that we be found clothed, not naked.

47N 5 4 For we also, who are in this tabernacle, do groan, being burthened; because we would not be unclothed, but clothed upon, that that which is mortal may be swallowed up by life.

47N 5 5 Now he that maketh us for this very thing, is God, who hath given us the pledge of the Spirit.

47N 5 6 Therefore having always confidence, knowing that, while we are in the body, we are absent from the Lord.

47N 5 7 (For we walk by faith, and not by sight.)

47N 5 8 But we are confident, and have a good will to be absent rather from the body, and to be present with the Lord.

47N 5 9 And therefore we labour, whether absent or present, to please him.

47N 5 10 For we must all be manifested before the judgement seat of Christ, that every one may receive the proper things of the body, according as he hath done, whether it be good or evil.

47N 5 11 Knowing therefore the fear of the Lord, we use persuasion to men; but to God we are manifest. And I trust also that in your consciences we are manifest.

47N 5 12 We commend not ourselves again to you, but give you occasion to glory in our behalf; that you may have somewhat to answer them who glory in face, and not in heart.

47N 5 13 For whether we be transported in mind, it is to God; or whether we be sober, it is for you.

47N 5 14 For the charity of Christ presseth us: judging this, that if one died for all, then all were dead.

47N 5 15 And Christ died for all; that they also who live, may not now live to themselves, but unto him who died for them, and rose again.

47N 5 16 Wherefore henceforth, we know no man according to the flesh. And if we have known Christ according to the flesh; but now we know him so no longer.

47N 5 17 If then any be in Christ a new creature, the old things are passed away, behold all things are made new.

47N 5 18 But all things are of God, who hath reconciled us to himself by Christ; and hath given to us the ministry of reconciliation.

47N 5 19 For God indeed was in Christ, reconciling the world to himself, not imputing to them their sins; and he hath placed in us the word of reconciliation.

47N 5 20 For Christ therefore we are ambassadors, God as it were exhorting by us. For Christ, we beseech you, be reconciled to God.

47N 5 21 Him, who knew no sin, he hath made sin for us, that we might be made the justice of God in him.

47N 6 1 And we helping do exhort you, that you receive not the grace of God in vain.

47N 6 2 For he saith: In an accepted time have I heard thee; and in the day of salvation have I helped thee. Behold, now is the acceptable time; behold, now is the day of salvation.

47N 6 3 Giving no offence to any man, that our ministry be not blamed:

47N 6 4 But in all things let us exhibit ourselves as the ministers of God, in much patience, in tribulation, in necessities, in distresses,

47N 6 5 In stripes, in prisons, in seditions, in labours, in watchings, in fastings,

47N 6 6 In chastity, in knowledge, in longsuffering, in sweetness, in the Holy Ghost, in charity unfeigned,

47N 6 7 In the word of truth, in the power of God; by the armour of justice on the right hand and on the left;

47N 6 8 By honour and dishonour, by evil report and good report; as deceivers, and yet true; as unknown, and yet known;

47N 6 9 As dying, and behold we live; as chastised, and not killed;

47N 6 10 As sorrowful, yet always rejoicing; as needy, yet enriching many; as having nothing, and possessing all things.

47N 6 11 Our mouth is open to you, O ye Corinthians, our heart is enlarged.

47N 6 12 You are not straitened in us, but in your own bowels you are straitened.

47N 6 13 But having the same recompense, (I speak as to my children,) be you also enlarged.

47N 6 14 Bear not the yoke with unbelievers. For what participation hath justice with injustice? Or what fellowship hath light with darkness?

47N 6 15 And what concord hath Christ with Belial? Or what part hath the faithful with the unbeliever?

47N 6 16 And what agreement hath the temple of God with idols? For you are the temple of the living God; as God saith: I will dwell in them, and walk among them; and I will be their God, and they shall be my people.

47N 6 17 Wherefore, Go out from among them, and be ye separate, saith the Lord, and touch not the unclean thing:

47N 6 18 And I will receive you; and I will be a Father to you; and you shall be my sons and daughters, saith the Lord Almighty.

47N 7 1 Having therefore these promises, dearly beloved, let us cleanse ourselves from all defilement of the flesh and of the spirit, perfecting sanctification in the fear of God.

47N 7 2 Receive us. We have injured no man, we have corrupted no man, we have overreached no man.

47N 7 3 I speak not this to your condemnation. For we have said before, that you are in our hearts, to die together, and to live together.

47N 7 4 Great is my confidence for you, great is my glorying for you. I am filled with comfort: I exceedingly abound with joy in all our tribulation.

47N 7 5 For also when we were come into Macedonia, our flesh had no rest, but we suffered all tribulation; combats without, fears within.

47N 7 6 But God, who comforteth the humble, comforted us by the coming of Titus.

47N 7 7 And not by his coming only, but also by the consolation, wherewith he was comforted in you, relating to us your desire, your mourning, your zeal for me, so that I rejoiced the more.

47N 7 8 For although I made you sorrowful by my epistle, I do not repent; and if I did repent, seeing that the same epistle (although but for a time) did make you sorrowful;

47N 7 9 Now I am glad: not because you were made sorrowful; but because you were made sorrowful unto penance. For you were made sorrowful according to God, that you might suffer damage by us in nothing.

47N 7 10 For the sorrow that is according to God worketh penance, steadfast unto salvation; but the sorrow of the world worketh death.

47N 7 11 For behold this selfsame thing, that you were made sorrowful according to God, how great carefulness it worketh in you; yea defence, yea indignation, yea fear, yea desire, yea zeal, yea revenge: in all things you have shewed yourselves to be undefiled in the matter.

47N 7 12 Wherefore although I wrote to you, it was not for his sake that I did the wrong, nor for him that suffered it; but to manifest our carefulness that we have for you

47N 7 13 Before God: therefore we were comforted. But in our consolation, we did the more abundantly rejoice for the joy of Titus, because his spirit was refreshed by you all.

47N 7 14 And if I have boasted any thing to him of you, I have not been put to shame;

but as we have spoken all things to you in truth, so also our boasting that was made to Titus is found a truth.

47N 7 15 And his bowels are more abundantly towards you; remembering the obedience of you all, how with fear and trembling you have received him.

47N 7 16 I rejoice that in all things I have confidence in you.

47N 8 1 Now we make known unto you, brethren, the grace of God, that hath been given in the churches of Macedonia.

47N 8 2 That in much experience of tribulation, they have had abundance of joy; and their very deep poverty hath abounded unto the riches of their simplicity.

47N 8 3 For according to their power (I bear them witness), and beyond their power, they were willing.

47N 8 4 With much entreaty begging of us the grace and communication of the ministry that is done toward the saints.

47N 8 5 And not as we hoped, but they gave their own selves first to the Lord, then to us by the will of God:

47N 8 6 Insomuch, that we desired Titus, that as he had begun, so also he would finish among you this same grace.

47N 8 7 That as in all things you abound in faith, and word, and knowledge, and all carefulness; moreover also in your charity towards us, so in this grace also you may abound.

47N 8 8 I speak not as commanding; but by the carefulness of others, approving also the good disposition of your charity.

47N 8 9 For you know the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, that being rich he became poor, for your sakes; that through his poverty you might be rich.

47N 8 10 And herein I give my advice; for this is profitable for you, who have begun not only to do, but also to be willing, a year ago.

47N 8 11 Now therefore perform ye it also in deed; that as your mind is forward to be willing, so it may be also to perform, out of that which you have.

47N 8 12 For if the will be forward, it is accepted according to that which a man hath, not according to that which he hath not.

47N 8 13 For I mean not that others should be eased, and you burthened, but by an equality.

47N 8 14 In this present time let your abundance supply their want, that their abundance also may supply your want, that there may be an equality, 47N 8 15 As it is written: He that had much, had nothing over; and he that had little, had no want.

47N 8 16 And thanks be to God, who hath given the same carefulness for you in the heart of Titus.

47N 8 17 For indeed he accepted the exhortation; but being more careful, of his own will he went unto you.

47N 8 18 We have sent also with him the brother, whose praise is in the gospel through all the churches.

47N 8 19 And not that only, but he was also ordained by the churches companion of our travels, for this grace, which is administered by us, to the glory of the Lord, and our determined will:

47N 8 20 Avoiding this, lest any man should blame us in this abundance which is administered by us.

47N 8 21 For we forecast what may be good not only before God, but also before men.

47N 8 22 And we have sent with them our brother also, whom we have often proved diligent in many things; but now much more diligent, with much confidence in you,

47N 8 23 Either for Titus, who is my companion and fellow labourer towards you, or our brethren, the apostles of the churches, the glory of Christ.

47N 8 24 Wherefore shew ye to them, in the sight of the churches, the evidence of your charity, and of our boasting on your behalf.

47N 9 1 For concerning the ministry that is done towards the saints, it is superfluous for me to write unto you.

47N 9 2 For I know your forward mind: for which I boast of you to the Macedonians. That Achaia also is ready from the year past, and your emulation hath provoked very many.

47N 9 3 Now I have sent the brethren, that the thing which we boast of concerning you, be not made void in this behalf, that (as I have said) you may be ready:

47N 9 4 Lest, when the Macedonians shall come with me, and find you unprepared, we (not to say ye) should be ashamed in this matter.

47N 9 5 Therefore I thought it necessary to desire the brethren that they would go to you before, and prepare this blessing before promised, to be ready, so as a blessing, not as covetousness.

47N 9 6 Now this I say: He who soweth sparingly, shall also reap sparingly: and he who soweth in blessings, shall also reap blessings.

47N 9 7 Every one as he hath determined in his heart, not with sadness, or of necessity: for God loveth a cheerful giver.

47N 9 8 And God is able to make all grace abound in you; that ye always, having all sufficiency in all things, may abound to every good work, 47N 9 9 As it is written: He hath dispersed abroad, he hath given to the poor: his justice remaineth for ever.

47N 9 10 And he that ministereth seed to the sower, will both give you bread to eat, and will multiply your seed, and increase the growth of the fruits of your justice:

47N 9 11 That being enriched in all things, you may abound unto all simplicity, which worketh through us thanksgiving to God.

47N 9 12 Because the administration of this office doth not only supply the want of the saints, but aboundeth also by many thanksgivings in the Lord, 47N 9 13 By the proof of this ministry, glorifying God for the obedience of your confession unto the gospel of Christ, and for the simplicity of your communicating unto them, and unto all.

47N 9 14 And in their praying for you, being desirous of you, because of the excellent grace of God in you.

47N 9 15 Thanks be to God for his unspeakable gift.

47N 10 1 Now I Paul myself beseech you, by the mildness and modesty of Christ, who in presence indeed am lowly among you, but being absent, am bold toward you.

47N 10 2 But I beseech you, that I may not be bold when I am present, with that confidence wherewith I am thought to be bold, against some, who reckon us as if we walked according to the flesh.

47N 10 3 For though we walk in the flesh, we do not war according to the flesh.

47N 10 4 For the weapons of our warfare are not carnal, but mighty to God unto the pulling down of fortifications, destroying counsels,

47N 10 5 And every height that exhalteth itself against the knowledge of God, and bringing into captivity every understanding unto the obedience of Christ;

47N 10 6 And having in readiness to revenge all disobedience, when your obedience shall be fulfilled.

47N 10 7 See the things that are according to outward appearance. If any man trust to himself, that he is Christ's, let him think this again with himself, that as he is Christ's, so are we also.

47N 10 8 For if also I should boast somewhat more of our power, which the Lord hath given us unto edification, and not for your destruction, I should not be ashamed.

47N 10 9 But that I may not be thought as it were to terrify you by epistles,

47N 10 10 (For his epistles indeed, say they, are weighty and strong; but his bodily presence is weak, and his speech contemptible,)

47N 10 11 Let such a one think this, that such as we are in word by epistles, when absent, such also we will be indeed when present.

47N 10 12 For we dare not match, or compare ourselves with some, that commend themselves; but we measure ourselves by ourselves, and compare ourselves with ourselves.

47N 10 13 But we will not glory beyond our measure; but according to the measure of the rule, which God hath measured to us, a measure to reach even unto you.

47N 10 14 For we stretch not ourselves beyond our measure, as if we reached not unto you. For we are come as far as to you in the gospel of Christ.

47N 10 15 Not glorying beyond measure in other men's labours; but having hope of your increasing faith, to be magnified in you according to our rule abundantly;

47N 10 16 Yea, unto those places that are beyond you, to preach the gospel, not to glory in another man's rule, in those things that are made ready to our hand.

47N 10 17 But he that glorieth, let him glory in the Lord.

47N 10 18 For not he who commendeth himself, is approved, but he, whom God commendeth.

47N 11 1 Would to God you could bear with some little of my folly: but do bear with me.

47N 11 2 For I am jealous of you with the jealousy of God. For I have espoused you to one husband that I may present you as a chaste virgin to Christ.

47N 11 3 But I fear lest, as the serpent seduced Eve by his subtilty, so your minds should be corrupted, and fall from the simplicity that is in Christ.

47N 11 4 For if he that cometh preacheth another Christ, whom we have not preached; or if you receive another Spirit, whom you have not received; or another gospel which you have not received; you might well bear with him.

47N 11 5 For I suppose that I have done nothing less than the great apostles.

47N 11 6 For although I be rude in speech, yet not in knowledge; but in all things we have been made manifest to you.

47N 11 7 Or did I commit a fault, humbling myself, that you might be exalted? Because I preached unto you the gospel of God freely?

47N 11 8 I have taken from other churches, receiving wages of them for your ministry.

47N 11 9 And, when I was present with you, and wanted, I was chargeable to no man: for that which was wanting to me, the brethren supplied who came from Macedonia; and in all things I have kept myself from being burthensome to you, and so I will keep myself.

47N 11 10 The truth of Christ is in me, that this glorying shall not be broken off in me in the regions of Achaia.

47N 11 11 Wherefore? Because I love you not? God knoweth it.

47N 11 12 But what I do, that I will do, that I may cut off the occasion from them that desire occasion, that wherein they glory, they may be found even as we.

47N 11 13 For such false apostles are deceitful workmen, transforming themselves into the apostles of Christ.

47N 11 14 And no wonder: for Satan himself transformeth himself into an angel of light.

47N 11 15 Therefore it is no great thing if his ministers be transformed as the ministers of justice, whose end shall be according to their works.

47N 11 16 I say again, (let no man think me to be foolish, otherwise take me as one foolish, that I also may glory a little.)

47N 11 17 That which I speak, I speak not according to God, but as it were in foolishness, in this matter of glorying.

47N 11 18 Seeing that many glory according to the flesh, I will glory also.

47N 11 19 For you gladly suffer the foolish; whereas yourselves are wise.

47N 11 20 For you suffer if a man bring you into bondage, if a man devour you, if a man take from you, if a man be lifted up, if a man strike you on the face.

47N 11 21 I speak according to dishonour, as if we had been weak in this part. Wherein if any man dare (I speak foolishly), I dare also.

47N 11 22 They are Hebrews: so am I. They are Israelites: so am I. They are the seed of Abraham: so am I.

47N 11 23 They are the ministers of Christ (I speak as one less wise): I am more; in many more labours, in prisons more frequently, in stripes above measure, in deaths often.

47N 11 24 Of the Jews five times did I receive forty stripes, save one.

47N 11 25 Thrice was I beaten with rods, once I was stoned, thrice I suffered shipwreck, a night and a day I was in the depth of the sea.

47N 11 26 In journeying often, in perils of waters, in perils of robbers, in perils from my own nation, in perils from the Gentiles, in perils in the city, in perils in the wilderness, in perils in the sea, in perils from false brethren.

47N 11 27 In labour and painfulness, in much watchings, in hunger and thirst, in fastings often, in cold and nakedness.

47N 11 28 Besides those things which are without: my daily instance, the solicitude for all the churches.

47N 11 29 Who is weak, and I am not weak? Who is scandalized, and I am not on fire?

47N 11 30 If I must needs glory, I will glory of the things that concern my infirmity.

47N 11 31 The God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who is blessed for ever, knoweth that I lie not.

47N 11 32 At Damascus, the governor of the nation under Aretas the king, guarded the city of the Damascenes, to apprehend me.

47N 11 33 And through a window in a basket was I let down by the wall, and so escaped his hands.

47N 12 1 If I must glory (it is not expedient indeed): but I will come to visions and revelations of the Lord.

47N 12 2 I know a man in Christ above fourteen years ago (whether in the body, I know not, or out of the body, I know not; God knoweth), such a one caught up to the third heaven.

47N 12 3 And I know such a man (whether in the body, or out of the body, I know not: God knoweth):

47N 12 4 That he was caught up into paradise, and heard secret words, which it is not granted to man to utter.

47N 12 5 For such an one I will glory; but for myself I will glory nothing, but in my infirmities.

47N 12 6 For though I should have a mind to glory, I shall not be foolish; for I will say the truth. But I forbear, lest any man should think of me above that which he seeth in me, or any thing he heareth from me.

47N 12 7 And lest the greatness of the revelations should exalt me, there was given me a sting of my flesh, an angel of Satan, to buffet me.

47N 12 8 For which thing thrice I besought the Lord, that it might depart from me.

47N 12 9 And he said to me: My grace is sufficient for thee; for power is made perfect in infirmity. Gladly therefore will I glory in my infirmities, that the power of Christ may dwell in me.

47N 12 10 For which cause I please myself in my infirmities, in reproaches, in necessities, in persecutions, in distresses, for Christ. For when I am weak, then am I powerful.

47N 12 11 I am become foolish: you have compelled me. For I ought to have been commended by you: for I have no way come short of them that are above measure apostles, although I be nothing.

47N 12 12 Yet the signs of my apostleship have been wrought on you, in all patience, in signs, and wonders, and mighty deeds.

47N 12 13 For what is there that you have had less than the other churches, but that I myself was not burthensome to you? Pardon me this injury.

47N 12 14 Behold now the third time I am ready to come to you; and I will not be burthensome unto you. For I seek not the things that are yours, but you. For neither ought the children to lay up for the parents, but the parents for the children.

47N 12 15 But I most gladly will spend and be spent myself for your souls; although loving you more, I be loved less.

47N 12 16 But be it so: I did not burthen you: but being crafty, I caught you by guile.

47N 12 17 Did I overreach you by any of them whom I sent to you?

47N 12 18 I desired Titus, and I sent with him a brother. Did Titus overreach you? Did we not walk with the same spirit? did we not in the same steps?

47N 12 19 Of old, think you that we excuse ourselves to you? We speak before God in Christ; but all things, my dearly beloved, for your edification.

47N 12 20 For I fear lest perhaps when I come I shall not find you such as I would, and that I shall be found by you such as you would not. Lest perhaps contentions, envyings, animosities, dissensions, detractions, whisperings, swellings, seditions, be among you.

47N 12 21 Lest again, when I come, God humble me among you: and I mourn many of them that sinned before, and have not done penance for the uncleanness, and fornication, and lasciviousness, that they have committed.

47N 13 1 Behold, this is the third time I am coming to you: In the mouth of two or three witnesses shall every word stand.

47N 13 2 I have told before, and foretell, as present, and now absent, to them that sinned before, and to all the rest, that if I come again, I will not spare.

47N 13 3 Do you seek a proof of Christ that speaketh in me, who towards you is not weak, but is mighty in you?

47N 13 4 For although he was crucified through weakness, yet he liveth by the power of God. For we also are weak in him: but we shall live with him by the power of God towards you.

47N 13 5 Try your own selves if you be in the faith; prove ye yourselves. Know you not your own selves, that Christ Jesus is in you, unless perhaps you be reprobates?

47N 13 6 But I trust that you shall know that we are not reprobates.

47N 13 7 Now we pray God, that you may do no evil, not that we may appear approved, but that you may do that which is good, and that we may be as reprobates.

47N 13 8 For we can do nothing against the truth; but for the truth.

47N 13 9 For we rejoyce that we are weak, and you are strong. This also we pray for, your perfection.

47N 13 10 Therefore I write these things, being absent, that, being present, I may not deal more severely, according to the power which the Lord hath given me unto edification, and not unto destruction.

47N 13 11 For the rest, brethren, rejoyce, be perfect, take exhortation, be of one mind, have peace; and the God of peace and of love shall be with you.

47N 13 12 Salute one another with a holy kiss. All the saints salute you.

47N 13 13 The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, and the charity of God, and the communication of the Holy Ghost be with you all. Amen.

48N 1 1 Paul, an apostle, not of men, neither by man, but by Jesus Christ, and God the Father, who raised him from the dead, 48N 1 2 And all the brethren who are with me, to the churches of Galatia.

48N 1 3 Grace be to you, and peace from God the Father, and from our Lord Jesus Christ,

48N 1 4 Who gave himself for our sins, that he might deliver us from this present wicked world, according to the will of God and our Father:

48N 1 5 To whom is glory for ever and ever. Amen.

48N 1 6 I wonder that you are so soon removed from him that called you into the grace of Christ, unto another gospel.

48N 1 7 Which is not another, only there are some that trouble you, and would pervert the gospel of Christ.

48N 1 8 But though we, or an angel from heaven, preach a gospel to you besides that which we have preached to you, let him be anathema.

48N 1 9 As we said before, so now I say again: If any one preach to you a gospel, besides that which you have received, let him be anathema.

48N 1 10 For do I now persuade men, or God? Or do I seek to please men? If I yet pleased men, I should not be the servant of Christ.

48N 1 11 For I give you to understand, brethren, that the gospel which was preached by me is not according to man.

48N 1 12 For neither did I receive it of man, nor did I learn it; but by the revelation of Jesus Christ.

48N 1 13 For you have heard of my conversation in time past in the Jews' religion: how that, beyond measure, I persecuted the church of God, and wasted it.

48N 1 14 And I made progress in the Jews' religion above many of my equals in my own nation, being more abundantly zealous for the traditions of my fathers.

48N 1 15 But when it pleased him, who separated me from my mother's womb, and called me by his grace, 48N 1 16 To reveal his Son in me, that I might preach him among the Gentiles, immediately I condescended not to flesh and blood.

48N 1 17 Neither went I to Jerusalem, to the apostles who were before me: but I went into Arabia, and again I returned to Damascus.

48N 1 18 Then, after three years, I went to Jerusalem, to see Peter, and I tarried with him fifteen days.

48N 1 19 But other of the apostles I saw none, saving James the brother of the Lord.

48N 1 20 Now the things which I write to you, behold, before God, I lie not.

48N 1 21 Afterwards I came into the regions of Syria and Cilicia.

48N 1 22 And I was unknown by face to the churches of Judea, which were in Christ:

48N 1 23 But they had heard only: He, who persecuted us in times past, doth now preach the faith which once he impugned:

48N 1 24 And they glorified God in me.

48N 2 1 Then, after fourteen years, I went up again to Jerusalem with Barnabas, taking Titus also with me.

48N 2 2 And I went up according to revelation; and communicated to them the gospel, which I preach among the Gentiles, but apart to them who seemed to be some thing: lest perhaps I should run, or had run in vain.

48N 2 3 But neither Titus, who was with me, being a Gentile, was compelled to be circumcised.

48N 2 4 But because of false brethren unawares brought in, who came in privately to spy our liberty, which we have in Christ Jesus, that they might bring us into servitude.

48N 2 5 To whom we yielded not by subjection, no not for an hour, that the truth of the gospel might continue with you.

48N 2 6 But of them who seemed to be some thing, (what they were some time, it is nothing to me, God accepteth not the person of man,) for to me they that seemed to be some thing added nothing.

48N 2 7 But contrariwise, when they had seen that to me was committed the gospel of the uncircumcision, as to Peter was that of the circumcision.

48N 2 8 (For he who wrought in Peter to the apostleship of the circumcision, wrought in me also among the Gentiles.)

48N 2 9 And when they had known the grace that was given to me, James and Cephas and John, who seemed to be pillars, gave to me and Barnabas the right hands of fellowship: that we should go unto the Gentiles, and they unto the circumcision:

48N 2 10 Only that we should be mindful of the poor: which same thing also I was careful to do.

48N 2 11 But when Cephas was come to Antioch, I withstood him to the face, because he was to be blamed.

48N 2 12 For before that some came from James, he did eat with the Gentiles: but when they were come, he withdrew and separated himself, fearing them who were of the circumcision.

48N 2 13 And to his dissimulation the rest of the Jews consented, so that Barnabas also was led by them into that dissimulation.

48N 2 14 But when I saw that they walked not uprightly unto the truth of the gospel, I said to Cephas before them all: If thou, being a Jew, livest after the manner of the Gentiles, and not as the Jews do, how dost thou compel the Gentiles to live as do the Jews?

48N 2 15 We by nature are Jews, and not of the Gentiles sinners.

48N 2 16 But knowing that man is not justified by the works of the law, but by the faith of Jesus Christ; we also believe in Christ Jesus, that we may be justified by the faith of Christ, and not by the works of the law: because by the works of the law no flesh shall be justified.

48N 2 17 But if while we seek to be justified in Christ, we ourselves also are found sinners; is Christ then the minister of sin? God forbid.

48N 2 18 For if I build up again the things which I have destroyed, I make myself a prevaricator.

48N 2 19 For I, through the law, am dead to the law, that I may live to God: with Christ I am nailed to the cross.

48N 2 20 And I live, now not I; but Christ liveth in me. And that I live now in the flesh: I live in the faith of the Son of God, who loved me, and delivered himself for me.

48N 2 21 I cast not away the grace of God. For if justice be by the law, then Christ died in vain.

48N 3 1 O senseless Galatians, who hath bewitched you that you should not obey the truth, before whose eyes Jesus Christ hath been set forth, crucified among you?

48N 3 2 This only would I learn of you: Did you receive the Spirit by the works of the law, or by the hearing of faith?

48N 3 3 Are you so foolish, that, whereas you began in the Spirit, you would now be made perfect by the flesh?

48N 3 4 Have you suffered so great things in vain? If it be yet in vain.

48N 3 5 He therefore who giveth to you the Spirit, and worketh miracles among you; doth he do it by the works of the law, or by the hearing of the faith?

48N 3 6 As it is written: Abraham believed God, and it was reputed to him unto justice.

48N 3 7 Know ye therefore, that they who are of faith, the same are the children of Abraham.

48N 3 8 And the scripture, foreseeing, that God justifieth the Gentiles by faith, told unto Abraham before: In thee shall all nations be blessed.

48N 3 9 Therefore they that are of faith, shall be blessed with faithful Abraham.

48N 3 10 For as many as are of the works of the law, are under a curse. For it is written: Cursed is every one, that abideth not in all things, which are written in the book of the law to do them.

48N 3 11 But that in the law no man is justified with God, it is manifest: because the just man liveth by faith.

48N 3 12 But the law is not of faith: but, He that doth those things, shall live in them.

48N 3 13 Christ hath redeemed us from the curse of the law, being made a curse for us: for it is written: Cursed is every one that hangeth on a tree:

48N 3 14 That the blessing of Abraham might come on the Gentiles through Christ Jesus: that we may receive the promise of the Spirit by faith.

48N 3 15 Brethren (I speak after the manner of man,) yet a man's testament, if it be confirmed, no man despiseth, nor addeth to it.

48N 3 16 To Abraham were the promises made and to his seed. He saith not, And to his seeds, as of many: but as of one, And to thy seed, which is Christ.

48N 3 17 Now this I say, that the testament which was confirmed by God, the law which was made after four hundred and thirty years, doth not disannul, to make the promise of no effect.

48N 3 18 For if the inheritance be of the law, it is no more of promise. But God gave it to Abraham by promise.

48N 3 19 Why then was the law? It was set because of transgressions, until the seed should come, to whom he made the promise, being ordained by angels in the hand of a mediator.

48N 3 20 Now a mediator is not of one: but God is one.

48N 3 21 Was the law then against the promises of God? God forbid. For if there had been a law given which could give life, verily justice should have been by the law.

48N 3 22 But the scripture hath concluded all under sin, that the promise, by the faith of Jesus Christ, might be given to them that believe.

48N 3 23 But before the faith came, we were kept under the law shut up, unto that faith which was to be revealed.

48N 3 24 Wherefore the law was our pedagogue in Christ, that we might be justified by faith.

48N 3 25 But after the faith is come, we are no longer under a pedagogue.

48N 3 26 For you are all the children of God by faith, in Christ Jesus.

48N 3 27 For as many of you as have been baptized in Christ, have put on Christ.

48N 3 28 There is neither Jew nor Greek: there is neither bond nor free: there is neither male nor female. For you are all one in Christ Jesus.

48N 3 29 And if you be Christ's, then are you the seed of Abraham, heirs according to the promise.

48N 4 1 Now I say, as long as the heir is a child, he differeth nothing from a servant, though he be lord of all;

48N 4 2 But is under tutors and governors until the time appointed by the father:

48N 4 3 So we also, when we were children, were serving under the elements of the world.

48N 4 4 But when the fulness of the time was come, God sent his Son, made of a woman, made under the law:

48N 4 5 That he might redeem them who were under the law: that we might receive the adoption of sons.

48N 4 6 And because you are sons, God hath sent the Spirit of his Son into your hearts, crying: Abba, Father.

48N 4 7 Therefore now he is not a servant, but a son. And if a son, an heir also through God.

48N 4 8 But then indeed, not knowing God, you served them, who, by nature, are not gods.

48N 4 9 But now, after that you have known God, or rather are known by God: how turn you again to the weak and needy elements, which you desire to serve again?

48N 4 10 You observe days, and months, and times, and years.

48N 4 11 I am afraid of you, lest perhaps I have laboured in vain among you.

48N 4 12 Be ye as I, because I also am as you: brethren, I beseech you: you have not injured me at all.

48N 4 13 And you know, how through infirmity of the flesh, I preached the gospel to you heretofore: and your temptation in my flesh, 48N 4 14 You despised not, nor rejected: but received me as an angel of God, even as Christ Jesus.

48N 4 15 Where is then your blessedness? For I bear you witness, that, if it could be done, you would have plucked out your own eyes, and would have given them to me.

48N 4 16 Am I then become your enemy, because I tell you the truth?

48N 4 17 They are zealous in your regard not well: but they would exclude you, that you might be zealous for them.

48N 4 18 But be zealous for that which is good in a good thing always: and not only when I am present with you.

48N 4 19 My little children, of whom I am in labour again, until Christ be formed in you.

48N 4 20 And I would willingly be present with you now, and change my voice: because I am ashamed for you.

48N 4 21 Tell me, you that desire to be under the law, have you not read the law?

48N 4 22 For it is written that Abraham had two sons: the one by a bondwoman, and the other by a free woman.

48N 4 23 But he who was of the bondwoman, was born according to the flesh: but he of the free woman, was by promise.

48N 4 24 Which things are said by an allegory. For these are the two testaments. The one from mount Sina, engendering unto bondage; which is Agar:

48N 4 25 For Sina is a mountain in Arabia, which hath affinity to that Jerusalem which now is, and is in bondage with her children.

48N 4 26 But that Jerusalem, which is above, is free: which is our mother.

48N 4 27 For it is written: Rejoice, thou barren, that bearest not: break forth and cry, thou that travailest not: for many are the children of the desolate, more than of her that hath a husband.

48N 4 28 Now we, brethren, as Isaac was, are the children of promise.

48N 4 29 But as then he, that was born according to the flesh, persecuted him that was after the spirit; so also it is now.

48N 4 30 But what saith the scripture? Cast out the bondwoman and her son; for the son of the bondwoman shall not be heir with the son of the free woman.

48N 4 31 So then, brethren, we are not the children of the bondwoman, but of the free: by the freedom wherewith Christ has made us free.

48N 5 1 Stand fast, and be not held again under the yoke of bondage.

48N 5 2 Behold, I Paul tell you, that if you be circumcised, Christ shall profit you nothing.

48N 5 3 And I testify again to every man circumcising himself, that he is a debtor to the whole law.

48N 5 4 You are made void of Christ, you who are justified in the law: you are fallen from grace.

48N 5 5 For we in spirit, by faith, wait for the hope of justice.

48N 5 6 For in Christ Jesus neither circumcision availeth any thing, nor uncircumcision: but faith that worketh by charity.

48N 5 7 You did run well, who hath hindered you, that you should not obey the truth?

48N 5 8 This persuasion is not from him that calleth you.

48N 5 9 A little leaven corrupteth the whole lump.

48N 5 10 I have confidence in you in the Lord: that you will not be of another mind: but he that troubleth you, shall bear the judgment, whosoever he be.

48N 5 11 And I, brethren, if I yet preach circumcision, why do I yet suffer persecution? Then is the scandal of the cross made void.

48N 5 12 I would they were even cut off, who trouble you.

48N 5 13 For you, brethren, have been called unto liberty: only make not liberty an occasion to the flesh, but by charity of the spirit serve one another.

48N 5 14 For all the law is fulfilled in one word: Thou shalt love thy neighbour as thyself.

48N 5 15 But if you bite and devour one another; take heed you be not consumed one of another.

48N 5 16 I say then, walk in the spirit, and you shall not fulfil the lusts of the flesh.
 48N 5 17 For the flesh lusteth against the spirit: and the spirit against the flesh; for these are contrary one to another: so that you do not the things that you would.
 48N 5 18 But if you are led by the spirit, you are not under the law.
 48N 5 19 Now the works of the flesh are manifest, which are fornication, uncleanness, immodesty, luxury,
 48N 5 20 Idolatry, witchcrafts, enmities, contentions, emulations, wraths, quarrels, dissensions, sects,
 48N 5 21 Envies, murders, drunkenness, revellings, and such like. Of the which I foretell you, as I have foretold to you, that they who do such things shall not obtain the kingdom of God.
 48N 5 22 But the fruit of the Spirit is, charity, joy, peace, patience, benignity, goodness, longanimity, 48N 5 23 Mildness, faith, modesty, continency, chastity. Against such there is no law.
 48N 5 24 And they that are Christ's, have crucified their flesh, with the vices and concupiscences.
 48N 5 25 If we live in the Spirit, let us also walk in the Spirit.
 48N 5 26 Let us not be made desirous of vain glory, provoking one another, envying on another.
 48N 6 1 Brethren, and if a man be overtaken in any fault, you, who are spiritual, instruct such a one in the spirit of meekness, considering thyself, lest thou also be tempted.
 48N 6 2 Bear ye one another's burdens; and so you shall fulfil the law of Christ.
 48N 6 3 For if any man think himself to be some thing, whereas he is nothing, he deceiveth himself.
 48N 6 4 But let every one prove his own work, and so he shall have glory in himself only, and not in another.
 48N 6 5 For every one shall bear his own burden.
 48N 6 6 And let him that is instructed in the word, communicate to him that instructeth him, in all good things.
 48N 6 7 Be not deceived, God is not mocked.
 48N 6 8 For what things a man shall sow, those also shall he reap. For he that soweth in his flesh, of the flesh also shall reap corruption. But he that soweth in the spirit, of the spirit shall reap life everlasting.
 48N 6 9 And in doing good, let us not fail. For in due time we shall reap, not failing.
 48N 6 10 Therefore, whilst we have time, let us work good to all men, but especially to those who are of the household of the faith.
 48N 6 11 See what a letter I have written to you with my own hand.
 48N 6 12 For as many as desire to please in the flesh, they constrain you to be circumcised, only that they may not suffer the persecution of the cross of Christ.
 48N 6 13 For neither they themselves who are circumcised, keep the law; but they will have you to be circumcised, that they may glory in your flesh.
 48N 6 14 But God forbid that I should glory, save in the cross of our Lord Jesus Christ; by whom the world is crucified to me, and I to the world.
 48N 6 15 For in Christ Jesus neither circumcision availeth any thing, nor uncircumcision, but a new creature.
 48N 6 16 And whosoever shall follow this rule, peace on them, and mercy, and upon the Israel of God.
 48N 6 17 From henceforth let no man be troublesome to me; for I bear the marks of the Lord Jesus in my body.
 48N 6 18 The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with your spirit, brethren. Amen.
 49N 1 1 Paul, an apostle of Jesus Christ, by the will of God, to all the saints who are at Ephesus, and to the faithful in Christ Jesus.

49N 1 2 Grace be to you, and peace from God the Father, and from the Lord Jesus Christ.

49N 1 3 Blessed by the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who hath blessed us with spiritual blessings in heavenly places, in Christ:

49N 1 4 As he chose us in him before the foundation of the world, that we should be holy and unspotted in his sight in charity.

49N 1 5 Who hath predestinated us unto the adoption of children through Jesus Christ unto himself: according to the purpose of his will:

49N 1 6 Unto the praise of the glory of his grace, in which he hath graced us in his beloved son.

49N 1 7 In whom we have redemption through his blood, the remission of sins, according to the riches of his grace,

49N 1 8 Which hath superabounded in us in all wisdom and prudence,

49N 1 9 That he might make known unto us the mystery of his will, according to his good pleasure, which he hath purposed in him,

49N 1 10 In the dispensation of the fulness of times, to re-establish all things in Christ, that are in heaven and on earth, in him.

49N 1 11 In whom we also are called by lot, being predestinated according to the purpose of him who worketh all things according to the counsel of his will.

49N 1 12 That we may be unto the praise of his glory, we who before hoped Christ:

49N 1 13 In whom you also, after you had heard the word of truth, (the gospel of your salvation;) in whom also believing, you were signed with the holy Spirit of promise, 49N 1 14 Who is the pledge of our inheritance, unto the redemption of acquisition, unto the praise of his glory.

49N 1 15 Wherefore I also, hearing of your faith that is in the Lord Jesus, and of your love towards all the saints,

49N 1 16 Cease not to give thanks for you, making commemoration of you in my prayers,

49N 1 17 That the God of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of glory, may give unto you the spirit of wisdom and of revelation, in the knowledge of him:

49N 1 18 The eyes of your heart enlightened, that you may know what the hope is of the glory of his inheritance in the saints.

49N 1 19 And what is the exceeding greatness of his power towards us, who believe according to the operation of the might of his power, 49N 1 20 Which he wrought in Christ, raising him up from the dead, and setting him on his right hand in the heavenly places.

49N 1 21 Above all principality, and power, and virtue, and dominion, and every name that is named, not only in this world, but also in that which is to come.

49N 1 22 And he hath subjected all things under his feet, and hath made him head over all the church, 49N 1 23 Which is his body, and the fulness of him who is filled all in all.

49N 2 1 And you, when you were dead in your offences, and sins,

49N 2 2 Wherein in time past you walked according to the course of this world, according to the prince of the power of this air, of the spirit that now worketh on the children of unbelief:

49N 2 3 In which also we all conversed in time past, in the desires of our flesh, fulfilling the will of the flesh and of our thoughts, and were by nature children of wrath, even as the rest:

49N 2 4 But God, (who is rich in mercy,) for his exceeding charity wherewith he loved us,

49N 2 5 Even when we were dead in sins, hath quickened us together in Christ, (by whose grace you are saved,)

49N 2 6 And hath raised us up together, and hath made us sit together in the heavenly places, through Christ Jesus.
 49N 2 7 That he might shew in the ages to come the abundant riches of his grace, in his bounty towards us in Christ Jesus.
 49N 2 8 For by grace you are saved through faith, and that not of yourselves, for it is the gift of God;
 49N 2 9 Not of works, that no man may glory.
 49N 2 10 For we are his workmanship, created in Christ Jesus in good works, which God hath prepared that we should walk in them.
 49N 2 11 For which cause be mindful that you, being heretofore Gentiles in the flesh, who are called uncircumcision by that which is called circumcision in the flesh, made by hands;
 49N 2 12 That you were at that time without Christ, being aliens from the conversation of Israel, and strangers to the testament, having no hope of the promise, and without God in this world.
 49N 2 13 But now in Christ Jesus, you, who some time were afar off, are made nigh by the blood of Christ.
 49N 2 14 For he is our peace, who hath made both one, and breaking down the middle wall of partition, the enmities in his flesh:
 49N 2 15 Making void the law of commandments contained in decrees; that he might make the two in himself into one new man, making peace;
 49N 2 16 And might reconcile both to God in one body by the cross, killing the enmities in himself.
 49N 2 17 And coming, he preached peace to you that were afar off, and peace to them that were nigh.
 49N 2 18 For by him we have access both in one Spirit to the Father.
 49N 2 19 Now therefore you are no more strangers and foreigners; but you are fellow citizens with the saints, and the domestics of God,
 49N 2 20 Built upon the foundation of the apostles and prophets, Jesus Christ himself being the chief corner stone:
 49N 2 21 In whom all the building, being framed together, groweth up into an holy temple in the Lord.
 49N 2 22 In whom you also are built together into an habitation of God in the Spirit.
 49N 3 1 For this cause, I Paul, the prisoner of Jesus Christ, for you Gentiles;
 49N 3 2 If yet you have heard of the dispensation of the grace of God which is given me towards you:
 49N 3 3 How that, according to revelation, the mystery has been made known to me, as I have written above in a few words;
 49N 3 4 As you reading, may understand my knowledge in the mystery of Christ,
 49N 3 5 Which in other generations was not known to the sons of men, as it is now revealed to his holy apostles and prophets in the Spirit:
 49N 3 6 That the Gentiles should be fellow heirs, and of the same body, and co-partners of his promise in Christ Jesus, by the gospel:
 49N 3 7 Of which I am made a minister, according to the gift of the grace of God, which is given to me according to the operation of his power:
 49N 3 8 To me, the least of all the saints, is given this grace, to preach among the Gentiles, the unsearchable riches of Christ,
 49N 3 9 And to enlighten all men, that they may see what is the dispensation of the mystery which hath been hidden from eternity in God, who created all things:
 49N 3 10 That the manifold wisdom of God may be made known to the principalities and powers in heavenly places through the church,
 49N 3 11 According to the eternal purpose, which he made, in Christ Jesus our Lord:
 49N 3 12 In whom we have boldness and access with confidence by the faith of him.

49N 3 13 Wherefore I pray you not to faint at my tribulations for you, which is your glory.
 49N 3 14 For this cause I bow my knees to the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ,
 49N 3 15 Of whom all paternity in heaven and earth is named,
 49N 3 16 That he would grant you, according to the riches of his glory, to be strengthened by his Spirit with might unto the inward man,
 49N 3 17 That Christ may dwell by faith in your hearts; that being rooted and founded in charity,
 49N 3 18 You may be able to comprehend, with all the saints, what is the breadth, and length, and height, and depth:
 49N 3 19 To know also the charity of Christ, which surpasseth all knowledge, that you may be filled unto all the fulness of God.
 49N 3 20 Now to him who is able to do all things more abundantly than we desire or understand, according to the power that worketh in us;
 49N 3 21 To him be glory in the church, and in Christ Jesus unto all generations, world without end. Amen.
 49N 4 1 I therefore, a prisoner in the Lord, beseech you that you walk worthy of the vocation in which you are called,
 49N 4 2 With all humility and mildness, with patience, supporting one another in charity.
 49N 4 3 Careful to keep the unity of the Spirit in the bond of peace.
 49N 4 4 One body and one Spirit; as you are called in one hope of your calling.
 49N 4 5 One Lord, one faith, one baptism.
 49N 4 6 One God and Father of all, who is above all, and through all, and in us all.
 49N 4 7 But to every one of us is given grace, according to the measure of the giving of Christ.
 49N 4 8 Wherefore he saith: Ascending on high, he led captivity captive; he gave gifts to men.
 49N 4 9 Now that he ascended, what is it, but because he also descended first into the lower parts of the earth?
 49N 4 10 He that descended is the same also that ascended above all the heavens, that he might fill all things.
 49N 4 11 And he gave some apostles, and some prophets, and other some evangelists, and other some pastors and doctors,
 49N 4 12 For the perfecting of the saints, for the work of the ministry, for the edifying of the body of Christ:
 49N 4 13 Until we all meet into the unity of faith, and of the knowledge of the Son of God, unto a perfect man, unto the measure of the age of the fulness of Christ;
 49N 4 14 That henceforth we be no more children tossed to and fro, and carried about with every wind of doctrine by the wickedness of men, by cunning craftiness, by which they lie in wait to deceive
 49N 4 15 But doing the truth in charity, we may in all things grow up in him who is the head, even Christ:
 49N 4 16 From whom the whole body, being compacted and fitly joined together, by what every joint supplieth, according to the operation in the measure of every part, maketh increase of the body, unto the edifying of itself in charity.
 49N 4 17 This then I say and testify in the Lord: That henceforward you walk not as also the Gentiles walk in the vanity of their mind, 49N 4 18 Having their understanding darkened, being alienated from the life of God through the ignorance that is in them, because of the blindness of their hearts.
 49N 4 19 Who despairing, have given themselves up to lasciviousness, unto the working of all uncleanness, unto the working of all uncleanness, unto covetousness.

49N 4 20 But you have not so learned Christ; 49N 4 21 If so be that you have heard him, and have been taught in him, as the truth is in Jesus:
 49N 4 22 To put off, according to former conversation, the old man, who is corrupted according to the desire of error.
 49N 4 23 And be renewed in the spirit of your mind:
 49N 4 24 And put on the new man, who according to God is created in justice and holiness of truth.
 49N 4 25 Wherefore putting away lying, speak ;ye the truth every man with his neighbour; for we are members one of another.
 49N 4 26 Be angry, and sin not. Let not the sun go down upon your anger.
 49N 4 27 Give not place to the devil.
 49N 4 28 He that stole, let him now steal no more; but rather let him labour, working with his hands the thing which is good, that he may have something to give to him that suffereth need.
 49N 4 29 Let no evil speech proceed from your mouth; but that which is good, to the edification of faith, that it may administer grace to the hearers.
 49N 4 30 And grieve not the holy Spirit of God: whereby you are sealed unto the day of redemption.
 49N 4 31 Let all bitterness, and anger, and indignation, and clamour, and blasphemy, be put away from you, with all malice.
 49N 4 32 And be ye kind one to another; merciful, forgiving one another, even as God hath forgiven you in Christ.
 49N 5 1 Be ye therefore followers of God, as most dear children;
 49N 5 2 And walk in love, as Christ also hath loved us, and hath delivered himself for us, an oblation and a sacrifice to God for an odour of sweetness.
 49N 5 3 But fornication, and all uncleanness, or covetousness, let it not so much as be named among you, as becometh saints:
 49N 5 4 Or obscenity, or foolish talking, or scurrility, which is to no purpose; but rather giving of thanks.
 49N 5 5 For know you this and understand, that no fornicator, or unclean, or covetous person (which is a serving of idols), hath inheritance in the kingdom of Christ and of God.
 49N 5 6 Let no man deceive you with vain words. For because of these things cometh the anger of God upon the children of unbelief.
 49N 5 7 Be ye not therefore partakers with them.
 49N 5 8 For you were heretofore darkness, but now light in the Lord. Walk then as children of the light.
 49N 5 9 For the fruit of the light is in all goodness, and justice, and truth;
 49N 5 10 Proving what is well pleasing to God:
 49N 5 11 And have no fellowship with the unfruitful works of darkness, but rather reprove them.
 49N 5 12 For the things that are done by them in secret, it is a shame even to speak of.
 49N 5 13 But all things that are reproved, are made manifest by the light; for all that is made manifest is light.
 49N 5 14 Wherefore he saith: Rise thou that sleepest, and arise from the dead: and Christ shall enlighten thee.
 49N 5 15 See therefore, brethren, how you walk circumspectly: not as unwise, 49N 5 16 But as wise: redeeming the time, because the days are evil.
 49N 5 17 Wherefore become not unwise, but understanding what is the will of God.
 49N 5 18 And be not drunk with wine, wherein is luxury; but be ye filled with the holy Spirit,
 49N 5 19 Speaking to yourselves in psalms, and hymns, and spiritual canticles, singing and making melody in your hearts to the Lord;

49N 5 20 Giving thanks always for all things, in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, to God and the Father:

49N 5 21 Being subject one to another, in the fear of Christ.

49N 5 22 Let women be subject to their husbands, as to the Lord:

49N 5 23 Because the husband is the head of the wife, as Christ is the head of the church. He is the saviour of his body.

49N 5 24 Therefore as the church is subject to Christ, so also let the wives be to their husbands in all things.

49N 5 25 Husbands, love your wives, as Christ also loved the church, and delivered himself up for it:

49N 5 26 That he might sanctify it, cleansing it by the laver of water in the word of life:

49N 5 27 That he might present it to himself a glorious church, not having spot or wrinkle, or any; such thing; but that it should be holy, and without blemish.

49N 5 28 So also ought men to love their wives as their own bodies. He that loveth his wife, loveth himself.

49N 5 29 For no man ever hated his own flesh; but nourisheth and cherisheth it, as also Christ doth the church:

49N 5 30 Because we are members of his body, of his flesh, and of his bones.

49N 5 31 For this cause shall a man leave his father and mother, and shall cleave to his wife, and they shall be two in one flesh.

49N 5 32 This is a great sacrament; but I speak in Christ and in the church.

49N 5 33 Nevertheless let every one of you in particular love his wife as himself: and let the wife fear her husband.

49N 6 1 Children, obey your parents in the Lord, for this is just.

49N 6 2 Honour thy father and thy mother, which is the first commandment with a promise:

49N 6 3 That it may be well with thee, and thou mayest be long lived upon earth.

49N 6 4 And you, fathers, provoke not your children to anger; but bring them up in the discipline and correction of the Lord.

49N 6 5 Servants, be obedient to them that are your lords according to the flesh, with fear and trembling, in the simplicity of your heart, as to Christ:

49N 6 6 Not serving to the eye, as it were pleasing men, but, as the servants of Christ doing the will of God from the heart, 49N 6 7 With a good will serving, as to the Lord, and not to men.

49N 6 8 Knowing that whatsoever good thing any man shall do, the same shall he receive from the Lord, whether he be bond, or free.

49N 6 9 And you, masters, do the same things to them, forbearing threatenings, knowing that the Lord both of them and you is in heaven; and there is no respect of persons with him.

49N 6 10 Finally, brethren, be strengthened in the Lord, and in the might of his power.

49N 6 11 Put you on the armour of God, that you may be able to stand against the deceits of the devil.

49N 6 12 For our wrestling is not against flesh and blood; but against principalities and power, against the rulers of the world of this darkness, against the spirits of wickedness in the high places.

49N 6 13 Therefore take unto you the armour of God, that you may be able to resist in the evil day, and to stand in all things perfect.

49N 6 14 Stand therefore, having your loins girt about with truth, and having on the breastplate of justice,

49N 6 15 And your feet shod with the preparation of the gospel of peace:

49N 6 16 In all things taking the shield of faith, wherewith you may be able to extinguish all the fiery darts of the most wicked one.

49N 6 17 And take unto you the helmet of salvation, and the sword of the Spirit (which is the word of God).

49N 6 18 By all prayer and supplication praying at all times in the spirit; and in the same watching with all instance and supplication for all the saints:

49N 6 19 And for me, that speech may be given me, that I may open my mouth with confidence, to make known the mystery of the gospel.

49N 6 20 For which I am an ambassador in a chain, so that therein I may be bold to speak according as I ought.

49N 6 21 But that you also may know the things that concern me, and what I am doing, Tychicus, my dearest brother and faithful minister in the Lord, will make known to you all things:

49N 6 22 Whom I have sent to you for this same purpose, that you may know the things concerning us, and that he may comfort your hearts.

49N 6 23 Peace be to the brethren and charity with faith, from God the Father, and the Lord Jesus Christ.

49N 6 24 Grace be with all them that love our Lord Jesus Christ in incorruption. Amen.

50N 1 1 Paul and Timothy, the servants of Jesus Christ; to all the saints in Christ Jesus, who are at Philippi, with the bishops and deacons.

50N 1 2 Grace be unto you, and peace from God our Father, and from the Lord Jesus Christ.

50N 1 3 I give thanks to my God in every remembrance of you,

50N 1 4 Always in all my prayers making supplication for you all, with joy;

50N 1 5 For your communication in the gospel of Christ from the first day until now.

50N 1 6 Being confident of this very thing, that he, who hath begun a good work in you, will perfect it unto the day of Christ Jesus.

50N 1 7 As it is meet for me to think this for you all, for that I have you in my heart; and that in my bands, and in the defence and confirmation of the gospel, you all are partakers of my joy.

50N 1 8 For God is my witness, how I long after you all in the bowels of Jesus Christ.

50N 1 9 And this I pray, that your charity may more and more abound in knowledge, and in all understanding:

50N 1 10 That you may approve the better things, that you may be sincere and without offence unto the day of Christ,

50N 1 11 Filled with the fruit of justice, through Jesus Christ, unto the glory and praise of God.

50N 1 12 Now, brethren, I desire you should know, that the things which have happened to me, have fallen out rather to the furtherance of the gospel:

50N 1 13 So that my bands are made manifest in Christ, in all the court, and in all other places;

50N 1 14 And many of the brethren in the Lord, growing confident by my bands, are much more bold to speak the word of God without fear.

50N 1 15 Some indeed, even out of envy and contention; but some also for good will preach Christ.

50N 1 16 Some out of charity, knowing that I am set for the defence of the gospel.

50N 1 17 And some out of contention preach Christ not sincerely: supposing that they raise affliction to my bands.

50N 1 18 But what then? So that by all means, whether by occasion, or by truth, Christ be preached: in this also I rejoice, yea, and will rejoice.

50N 1 19 For I know that this shall fall out to me unto salvation, through your prayer, and the supply of the Spirit of Jesus Christ,

50N 1 20 According to my expectation and hope; that in nothing I shall be confounded, but with all confidence, as always, so now also shall Christ be magnified in my body, wither it be by life, or by death.

50N 1 21 For to me, to live is Christ; and to die is gain.

50N 1 22 And if to live in the flesh, that is to me the fruit of labour, and what I shall choose I know not.

50N 1 23 But I am straitened between two: having a desire to be dissolved and to be with Christ, a thing by far the better.

50N 1 24 But to abide still in the flesh, is needful for you.

50N 1 25 And having this confidence, I know that I shall abide, and continue with you all, for your furtherance and joy of faith:

50N 1 26 That your rejoicing may abound in Christ Jesus for me, by my coming to you again.

50N 1 27 Only let your conversation be worthy of the gospel of Christ: that, whether I come and see you, or, being absent, may hear of you, that you stand fast in one spirit, with one mind labouring together for the faith of the gospel.

50N 1 28 And in nothing be ye terrified by the adversaries: which to them is a cause of perdition, but to you of salvation, and this from God:

50N 1 29 For unto you it is given for Christ, not only to believe in him, but also to suffer for him.

50N 1 30 Having the same conflict as that which you have seen in me, and now have heard of me.

50N 2 1 If there be therefore any consolation in Christ, if any comfort of charity, if any society of the spirit, if any bowels of commiseration:

50N 2 2 Fulfil ye my joy, that you may be of one mind, having the same charity, being of one accord, agreeing in sentiment.

50N 2 3 Let nothing be done through contention, neither by vain glory: but in humility, let each esteem others better than themselves:

50N 2 4 Each one not considering the things that are his own, but those that are other men's.

50N 2 5 For let this mind be in you, which was also in Christ Jesus:

50N 2 6 Who being in the form of God, thought it not robbery to be equal with God:

50N 2 7 But emptied himself, taking the form of a servant, being made in the likeness of men, and in habit found as a man.

50N 2 8 He humbled himself, becoming obedient unto death, even to the death of the cross.

50N 2 9 For which cause God also hath exalted him, and hath given him a name which is above all names:

50N 2 10 That in the name of Jesus every knee should bow, of those that are in heaven, on earth, and under the earth:

50N 2 11 And that every tongue should confess that the Lord Jesus Christ is in the glory of God the Father.

50N 2 12 Wherefore, my dearly beloved, (as you have always obeyed, not as in my presence only, but much more now in my absence,) with fear and trembling work out your salvation.

50N 2 13 For it is God who worketh in you, both to will and to accomplish, according to his good will.

50N 2 14 And do ye all things without murmurings and hesitations;

50N 2 15 That you may be blameless, and sincere children of God, without reproof, in the midst of a crooked and perverse generation; among whom you shine as lights in the world.

50N 2 16 Holding forth the word of life to my glory in the day of Christ, because I have not run in vain, nor laboured in vain.

50N 2 17 Yea, and if I be made a victim upon the sacrifice and service of your faith, I rejoice, and congratulate with you all.

50N 2 18 And for the selfsame thing do you also rejoice, and congratulate with me.
 50N 2 19 And I hope in the Lord Jesus to send Timothy unto you shortly, that I also may be of good comfort, when I know the things concerning you.
 50N 2 20 For I have no man so of the same mind, who with sincere affection is solicitous for you.
 50N 2 21 For all seek the things that are their own; not the things that are Jesus Christ's.
 50N 2 22 Now know ye the proof of him, that as a son with the father, so hath he served with me in the gospel.
 50N 2 23 Him therefore I hope to send unto you immediately, so soon as I shall see how it will go with me.
 50N 2 24 And I trust in the Lord, that I myself also shall come to you shortly.
 50N 2 25 But I have thought it necessary to send to you Epaphroditus, my brother and fellow labourer, and fellow soldier, but your apostle, and he that hath ministered to my wants.
 50N 2 26 For indeed he longed after you all: and was sad, for that you had heard that he was sick.
 50N 2 27 For indeed he was sick, nigh unto death; but God had mercy on him; and not only on him, but on me also, lest I should have sorrow upon sorrow.
 50N 2 28 Therefore I sent him the more speedily: that seeing him again, you may rejoice, and I may be without sorrow.
 50N 2 29 Receive him therefore with all joy in the Lord; and treat with honour such as he is.
 50N 2 30 Because for the work of Christ he came to the point of death: delivering his life, that he might fulfil that which on your part was wanting towards my service.
 50N 3 1 As to the rest, my brethren, rejoice in the Lord. To write the same things to you, to me indeed is not wearisome, but to you it is necessary.
 50N 3 2 Beware of dogs, beware of evil workers, beware of the concision.
 50N 3 3 For we are the circumcision, who in spirit serve God; and glory in Christ
 Jesus, not having confidence in the flesh.
 50N 3 4 Though I might also have confidence in the flesh. If any other thinketh he may have confidence in the flesh, I more,
 50N 3 5 Being circumcised the eighth day, of the stock of Israel, of the tribe of Benjamin, an Hebrew of the Hebrews; according to the law, a Pharisee:
 50N 3 6 According to zeal, persecuting the church of God; according to the justice that is in the law, conversing without blame.
 50N 3 7 But the things that were gain to me, the same I have counted loss for Christ.
 50N 3 8 Furthermore I count all things to be but loss for the excellent knowledge of Jesus Christ my Lord; for whom I have suffered the loss of all things, and count them but as dung, that I may gain Christ:
 50N 3 9 And may be found in him, not having my justice, which is of the law, but that which is of the faith of Christ Jesus, which is of God, justice in faith:
 50N 3 10 That I may know him, and the power of his resurrection, and the fellowship of his sufferings, being made conformable to his death, 50N 3 11 If by any means I may attain to the resurrection which is from the dead.
 50N 3 12 Not as though I have already attained, or were already perfect; but I follow after, if I may by any means apprehend, wherein I am also apprehended by Christ Jesus.
 50N 3 13 Brethren, I do not count myself to have apprehended. But one thing I do:
 forgetting the things that are behind, and stretching forth myself to those that are before, 50N 3 14 I press towards the mark, to the prize of the supernal vocation of God in Christ Jesus.
 50N 3 15 Let us therefore, as many as are perfect, be thus minded; and if in any thing you be otherwise minded, this also God will reveal to you.
 50N 3 16 Nevertheless whereunto we are come, that we be of the same mind, let us also continue in the same rule.

50N 3 17 Be ye followers of me, brethren, and observe them who walk so as you have our model.

50N 3 18 For many walk, of whom I have told you often (and now tell you weeping), that they are enemies of the cross of Christ;

50N 3 19 Whose end is destruction; whose God is their belly; and whose glory is in their shame; who mind earthly things.

50N 3 20 But our conversation is in heaven; from whence also we look for the Saviour, our Lord Jesus Christ, 50N 3 21 Who will reform the body of our lowness, made like to the body of his glory, according to the operation whereby also he is able to subdue all things unto himself.

50N 4 1 Therefore, my dearly beloved brethren, and most desired, my joy and my crown; so stand fast in the Lord, my dearly beloved.

50N 4 2 I beg of Evodia, and I beseech Syntyche, to be of one mind in the Lord.

50N 4 3 And I entreat thee also, my sincere companion, help those women who have laboured with me in the gospel, with Clement and the rest of my fellow labourers, whose names are in the book of life.

50N 4 4 Rejoice in the Lord always; again, I say, rejoice.

50N 4 5 Let your modesty be known to all men. The Lord is nigh.

50N 4 6 Be nothing solicitous; but in every thing, by prayer and supplication, with thanksgiving, let your petitions be made known to God.

50N 4 7 And the peace of God, which surpasseth all understanding, keep your hearts and minds in Christ Jesus.

50N 4 8 For the rest, brethren, whatsoever things are true, whatsoever modest, whatsoever just, whatsoever holy, whatsoever lovely, whatsoever of good fame, if there be any virtue, if any praise of discipline, think on these things.

50N 4 9 The things which you have both learned, and received, and heard, and seen in me, these do ye, and the God of peace shall be with you.

50N 4 10 Now I rejoice in the Lord exceedingly, that now at length your thought for me hath flourished again, as you did also think; but you were busied.

50N 4 11 I speak not as it were for want. For I have learned, in whatsoever state I am, to be content therewith.

50N 4 12 I know both how to be brought low, and I know how to abound: (everywhere, and in all things I am instructed) both to be full, and to be hungry; both to abound, and to suffer need.

50N 4 13 I can do all these things in him who strengtheneth me.

50N 4 14 Nevertheless you have done well in communicating to my tribulation.

50N 4 15 And you also know, O Philippians, that in the beginning of the gospel, when I departed from Macedonia, no church communicated with me as concerning giving and receiving, but you only:

50N 4 16 For unto Thessalonica also you sent once and again for my use.

50N 4 17 Not that I seek the gift, but I seek the fruit that may abound to your account.

50N 4 18 But I have all, and abound: I am filled, having received from Epaphroditus the things you sent, an odour of sweetness, an acceptable sacrifice, pleasing to God.

50N 4 19 And may my God supply all your want, according to his riches in glory in Christ Jesus.

50N 4 20 Now to God and our Father be glory world without end. Amen.

50N 4 21 Salute ye every saint in Christ Jesus.

50N 4 22 The brethren who are with me, salute you. All the saints salute you; especially they that are of Caesar's household.

50N 4 23 The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with your spirit. Amen.

51N 1 1 Paul, an apostle of Jesus Christ, by the will of God, and Timothy, a brother, 51N 1 2 To the saints and faithful brethren in Christ Jesus, who are at Colossa.

 51N 1 3 Grace be to you and peace from God our Father, and from the Lord Jesus Christ. We give thanks to God, and the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, praying always for you.
 51N 1 4 Hearing your faith in Christ Jesus, and the love which you have towards all the saints.
 51N 1 5 For the hope that is laid up for you in heaven, which you have heard in the word of the truth of the gospel,
 51N 1 6 Which is come unto you, as also it is in the whole world, and bringeth forth fruit and groweth, even as it doth in you, since the day you heard and knew the grace of God in truth.
 51N 1 7 As you learned of Epaphras, our most beloved fellow servant, who is for you a faithful minister of Christ Jesus;
 51N 1 8 Who also hath manifested to us your love in the spirit.
 51N 1 9 Therefore we also, from the day that we heard it, cease not to pray for you, and to beg that you may be filled with the knowledge of his will, in all wisdom, and spiritual understanding:
 51N 1 10 That you may walk worthy of God, in all things pleasing; being fruitful in every good work, and increasing in the knowledge of God:
 51N 1 11 Strengthened with all might, according to the power of his glory, in all patience and longsuffering with joy,
 51N 1 12 Giving thanks to God the Father, who hath made us worthy to be partakers of the lot of the saints in light:
 51N 1 13 Who hath delivered us from the power of darkness, and hath translated us into the kingdom of the Son of his love,
 51N 1 14 In whom we have redemption through his blood, the remission of sins;
 51N 1 15 Who is the image of the invisible God, the firstborn of every creature:
 51N 1 16 For in him were all things created in heaven and on earth, visible and invisible, whether thrones, or dominations, or principalities, or powers: all things were created by him and in him.
 51N 1 17 And he is before all, and by him all things consist.
 51N 1 18 And he is the head of the body, the church, who is the beginning, the firstborn from the dead; that in all things he may hold the primacy:
 51N 1 19 Because in him, it hath well pleased the Father, that all fullness should dwell;
 51N 1 20 And through him to reconcile all things unto himself, making peace through the blood of his cross, both as to the things that are on earth, and the things that are in heaven.
 51N 1 21 And you, whereas you were some time alienated and enemies in mind in evil works:
 51N 1 22 Yet now he hath reconciled in the body of his flesh through death, to present you holy and unspotted, and blameless before him:
 51N 1 23 If so ye continue in the faith, grounded and settled, and immoveable from the hope of the gospel which you have heard, which is preached in all the creation that is under heaven, whereof I Paul am made a minister.
 51N 1 24 Who now rejoice in my sufferings for you, and fill up those things that are wanting of the sufferings of Christ, in my flesh, for his body, which is the church:
 51N 1 25 Whereof I am made a minister according to the dispensation of God, which is given me towards you, that I may fulfil the word of God:
 51N 1 26 The mystery which hath been hidden from ages and generations, but now is manifested to his saints,
 51N 1 27 To whom God would make known the riches of the glory of this mystery among the Gentiles, which is Christ, in you the hope of glory.
 51N 1 28 Whom we preach, admonishing every man, and teaching every man in all wisdom, that we may present every man perfect in Christ Jesus.

51N 1 29 Wherein also I labour, striving according to his working which he worketh in me in power.

51N 2 1 For I would have you know, what manner of care I have for you and for them that are at Laodicea, and whosoever have not seen my face in the flesh:

51N 2 2 That their hearts may be comforted, being instructed in charity, and unto all riches of fulness of understanding, unto the knowledge of the mystery of God the Father and of Christ Jesus:

51N 2 3 In whom are hid all the treasures of wisdom and knowledge.

51N 2 4 Now this I say, that no man may deceive you by loftiness of words.

51N 2 5 For though I be absent in body, yet in spirit I am with you; rejoicing, and beholding your order, and the steadfastness of your faith which is in Christ.

51N 2 6 As therefore you have received Jesus Christ the Lord, walk ye in him;

51N 2 7 Rooted and built up in him, and confirmed in the faith, as also you have learned, abounding in him in thanksgiving.

51N 2 8 Beware lest any man cheat you by philosophy, and vain deceit; according to the tradition of men, according to the elements of the world, and not according to Christ:

51N 2 9 For in him dwelleth all the fulness of the Godhead corporeally;

51N 2 10 And you are filled in him, who is the head of all principality and power:

51N 2 11 In whom also you are circumcised with circumcision not made by hand, in despoiling of the body of the flesh, but in the circumcision of Christ:

51N 2 12 Buried with him in baptism, in whom also you are risen again by the faith of the operation of God, who hath raised him up from the dead.

51N 2 13 And you, when you were dead in your sins, and the uncircumcision of your flesh; he hath quickened together with him, forgiving you all offences:

51N 2 14 Blotting out the handwriting of the decree that was against us, which was contrary to us. And he hath taken the same out of the way, fastening it to the cross:

51N 2 15 And despoiling the principalities and powers, he hath exposed them confidently in open shew, triumphing over them in himself.

51N 2 16 Let no man therefore judge you in meat or in drink, or in respect of a festival day, or of the new moon, or of the sabbaths, 51N 2 17 Which are a shadow of things to come, but the body is of Christ.

51N 2 18 Let no man seduce you, willing in humility, and religion of angels, walking in the things which he hath not seen, in vain puffed up by the sense of his flesh,

51N 2 19 And not holding the head, from which the whole body, by joints and bands, being supplied with nourishment and compacted, groweth unto the increase of God.

51N 2 20 If then you be dead with Christ from the elements of this world, why do you yet decree as though living in the world?

51N 2 21 Touch not, taste not, handle not:

51N 2 22 Which all are unto destruction by the very use, according to the precepts and doctrines of men.

51N 2 23 Which things have indeed a shew of wisdom in superstition and humility, and not sparing the body; not in any honour to the filling of the flesh.

51N 3 1 Therefore, if you be risen with Christ, seek the things that are above; where Christ is sitting at the right hand of God:

51N 3 2 Mind the things that are above, not the things that are upon the earth.

51N 3 3 For you are dead; and your life is hid with Christ in God.

51N 3 4 When Christ shall appear, who is your life, then you also shall appear with him in glory.

51N 3 5 Mortify therefore your members which are upon the earth; fornication, uncleanness, lust, evil concupiscence, and covetousness, which is the service of idols.

51N 3 6 For which things the wrath of God cometh upon the children of unbelief, 51N 3 7 In which you also walked some time, when you lived in them.

51N 3 8 But now put you also all away: anger, indignation, malice, blasphemy, filthy speech out of your mouth.
 51N 3 9 Lie not one to another: stripping yourselves of the old man with his deeds, 51N 3 10 And putting on the new, him who is renewed unto knowledge, according to the image of him that created him.
 51N 3 11 Where there is neither Gentile nor Jew, circumcision nor uncircumcision, Barbarian nor Scythian, bond nor free. But Christ is all, and in all.
 51N 3 12 Put ye on therefore, as the elect of God, holy, and beloved, the bowels of mercy, benignity, humility, modesty, patience:
 51N 3 13 Bearing with one another, and forgiving one another, if any have a complaint against another: even as the Lord hath forgiven you, so do you also.
 51N 3 14 But above all these things have charity, which is the bond of perfection:
 51N 3 15 And let the peace of Christ rejoice in your hearts, wherein also you are called in one body: and be ye thankful.
 51N 3 16 Let the word of Christ dwell in you abundantly, in all wisdom: teaching and admonishing one another in psalms, hymns, and spiritual canticles, singing in grace in your hearts to God.
 51N 3 17 All whatsoever you do in word or in work, do all in the name of the Lord Jesus Christ, giving thanks to God and the Father by him.
 51N 3 18 Wives, be subject to your husbands, as it behoveth in the Lord.
 51N 3 19 Husbands, love your wives, and be not bitter towards them.
 51N 3 20 Children, obey your parents in all things: for this is well pleasing to the Lord.
 51N 3 21 Fathers, provoke not your children to indignation, lest they be discouraged.
 51N 3 22 Servants, obey in all things your masters according to the flesh, not serving to the eye, as pleasing men, but in simplicity of heart, fearing God.
 51N 3 23 Whatsoever you do, do it from the heart, as to the Lord, and not to men:
 51N 3 24 Knowing that you shall receive of the Lord the reward of inheritance. Serve ye the Lord Christ.
 51N 3 25 For he that doth wrong, shall receive for that which he hath done wrongfully: and there is no respect of persons with God.
 51N 4 1 Masters, do to your servants that which is just and equal: knowing that you also have a master in heaven.
 51N 4 2 Be instant in prayer; watching in it with thanksgiving:
 51N 4 3 Praying withal for us also, that God may open unto us a door of speech to speak the mystery of Christ (for which also I am bound;)
 51N 4 4 That I may make it manifest as I ought to speak.
 51N 4 5 Walk with wisdom towards them that are without, redeeming the time.
 51N 4 6 Let your speech be always in grace seasoned with salt: that you may know how you ought to answer every man.
 51N 4 7 All the things that concern me, Tychicus, our dearest brother, and faithful minister and fellow servant in the Lord, will make known to you,
 51N 4 8 Whom I have sent to you for this same purpose, that he may know the things that concern you, and comfort your hearts, 51N 4 9 With Onesimus, a most beloved and faithful brother, who is one of you. All things that are done here, they shall make known to you.
 51N 4 10 Aristarchus, my fellow prisoner, saluteth you, and Mark, the cousin german of Barnabus, touching whom you have received commandments; if he come unto you, receive him:
 51N 4 11 And Jesus, that is called Justus: who are of the circumcision: these only are my helpers in the kingdom of God; who have been a comfort to me.
 51N 4 12 Epaphras saluteth you, who is one of you, a servant of Christ Jesus, who is always solicitous for you in prayers, that you may stand perfect, and full in all the will of God.
 51N 4 13 For I bear him testimony that he hath much labour for you, and for them that are at Laodicea, and them at Hierapolis.

51N 4 14 Luke, the most dear physician, saluteth you: and Demas.

51N 4 15 Salute the brethren who are at Laodicea, and Nymphas, and the church that is in his house.

51N 4 16 And when this epistle shall have been read with you, cause that it be read also in the church of the Laodiceans: and that you read that which is of the Laodiceans.

51N 4 17 And say to Archippus: Take heed to the ministry which thou hast received in the Lord, that thou fulfil it.

51N 4 18 The salutation of Paul with my own hand. Be mindful of my bands. Grace be with you. Amen

52N 1 1 Paul and Sylvanus and Timothy: to the church of the Thessalonians, in God the Father, and in the Lord Jesus Christ.

52N 1 2 Grace be to you and peace. We give thanks to God always for you all; making a remembrance of you in our prayers without ceasing,

52N 1 3 Being mindful of the work of your faith, and labour, and charity, and of the enduring of the hope of our Lord Jesus Christ before God and our Father:

52N 1 4 Knowing, brethren beloved of God, your election:

52N 1 5 For our gospel hath not been unto you in word only, but in power also, and in the Holy Ghost, and in much fulness, as you know what manner of men we have been among you for your sakes.

52N 1 6 And you became followers of us, and of the Lord; receiving the word in much tribulation, with joy of the Holy Ghost:

52N 1 7 So that you were made a pattern to all that believe in Macedonia and in Achaia.

52N 1 8 For from you was spread abroad the word of the Lord, not only in Macedonia, and in Achaia, but also in every place, your faith which is towards God, is gone forth, so that we need not to speak any thing.

52N 1 9 For they themselves relate of us, what manner of entering in we had unto you; and how you turned to God from idols, to serve the living and true God.

52N 1 10 And to wait for his Son from heaven (whom he raised up from the dead,) Jesus, who hath delivered us from the wrath to come.

52N 2 1 For yourselves know, brethren, our entrance in unto you, that it was not in vain:

52N 2 2 But having suffered many things before, and been shamefully treated (as you know) at Philippi, we had confidence in our God, to speak unto you the gospel of God in much carefulness.

52N 2 3 For our exhortation was not of error, nor of uncleanness, nor in deceit:

52N 2 4 But as we were approved by God that the gospel should be committed to us: even so we speak, not as pleasing men, but God, who proveth our hearts.

52N 2 5 For neither have we used, at any time, the speech of flattery, as you know; nor taken an occasion of covetousness, God is witness:

52N 2 6 Nor sought we glory of men, neither of you, nor of others. 7 Whereas we might have been burdensome to you, as the apostles of Christ: but we became little ones in the midst of you, as if a nurse should cherish her children:

52N 2 8 So desirous of you, we would gladly impart unto you not only the gospel of God, but also our own souls: because you were become most dear unto us.

52N 2 9 For you remember, brethren, our labour and toil: working night and day, lest we should be chargeable to any of you, we preached among you the gospel of God.

52N 2 10 You are witnesses, and God also, how holily, and justly, and without blame, we have been to you that have believed:

52N 2 11 As you know in what manner, entreating and comforting you, (as a father doth his children,)

52N 2 12 We testified to every one of you, that you would walk worthy of God, who hath called you unto his kingdom and glory.

52N 2 13 Therefore, we also give thanks to God without ceasing: because, that when you had received of us the word of the hearing of God, you received it not as the word of men, but (as it is indeed) the word of God, who worketh in you that have believed.

52N 2 14 For you, brethren, are become followers of the churches of God which are in Judea, in Christ Jesus: for you also have suffered the same things from your own countrymen, even as they have from the Jews,

52N 2 15 Who both killed the Lord Jesus, and the prophets, and have persecuted us, and please not God, and are adversaries to all men;

52N 2 16 Prohibiting us to speak to the Gentiles, that they may be saved, to fill up their sins always: for the wrath of God is come upon them to the end.

52N 2 17 But we, brethren, being taken away from you for a short time, in sight, not in heart, have hastened the more abundantly to see your face with great desire.

52N 2 18 For we would have come unto you, I Paul indeed, once and again: but Satan hath hindered us.

52N 2 19 For what is our hope, or joy, or crown of glory? Are not you, in the presence of our Lord Jesus Christ at his coming?

52N 2 20 For you are our glory and joy.

52N 3 1 For which cause, forbearing no longer, we thought it good to remain at Athens alone:

52N 3 2 And we sent Timothy, our brother, and the minister of God in the gospel of Christ, to confirm you and exhort you concerning your faith:

52N 3 3 That no man should be moved in these tribulations: for yourselves know, that we are appointed thereunto.

52N 3 4 For even when we were with you, we foretold you that we should suffer tribulations, as also it is come to pass, and you know.

52N 3 5 For this cause also, I, forbearing no longer, sent to know your faith: lest perhaps he that tempteth should have tempted you, and our labour should be made vain.

52N 3 6 But now when Timothy came to us from you, and related to us your faith and charity, and that you have a good remembrance of us always, desiring to see us as we also to see you;

52N 3 7 Therefore we were comforted, brethren, in you, in all our necessity and tribulation, by your faith, 52N 3 8 Because now we live, if you stand in the Lord.

52N 3 9 For what thanks can we return to God for you, in all the joy wherewith we rejoice for you before our God, 52N 3 10 Night and day more abundantly praying that we may see your face, and may accomplish those things that are wanting to your faith?

52N 3 11 Now God himself and our Father, and our Lord Jesus Christ, direct our way unto you.

52N 3 12 And may the Lord multiply you, and make you abound in charity towards one another, and towards all men: as we do also towards you, 52N 3 13 To confirm your hearts without blame, in holiness, before God and our Father, at the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ, with all his saints. Amen.

52N 4 1 For the rest therefore, brethren, we pray and beseech you in the Lord Jesus, that as you have received from us, how you ought to walk, and to please God, so also you would walk, that you may abound the more.

52N 4 2 For you know what precepts I have given to you by the Lord Jesus.

52N 4 3 For this is the will of God, your sanctification; that you should abstain from fornication;

52N 4 4 That every one of you should know how to possess his vessel in sanctification and honour:

52N 4 5 Not in the passion of lust, like the Gentiles that know not God:

52N 4 6 And that no man overreach, nor circumvent his brother in business: because the Lord is the avenger of all these things, as we have told you before, and have testified.

52N 4 7 For God hath not called us unto uncleanness, but unto sanctification.

52N 4 8 Therefore, he that despiseth these things, despiseth not man, but God, who also hath given his holy Spirit in us.

52N 4 9 But as touching the charity of brotherhood, we have no need to write to you: for yourselves have learned of God to love one another.

52N 4 10 For indeed you do it towards all the brethren in all Macedonia. But we entreat you, brethren, that you abound more:

52N 4 11 And that you use your endeavour to be quiet, and that you do your own business, and work with your own hands, as we commanded you: and that you walk honestly towards them that are without; and that you want nothing of any man's.

52N 4 12 And we will not have you ignorant, brethren, concerning them that are asleep, that you be not sorrowful, even as others who have no hope.

52N 4 13 For if we believe that Jesus died, and rose again; even so them who have slept through Jesus, will God bring with him.

52N 4 14 For this we say unto you in the word of the Lord, that we who are alive, who remain unto the coming of the Lord, shall not prevent them who have slept.

52N 4 15 For the Lord himself shall come down from heaven with commandment, and with the voice of an archangel, and with the trumpet of God: and the dead who are in Christ, shall rise first.

52N 4 16 Then we who are alive, who are left, shall be taken up together with them in the clouds to meet Christ, into the air, and so shall we be always with the Lord.

52N 4 17 Wherefore, comfort ye one another with these words.

52N 5 1 But of the times and moments, brethren, you need not, that we should write to you;

52N 5 2 For yourselves know perfectly, that the day of the Lord shall so come, as a thief in the night.

52N 5 3 For when they shall say, peace and security; then shall sudden destruction come upon them, as the pains upon her that is with child, and they shall not escape.

52N 5 4 But you, brethren, are not in darkness, that that day should overtake you as a thief.

52N 5 5 For all you are the children of light, and children of the day: we are not of the night, nor of darkness. 6 Therefore, let us not sleep, as others do; but let us watch, and be sober.

52N 5 7 For they that sleep, sleep in the night; and they that are drunk, are drunk in the night.

52N 5 8 But let us, who are of the day, be sober, having on the breastplate of faith and charity, and for a helmet the hope of salvation.

52N 5 9 For God hath not appointed us unto wrath, but unto the purchasing of salvation by our Lord Jesus Christ, 52N 5 10 Who died for us; that, whether we watch or sleep, we may live together with him.

52N 5 11 For which cause comfort one another; and edify one another, as you also do.

52N 5 12 And we beseech you, brethren, to know them who labour among you, and are over you in the Lord, and admonish you:

52N 5 13 That you esteem them more abundantly in charity, for their work's sake. Have peace with them.

52N 5 14 And we beseech you, brethren, rebuke the unquiet, comfort the feeble minded, support the weak, be patient towards all men.

52N 5 15 See that none render evil for evil to any man; but ever follow that which is good towards each other, and towards all men.

52N 5 16 Always rejoice.

52N 5 17 Pray without ceasing.

52N 5 18 In all things give thanks; for this is the will of God in Christ Jesus concerning you all.

52N 5 19 Extinguish not the spirit.

52N 5 20 Despise not prophecies.

52N 5 21 But prove all things; hold fast that which is good.

52N 5 22 From all appearance of evil refrain yourselves.

52N 5 23 And may the God of peace himself sanctify you in all things; that your whole spirit, and soul, and body, may be preserved blameless in the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ.

52N 5 24 He is faithful who hath called you, who also will do it.

52N 5 25 Brethren, pray for us.

52N 5 26 Salute all the brethren with a holy kiss.

52N 5 27 I charge you by the Lord, that this epistle be read to all the holy brethren.

52N 5 28 The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you. Amen.

53N 1 1 Paul, and Sylvanus, and Timothy, to the church of the Thessalonians in God our Father, and the Lord Jesus Christ.

53N 1 2 Grace unto you, and peace from God our Father, and from the Lord Jesus Christ.

53N 1 3 We are bound to give thanks always to God for you, brethren, as it is fitting, because your faith groweth exceedingly, and the charity of every one of you towards each other, aboundeth:

53N 1 4 So that we ourselves also glory in you in the churches of God, for your patience and faith, and in all your persecutions and tribulations, which you endure,

53N 1 5 For an example of the just judgment of God, that you may be counted worthy of the kingdom of God, for which also you suffer.

53N 1 6 Seeing it is a just thing with God to repay tribulation to them that trouble you:

53N 1 7 And to you who are troubled, rest with us when the Lord Jesus shall be revealed from heaven, with the angels of his power:

53N 1 8 In a flame of fire, giving vengeance to them who know not God, and who obey not the gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ.

53N 1 9 Who shall suffer eternal punishment in destruction, from the face of the Lord, and from the glory of his power:

53N 1 10 When he shall come to be glorified in his saints, and to be made wonderful in all them who have believed; because our testimony was believed upon you in that day.

53N 1 11 Wherefore also we pray always for you; that our God would make you worthy of his vocation, and fulfill all the good pleasure of his goodness and the work of faith in power;

53N 1 12 That the name of our Lord Jesus may be glorified in you, and you in him, according to the grace of our God, and of the Lord Jesus Christ.

53N 2 1 And we beseech you, brethren, by the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ, and of our gathering together unto him:

53N 2 2 That you be not easily moved from your sense, nor be terrified, neither by spirit, nor by word, nor by epistle, as sent from us, as if the day of the Lord were at hand.

53N 2 3 Let no man deceive you by any means, for unless there come a revolt first, and the man of sin be revealed, the son of perdition,

53N 2 4 Who opposeth, and is lifted up above all that is called God, or that is worshipped, so that he sitteth in the temple of God, shewing himself as if he were God.

53N 2 5 Remember you not, that when I was yet with you, I told you these things?

53N 2 6 And now you know what withholdeth, that he may be revealed in his time.

53N 2 7 For the mystery of iniquity already worketh; only that he who now holdeth, do hold, until he be taken out of the way.

53N 2 8 And then that wicked one shall be revealed whom the Lord Jesus shall kill with the spirit of his mouth; and shall destroy with the brightness of his coming, him,

53N 2 9 Whose coming is according to the working of Satan, in all power, and signs, and lying wonders,

53N 2 10 And in all seduction of iniquity to them that perish; because they receive not the love of the truth, that they might be saved. Therefore God shall send them the operation of error, to believe lying:

53N 2 11 That all may be judged who have not believed the truth, but have consented to iniquity.

53N 2 12 But we ought to give thanks to God always for you, brethren, beloved of God, for that God hath chosen you firstfruits unto salvation, in sanctification of the spirit, and faith of the truth:

53N 2 13 Whereunto also he hath called you by our gospel, unto the purchasing of the glory of our Lord Jesus Christ.

53N 2 14 Therefore, brethren, stand fast; and hold the traditions which you have learned, whether by word, or by our epistle.

53N 2 15 Now our Lord Jesus Christ himself, and God and our Father, who hath loved us, and hath given us everlasting consolation, and good hope in grace, 53N 2 16 Exhort your hearts, and confirm you in every good work and word.

53N 3 1 For the rest, brethren, pray for us, that the word of God may run, and may be glorified, even as among you;

53N 3 2 And that we may be delivered from importunate and evil men; for all men have not faith.

53N 3 3 But God is faithful, who will strengthen and keep you from evil.

53N 3 4 And we have confidence concerning you in the Lord, that the things which we command, you both do, and will do.

53N 3 5 And the Lord direct your hearts, in the charity of God, and the patience of Christ.

53N 3 6 And we charge you, brethren, in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, that you withdraw yourselves from every brother walking disorderly, and not according to the tradition which they have received of us.

53N 3 7 For yourselves know how you ought to imitate us: for we were not disorderly among you;

53N 3 8 Neither did we eat any man's bread for nothing, but in labour and in toil we worked night and day, lest we should be chargeable to any of you.

53N 3 9 Not as if we had not power: but that we might give ourselves a pattern unto you, to imitate us.

53N 3 10 For also when we were with you, this we declared to you: that, if any man will not work, neither let him eat.

53N 3 11 For we have heard there are some among you who walk disorderly, working not at all, but curiously meddling.

53N 3 12 Now we charge them that are such, and beseech them by the Lord Jesus Christ, that, working with silence, they would eat their own bread.

53N 3 13 But you, brethren, be not weary in well doing.

53N 3 14 And if any man obey not our word by this epistle, note that man, and do not keep company with him, that he may be ashamed:

53N 3 15 Yet do not esteem him as an enemy, but admonish him as a brother.

53N 3 16 Now the Lord of peace himself give you everlasting peace in every place. The Lord be with you all.

53N 3 17 The salutation of Paul with my own hand; which is the sign in every epistle. So I write.

53N 3 18 The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you all. Amen.
 54N 1 1 Paul, an apostle of Jesus Christ, according to the commandment of God our Savior, and of Christ Jesus our hope:
 54N 1 2 To Timothy, his beloved son in faith. Grace, mercy, and peace from God the Father, and from Christ Jesus our Lord.
 54N 1 3 As I desired thee to remain at Ephesus when I went into Macedonia, that thou mightest charge some not to teach otherwise, 54N 1 4 Not to give heed to fables and endless genealogies: which furnish questions rather than the edification of God, which is in faith.
 54N 1 5 Now the end of the commandment is charity, from a pure heart, and a good conscience, and an unfeigned faith.
 54N 1 6 From which things some going astray, are turned aside unto vain babbling:
 54N 1 7 Desiring to be teachers of the law, understanding neither the things they say, nor whereof they affirm.
 54N 1 8 But we know that the law is good, if a man use it lawfully:
 54N 1 9 Knowing this, that the law is not made for the just man, but for the unjust and disobedient, for the ungodly, and for sinners, for the wicked and defiled, for murderers of fathers, and murderers of mothers, for manslayers,
 54N 1 10 For fornicators, for them who defile themselves with mankind, for menstealers, for liars, for perjured persons, and whatever other thing is contrary to sound doctrine,
 54N 1 11 Which is according to the gospel of the glory of the blessed God, which hath been committed to my trust.
 54N 1 12 I give thanks who hath strengthened me, even to Christ Jesus our Lord, for that he hath counted me faithful, putting me in the ministry;
 54N 1 13 Who before was a blasphemer, and a persecutor, and contumelious. But I obtained the mercy of God, because I did it ignorantly in unbelief.
 54N 1 14 Now the grace of our Lord hath abounded exceedingly with faith and love, which is in Christ Jesus.
 54N 1 15 A faithful saying, and worthy of all acceptation, that Christ Jesus came into this world to save sinners, of whom I am the chief.
 54N 1 16 But for this cause have I obtained mercy: that in me first Christ Jesus might shew forth all patience, for the information of them that shall believe in him unto life everlasting.
 54N 1 17 Now to the king of ages, immortal, invisible, the only God, be honour and glory for ever and ever. Amen.
 54N 1 18 This precept I commend to thee, O son Timothy; according to the prophecies going before on thee, that thou war in them a good warfare, 54N 1 19 Having faith and a good conscience, which some rejecting have made shipwreck concerning the faith.
 54N 1 20 Of whom is Hymeneus and Alexander, whom I have delivered up to Satan, that they may learn not to blaspheme.
 54N 2 1 I desire therefore, first of all, that supplications, prayers, intercessions, and thanksgivings be made for all men:
 54N 2 2 For kings, and for all that are in high station: that we may lead a quiet and a peaceable life in all piety and chastity.
 54N 2 3 For this is good and acceptable in the sight of God our Saviour, 54N 2 4 Who will have all men to be saved, and to come to the knowledge of the truth.
 54N 2 5 For there is one God, and one mediator of God and men, the man Christ Jesus:
 54N 2 6 Who gave himself a redemption for all, a testimony in due times.
 54N 2 7 Whereunto I am appointed a preacher and an apostle, (I say the truth, I lie not,) a doctor of the Gentiles in faith and truth.

54N 2 8 I will therefore that men pray in every place, lifting up pure hands, without anger and contention.
 54N 2 9 In like manner women also in decent apparel: adorning themselves with modesty and sobriety, not with plaited hair, or gold, or pearls, or costly attire, 54N 2 10 But as it becometh women professing godliness, with good works.
 54N 2 11 Let the woman learn in silence, with all subjection.
 54N 2 12 But I suffer not a woman to teach, nor to use authority over the man: but to be in silence.
 54N 2 13 For Adam was first formed; then Eve.
 54N 2 14 And Adam was not seduced; but the woman being seduced, was in the transgression.
 54N 2 15 Yet she shall be saved through childbearing; if she continue in faith, and love, and sanctification, with sobriety.
 54N 3 1 A faithful saying: if a man desire the office of a bishop, he desireth a good work.
 54N 3 2 It behoveth therefore a bishop to be blameless, the husband of one wife, sober, prudent, of good behaviour, chaste, given to hospitality, a teacher,
 54N 3 3 Not given to wine, no striker, but modest, not quarrelsome, not covetous, but 54N 3 4 One that ruleth well his own house, having his children in subjection with all chastity.
 54N 3 5 But if a man know not how to rule his own house, how shall he take care of the church of God?
 54N 3 6 Not a neophyte: lest being puffed up with pride, he fall into the judgment of the devil.
 54N 3 7 Moreover he must have a good testimony of them who are without: lest he fall into reproach and the snare of the devil.
 54N 3 8 Deacons in like manner chaste, not double tongued, not given to much wine, not greedy of filthy lucre:
 54N 3 9 Holding the mystery of faith in a pure conscience.
 54N 3 10 And let these also first be proved: and so let them minister, having no crime.
 54N 3 11 The women in like manner chaste, not slanderers, but sober, faithful in all things.
 54N 3 12 Let deacons be the husbands of one wife: who rule well their children, and their own houses.
 54N 3 13 For they that have ministered well, shall purchase to themselves a good degree, and much confidence in the faith which is in Christ Jesus.
 54N 3 14 These things I write to thee, hoping that I shall come to thee shortly.
 54N 3 15 But if I tarry long, that thou mayest know how thou oughtest to behave thyself in the house of God, which is the church of the living God, the pillar and ground of the truth.
 54N 3 16 And evidently great is the mystery of godliness, which was manifested in the flesh, was justified in the spirit, appeared unto angels, hath been preached unto the Gentiles, is believed in the world, is taken up in glory.
 54N 4 1 Now the Spirit manifestly saith, that in the last times some shall depart from the faith, giving heed to spirits of error, and doctrines of devils,
 54N 4 2 Speaking lies in hypocrisy, and having their conscience seared, 54N 4 3 Forbidding to marry, to abstain from meats, which God hath created to be received with thanksgiving by the faithful, and by them that have known the truth.
 54N 4 4 For every creature of God is good, and nothing to be rejected that is received with thanksgiving:
 54N 4 5 For it is sanctified by the word of God and prayer.
 54N 4 6 These things proposing to the brethren, thou shalt be a good minister of Christ Jesus, nourished up in the words of faith, and of the good doctrine which thou hast attained unto.

54N 4 7 But avoid foolish and old wives' fables: and exercise thyself unto godliness.
 54N 4 8 For bodily exercise is profitable to little: but godliness is profitable to all things, having promise of the life that now is, and of that which is to come.
 54N 4 9 A faithful saying and worthy of all acceptation.
 54N 4 10 For therefore we labor and are reviled, because we hope in the living God, who is the Saviour of all men, especially of the faithful.
 54N 4 11 These things command and teach.
 54N 4 12 Let no man despise thy youth: but be thou an example of the faithful in word, in conversation, in charity, in faith, in chastity.
 54N 4 13 Till I come, attend unto reading, to exhortation, and to doctrine.
 54N 4 14 Neglect not the grace that is in thee, which was given thee by prophesy, with imposition of the hands of the priesthood.
 54N 4 15 Meditate upon these things, be wholly in these things: that thy profiting may be manifest to all.
 54N 4 16 Take heed to thyself and to doctrine: be earnest in them. For in doing this thou shalt both save thyself and them that hear thee.
 54N 5 1 An ancient man rebuke not, but entreat him as a father: young men, as brethren:
 54N 5 2 Old women, as mothers: young women, as sisters, in all chastity.
 54N 5 3 Honour widows, that are widows indeed.
 54N 5 4 But if any widow have children, or grandchildren, let her learn first to govern her own house, and to make a return of duty to her parents: for this is acceptable before God.
 54N 5 5 But she that is a widow indeed, and desolate, let her trust in God, and continue in supplications and prayers night and day.
 54N 5 6 For she that liveth in pleasures, is dead while she is living.
 54N 5 7 And this give in charge, that they may be blameless.
 54N 5 8 But if any man have not care of his own, and especially of those of his house, he hath denied the faith, and is worse than an infidel.
 54N 5 9 Let a widow be chosen of no less than threescore years of age, who hath been the wife of one husband.
 54N 5 10 Having testimony for her good works, if she have brought up children, if she have received to harbour, if she have washed the saints' feet, if she have ministered to them that suffer tribulation, if she have diligently followed every good work.
 54N 5 11 But the younger widows avoid. For when they have grown wanton in Christ, they will marry:
 54N 5 12 Having damnation, because they have made void their first faith.
 54N 5 13 And withal being idle they learn to go about from house to house: and are not only idle, but tattlers also, and busybodies, speaking things which they ought not.
 54N 5 14 I will therefore that the younger should marry, bear children, be mistresses of families, give no occasion to the adversary to speak evil.
 54N 5 15 For some are already turned aside after Satan.
 54N 5 16 If any of the faithful have widows, let him minister to them, and let not the church be charged: that there may be sufficient for them that are widows indeed.
 54N 5 17 Let the priests that rule well, be esteemed worthy of double honour: especially they who labour in the word and doctrine:
 54N 5 18 For the scripture saith: Thou shalt not muzzle the ox that treadeth out the corn: and, The labourer is worthy of his reward.
 54N 5 19 Against a priest receive not an accusation, but under two or three witnesses.
 54N 5 20 Them that sin reprove before all: that the rest also may have fear.
 54N 5 21 I charge thee before God, and Christ Jesus, and the elect angels, that thou observe these things without prejudice, doing nothing by declining to either side.
 54N 5 22 Impose not hands lightly upon any man, neither be partaker of other men's sins. Keep thyself chaste.

54N 5 23 Do not still drink water, but use a little wine for thy stomach's sake, and thy frequent infirmities.

54N 5 24 Some men's sins are manifest, going before to judgment: and some men they follow after.

54N 5 25 In like manner also good deeds are manifest: and they that are otherwise, cannot be hid.

54N 6 1 Whosoever are servants under the yoke, let them count their masters worthy of all honour; lest the name of the Lord and his doctrine be blasphemed.

54N 6 2 But they that have believing masters, let them not despise them, because they are brethren; but serve them the rather, because they are faithful and beloved, who are partakers of the benefit. These things teach and exhort.

54N 6 3 If any man teach otherwise, and consent not to the sound words of our Lord Jesus Christ, and to that doctrine which is according to godliness,

54N 6 4 He is proud, knowing nothing, but sick about questions and strifes of words; from which arise envies, contentions, blasphemies, evil suspicions, 54N 6 5 Conflicts of men corrupted in mind, and who are destitute of the truth, supposing gain to be godliness.

54N 6 6 But godliness with contentment is great gain.

54N 6 7 For we brought nothing into this world: and certainly we can carry nothing out.

54N 6 8 But having food, and wherewith to be covered, with these we are content.

54N 6 9 For they that will become rich, fall into temptation, and into the snare of the devil, and into many unprofitable and hurtful desires, which drown men into destruction and perdition.

54N 6 10 For the desire of money is the root of all evils; which some coveting have erred from the faith, and have entangled themselves in many sorrows.

54N 6 11 But thou, O man of God, fly these things: and pursue justice, godliness, faith, charity, patience, mildness.

54N 6 12 Fight the good fight of faith: lay hold on eternal life, whereunto thou art called, and hast confessed a good confession before many witnesses.

54N 6 13 I charge thee before God, who quickeneth all things, and before Christ Jesus, who gave testimony under Pontius Pilate, a good confession,

54N 6 14 That thou keep the commandment without spot, blameless, unto the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ,

54N 6 15 Which in his times he shall shew who is the Blessed and only Mighty, the King of kings, and Lord of lords;

54N 6 16 Who only hath immortality, and inhabiteth light inaccessible, whom no man hath seen, nor can see: to whom be honour and empire everlasting. Amen.

54N 6 17 Charge the rich of this world not to be highminded, nor to trust in the uncertainty of riches, but in the living God, (who giveth us abundantly all things to enjoy,)

54N 6 18 To do good, to be rich in good works, to give easily, to communicate to others,

54N 6 19 To lay up in store for themselves a good foundation against the time to come, that they may lay hold on the true life.

54N 6 20 O Timothy, keep that which is committed to thy trust, avoiding the profane novelties of words, and oppositions of knowledge falsely so called.

54N 6 21 Which some promising, have erred concerning the faith. Grace be with thee. Amen.

55N 1 1 Paul, an apostle of Jesus Christ, by the will of God, according to the promise of life, which is in Christ Jesus.

55N 1 2 To Timothy my dearly beloved son, grace, mercy, and peace, from God the Father, and from Christ Jesus our Lord.

55N 1 3 I give thanks to God, whom I serve from my forefathers with a pure conscience, that without ceasing, I have a remembrance of thee in my prayers, night and day.

55N 1 4 Desiring to see thee, being mindful of thy tears, that I may be filled with joy, 55N 1 5 Calling to mind that faith which is in thee unfeigned, which also dwelt first in thy grandmother Lois, and in thy mother Eunice, and I am certain that in thee also.

55N 1 6 For which cause I admonish thee, that thou stir up the grace of God which is in thee, by the imposition of my hands.

55N 1 7 For God hath not given us the spirit of fear: but of power, and of love, and of sobriety.

55N 1 8 Be not thou therefore ashamed of the testimony of our Lord, nor of me his prisoner: but labour with the gospel, according to the power of God,

55N 1 9 Who hath delivered us and called us by his holy calling, not according to our works, but according to his own purpose and grace, which was given us in Christ Jesus before the times of the world.

55N 1 10 But is now made manifest by the illumination of our Saviour Jesus Christ, who hath destroyed death, and hath brought to light life and incorruption by the gospel:

55N 1 11 Wherein I am appointed a preacher, and an apostle, and teacher of the Gentiles.

55N 1 12 For which cause I also suffer these things: but I am not ashamed. For I know whom I have believed, and I am certain that he is able to keep that which I have committed unto him, against that day.

55N 1 13 Hold the form of sound words, which thou hast heard of me in faith, and in the love which is in Christ Jesus.

55N 1 14 Keep the good thing committed to thy trust by the Holy Ghost, who dwelleth in us.

55N 1 15 Thou knowest this, that all they who are in Asia, are turned away from me: of whom are Phigellus and Hermogenes.

55N 1 16 The Lord give mercy to the house of Onesiphorus: because he hath often refreshed me, and hath not been ashamed of my chain:

55N 1 17 But when he was come to Rome, he carefully sought me, and found me.

55N 1 18 The Lord grant unto him to find mercy of the Lord in that day: and in how many things he ministered unto me at Ephesus, thou very well knowest.

55N 2 1 Thou therefore, my son, be strong in the grace which is in Christ Jesus:

55N 2 2 And the things which thou hast heard of me by many witnesses, the same commend to faithful men, who shall be fit to teach others also.

55N 2 3 Labour as a good soldier of Christ Jesus.

55N 2 4 No man, being a soldier to God, entangleth himself with secular businesses; that he may please him to whom he hath engaged himself.

55N 2 5 For he also that striveth for the mastery, is not crowned, except he strive lawfully.

55N 2 6 The husbandman, that laboreth, must first partake of the fruits.

55N 2 7 Understand what I say: for the Lord will give thee in all things understanding.

55N 2 8 Be mindful that the Lord Jesus Christ is risen again from the dead, of the seed of David, according to my gospel.

55N 2 9 Wherein I labour even unto bands, as an evildoer; but the word of God is not bound.

55N 2 10 Therefore I endure all things for the sake of the elect, that they also may obtain the salvation, which is in Christ Jesus, with heavenly glory.

55N 2 11 A faithful saying: for if we be dead with him, we shall live also with him.

55N 2 12 If we suffer, we shall also reign with him. If we deny him, he will also deny us.

55N 2 13 If we believe not, he continueth faithful, he can not deny himself.
 55N 2 14 Of these things put them in mind, charging them before the Lord. Contend not in words, for it is to no profit, but to the subverting of the hearers.
 55N 2 15 Carefully study to present thyself approved unto God, a workman that needeth not to be ashamed, rightly handling the word of truth.
 55N 2 16 But shun profane and vain babblings: for they grow much towards ungodliness.
 55N 2 17 And their speech spreadeth like a canker: of whom are Hymeneus and Philetus:
 55N 2 18 Who have erred from the truth, saying, that the resurrection is past already, and have subverted the faith of some.
 55N 2 19 But the sure foundation of God standeth firm, having this seal: the Lord knoweth who are his; and let every one depart from iniquity who nameth the name of the Lord.
 55N 2 20 But in a great house there are not only vessels of gold and silver, but also of wood and earth: and some indeed unto honour, but some unto dishonour.
 55N 2 21 If any man therefore shall cleanse himself from these, he shall be a vessel unto honour, sanctified and profitable to the Lord, prepared unto every good work.
 55N 2 22 But flee thou youthful desires, and pursue justice, faith, charity, and peace, with them that call on the Lord out of a pure heart.
 55N 2 23 And avoid foolish and unlearned questions, knowing that they beget strifes.
 55N 2 24 But the servant of the Lord must not wrangle: but be mild towards all men, apt to teach, patient,
 55N 2 25 With modesty admonishing them that resist the truth: if peradventure God may give them repentance to know the truth, 55N 2 26 And they may recover themselves from the snares of the devil, by whom they are held captive at his will.
 55N 3 1 Know also this, that, in the last days, shall come dangerous times.
 55N 3 2 Men shall be lovers of themselves, covetous, haughty, proud, blasphemers, disobedient to parents, ungrateful, wicked, 55N 3 3 Without affection, without peace, slanderers, incontinent, unmerciful, without kindness,
 55N 3 4 Traitors, stubborn, puffed up, and lovers of pleasures more than of God:
 55N 3 5 Having an appearance indeed of godliness, but denying the power thereof.
 Now these avoid.
 55N 3 6 For of these sort are they who creep into houses, and lead captive silly women laden with sins, who are led away with divers desires:
 55N 3 7 Ever learning, and never attaining to the knowledge of the truth.
 55N 3 8 Now as Jannes and Mambres resisted Moses, so these also resist the truth, men corrupted in mind, reprobate concerning the faith.
 55N 3 9 But they shall proceed no farther; for their folly shall be manifest to all men, as theirs also was.
 55N 3 10 But thou hast fully known my doctrine, manner of life, purpose, faith, longsuffering, love, patience,
 55N 3 11 Persecutions, afflictions: such as came upon me at Antioch, at Iconium, and at Lystra: what persecutions I endured, and out of them all the Lord delivered me.
 55N 3 12 And all that will live godly in Christ Jesus, shall suffer persecution.
 55N 3 13 But evil men and seducers shall grow worse and worse: erring, and driving into error.
 55N 3 14 But continue thou in those things which thou hast learned, and which have been committed to thee: knowing of whom thou hast learned them; 55N 3 15 And because from thy infancy thou hast known the holy scriptures, which can instruct thee to salvation, by the faith which is in Christ Jesus.

55N 3 16 All scripture, inspired of God, is profitable to teach, to reprove, to correct, to instruct in justice,
 55N 3 17 That the man of God may be perfect, furnished to every good work.
 55N 4 1 I charge thee, before God and Jesus Christ, who shall judge the living and the dead, by his coming, and his kingdom:
 55N 4 2 Preach the word: be instant in season, out of season: reprove, entreat, rebuke in all patience and doctrine.
 55N 4 3 For there shall be a time, when they will not endure sound doctrine; but, according to their own desires, they will heap to themselves teachers, having itching ears:
 55N 4 4 And will indeed turn away their hearing from the truth, but will be turned unto fables.
 55N 4 5 But be thou vigilant, labour in all things, do the work of an evangelist, fulfil thy ministry. Be sober.
 55N 4 6 For I am even now ready to be sacrificed: and the time of my dissolution is at hand.
 55N 4 7 I have fought a good fight, I have finished my course, I have kept the faith.
 55N 4 8 As to the rest, there is laid up for me a crown of justice, which the Lord the just judge will render to me in that day: and not only to me, but to them also that love his coming. Make haste to come to me quickly.
 55N 4 9 For Demas hath left me, loving this world, and is gone to Thessalonica:
 55N 4 10 Crescens into Galatia, Titus into Dalmatia.
 55N 4 11 Only Luke is with me. Take Mark, and bring him with thee: for he is profitable to me for the ministry.
 55N 4 12 But Tychicus I have sent to Ephesus.
 55N 4 13 The cloak that I left at Troas, with Carpus, when thou comest, bring with thee, and the books, especially the parchments.
 55N 4 14 Alexander the coppersmith hath done me much evil: the Lord will reward him according to his works:
 55N 4 15 Whom do thou also avoid, for he hath greatly withstood our words.
 55N 4 16 At my first answer no man stood with me, but all forsook me: may it not be laid to their charge.
 55N 4 17 But the Lord stood by me, and strengthened me, that by me the preaching may be accomplished, and that all the Gentiles may hear: and I was delivered out of the mouth of the lion.
 55N 4 18 The Lord hath delivered me from every evil work: and will preserve me unto his heavenly kingdom, to whom be glory for ever and ever. Amen.
 55N 4 19 Salute Prisca and Aquila, and the household of Onesiphorus.
 55N 4 20 Erastus remained at Corinth. And Trophimus I left sick at Miletus.
 55N 4 21 Make haste to come before winter Eubulus and Pudens, and Linus and Claudia, and all the brethren, salute thee.
 55N 4 22 The Lord Jesus Christ be with thy spirit. Grace be with you. Amen.
 56N 1 1 Paul, a servant of God, and an apostle of Jesus Christ, according to the faith of the elect of God and the acknowledging of the truth, which is according to godliness:
 56N 1 2 Unto the hope of life everlasting, which God, who lieth not, hath promised before the times of the world:
 56N 1 3 But hath in due times manifested his word in preaching, which is committed to me according to the commandment of God our Savior:
 56N 1 4 To Titus my beloved son, according to the common faith, grace and peace from God the Father, and from Christ Jesus our Savior.
 56N 1 5 For this cause I left thee in Crete, that thou shouldest set in order the things that are wanting, and shouldest ordain priests in every city, as I also appointed thee:
 56N 1 6 If any be without crime, the husband of one wife, having faithful children, not accused of riot, or unruly.

56N 1 7 For a bishop must be without crime, as the steward of God: not proud, not subject to anger, not given to wine, no striker, not greedy of filthy lucre:

56N 1 8 But given to hospitality, gentle, sober, just, holy, continent:

56N 1 9 Embracing that faithful word which is according to doctrine, that he may be able to exhort in sound doctrine, and to convince the gainsayers.

56N 1 10 For there are also many disobedient, vain talkers, and seducers: especially they who are of the circumcision:

56N 1 11 Who must be reprov'd, who subvert whole houses, teaching things which they ought not, for filthy lucre's sake.

56N 1 12 One of them a prophet of their own, said, The Cretians are always liars, evil beasts, slothful bellies.

56N 1 13 This testimony is true. Wherefore rebuke them sharply, that they may be sound in the faith;

56N 1 14 Not giving heed to Jewish fables and commandments of men, who turn themselves away from the truth.

56N 1 15 All things are clean to the clean: but to them that are defiled, and to unbelievers, nothing is clean: but both their mind and their conscience are defiled.

56N 1 16 They profess that they know God: but in their works they deny him; being abominable, and incredulous, and to every good work reprobate.

56N 2 1 But speak thou the things that become sound doctrine:

56N 2 2 That the aged men be sober, chaste, prudent, sound in faith, in love, in patience.

56N 2 3 The aged women, in like manner, in holy attire, not false accusers, not given to much wine, teaching well:

56N 2 4 That they may teach the young women to be wise, to love their husbands, to love their children,

56N 2 5 To be discreet, chaste, sober, having a care of the house, gentle, obedient to their husbands, that the word of God be not blasphemed.

56N 2 6 Young men, in like manner, exhort that they be sober.

56N 2 7 In all things shew thyself an example of good works, in doctrine, in integrity, in gravity, 56N 2 8 The sound word that can not be blamed: that he, who is on the contrary part, may be afraid, having no evil to say of us.

56N 2 9 Exhort servants to be obedient to their masters, in all things pleasing, not gainsaying:

56N 2 10 Not defrauding, but in all things shewing good fidelity, that they may adorn the doctrine of God our Savior in all things:

56N 2 11 For the grace of God our Savior hath appeared to all men;

56N 2 12 Instructing us, that, denying ungodliness and worldly desires, we should live soberly, and justly, and godly in this world,

56N 2 13 Looking for the blessed hope and coming of the glory of the great God and our Savior Jesus Christ, 56N 2 14 Who gave himself for us, that he might redeem us from all iniquity, and might cleanse to himself a people acceptable, a pursuer of good works.

56N 2 15 These things speak, and exhort and rebuke with all authority. Let no man despise thee.

56N 3 1 Admonish them to be subject to princes and powers, to obey at a word, to be ready to every good work.

56N 3 2 To speak evil of no man, not to be litigious, but gentle: shewing all mildness towards all men.

56N 3 3 For we ourselves also were some time unwise, incredulous, erring, slaves to divers desires and pleasures, living in malice and envy, hateful, and hating one another.

 56N 3 4 But when the goodness and kindness of God our Savior appeared:
 56N 3 5 Not by the works of justice, which we have done, but according to his mercy, he saved us, by the laver of regeneration, and renovation of the Holy Ghost;
 56N 3 6 Whom he hath poured forth upon us abundantly, through Jesus Christ our Savior:
 56N 3 7 That, being justified by his grace, we may be heirs, according to hope of life everlasting.
 56N 3 8 It is a faithful saying: and these things I will have thee affirm constantly: that they, who believe in God, may be careful to excel in good works. These things are good and profitable unto men.
 56N 3 9 But avoid foolish questions, and genealogies, and contentions, and strivings about the law. For they are unprofitable and vain.
 56N 3 10 A man that is a heretic, after the first and second admonition, avoid:
 56N 3 11 Knowing that he, that is such an one, is subverted, and sinneth, being condemned by his own judgment.
 56N 3 12 When I shall send to thee Artemas or Tychicus, make haste to come unto me to Nicopolis. For there I have determined to winter.
 56N 3 13 Send forward Zenas, the lawyer, and Apollo, with care, that nothing be wanting to them.
 56N 3 14 And let our men also learn to excel in good works for necessary uses: that they be not unfruitful.
 56N 3 15 All that are with me salute thee: salute them that love us in the faith. The grace of God be with you all. Amen.
 57N 1 1 Paul, a prisoner of Christ Jesus, and Timothy, a brother: to Philemon, our beloved and fellow labourer;
 57N 1 2 And to Appia, our dearest sister, and to Archippus, our fellow soldier, and to the church which is in thy house:
 57N 1 3 Grace to you and peace from God our Father, and from the Lord Jesus Christ.
 57N 1 4 I give thanks to my God, always making a remembrance of thee in my prayers.
 57N 1 5 Hearing of thy charity and faith, which thou hast in the Lord Jesus, and towards all the saints:
 57N 1 6 That the communication of thy faith may be made evident in the acknowledgment of every good work, that is in you in Christ Jesus.
 57N 1 7 For I have had great joy and consolation in thy charity, because the bowels of the saints have been refreshed by thee, brother.
 57N 1 8 Wherefore though I have much confidence in Christ Jesus, to command thee that which is to the purpose:
 57N 1 9 For charity sake I rather beseech, whereas thou art such a one, as Paul an old man, and now a prisoner also of Jesus Christ.
 57N 1 10 I beseech thee for my son, whom I have begotten in my bands, Onesimus, 57N 1 11 Who hath been heretofore unprofitable to thee, but now is profitable both to me and thee,
 57N 1 12 Whom I have sent back to thee. And do thou receive him as my own bowels.
 57N 1 13 Whom I would have retained with me, that in thy stead he might have ministered to me in the bands of the gospel:
 57N 1 14 But without thy counsel I would do nothing: that thy good deed might not be as it were of necessity, but voluntary.
 57N 1 15 For perhaps he therefore departed for a season from thee, that thou mightest receive him again for ever:
 57N 1 16 Not now as a servant, but instead of a servant, a most dear brother, especially to me: but how much more to thee both in the flesh and in the Lord?

57N 1 17 If therefore thou count me a partner, receive him as myself.

57N 1 18 And if he hath wronged thee in any thing, or is in thy debt, put that to my account.

57N 1 19 I Paul have written it with my own hand: I will repay it: not to say to thee, that thou owest me thy own self also.

57N 1 20 Yea, brother. May I enjoy thee in the Lord. Refresh my bowels in the Lord.

57N 1 21 Trusting in thy obedience, I have written to thee: knowing that thou wilt also do more than I say.

57N 1 22 But withal prepare me also a lodging. For I hope that through your prayers I shall be given unto you.

57N 1 23 There salute thee Epaphras, my fellow prisoner in Christ Jesus;

57N 1 24 Mark, Aristarchus, Demas, and Luke my fellow labourers.

57N 1 25 The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with your spirit. Amen.

58N 1 1 God, who, at sundry times and in divers manners, spoke in times past to the fathers by the prophets, last of all,

58N 1 2 In these days hath spoken to us by his Son, whom he hath appointed heir of all things, by whom also he made the world.

58N 1 3 Who being the brightness of his glory, and the figure of his substance, and upholding all things by the word of his power, making purgation of sins, sitteth on the right hand of the majesty on high.

58N 1 4 Being made so much better than the angels, as he hath inherited a more excellent name than they.

58N 1 5 For to which of the angels hath he said at any time, Thou art my Son, to day have I begotten thee? And again, I will be to him a Father, and he shall be to me a Son?

58N 1 6 And again, when he bringeth in the first begotten into the world, he saith: And let all the angels of God adore him.

58N 1 7 And to the angels indeed he saith: He that maketh his angels spirits, and his ministers a flame of fire.

58N 1 8 But to the Son: Thy throne, O God, is for ever and ever: a sceptre of justice is the sceptre of thy kingdom.

58N 1 9 Thou hast loved justice, and hated iniquity: therefore God, thy God, hath anointed thee with the oil of gladness above thy fellows.

58N 1 10 And: Thou in the beginning, O Lord, didst found the earth: and the works of thy hands are the heavens.

58N 1 11 They shall perish, but thou shalt continue: and they shall all grow old as a garment.

58N 1 12 And as a vesture shalt thou change them, and they shall be changed: but thou art the selfsame, and thy years shall not fail.

58N 1 13 But to which of the angels said he at any time: Sit on my right hand, until I make thy enemies thy footstool?

58N 1 14 Are they not all ministering spirits, sent to minister for them, who shall receive the inheritance of salvation?

58N 2 1 Therefore ought we more diligently to observe the things which we have heard, lest perhaps we should let them slip.

58N 2 2 For if the word, spoken by angels, became steadfast, and every transgression and disobedience received a just recompense of reward:

58N 2 3 How shall we escape if we neglect so great salvation? which having begun to be declared by the Lord, was confirmed unto us by them that heard him.

58N 2 4 God also bearing them witness by signs, and wonders, and divers miracles, and distributions of the Holy Ghost, according to his own will.

58N 2 5 For God hath not subjected unto angels the world to come, whereof we speak.

58N 2 6 But one in a certain place hath testified, saying: What is man, that thou art mindful of him: or the son of man, that thou visitest him?

58N 2 7 Thou hast made him a little lower than the angels: thou hast crowned him with glory and honour, and hast set him over the works of thy hands:

58N 2 8 Thou hast subjected all things under his feet. For in that he hath subjected all things to him, he left nothing not subject to him. But now we see not as yet all things subject to him.

58N 2 9 But we see Jesus, who was made a little lower than the angels, for the suffering of death, crowned with glory and honour: that, through the grace of God, he might taste death for all.

58N 2 10 For it became him, for whom are all things, and by whom are all things, who had brought many children into glory, to perfect the author of their salvation, by his passion.

58N 2 11 For both he that sanctifieth, and they who are sanctified, are all of one. For which cause he is not ashamed to call them brethren, saying:

58N 2 12 I will declare thy name to my brethren; in the midst of the church will I praise thee.

58N 2 13 And again: I will put my trust in him. And again: Behold I and my children, whom God hath given me.

58N 2 14 Therefore because the children are partakers of flesh and blood, he also himself in like manner hath been partaker of the same: that, through death, he might destroy him who had the empire of death, that is to say, the devil:

58N 2 15 And might deliver them, who through the fear of death were all their lifetime subject to servitude.

58N 2 16 For no where doth he take hold of the angels: but of the seed of Abraham he taketh hold.

58N 2 17 Wherefore it behoved him in all things to be made like unto his brethren, that he might become a merciful and faithful priest before God, that he might be a propitiation for the sins of the people.

58N 2 18 For in that, wherein he himself hath suffered and been tempted, he is able to succour them also that are tempted.

58N 3 1 Wherefore, holy brethren, partakers of the heavenly vocation, consider the apostle and high priest of our confession, Jesus:

58N 3 2 Who is faithful to him that made him, as was also Moses in all his house.

58N 3 3 For this man was counted worthy of greater glory than Moses, by so much as he that hath built the house, hath greater honour than the house.

58N 3 4 For every house is built by some man: but he that created all things, is God.

58N 3 5 And Moses indeed was faithful in all his house as a servant, for a testimony of those things which were to be said:

58N 3 6 But Christ as the Son in his own house: which house are we, if we hold fast the confidence and glory of hope unto the end.

58N 3 7 Wherefore, as the Holy Ghost saith: To day if you shall hear his voice,

58N 3 8 Harden not your hearts, as in the provocation; in the day of temptation in the desert,

58N 3 9 Where your fathers tempted me, proved and saw my works,

58N 3 10 Forty years: for which cause I was offended with this generation, and I said: They always err in heart. And they have not known my ways, 58N 3 11 As I have sworn in my wrath: If they shall enter into my rest.

58N 3 12 Take heed, brethren, lest perhaps there be in any of you an evil heart of unbelief, to depart from the living God.

58N 3 13 But exhort one another every day, whilst it is called to day, that none of you be hardened through the deceitfulness of sin.

58N 3 14 For we are made partakers of Christ: yet so, if we hold the beginning of his substance firm unto the end.

58N 3 15 While it is said, To day if you shall hear his voice, harden not your hearts, as in that provocation.

58N 3 16 For some who heard did provoke: but not all that came out of Egypt by Moses.

58N 3 17 And with whom was he offended forty years? Was it not with them that sinned, whose carcasses were overthrown in the desert?

58N 3 18 And to whom did he swear, that they should not enter into his rest: but to them that were incredulous?

58N 3 19 And we see that they could not enter in, because of unbelief.

58N 4 1 Let us fear therefore lest the promise being left of entering into his rest, any of you should be thought to be wanting.

58N 4 2 For unto us also it hath been declared, in like manner as unto them. But the word of hearing did not profit them, not being mixed with faith of those things they heard.

58N 4 3 For we, who have believed, shall enter into rest; as he said: As I have sworn in my wrath; If they shall enter into my rest; and this indeed when the works from the foundation of the world were finished.

58N 4 4 For in a certain place he spoke of the seventh day thus: And God rested the seventh day from all his works.

58N 4 5 And in this place again: If they shall enter into my rest.

58N 4 6 Seeing then it remaineth that some are to enter into it, and they, to whom it was first preached, did not enter because of unbelief:

58N 4 7 Again he limiteth a certain day, saying in David, To day, after so long a time, as it is above said: To day if you shall hear his voice, harden not your hearts.

58N 4 8 For if Jesus had given them rest, he would never have afterwards spoken of another day.

58N 4 9 There remaineth therefore a day of rest for the people of God.

58N 4 10 For he that is entered into his rest, the same also hath rested from his works, as God did from his.

58N 4 11 Let us hasten therefore to enter into that rest; lest any man fall into the same example of unbelief.

58N 4 12 For the word of God is living and effectual, and more piercing than any two edged sword; and reaching unto the division of the soul and the spirit, of the joints also and the marrow, and is a discernor of the thoughts and intents of the heart.

58N 4 13 Neither is there any creature invisible in his sight: but all things are naked and open to his eyes, to whom our speech is.

58N 4 14 Having therefore a great high priest that hath passed into the heavens, Jesus the Son of God: let us hold fast our confession.

58N 4 15 For we have not a high priest, who can not have compassion on our infirmities: but one tempted in all things like as we are, without sin.

58N 4 16 Let us go therefore with confidence to the throne of grace: that we may obtain mercy, and find grace in seasonable aid.

58N 5 1 For every high priest taken from among men, is ordained for men in the things that appertain to God, that he may offer up gifts and sacrifices for sins:

58N 5 2 Who can have compassion on them that are ignorant and that err: because he himself also is compassed with infirmity.

58N 5 3 And therefore he ought, as for the people, so also for himself, to offer for sins.

58N 5 4 Neither doth any man take the honour to himself, but he that is called by God, as Aaron was.

58N 5 5 So Christ also did not glorify himself, that he might be made a high priest: but he that said unto him: Thou art my Son, this day have I begotten thee.

58N 5 6 As he saith also in another place: Thou art a priest for ever, according to the order of Melchisedech.

58N 5 7 Who in the days of his flesh, with a strong cry and tears, offering up prayers and supplications to him that was able to save him from death, was heard for his reverence.

58N 5 8 And whereas indeed he was the Son of God, he learned obedience by the things which he suffered:

58N 5 9 And being consummated, he became, to all that obey him, the cause of eternal salvation.

58N 5 10 Called by God a high priest according to the order of Melchisedech.

58N 5 11 Of whom we have much to say, and hard to be intelligibly uttered: because you are become weak to hear.

58N 5 12 For whereas for the time you ought to be masters, you have need to be taught again what are the first elements of the words of God: and you are become such as have need of milk, and not of strong meat.

58N 5 13 For every one that is a partaker of milk, is unskillful in the word of justice: for he is a little child.

58N 5 14 But strong meat is for the perfect; for them who by custom have their senses exercised to the discerning of good and evil.

58N 6 1 Wherefore leaving the word of the beginning of Christ, let us go on to things more perfect, not laying again the foundation of penance from dead works, and of faith towards God, 58N 6 2 Of the doctrine of baptisms, and imposition of hands, and of the resurrection of the dead, and of eternal judgment.

58N 6 3 And this will we do, if God permit.

58N 6 4 For it is impossible for those who were once illuminated, have tasted also the heavenly gift, and were made partakers of the Holy Ghost,

58N 6 5 Have moreover tasted the good word of God, and the powers of the world to come,

58N 6 6 And are fallen away: to be renewed again to penance, crucifying again to themselves the Son of God, and making him a mockery.

58N 6 7 For the earth that drinketh in the rain which cometh often upon it, and bringeth forth herbs meet for them by whom it is tilled, receiveth blessing from God.

58N 6 8 But that which bringeth forth thorns and briers, is reprobate, and very near unto a curse, whose end is to be burnt.

58N 6 9 But, my dearly beloved, we trust better things of you, and nearer to salvation; though we speak thus.

58N 6 10 For God is not unjust, that he should forget your work, and the love which you have shewn in his name, you who have ministered, and do minister to the saints.

58N 6 11 And we desire that every one of you shew forth the same carefulness to the accomplishing of hope unto the end:

58N 6 12 That you become not slothful, but followers of them, who through faith and patience shall inherit the promises.

58N 6 13 For God making promise to Abraham, because he had no one greater by whom he might swear, swore by himself, 58N 6 14 Saying: Unless blessing I shall bless thee, and multiplying I shall multiply thee.

58N 6 15 And so patiently enduring he obtained the promise.

58N 6 16 For men swear by one greater than themselves: and an oath for confirmation is the end of all their controversy.

58N 6 17 Wherein God, meaning more abundantly to shew to the heirs of the promise the immutability of his counsel, interposed an oath:

58N 6 18 That by two immutable things, in which it is impossible for God to lie, we may have the strongest comfort, who have fled for refuge to hold fast the hope set before us.

58N 6 19 Which we have as an anchor of the soul, sure and firm, and which entereth in even within the veil;

58N 6 20 Where the forerunner Jesus is entered for us, made a high priest for ever according to the order of Melchisedech.

58N 7 1 For this Melchisedech was king of Salem, priest of the most high God, who met Abraham returning from the slaughter of the kings, and blessed him:

58N 7 2 To whom also Abraham divided the tithes of all: who first indeed by interpretation, is king of justice: and then also king of Salem, that is, king of peace:

58N 7 3 Without father, without mother, without genealogy, having neither beginning of days nor end of life, but likened unto the Son of God, continueth a priest for ever.

58N 7 4 Now consider how great this man is, to whom also Abraham the patriarch gave tithes out of the principal things.

58N 7 5 And indeed they that are of the sons of Levi, who receive the priesthood, have a commandment to take tithes of the people according to the law, that is to say, of their brethren: though they themselves also came out of the loins of Abraham.

58N 7 6 But he, whose pedigree is not numbered among them, received tithes of Abraham, and blessed him that had the promises.

58N 7 7 And without all contradiction, that which is less, is blessed by the better.

58N 7 8 And here indeed, men that die, receive tithes: but there he hath witness, that he liveth.

58N 7 9 And (as it may be said) even Levi who received tithes, paid tithes in Abraham:

58N 7 10 For he was yet in the loins of his father, when Melchisedech met him.

58N 7 11 If then perfection was by the Levitical priesthood, (for under it the people received the law,) what further need was there that another priest should rise according to the order of Melchisedech, and not be called according to the order of Aaron?

58N 7 12 For the priesthood being translated, it is necessary that a translation also be made of the law.

58N 7 13 For he, of whom these things are spoken, is of another tribe, of which no one attended on the altar.

58N 7 14 For it is evident that our Lord sprung out of Juda: in which tribe Moses spoke nothing concerning priests.

58N 7 15 And it is yet far more evident: if according to the similitude of Melchisedech there ariseth another priest,

58N 7 16 Who is made not according to the law of a carnal commandment, but according to the power of an indissoluble life:

58N 7 17 For he testifieth: Thou art a priest for ever, according to the order of Melchisedech.

58N 7 18 There is indeed a setting aside of the former commandment, because of the weakness and unprofitableness thereof:

58N 7 19 (For the law brought nothing to perfection,) but a bringing in of a better hope, by which we draw nigh to God.

58N 7 20 And inasmuch as it is not without an oath, (for the others indeed were made priests without an oath; 58N 7 21 But this with an oath, by him that said unto him: The Lord hath sworn, and he will not repent, Thou art a priest for ever.)

58N 7 22 By so much is Jesus made a surety of a better testament.

58N 7 23 And the others indeed were made many priests, because by reason of death they were not suffered to continue:

58N 7 24 But this, for that he continueth for ever, hath an everlasting priesthood, 58N 7 25 Whereby he is able also to save for ever them that come to God by him; always living to make intercession for us.

58N 7 26 For it was fitting that we should have such a high priest, holy, innocent, undefiled, separated from sinners, and made higher than the heavens;

58N 7 27 Who needeth not daily (as the other priests) to offer sacrifices first for his own sins, and then for the people's: for this he did once, in offering himself.

58N 7 28 For the law maketh men priests, who have infirmity: but the word of the oath, which was since the law, the Son who is perfected for evermore.

58N 8 1 Now of the things which we have spoken, this is the sum: We have such an high priest, who is set on the right hand of the throne of majesty in the heavens, 58N 8 2 A minister of the holies, and of the true tabernacle, which the Lord hath pitched, and not man.

58N 8 3 For every high priest is appointed to offer gifts and sacrifices: wherefore it is necessary that he also should have some thing to offer.

58N 8 4 If then he were on earth, he would not be a priest: seeing that there would be others to offer gifts according to the law,

58N 8 5 Who serve unto the example and shadow of heavenly things. As it was answered to Moses, when he was to finish the tabernacle: See (saith he) that thou make all things according to the pattern which was shewn thee on the mount.

58N 8 6 But now he hath obtained a better ministry, by how much also he is a mediator of a better testament, which is established on better promises.

58N 8 7 For if that former had been faultless, there should not indeed a place have been sought for a second.

58N 8 8 For finding fault with them, he saith: Behold, the days shall come, saith the Lord: and I will perfect unto the house of Israel, and unto the house of Juda, a new testament:

58N 8 9 Not according to the testament which I made to their fathers, on the day when I took them by the hand to lead them out of the land of Egypt: because they continued not in my testament: and I regarded them not, saith the Lord.

58N 8 10 For this is the testament which I will make to the house of Israel after those days, saith the Lord: I will give my laws into their mind, and in their heart will I write them: and I will be their God, and they shall be my people:

58N 8 11 And they shall not teach every man his neighbour and every man his brother, saying, Know the Lord: for all shall know me from the least to the greatest of them:

58N 8 12 Because I will be merciful to their iniquities, and their sins I will remember no more.

58N 8 13 Now in saying a new, he hath made the former old. And that which decayeth and groweth old, is near its end.

58N 9 1 The former indeed had also justifications of divine service, and a worldly sanctuary.

58N 9 2 For there was a tabernacle made the first, wherein were the candlesticks, and the table, and the setting forth of loaves, which is called the holy.

58N 9 3 And after the second veil, the tabernacle, which is called the holy of holies:

58N 9 4 Having a golden censer, and the ark of the testament covered about on every part with gold, in which was a golden pot that had manna, and the rod of Aaron, that had blossomed, and the tables of the testament.

58N 9 5 And over it were the cherubims of glory overshadowing the propitiatory: of which it is not needful to speak now particularly.

58N 9 6 Now these things being thus ordered, into the first tabernacle the priests indeed always entered, accomplishing the offices of sacrifices.

58N 9 7 But into the second, the high priest alone, once a year: not without blood, which he offereth for his own, and the people's ignorance:

58N 9 8 The Holy Ghost signifying this, that the way into the holies was not yet made manifest, whilst the former tabernacle was yet standing.

58N 9 9 Which is a parable of the time present: according to which gifts and sacrifices are offered, which can not, as to the conscience, make him perfect that serveth, only in meats and in drinks,

58N 9 10 And divers washings, and justices of the flesh laid on them until the time of correction.

58N 9 11 But Christ, being come an high priest of the good things to come, by a greater and more perfect tabernacle not made with hand, that is, not of this creation:

58N 9 12 Neither by the blood of goats, or of calves, but by his own blood, entered once into the holies, having obtained eternal redemption.

58N 9 13 For if the blood of goats and of oxen, and the ashes of an heifer being sprinkled, sanctify such as are defiled, to the cleansing of the flesh:

58N 9 14 How much more shall the blood of Christ, who by the Holy Ghost offered himself unspotted unto God, cleanse our conscience from dead works, to serve the living God?

58N 9 15 And therefore he is the mediator of the new testament: that by means of his death, for the redemption of those transgressions, which were under the former testament, they that are called may receive the promise of eternal inheritance.

58N 9 16 For where there is a testament, the death of the testator must of necessity come in.

58N 9 17 For a testament is of force, after men are dead: otherwise it is as yet of no strength, whilst the testator liveth.

58N 9 18 Whereupon neither was the first indeed dedicated without blood.

58N 9 19 For when every commandment of the law had been read by Moses to all the people, he took the blood of calves and goats, with water, and scarlet wool and hyssop, and sprinkled both the book itself and all the people, 58N 9 20 Saying: This is the blood of the testament, which God hath enjoined unto you.

58N 9 21 The tabernacle also and all the vessels of the ministry, in like manner, he sprinkled with blood.

58N 9 22 And almost all things, according to the law, are cleansed with blood: and without shedding of blood there is no remission.

58N 9 23 It is necessary therefore that the patterns of heavenly things should be cleansed with these: but the heavenly things themselves with better sacrifices than these.

58N 9 24 For Jesus is not entered into the holies made with hands, the patterns of the true: but into heaven itself, that he may appear now in the presence of God for us.

58N 9 25 Nor yet that he should offer himself often, as the high priest entereth into the holies, every year with the blood of others:

58N 9 26 For then he ought to have suffered often from the beginning of the world: but now once at the end of ages, he hath appeared for the destruction of sin, by the sacrifice of himself.

58N 9 27 And as it is appointed unto men once to die, and after this the judgment:

58N 9 28 So also Christ was offered once to exhaust the sins of many; the second time he shall appear without sin to them that expect him unto salvation.

58N 10 1 For the law having a shadow of the good things to come, not the very image of the things; by the selfsame sacrifices which they offer continually every year, can never make the comers thereunto perfect:

58N 10 2 For then they would have ceased to be offered: because the worshippers once cleansed should have no conscience of sin any longer:

58N 10 3 But in them there is made a commemoration of sins every year.

58N 10 4 For it is impossible that with the blood of oxen and goats sin should be taken away.

58N 10 5 Wherefore when he cometh into the world, he saith: Sacrifice and oblation thou wouldest not: but a body thou hast fitted to me:

58N 10 6 Holocausts for sin did not please thee.

58N 10 7 Then said I: Behold I come: in the head of the book it is written of me: that I should do thy will, O God.

58N 10 8 In saying before, Sacrifices, and oblations, and holocausts for sin thou wouldest not, neither are they pleasing to thee, which are offered according to the law.

58N 10 9 Then said I: Behold, I come to do thy will, O God: he taketh away the first, that he may establish that which followeth.

58N 10 10 In the which will, we are sanctified by the oblation of the body of Jesus Christ once.

58N 10 11 And every priest indeed standeth daily ministering, and often offering the same sacrifices, which can never take away sins.

58N 10 12 But this man offering one sacrifice for sins, for ever sitteth on the right hand of God, 58N 10 13 From henceforth expecting, until his enemies be made his footstool.

58N 10 14 For by one oblation he hath perfected for ever them that are sanctified.

58N 10 15 And the Holy Ghost also doth testify this to us. For after that he said:

58N 10 16 And this is the testament which I will make unto them after those days, saith the Lord. I will give my laws in their hearts, and on their minds will I write them:

58N 10 17 And their sins and iniquities I will remember no more.

58N 10 18 Now where there is a remission of these, there is no more an oblation for sin.

58N 10 19 Having therefore, brethren, a confidence in the entering into the holies by the blood of Christ;

58N 10 20 A new and living way which he hath dedicated for us through the veil, that is to say, his flesh,

58N 10 21 And a high priest over the house of God:

58N 10 22 Let us draw near with a true heart in fulness of faith, having our hearts sprinkled from an evil conscience, and our bodies washed with clean water.

58N 10 23 Let us hold fast the confession of our hope without wavering (for he is faithful that hath promised),

58N 10 24 And let us consider one another, to provoke unto charity and to good works:

58N 10 25 Not forsaking our assembly, as some are accustomed; but comforting one another, and so much the more as you see the day approaching.

58N 10 26 For if we sin wilfully after having the knowledge of the truth, there is now left no sacrifice for sins, 58N 10 27 But a certain dreadful expectation of judgment, and the rage of a fire which shall consume the adversaries.

58N 10 28 A man making void the law of Moses, dieth without any mercy under two or three witnesses:

58N 10 29 How much more, do you think he deserveth worse punishments, who hath trodden under foot the Son of God, and hath esteemed the blood of the testament unclean, by which he was sanctified, and hath offered an affront to the Spirit of grace?

58N 10 30 For we know him that hath said: Vengeance belongeth to me, and I will repay. And again: The Lord shall judge his people.

58N 10 31 It is a fearful thing to fall into the hands of the living God.

58N 10 32 But call to mind the former days, wherein, being illuminated, you endured a great fight of afflictions.

58N 10 33 And on the one hand indeed, by reproaches and tribulations, were made a gazingstock; and on the other, became companions of them that were used in such sort.

58N 10 34 For you both had compassion on them that were in bands, and took with joy the being stripped of your own goods, knowing that you have a better and a lasting substance.

58N 10 35 Do not therefore lose your confidence, which hath a great reward.

58N 10 36 For patience is necessary for you; that, doing the will of God, you may receive the promise.

58N 10 37 For yet a little and a very little while, and he that is to come, will come, and will not delay.

58N 10 38 But my just man liveth by faith; but if he withdraw himself, he shall not please my soul.

58N 10 39 But we are not the children of withdrawing unto perdition, but of faith to the saving of the soul.

58N 11 1 Now faith is the substance of things to be hoped for, the evidence of things that appear not.

58N 11 2 For by this the ancients obtained a testimony.

58N 11 3 By faith we understand that the world was framed by the word of God; that from invisible things visible things might be made.

58N 11 4 By faith Abel offered to God a sacrifice exceeding that of Cain, by which he obtained a testimony that he was just, God giving testimony to his gifts; and by it he being dead yet speaketh.

58N 11 5 By faith Enoch was translated, that he should not see death; and he was not found, because God had translated him: for before his translation he had testimony that he pleased God.

58N 11 6 But without faith it is impossible to please God. For he that cometh to God, must believe that he is, and is a rewarder to them that seek him.

58N 11 7 By faith Noah, having received an answer concerning those things which as yet were not seen, moved with fear, framed the ark for the saving of his house, by the which he condemned the world; and was instituted heir of the justice which is by faith.

58N 11 8 By faith he that is called Abraham, obeyed to go out into a place which he was to receive for an inheritance; and he went out, not knowing whither he went.

58N 11 9 By faith he abode in the land, dwelling in cottages, with Isaac and Jacob, the co-heirs of the same promise.

58N 11 10 For he looked for a city that hath foundations; whose builder and maker is God.

58N 11 11 By faith also Sara herself, being barren, received strength to conceive seed, even past the time of age; because she believed that he was faithful who had promised, 58N 11 12 For which cause there sprung even from one (and him as good as dead) as the stars of heaven in multitude, and as the sand which is by the sea shore innumerable.

58N 11 13 All these died according to faith, not having received the promises, but beholding them afar off, and saluting them, and confessing that they are pilgrims and strangers on the earth.

58N 11 14 For they that say these things, do signify that they seek a country. 15 And truly if they had been mindful of that from whence they came out, they had doubtless time to return.

58N 11 16 But now they desire a better, that is to say, a heavenly country. Therefore God is not ashamed to be called their God; for he hath prepared for them a city.

58N 11 17 By faith Abraham, when he was tried, offered Isaac: and he that had received the promises, offered up his only begotten son;

58N 11 18 (To whom it was said: In Isaac shall thy seed be called.)

58N 11 19 Accounting that God is able to raise up even from the dead. Whereupon also he received him for a parable.

58N 11 20 By faith also of things to come, Isaac blessed Jacob and Esau.

58N 11 21 By faith Jacob dying, blessed each of the sons of Joseph, and adored the top of his rod.

58N 11 22 By faith Joseph, when he was dying, made mention of the going out of the children of Israel; and gave commandment concerning his bones.

58N 11 23 By faith Moses, when he was born, was hid three months by his parents; because they saw he was a comely babe, and they feared not the king's edict.

58N 11 24 By faith Moses, when he was grown up, denied himself to be the son of Pharaoh's daughter;

58N 11 25 Rather choosing to be afflicted with the people of God, than to have the pleasure of sin for a time, 58N 11 26 Esteeming the reproach of Christ greater riches than the treasure of the Egyptians. For he looked unto the reward.

58N 11 27 By faith he left Egypt, not fearing the fierceness of the king: for he endured as seeing him that is invisible.

58N 11 28 By faith he celebrated the pasch, and the shedding of the blood; that he, who destroyed the firstborn, might not touch them.

58N 11 29 By faith they passed through the Red Sea, as by dry land: which the Egyptians attempting, were swallowed up.

58N 11 30 By faith the walls of Jericho fell down, by the going round them seven days.

58N 11 31 By faith Rahab the harlot perished not with the unbelievers, receiving the spies with peace.

58N 11 32 And what shall I yet say? For the time would fail me to tell of Gedeon, Barac, Samson, Jephthe, David, Samuel, and the prophets:

58N 11 33 Who by faith conquered kingdoms, wrought justice, obtained promises, stopped the mouths of lions,

58N 11 34 Quenched the violence of fire, escaped the edge of the sword, recovered strength from weakness, became valiant in battle, put to flight the armies of foreigners:

58N 11 35 Women received their dead raised to life again. But others were racked, not accepting deliverance, that they might find a better resurrection.

58N 11 36 And others had trial of mockeries and stripes, moreover also of bands and prisons.

58N 11 37 They were stoned, they were cut asunder, they were tempted, they were put to death by the sword, they wandered about in sheepskins, in goatskins, being in want, distressed, afflicted:

58N 11 38 Of whom the world was not worthy; wandering in deserts, in mountains, and in dens, and in caved of the earth.

58N 11 39 And all these being approved by the testimony of faith, received not the promise;

58N 11 40 God providing some better thing for us, that they should not be perfected without us.

58N 12 1 And therefore we also having so great a cloud of witnesses over our head, laying aside every weight and sin which surrounds us, let us run by patience to the fight proposed to us:

58N 12 2 Looking on Jesus, the author and finisher of faith, who having joy set before him, endured the cross, despising the shame, and now sitteth on the right hand of the throne of God.

58N 12 3 For think diligently upon him that endured such opposition from sinners against himself; that you be not wearied, fainting in your minds.

58N 12 4 For you have not yet resisted unto blood, striving against sin:

58N 12 5 And you have forgotten the consolation, which speaketh to you, as unto children, saying: My son, neglect not the discipline of the Lord; neither be thou wearied whilst thou art rebuked by him.

58N 12 6 For whom the Lord loveth, he chastiseth; and he scourgeth every son whom he receiveth.

58N 12 7 Persevere under discipline. God dealeth with you as with his sons; for what son is there, whom the father doth not correct?

58N 12 8 But if you be without chastisement, whereof all are made partakers, then are you bastards, and not sons.

58N 12 9 Moreover we have had fathers of our flesh, for instructors, and we revered them: shall we not much more obey the Father of spirits, and live?

58N 12 10 And they indeed for a few days, according to their own pleasure, instructed us: but he, for our profit, that we might receive his sanctification.

58N 12 11 Now all chastisement for the present indeed seemeth not to bring with it joy, but sorrow: but afterwards it will yield, to them that are exercised by it, the most peaceable fruit of justice.

58N 12 12 Wherefore lift up the hands which hang down, and the feeble knees, 58N 12 13 And make straight steps with your feet: that no one, halting, may go out of the way; but rather be healed.

58N 12 14 Follow peace with all men, and holiness: without which no man shall see God.

58N 12 15 Looking diligently, lest any man be wanting to the grace of God; lest any root of bitterness springing up do hinder, and by it many be defiled.

58N 12 16 Lest there be any fornicator, or profane person, as Esau; who for one mess, sold his first birthright.

58N 12 17 For know ye that afterwards, when he desired to inherit the benediction, he was rejected; for he found no place of repentance, although with tears he had sought it.

58N 12 18 For you are not come to a mountain that might be touched, and a burning fire, and a whirlwind, and darkness, and storm,

58N 12 19 And the sound of a trumpet, and the voice of words, which they that heard excused themselves, that the word might not be spoken to them:

58N 12 20 For they did not endure that which was said: And if so much as a beast shall touch the mount, it shall be stoned.

58N 12 21 And so terrible was that which was seen, Moses said: I am frightened, and tremble.

58N 12 22 But you are come to mount Sion, and to the city of the living God, the heavenly Jerusalem, and to the company of many thousands of angels,

58N 12 23 And to the church of the firstborn, who are written in the heavens, and to God the judge of all, and to the spirits of the just made perfect, 58N 12 24 And to Jesus the mediator of the new testament, and to the sprinkling of blood which speaketh better than that of Abel.

58N 12 25 See that you refuse him not that speaketh. For if they escaped not who refused him that spoke upon the earth, much more shall not we, that turn away from him that speaketh to us from heaven.

58N 12 26 Whose voice then moved the earth; but now he promiseth, saying: Yet once more, and I will move not only the earth, but heaven also.

58N 12 27 And in that he saith, Yet once more, he signifieth the translation of the moveable things as made, that those things may remain which are immoveable.

58N 12 28 Therefore receiving an immoveable kingdom, we have grace; whereby let us serve, pleasing God, with fear and reverence.

58N 12 29 For our God is a consuming fire.

58N 13 1 Let the charity of the brotherhood abide in you.

58N 13 2 And hospitality do not forget; for by this some, being not aware of it, have entertained angels.

58N 13 3 Remember them that are in bands, as if you were bound with them; and them that labour, as being yourselves also in the body.

58N 13 4 Marriage honourable in all, and the bed undefiled. For fornicators and adulterers God will judge.

58N 13 5 Let your manners be without covetousness, contented with such things as you have; for he hath said: I will not leave thee, neither will I forsake thee.

58N 13 6 So that we may confidently say: The Lord is my helper: I will not fear what man shall do to me.

58N 13 7 Remember your prelates who have spoken the word of God to you; whose faith follow, considering the end of their conversation, 58N 13 8 Jesus Christ, yesterday, and to day; and the same for ever.

58N 13 9 Be not led away with various and strange doctrines. For it is best that the heart be established with grace, not with meats; which have not profited those that walk in them.

58N 13 10 We have an altar, whereof they have no power to eat who serve the tabernacle.

58N 13 11 For the bodies of those beasts, whose blood is brought into the holies by the high priest for sin, are burned without the camp.

58N 13 12 Wherefore Jesus also, that he might sanctify the people by his own blood, suffered without the gate.

58N 13 13 Let us go forth therefore to him without the camp, bearing his reproach.

58N 13 14 For we have not here a lasting city, but we seek one that is to come.

58N 13 15 By him therefore let us offer the sacrifice of praise always to God, that is to say, the fruit of lips confessing to his name.

58N 13 16 And do not forget to do good, and to impart; for by such sacrifices God's favour is obtained.

58N 13 17 Obey your prelates, and be subject to them. For they watch as being to render an account of your souls; that they may do this with joy, and not with grief. For this is not expedient for you.

58N 13 18 Pray for us. For we trust we have a good conscience, being willing to behave ourselves well in all things.

58N 13 19 And I beseech you the more to do this, that I may be restored to you the sooner.

58N 13 20 And may the God of peace, who brought again from the dead the great pastor of the sheep, our Lord Jesus Christ, in the blood of the everlasting testament, 58N 13 21 Fit you in all goodness, that you may do his will; doing in you that which is well pleasing in his sight, through Jesus Christ, to whom is glory for ever and ever. Amen.

58N 13 22 And I beseech you, brethren, that you suffer this word of consolation. For I have written to you in a few words.

58N 13 23 Know ye that our brother Timothy is set at liberty: with whom (if he come shortly) I will see you.

58N 13 24 Salute all your prelates, and all the saints. The brethren from Italy salute you.

58N 13 25 Grace be with you all. Amen.

59N 1 1 James the servant of God, and of our Lord Jesus Christ, to the twelve tribes which are scattered abroad, greeting.

59N 1 2 My brethren, count it all joy, when you shall fall into divers temptations;

59N 1 3 Knowing that the trying of your faith worketh patience.

59N 1 4 And patience hath a perfect work; that you may be perfect and entire, failing in nothing.

59N 1 5 But if any of you want wisdom, let him ask of God, who giveth to all men abundantly, and upbraideth not; and it shall be given him.

59N 1 6 But let him ask in faith, nothing wavering. For he that wavereth is like a wave of the sea, which is moved and carried about by the wind.

59N 1 7 Therefore let not that man think that he shall receive any thing of the Lord.

59N 1 8 A double minded man is inconstant in all his ways.

59N 1 9 But let the brother of low condition glory in his exaltation:

59N 1 10 And the rich, in his being low; because as the flower of the grass shall he pass away.

59N 1 11 For the sun rose with a burning heat, and parched the grass, and the flower thereof fell off, and the beauty of the shape thereof perished: so also shall the rich man fade away in his ways.

59N 1 12 Blessed is the man that endureth temptation; for when he hath been proved, he shall receive a crown of life, which God hath promised to them that love him.

59N 1 13 Let no man, when he is tempted, say that he is tempted by God. For God is not a tempter of evils, and he tempteth no man.

59N 1 14 But every man is tempted by his own concupiscence, being drawn away and allured.

59N 1 15 Then when concupiscence hath conceived, it bringeth forth sin. But sin, when it is completed, begetteth death.

59N 1 16 Do not err, therefore, my dearest brethren.

59N 1 17 Every best gift, and every perfect gift, is from above, coming down from the Father of lights, with whom there is no change, nor shadow of alteration.

59N 1 18 For of his own will hath he begotten us by the word of truth, that we might be some beginning of his creatures.

59N 1 19 You know, my dearest brethren. And let every man be swift to hear, but slow to speak, and slow to anger.

59N 1 20 For the anger of man worketh not the justice of God.

59N 1 21 Wherefore casting away all uncleanness, and abundance of naughtiness, with meekness receive the ingrafted word, which is able to save your souls.

59N 1 22 But be ye doers of the word, and not hearers only, deceiving your own selves.

59N 1 23 For if a man be a hearer of the word, and not a doer, he shall be compared to a man beholding his own countenance in a glass.

59N 1 24 For he beheld himself, and went his way, and presently forgot what manner of man he was.

59N 1 25 But he that hath looked into the perfect law of liberty, and hath continued therein, not becoming a forgetful hearer, but a doer of the work; this man shall be blessed in his deed.

59N 1 26 And if any man think himself to be religious, not bridling his tongue, but deceiving his own heart, this man's religion is vain.

59N 1 27 Religion clean and undefiled before God and the Father, is this: to visit the fatherless and widows in their tribulation: and to keep one's self unspotted from this world.

59N 2 1 My brethren, have not the faith of our Lord Jesus Christ of glory with respect of persons.

59N 2 2 For if there shall come into your assembly a man having a golden ring, in fine apparel, and there shall come in also a poor man in mean attire,

59N 2 3 And you have respect to him that is clothed with the fine apparel, and shall say to him: Sit thou here well; but say to the poor man: Stand thou there, or sit under my footstool:

59N 2 4 Do you not judge within yourselves, and are become judges of unjust thoughts?

59N 2 5 Hearken, my dearest brethren: hath not God chosen the poor in this world, rich in faith, and heirs of the kingdom which God hath promised to them that love him?

59N 2 6 But you have dishonoured the poor man. Do not the rich oppress you by might? and do not they draw you before the judgment seats?

59N 2 7 Do not they blaspheme the good name that is invoked upon you?

59N 2 8 If then you fulfil the royal law, according to the scriptures, Thou shalt love thy neighbour as thyself; you do well.

59N 2 9 But if you have respect to persons, you commit sin, being reproved by the law as transgressors.

59N 2 10 And whosoever shall keep the whole law, but offend in one point, is become guilty of all.

59N 2 11 For he that said, Thou shalt not commit adultery, said also, Thou shalt not kill. Now if thou do not commit adultery, but shalt kill, thou art become a transgressor of the law.

59N 2 12 So speak ye, and so do, as being to be judged by the law of liberty.

59N 2 13 For judgment without mercy to him that hath not done mercy. And mercy exalteth itself above judgment.

59N 2 14 What shall it profit, my brethren, if a man say he hath faith, but hath not works? Shall faith be able to save him?

59N 2 15 And if a brother or sister be naked, and want daily food:
 59N 2 16 And one of you say to them: Go in peace, be ye warmed and filled; yet give them not those things that are necessary for the body, what shall it profit?
 59N 2 17 So faith also, if it have not works, is dead in itself.
 59N 2 18 But some man will say: Thou hast faith, and I have works: shew me thy faith without works; and I will shew thee, by works, my faith.
 59N 2 19 Thou believest that there is one God. Thou dost well: the devils also believe and tremble.
 59N 2 20 But wilt thou know, O vain man, that faith without works is dead?
 59N 2 21 Was not Abraham our father justified by works, offering up Isaac his son upon the altar?
 59N 2 22 Seest thou, that faith did co-operate with his works; and by works faith was made perfect?
 59N 2 23 And the scripture was fulfilled, saying: Abraham believed God, and it was reputed to him to justice, and he was called the friend of God.
 59N 2 24 Do you see that by works a man is justified; and not by faith only?
 59N 2 25 And in like manner also Rahab the harlot, was not she justified by works, receiving the messengers, and sending them out another way?
 59N 2 26 For even as the body without the spirit is dead; so also faith without works is dead.
 59N 3 1 Be ye not many masters, my brethren, knowing that you receive the greater judgment.
 59N 3 2 For in many things we all offend. If any man offend not in word, the same is a perfect man. He is able also with a bridle to lead about the whole body.
 59N 3 3 For if we put bits into the mouths of horses, that they may obey us, and we turn about their whole body.
 59N 3 4 Behold also ships, whereas they are great, and are driven by strong winds, yet are they turned about with a small helm, whithersoever the force of the governor willeth.
 59N 3 5 Even so the tongue is indeed a little member, and boasteth great things.
 Behold how small a fire kindleth a great wood.
 59N 3 6 And the tongue is a fire, a world of iniquity. The tongue is placed among our members, which defileth the whole body, and inflameth the wheel of our nativity, being set on fire by hell.
 59N 3 7 For every nature of beasts, and of birds, and of serpents, and of the rest, is tamed, and hath been tamed, by the nature of man:
 59N 3 8 But the tongue no man can tame, an unquiet evil, full of deadly poison.
 59N 3 9 By it we bless God and the Father: and by it we curse men, who are made after the likeness of God.
 59N 3 10 Out of the same mouth proceedeth blessing and cursing. My brethren, these things ought not so to be.
 59N 3 11 Doth a fountain send forth, out of the same hole, sweet and bitter water?
 59N 3 12 Can the fig tree, my brethren, bear grapes; or the vine, figs? So neither can the salt water yield sweet.
 59N 3 13 Who is a wise man, and endued with knowledge among you? Let him shew, by a good conversation, his work in the meekness of wisdom.
 59N 3 14 But if you have bitter zeal, and there be contentions in your hearts; glory not,
 and be not liars against the truth.
 59N 3 15 For this is not wisdom, descending from above: but earthly, sensual, devilish.
 59N 3 16 For where envying and contention is, there is inconstancy, and every evil work.
 59N 3 17 But the wisdom, that is from above, first indeed is chaste, then peaceable, modest, easy to be persuaded, consenting to the good, full of mercy and good fruits, without judging, without dissimulation.

59N 3 18 And the fruit of justice is sown in peace, to them that make peace.

59N 4 1 From whence are wars and contentions among you? Are they not hence, from your concupiscences, which war in your members?

59N 4 2 You covet, and have not: you kill, and envy, and can not obtain. You contend and war, and you have not, because you ask not.

59N 4 3 You ask, and receive not; because you ask amiss: that you may consume it on your concupiscences.

59N 4 4 Adulterers, know you not that the friendship of this world is the enemy of God? Whosoever therefore will be a friend of this world, becometh an enemy of God.

59N 4 5 Or do you think that the scripture saith in vain: To envy doth the spirit covet which dwelleth in you?

59N 4 6 But he giveth greater grace. Wherefore he saith: God resisteth the proud, and giveth grace to the humble.

59N 4 7 Be subject therefore to God, but resist the devil, and he will fly from you.

59N 4 8 Draw nigh to God, and he will draw nigh to you. Cleanse your hands, ye sinners: and purify your hearts, ye double minded.

59N 4 9 Be afflicted, and mourn, and weep: let your laughter be turned into mourning, and your joy into sorrow.

59N 4 10 Be humbled in the sight of the Lord, and he will exalt you.

59N 4 11 Detract not one another, my brethren. He that detracteth his brother, or he that judgeth his brother, detracteth the law, and judgeth the law. But if thou judge the law, thou art not a doer of the law, but a judge.

59N 4 12 There is one lawgiver, and judge, that is able to destroy and to deliver.

59N 4 13 But who art thou that judgest thy neighbour? Behold, now you that say: To day or to morrow we will go into such a city, and there we will spend a year, and will traffic, and make our gain.

59N 4 14 Whereas you know not what shall be on the morrow.

59N 4 15 For what is your life? It is a vapour which appeareth for a little while, and afterwards shall vanish away. For that you should say: If the Lord will, and if we shall live, we will do this or that.

59N 4 16 But now you rejoice in your arrogancies. All such rejoicing is wicked.

59N 4 17 To him therefore who knoweth to do good, and doth it not, to him it is sin.

59N 5 1 Go to now, ye rich men, weep and howl in your miseries, which shall come upon you.

59N 5 2 Your riches are corrupted: and your garments are motheaten.

59N 5 3 Your gold and silver is cankered: and the rust of them shall be for a testimony against you, and shall eat your flesh like fire. You have stored up to yourselves wrath against the last days.

59N 5 4 Behold the hire of the labourers, who have reaped down your fields, which by fraud has been kept back by you, crieth: and the cry of them hath entered into the ears of the Lord of sabaoth.

59N 5 5 You have feasted upon earth: and in riotousness you have nourished your hearts, in the day of slaughter.

59N 5 6 You have condemned and put to death the Just One, and he resisted you not.

59N 5 7 Be patient therefore, brethren, until the coming of the Lord. Behold, the husbandman waiteth for the precious fruit of the earth: patiently bearing till he receive the early and latter rain.

59N 5 8 Be you therefore also patient, and strengthen your hearts: for the coming of the Lord is at hand.

59N 5 9 Grudge not, brethren, one against another, that you may not be judged. Behold the judge standeth before the door.

59N 5 10 Take, my brethren, for an example of suffering evil, of labour and patience, the prophets, who spoke in the name of the Lord.

59N 5 11 Behold, we account them blessed who have endured. You have heard of the patience of Job, and you have seen the end of the Lord, that the Lord is merciful and compassionate.

59N 5 12 But above all things, my brethren, swear not, neither by heaven, nor by the earth, nor by any other oath. But let your speech be, yea, yea: no, no: that you fall not under judgment.

59N 5 13 Is any of you sad? Let him pray. Is he cheerful in mind? Let him sing.

59N 5 14 Is any man sick among you? Let him bring in the priests of the church, and let them pray over him, anointing him with oil in the name of the Lord.

59N 5 15 And the prayer of faith shall save the sick man: and the Lord shall raise him up: and if he be in sins, they shall be forgiven him.

59N 5 16 Confess therefore your sins one to another: and pray one for another, that you may be saved. For the continual prayer of a just man availeth much.

59N 5 17 Elias was a man passible like unto us: and with prayer he prayed that it might not rain upon the earth, and it rained not for three years and six months.

59N 5 18 And he prayed again: and the heaven gave rain, and the earth brought forth her fruit.

59N 5 19 My brethren, if any of you err from the truth, and one convert him:

59N 5 20 He must know that he who causeth a sinner to be converted from the error of his way, shall save his soul from death, and shall cover a multitude of sins.

60N 1 1 Peter, an apostle of Jesus Christ, to the strangers dispersed through Pontus, Galatia, Cappadocia, Asia, and Bithynia, elect, 60N 1 2 According to the foreknowledge of God the Father, unto the sanctification of the Spirit, unto obedience and sprinkling of the blood of Jesus Christ: Grace unto you and peace be multiplied.

60N 1 3 Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who according to his great mercy hath regenerated us unto a lively hope, by the resurrection of Jesus Christ from the dead,

60N 1 4 Unto an inheritance incorruptible, and undefiled, and that can not fade, reserved in heaven for you, 60N 1 5 Who, by the power of God, are kept by faith unto salvation, ready to be revealed in the last time.

60N 1 6 Wherein you shall greatly rejoice, if now you must be for a little time made sorrowful in divers temptations:

60N 1 7 That the trial of your faith (much more precious than gold which is tried by the fire) may be found unto praise and glory and honour at the appearing of Jesus Christ:

60N 1 8 Whom having not seen, you love: in whom also now, though you see him not, you believe: and believing shall rejoice with joy unspeakable and glorified;

60N 1 9 Receiving the end of your faith, even the salvation of your souls.

60N 1 10 Of which salvation the prophets have inquired and diligently searched, who prophesied of the grace to come in you.

60N 1 11 Searching what or what manner of time the Spirit of Christ in them did signify: when it foretold those sufferings that are in Christ, and the glories that should follow:

60N 1 12 To whom it was revealed, that not to themselves, but to you they ministered those things which are now declared to you by them that have preached the gospel to you, the Holy Ghost being sent down from heaven, on whom the angels desire to look.

60N 1 13 Wherefore having the loins of your mind girt up, being sober, trust perfectly in the grace which is offered you in the revelation of Jesus Christ,

60N 1 14 As children of obedience, not fashioned according to the former desires of your ignorance:

60N 1 15 But according to him that hath called you, who is holy, be you also in all manner of conversation holy:

60N 1 16 Because it is written: You shall be holy, for I am holy.

60N 1 17 And if you invoke as Father him who, without respect of persons, judgeth according to every one's work: converse in fear during the time of your sojourning here.

60N 1 18 Knowing that you were not redeemed with corruptible things as gold or silver, from your vain conversation of the tradition of your fathers:

60N 1 19 But with the precious blood of Christ, as of a lamb unspotted and undefiled,

60N 1 20 Foreknown indeed before the foundation of the world, but manifested in the last times for you,

60N 1 21 Who through him are faithful in God, who raised him up from the dead, and hath given him glory, that your faith and hope might be in God.

60N 1 22 Purifying your souls in the obedience of charity, with a brotherly love, from a sincere heart love one another earnestly:

60N 1 23 Being born again not of corruptible seed, but incorruptible, by the word of God who liveth and remaineth for ever.

60N 1 24 For all flesh is as grass; and all the glory thereof as the flower of grass. The grass is withered, and the flower thereof is fallen away.

60N 1 25 But the word of the Lord endureth for ever. And this is the word which by the gospel hath been preached unto you.

60N 2 1 Wherefore laying away all malice, and all guile, and dissimulations, and envies, and all detractions,

60N 2 2 As newborn babes, desire the rational milk without guile, that thereby you may grow unto salvation:

60N 2 3 If so be you have tasted that the Lord is sweet.

60N 2 4 Unto whom coming, as to a living stone, rejected indeed by men, but chosen and made honourable by God:

60N 2 5 Be you also as living stones built up, a spiritual house, a holy priesthood, to offer up spiritual sacrifices, acceptable to God by Jesus Christ.

60N 2 6 Wherefore it is said in the scripture: Behold, I lay in Sion a chief corner stone, elect, precious. And he that shall believe in him, shall not be confounded.

60N 2 7 To you therefore that believe, he is honour: but to them that believe not, the stone which the builders rejected, the same is made the head of the corner:

60N 2 8 And a stone of stumbling, and a rock of scandal, to them who stumble at the word, neither do believe, whereunto also they are set.

60N 2 9 But you are a chosen generation, a kingly priesthood, a holy nation, a purchased people: that you may declare his virtues, who hath called you out of darkness into his marvellous light:

60N 2 10 Who in time past were not a people: but are now the people of God. Who had not obtained mercy; but now have obtained mercy.

60N 2 11 Dearly beloved, I beseech you as strangers and pilgrims, to refrain yourselves from carnal desires which war against the soul, 60N 2 12 Having your conversation good among the Gentiles: that whereas they speak against you as evildoers, they may, by the good works, which they shall behold in you, glorify God in the day of visitation.

60N 2 13 Be ye subject therefore to every human creature for God's sake: whether it be to the king as excelling;

60N 2 14 Or to governors as sent by him for the punishment of evildoers, and for the praise of the good:

60N 2 15 For so is the will of God, that by doing well you may put to silence the ignorance of foolish men:

60N 2 16 As free, and not as making liberty a cloak for malice, but as the servants of God.

60N 2 17 Honour all men. Love the brotherhood. Fear God. Honour the king.
 60N 2 18 Servants, be subject to your masters with all fear, not only to the good and gentle, but also to the froward.
 60N 2 19 For this is thankworthy, if for conscience towards God, a man endure sorrows, suffering wrongfully.
 60N 2 20 For what glory is it, if committing sin, and being buffeted for it, you endure? But if doing well you suffer patiently; this is thankworthy before God.
 60N 2 21 For unto this are you called: because Christ also suffered for us, leaving you an example that you should follow his steps.
 60N 2 22 Who did no sin, neither was guile found in his mouth.
 60N 2 23 Who, when he was reviled, did not revile: when he suffered, he threatened not: but delivered himself to him that judged him unjustly.
 60N 2 24 Who his own self bore our sins in his body upon the tree: that we, being dead to sins, should live to justice: by whose stripes you were healed.
 60N 2 25 For you were as sheep going astray; but you are now converted to the shepherd and bishop of your souls.
 60N 3 1 In like manner also let wives be subject to their husbands: that if any believe not the word, they may be won without the word, by the conversation of the wives.
 60N 3 2 Considering your chaste conversation with fear.
 60N 3 3 Whose adorning let it not be the outward plaiting of the hair, or the wearing of gold, or the putting on of apparel:
 60N 3 4 But the hidden man of the heart in the incorruptibility of a quiet and a meek spirit, which is rich in the sight of God.
 60N 3 5 For after this manner heretofore the holy women also, who trusted in God, adorned themselves, being in subjection to their own husbands:
 60N 3 6 As Sara obeyed Abraham, calling him lord: whose daughters you are, doing well, and not fearing any disturbance.
 60N 3 7 Ye husbands, likewise dwelling with them according to knowledge, giving honour to the female as to the weaker vessel, and as to the co-heirs of the grace of life: that your prayers be not hindered.
 60N 3 8 And in fine, be ye all of one mind, having compassion one of another, being lovers of the brotherhood, merciful, modest, humble:
 60N 3 9 Not rendering evil for evil, nor railing for railing, but contrariwise, blessing: for unto this are you called, that you may inherit a blessing.
 60N 3 10 For he that will love life, and see good days, let him refrain his tongue from evil, and his lips that they speak no guile.
 60N 3 11 Let him decline from evil, and do good: let him seek after peace and pursue it:
 60N 3 12 Because the eyes of the Lord are upon the just, and his ears unto their prayers: but the countenance of the Lord upon them that do evil things.
 60N 3 13 And who is he that can hurt you, if you be zealous of good?
 60N 3 14 But if also you suffer any thing for justice' sake, blessed are ye. And be not afraid of their fear, and be not troubled.
 60N 3 15 But sanctify the Lord Christ in your hearts, being ready always to satisfy every one that asketh you a reason of that hope which is in you.
 60N 3 16 But with modesty and fear, having a good conscience: that whereas they speak evil of you, they may be ashamed who falsely accuse your good conversation in Christ.
 60N 3 17 For it is better doing well (if such be the will of God) to suffer, than doing ill.
 60N 3 18 Because Christ also died once for our sins, the just for the unjust: that he might offer us to God, being put to death indeed in the flesh, but enlivened in the spirit,
 60N 3 19 In which also coming he preached to those spirits that were in prison:
 60N 3 20 Which had been some time incredulous, when they waited for the patience of God in the days of Noe, when the ark was a building: wherein a few, that is, eight souls, were saved by water.

60N 3 21 Whereunto baptism being of the like form, now saveth you also: not the putting away of the filth of the flesh, but the examination of a good conscience towards God by the resurrection of Jesus Christ.

60N 3 22 Who is on the right hand of God, swallowing down death, that we might be made heirs of life everlasting: being gone into heaven, the angels and powers and virtues being made subject to him.

60N 4 1 Christ therefore having suffered in the flesh, be you also armed with the same thought: for he that hath suffered in the flesh, hath ceased from sins:

60N 4 2 That now he may live the rest of his time in the flesh, not after the desires of men, but according to the will of God.

60N 4 3 For the time past is sufficient to have fulfilled the will of the Gentiles, for them who have walked in riotousness, lusts, excess of wine, revellings, banquetings, and unlawful worshipping of idols.

60N 4 4 Wherein they think it strange, that you run not with them into the same confusion of riotousness, speaking evil of you.

60N 4 5 Who shall render account to him, who is ready to judge the living and the dead.

60N 4 6 For, for this cause was the gospel preached also to the dead: that they might be judged indeed according to men, in the flesh; but may live according to God, in the Spirit.

60N 4 7 But the end of all is at hand. Be prudent therefore, and watch in prayers.

60N 4 8 But before all things have a constant mutual charity among yourselves: for charity covereth a multitude of sins.

60N 4 9 Using hospitality one towards another, without murmuring,

60N 4 10 As every man hath received grace, ministering the same one to another: as good stewards of the manifold grace of God.

60N 4 11 If any man speak, let him speak, as the words of God. If any man minister, let him do it, as of the power, which God administereth: that in all things God may be honoured through Jesus Christ: to whom is glory and empire for ever and ever. Amen.

60N 4 12 Dearly beloved, think not strange the burning heat which is to try you, as if some new thing happened to you;

60N 4 13 But if you partake of the sufferings of Christ, rejoice that when his glory shall be revealed, you may also be glad with exceeding joy.

60N 4 14 If you be reproached for the name of Christ, you shall be blessed: for that which is of the honour, glory, and power of God, and that which is his Spirit, resteth upon you.

60N 4 15 But let none of you suffer as a murderer, or a thief, or a railer, or a coveter of other men's things.

60N 4 16 But if as a Christian, let him not be ashamed, but let him glorify God in that name.

60N 4 17 For the time is, that judgment should begin at the house of God. And if first at us, what shall be the end of them that believe not the gospel of God?

60N 4 18 And if the just man shall scarcely be saved, where shall the ungodly and the sinner appear?

60N 4 19 Wherefore let them also that suffer according to the will of God, commend their souls in good deeds to the faithful Creator.

60N 5 1 The ancients therefore that are among you, I beseech, who am myself also an ancient, and a witness of the sufferings of Christ: as also a partaker of that glory which is to be revealed in time to come:

60N 5 2 Feed the flock of God which is among you, taking care of it, not by constraint, but willingly, according to God: not for filthy lucre's sake, but voluntarily:

60N 5 3 Neither as lording it over the clergy, but being made a pattern of the flock from the heart.

60N 5 4 And when the prince of pastors shall appear, you shall receive a never fading crown of glory.

60N 5 5 In like manner, ye young men, be subject to the ancients. And do you all insinuate humility one to another, for God resisteth the proud, but to the humble he giveth grace.

60N 5 6 Be you humbled therefore under the mighty hand of God, that he may exalt you in the time of visitation:

60N 5 7 Casting all your care upon him, for he hath care of you.

60N 5 8 Be sober and watch: because your adversary the devil, as a roaring lion, goeth about seeking whom he may devour.

60N 5 9 Whom resist ye, strong in faith: knowing that the same affliction befalls your brethren who are in the world.

60N 5 10 But the God of all grace, who hath called us into his eternal glory in Christ Jesus, after you have suffered a little, will himself perfect you, and confirm you, and establish you.

60N 5 11 To him be glory and empire for ever and ever. Amen.

60N 5 12 By Sylvanus, a faithful brother unto you, as I think, I have written briefly: beseeching and testifying that this is the true grace of God, wherein you stand.

60N 5 13 The church that is in Babylon, elected together with you, saluteth you: and so doth my son Mark.

60N 5 14 Salute one another with a holy kiss. Grace be to all you, who are in Christ Jesus. Amen.

61N 1 1 Simon Peter, servant and apostle of Jesus Christ, to them that have obtained equal faith with us in the justice of our God and Saviour Jesus Christ.

61N 1 2 Grace to you and peace be accomplished in the knowledge of God and of Christ Jesus our Lord:

61N 1 3 As all things of his divine power which appertain to life and godliness, are given us, through the knowledge of him who hath called us by his own proper glory and virtue.

61N 1 4 By whom he hath given us most great and precious promises: that by these you may be made partakers of the divine nature: flying the corruption of that concupiscence which is in the world.

61N 1 5 And you, employing all care, minister in your faith, virtue; and in virtue, knowledge;

61N 1 6 And in knowledge, abstinence; and in abstinence, patience; and in patience, godliness;

61N 1 7 And in godliness, love of brotherhood; and in love of brotherhood, charity.

61N 1 8 For if these things be with you and abound, they will make you to be neither empty nor unfruitful in the knowledge of our Lord Jesus Christ.

61N 1 9 For he that hath not these things with him, is blind, and groping, having forgotten that he was purged from his old sins.

61N 1 10 Wherefore, brethren, labour the more, that by good works you may make sure your calling and election. For doing these things, you shall not sin at any time.

61N 1 11 For so an entrance shall be ministered to you abundantly into the everlasting kingdom of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ.

61N 1 12 For which cause I will begin to put you always in remembrance of these things: though indeed you know them, and are confirmed in the present truth.

61N 1 13 But I think it meet as long as I am in this tabernacle, to stir you up by putting you in remembrance.

61N 1 14 Being assured that the laying away of this my tabernacle is at hand, according as our Lord Jesus Christ also hath signified to me.

61N 1 15 And I will endeavour, that you frequently have after my decease, whereby you may keep a memory of these things.

61N 1 16 For we have not by following artificial fables, made known to you the power, and presence of our Lord Jesus Christ; but we were eyewitnesses of his greatness.

61N 1 17 For he received from God the Father, honour and glory: this voice coming down to him from the excellent glory: This is my beloved Son, in whom I am well pleased; hear ye him.

61N 1 18 And this voice we heard brought from heaven, when we were with him in the holy mount.

61N 1 19 And we have the more firm prophetic word: whereunto you do well to attend, as to a light that shineth in a dark place, until the day dawn, and the day star arise in your hearts:

61N 1 20 Understanding this first, that no prophecy of scripture is made by private interpretation.

61N 1 21 For prophecy came not by the will of man at any time: but the holy men of God spoke, inspired by the Holy Ghost.

61N 2 1 But there were also false prophets among the people, even as there shall be among you lying teachers, who shall bring in sects of perdition, and deny the Lord who bought them: bringing upon themselves swift destruction.

61N 2 2 And many shall follow their riotousnesses, through whom the way of truth shall be evil spoken of.

61N 2 3 And through covetousness shall they with feigned words make merchandise of you. Whose judgment now of a long time lingereth not, and their perdition slumbereth not.

61N 2 4 For if God spared not the angels that sinned, but delivered them, drawn down by infernal ropes to the lower hell, unto torments, to be reserved unto judgment:

61N 2 5 And spared not the original world, but preserved Noe, the eighth person, the preacher of justice, bringing in the flood upon the world of the ungodly.

61N 2 6 And reducing the cities of the Sodomites, and of the Gomorrhites, into ashes, condemned them to be overthrown, making them an example to those that should after act wickedly.

61N 2 7 And delivered just Lot, oppressed by the injustice and lewd conversation of the wicked.

61N 2 8 For in sight and hearing he was just: dwelling among them, who from day to day vexed the just soul with unjust works.

61N 2 9 The Lord knoweth how to deliver the godly from temptation, but to reserve the unjust unto the day of judgment to be tormented.

61N 2 10 And especially them who walk after the flesh in the lust of uncleanness, and despise government, audacious, self willed, they fear not to bring in sects, blaspheming.

61N 2 11 Whereas angels who are greater in strength and power, bring not against themselves a railing judgment.

61N 2 12 But these men, as irrational beasts, naturally tending to the snare and to destruction, blaspheming those things which they know not, shall perish in their corruption,

61N 2 13 Receiving the reward of their injustice, counting for a pleasure the delights of a day: stains and spots, sporting themselves to excess, rioting in their feasts with you:

61N 2 14 Having eyes full of adultery and of sin that ceaseth not: alluring unstable souls, having their heart exercised with covetousness, children of malediction:

61N 2 15 Leaving the right way they have gone astray, having followed the way of Balaam of Bosor, who loved the wages of iniquity, 61N 2 16 But had a check of his madness, the dumb beast used to the yoke, which speaking with man's voice, forbade the folly of the prophet.

61N 2 17 These are fountains without water, and clouds tossed with whirlwinds, to whom the mist of darkness is reserved.

61N 2 18 For, speaking proud words of vanity, they allure by the desires of fleshly riotousness, those who for a little while escape, such as converse in error:

61N 2 19 Promising them liberty, whereas they themselves are the slaves of corruption.

For by whom a man is overcome, of the same also he is the slave.

61N 2 20 For if, flying from the pollutions of the world, through the knowledge of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ, they be again entangled in them and overcome: their latter state is become unto them worse than the former.

61N 2 21 For it had been better for them not to have known the way of justice, than after they have known it, to turn back from that holy commandment which was delivered to them.

61N 2 22 For, that of the true proverb has happened to them: The dog is returned to his vomit: and, The sow that was washed, to her wallowing in the mire.

61N 3 1 Behold this second epistle I write to you, my dearly beloved, in which I stir up by way of admonition your sincere mind:

61N 3 2 That you may be mindful of those words which I told you before from the holy prophets, and of your apostles, of the precepts of the Lord and Saviour.

61N 3 3 Knowing this first, that in the last days there shall come deceitful scoffers, walking after their own lusts, 61N 3 4 Saying: Where is his promise or his coming? for since the time that the fathers slept, all things continue as they were from the beginning of the creation.

61N 3 5 For this they are wilfully ignorant of, that the heavens were before, and the earth out of water, and through water, consisting by the word of God.

61N 3 6 Whereby the world that then was, being overflowed with water, perished.

61N 3 7 But the heavens and the earth which are now, by the same word are kept in store, reserved unto fire against the day of judgment and perdition of the ungodly men.

61N 3 8 But of this one thing be not ignorant, my beloved, that one day with the Lord is as a thousand years, and a thousand years as one day.

61N 3 9 The Lord delayeth not his promise, as some imagine, but dealeth patiently for your sake, not willing that any should perish, but that all should return to penance.

61N 3 10 But the day of the Lord shall come as a thief, in which the heavens shall pass away with great violence, and the elements shall be melted with heat, and the earth and the works which are in it, shall be burnt up.

61N 3 11 Seeing then that all these things are to be dissolved, what manner of people ought you to be in holy conversation and godliness?

61N 3 12 Looking for and hasting unto the coming of the day of the Lord, by which the heavens being on fire shall be dissolved, and the elements shall melt with the burning heat?

61N 3 13 But we look for new heavens and a new earth according to his promises, in which justice dwelleth.

61N 3 14 Wherefore, dearly beloved, waiting for these things, be diligent that you may be found before him unspotted and blameless in peace.

61N 3 15 And account the longsuffering of our Lord, salvation; as also our most dear brother Paul, according to the wisdom given him, hath written to you:

61N 3 16 As also in all his epistles, speaking in them of these things; in which are certain things hard to be understood, which the unlearned and unstable wrest, as they do also the other scriptures, to their own destruction.

61N 3 17 You therefore, brethren, knowing these things before, take heed, lest being led aside by the error of the unwise, you fall from your own steadfastness.

61N 3 18 But grow in grace, and in the knowledge of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ. To him be glory both now and unto the day of eternity. Amen.

62N 1 1 That which was from the beginning, which we have heard, which we have seen with our eyes, which we have looked upon, and our hands have handled, of the word of life:

62N 1 2 For the life was manifested; and we have seen and do bear witness, and declare unto you the life eternal, which was with the Father, and hath appeared to us:

62N 1 3 That which we have seen and have heard, we declare unto you, that you also may have fellowship with us, and our fellowship may be with the Father, and with his Son Jesus Christ.

62N 1 4 And these things we write to you, that you may rejoice, and your joy may be full.

62N 1 5 And this is the declaration which we have heard from him, and declare unto you: That God is light, and in him there is no darkness.

62N 1 6 If we say that we have fellowship with him, and walk in darkness, we lie, and do not the truth.

62N 1 7 But if we walk in the light, as he also is in the light, we have fellowship one with another, and the blood of Jesus Christ his Son cleanseth us from all sin.

62N 1 8 If we say that we have no sin, we deceive ourselves, and the truth is not in us.

62N 1 9 If we confess our sins, he is faithful and just, to forgive us our sins, and to cleanse us from all iniquity.

62N 1 10 If we say that we have not sinned, we make him a liar, and his word is not in us.

62N 2 1 My little children, these things I write to you, that you may not sin. But if any man sin, we have an advocate with the Father, Jesus Christ the just:

62N 2 2 And he is the propitiation for our sins: and not for ours only, but also for those of the whole world.

62N 2 3 And by this we know that we have known him, if we keep his commandments.

62N 2 4 He who saith that he knoweth him, and keepeth not his commandments, is a liar, and the truth is not in him.

62N 2 5 But he that keepeth his word, in him in very deed the charity of God is perfected; and by this we know that we are in him.

62N 2 6 He that saith he abideth in him, ought himself also to walk, even as he walked.

62N 2 7 Dearly beloved, I write not a new commandment to you, but an old commandment which you had from the beginning. The old commandment is the word which you have heard.

62N 2 8 Again a new commandment I write unto you, which thing is true both in him and in you; because the darkness is passed, and the true light now shineth.

62N 2 9 He that saith he is in the light, and hateth his brother, is in darkness even until now.

62N 2 10 He that loveth his brother, abideth in the light, and there is no scandal in him.

62N 2 11 But he that hateth his brother, is in darkness, and walketh in darkness, and knoweth not whither he goeth; because the darkness hath blinded his eyes.

62N 2 12 I write unto you, little children, because your sins are forgiven you for his name's sake.

62N 2 13 I write unto you, fathers, because you have known him, who is from the beginning. I write unto you, young men, because you have overcome the wicked one.

62N 2 14 I write unto you, babes, because you have known the Father. I write unto you, young men, because you are strong, and the word of God abideth in you, and you have overcome the wicked one.

62N 2 15 Love not the world, nor the things which are in the world. If any man love the world, the charity of the Father is not in him.

62N 2 16 For all that is in the world, is the concupiscence of the flesh, and the concupiscence of the eyes, and the pride of life, which is not of the Father, but is of the world.

62N 2 17 And the world passeth away, and the concupiscence thereof: but he that doth the will of God, abideth for ever.

62N 2 18 Little children, it is the last hour; and as you have heard that Antichrist cometh, even now there are become many Antichrists: whereby we know that it is the last hour.

62N 2 19 They went out from us, but they were not of us. For if they had been of us, they would no doubt have remained with us; but that they may be manifest, that they are not all of us.

62N 2 20 But you have the unction from the Holy One, and know all things.

62N 2 21 I have not written to you as to them that know not the truth, but as to them that know it: and that no lie is of the truth.

62N 2 22 Who is a liar, but he who denieth that Jesus is the Christ? This is Antichrist, who denieth the Father, and the Son.

62N 2 23 Whosoever denieth the Son, the same hath not the Father. He that confesseth the Son, hath the Father also.

62N 2 24 As for you, let that which you have heard from the beginning, abide in you. If that abide in you, which you have heard from the beginning, you also shall abide in the Son, and in the Father.

62N 2 25 And this is the promise which he hath promised us, life everlasting.

62N 2 26 These things have I written to you, concerning them that seduce you.

62N 2 27 And as for you, let the unction, which you have received from him, abide in you. And you have no need that any man teach you; but as his unction teacheth you of all things, and is truth, and is no lie. And as it hath taught you, abide in him.

62N 2 28 And now, little children, abide in him, that when he shall appear, we may have confidence, and not be confounded by him at his coming.

62N 2 29 If you know, that he is just, know ye, that every one also, who doth justice, is born of him.

62N 3 1 Behold what manner of charity the Father hath bestowed upon us, that we should be called, and should be the sons of God. Therefore the world knoweth not us, because it knew not him.

62N 3 2 Dearly beloved, we are now the sons of God; and it hath not yet appeared what we shall be. We know, that, when he shall appear, we shall be like to him: because we shall see him as he is.

62N 3 3 And every one that hath this hope in him, sanctifieth himself, as he also is holy.

62N 3 4 Whosoever committeth sin committeth also iniquity; and sin is iniquity.

62N 3 5 And you know that he appeared to take away our sins, and in him there is no sin.

62N 3 6 Whosoever abideth in him, sinneth not; and whosoever sinneth, hath not seen him, nor known him.

62N 3 7 Little children, let no man deceive you. He that doth justice is just, even as he is just.

62N 3 8 He that committeth sin is of the devil: for the devil sinneth from the beginning. For this purpose, the Son of God appeared, that he might destroy the works of the devil.

62N 3 9 Whosoever is born of God, committeth not sin: for his seed abideth in him, and he can not sin, because he is born of God.

62N 3 10 In this the children of God are manifest, and the children of the devil. Whosoever is not just, is not of God, nor he that loveth not his brother.

62N 3 11 For this is the declaration, which you have heard from the beginning, that you should love one another.

62N 3 12 Not as Cain, who was of the wicked one, and killed his brother. And wherefore did he kill him? Because his own works were wicked: and his brother's just.

62N 3 13 Wonder not, brethren, if the world hate you.

62N 3 14 We know that we have passed from death to life, because we love the brethren. He that loveth not, abideth in death.

62N 3 15 Whosoever hateth his brother is a murderer. And you know that no murderer hath eternal life abiding in himself.

62N 3 16 In this we have known the charity of God, because he hath laid down his life for us: and we ought to lay down our lives for the brethren.

62N 3 17 He that hath the substance of this world, and shall see his brother in need, and shall shut up his bowels from him: how doth the charity of God abide in him?
 62N 3 18 My little children, let us not love in word, nor in tongue, but in deed, and in truth.
 62N 3 19 In this we know that we are of the truth: and in his sight shall persuade our hearts.
 62N 3 20 For if our heart reprehend us, God is greater than our heart, and knoweth all things.
 62N 3 21 Dearly beloved, if our heart do not reprehend us, we have confidence towards God:
 62N 3 22 And whatsoever we shall ask, we shall receive of him: because we keep his commandments, and do those things which are pleasing in his sight.
 62N 3 23 And this is his commandment, that we should believe in the name of his Son Jesus Christ: and love one another, as he hath given commandment unto us.
 62N 3 24 And he that keepeth his commandments, abideth in him, and he in him. And in this we know that he abideth in us, by the Spirit which he hath given us.
 62N 4 1 Dearly beloved, believe not every spirit, but try the spirits if they be of God: because many false prophets are gone out into the world.
 62N 4 2 By this is the spirit of God known. Every spirit which confesseth that Jesus Christ is come in the flesh, is of God:
 62N 4 3 And every spirit that dissolveth Jesus, is not of God: and this is Antichrist, of whom you have heard that he cometh, and he is now already in the world.
 62N 4 4 You are of God, little children, and have overcome him. Because greater is he that is in you, than he that is in the world.
 62N 4 5 They are of the world: therefore of the world they speak, and the world heareth them.
 62N 4 6 We are of God. He that knoweth God, heareth us. He that is not of God, heareth us not. By this we know the spirit of truth, and the spirit of error.
 62N 4 7 Dearly beloved, let us love one another, for charity is of God. And every one that loveth, is born of God, and knoweth God.
 62N 4 8 He that loveth not, knoweth not God: for God is charity.
 62N 4 9 By this hath the charity of God appeared towards us, because God hath sent his only begotten Son into the world, that we may live by him.
 62N 4 10 In this is charity: not as though we had loved God, but because he hath first loved us, and sent his Son to be a propitiation for our sins.
 62N 4 11 My dearest, if God hath so loved us; we also ought to love one another.
 62N 4 12 No man hath seen God at any time. If we love one another, God abideth in us, and his charity is perfected in us.
 62N 4 13 In this we know that we abide in him, and he in us: because he hath given us of his spirit.
 62N 4 14 And we have seen, and do testify, that the Father hath sent his Son to be the Saviour of the world.
 62N 4 15 Whosoever shall confess that Jesus is the Son of God, God abideth in him, and he in God.
 62N 4 16 And we have known, and have believed the charity, which God hath to us. God is charity: and he that abideth in charity, abideth in God, and God in him.
 62N 4 17 In this is the charity of God perfected with us, that we may have confidence in the day of judgment: because as he is, we also are in this world.
 62N 4 18 Fear is not in charity: but perfect charity casteth out fear, because fear hath pain. And he that feareth, is not perfected in charity.
 62N 4 19 Let us therefore love God, because God first hath loved us.
 62N 4 20 If any man say, I love God, and hateth his brother; he is a liar. For he that loveth not his brother, whom he seeth, how can he love God, whom he seeth not?

62N 4 21 And this commandment we have from God, that he, who loveth God, love also his brother.

62N 5 1 Whosoever believeth that Jesus is the Christ, is born of God. And every one that loveth him who begot, loveth him also who is born of him.

62N 5 2 In this we know that we love the children of God: when we love God, and keep his commandments.

62N 5 3 For this is the charity of God, that we keep his commandments: and his commandments are not heavy.

62N 5 4 For whatsoever is born of God, overcometh the world: and this is the victory which overcometh the world, our faith.

62N 5 5 Who is he that overcometh the world, but he that believeth that Jesus is the Son of God?

62N 5 6 This is he that came by water and blood, Jesus Christ: not by water only, but by water and blood. And it is the Spirit which testifieth, that Christ is the truth.

62N 5 7 And there are three who give testimony in heaven, the Father, the Word, and the Holy Ghost. And these three are one.

62N 5 8 And there are three that give testimony on earth: the spirit, and the water, and the blood: and these three are one.

62N 5 9 If we receive the testimony of men, the testimony of God is greater. For this is the testimony of God, which is greater, because he hath testified of his Son.

62N 5 10 He that believeth in the Son of God, hath the testimony of God in himself. He that believeth not the Son, maketh him a liar: because he believeth not in the testimony which God hath testified of his Son.

62N 5 11 And this is the testimony, that God hath given to us eternal life. And this life is in his Son.

62N 5 12 He that hath the Son, hath life. He that hath not the Son, hath not life.

62N 5 13 These things I write to you, that you may know that you have eternal life, you who believe in the name of the Son of God.

62N 5 14 And this is the confidence which we have towards him: That, whatsoever we shall ask according to his will, he heareth us.

62N 5 15 And we know that he heareth us whatsoever we ask: we know that we have the petitions which we request of him.

62N 5 16 He that knoweth his brother to sin a sin which is not to death, let him ask, and life shall be given to him, who sinneth not to death. There is a sin unto death: for that I say not that any man ask.

62N 5 17 All iniquity is sin. And there is a sin unto death.

62N 5 18 We know that whosoever is born of God, sinneth not: but the generation of God preserveth him, and the wicked one toucheth him not.

62N 5 19 We know that we are of God, and the whole world is seated in wickedness.

62N 5 20 And we know that the Son of God is come: and he hath given us understanding that we may know the true God, and may be in his true Son. This is the true God and life eternal.

62N 5 21 Little children, keep yourselves from idols. Amen.

63N 1 1 The ancient to the lady Elect, and her children, whom I love in the truth, and not I only, but also all they that have known the truth, 63N 1 2 For the sake of the truth which dwelleth in us, and shall be with us for ever.

63N 1 3 Grace be with you, mercy, and peace from God the Father, and from Christ Jesus the Son of the Father; in truth and charity.

63N 1 4 I was exceeding glad, that I found of thy children walking in truth, as we have received a commandment from the Father.

63N 1 5 And now I beseech thee, lady, not as writing a new commandment to thee, but that which we have had from the beginning, that we love one another.

63N 1 6 And this is charity, that we walk according to his commandments. For this is the commandment, that, as you have heard from the beginning, you should walk in the same:

63N 1 7 For many seducers are gone out into the world, who confess not that Jesus Christ is come in the flesh: this is a seducer and an antichrist.

63N 1 8 Look to yourselves, that you lose not the things which you have wrought: but that you may receive a full reward.

63N 1 9 Whosoever revolteth, and continueth not in the doctrine of Christ, hath not God. He that continueth in the doctrine, the same hath both the Father and the Son.

63N 1 10 If any man come to you, and bring not this doctrine, receive him not into the house nor say to him, God speed you.

63N 1 11 For he that saith unto him, God speed you, communicateth with his wicked works.

63N 1 12 Having more things to write unto you, I would not by paper and ink: for I hope that I shall be with you, and speak face to face: that your joy may be full.

63N 1 13 The children of thy sister Elect salute thee.

64N 1 1 The ancient to the dearly beloved Gaius, whom I love in truth.

64N 1 2 Dearly beloved, concerning all things I make it my prayer that thou mayest proceed prosperously, and fare well as thy soul doth prosperously.

64N 1 3 I was exceedingly glad when the brethren came and gave testimony to the truth in thee, even as thou walkest in the truth.

64N 1 4 I have no greater grace than this, to hear that my children walk in truth.

64N 1 5 Dearly beloved, thou dost faithfully whatever thou dost for the brethren, and that for strangers, 64N 1 6 Who have given testimony to thy charity in the sight of the church: whom thou shalt do well to bring forward on their way in a manner worthy of God.

64N 1 7 Because, for his name they went out, taking nothing of the Gentiles.

64N 1 8 We therefore ought to receive such, that we may be fellow helpers of the truth.

64N 1 9 I had written perhaps to the church: but Diotrephes, who loveth to have the pre-eminence among them, doth not receive us.

64N 1 10 For this cause, if I come, I will advertise his works which he doth, with malicious words prating against us. And as if these things were not enough for him, neither doth he himself receive the brethren, and them that do receive them he forbiddeth, and casteth out of the church.

64N 1 11 Dearly beloved, follow not that which is evil, but that which is good. He that doth good, is of God: he that doth evil, hath not seen God.

64N 1 12 To Demetrius testimony is given by all, and by the truth itself, yea and we also give testimony: and thou knowest that our testimony is true.

64N 1 13 I had many things to write unto thee: but I would not by ink and pen write to thee.

64N 1 14 But I hope speedily to see thee, and we will speak mouth to mouth. Peace be to thee. Our friends salute thee. Salute the friends by name.

65N 1 1 Jude, the servant of Jesus Christ, and brother of James: to them that are beloved in God the Father, and preserved in Jesus Christ, and called.

65N 1 2 Mercy unto you, and peace, and charity be fulfilled.

65N 1 3 Dearly beloved, taking all care to write unto you concerning your common salvation, I was under a necessity to write unto you: to beseech you to contend earnestly for the faith once delivered to the saints.

65N 1 4 For certain men are secretly entered in, (who were written of long ago unto this judgment,) ungodly men, turning the grace of our Lord God into riotousness, and denying the only sovereign Ruler, and our Lord Jesus Christ.

65N 1 5 I will therefore admonish you, though ye once knew all things, that Jesus, having saved the people out of the land of Egypt, did afterwards destroy them that believed not:

65N 1 6 And the angels who kept not their principality, but forsook their own habitation, he hath reserved under darkness in everlasting chains, unto the judgment of the great day.

65N 1 7 As Sodom and Gomorrha, and the neighbouring cities, in like manner, having given themselves to fornication, and going after other flesh, were made an example, suffering the punishment of eternal fire.

65N 1 8 In like manner these men also defile the flesh, and despise dominion, and blaspheme majesty.

65N 1 9 When Michael the archangel, disputing with the devil, contended about the body of Moses, he durst not bring against him the judgment of railing speech, but said: The Lord command thee.

65N 1 10 But these men blaspheme whatever things they know not: and what things soever they naturally know, like dumb beasts, in these they are corrupted.

65N 1 11 Woe unto them, for they have gone in the way of Cain: and after the error of Balaam they have for reward poured out themselves, and have perished in the contradiction of Core.

65N 1 12 These are spots in their banquets, feasting together without fear, feeding themselves, clouds without water, which are carried about by winds, trees of the autumn, unfruitful, twice dead, plucked up by the roots,

65N 1 13 Raging waves of the sea, foaming out their own confusion; wandering stars, to whom the storm of darkness is reserved for ever.

65N 1 14 Now of these Enoch also, the seventh from Adam, prophesied, saying: Behold, the Lord cometh with thousands of his saints, 65N 1 15 To execute judgment upon all, and to reprove all the ungodly for all the works of their ungodliness, whereby they have done ungodly, and of all the hard things which ungodly sinners have spoken against God.

65N 1 16 These are murmurers, full of complaints, walking according to their own desires, and their mouth speaketh proud things, admiring persons for gain's sake.

65N 1 17 But you, my dearly beloved, be mindful of the words which have been spoken before by the apostles of our Lord Jesus Christ, 65N 1 18 Who told you, that in the last time there should come mockers, walking according to their own desires in ungodlinesses.

65N 1 19 These are they, who separate themselves, sensual men, having not the Spirit.

65N 1 20 But you, my beloved, building yourselves upon you most holy faith, praying in the Holy Ghost, 65N 1 21 Keep yourselves in the love of God, waiting for the mercy of our Lord Jesus Christ, unto life everlasting.

65N 1 22 And some indeed reprove, being judged:

65N 1 23 But others save, pulling them out of the fire. And on others have mercy, in fear, hating also the spotted garment which is carnal.

65N 1 24 Now to him who is able to preserve you without sin, and to present you spotless before the presence of his glory with exceeding joy, in the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ,

65N 1 25 To the only God our Saviour through Jesus Christ our Lord, be glory and magnificence, empire and power, before all ages, and now, and for all ages of ages. Amen.

66N 1 1 The Revelation of Jesus Christ, which God gave unto him, to make known to his servants the things which must shortly come to pass: and signified, sending by his angel to his servant John,

66N 1 2 Who hath given testimony to the word of God, and the testimony of Jesus Christ, what things soever he hath seen.

66N 1 3 Blessed is he, that readeth and heareth the words of this prophecy; and keepeth those things which are written in it; for the time is at hand.

66N 1 4 John to the seven churches which are in Asia. Grace be unto you and peace from him that is, and that was, and that is to come, and from the seven spirits which are before his throne,

66N 1 5 And from Jesus Christ, who is the faithful witness, the first begotten of the dead, and the prince of the kings of the earth, who hath loved us, and washed us from our sins in his own blood, 66N 1 6 And hath made us a kingdom, and priests to God and his Father, to him be glory and empire for ever and ever. Amen.

66N 1 7 Behold, he cometh with the clouds, and every eye shall see him, and they also that pierced him. And all the tribes of the earth shall bewail themselves because of him. Even so. Amen.

66N 1 8 I am Alpha and Omega, the beginning and the end, saith the Lord God, who is, and who was, and who is to come, the Almighty.

66N 1 9 I John, your brother and your partner in tribulation, and in the kingdom, and patience in Christ Jesus, was in the island, which is called Patmos, for the word of God, and for the testimony of Jesus.

66N 1 10 I was in the spirit on the Lord's day, and heard behind me a great voice, as of a trumpet, 66N 1 11 Saying: What thou seest, write in a book, and send to the seven churches which are in Asia, to Ephesus, and to Smyrna, and to Pergamus, and to Thyatira, and to Sardis, and to Philadelphia, and to Laodicea.

66N 1 12 And I turned to see the voice that spoke with me. And being turned, I saw seven golden candlesticks:

66N 1 13 And in the midst of the seven golden candlesticks, one like to the Son of man, clothed with a garment down to the feet, and girt about the paps with a golden girdle.

66N 1 14 And his head and his hairs were white, as white wool, and as snow, and his eyes were as a flame of fire, 66N 1 15 And his feet like unto fine brass, as in a burning furnace. And his voice as the sound of many waters.

66N 1 16 And he had in his right hand seven stars. And from his mouth came out a sharp two edged sword: and his face was as the sun shineth in his power.

66N 1 17 And when I had seen him, I fell at his feet as dead. And he laid his right hand upon me, saying: Fear not. I am the First and the Last, 66N 1 18 And alive, and was dead, and behold I am living for ever and ever, and have the keys of death and of hell.

66N 1 19 Write therefore the things which thou hast seen, and which are, and which must be done hereafter.

66N 1 20 The mystery of the seven stars, which thou sawest in my right hand, and the seven golden candlesticks. The seven stars are the angels of the seven churches. And the seven candlesticks are the seven churches.

66N 2 1 Unto the angel of the church of Ephesus write: These things saith he, who holdeth the seven stars in his right hand, who walketh in the midst of the seven golden candlesticks:

66N 2 2 I know thy works, and thy labour, and thy patience, and how thou canst not bear them that are evil, and thou hast tried them, who say they are apostles, and are not, and hast found them liars:

66N 2 3 And thou hast patience, and hast endured for my name, and hast not fainted.

66N 2 4 But I have somewhat against thee, because thou hast left thy first charity.

66N 2 5 Be mindful therefore from whence thou art fallen: and do penance, and do the first works. Or else I come to thee, and will move thy candlestick out of its place, except thou do penance.

66N 2 6 But this thou hast, that thou hatest the deeds of the Nicolaites, which I also hate.

66N 2 7 He, that hath an ear, let him hear what the Spirit saith to the churches: To him, that overcometh, I will give to eat of the tree of life, which is in the paradise of my God.

66N 2 8 And to the angel of the church of Smyrna write: These things saith the First and the Last, who was dead, and is alive:

66N 2 9 I know thy tribulation and thy poverty, but thou art rich: and thou art blasphemed by them that say they are Jews and are not, but are the synagogue of Satan.

66N 2 10 Fear none of those things which thou shalt suffer. Behold, the devil will cast some of you into prison that you may be tried: and you shall have tribulation ten days. Be thou faithful until death: and I will give thee the crown of life.

66N 2 11 He, that hath an ear, let him hear what the Spirit saith to the churches: He that shall overcome, shall not be hurt by the second death.

66N 2 12 And to the angel of the church of Pergamus write: These things, saith he, that hath the sharp two edged sword:

66N 2 13 I know where thou dwellest, where the seat of Satan is: and thou holdest fast my name, and hast not denied my faith. Even in those days when Antipas was my faithful witness, who was slain among you, where Satan dwelleth.

66N 2 14 But I have against thee a few things: because thou hast there them that hold the doctrine of Balaam, who taught Balac to cast a stumblingblock before the children of Israel, to eat, and to commit fornication:

66N 2 15 So hast thou also them that hold the doctrine of the Nicolaites.

66N 2 16 In like manner do penance: if not, I will come to thee quickly, and will fight against them with the sword of my mouth.

66N 2 17 He, that hath an ear, let him hear what the Spirit saith to the churches: To him that overcometh, I will give the hidden manna, and will give him a white counter, and in the counter, a new name written, which no man knoweth, but he that receiveth it.

66N 2 18 And to the angel of the church of Thyatira write: These things saith the Son of God, who hath his eyes like to a flame of fire, and his feet like to fine brass.

66N 2 19 I know thy works, and thy faith, and thy charity, and thy ministry, and thy patience, and thy last works which are more than the former.

66N 2 20 But I have against thee a few things: because thou sufferest the woman Jezabel, who calleth herself a prophetess, to teach, and to seduce my servants, to commit fornication, and to eat of things sacrificed to idols.

66N 2 21 And I gave her a time that she might do penance, and she will not repent of her fornication.

66N 2 22 Behold, I will cast her into a bed: and they that commit adultery with her shall be in very great tribulation, except they do penance from their deeds.

66N 2 23 And I will kill her children with death, and all the churches shall know that I am he that searcheth the reins and hearts, and I will give to every one of you according to your works. But to you I say, 66N 2 24 And to the rest who are at Thyatira: Whosoever have not this doctrine, and who have not known the depths of Satan, as they say, I will not put upon you any other burthen.

66N 2 25 Yet that, which you have, hold fast till I come.

66N 2 26 And he that shall overcome, and keep my works unto the end, I will give him power over the nations.

66N 2 27 And he shall rule them with a rod of iron, and as the vessel of a potter they shall be broken, 66N 2 28 As I also have received of my Father: and I will give him the morning star.

66N 2 29 He that hath an ear, let him hear what the Spirit saith to the churches.

66N 3 1 And to the angel of the church of Sardis, write: These things saith he, that hath the seven spirits of God, and the seven stars: I know thy works, that thou hast the name of being alive: and thou art dead.

66N 3 2 Be watchful and strengthen the things that remain, which are ready to die. For

I find not thy works full before my God.

66N 3 3 Have in mind therefore in what manner thou hast received and heard: and observe, and do penance. If then thou shalt not watch, I will come to thee as a thief, and thou shalt not know at what hour I will come to thee.

66N 3 4 But thou hast a few names in Sardis, which have not defiled their garments: and they shall walk with me in white, because they are worthy.

66N 3 5 He that shall overcome, shall thus be clothed in white garments, and I will not blot out his name out of the book of life, and I will confess his name before my Father, and before his angels.

66N 3 6 He that hath an ear, let him hear what the Spirit saith to the churches.

66N 3 7 And to the angel of the church of Philadelphia, write: These things saith the Holy One and the true one, he that hath the key of David; he that openeth, and no man shutteth; shutteth, and no man openeth:

66N 3 8 I know thy works. Behold, I have given before thee a door opened, which no man can shut: because thou hast a little strength, and hast kept my word, and hast not denied my name.

66N 3 9 Behold, I will bring of the synagogue of Satan, who say they are Jews, and are not, but do lie. Behold, I will make them to come and adore before thy feet. And they shall know that I have loved thee.

66N 3 10 Because thou hast kept the word of my patience, I will also keep thee from the hour of the temptation, which shall come upon the whole world to try them that dwell upon the earth.

66N 3 11 Behold, I come quickly: hold fast that which thou hast, that no man take thy crown.

66N 3 12 He that shall overcome, I will make him a pillar in the temple of my God; and he shall go out no more; and I will write upon him the name of my God, and the name of the city of my God, the new Jerusalem, which cometh down out of heaven from my God, and my new name.

66N 3 13 He that hath an ear, let him hear what the Spirit saith to the churches.

66N 3 14 And to the angel of the church of Laodicea, write: These things saith the Amen, the faithful and true witness, who is the beginning of the creation of God:

66N 3 15 I know thy works, that thou art neither cold, nor hot. I would thou wert cold, or hot.

66N 3 16 But because thou art lukewarm, and neither cold, nor hot, I will begin to vomit thee out of my mouth.

66N 3 17 Because thou sayest: I am rich, and made wealthy, and have need of nothing: and knowest not, that thou art wretched, and miserable, and poor, and blind, and naked.

66N 3 18 I counsel thee to buy of me gold fire tried, that thou mayest be made rich; and mayest be clothed in white garments, and that the shame of thy nakedness may not appear; and anoint thy eyes with eyesalve, that thou mayest see.

66N 3 19 Such as I love, I rebuke and chastise. Be zealous therefore, and do penance.

66N 3 20 Behold, I stand at the gate, and knock. If any man shall hear my voice, and open to me the door, I will come in to him, and will sup with him, and he with me.

66N 3 21 To him that shall overcome, I will give to sit with me in my throne: as I also have overcome, and am set down with my Father in his throne.

66N 3 22 He that hath an ear, let him hear what the Spirit saith to the churches.

66N 4 1 After these things I looked, and behold a door was opened in heaven, and the first voice which I heard, as it were, of a trumpet speaking with me, said: Come up hither, and I will shew thee the things which must be done hereafter.

66N 4 2 And immediately I was in the spirit: and behold there was a throne set in heaven, and upon the throne one sitting.

66N 4 3 And he that sat, was to the sight like the jasper and the sardine stone; and there was a rainbow round about the throne, in sight like unto an emerald.

66N 4 4 And round about the throne were four and twenty seats; and upon the seats, four and twenty ancients sitting, clothed in white garments, and on their heads were crowns of gold.

66N 4 5 And from the throne proceeded lightnings, and voices, and thunders; and there were seven lamps burning before the throne, which are the seven spirits of God.

66N 4 6 And in the sight of the throne was, as it were, a sea of glass like to crystal; and in the midst of the throne, and round about the throne, were four living creatures, full of eyes before and behind.

66N 4 7 And the first living creature was like a lion: and the second living creature like a calf: and the third living creature, having the face, as it were, of a man: and the fourth living creature was like an eagle flying.

66N 4 8 And the four living creatures had each of them six wings; and round about and within they are full of eyes. And they rested not day and night, saying: Holy, holy, holy, Lord God Almighty, who was, and who is, and who is to come.

66N 4 9 And when those living creatures gave glory, and honour, and benediction to him that sitteth on the throne, who liveth for ever and ever;

66N 4 10 The four and twenty ancients fell down before him that sitteth on the throne, and adored him that liveth for ever and ever, and cast their crowns before the throne, saying:

66N 4 11 Thou art worthy, O Lord our God, to receive glory, and honour, and power: because thou hast created all things; and for thy will they were, and have been created.

66N 5 1 And I saw in the right hand of him that sat on the throne, a book written within and without, sealed with seven seals.

66N 5 2 And I saw a strong angel, proclaiming with a loud voice: Who is worthy to open the book, and to loose the seals thereof?

66N 5 3 And no man was able, neither in heaven, nor on earth, nor under the earth, to open the book, nor to look on it.

66N 5 4 And I wept much, because no man was found worthy to open the book, nor to see it.

66N 5 5 And one of the ancients said to me: Weep not; behold the lion of the tribe of Juda, the root of David, hath prevailed to open the book, and to loose the seven seals thereof.

66N 5 6 And I saw: and behold in the midst of the throne and of the four living creatures, and in the midst of the ancients, a Lamb standing as it were slain, having seven horns and seven eyes: which are the seven Spirits of God, sent forth into all the earth.

66N 5 7 And he came and took the book out of the right hand of him that sat on the throne.

66N 5 8 And when he had opened the book, the four living creatures, and the four and twenty ancients fell down before the Lamb, having every one of them harps, and golden vials full of odours, which are the prayers of saints:

66N 5 9 And they sung a new canticle, saying: Thou art worthy, O Lord, to take the book, and to open the seals thereof; because thou wast slain, and hast redeemed us to God, in thy blood, out of every tribe, and tongue, and people, and nation.

66N 5 10 And hast made us to our God a kingdom and priests, and we shall reign on the earth.

66N 5 11 And I beheld, and I heard the voice of many angels round about the throne, and the living creatures, and the ancients; and the number of them was thousands of thousands,

66N 5 12 Saying with a loud voice: The Lamb that was slain is worthy to receive power, and divinity, and wisdom, and strength, and honour, and glory, and benediction.

66N 5 13 And every creature, which is in heaven, and on the earth, and under the earth, and such as are in the sea, and all that are in them: I heard all saying: To him that sitteth on the throne, and to the Lamb, benediction, and honour, and glory, and power, for ever and ever.

66N 5 14 And the four living creatures said: Amen. And the four and twenty ancients fell down on their faces, and adored him that liveth for ever and ever.

66N 6 1 And I saw that the Lamb had opened one of the seven seals, and I heard one of the four living creatures, as it were the voice of thunder, saying: Come, and see.

66N 6 2 And I saw: and behold a white horse, and he that sat on him had a bow, and there was a crown given him, and he went forth conquering that he might conquer.

66N 6 3 And when he had opened the second seal, I heard the second living creature, saying: Come, and see.

66N 6 4 And there went out another horse that was red: and to him that sat thereon, it was given that he should take peace from the earth, and that they should kill one another, and a great sword was given to him.

66N 6 5 And when he had opened the third seal, I heard the third living creature saying: Come, and see. And behold a black horse, and he that sat on him had a pair of scales in his hand.

66N 6 6 And I heard as it were a voice in the midst of the four living creatures, saying: Two pounds of wheat for a penny, and thrice two pounds of barley for a penny, and see thou hurt not the wine and the oil.

66N 6 7 And when he had opened the fourth seal, I heard the voice of the fourth living creature, saying: Come, and see.

66N 6 8 And behold a pale horse, and he that sat upon him, his name was Death, and hell followed him. And power was given to him over the four parts of the earth, to kill with sword, with famine, and with death, and with the beasts of the earth.

66N 6 9 And when he had opened the fifth seal, I saw under the altar the souls of them that were slain for the word of God, and for the testimony which they held.

66N 6 10 And they cried with a loud voice, saying: How long, O Lord (holy and true) dost thou not judge and revenge our blood on them that dwell on the earth?

66N 6 11 And white robes were given to every one of them one; and it was said to them, that they should rest for a little time, till their fellow servants, and their brethren, who are to be slain, even as they, should be filled up.

66N 6 12 And I saw, when he had opened the sixth seal, and behold there was a great earthquake, and the sun became black as sackcloth of hair: and the whole moon became as blood:

66N 6 13 And the stars from heaven fell upon the earth, as the fig tree casteth its green figs when it is shaken by a great wind:

66N 6 14 And the heaven departed as a book folded up: and every mountain, and the islands were moved out of their places.

66N 6 15 And the kings of the earth, and the princes, and tribunes, and the rich, and the strong, and every bondman, and every freeman, hid themselves in the dens and in the rocks of mountains:

66N 6 16 And they say to the mountains and the rocks: Fall upon us, and hide us from the face of him that sitteth upon the throne and from the wrath of the Lamb:

66N 6 17 For the great day of their wrath is come, and who shall be able to stand?

66N 7 1 After these things, I saw four angels standing on the four corners of the earth, holding the four winds of the earth, that they should not blow upon the earth, nor upon the sea, nor on any tree.

66N 7 2 And I saw another angel ascending from the rising of the sun, having the sign of the living God; and he cried with a loud voice to the four angels, to whom it was given to hurt the earth and the sea, 66N 7 3 Saying: Hurt not the earth, nor the sea, nor the trees, till we sign the servants of our God in their foreheads.

66N 7 4 And I heard the number of them that were signed, an hundred forty-four thousand were signed, of every tribe of the children of Israel.

66N 7 5 Of the tribe of Juda, were twelve thousand signed: Of the tribe of Ruben, twelve thousand signed: Of the tribe of Gad, twelve thousand signed:

66N 7 6 Of the tribe of Aser, twelve thousand signed: Of the tribe of Nephthali, twelve thousand signed: Of the tribe of Manasses, twelve thousand signed:

66N 7 7 Of the tribe of Simeon, twelve thousand signed: Of the tribe of Levi, twelve thousand signed: Of the tribe of Issachar, twelve thousand signed:

66N 7 8 Of the tribe of Zabulon, twelve thousand signed: Of the tribe of Joseph, twelve thousand signed: Of the tribe of Benjamin, twelve thousand signed.

66N 7 9 After this I saw a great multitude, which no man could number, of all nations, and tribes, and peoples, and tongues, standing before the throne, and in sight of the Lamb, clothed with white robes, and palms in their hands:

66N 7 10 And they cried with a loud voice, saying: Salvation to our God, who sitteth upon the throne, and to the Lamb.

66N 7 11 And all the angels stood round about the throne, and the ancients, and the four living creatures; and they fell down before the throne upon their faces, and adored God,

66N 7 12 Saying: Amen. Benediction, and glory, and wisdom, and thanksgiving, honour, and power, and strength to our God for ever and ever. Amen.

66N 7 13 And one of the ancients answered, and said to me: These that are clothed in white robes, who are they? and whence came they?

66N 7 14 And I said to him: My Lord, thou knowest. And he said to me: These are they who are come out of great tribulation, and have washed their robes, and have made them white in the blood of the Lamb.

66N 7 15 Therefore they are before the throne of God, and they serve him day and night in his temple: and he, that sitteth on the throne, shall dwell over them.

66N 7 16 They shall no more hunger nor thirst, neither shall the sun fall on them, nor any heat.

66N 7 17 For the Lamb, which is in the midst of the throne, shall rule them, and shall lead them to the fountains of the waters of life, and God shall wipe away all tears from their eyes.

66N 8 1 And when he had opened the seventh seal, there was silence in heaven, as it were for half an hour.

66N 8 2 And I saw seven angels standing in the presence of God; and there were given to them seven trumpets.

66N 8 3 And another angel came, and stood before the altar, having a golden censer; and there was given to him much incense, that he should offer of the prayers of all saints upon the golden altar, which is before the throne of God.

66N 8 4 And the smoke of the incense of the prayers of the saints ascended up before God from the hand of the angel.

66N 8 5 And the angel took the censer, and filled it with the fire of the altar, and cast it on the earth, and there were thunders and voices and lightnings, and a great earthquake.

66N 8 6 And the seven angels, who had the seven trumpets, prepared themselves to sound the trumpet.

66N 8 7 And the first angel sounded the trumpet, and there followed hail and fire, mingled with blood, and it was cast on the earth, and the third part of the earth was burnt up, and the third part of the trees was burnt up, and all green grass was burnt up.

66N 8 8 And the second angel sounded the trumpet: and as it were a great mountain, burning with fire, was cast into the sea, and the third part of the sea became blood:

66N 8 9 And the third part of those creatures died, which had life in the sea, and the third part of the ships was destroyed.

66N 8 10 And the third angel sounded the trumpet, and a great star fell from heaven, burning as it were a torch, and it fell on the third part of the rivers, and upon the fountains of waters:

66N 8 11 And the name of the star is called Wormwood. And the third part of the waters became wormwood; and many men died of the waters, because they were made bitter.

66N 8 12 And the fourth angel sounded the trumpet, and the third part of the sun was smitten, and the third part of the moon, and the third part of the stars, so that the third part of them was darkened, and the day did not shine for a third part of it, and the night in like manner.

66N 8 13 And I beheld, and heard the voice of one eagle flying through the midst of heaven, saying with a loud voice: Woe, woe, woe to the inhabitants of the earth: by reason of the rest of the voices of the three angels, who are yet to sound the trumpet.

66N 9 1 And the fifth angel sounded the trumpet, and I saw a star fall from heaven upon the earth, and there was given to him the key of the bottomless pit.

66N 9 2 And he opened the bottomless pit: and the smoke of the pit arose, as the smoke of a great furnace; and the sun and the air were darkened with the smoke of the pit.

66N 9 3 And from the smoke of the pit there came out locusts upon the earth. And power was given to them, as the scorpions of the earth have power:

66N 9 4 And it was commanded them that they should not hurt the grass of the earth, nor any green thing, nor any tree: but only the men who have not the sign of God on their foreheads.

66N 9 5 And it was given unto them that they should not kill them; but that they should torment them five months: and their torment was as the torment of a scorpion when he striketh a man.

66N 9 6 And in those days men shall seek death, and shall not find it: and they shall desire to die, and death shall fly from them.

66N 9 7 And the shapes of the locusts were like unto horses prepared unto battle: and on their heads were, as it were, crowns like gold: and their faces were as the faces of men.

66N 9 8 And they had hair as the hair of women; and their teeth were as lions:

66N 9 9 And they had breastplates as breastplates of iron, and the noise of their wings was as the noise of chariots and many horses running to battle.

66N 9 10 And they had tails like to scorpions, and there were stings in their tails; and their power was to hurt men five months. And they had over them

66N 9 11 A king, the angel of the bottomless pit; whose name in Hebrew is Abaddon, and in Greek Apollyon; in Latin Exterminans, 66N 9 12 One woe is past, and behold there come yet two woes more hereafter.

66N 9 13 And the sixth angel sounded the trumpet: and I heard a voice from the four horns of the great altar, which is before the eyes of God, 66N 9 14 Saying to the sixth angel, who had the trumpet: Loose the four angels, who are bound in the great river Euphrates.

66N 9 15 And the four angels were loosed, who were prepared for an hour, and a day, and a month, and a year: for to kill the third part of men.

66N 9 16 And the number of the army of horsemen was twenty thousand times ten thousand. And I heard the number of them.

66N 9 17 And thus I saw the horses in the vision: and they that sat on them, had breastplates of fire and of hyacinth and of brimstone, and the heads of the horses were as the heads of lions: and from their mouths proceeded fire, and smoke, and brimstone.

66N 9 18 And by these three plagues was slain the third part of men, by the fire and by the smoke and by the brimstone, which issued out of their mouths.

66N 9 19 For the power of the horses is in their mouths, and in their tails. For, their tails are like to serpents, and have heads: and with them they hurt.

66N 9 20 And the rest of the men, who were not slain by these plagues, did not do penance from the works of their hands, that they should not adore devils, and idols of gold, and silver, and brass, and stone, and wood, which neither can see, nor hear, nor walk:

66N 9 21 Neither did they penance from their murders, nor from their sorceries, nor from their fornication, nor from their thefts.

66N 10 1 And I saw another mighty angel come down from heaven, clothed with a cloud, and a rainbow was on his head, and his face was as the sun, and his feet as pillars of fire.

66N 10 2 And he had in his hand a little book open: and he set his right foot upon the sea, and his left foot upon the earth.

66N 10 3 And he cried with a loud voice as when a lion roareth. And when he had cried, seven thunders uttered their voices.

66N 10 4 And when the seven thunders had uttered their voices, I was about to write: and I heard a voice from heaven saying to me: Seal up the things which the seven thunders have spoken; and write them not.

66N 10 5 And the angel, whom I saw standing upon the sea and upon the earth, lifted up his hand to heaven, 66N 10 6 And he swore by him that liveth for ever and ever, who created heaven, and the things which are therein; and the earth, and the things which are in it; and the sea, and the things which are therein: That time shall be no longer.

66N 10 7 But in the days of the voice of the seventh angel, when he shall begin to sound the trumpet, the mystery of God shall be finished, as he hath declared by his servants the prophets.

66N 10 8 And I heard a voice from heaven again speaking to me, and saying: Go, and take the book that is open, from the hand of the angel who standeth upon the sea, and upon the earth.

66N 10 9 And I went to the angel, saying unto him, that he should give me the book. And he said to me: Take the book, and eat it up: and it shall make thy belly bitter, but in thy mouth it shall be sweet as honey.

66N 10 10 And I took the book from the hand of the angel, and ate it up: and it was in my mouth, sweet as honey: and when I had eaten it, my belly was bitter.

66N 10 11 And he said to me: Thou must prophesy again to many nations, and peoples, and tongues, and kings.

66N 11 1 And there was given me a reed like unto a rod: and it was said to me: Arise, and measure the temple of God, and the altar and them that adore therein.

66N 11 2 But the court, which is without the temple, cast out, and measure it not: because it is given unto the Gentiles, and the holy city they shall tread under foot two and forty months:

66N 11 3 And I will give unto my two witnesses, and they shall prophesy a thousand two hundred sixty days, clothed in sackcloth.

66N 11 4 These are the two olive trees, and the two candlesticks, that stand before the Lord of the earth.

66N 11 5 And if any man will hurt them, fire shall come out of their mouths, and shall devour their enemies. And if any man will hurt them, in this manner must he be slain.

66N 11 6 These have power to shut heaven, that it rain not in the days of their prophecy: and they have power over waters to turn them into blood, and to strike the earth with all plagues as often as they will.

66N 11 7 And when they shall have finished their testimony, the beast, that ascendeth out of the abyss, shall make war against them, and shall overcome them, and kill them.

66N 11 8 And their bodies shall lie in the streets of the great city, which is called spiritually, Sodom and Egypt, where their Lord also was crucified.

66N 11 9 And they of the tribes, and peoples, and tongues, and nations, shall see their bodies for three days and a half: and they shall not suffer their bodies to be laid in sepulchres.

66N 11 10 And they that dwell upon the earth shall rejoice over them, and make merry: and shall send gifts one to another, because these two prophets tormented them that dwelt upon the earth.

66N 11 11 And after three days and a half, the spirit of life from God entered into them. And they stood upon their feet, and great fear fell upon them that saw them.

66N 11 12 And they heard a great voice from heaven, saying to them: Come up hither. And they went up to heaven in a cloud: and their enemies saw them.

66N 11 13 And at that hour there was made a great earthquake, and the tenth part of the city fell: and there were slain in the earthquake names of men seven thousand: and the rest were cast into a fear, and gave glory to the God of heaven.

66N 11 14 The second woe is past: and behold the third woe will come quickly.

66N 11 15 And the seventh angel sounded the trumpet: and there were great voices in heaven, saying: The kingdom of this world is become our Lord's and his Christ's, and he shall reign for ever and ever. Amen.

66N 11 16 And the four and twenty ancients, who sit on their seats in the sight of God, fell on their faces and adored God, saying:

66N 11 17 We give thee thanks, O Lord God Almighty, who art, and who wast, and who art to come: because thou hast taken to thee thy great power, and thou hast reigned.

66N 11 18 And the nations were angry, and thy wrath is come, and the time of the dead, that they should be judged, and that thou shouldest render reward to thy servants the prophets and the saints, and to them that fear thy name, little and great, and shouldest destroy them who have corrupted the earth.

66N 11 19 And the temple of God was opened in heaven: and the ark of his testament was seen in his temple, and there were lightnings, and voices, and an earthquake, and great hail.

66N 12 1 And a great sign appeared in heaven: A woman clothed with the sun, and the moon under her feet, and on her head a crown of twelve stars:

66N 12 2 And being with child, she cried travailing in birth, and was in pain to be delivered.

66N 12 3 And there was seen another sign in heaven: and behold a great red dragon, having seven heads, and ten horns: and on his head seven diadems:

66N 12 4 And his tail drew the third part of the stars of heaven, and cast them to the earth: and the dragon stood before the woman who was ready to be delivered; that, when she should be delivered, he might devour her son.

66N 12 5 And she brought forth a man child, who was to rule all nations with an iron rod: and her son was taken up to God, and to his throne.

66N 12 6 And the woman fled into the wilderness, where she had a place prepared by God, that there they should feed her a thousand two hundred sixty days.

66N 12 7 And there was a great battle in heaven, Michael and his angels fought with the dragon, and the dragon fought and his angels:

66N 12 8 And they prevailed not, neither was their place found any more in heaven.

66N 12 9 And that great dragon was cast out, that old serpent, who is called the devil and Satan, who seduceth the whole world; and he was cast unto the earth, and his angels were thrown down with him.

66N 12 10 And I heard a loud voice in heaven, saying: Now is come salvation, and strength, and the kingdom of our God, and the power of his Christ: because the accuser of our brethren is cast forth, who accused them before our God day and night.

66N 12 11 And they overcame him by the blood of the Lamb, and by the word of the testimony, and they loved not their lives unto death.

66N 12 12 Therefore rejoice, O heavens, and you that dwell therein. Woe to the earth, and to the sea, because the devil is come down unto you, having great wrath, knowing that he hath but a short time.

66N 12 13 And when the dragon saw that he was cast unto the earth, he persecuted the woman, who brought forth the man child:

66N 12 14 And there were given to the woman two wings of a great eagle, that she might fly into the desert unto her place, where she is nourished for a time and times, and half a time, from the face of the serpent.

66N 12 15 And the serpent cast out of his mouth after the woman, water as it were a river; that he might cause her to be carried away by the river.

66N 12 16 And the earth helped the woman, and the earth opened her mouth, and swallowed up the river, which the dragon cast out of his mouth.

66N 12 17 And the dragon was angry against the woman: and went to make war with the rest of her seed, who keep the commandments of God, and have the testimony of Jesus Christ.

66N 12 18 And he stood upon the sand of the sea.

66N 13 1 And I saw a beast coming up out of the sea, having seven heads and ten horns, and upon his horns ten diadems, and upon his heads names of blasphemy.

66N 13 2 And the beast, which I saw, was like to a leopard, and his feet were as the feet of a bear, and his mouth as the mouth of a lion. And the dragon gave him his own strength, and great power.

66N 13 3 And I saw one of his heads as it were slain to death: and his death's wound was healed. And all the earth was in admiration after the beast.

66N 13 4 And they adored the dragon, which gave power to the beast: and they adored the beast, saying: Who is like to the beast? and who shall be able to fight with him?

66N 13 5 And there was given to him a mouth speaking great things, and blasphemies: and power was given to him to do two and forty months.

66N 13 6 And he opened his mouth unto blasphemies against God, to blaspheme his name, and his tabernacle, and them that dwell in heaven.

66N 13 7 And it was given unto him to make war with the saints, and to overcome them. And power was given him over every tribe, and people, and tongue, and nation.

66N 13 8 And all the dwell upon the earth adored him, whose names are not written in the book of life of the Lamb, which was slain from the beginning of the world.

66N 13 9 If any man have an ear, let him hear.

66N 13 10 He that shall lead into captivity, shall go into captivity: he that shall kill by the sword, must be killed by the sword. Here is the patience and the faith of the saints.

66N 13 11 And I saw another beast coming up out of the earth, and he had two horns, like a lamb, and he spoke as a dragon.

66N 13 12 And he executed all the power of the former beast in his sight; and he caused the earth, and them that dwell therein, to adore the first beast, whose wound to death was healed.

66N 13 13 And he did great signs, so that he made also fire to come down from heaven unto the earth in the sight of men.

66N 13 14 And he seduced them that dwell on the earth, for the signs, which were given him to do in the sight of the beast, saying to them that dwell on the earth, that they should make the image of the beast, which had the wound by the sword, and lived.

66N 13 15 And it was given him to give life to the image of the beast, and that the image of the beast should speak; and should cause, that whosoever will not adore the image of the beast, should be slain.

66N 13 16 And he shall make all, both little and great, rich and poor, freemen and bondmen, to have a character in their right hand, or on their foreheads.

66N 13 17 And that no man might buy or sell, but he that hath the character, or the name of the beast, or the number of his name.

66N 13 18 Here is wisdom. He that hath understanding, let him count the number of the beast. For it is the number of a man: and the number of him is six hundred sixty-six.

66N 14 1 And I beheld, and lo a lamb stood upon mount Sion, and with him an hundred forty-four thousand, having his name, and the name of his Father, written on their foreheads.

66N 14 2 And I heard a voice from heaven, as the noise of many waters, and as the voice of great thunder; and the voice which I heard, was as the voice of harpers, harping on their harps.

66N 14 3 And they sung as it were a new canticle, before the throne, and before the four living creatures, and the ancients; and no man could say the canticle, but those hundred forty-four thousand, who were purchased from the earth.

66N 14 4 These are they who were not defiled with women: for they are virgins. These follow the Lamb whithersoever he goeth. These were purchased from among men, the firstfruits to God and to the Lamb:

66N 14 5 And in their mouth there was found no lie; for they are without spot before the throne of God.

66N 14 6 And I saw another angel flying through the midst of heaven, having the eternal gospel, to preach unto them that sit upon the earth, and over every nation, and tribe, and tongue, and people:

66N 14 7 Saying with a loud voice: Fear the Lord, and give him honour, because the hour of his judgment is come; and adore ye him, that made heaven and earth, the sea, and the fountains of waters.

66N 14 8 And another angel followed, saying: That great Babylon is fallen, is fallen; which made all nations to drink of the wine of the wrath of her fornication.

66N 14 9 And the third angel followed them, saying with a loud voice: If any man shall adore the beast and his image, and receive his character in his forehead, or in his hand;

66N 14 10 He also shall drink of the wine of the wrath of God, which is mingled with pure wine in the cup of his wrath, and shall be tormented with fire and brimstone in the sight of the holy angels, and in the sight of the Lamb.

66N 14 11 And the smoke of their torments shall ascend up for ever and ever: neither have they rest day nor night, who have adored the beast, and his image, and whoever receiveth the character of his name.

66N 14 12 Here is the patience of the saints, who keep the commandments of God, and the faith of Jesus.

66N 14 13 And I heard a voice from heaven, saying to me: Write: Blessed are the dead, who die in the Lord. From henceforth now, saith the Spirit, that they may rest from their labours; for their works follow them.

66N 14 14 And I saw, and behold a white cloud; and upon the cloud one sitting like to the Son of man, having on his head a crown of gold, and in his hand a sharp sickle.

66N 14 15 And another angel came out from the temple crying with a loud voice to him that sat upon the cloud: Thrust in thy sickle, and reap, because the hour is come to reap: for the harvest of the earth is ripe.

66N 14 16 And he that sat on the cloud thrust his sickle into the earth, and the earth was reaped.

66N 14 17 And another angel came out of the temple which is in heaven, he also having a sharp sickle.

66N 14 18 And another angel came out from the altar, who had power over fire; and he cried with a loud voice to him that had the sharp sickle, saying: Thrust in thy sharp sickle, and gather the clusters of the vineyard of the earth; because the grapes thereof are ripe.

66N 14 19 And the angel thrust in his sharp sickle into the earth, and gathered the vineyard of the earth, and cast it into the great press of the wrath of God:

66N 14 20 And the press was trodden without the city, and blood came out of the press, up to the horses' bridles, for a thousand and six hundred furlongs.

66N 15 1 And I saw another sign in heaven, great and wonderful: seven angels having the seven last plagues. For in them is filled up the wrath of God.

66N 15 2 And I saw as it were a sea of glass mingled with fire, and them that had overcome the beast, and his image, and the number of his name, standing on the sea of glass, having the harps of God:

66N 15 3 And singing the canticle of Moses, the servant of God, and the canticle of the Lamb, saying: Great and wonderful are thy works, O Lord God Almighty; just and true are thy ways, O King of ages.

66N 15 4 Who shall not fear thee, O Lord, and magnify thy name? For thou only art holy: for all nations shall come, and shall adore in thy sight, because thy judgments are manifest.

66N 15 5 And after these things I looked; and behold, the temple of the tabernacle of the testimony in heaven was opened:

66N 15 6 And the seven angels came out of the temple, having the seven plagues, clothed with clean and white linen, and girt about the breasts with golden girdles.

66N 15 7 And one of the four living creatures gave to the seven angels seven golden vials, full of the wrath of God, who liveth for ever and ever.

66N 15 8 And the temple was filled with smoke from the majesty of God, and from his power; and no man was able to enter into the temple, till the seven plagues of the seven angels were fulfilled.

66N 16 1 And I heard a great voice out of the temple, saying to the seven angels: Go, and pour out the seven vials of the wrath of God upon the earth.

66N 16 2 And the first went, and poured out his vial upon the earth, and there fell a sore and grievous wound upon men, who had the character of the beast; and upon them that adored the image thereof.

66N 16 3 And the second angel poured out his vial upon the sea, and there came blood as it were of a dead man; and every living soul died in the sea.

66N 16 4 And the third poured out his vial upon the rivers and the fountains of waters; and there was made blood.

66N 16 5 And I heard the angel of the waters saying: Thou art just, O Lord, who art, and who wast, the Holy One, because thou hast judged these things:

66N 16 6 For they have shed the blood of saints and prophets, and thou hast given them blood to drink; for they are worthy.

66N 16 7 And I heard another, from the altar, saying: Yea, O Lord God Almighty, true and just are thy judgments.

66N 16 8 And the fourth angel poured out his vial upon the sun, and it was given unto him to afflict men with heat and fire:

66N 16 9 And men were scorched with great heat, and they blasphemed the name of God, who hath power over these plagues, neither did they penance to give him glory.

66N 16 10 And the fifth angel poured out his vial upon the seat of the beast; and his kingdom became dark, and they gnawed their tongues for pain:

66N 16 11 And they blasphemed the God of heaven, because of their pains and wounds, and did not penance for their works.

66N 16 12 And the sixth angel poured out his vial upon that great river Euphrates; and dried up the water thereof, that a way might be prepared for the kings from the rising of the sun.

66N 16 13 And I saw from the mouth of the dragon, and from the mouth of the beast, and from the mouth of the false prophet, three unclean spirits like frogs.

66N 16 14 For they are the spirits of devils working signs, and they go forth unto the kings of the whole earth, to gather them to battle against the great day of the Almighty God.

66N 16 15 Behold, I come as a thief. Blessed is he that watcheth, and keepeth his garments, lest he walk naked, and they see his shame.

66N 16 16 And he shall gather them together into a place, which in Hebrew is called Armagedon.

66N 16 17 And the seventh angel poured out his vial upon the air, and there came a great voice out of the temple from the throne, saying: It is done.

66N 16 18 And there were lightnings, and voices, and thunders, and there was a great earthquake, such an one as never had been since men were upon the earth, such an earthquake, so great.

66N 16 19 And the great city was divided into three parts; and the cities of the Gentiles fell. And great Babylon came in remembrance before God, to give her the cup of the wine of the indignation of his wrath.

66N 16 20 And every island fled away, and the mountains were not found.

66N 16 21 And great hail, like a talent, came down from heaven upon men: and men blasphemed God for the plague of the hail: because it was exceeding great.

66N 17 1 And there came one of the seven angels, who had the seven vials, and spoke with me, saying: Come, I will shew thee the condemnation of the great harlot, who sitteth upon many waters, 66N 17 2 With whom the kings of the earth have committed fornication; and they who inhabit the earth, have been made drunk with the whine of her whoredom.

66N 17 3 And he took me away in spirit into the desert. And I saw a woman sitting upon a scarlet coloured beast, full of names of blasphemy, having seven heads and ten horns.

66N 17 4 And the woman was clothed round about with purple and scarlet, and gilt with gold, and precious stones and pearls, having a golden cup in her hand, full of the abomination and filthiness of her fornication.

66N 17 5 And on her forehead a name was written: A mystery; Babylon the great, the mother of the fornications, and the abominations of the earth.

66N 17 6 And I saw the woman drunk with the blood of the saints, and with the blood of the martyrs of Jesus. And I wondered, when I had seen her, with great admiration.

66N 17 7 And the angel said to me: Why dost thou wonder? I will tell thee the mystery of the woman, and of the beast which carrieth her, which hath the seven heads and ten horns.

66N 17 8 The beast, which thou sawest, was, and is not, and shall come up out of the bottomless pit, and go into destruction: and the inhabitants on the earth (whose names are not written in the book of life from the foundation of the world) shall wonder, seeing the beast that was, and is not.

66N 17 9 And here is the understanding that hath wisdom. The seven heads are seven mountains, upon which the woman sitteth, and they are seven kings:

66N 17 10 Five are fallen, one is, and the other is not yet come: and when he is come, he must remain a short time.

66N 17 11 And the beast which was, and is not: the same also is the eighth, and is of the seven, and goeth into destruction.

66N 17 12 And the ten horns which thou sawest, are ten kings, who have not yet received a kingdom, but shall receive power as kings one hour after the beast.

66N 17 13 These have one design: and their strength and power they shall deliver to the beast.

66N 17 14 These shall fight with the Lamb, and the Lamb shall overcome them, because he is Lord of lords, and King of kings, and they that are with him are called, and elect, and faithful.

66N 17 15 And he said to me: The waters which thou sawest, where the harlot sitteth, are peoples, and nations, and tongues.

66N 17 16 And the ten horns which thou sawest in the beast: these shall hate the harlot, and shall make her desolate and naked, and shall eat her flesh, and shall burn her with fire.

66N 17 17 For God hath given into their hearts to do that which pleaseth him: that they give their kingdom to the beast, till the words of God be fulfilled.

66N 17 18 And the woman which thou sawest, is the great city, which hath kingdom over the kings of the earth.

66N 18 1 And after these things, I saw another angel come down from heaven, having great power: and the earth was enlightened with his glory.

66N 18 2 And he cried out with a strong voice, saying: Babylon the great is fallen, is fallen; and is become the habitation of devils, and the hold of every unclean spirit, and the hold of every unclean and hateful bird:

66N 18 3 Because all nations have drunk of the wine of the wrath of her fornication; and the kings of the earth have committed fornication with her; and the merchants of the earth have been made rich by the power of her delicacies.

66N 18 4 And I heard another voice from heaven, saying: Go out from her, my people; that you be not partakers of her sins, and that you receive not of her plagues.

66N 18 5 For her sins have reached unto heaven, and the Lord hath remembered her iniquities.

66N 18 6 Render to her as she also hath rendered to you; and double unto her double according to her works: in the cup wherein she hath mingled, mingle ye double unto her.

66N 18 7 As much as she hath glorified herself, and lived in delicacies, so much torment and sorrow give ye to her; because she saith in her heart: I sit a queen, and am no widow; and sorrow I shall not see.

66N 18 8 Therefore shall her plagues come in one day, death, and mourning, and famine, and she shall be burnt with the fire; because God is strong, who shall judge her.

66N 18 9 And the kings of the earth, who have committed fornication, and lived in delicacies with her, shall weep, and bewail themselves over her, when they shall see the smoke of her burning:

66N 18 10 Standing afar off for fear of her torments, saying: Alas! alas! that great city Babylon, that mighty city: for in one hour is thy judgment come.

66N 18 11 And the merchants of the earth shall weep, and mourn over her: for no man shall buy their merchandise any more.

66N 18 12 Merchandise of gold and silver, and precious stones; and of pearls, and fine linen, and purple, and silk, and scarlet, and all thyine wood, and all manner of vessels of ivory, and all manner of vessels of precious stone, and of brass, and of iron, and of marble,

66N 18 13 And cinnamon, and odours, and ointment, and frankincense, and wine, and oil, and fine flour, and wheat, and beasts, and sheep, and horses, and chariots, and slaves, and souls of men.

66N 18 14 And the fruits of the desire of thy soul are departed from thee, and all fat and goodly things are perished from thee, and they shall find them no more at all.

66N 18 15 The merchants of these things, who were made rich, shall stand afar off from her, for fear of her torments, weeping and mourning.

66N 18 16 And saying: Alas! alas! that great city, which was clothed with fine linen, and purple, and scarlet, and was gilt with gold, and precious stones, and pearls.

66N 18 17 For in one hour are so great riches come to nought; and every shipmaster, and all that sail into the lake, and mariners, and as many as work in the sea, stood afar off.

66N 18 18 And cried, seeing the place of her burning, saying: What city is like to this great city?

66N 18 19 And they cast dust upon their heads, and cried, weeping and mourning, saying: Alas! alas! that great city, wherein all were made rich, that had ships at sea, by reason of her prices: for in one hour she is made desolate.

66N 18 20 Rejoice over her, thou heaven, and ye holy apostles and prophets; for God hath judged your judgment on her.

66N 18 21 And a mighty angel took up a stone, as it were a great millstone, and cast it into the sea, saying: With such violence as this shall Babylon, that great city, be thrown down, and shall be found no more at all.

66N 18 22 And the voice of harpers, and of musicians, and of them that play on the pipe, and on the trumpet, shall no more be heard at all in thee; and no craftsman of any art whatsoever shall be found any more at all in thee; and the sound of the mill shall be heard no more at all in thee;

66N 18 23 And the light of the lamp shall shine no more at all in thee; and the voice of the bridegroom and the bride shall be heard no more at all in thee: for thy merchants were the great men of the earth, for all nations have been deceived by thy enchantments.

66N 18 24 And in her was found the blood of prophets and of saints, and of all that were slain upon the earth.

66N 19 1 After these things I heard as it were the voice of much people in heaven, saying: Alleluia. Salvation, and glory, and power is to our God.

66N 19 2 For true and just are his judgments, who hath judged the great harlot which corrupted the earth with her fornication, and hath revenged the blood of his servants, at her hands.

66N 19 3 And again they said: Alleluia. And her smoke ascendeth for ever and ever.

66N 19 4 And the four and twenty ancients, and the four living creatures fell down and adored God that sitteth upon the throne, saying: Amen; Alleluia.

66N 19 5 And a voice came out from the throne, saying: Give praise to our God, all ye his servants; and you that fear him, little and great.

66N 19 6 And I heard as it were the voice of a great multitude, and as the voice of many waters, and as the voice of great thunders, saying, Alleluia: for the Lord our God the Almighty hath reigned.

66N 19 7 Let us be glad and rejoice, and give glory to him; for the marriage of the Lamb is come, and his wife hath prepared herself.

66N 19 8 And it is granted to her that she should clothe herself with fine linen, glittering and white. For the fine linen are the justifications of saints.

66N 19 9 And he said to me: Write: Blessed are they that are called to the marriage supper of the Lamb. And he saith to me: These words of God are true.

66N 19 10 And I fell down before his feet, to adore him. And he saith to me: See thou do it not: I am thy fellow servant, and of thy brethren, who have the testimony of Jesus. Adore God. For the testimony of Jesus is the spirit of prophecy.

66N 19 11 And I saw heaven opened, and behold a white horse; and he that sat upon him was called faithful and true, and with justice doth he judge and fight.

66N 19 12 And his eyes were as a flame of fire, and on his head were many diadems, and he had a name written, which no man knoweth but himself.

66N 19 13 And he was clothed with a garment sprinkled with blood; and his name is called, THE WORD OF GOD.

66N 19 14 And the armies that are in heaven followed him on white horses, clothed in fine linen, white and clean.

66N 19 16 And he hath on his garment, and on his thigh written: KING OF KINGS, AND LORD OF LORDS.

66N 19 17 And I saw an angel standing in the sun, and he cried with a loud voice, saying to all the birds that did fly through the midst of heaven: Come, gather yourselves together to the great supper of God:

66N 19 18 That you may eat the flesh of kings, and the flesh of tribunes, and the flesh of mighty men, and the flesh of horses, and of them that sit on them, and the flesh of all freemen and bondmen, and of little and of great.

66N 19 19 And I saw the beast, and the kings of the earth, and their armies gathered together to make war with him that sat upon the horse, and with his army.

66N 19 20 And the beast was taken, and with him the false prophet, who wrought signs before him, wherewith he seduced them who received the character of the beast, and who adored his image. These two were cast alive into the pool of fire, burning with brimstone.

66N 19 21 And the rest were slain by the sword of him that sitteth upon the horse, which proceedeth out of his mouth; and all the birds were filled with their flesh.

66N 20 1 And I saw an angel coming down from heaven, having the key of the bottomless pit, and a great chain in his hand.

66N 20 2 And he laid hold on the dragon the old serpent, which is the devil and Satan, and bound him for a thousand years.

66N 20 3 And he cast him into the bottomless pit, and shut him up, and set a seal upon him, that he should no more seduce the nations, till the thousand years be finished. And after that, he must be loosed a little time.

66N 20 4 And I saw seats; and they sat upon them; and judgment was given unto them; and the souls of them that were beheaded for the testimony of Jesus, and for the word of God, and who had not adored the beast nor his image, nor received his character on their foreheads, or in their hands; and they lived and reigned with Christ a thousand years.

66N 20 5 The rest of the dead lived not, till the thousand years were finished. This is the first resurrection.

66N 20 6 Blessed and holy is he that hath part in the first resurrection. In these the second death hath no power; but they shall be priests of God and of Christ; and shall reign with him a thousand years.

66N 20 7 And when the thousand years shall be finished, Satan shall be loosed out of his prison, and shall go forth, and seduce the nations, which are over the four quarters of the earth, Gog, and Magog, and shall gather them together to battle, the number of whom is as the sand of the sea.

66N 20 8 And they came upon the breadth of the earth, and encompassed the camp of the saints, and the beloved city.

66N 20 9 And there came down fire from God out of heaven, and devoured them; and the devil, who seduced them, was cast into the pool of fire and brimstone, where both the beast

66N 20 10 And the false prophet shall be tormented day and night for ever and ever.

66N 20 11 And I saw a great white throne, and one sitting upon it, from whose face the earth and heaven fled away, and there was no place found for them.

66N 20 12 And I saw the dead, great and small, standing in the presence of the throne, and the books were opened; and another book was opened, which is the book of life; and the dead were judged by those things which were written in the books, according to their works.

66N 20 13 And the sea gave up the dead that were in it, and death and hell gave up their dead that were in them; and they were judged every one according to their works.

66N 20 14 And hell and death were cast into the pool of fire. This is the second death.

66N 20 15 And whosoever was not found written in the book of life, was cast into the pool of fire.

66N 21 1 And I saw a new heaven and a new earth. For the first heaven and the first earth was gone, and the sea is now no more.

66N 21 2 And I John saw the holy city, the new Jerusalem, coming down out of heaven from God, prepared as a bride adorned for her husband.

66N 21 3 And I heard a great voice from the throne, saying: Behold the tabernacle of God with men, and he will dwell with them. And they shall be his people; and God himself with them shall be their God.

66N 21 4 And God shall wipe away all tears from their eyes: and death shall be no more, nor mourning, nor crying, nor sorrow shall be any more, for the former things are passed away.

66N 21 5 And he that sat on the throne, said: Behold, I make all things new. And he said to me: Write, for these words are most faithful and true.

66N 21 6 And he said to me: It is done. I am Alpha and Omega; the beginning and the end. To him that thirsteth, I will give of the fountain of the water of life, freely.

66N 21 7 He that shall overcome shall possess these things, and I will be his God; and he shall be my son.

66N 21 8 But the fearful, and unbelieving, and the abominable, and murderers, and whoremongers, and sorcerers, and idolaters, and all liars, they shall have their portion in the pool burning with fire and brimstone, which is the second death.

66N 21 9 And there came one of the seven angels, who had the vials full of the seven last plagues, and spoke with me, saying: Come, and I will shew thee the bride, the wife of the Lamb.

66N 21 10 And he took me up in spirit to a great and high mountain: and he shewed me the holy city Jerusalem coming down out of heaven from God, 66N 21 11 Having the glory of God, and the light thereof was like to a precious stone, as to the jasper stone, even as crystal.

66N 21 12 And it had a wall great and high, having twelve gates, and in the gates twelve angels, and names written thereon, which are the names of the twelve tribes of the children of Israel.

66N 21 13 On the east, three gates: and on the north, three gates: and on the south, three gates: and on the west, three gates.

66N 21 14 And the wall of the city had twelve foundations, and in them, the twelve names of the twelve apostles of the Lamb.

66N 21 15 And he that spoke with me, had a measure of a reed of gold, to measure the city and the gates thereof, and the wall.

66N 21 16 And the city lieth in a foursquare, and the length thereof is as great as the breadth: and he measured the city with the golden reed for twelve thousand furlongs, and the length and the height and the breadth thereof are equal.

66N 21 17 And he measured the wall thereof an hundred and forty-four cubits, the measure of a man, which is of an angel.

66N 21 18 And the building of the wall thereof was of jasper stone: but the city itself pure gold, like to clear glass.

66N 21 19 And the foundations of the wall of the city were adorned with all manner of precious stones. The first foundation was jasper: the second, sapphire: the third, a chalcedony: the fourth, an emerald:

66N 21 20 The fifth, sardonyx: the sixth, sardius: the seventh, chrysolite: the eighth, beryl: the ninth, a topaz: the tenth, a chrysoprasus: the eleventh, a jacinth: the twelfth, an amethyst.

66N 21 21 And the twelve gates are twelve pearls, one to each: and every several gate was of one several pearl. And the street of the city was pure gold, as it were transparent glass.

66N 21 22 And I saw no temple therein. For the Lord God Almighty is the temple thereof, and the Lamb.

66N 21 23 And the city hath no need of the sun, nor of the moon, to shine in it. For the glory of God hath enlightened it, and the Lamb is the lamp thereof.

66N 21 24 And the nations shall walk in the light of it: and the kings of the earth shall bring their glory and honour into it.

66N 21 25 And the gates thereof shall not be shut by day: for there shall be no night there.

66N 21 26 And they shall bring the glory and honour of the nations into it.

66N 21 27 There shall not enter into it any thing defiled, or that worketh abomination or maketh a lie, but they that are written in the book of life of the Lamb.

66N 22 1 And he showed me a river of water of life, clear as crystal, proceeding from the throne of God and of the Lamb.

66N 22 2 In the midst of the street thereof, and on both sides of the river, was the tree of life, bearing twelve fruits, yielding its fruits every month, and the leaves of the tree were for the healing of the nations.

66N 22 3 And there shall be no curse any more; but the throne of God and of the Lamb shall be in it, and his servants shall serve him.

66N 22 4 And they shall see his face: and his name shall be on their foreheads.

66N 22 5 And night shall be no more: and they shall not need the light of the lamp, nor the light of the sun, because the Lord God shall enlighten them, and they shall reign for ever and ever.

66N 22 6 And he said to me: These words are most faithful and true. And the Lord God of the spirits of the prophets sent his angel to shew his servants the things which must be done shortly.

66N 22 7 And, Behold I come quickly. Blessed is he that keepeth the words of the prophecy of this book.

66N 22 8 And I, John, who have heard and seen these things. And after I had heard and seen, I fell down to adore before the feet of the angel, who shewed me these things.

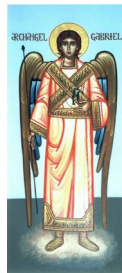

66N 22 9 And he said to me: See thou do it not: for I am thy fellow servant, and of thy brethren the prophets, and of them that keep the words of the prophecy of this book. Adore God.

66N 22 10 And he saith to me: Seal not the words of the prophecy of this book: for the time is at hand.

66N 22 11 He that hurteth, let him hurt still: and he that is filthy, let him be filthy still: and he that is just, let him be justified still: and he that is holy, let him be sanctified still.

66N 22 12 Behold, I come quickly; and my reward is with me, to render to every man according to his works.

66N 22 13 I am Alpha and Omega, the first and the last, the beginning and the end.
 66N 22 14 Blessed are they that wash their robes in the blood of the Lamb: that they may have a right to the tree of life, and may enter in by the gates into the city.
 66N 22 15 Without are dogs, and sorcerers, and unchaste, and murderers, and servers of idols, and every one that loveth and maketh a lie.
 66N 22 16 I Jesus have sent my angel, to testify to you these things in the churches. I am the root and stock of David, the bright and morning star.
 66N 22 17 And the spirit and the bride say: Come. And he that heareth, let him say: Come. And he that thirsteth, let him come: and he that will, let him take the water of life, freely.
 66N 22 18 For I testify to every one that heareth the words of the prophecy of this book: If any man shall add to these things, God shall add unto him the plagues written in this book.
 66N 22 19 And if any man shall take away from the words of the book of this prophecy, God shall take away his part out of the book of life, and out of the holy city, and from these things that are written in this book.
 66N 22 20 He that giveth testimony of these things, saith, Surely I come quickly: Amen. Come, Lord Jesus.
 66N 22 21 The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you all. Amen.

67A 1 1 And these are the words of the book, which Baruch the son of Nerias, the son of Maasias, the son of Sedecias, the son of Sedei, the son of Helcias, wrote in Babylonia.
 67A 1 1 Wherefore the Lord our God hath made good his word, that he spoke to us, and to our judges that have judged Israel, and to our kings, and to our princes, and to all Israel and Juda:
 67A 1 2 In the fifth year, in the seventh day of the month, at the time that the Chaldeans took Jerusalem, and burnt it with fire.
 67A 1 2 That the Lord would bring upon us great evils, such as never happened under heaven, as they have come to pass in Jerusalem, according to the things that are written in the law of Moses:
 67A 1 3 And Baruch read the words of this book in the hearing of Jechonias the son of Joakim king of Juda, and in the hearing of all the people that came to hear the book.
 67A 1 3 That a man should eat the flesh of his own son, and the flesh of his own daughter.
 67A 1 4 And in the hearing of the nobles, the sons of the kings, and in the hearing of the ancients, and in the hearing of the people, from the least even to the greatest of them that dwelt in Babylonia, by the river Sedi.

67A 1 4 And he hath delivered them up to be under the hand of all the kings that are round about us, to be a reproach, and desolation among all the people, among whom the Lord hath scattered us.

67A 1 5 And when they heard it they wept, and fasted, and prayed before the Lord.

67A 1 5 And we are brought under, and are not uppermost: because we have sinned against the Lord our God, by not obeying his voice.

67A 1 6 And they made a collection of money, according to every man's power.

67A 1 6 To the Lord our God belongeth justice: but to us, and to our fathers confusion of face, as at this day.

67A 1 7 And they sent it to Jerusalem to Joakim the priest, the son of Helcias, the son of Salom, and to the priests, and to all the people, that were found with him in Jerusalem:

67A 1 7 For the Lord hath pronounced against us all these evils that are come upon us:

67A 1 8 At the time when he received the vessels of the temple of the Lord, which had been taken away out of the temple, to return them into the land of Juda the tenth day of the month Sivan, the silver vessels, which Sedecias the son of Josias king of Juda had made,

67A 1 8 And we have not entreated the face of the Lord our God, that we might return every one of us from our most wicked ways.

67A 1 9 After that Nabuchodonosor the king of Babylon had carried away Jechonias, and the princes, and all the powerful men, and the people of the land from Jerusalem, and brought them bound to Babylon.

67A 1 9 And the Lord hath watched over us for evil, and hath brought it upon us: for the Lord is just in all his works which he hath commanded us:

67A 1 10 And they said: Behold we have sent you money, buy with it holocausts, and frankincense, and make meat offerings, and offerings for sin at the altar of the Lord our God:

67A 1 10 And we have not hearkened to his voice to walk in the commandments of the Lord which he hath set before us.

67A 1 11 And pray ye for the life of Nabuchodonosor the king of Babylon, and for the life of Balthasar his son, that their days may be upon earth as the days of heaven:

67A 1 11 And now, O Lord God of Israel, who hast brought thy people out of the land of Egypt with a strong hand, and with signs, and with wonders, and with thy great power, and with a mighty arm, and hast made thee a name as at this day, 67A 1 12 And that the Lord may give us strength, and enlighten our eyes, that we may live under the shadow of Nabuchodonosor the king of Babylon, and under the shadow of Balthasar his son, and may serve them many days, and may find favour in their sight.

67A 1 12 We have sinned, we have done wickedly, we have acted unjustly, O Lord our God, against all thy justices.

67A 1 13 And pray ye for us to the Lord our God: for we have sinned against the Lord our God, and his wrath is not turned away from us even to this day.

67A 1 13 Let thy wrath be turned away from us: for we are left a few among the nations where thou hast scattered us.

67A 1 14 And read ye this book, which we have sent to you to be read in the temple of the Lord, on feasts, and proper days.

67A 1 14 Hear, O Lord, our prayers, and our petitions, and deliver us for thy own sake: and grant that we may find favour in the sight of them that have led us away:

67A 1 15 And you shall say: To the Lord our God belongeth justice, but to us confusion of our face: as it is come to pass at this day to all Juda, and to the inhabitants of Jerusalem,

67A 1 15 That all the earth may know that thou art the Lord our God, and that thy name is called upon Israel, and upon his posterity.

67A 1 16 To our kings, and to our princes, and to our priests, and to our prophets, and to our fathers.

67A 1 16 Look down upon us, O Lord, from thy holy house, and incline thy ear, and hear us.

67A 1 17 We have sinned before the Lord our God, and have not believed him, nor put our trust in him:

67A 1 17 Open thy eyes, and behold: for the dead that are in hell, whose spirit is taken away from their bowels, shall not give glory and justice to the Lord:

67A 1 18 And we were not obedient to him, and we have not harkened to the voice of the Lord our God, to walk in his commandments, which he hath given us.

67A 1 18 But the soul that is sorrowful for the greatness of evil she hath done, and goeth bowed down, and feeble, and the eyes that fail, and the hungry soul giveth glory and justice to thee the Lord.

67A 1 19 From the day that he brought our fathers out of the land of Egypt, even to this day, we were disobedient to the Lord our God: and going astray we turned away from hearing his voice.

67A 1 19 For it is not for the justices of our fathers that we pour out our prayers, and beg mercy in thy sight, O Lord our God:

67A 1 20 And many evils have cleaved to us, and the curses which the Lord foretold by Moses his servant: who brought our fathers out of the land of Egypt, to give us a land flowing with milk and honey, as at this day.

67A 1 20 But because thou hast sent out thy wrath, and thy indignation upon us, as thou hast spoken by the hand of thy servants the prophets, saying:

67A 1 21 And we have not hearkened to the voice of the Lord our God according to all the words of the prophets whom he sent to us:

67A 1 21 Thus saith the Lord: Bow down your shoulder, and your neck, and serve the king of Babylon: and you shall remain in the land which I have given to your fathers.

67A 1 22 And we have gone away every man after the inclinations of his own wicked heart, to serve strange gods, and to do evil in the sight of the Lord our God. Chapter2

67A 1 22 But if you will not hearken to the voice of the Lord your God, to serve the king of Babylon: I will cause you to depart out of the cities of Juda, and from without Jerusalem.

67A 1 23 And I will take away from you the voice of mirth, and the voice of joy, and the voice of the bridegroom, and the voice of the bride, and all the land shall be without any footstep of inhabitants.

67A 1 24 And they hearkened not to thy voice, to serve the king of Babylon: and thou hast made good thy words, which thou spokest by the hands of thy servants the prophets, that the bones of our kings, and the bones of our fathers should be removed out of their place:

67A 1 25 And behold they are cast out to the heat of the sun, and to the frost of the night: and they have died in grievous pains, by famine, and by the sword, and in banishment.

67A 1 26 And thou hast made the temple, in which thy name was called upon, as it is at this day, for the iniquity of the house of Israel, and the house of Juda.

67A 1 27 And thou hast dealt with us, O Lord our God, according to all thy goodness, and according to all that great mercy of thine:

67A 1 28 As thou spokest by the hand of thy servant Moses, in the day when thou didst command him to write thy law before the children of Israel,

67A 1 29 Saying: If you will not hear my voice, this great multitude shall be turned into a very small number among the nations, where I will scatter them:

67A 1 30 For I know that the people will not hear me, for they are a people of a stiff neck: but they shall turn to their heart in the land of their captivity:

67A 1 31 And they shall know that I am the Lord their God: and I will give them a heart, and they shall understand: and ears, and they shall hear.

67A 1 32 And they shall praise me in the land of their captivity, and shall be mindful of my name.

67A 1 33 And they shall turn away themselves from their stiff neck, and from their wicked deeds: for they shall remember the way of their fathers, that sinned against me.

67A 1 34 And I will bring them back again into the land which I promised with an oath to their fathers, Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob, and they shall be masters thereof: and I will multiply them, and they shall not be diminished.

67A 1 35 And I will make with them another covenant that shall be everlasting, to be their God, and they shall be my people: and I will no more remove my people, the children of Israel, out of the land that I have given them.

67A 3 1 And now, O Lord Almighty, the God of Israel, the soul in anguish, and the troubled spirit crieth to thee:

67A 3 2 Hear, O Lord, and have mercy, for thou art a merciful God, and have pity on us: for we have sinned before thee.

67A 3 3 For thou remainest for ever, and shall we perish everlastingly?

67A 3 4 O Lord Almighty, the God of Israel, hear now the prayer of the dead of Israel, and of their children, that have sinned before thee, and have not hearkened to the voice of the Lord their God, wherefore evils have cleaved fast to us.

67A 3 5 Remember not the iniquities of our fathers, but think upon thy hand, and upon thy name at this time:

67A 3 6 For thou art the Lord our God, and we will praise thee, O Lord:

67A 3 7 Because for this end thou hast put thy fear in our hearts, to the intent that we should call upon thy name, and praise thee in our captivity, for we are converted from the iniquity of our fathers, who sinned before thee.

67A 3 8 And behold we are at this day in our captivity, whereby thou hast scattered us to be a reproach, and a curse, and an offence, according to all the iniquities of our fathers, who departed from thee, O Lord our God.

67A 3 9 Hear, O Israel, the commandments of life: give ear, that thou mayst learn wisdom.

67A 3 10 How happeneth it, O Israel, that thou art in thy enemies' land?

67A 3 11 Thou art grown old in a strange country, thou art defiled with the dead: thou art counted with them that go down into hell.

67A 3 12 Thou hast forsaken the fountain of wisdom :

67A 3 13 For if thou hadst walked in the way of God, thou hadst surely dwelt in peace for ever.

67A 3 14 Learn where is wisdom, where is strength, where is understanding: that thou mayst know also where is length of days and life, where is the light of the eyes, and peace.

67A 3 15 Who hath found out her place? and who hath gone in to her treasures?

67A 3 16 Where are the princes of the nations, and they that rule over the beasts that are upon the earth?

67A 3 17 That take their diversion with the birds of the air.

67A 3 18 That hoard up silver and gold, wherein men trust, and there is no end of their getting? who work in silver and are solicitous, and their works are unsearchable.

67A 3 19 They are cut off, and are gone down to hell, and others are risen up in their place.

67A 3 20 Young men have seen the light, and dwelt upon the earth: but the way of knowledge they have not known, 67A 3 21 Nor have they understood the paths thereof, neither have their children received it, it is far from their face.

67A 3 22 It hath not been heard of in the land of Chanaan, neither hath it been seen in Theman.

67A 3 23 The children of Agar also, that search after the wisdom that is of the earth, the merchants of Merrha, and of Theman, and the tellers of fables, and searchers of prudence and understanding: but the way of wisdom they have not known, neither have they remembered her paths.

67A 3 24 O Israel, how great is the house of God, and how vast is the place of his possession!

67A 3 25 It is great, and hath no end: it is high and immense.

67A 3 26 There were the giants, those renowned men that were from the beginning, of great stature, expert in war.

67A 3 27 The Lord chose not them, neither did they find the way of knowledge: therefore did they perish.

67A 3 28 And because they had not wisdom, they perished through their folly.

67A 3 29 Who hath gone up into heaven, and taken her, and brought her down from the clouds?

67A 3 30 Who hath passed over the sea, and found her, and brought her preferably to chosen gold?

67A 3 31 There is none that is able to know her ways, nor that can search out her paths :

67A 3 32 But he that knoweth all things, knoweth her, and hath found her out with his understanding: he that prepared the earth for evermore, and filled it with cattle and fourfooted beasts:

67A 3 33 He that sendeth forth light, and it goeth: and hath called it, and it obeyeth him with trembling.

67A 3 34 And the stars have given light in their watches, and rejoiced:

67A 3 35 They were called, and they said: Here we are: and with cheerfulness they have shined forth to him that made them.

67A 3 36 This is our God, and there shall no other be accounted of in comparison of him.

67A 3 37 He found out all the way of knowledge, and gave it to Jacob his servant, and to Israel his beloved.

67A 3 38 Afterwards he was seen upon earth, and conversed with men.

67A 4 1 This is the book of the commandments of God, and the law, that is for ever: all they that keep it, shall come to life: but they that have forsaken it, to death.

67A 4 2 Return, O Jacob, and take hold of it, walk in the way by its brightness, in the presence of the light thereof.

67A 4 3 Give not thy honour to another, nor thy dignity to a strange nation.

67A 4 4 We are happy, O Israel: because the things that are pleasing to God, are made known to us.

67A 4 5 Be of good comfort, O people of God, the memorial of Israel:

67A 4 6 You have been sold to the Gentiles, not for your destruction: but because you provoked God to wrath, you are delivered to your adversaries.

67A 4 7 For you have provoked him who made you, the eternal God, offering sacrifice to devils, and not to God.

67A 4 8 For you have forgotten God, who brought you up, and you have grieved Jerusalem that nursed you.

67A 4 9 For she saw the wrath of God coming upon you, and she said: Give ear, all you that dwell near Sion, for God hath brought upon me great mourning:

67A 4 10 For I have seen the captivity of my people, of my sons, and my daughters, which the Eternal hath brought upon them.

67A 4 11 For I nourished them with joy: but I sent them away with weeping and mourning.

67A 4 12 Let no man rejoice over me, a widow, and desolate: I am forsaken of many for the sins of my children, because they departed from the law of God.

67A 4 13 And they have not known his justices, nor walked by the ways of God's commandments, neither have they entered by the paths of his truth and justice.

67A 4 14 Let them that dwell about Sion come, and remember the captivity of my sons and daughters, which the Eternal hath brought upon them.

67A 4 15 For he hath brought a nation upon them from afar, a wicked nation, and of a strange tongue:

67A 4 16 Who have neither revered the ancient, nor pitied children, and have carried away the beloved of the widow, and have left me all alone without children.

67A 4 17 But as for me, what help can I give you?

67A 4 18 But he that hath brought the evils upon you, he will deliver you out of the hands of your enemies.

67A 4 19 Go your way, my children, go your way: for I am left alone.

67A 4 20 I have put off the robe of peace, and have put upon me the sackcloth of supplication, and I will cry to the most High in my days.

67A 4 21 Be of good comfort, my children, cry to the Lord, and he will deliver you out of the hand of the princes your enemies.

67A 4 22 For my hope is in the Eternal that he will save you: and joy is come upon me from the Holy One, because of the mercy which shall come to you from our everlasting Saviour.

67A 4 23 For I sent you forth with mourning and weeping: but the Lord will bring you back to me with joy and gladness for ever.

67A 4 24 For as the neighbours of Sion have now seen your captivity from God: so shall they also shortly see your salvation from God, which shall come upon you with great honour, and everlasting glory.

67A 4 25 My children, suffer patiently the wrath that is come upon you: for thy enemy hath persecuted thee, but thou shalt quickly see his destruction: and thou shalt get up upon his neck.

67A 4 26 My delicate ones have walked rough ways, for they were taken away as a flock made a prey by the enemies.

67A 4 27 Be of good comfort, my children, and cry to the Lord: for you shall be remembered by him that hath led you away.

67A 4 28 For as it was your mind to go astray from God; so when you return again you shall seek him ten times as much.

67A 4 29 For he that hath brought evils upon you, shall bring you everlasting joy again with your salvation.

67A 4 30 Be of good heart, O Jerusalem: for he exhorteth thee, that named thee.

67A 4 31 The wicked that have afflicted thee, shall perish: and they that have rejoiced at thy ruin, shall be punished.

67A 4 32 The cities which thy children have served, shall be punished: and she that received thy sons.

67A 4 33 For as she rejoiced at thy ruin, and was glad of thy fall: so shall she be grieved for her own desolation.

67A 4 34 And the joy of her multitude shall be cut off: and her gladness shall be turned to mourning.

67A 4 35 For fire shall come upon her from the Eternal, long to endure, and she shall be inhabited by devils for a great time.

67A 4 36 Look about thee, O Jerusalem, towards the east, and behold the joy that cometh to thee from God.

67A 4 37 For behold thy children come, whom thou sentest away scattered, they come gathered together from the east even to the west, at the word of the Holy One rejoicing for the honour of God.

67A 5 1 Put off, O Jerusalem, the garment of thy mourning, and affliction: and put on the beauty, and honour of that everlasting glory which thou hast from God.

67A 5 2 God will clothe thee with the double garment of justice, and will set a crown on thy head of everlasting honour.

67A 5 3 For God will shew his brightness in thee, to every one under heaven.

67A 5 4 For thy name shall be named to thee by God for ever: the peace of justice, and honour of piety.

67A 5 5 Arise, O Jerusalem, and stand on high: and look about towards the east, and behold thy children gathered together from the rising to the setting sun, by the word of the Holy One rejoicing in the remembrance of God.

67A 5 6 For they went out from thee on foot, led by the enemies: but the Lord will bring them to thee exalted with honour as children of the kingdom.

67A 5 7 For God hath appointed to bring down every high mountain, and the everlasting rocks, and to fill up the valleys to make them even with the ground: that Israel may walk diligently to the honour of God.

67A 5 8 Moreover the woods, and every sweet-smelling tree have overshadowed Israel by the commandment of God.

67A 5 9 For God will bring Israel with joy in the light of his majesty, with mercy, and justice, that cometh from him.

67A 6 1 For the sins that you have committed before God, you shall be carried away captives into Babylon by Nabuchodonosor the king of Babylon.

67A 6 2 And when you are come into Babylon, you shall be there many years, and for a long time, even to seven generations: and after that I will bring you away from thence with peace.

67A 6 3 But now, you shall see in Babylon gods of gold, and of silver, and of stone, and of wood borne upon shoulders, causing fear to the Gentiles.

67A 6 4 Beware therefore that you imitate not the doings of others, and be afraid, and the fear of them should seize upon you.

67A 6 5 But when you see the multitude behind, and before, adoring them, say you in your hearts: Thou oughtest to be adored, O Lord.

67A 6 6 For my angel is with you: And I myself will demand an account of your souls.

67A 6 7 For their tongue that is polished by the craftsman, and themselves laid over with gold and silver, are false things, and they cannot speak.

67A 6 8 And as if it were for a maiden that loveth to go gay: so do they take gold and make them up.

67A 6 9 Their gods have golden crowns upon their heads: whereof the priests secretly convey away from them gold, and silver, and bestow it on themselves.

67A 6 10 Yea and they give thereof to prostitutes, and they dress out harlots: and again when they receive it of the harlots, they adorn their gods.

67A 6 11 And these gods cannot defend themselves from the rust, and the moth.

67A 6 12 But when they have covered them with a purple garment, they wipe their face because of the dust of the house, which is very much among them.

67A 6 13 This holdeth a sceptre as a man, as a judge of the country, but cannot put to death one that offendeth him.

67A 6 14 And this hath in his hand a sword, or an axe, but cannot save himself from war, or from robbers, whereby be it known to you, that they are not gods.

67A 6 15 Therefore fear them not. For as a vessel that a man uses when it is broken becometh useless, even so are their gods:

67A 6 16 When they are placed in the house, their eyes are full of dust by the feet of them that go in.

67A 6 17 And as the gates are made sure on every side upon one that hath offended the king, or like a dead man carried to the grave, so do the priests secure the doors with bars and locks, lest they be stripped by thieves.

67A 6 18 They light candles to them, and in great number, of which they cannot see one: but they are like beams in the house.

67A 6 19 And they say that the creeping things which are of the earth, gnaw their hearts, while they eat them and their garments, and they feel it not.

67A 6 20 Their faces are black with the smoke that is made in the house.

67A 6 21 Owls, and swallows, and other birds fly upon their bodies, and upon their heads, and cats in like manner.

67A 6 22 Whereby you may know that they are no gods. Therefore fear them not.

67A 6 23 The gold also which they have, is for shew, but except a man wipe off the rust, they will not shine: for neither when they were molten, did they feel it.

67A 6 24 Men buy them at a high price, whereas there is no breath in them.

67A 6 25 And having not the use of feet they are carried upon shoulders, declaring to men how vile they are. Be they confounded also that worship them.

67A 6 26 Therefore if they fall to the ground, they rise not up again of themselves, nor if a man set them upright, will they stand by themselves, but their gifts shall be set before them, as to the dead.

67A 6 27 The things that are sacrificed to them, their priests sell and abuse: in like manner also their wives take part of them, but give nothing of it either to the sick, or to the poor.

67A 6 28 The childbearing and menstruous women touch their sacrifices: knowing therefore by these things that they are not gods, fear them not.

67A 6 29 For how can they be called gods? because women set offerings before the gods of silver, and of gold, and of wood:

67A 6 30 And priests sit in their temples, having their garments rent, and their heads and beards shaven, and nothing upon their heads.

67A 6 31 And they roar and cry before their gods, as men do at the feast when one is dead.

67A 6 32 The priests take away their garments, and clothe their wives and their children.

67A 6 33 And whether it be evil that one doth unto them, or good, they are not able to recompense it: neither can they set up a king nor put him down:

67A 6 34 In like manner they can neither give riches, nor requite evil. If a man make a vow to them, and perform it not, they cannot require it.

67A 6 35 They cannot deliver a man from death nor save the weak from the mighty.

67A 6 36 They cannot restore the blind man to his sight: nor deliver a man from distress.

67A 6 37 They shall not pity the widow, nor do good to the fatherless.

67A 6 38 Their gods, of wood, and of stone, and of gold, and of silver, are like the stones that are hewn out of the mountains: and they that worship them shall be confounded.

67A 6 39 How then is it to be supposed, or to be said, that they are gods?

67A 6 40 Even the Chaldeans themselves dishonour them: who when they hear of one dumb that cannot speak, they present him to Bel, entreating him, that he may speak, 67A 6 41 As though they could be sensible that have no motion themselves: and they, when they shall perceive this, will leave them: for their gods themselves have no sense.

67A 6 42 The women also with cords about them, sit in the ways, burning olive stones.

67A 6 43 And when any one of them, drawn away by some passenger, lieth with him, she upbraideth her neighbour, that she was not thought as worthy as herself, nor her cord broken.

67A 6 44 But all things that are done about them, are false: how is it then to be thought, or to be said, that they are gods?

67A 6 45 And they are made by workmen, and by goldsmiths. They shall be nothing else but what the priests will have them to be.

67A 6 46 For the artificers themselves that make them, are of no long continuance. Can those things then that are made by them be gods?

67A 6 47 But they have left false things and reproach to them that come after.

67A 6 48 For when war cometh upon them, or evils, the priests consult with themselves where they may hide themselves with them.

67A 6 49 How then can they be thought to be gods, that can neither deliver themselves from war, nor save themselves from evils?

67A 6 50 For seeing they are but of wood, and laid over with gold, and with silver, it shall be known hereafter that they are false things, by all nations and kings: and it shall be manifest that they are no gods, but the work of men's hands, and that there is no work of God in them.

67A 6 51 Whence therefore is it known that they are not gods, but the work of men's hands, and no work of God is in them?

67A 6 52 They cannot set up a king over the land, nor give rain to men.

67A 6 53 They determine no causes, nor deliver countries from oppression; because they can do nothing, and are as daws between heaven and earth.

67A 6 54 For when fire shall fall upon the house of these gods of wood, and of silver, and of gold, their priests indeed will flee away, and be saved: but they themselves shall be burnt in the midst like beams.

67A 6 55 And they cannot withstand a king and war. How then can it be supposed, or admitted that they are gods?

67A 6 56 Neither are these gods of wood, and of stone, and laid over with gold, and with silver, able to deliver themselves from thieves or robbers: they that are stronger than them

67A 6 57 Shall take from them the gold, and silver, and the raiment wherewith they are clothed, and shall go their way, neither shall they help themselves.

67A 6 58 Therefore it is better to be a king that sheweth his power: or else a profitable vessel in the house, with which the owner thereof will be well satisfied: or a door in the house, to keep things safe that are therein, than such false gods.

67A 6 59 The sun, and the moon, and the stars being bright, and sent forth for profitable uses, are obedient.

67A 6 60 In like manner the lightning, when it breaketh forth, is easy to be seen: and after the same manner the wind bloweth in every country.

67A 6 61 And the clouds when God commandeth them to go over the whole world, do that which is commanded them.

67A 6 62 The fire also being sent from above to consume mountains and woods, doth as it is commanded. But these neither in shew, nor in power are like to any one of them.

67A 6 63 Wherefore it is neither to be thought, nor to be said, that they are gods: since they are neither able to judge causes, nor to do any good to men.

67A 6 64 Knowing therefore that they are not gods, fear them not.

67A 6 65 For neither can they curse kings, nor bless them.

67A 6 66 Neither do they shew signs in the heaven to the nations, nor shine as the sun, nor give light as the moon.

67A 6 67 Beasts are better than they, which can fly under a covert, and help themselves.

67A 6 68 Therefore there is no manner of appearance that they are gods: so fear them not.

67A 6 69 For as a scarecrow in a garden of cucumbers keepeth nothing, so are their gods of wood, and of silver, and laid over with gold.

67A 6 70 They are no better than a white thorn in a garden, upon which every bird sitteth. In like manner also their gods of wood, and laid over with gold, and with silver, are like to a dead body cast forth in the dark.

67A 6 71 By the purple also and the scarlet which are motheaten upon them, you shall know that they are not gods. And they themselves at last are consumed, and shall be a reproach in the country.

67A 6 72 Better therefore is the just man that hath no idols: for he shall be far from reproach.

68A 0 1 The knowledge of many and great things hath been shewn us by the law, and the prophets, and others that have followed them: for which things Israel is to be commended for doctrine and wisdom, because not only they that speak must needs be skilful, but strangers also, both speaking and writing, may by their means become most learned.

68A 0 2 My grandfather Jesus, after he had much given himself to a diligent reading of the law, and the prophets, and other books, that were delivered to us from our fathers, had a mind also to write something himself, pertaining to doctrine and wisdom: that such as are desirous to learn, and are made knowing in these things, may be more and more attentive in mind, and be strengthened to live according to the law.

68A 0 3 I entreat you therefore to come with benevolence, and to read with attention, and to pardon us for those things wherein we may seem, while we follow the image of wisdom, to come short in the composition of words; for the Hebrew words have not the same force in them when translated into another tongue. And not only these, but the law also itself, and the prophets, and the rest of the books, have no small difference, when they are spoken in their own language.

68A 0 4 For in the eight and thirtieth year coming into Egypt, when Ptolemy Evergetes was king, and continuing there a long time, I found there books left, of no small nor contemptible learning.

68A 0 5 Therefore I thought it good, and necessary for me to bestow some diligence and labour to interpret this book; and with much watching and study in some space of time, I brought the book to an end, and set it forth for the service of them that are willing to apply their mind, and to learn how they ought to conduct themselves, who purpose to lead their life according to the law of the Lord.

68A 1 1 All wisdom is from the Lord God, and hath been always with him, and is before all time.

68A 1 2 Who hath numbered the sand of the sea, and the drops of rain, and the days of the world? Who hath measured the height of heaven, and the breadth of the earth, and the depth of the abyss?

68A 1 3 Who hath searched out the wisdom of God that goeth before all things?

68A 1 4 Wisdom hath been created before all things, and the understanding of prudence from everlasting.

68A 1 5 The word of God on high is the fountain of wisdom, and her ways are everlasting commandments.

68A 1 6 To whom hath the root of wisdom been revealed, and who hath known her wise counsels?

68A 1 7 To whom hath the discipline of wisdom been revealed and made manifest? and who hath understood the multiplicity of her steps?

68A 1 8 There is one most high Creator Almighty, and a powerful king, and greatly to be feared, who sitteth upon his throne, and is the God of dominion.

68A 1 9 He created her in the Holy Ghost, and saw her, and numbered her, and measured her.

68A 1 10 And he poured her out upon all his works, and upon all flesh according to his gift, and hath given her to them that love him.

68A 1 11 The fear of the Lord is honour, and glory, and gladness, and a crown of joy.

68A 1 12 The fear of the Lord shall delight the heart, and shall give joy, and gladness, and length of days.

68A 1 13 With him that feareth the Lord, it shall go well in the latter end, and in the day of his death he shall be blessed.

68A 1 14 The love of God is honourable wisdom.

68A 1 15 Ana they to whom she shall shew herself love her by the sight, and by the knowledge of her great works.

68A 1 16 The fear of the Lord Is the beginning of wisdom, and was created with the faithful in the womb, it walketh with chosen women, and is known with the just and faithful.

68A 1 17 The fear of the Lord is the religiousness of knowledge.

68A 1 18 Religiousness shall keep and justify the heart, it shall give joy and gladness.

68A 1 19 It shall go well with him that feareth the Lord, and in the days of his end he shall be blessed.

68A 1 20 To fear God is the fulness of wisdom, and fulness is from the fruits thereof.

68A 1 21 She shall fill all her house with her increase, and the storehouses with her treasures.

68A 1 22 The fear of the Lord is a crown of wisdom, filling up peace and the fruit of salvation:

68A 1 23 And it hath seen, and numbered her: but both are the gifts of God.

68A 1 24 Wisdom shall distribute knowledge, and understanding of prudence: and exalteth the glory of them that hold her.

68A 1 25 The root of wisdom is to fear the Lord: and the branches thereof are longlived.

68A 1 26 In the treasures of wisdom is understanding, and religiousness of knowledge: but to sinners wisdom is an abomination.

68A 1 27 The fear of the Lord driveth out sin:

68A 1 28 For he that is without fear, cannot be justified: for the wrath of his high spirits is his ruin.

68A 1 29 A patient man shall bear for a time, and afterwards joy shall be restored to him.

68A 1 30 A good understanding will hide his words for a time, and the lips of many shall declare his wisdom.

68A 1 31 In the treasures of wisdom is the signification of discipline:

68A 1 32 But the worship of God is an abomination to a sinner.

68A 1 33 Son, if thou desire wisdom, keep justice, and God will give her to thee.

68A 1 34 For the fear of the Lord is wisdom and discipline: and that which is agreeable to him, 68A 1 35 Is faith, and meekness: and he will fill up his treasures.

68A 1 36 Be not incredulous to the fear of the Lord: and come not to him with a double heart.

68A 1 37 Be not a hypocrite in the sight of men, and let not thy lips be a stumblingblock to thee.

68A 1 38 Watch over them, lest thou fall, and bring dishonour upon thy soul, 68A 1 39 And God discover thy secrets, and cast thee down in the midst of the congregation.

68A 1 40 Because thou camest to the Lord wickedly, and thy heart is full of guile and deceit.

68A 2 1 Son, when thou comest to the service of God, stand in justice and in fear, and prepare thy soul for temptation.

68A 2 2 Humble thy heart, and endure: incline thy ear, and receive the words of understanding: and make not haste in the time of clouds.

68A 2 3 Wait on God with patience: join thyself to God, and endure, that thy life may be increased in the latter end.

68A 2 4 Take all that shall be brought upon thee: and in thy sorrow endure, and in thy humiliation keep patience.

68A 2 5 For gold and silver are tried in the fire, but acceptable men in the furnace of humiliation.

68A 2 6 Believe God, and he will recover thee: and direct thy way, and trust in him. Keep his fear, and grow old therein.

68A 2 7 Ye that fear the Lord, wait for his mercy: and go not aside from him, lest ye fall.

68A 2 8 Ye that fear the Lord, believe him: and your reward shall not be made void.

68A 2 9 Ye that fear the Lord, hope in him: and mercy shall come to you for your delight.

68A 2 10 Ye that fear the Lord, love him, and your hearts shall be enlightened.

68A 2 11 My children behold the generations of men: and know ye that no one hath hoped in the Lord, and hath been confounded.

68A 2 12 For who hath continued in his commandment, and hath been forsaken? or who hath called upon him, and he despised him?

68A 2 13 For God is compassionate and merciful, and will forgive sins in the day of tribulation: and he is a protector to all that seek him in truth.

68A 2 14 Woe to them that are of a double heart and to wicked lips, and to the hands that do evil, and to the sinner that goeth on the earth two ways.

68A 2 15 Woe to them that are fainthearted, who believe not God: and therefore they shall not be protected by him.

68A 2 16 Woe to them that have lost patience, and that have forsaken the right ways, and have gone aside into crooked ways.

68A 2 17 And what will they do, when the Lord shall begin to examine?

68A 2 18 They that fear the Lord, will not be incredulous to his word: and they that love him, will keep his way.

68A 2 19 They that fear the Lord, will seek after the things that are well pleasing to him: and they that love him, shall be filled with his law.

68A 2 20 They that fear the Lord, will prepare their hearts, and in his sight will sanctify their souls.

68A 2 21 They that fear the Lord, keep his Commandments, and will have patience even until his visitation, 68A 2 22 Saying: If we do not penance, we shall fall into the hands of the Lord, and not into the hands of men.

68A 2 23 For according to his greatness, so also is his mercy with him.

68A 3 1 The sons of wisdom are the church of the just: and their generation, obedience and love.

68A 3 2 Children, hear the judgment of your father, and so do that you may be saved.

68A 3 3 For God hath made the father honourable to the children: and seeking the judgment of the mothers, hath confirmed it upon the children.

68A 3 4 He that loveth God, shall obtain pardon for his sine by prayer, and shall refrain himself from them, and shall be heard in the prayer of days.

68A 3 5 And he that honoureth his mother is as one that layeth up a treasure.

68A 3 6 He that honoureth his father shall have joy in his own children, and in the day of his prayer he shall be heard.

68A 3 7 He that honoureth his father shall enjoy a long life: and he that obeyeth the father, shall be a comfort to his mother.

68A 3 8 He that feareth the Lord, honoureth his parents, and will serve them as his masters that brought him into the world.

68A 3 9 Honour thy father, in work and word, and all patience, 68A 3 10 That a blessing may come upon thee from him, and his blessing may remain in the latter end.

68A 3 11 The father's blessing establisheth the houses of the children: but the mother's curse rooteth up the foundation.

68A 3 12 Glory not in the dishonour of thy father: for his shame is no glory to thee.

68A 3 13 For the glory of a man is from the honour of his father, and a father without honour is the disgrace of the son.

68A 3 14 Son, support the old age of thy father, and grieve him not in his life;

68A 3 15 And if his understanding fail, have patience with him, and despise him not when thou art in thy strength: for the relieving of the father shall not be forgotten.

68A 3 16 For good shall be repaid to thee for the sin of thy mother.

68A 3 17 And in justice thou shalt be built up, and in the day of affliction thou shalt be remembered: and thy sine shall melt away as the ice in the fair warm weather.

68A 3 18 Of what an evil fame is he that forsaketh his father: and he is cursed of God that angereth his mother.

68A 3 19 My son, do thy works in meekness, and thou shalt be beloved above the glory of men.

68A 3 20 The greater thou art, the more humble thyself in all things, and thou shalt find grace before God:

68A 3 21 For great is the power of God alone, and he is honoured by the humble.

68A 3 22 Seek not the things that are too high for thee, and search not into things above thy ability: but the things that God hath commanded thee, think on them always, and in many of his works be not curious.

68A 3 23 For it is not necessary for thee to see with thy eyes those things that are hid.

68A 3 24 In unnecessary matters be not over curious, and in many of his works thou shalt not be inquisitive.

68A 3 25 For many things are shewn to thee above the understanding of men.

68A 3 26 And the suspicion of them hath deceived many, and hath detained their minds in vanity.

68A 3 27 A hard heart shall fear evil at the last: and he that loveth danger shall perish in it.

68A 3 28 A heart that goeth two ways shall not have success, and the perverse of heart shall be scandalized therein.

68A 3 29 A wicked heart shall be laden with sorrows, and the sinner will add sin to sin.

68A 3 30 The congregation of the proud shall not be healed: for the plant of wickedness shall take root in them, and it shall not be perceived.

68A 3 31 The heart of the wise is understood in wisdom, and a good ear will hear wisdom with all desire.

68A 3 32 A wise heart, and which hath understanding, will abstain from sine, and in the works of justice shall have success.

68A 3 33 Water quenbeth a flaming fire, and alms resisteth sins:

68A 3 34 And God provideth for him that sheweth favour: he remembereth him afterwards, and in the time of his fall he shall find a sure stay.

68A 4 1 Son, defraud not the poor of alms, and turn not away thy eyes from the poor.

68A 4 2 Despise not the hungry soul: and provoke not the Boor in his want.

68A 4 3 Afflict not the heart of the needy, and defer not to give to him that is in distress.

68A 4 4 Reject not the petition of the afflicted: and turn not away thy face from the needy.

68A 4 5 Turn not away thy eyes from the poor for fear of anger: and leave not to them that ask of thee to curse thee behind thy back.

68A 4 6 For the prayer of him that curseth thee in the bitterness of his soul, shall be heard, for he that made him will hear him.

68A 4 7 Make thyself affable to the congregation of the poor, and humble thy soul to the ancient, and bow thy head to a great man.

68A 4 8 Bow down thy ear cheerfully to the poor, and pay what thou owest, and answer him peaceable words with mildness.

68A 4 9 Deliver him that suffereth wrong out of the hand of the proud: and be not fainthearted in thy soul.

68A 4 10 In judging be merciful to the fatherless as a father, and as a husband to their mother.

68A 4 11 And thou shalt be as the obedient son of the most High, and he will have mercy on thee more than a mother.

68A 4 12 Wisdom inspireth life into her children, and protecteth them that seek after her, and will go before them in the way of justice.

68A 4 13 And he that loveth her, loveth life: and they that watch for her, shall embrace her sweetness.

68A 4 14 They that hold her fast, shall inherit life: and whithersoever she entereth, God will give a blessing.
 68A 4 15 They that serve her, shall be servants to the holy one: and God loveth them that love her.
 68A 4 16 He that hearkeneth to her, shall judge nations: and he that looketh upon her, shall remain secure.
 68A 4 17 If he trust to her, he shall inherit her, and his generation shall be in assurance.
 68A 4 18 For she walketh with him in temptation, and at the first she chooseth him.
 68A 4 19 She will bring upon him fear and dread and trial: and she will scourge him with the affliction of her discipline, till she try him by her laws, and trust his soul.
 68A 4 20 Then she will strengthen him, and make a straight way to him, and give him joy, 68A 4 21 And will disclose her secrets to him, and will heap upon him treasures of knowledge and understanding of justice.
 68A 4 22 But if he go astray, she will forsake him, and deliver him into the hands of his enemy.
 68A 4 23 Son, observe the time, and fly from evil.
 68A 4 24 For thy soul be not ashamed to say the truth.
 68A 4 25 For there is a shame that bringeth sin, and there is a shame that bringeth glory and grace.
 68A 4 26 Accept no person against thy own person, nor against thy soul a lie.
 68A 4 27 Reverence not thy neighbour in his fall:
 68A 4 28 And refrain not to speak in the time of salvation. Hide not thy wisdom in her beauty.
 68A 4 29 For by the tongue wisdom is discerned: and understanding, and knowledge, and learning by the word of the wise, and steadfastness in the works of justice.
 68A 4 30 In nowise speak against the truth, but be ashamed of the lie of thy ignorance.
 68A 4 31 Be not ashamed to confess thy sins, but submit not thyself to every man for sin.
 68A 4 32 Resist not against the face of the mighty, and do not strive against the stream of the river.
 68A 4 33 Strive for justice for thy soul, and even unto death fight for justice, and God will overthrow thy enemies for thee.
 68A 4 34 Be not hasty in thy tongue: and slack and remiss in thy works.
 68A 4 35 Be not as a lion in thy house, terrifying them of thy household, and oppressing them that are under thee.
 68A 4 36 Let not thy hand be stretched out to receive, and shut when thou shouldst give.
 68A 5 1 Set not thy heart upon unjust possessions, and say not: I have enough to live on: for it shall be of no service in the time of vengeance and darkness.
 68A 5 2 Follow not in thy strength the desires of thy heart:
 68A 5 3 And say not: How mighty am I? and who shall bring me under for my deeds? for God will surely take revenge.
 68A 5 4 Say not: I have sinned, and whet harm hath befallen me? for the most High is a patient rewarder.
 68A 5 5 Be not without fear about sin forgiven, and add not sin upon sin:
 68A 5 6 And say not: The mercy of the Lord is great, he will have mercy on the multitude of my sins.
 68A 5 7 For mercy and wrath quickly come from him, and his wrath looketh upon sinners.
 68A 5 8 Delay not to be converted to the Lord, and defer it not from day to day.
 68A 5 9 For his wrath shall come on a sudden, and in the time of vengeance he will destroy thee.

68A 5 10 Be not anxious for goods unjustly gotten: for they shall not profit thee in the day of calamity and revenge.

68A 5 11 Winnow not with every wind, and go not into every way: for so is every sinner proved by a double tongue.

68A 5 12 Be steadfast in the way of the Lord, and in the truth of thy judgment, and in knowledge, and let the word of peace and justice keep with thee.

68A 5 13 Be meek to hear the word, that thou mayst understand: and return a true answer with wisdom.

68A 5 14 If thou have understanding, answer thy neighbour: but if not, let thy hand be upon thy mouth, lest thou be surprised in an unskilful word, and be confounded.

68A 5 15 Honour and glory is in the word of the wise, but the tongue of the fool is his ruin.

68A 5 16 Be not called a whisperer, and be not taken in thy tongue, and confounded.

68A 5 17 For confusion and repentance is upon a thief, and an evil mark of disgrace upon the double tongued, but to the whisperer hatred, and enmity, and reproach.

68A 5 18 Justify alike the small and the great.

68A 6 1 Instead of a friend become not an enemy to thy neighbour: for an evil man shall inherit reproach and shame, so shall every sinner that is envious and double tongued.

68A 6 2 Extol not thyself in the thoughts of thy soul like a bull: lest thy strength be quashed by folly, 68A 6 3 And it eat up thy leaves, and destroy thy fruit: and thou be left as a dry tree in the wilderness.

68A 6 4 For a wicked soul shall destroy him that hath it, and maketh him to be a joy to his enemies, and shall lead him into the lot of the wicked.

68A 6 5 A sweet word multiplieth friends, and appeaseth enemies, and a gracious tongue in a good man aboundeth.

68A 6 6 Be in peace with many, but let one of a thousand be thy counsellor.

68A 6 7 If thou wouldst get a friend, try him before thou takest him, and do not credit him easily.

68A 6 8 For there is a friend for his own occasion, and he will not abide in the day of thy trouble.

68A 6 9 And there is a friend that turneth to enmity; and there is a friend that will disclose hatred and strife and reproaches.

68A 6 10 And there is a friend a companion at the table, and he will not abide in the day of distress.

68A 6 11 A friend if he continue steadfast, shall be to thee as thyself, and shall act with confidence among them of thy household.

68A 6 12 If he humble himself before thee, and hide himself from thy face, thou shalt have unanimous friendship for good.

68A 6 13 Separate thyself from thy enemies, and take heed of thy friends.

68A 6 14 A faithful friend is a strong defence: and he that hath found him, hath found a treasure.

68A 6 15 Nothing can be compared to a faithful friend, and no weight of gold and silver is able to countervail the goodness of his fidelity.

68A 6 16 A faithful friend is the medicine of life and immortality: and they that fear the Lord, shall find him.

68A 6 17 He that feareth God, shall likewise have good friendship: because according to him shall his friend be.

68A 6 18 My son, from thy youth up receive instruction, and even to thy grey hairs thou shalt find wisdom.

68A 6 19 Come to her as one that plougheth, and soweth, and wait for her good fruits:

68A 6 20 For in working about her thou shalt labour a little, and shalt quickly eat of her fruits.

68A 6 21 How very unpleasant is wisdom to the unlearned, and the unwise will not continue with her.

68A 6 22 She shall be to them as a mighty stone of trial, and they will cast her from them before it be long.

68A 6 23 For the wisdom of doctrine is according to her name, and she is not manifest unto many, but with them to whom she is known, she continueth even to the sight of God.

68A 6 24 Give ear, my son, and take wise counsel, and cast not away my advice.

68A 6 25 Put thy feet into her fetters, and thy neck into her chains:

68A 6 26 Bow down thy shoulder, and bear her, and be not grieved with her bands.

68A 6 27 Come to her with all thy mind, and keep her ways with all thy power.

68A 6 28 Search for her, and she shall be made known to thee, and when thou hast gotten her, let her not go:

68A 6 29 For in the latter end thou shalt find rest in her, and she shall be turned to thy joy.

68A 6 30 Then shall her fetters be a strong defence for thee, and a firm foundation, and her chain a robe of glory:

68A 6 31 For in her is the beauty of life, and her bands are a healthful binding.

68A 6 32 Thou shalt put her on as a robe of glory, and thee shalt set her upon thee as a crown of joy.

68A 6 33 My son, if thou wilt attend to me, thou shalt learn: and if thou wilt apply thy mind, thou shalt be wise.

68A 6 34 If thou wilt incline thy ear, thou shalt receive instruction: and if thou love to hear, thou shalt be wise.

68A 6 35 Stand in the multitude of ancients that are wise, and join thyself from thy heart to their wisdom, that thou mayst hear every discourse of God, and the sayings of praise may not escape thee.

68A 6 36 And if thou see a man of understanding, go to him early in the morning, and let thy foot wear the steps of his doors.

68A 6 37 Let thy thoughts be upon the precepts of God, and meditate continually on his commandments: and he will give thee a heart, and the desire of wisdom shall be given thee.

68A 7 1 Do no evils, and no evils shall lay hold of thee.

68A 7 2 Depart from the unjust, and evils shall depart from thee.

68A 7 3 My son, sow not evils in the furrows of injustice, and thou shalt not reap them sevenfold.

68A 7 4 Seek not of the Lord a pre-eminence, nor of the king the seat of honour.

68A 7 5 Justify not thyself before God, for he knoweth the heart: and desire not to appear wise before the king.

68A 7 6 Seek not to be made a judge, unless thou have strength enough to extirpate iniquities: lest thou fear the person of the powerful, and lay a stumblingblock for thy integrity.

68A 7 7 Offend not against the multitude of a city, neither cast thyself in upon the people, 68A 7 8 Nor bind sin to sin: for even in one thou shalt not be unpunished.

68A 7 9 Be not fainthearted in thy mind:

68A 7 10 Neglect not to pray, and to give alms.

68A 7 11 Say not: God will have respect to the multitude of my gifts, and when I offer to the most high God, he will accept my offerings.

68A 7 12 Laugh no man to scorn in the bitterness of his soul: for there is one that humbleth and exalteth, God who seeth

68A 7 13 Devise not a lie against thy brother: neither do the like against thy friend.

68A 7 14 Be not willing to make any manner of lie: for the custom thereof is not good.

68A 7 15 Be not full of words in a multitude of ancients, and repeat not the word in thy prayer.

68A 7 16 Hate not laborious works, nor husbandry ordained by the most High.

68A 7 17 Number not thyself among the multitude of the disorderly.

68A 7 18 Remember wrath, for it will not tarry long.

68A 7 19 Humble thy spirit very much: for the vengeance on the flesh of the ungodly is fire and worms.

68A 7 20 Do not transgress against thy friend deferring money, nor despise thy dear brother for the sake of gold.

68A 7 21 Depart not from a wise and good wife, whom thou best gotten in the fear of the Lord: for the grace of her modesty is above gold.

68A 7 22 Hurt not the servant that worketh faithfully, nor the hired man that giveth thee his life.

68A 7 23 Let a wise servant be dear to thee as thy own soul, defraud him not of liberty, nor leave him needy.

68A 7 24 Hast thou cattle? have an eye to them: and if they be for thy profit, keep them with thee.

68A 7 25 Hast thou children? instruct them, and bow down their neck from their childhood.

68A 7 26 Hast thou daughters? have a care of their body, and shew not thy countenance gay towards them.

68A 7 27 Marry thy daughter well, and then shalt do a great work, and give her to a wise man.

68A 7 28 If thou hast a wife according to thy soul, cast her not off: and to her that is hateful, trust not thyself. With thy whole heart,

68A 7 29 Honour thy father, and forget not the groanings of thy mother:

68A 7 30 Remember that thou hadst not been born but through them: and make a return to them as they have done for thee.

68A 7 31 With all thy soul fear the Lord, and reverence his priests.

68A 7 32 With all thy strength love him that made thee: and forsake not his ministers.

68A 7 33 Honour God with all thy soul, and give honour to the priests, and purify thyself with thy arms.

68A 7 34 Give them their portion, as it is commanded thee, of the firstfruits and of purifications: and for thy negligences purify thyself with a few.

68A 7 35 Offer to the Lord the gift of thy shoulders, and the sacrifice of sanctification, and the firstfruits of the holy things:

68A 7 37 A gift hath grace in the sight of all the living, and restrain not grace from the dead.

68A 7 38 And stretch out thy hand to the poor, that thy expiation and thy blessing may be perfected.

68A 7 38 Be not wanting in comforting them that weep, and walk with them that mourn.

68A 7 39 Be not slow to visit the sick: for by these things thou shalt be confirmed in love.

68A 7 40 In all thy works remember thy last end, and thou shalt never sin.

68A 8 1 Strive not with a powerful man, lest thou fall into his hands.

68A 8 2 Contend not with a rich man, lest he bring an action against thee.

68A 8 3 For gold and silver hath destroyed many, and hath reached even to the heart of kings, and perverted them.

68A 8 4 Strive not with a man that is full of tongue, and heap not wood upon his fire.

68A 8 5 Communicate not with an ignorant man, lest he speak ill of thy family.

68A 8 6 Despise not a man that turneth away from sin, nor reproach him therewith:

remember that we are all worthy of reproof.

68A 8 7 Despise not a man in his old age; for we also shall become old.

68A 8 8 Rejoice not at the death of thy enemy; knowing that we all die, and are not willing that others should rejoice at our death.

68A 8 9 Despise not the discourse of them that are ancient and wise, but acquaint thyself with their proverbs.

68A 8 10 For of them thou shalt learn wisdom, and instruction of understanding, and to serve great men without blame.

68A 8 11 Let not the discourse of the ancients escape thee, for they have learned of their fathers:

68A 8 12 For of them thou shalt learn understanding, and to give an answer in time of need.

68A 8 13 Kindle not the coals of sinners by rebuking them, lest thou be burnt with the flame of the fire of their sins.

68A 8 14 Stand not against the face of an injurious person, lest he sit as a spy to entrap thee in thy words.

68A 8 15 Lend not to a man that is mightier than thyself: and if thou lendest, count it as lost.

68A 8 16 Be not surety above thy power: and if thou be surety, think as if thou wert to pay it.

68A 8 17 Judge not against a judge: for he judgeth according to that which is just.

68A 8 18 Go not on the way with a bold man, lest he burden thee with his evils: for he goeth according to his own will, and thou shalt perish together with his folly.

68A 8 19 Quarrel not with a passionate man, and go not into the desert with a bold man: for blood is as nothing in his sight, and where there is no help he will overthrow thee.

68A 8 20 Advise not with fools, for they cannot love but such things as please them.

68A 8 21 Before a stranger do no matter of counsel: for thou knowest not what he will bring forth.

68A 8 22 Open not thy heart to every man: lest he repay thee with an evil turn, and speak reproachfully to thee.

68A 9 1 Be not jealous over the wife of thy bosom, lest she shew in thy regard the malice of a wicked lesson.

68A 9 2 Give not the power of thy soul to a woman, lest she enter upon thy strength, and thou be confounded.

68A 9 3 Look not upon a woman that hath a mind for many: lest thou fall into her snares.

68A 9 4 Use not much the company of her that is a dancer, and hearken not to her, lest thou perish by the force of her charms.

68A 9 5 Gaze not upon a maiden, lest her beauty be a stumblingblock to thee.

68A 9 6 Give not thy soul to harlots in any point: lest thou destroy thyself and thy inheritance.

68A 9 7 Look not round about thee in the of the city, nor wander up and down in the streets thereof.

68A 9 8 Turn away thy face from a woman dressed up, and gaze not about upon another's beauty.

68A 9 9 For many have perished by the beauty of a woman, and hereby lust is enkindled as a fire.

68A 9 10 Every woman that is a harlot, shall be trodden upon as dung in the way.

68A 9 11 Many by admiring the beauty of another man's wife, have become reprobate, for her conversation burneth as fire.

68A 9 12 Sit not at all with another man's wife, nor repose upon the bed with her:

68A 9 13 And strive not with her over wine, lest thy heart decline towards her, and by thy blood thou fall into destruction.

68A 9 14 Forsake not an old friend, for the new will not be like to him.

68A 9 15 A new friend is as new wine: it shall grow old, and thou shalt drink it with pleasure.

68A 9 16 Envy not the glory and riches of a sinner: for thou knowest not what his ruin shall be.

68A 9 17 Be not pleased with the wrong done by the unjust, knowing that even to hell the wicked shall not please.

68A 9 18 Keep thee far from the man that hath power to kill, so thou shalt not suspect the fear of death.

68A 9 19 And if thou come to him, commit no fault, lest he take away thy life.

68A 9 20 Know it to be a communication with death: for thou art going in the midst of snares, and walking upon the arms of them that are grieved:

68A 9 21 According to thy power beware of thy neighbor, and treat with the wise and prudent.

68A 9 22 Let just men be thy guests, and let thy glory be in the fear of God.

68A 9 23 And let the thought of God be in thy mind, and all thy discourse on the commandments of the Highest.

68A 9 24 Works shall be praised for the hand of the artificers, and the prince of the people for the wisdom of his speech, but word of the ancients for the sense.

68A 9 25 A man full of tongue is terrible in his city, and he that is rash in his word shall be hateful.

68A 10 1 There is not a more wicked thing than to love money: for such a one setteth even his own soul to sale: because while he liveth he hath cast away his bowels.

68A 10 11 All power is of short life. A long sickness is troublesome to the physician.

68A 10 12 The physician cutteth off it short sickness: so also a king is to day, and to morrow he shall die.

68A 10 13 For when a man shall die, he shall inherit serpents, end beasts, and worms.

68A 10 14 The beginning of the pride of man, is to fall off from God:

68A 10 15 Because his heart is departed from him that made him: for pride is the beginning of all sin: be that holdeth it, shall be filled with maledictions, and it shall ruin him in the end.

68A 10 16 Therefore hath the Lord disgraced the assemblies of the wicked, and hath utterly destroyed them.

68A 10 17 God hath overturned the thrones of proud princes, and hath set up the meek in their stead.

68A 10 18 God hath made the roots of proud nations to wither, and hath planted the humble of these nations.

68A 10 19 The Lord hath overthrown the lands of the Gentiles, and hath destroyed them even to the foundation.

68A 10 20 He hath made some of them to wither away, and hath destroyed them, and hath made the memory of them to cease from the earth.

68A 10 21 God hath abolished the memory of the proud, and hath preserved the memory of them that are humble in mind.

68A 10 22 Pride was not made for men: nor wrath for the race of women.

68A 10 23 That seed of men shall be honoured, which feareth God: but that seed shall be dishonoured, which transgresseth the commandments of the Lord.

68A 10 24 In the midst of brethren their chief is honourable: so shall they that fear the Lord, be in his eyes.

68A 10 25 The fear of God is the glory of the rich, and of the honourable, and of the poor:

68A 10 26 Despise not a just man that is poor, and do not magnify a sinful man that is rich.

68A 10 27 The great man, and the judge, and the mighty is in honour: and there is none greater than he that feareth God.

68A 10 28 They that are free shall serve a servant that is wise: and a man that is prudent and well instructed will not murmur when he is reproved; and he that is ignorant, shall not be honoured.

68A 10 29 Extol not thyself in doing thy work, and linger not in the time of distress:

68A 10 30 Better is he that laboureth, and aboundeth in all things, than he that boasteth himself and wanteth bread.

68A 10 31 My son, keep thy soul in meekness, and give it honour according to its desert.

68A 10 32 Who will justify him that sinneth against his own soul? and who will honour him that dishonoureth his own soul?

68A 10 33 The poor man is glorified by his discipline and fear: and there is a man that is honoured for his wealth.

68A 10 34 But he that is glorified in poverty, how much more in wealth? and he that is glorified in wealth, let him fear poverty.

68A 11 1 The wisdom of the humble shall exalt his head, and shall make him sit in the midst of great men.

68A 11 2 Praise not a man for his beauty, neither despise a man for his look.

68A 11 3 The bee is small among flying things, but her fruit hath the chiefest sweetness.

68A 11 4 Glory not in apparel at any time, and be not exalted in the day of thy honour: for the works of the Highest only are wonderful, and his works are glorious, and secret, end hidden.

68A 11 5 Many tyrants have sat on the throne, and he whom no man would think on, hath worn the crown.

68A 11 6 Many mighty men have been greatly brought down, and the glorious have been delivered into the hand of others.

68A 11 7 Before thou inquire, blame no man: and when thou hast inquired, reprove justly.

68A 11 8 Before thou hear, answer not a word: and interrupt not others in the midst of their discourse.

68A 11 9 Strive not in a matter which doth not concern thee, and sit not in judgment with sinners.

68A 11 10 My son, meddle not with many matters: and if thou be rich, thou shalt not be free from sin: for if thou pursue after thou shalt not overtake: and if thou run before thou shalt not escape.

68A 11 11 There is an ungodly man that laboureth, and maketh haste, and is in sorrow, and is so much the more in want.

68A 11 12 Again, there is an inactive man that wanteth help, is very weak in ability, and full of poverty:

68A 11 13 Yet the eye of God hath looked upon him for good, and hath lifted him up from his low estate, and hath exalted his head: and many have wondered at him, and have glorified God.

68A 11 14 Good things and evil, life and death, poverty and riches, are from God.

68A 11 15 Wisdom and discipline, and the knowledge of the law are with God. Love and the ways of good things are with him

68A 11 16 Error and darkness are created with sinners: and they that glory in evil things, grow old in evil.

68A 11 17 The gift of God abideth with the just, and his advancement shall have success for ever.

68A 11 18 There is one that is enriched by living sparingly, and this is the portion of his reward.

68A 11 19 In that he saith: I have found me rest, and now I will eat of my goods alone:
 68A 11 20 And he knoweth not what time shall pass, and that death approacheth, and that he must leave all to others, and shall die.
 68A 11 21 Be steadfast in thy covenant, and be conversant therein, and grow old in the work of thy commandments.
 68A 11 22 Abide not in the works of sinners. But trust in God, and stay in thy place.
 68A 11 23 For it is easy in the eyes of God on a sudden to make the poor man rich.
 68A 11 24 The blessing of God maketh haste to reward the just, and in a swift hour his blessing beareth fruit.
 68A 11 25 Say not: What need I, and what good shall I have by this?
 68A 11 26 Say not: I am sufficient for myself: and what shall I be made worse by this?
 68A 11 27 In the day of good things be not unmindful of evils: and in the day of evils be not unmindful of good things:
 68A 11 28 For it is easy before God in the day of death to reward every one according to his ways.
 68A 11 29 The affliction of an hour maketh one forget great delights, and in the end of a man is the disclosing of his works.
 68A 11 30 Praise not any man before death, for a man is known by his children.
 68A 11 31 Bring not every man into thy house: for many are the snares of the deceitful.
 68A 11 32 For as corrupted bowels send forth stinking breath, and as the partridge is brought into the cage, and as the roe into the snare: so also is the heart of the proud, and as a spy that looketh on the fall of his neighbour.
 68A 11 33 For he lieth in wait and turneth good into evil, and on the elect he will lay a blot.
 68A 11 34 Of one spark cometh a great fire, and of one deceitful man much blood: and a sinful man lieth in wait for blood.
 68A 11 35 Take heed to thyself of a mischievous man, for he worketh evils: lest he bring upon thee reproach for ever.
 68A 11 36 Receive a stranger in, and he shall overthrow thee with a whirlwind, and shall turn thee out of thy own.
 68A 12 1 If thou do good, know to whom thou dost it, and there shall be much thanks for thy good deeds.
 68A 12 2 Do good to the just, and thou shalt find great recompense: and if not of him, assuredly of the Lord.
 68A 12 3 For there is no good for him that is always occupied in evil, and that giveth no alms: for the Highest hateth sinners, and hath mercy on the penitent.
 68A 12 4 Give to the merciful and uphold not the sinner: God will repay vengeance to the ungodly and to sinners, and keep them against the day of vengeance.
 68A 12 5 Give to the good, and receive not a sinner.
 68A 12 6 Do good to the humble, and give not to the ungodly: hold back thy bread, and give it not to him, lest thereby he overmaster thee.
 68A 12 7 For thou shalt receive twice as much evil for all the good thou shalt have done to him: for the Highest also hateth sinners, and will repay vengeance to the ungodly.
 68A 12 8 A friend shall not be known in prosperity, and an enemy shall not be hidden in adversity.
 68A 12 9 In the prosperity of a man, his enemies are grieved: and a friend is known in his adversity.
 68A 12 10 Never trust thy enemy: for as a brass pot his wickedness rusteth:
 68A 12 11 Though he humble himself and go crouching, yet take good heed and beware of him.
 68A 12 12 Set him not by thee, neither let him sit on thy right hand, lest he turn into thy place, and seek to take thy seat: and at the last thou acknowledge my words, and be pricked with my sayings.

- 68A 12 13 Who will pity an enchanter struck by a serpent, or any that come near wild beasts? so is it with him that keepeth company with a wicked man, and is involved in his sins.
- 68A 12 14 For an hour he will abide with thee: but if thou begin to decline, he will not endure it.
- 68A 12 15 An enemy speaketh sweetly with his lips, but in his heart he lieth in wait, to throw thee into a pit.
- 68A 12 16 An enemy weepeth with his eyes: but if he find an opportunity he will not be satisfied with blood:
- 68A 12 17 And if evils come upon thee, thou shalt find him there first.
- 68A 12 18 An enemy hath tears in his eyes, and while he pretendeth to help thee, will undermine thy feet.
- 68A 12 19 He will shake his head, and clap his hands, and whisper much, and change his countenance.
- 68A 13 1 He that toucheth pitch, shall be defiled with it: and he that hath fellowship with the proud, shall put on pride.
- 68A 13 2 He shall take a burden upon him that hath fellowship with one more honourable than himself. And have no fellowship with one that is richer than thyself.
- 68A 13 3 What agreement shall the earthen pot have with the kettle? for if they knock one against the other, it shall be broken.
- 68A 13 4 The rich man hath done wrong, and yet he will fume: but the poor is wronged and must hold his peace.
- 68A 13 5 If thou give, he will make use of thee: and if thou have nothing, he will forsake thee.
- 68A 13 6 If thou have any thing, he will live with thee, and will make thee bare, and he will not be sorry for thee.
- 68A 13 7 If he have need of thee he will deceive thee, and smiling upon thee will put thee in hope; he will speak thee fair, and will say: What wantest thou?
- 68A 13 8 And he will shame thee by his meats, till he have drawn thee dry twice or thrice, and at last he will laugh at thee: and afterward when he seeth thee, he will forsake thee, and shake his head at thee.
- 68A 13 9 Humble thyself to God, and wait for his hands.
- 68A 13 10 Beware that thou be not deceived Into folly, and be humbled.
- 68A 13 11 Be not lowly in thy wisdom, lest being humbled thou be deceived into folly.
- 68A 13 12 If thou be invited by one that is mightier, withdraw thyself: for so he will invite thee the more.
- 68A 13 13 Be not troublesome to him, lest thou be put back: and keep not far from him, lest thou be forgotten.
- 68A 13 14 Affect not to speak with him as an equal: and believe not his many words: for by much talk he will sift thee, and smiling will examine thee concerning thy secrets.
- 68A 13 15 His cruel mind will lay up thy words: and he will not spare to do thee hurt, and to cast thee into prison.
- 68A 13 16 Take heed to thyself, and attend diligently to what thou hearest: for thou walkest in danger of thy ruin.
- 68A 13 17 When thou hearest those things, see as it were in sleep, and thou shalt awake.
- 68A 13 18 Love God all thy life, and call upon him for thy salvation.
- 68A 13 19 Every beast loveth its like: so also every man him that is nearest to himself.
- 68A 13 20 All flesh shall consort with the like to itself, and every man shall associate himself to his like.
- 68A 13 21 If the wolf shall at any time have fellowship with the lamb, so the sinner with the just.
- 68A 13 22 What fellowship hath a holy man with a dog, or what part hath the rich with the poor?

68A 13 23 The wild ass is the lion's prey in the desert: so also the poor are devoured by the rich.

68A 13 24 And as humility is an abomination to the proud: so also the rich man abhorreth the poor.

68A 13 25 When a rich man is shaken, he is kept up by his friends: but when a poor man is fallen down, he is thrust away even by his acquaintance.

68A 13 26 When a rich man hath been deceived, he hath many helpers: he hath spoken proud things, and they have justified him.

68A 13 27 The poor man was deceived, and he is rebuked also: he hath spoken wisely, and could have no place.

68A 13 28 The rich man spoke, and all held their peace, and what he said they extol even to the clouds.

68A 13 29 The poor man spoke, and they say: Who is this? and if he stumble, they will overthrow him.

68A 13 30 Riches are good to him that hath no sin in his conscience: and poverty is very wicked in the mouth of the ungodly.

68A 13 31 The heart of a man changeth his countenance, either for good, or for evil.

68A 13 32 The token of a good heart, and a good countenance thou shalt hardly find, and with labour.

68A 14 1 Blessed is the man that hath not slipped by a word out of his mouth, and is not pricked with the remorse of sin.

68A 14 2 Happy is he that hath had no sadness of his mind, and who is not fallen from his hope.

68A 14 3 Riches are not comely for a covetous man and a niggard, and what should an envious man do with gold?

68A 14 4 He that gathereth together by wronging his own soul, gathereth for others, and another will squander away his goods in rioting.

68A 14 5 He that is evil to himself, to whom will he be good? and he shall not take pleasure in his goods.

68A 14 6 There is none worse than he that envieth himself, and this is the reward of his wickedness:

68A 14 7 And if he do good, he doth it ignorantly, and unwillingly: and at the last he discovereth his wickedness.

68A 14 8 The eye of the envious is wicked: and he turneth away his face, and despiseth his own soul.

68A 14 9 The eye of the covetous man is insatiable in his portion of iniquity: he will not be satisfied till he consume his own soul, drying it up.

68A 14 10 An evil eye is towards evil things: and he shall not have his fill of bread, but shall be needy and pensive at his own table.

68A 14 11 My son, if thou have any thing, do good to thyself, and offer to God worthy offerings.

68A 14 12 Remember that death is not slow, and that the covenant of hell hath been shewn to thee: for the covenant of this world shall surely die.

68A 14 13 Do good to thy friend before thou die, and according to thy ability, stretching out thy hand give to the poor.

68A 14 14 Defraud not thyself of the good day, and let not the part of a good gift overpass thee.

68A 14 15 Shalt thou not leave to others to divide by lot thy sorrows and labours?

68A 14 16 Give and take, and justify thy soul.

68A 14 17 Before thy death work justice: for in hell there is no finding food.

68A 14 18 All flesh shall fade as grass, and as the leaf that springeth out on a green tree.

68A 14 19 Some grow, and some fall off: so is the generation of flesh and blood, one cometh to an end, and another is born.

68A 14 20 Every work that is corruptible shall fail in the end: and the worker thereof shall go with it.

68A 14 21 And every excellent work shall be justified: and the worker thereof shall be honoured therein.

68A 14 22 Blessed is the man that shall continue in wisdom, and that shall meditate in his justice, and in his mind shall think of the all seeing eye of God.

68A 14 23 He that considereth her ways in his heart, and hath understanding in her secrets, who goeth after her as one that traceth, and stayeth in her ways:

68A 14 24 He who looketh in at her windows, and hearkeneth at her door:

68A 14 25 He that lodgeth near her house, and fastening a pin in her walls shall set up his tent nigh unto her, where good things shall rest in his lodging for ever.

68A 14 26 He shall set his children under her shelter, and shall lodge under her branches:

68A 14 27 He shall be protected under her covering from the heat, and shall rest in her glory.

68A 15 1 He that feareth God, will do good: and he that possesseth justice, shall lay hold on her, 68A 15 2 And she will meet him as an honourable mother, and will receive him as a wife married of a virgin.

68A 15 3 With the bread of life and understanding, she shall feed him, and give him the water of wholesome wisdom to drink: and she shall be made strong in him, and he shall not be moved:

68A 15 4 And she shall hold him fast, and he shall not be confounded: and she shall exalt him among his neighbours.

68A 15 5 And in the midst of the church she shall open his mouth, and shall fill him with the spirit of wisdom and understanding, and shall clothe him with a robe of glory.

68A 15 6 She shall heap upon him a treasure of joy and gladness, and shall cause him to inherit an everlasting name.

68A 15 7 But foolish men shall not obtain her, and wise men shall meet her, foolish men shall not see her: for she is far from pride and deceit.

68A 15 8 Lying men shall not be mindful of her: but men that speak truth shall be found with her, and shall advance, even till they come to the sight of God.

68A 15 9 Praise is not seemly in the mouth of a sinner:

68A 15 10 For wisdom came forth from God: for praise shall be with the wisdom of God, and shall abound in a faithful mouth, and the sovereign Lord will give praise unto it.

68A 15 11 Say not: It is through God, that she is not with me: for do not thou the things that he hateth.

68A 15 12 Say not: He hath caused me to err: for he hath no need of wicked men.

68A 15 13 The Lord hateth all abomination of error, and they that fear him shall not love it.

68A 15 14 God made man from the beginning, and left him in the hand of his own counsel.

68A 15 15 He added his commandments and precepts.

68A 15 16 If thou wilt keep the commandments and perform acceptable fidelity for ever, they shall preserve thee.

68A 15 17 He hath set water and fire before thee: stretch forth thy hand to which thou wilt.

68A 15 18 Before man is life and death, good and evil, that which he shall choose shall be given him:

68A 15 19 For the wisdom of God is great, and he is strong in power, seeing all men without ceasing.

68A 15 20 The eyes of the Lord are towards them that fear him, and he knoweth all the work of man.
 68A 15 21 He hath commanded no man to do wickedly, and he hath given no man license to sin:
 68A 15 22 For he desireth not a multitude of faithless and unprofitable children.
 68A 16 1 Rejoice not in ungodly children, if they be multiplied: neither be delighted in them, if the fear of God be not with them.
 68A 16 2 Trust not to their life, and respect not their labours.
 68A 16 3 For better is one that feareth God, than a thousand ungodly children.
 68A 16 4 And it is better to die without children, than to leave ungodly children.
 68A 16 5 By one that is wise a country shall be inhabited, the tribe of the ungodly shall become desolate.
 68A 16 6 Many such things hath my eyes seen, and greater things than these my ear hath heard.
 68A 16 7 In the congregation of sinners a fire shall be kindled, and in an unbelieving nation wrath shall dame out.
 68A 16 8 The ancient giants did not obtain pardon for their sine, who were destroyed trusting to their own strength:
 68A 16 9 And he spared not the place where Lot sojourned, but abhorred them for the pride of their word.
 68A 16 10 He had not pity on them, destroying the whole nation that extolled themselves in their sine.
 68A 16 11 So did he with the six hundred thousand footmen, who were gathered together in the hardness of their heart: and if one had been stiffnecked, it is a wonder if he had escaped unpunished:
 68A 16 12 For mercy and wrath are with him. He is mighty to forgive, and to pour out indignation:
 68A 16 13 According as his mercy is, so his correction judgeth a man according to his works.
 68A 16 14 The sinner shall not escape in his rapines, and the patience of him that sheweth mercy shall not be put off.
 68A 16 15 All mercy shall make a place for every man according to the merit of his works, and according to the wisdom of his sojournment.
 68A 16 16 Say not: I shall be hidden from God. and who shall remember me from on high?
 68A 16 17 In such a multitude I shall not be known: for what is my soul in such an immense creation?
 68A 16 18 Behold the heaven, and the heavens of heavens, the deep, and all the earth, and the things that are in them, shall be moved in his sight,
 68A 16 19 The mountains also, and the hills, end the foundations of the earth: when God shall look upon them, they shall be shaken with trembling.
 68A 16 20 And in all these things the heart is senseless: and every heart is understood by him:
 68A 16 21 And his ways who shall understand, and the storm, which no eye of man see?
 68A 16 22 For many of his works are hidden: hut the works of his justice who shall declare? or who shall endure? for the testament is far from some, and the examination of all is in the end.
 68A 16 23 He that wanteth understanding thinketh vain things: and the foolish, and erring man, thinketh foolish things.
 68A 16 24 Harken to me, my son, and learn the discipline of understanding, and attend to my words in thy heart.
 68A 16 25 And I will shew forth good doctrine in equity, and will seek to declare wisdom: and attend to my words in thy heart, whilst with equity of spirit I tell thee the virtues that God hath put upon his works from the beginning, and I shew forth in truth his knowledge.

68A 16 26 The works of God are done in judgment from the beginning, and from the making of them he distinguished their parts, and their beginnings in their generations.

68A 16 27 He beautified their works for ever, they have neither hungered, nor laboured, and they have not ceased from their works.

68A 16 28 Nor shall any of them straiten his neighbour at any time.

68A 16 29 Be not thou incredulous to his word.

68A 16 30 After this God looked upon the earth, and filled it with his goods.

68A 16 31 The soul of every living thing hath shewn forth before the face thereof, and into it they return again.

68A 17 1 God created man of the earth, and made him after his own image.

68A 17 2 And he turned him into it again, and clothed him with strength according to himself.

68A 17 3 He gave him the number of his days and time, and gave him power over all things that are upon the earth.

68A 17 4 He put the fear of him upon all flesh, and he had dominion over beasts and fowls.

68A 17 5 He created of him a helpmate like to himself: he gave them counsel, and a tongue, and eyes, and ears, and a heart to devise: and he filled them with the knowledge of understanding.

68A 17 6 He created in them the science of the spirit, he filled their heart with wisdom, and shewed them both good and evil.

68A 17 7 He set his eye upon their hearts to shew them the greatness of his works:

68A 17 8 That they might praise the name which he hath sanctified: and glory in his wondrous acts, that they might declare the glorious things of his works.

68A 17 9 Moreover he gave them instructions, and the law of life for an inheritance.

68A 17 10 He made an everlasting covenant with them, and he shewed them his justice and judgments.

68A 17 11 And their eye saw the majesty of his glory. and their ears heard his glorious voice, and he said to them: Beware of all iniquity.

68A 17 12 And he gave to every one of them commandment concerning his neighbour.

68A 17 13 Their ways are always before him, they are not hidden from his eyes.

68A 17 14 Over every nation he set a ruler.

68A 17 15 And Israel was made the manifest portion of God.

68A 17 16 And all their works are as the sun in the sight of God: and his eyes are continually upon their ways.

68A 17 17 Their covenants were not hid by their iniquity, and all their iniquities are in the sight of God.

68A 17 18 The alms of a man is as a signet with him, and shall preserve the grace of a man as the apple of the eye:

68A 17 19 And afterward he shall rise up, and shall render them their reward, to every one upon their own head, and shall turn them down into the bowels of the earth.

68A 17 20 But to the penitent he hath given the way of justice, and he hath strengthened them that were fainting in patience, and hath appointed to them the lot of truth.

68A 17 21 Turn to the Lord, and forsake thy sins:

68A 17 22 Make thy prayer before the face of the Lord, and offend less.

68A 17 23 Return to the Lord, and turn away from thy injustice, and greatly hate abomination.

68A 17 24 And know the justices and judgments of God, and stand firm in the lot set before thee, and in prayer to the most high God.

68A 17 25 Go to the side of the holy age, with them that live and give praise to God.

68A 17 26 Tarry not in the error of the ungodly, give glory before death. Praise perisheth from the dead as nothing.

68A 17 27 Give thanks whilst thou art living, whilst thou art alive and in health thou shalt give thanks, and shalt praise God, and shalt glory in his mercies.

68A 17 28 How great is the mercy of the Lord, and his forgiveness to them that turn to him I 68A 17 29 For all things cannot be in men, because the son of man is not immortal, and they are delighted with the vanity of evil.

68A 17 30 What is brighter than the sun; yet it shall be eclipsed. Or what is more wicked than that which flesh and blood hath invented? and this shall be reprov'd.

68A 17 31 He beholdeth the power of the height of heaven: and all men are earth and ashes.

68A 18 1 He that liveth for ever created all things together. God only shall be justified, and he remaineth an invincible king for ever.

68A 18 2 Who is able to declare his works?

68A 18 3 For who shall search out his glorious acts?

68A 18 4 And who shall shew forth the power of his majesty? or who shall be able to declare his mercy?

68A 18 5 Nothing may be taken away, nor added, neither is it possible to find out the glorious works of God:

68A 18 6 When a man hath done, then shall he begin: and when he leaveth off, he shall be at a loss.

68A 18 7 What is man, and what is his grace? and what is his good, or what is his evil?

68A 18 8 The number of the days of men at the most are a hundred years: as a drop of water of the sea are they esteemed: and as a pebble of the sand, so are a few years compared to eternity.

68A 18 9 Therefore God is patient in them, and poureth forth his mercy upon them.

68A 18 10 He hath seen the presumption of their heart that it is wicked, and hath known their end that it is evil.

68A 18 11 Therefore hath he filled up his mercy in their favour, and hath shewn them the way of justice.

68A 18 12 The compassion of man is toward his neighbour: but the mercy of God is upon all flesh.

68A 18 13 He hath mercy, and teacheth, and correcteth, as a shepherd doth his flock.

68A 18 14 He hath mercy on him that receiveth the discipline of mercy, and that maketh haste in his judgments.

68A 18 15 My son, in thy good deeds, make no complaint, and when thou givest any thing, add not grief by an evil word.

68A 18 16 Shall not the dew assuage the heat? so also the good word is better than the gift.

68A 18 17 Lo, is not a word better than a gift? but both are with a justified man.

68A 18 18 A fool will upbraid bitterly: and a gift of one ill taught consumeth the eyes.

68A 18 19 Before judgment prepare thee justice, and learn before thou speak.

68A 18 20 Before sickness take a medicine, and before judgment examine thyself, and thou shalt find mercy in the sight of God.

68A 18 21 Humble thyself before thou art sick, and in the time of sickness shew thy conversation.

68A 18 22 Let nothing hinder thee from praying always, and be not afraid to be justified even to death: for the reward of God continueth for ever.

68A 18 23 Before prayer prepare thy soul: and be not as a man that tempteth God.

68A 18 24 Remember the wrath that shall be at the last day, and the time of repaying when he shall turn away his face.

68A 18 25 Remember poverty is the time of abundance, and the necessities of poverty in the day of riches.

68A 18 26 From the morning until the evening the time shall be changed, and all these are swift in the eyes of God.

68A 18 27 A wise man will fear in every thing, and in the days of sine will beware of sloth.

68A 18 28 Every man of understanding knoweth wisdom, and will give praise to him that findeth her.

68A 18 29 They that were of good understanding in words, have also done wisely themselves: and have understood truth and justice, and have poured forth pro- verbs and judgments.

68A 18 30 Go not after thy lusts, but turn away from thy own will.

68A 18 31 If thou give to thy soul her desires, she will make thee a joy to thy enemies.

68A 18 32 Take no pleasure in riotous assemblies, be they ever so small: for their concertation is continual.

68A 18 33 Make not thyself poor by borrowing to contribute to feasts when thou hast nothing in thy purse : for thou shalt be an enemy to thy own life.

68A 19 1 Hast thou heard a word against thy neighbour? let it die within thee, trusting that it will not burst thee.

68A 19 11 At the hearing of a word the fool is in travail, as a woman groaning. in the bringing forth a child.

68A 19 12 As an arrow that sticketh in a man's thigh: so is a word in the heart of a fool.

68A 19 13 Reprove a friend, lest he may not have understood, and say : f did it not: or if he did it, that he may do it no more.

68A 19 14 Reprove thy neighbour, for it may be he hath not said it: and if he hath said it, that he may not say it again.

68A 19 15 Admonish thy friend: for there is often a fault committed.

68A 19 16 And believe not every word. There is one, that slippeth with the tongue, but not from his heart.

68A 19 17 For who is there that hath not offended with his tongue? Admonish thy neighbour before thou threaten him.

68A 19 18 And give place to the fear of the most High: for the fear of God is all wisdom, and therein is to fear God, and the disposition of the law is in all wisdom.

68A 19 19 But the learning of wickedness is not wisdom: and the device of sinners is not prudence.

68A 19 20 There is a subtle wickedness, and the same is detestable: and there is a man that is foolish, wanting in wisdom.

68A 19 21 Better is a man that hath less wisdom, and wanteth understanding, with the fear of God, than he that aboundeth in understanding, and transgresseth the law of the most High.

68A 19 22 There is an exquisite subtilty, and the same is unjust.

68A 19 23 And there is one that uttereth an exact word telling the truth. There is one that humbleth himself wickedly, and his interior is full of deceit:

68A 19 24 And there is one that submitteth himself exceedingly with a great lowliness: and there is one that casteth down his countenance, and maketh as if he did not see that which is unknown:

68A 19 25 And if he be hindered from sinning for want of power, if he shall find opportunity to do evil, he will do it.

68A 19 26 A man is known by his look, and a wise man, when thou meetest him, is known by his countenance.

68A 19 27 The attire of the body, and the laughter of the teeth, and the gait of the man, shew what he is.

68A 19 28 There is a lying rebuke in the anger of an injurious man: and there is a judgment that is not allowed to be good: and there is one that holdeth his peace, he is wise.

68A 20 1 How much better is it to reprove, than to be angry, and not to hinder him that confesseth in prayer.

68A 20 2 The lust of an eunuch shall devour a young maiden:

68A 20 3 So is he that by violence executeth unjust judgment.

68A 20 4 How good is it, when thou art reproved, to shew repentance! for so thou shalt escape wilful sin.

68A 20 5 There is one that holdeth his peace, that is found wise: and there is another that is hateful, that is bold in speech.

68A 20 6 There is one that holdeth his peace, because he knoweth not what to say: and there is another that holdeth his peace, knowing the proper time.

68A 20 7 A wise man will hold his peace till he see opportunity: but a babbler, and a fool, will regard no time.

68A 20 8 He that useth many words shall hurt his own soul: and he that taketh authority to himself unjustly shall be hated.

68A 20 9 There is success in evil things to a man without discipline, and there is a finding that turneth to loss.

68A 20 10 There is a gift that is not profitable: and there is a gift, the recompense of which is double.

68A 20 11 There is an abasement because of glory: and there is one that shall lift up his head from a low estate.

68A 20 12 There is that buyeth much for a small price, and restoreth the same sevenfold.

68A 20 13 A man wise in words shall make himself beloved: but the graces of fools shall be poured out.

68A 20 14 The gift of the fool shall do thee no good: for his eyes are sevenfold.

68A 20 15 He will give a few things, and upbraid much: and the opening of his mouth is the kindling of a fire.

68A 20 16 To day a man lendeth, and to morrow he asketh it again: such a man as this is hateful.

68A 20 17 A fool shall have no friend, and there shall be no thanks for his good deeds.

68A 20 18 For they that eat his bread, are of a false tongue. How often, and how many will laugh him to scorn!

68A 20 19 For he doth not distribute with right understanding that which was to be had: in like manner also that which was not to be had.

68A 20 20 The slipping of a false tongue is as one that falleth on the pavement: so the fall of the wicked shall come speedily.

68A 20 21 A man without grace is as a vain fable, it shall be continually in the mouth of the unwise.

68A 20 22 A parable coming out, of a fool's mouth shall be rejected: for he doth not speak it in due season.

68A 20 23 There is that is hindered from sinning through want, and in his rest he shall be pricked.

68A 20 24 There is that will destroy his own soul through shamefacedness, and by occasion of an unwise person he will destroy it: and by respect of person he will destroy himself.

68A 20 25 There is that for bashfulness promiseth to his friend, and maketh him his enemy for nothing.

68A 20 26 A lie is a foul blot in a man, and yet it will be continually in the mouth of men without discipline.

68A 20 27 A thief is better than a man that is always lying: but both of them shall inherit destruction.

68A 20 28 The manners of lying men are without honour: and their confusion is with them without ceasing.

68A 20 29 A wise man shall advance himself with his words, and a prudent man shall please the great ones.

68A 20 30 He that tilleth his land shall make a high heap of corn: and he that worketh justice shall be exalted: and he that pleaseth great men shall escape iniquity.

68A 20 31 Presents and gifts blind the eyes of judges, and make them dumb in the mouth, so that they cannot correct.

68A 20 32 Wisdom that is hid, and treasure that is not seen: what profit is there in them both?

68A 20 33 Better is he that hideth his folly, than the man that hideth his wisdom.

68A 21 1 My son, hast thou sinned? do so no more: but for thy former sins also pray that they may be forgiven thee.

68A 21 2 Flee from sins as from the face of a serpent: for if thou comest near them, they will take hold of thee.

68A 21 3 The teeth thereof are the teeth of a lion, killing the souls of men.

68A 21 4 All iniquity is like a two-edged sword, there is no remedy for the wound thereof.

68A 21 5 Injuries and wrongs will waste riches: and the house that is very rich shall be brought to nothing by pride : so the substance of the proud shall be rooted out.

68A 21 6 The prayer out of the mouth of the poor shall reach the ears of God, and judgment shall come for him speedily.

68A 21 7 He that hateth to be reproved walketh in the trace of a sinner: and he that feareth God will turn to his own heart.

68A 21 8 He that is mighty by a bold tongue is known afar off, but a wise man knoweth to slip by him.

68A 21 9 He that buildeth his house at other men's charges, is as he that gathereth himself stones to build in the winter.

68A 21 10 The congregation of sinners is like tow heaped together, and the end of them is a flame of fire.

68A 21 11 The way of sinners is made plain with stones, and in their end is hell, and darkness, and pains.

68A 21 12 He that keepeth justice shall get the understanding thereof.

68A 21 13 The perfection of the fear of God is wisdom and understanding.

68A 21 14 He that is not wise in good, will not be taught.

68A 21 15 But there is a wisdom that aboundeth in evil : and there is no understanding where there is bitterness.

68A 21 16 The knowledge of a wise man shall abound like a flood, and his counsel continueth like a fountain of life.

68A 21 17 The heart of a fool is like a broken vessel, and no wisdom at all shall it hold.

68A 21 18 A man of sense will praise every wise word he shall hear, and will apply it to himself: the luxurious man hath heard it, and it shall displease him, and he will cast it behind his back.

68A 21 19 The talking of a fool is like a burden in the way: but in the lips of the wise, grace shall be found.

68A 21 20 The mouth of the prudent is sought after in the church, and they will think upon his words in their hearts.

68A 21 21 As a house that is destroyed, so is wisdom to a fool : and the knowledge of the unwise is as words without sense.

68A 21 22 Doctrine to a fool is as fetters on the feet, and like manacles on the right hand.

68A 21 23 A fool lifteth up his voice in laughter: but a wise man will scarce laugh low to himself.

68A 21 24 Learning to the prudent is as an ornament of gold, and like a bracelet upon his right arm.

68A 21 25 The foot of a fool is soon in his neighbour's house: but a man of experience will be abashed at the person of the mighty.

68A 21 26 A fool will peep through the window into the house: but he that is well taught will stand without.

68A 21 27 It is the folly of a man to hearken at the door: and a wise man will be grieved with the disgrace.

68A 21 28 The lips of the unwise will be telling foolish things but the words of the wise shall be weighed in a balance.

68A 21 29 The heart of fools is in their mouth: and the mouth of wise men is in their heart.

68A 21 30 While the ungodly curseth the devil, he curseth his own soul.

68A 21 31 The talebearer shall defile his own soul, and shall be hated by all: and he that shall abide with him shall be hateful: the silent and wise man shall be honoured.

68A 22 1 The sluggard is pelted with a dirty stone, and all men will speak of his disgrace.

68A 22 2 The sluggard is pelted with the dung of oxen: and every one that toucheth him will shake his hands.

68A 22 3 A son ill taught is the confusion of the father: and a foolish daughter shall be to his loss.

68A 22 4 A wise daughter shall bring an inheritance to her husband: but she that confoundeth, becometh a disgrace to her father.

68A 22 5 She that is bold shameth both her father and husband, and will not be inferior to the ungodly: and shall be disgraced by them both.

68A 22 6 A tale out of time is like music in mourning: but the stripes and instruction of wisdom are never out of time.

68A 22 7 He that teacheth a fool, is like one that glueth a potsherd together.

68A 22 8 He that telleth a word to him that heareth not, is like one that waketh a man out of a deep sleep.

68A 22 9 He speaketh with one that is asleep, who uttereth wisdom to a fool: and in the end of the discourse he saith: Who is this?

68A 22 10 Weep for the dead, for his light hath failed: and weep for the fool, for his understanding faileth.

68A 22 11 Weep but a little for the dead, for he is at rest.

68A 22 12 For the wicked life of a wicked fool is worse than death.

68A 22 13 The mourning for the dead is seven days: but for a fool and an ungodly man all the days of their life.

68A 22 14 Talk not much with a fool, and go not with him that hath no sense.

68A 22 15 Keep thyself from him, that thou mayst not have trouble, and thou shalt not be defiled with his sin.

68A 22 16 Turn away from him, and thou shalt find rest, and shalt not be wearied out with his folly.

68A 22 17 What is heavier than lead? and what other name hath he but fool?

68A 22 18 Sand and salt, and a mass of iron is easier to bear, than a man without sense, that is both foolish and wicked.

68A 22 19 A frame of wood bound together in the foundation of a building, shall not be loosed: so neither shall the heart that is established by advised counsel.

68A 22 20 The thought of him that is wise at all times, shall not be depraved by fear.

68A 22 21 As pales set in high places, and plasterings made without cost, will not stand against the face of the wind:

68A 22 22 So also a fearful heart in the imagination of a fool shall not resist against the violence of fear.

68A 22 23 As a fearful heart in the thought of a fool at all times will not fear, so neither shall he that continueth always in the commandments of God.

68A 22 24 He that pricketh the eye, bringeth out tears: and he that pricketh the heart, bringeth forth resentment.

68A 22 25 He that flingeth a stone at birds, shall drive them away: so he that upbraideth his friend, breaketh friendship.

68A 22 26 Although thou hast drawn a sword at a friend, despair not: for there may be a returning. To a friend, 68A 22 27 If thou hast opened a sad mouth, fear not, for there may be a reconciliation: except upbraiding, and reproach, and pride, and disclosing of secrets, or a treacherous wound: for in all these cases a friend will flee away.

68A 22 28 Keep fidelity with a friend in his poverty, that in his prosperity also thou mayst rejoice.

68A 22 29 In the time of his trouble continue faithful to him, that thou mayst also be heir with him in his inheritance.

68A 22 30 As the vapour of a chimney, and the smoke of the fire goeth up before the fire: so also injurious words, and reproaches, and threats, before blood.

68A 22 31 I will not be ashamed to salute a friend, neither will I hide myself from his face: and if any evil happen to me by him, I will bear it.

68A 22 32 But every one that shall hear it, will beware of him.

68A 22 33 Who will set a guard before my mouth, and a sure seal upon my lips, that I fall not by them, and that my tongue destroy me not?

68A 23 1 And let not the naming of God be usual in thy mouth, and meddle not with the names of saints, for thou shalt not escape free from them.

68A 23 11 For as a slave daily put to the question, is never without a blue mark: so every one that sweareth, and nameth, shall not be wholly pure from sin.

68A 23 12 A man that sweareth much, shall be filled with iniquity, and a scourge shall not depart from his house.

68A 23 13 And if he make it void, his sin shall be upon him: and if he dissemble it, he offendeth double:

68A 23 14 And if he swear in vain, he shall not be justified: for his house shall be filled with his punishment.

68A 23 15 There is also another speech opposite to death, let it not be found in the inheritance of Jacob.

68A 23 16 For from the merciful all these things shall be taken away, and they shall not wallow in sins.

68A 23 17 Let not thy mouth be accustomed to indiscreet speech: for therein is the word of sin.

68A 23 18 Remember thy father and thy mother, for thou sittest in the midst of great men:

68A 23 19 Lest God forget thee in their sight, and thou, by thy daily custom, be infatuated and suffer reproach: and wish that thou hadst not been born, and curse the day of thy nativity.

68A 23 20 The man that is accustomed to opprobrious words, will never be corrected all the days of his life.

68A 23 21 Two sorts of men multiply sins, and the third bringeth wrath and destruction.

68A 23 22 A hot soul is a burning fire, it will never be quenched, till it devour some thing.

68A 23 23 And a man that is wicked in the mouth of his flesh, will not leave off till he hath kindled a fire.

68A 23 24 To a man that is a fornicator all bread is sweet, he will not be weary of sinning unto the end.

68A 23 25 Every man that passeth beyond his own bed, despising his own soul, and saying: Who seeth me?

68A 23 26 Darkness compasseth me about, and the walls cover me, and no man seeth me: whom do I fear? the most High will not remember my sins.

68A 23 27 And he understandeth not that his eye seeth all things, for such a man's fear driveth from him the fear of God, and the eyes of men fearing him:

68A 23 28 And he knoweth not that the eyes of the Lord are far brighter than the sun, beholding round about all the ways of men, and the bottom of the deep, and looking into the hearts of men, into the most hidden parts.

68A 23 29 For all things were known to the Lord God, before they were created: so also after they were perfected he beholdeth all things.

68A 23 30 This man shall be punished in the streets of the city, and he shall be chased as a colt: and where he suspected not, he shall be taken.

68A 23 31 And he shall be in disgrace with all men, because he understood not the fear of the Lord.

68A 23 32 So every woman also that leaveth her husband, and bringeth in an heir by another :

68A 23 33 For first she hath been unfaithful to the law of the most High: and secondly, she hath offended against her husband: thirdly, she hath fornicated in adultery, and hath gotten her children of another man.

68A 23 34 This woman shall be brought into the assembly, and inquisition shall be made of her children.

68A 23 35 Her children shall not take root, and her branches shall bring forth no fruit.

68A 23 36 She shall leave her memory to be cursed, and her infamy shall not be blotted out.

68A 23 37 And they that remain shall know. that there is nothing better than the fear of God: and that there is nothing sweeter than to have regard to the commandments of the Lord.

68A 23 38 It is great glory to follow the Lord for length of days shall be received from him.

68A 24 1 Wisdom shall praise her own self, and shall be honoured in God, and shall glory in the midst of her people,

68A 24 2 And shall open her mouth in the churches of the most High, and shall glorify herself in the sight of his power, 68A 24 3 And in the midst of her own people she shall be exalted, and shall be admired in the holy assembly.

68A 24 4 And in the multitude of the elect she shall have praise, and among the blessed she shall be blessed, saying:

68A 24 5 I came out of the mouth of the most High, the firstborn before all creatures:

68A 24 6 I made that in the heavens there should rise light that never faileth, and as a cloud I covered all the earth:

68A 24 7 I dwelt in the highest places, and my throne is in a pillar of a cloud.

68A 24 8 I alone have compassed the circuit of heaven, and have penetrated into the bottom of the deep, and have walked in the waves of the sea,

68A 24 9 And have stood in all the earth: and in every people,

68A 24 10 And in every nation I have had the chief rule:

68A 24 11 And by my power I have trodden under my feet the hearts of all the high and low: and in all these I sought rest, and I shall abide in the inheritance of the Lord.

68A 24 12 Then the creator of all things commanded, and said to me: and he that made me, rested in my tabernacle, 68A 24 13 And he said to me: Let thy dwelling be in Jacob, and thy inheritance in Israel, and take root in my elect.

68A 24 14 From the beginning, and before the world, was I created, and unto the world to come I shall not cease to be, and in the holy dwelling place I have ministered before him.

68A 24 15 And so was I established in Sion, and in the holy city likewise I rested, and my power was in Jerusalem.

68A 24 16 And I took root in an honourable people, and in the portion of mg God his inheritance, and my abode is in the full assembly of saints.

68A 24 17 I was exalted like a cedar in Libanus, and as a cypress tree on mount Sion.

68A 24 18 I was exalted like a palm tree in Cades, and as a rose plant in Jericho:

68A 24 19 As a fair olive tree in the plains, and as a plane tree by the water in the streets, was I exalted.

68A 24 20 I gave a sweet smell like cinnamon. and aromatical balm: I yielded a sweet odour like the best myrrh:

68A 24 21 And I perfumed my dwelling as storax, and galbanum, and onyx, and aloes, and as the frankincense not cut, and my odour is as the purest balm.

68A 24 22 I have stretched out my branches as the turpentine tree, and my branches are of honour and grace.

68A 24 23 As the vine I have brought forth a pleasant odour: and my flowers are the fruit of honour and riches.

68A 24 24 I am the mother of fair love, and of fear, and of knowledge, and of holy hope.

68A 24 25 In me is all grace of the way and of the truth, in me is all hope of life and of virtue.

68A 24 26 Come over to me, all ye that desire me, and be filled with my fruits.

68A 24 27 For my spirit is sweet above honey, and my inheritance above honey and the honeycomb.

68A 24 28 My memory is unto everlasting generations.

68A 24 29 They that eat me, shall yet hunger: and they that drink me, shall yet thirst.

68A 24 30 He that hearkeneth to me, shall not be confounded: and they that work by me, shall not sin.

68A 24 31 They that explain me shall have life everlasting.

68A 24 32 All these things are the book of life, and the covenant of the most High, and the knowledge of truth.

68A 24 33 Moses commanded a law in the precepts of justices, and an inheritance to the house of Jacob, and the promises to Israel.

68A 24 34 He appointed to David his servant to raise up of him a most mighty king, and sitting on the throne of glory for ever.

68A 24 35 Who filleth up wisdom as the Phison, and as the Tigris in the days of the new fruits.

68A 24 36 Who maketh understanding to abound as the Euphrates, who multiplieth it as the Jordan in the time of harvest.

68A 24 37 Who sendeth knowledge as the light, and riseth up as Gehon in the time of the vintage.

68A 24 38 Who first hath perfect knowledge of her, and a weaker shall not search her out.

68A 24 39 For her thoughts are more vast than the sea, and her counsels more deep than the great ocean.

68A 24 40 I, wisdom, have poured out rivers.

68A 24 41 I, like a brook out of a river of a mighty water; I, like a channel of a river. and like an aqueduct, came out of paradise.

68A 24 42 I said: I will water my garden of plants, and I will water abundantly the fruits of my meadow.

68A 24 43 And behold my brook became a great river, and my river came near to a sea:

68A 24 44 For I make doctrine to shine forth to all as the morning light, and I will declare it afar off.

68A 24 45 I will penetrate to all the lower parts of the earth, and will behold all that sleep, and will enlighten all that hope in the Lord.

68A 24 46 I will yet pour out doctrine as prophecy, and will leave it to them that seek wisdom, and will not cease to instruct their offspring even to the holy age.

68A 24 47 See ye that I have not laboured for myself only, but for all that seek out the truth.

68A 25 1 With three things my spirit is pleased, which are approved before God and men:

68A 25 2 The concord of brethren, and the love of neighbours, and mall and wife that agree well together.

68A 25 3 Three sorts my soul hateth, and I am greatly grieved at their life:

68A 25 4 A poor man that is proud: a rich man that is a liar: an old man that is a fool, and doting.

68A 25 5 The things that thou hast not gathered in thy youth, how shalt thou find them in thy old age?

68A 25 6 O how comely is judgment for a grey head, and for ancients to know counsel!

68A 25 7 O how comely is wisdom for the aged, and understanding and counsel to men of honour!

68A 25 8 Much experience is the crown of old men, and the fear of God is their glory.

68A 25 9 Nine things that are not to be imagined by the heart have I magnified, and the tenth I will utter to men with my tongue.

68A 25 10 A man that hath joy of his children: and he that liveth and seeth the fall of his enemies.

68A 25 11 Blessed is he. that dwelleth with a wise woman, and that hath not slipped with his tongue, and that hath not served such as are unworthy of him.

68A 25 12 Blessed is he that findeth a true friend, and that declareth justice to an ear that heareth.

68A 25 13 How great is he that findeth wisdom and knowledge! but there is none above him that feareth the Lord.

68A 25 14 The fear of God hath set itself above all things:

68A 25 15 Blessed is the man, to whom it is given to have the fear of God: he that holdeth it, to whom shall he be likened?

68A 25 16 The fear of God is the beginning of his love: and the beginning of faith is to be fast joined unto it.

68A 25 17 The sadness of the heart is every plague: and the wickedness of a woman is all evil.

68A 25 18 And a man will choose any plague, but the plague of the heart:

68A 25 19 And ally wickedness, but the wickedness of a woman:

68A 25 20 And any affliction, but the affliction from them that hate him:

68A 25 21 And ally revenge, but the revenge of enemies.

68A 25 22 There is no head worse than the head of a serpent:

68A 25 23 And there is no anger above the anger of a woman. It will be more agreeable to abide with a lion and a dragon, than to dwell with a wicked woman.

68A 25 24 The wickedness of a woman changeth her face: and she darkeneth her countenance as a bear: and sheweth it like sackcloth. In the midst of her neighbours, 68A 25 25 Her husband groaned, and hearing he sighed a little.

68A 25 26 All malice is shore to the malice of a woman, let the lot of sinners fall upon her.

68A 25 27 As the climbing of a sandy way is to the feet of the aged, so is a wife full of tongue to a quiet man.

68A 25 28 Look not upon a woman's beauty, and desire not a woman for beauty.

68A 25 29 A woman's anger, and impudence, and confusion is great.

68A 25 30 A woman, if she have superiority, is contrary to her husband.

68A 25 31 A wicked woman abateth the courage, and maketh a heavy countenance, and a wounded heart.

- 68A 25 32 Feeble hands, and disjointed knees, a woman that doth not make her husband happy.
- 68A 25 33 From the woman came the beginning of sin, and by her we all die.
- 68A 25 34 Give no issue to thy water, no, not a little: nor to a wicked woman liberty to gad abroad.
- 68A 25 35 If she walk not at thy hand, she will confound thee in the sight of thy enemies.
- 68A 25 36 Cut her off from thy flesh, lest she always abuse thee.
- 68A 26 1 Happy is the husband of a good wife: for the number of his years is double.
- 68A 26 2 A virtuous woman rejoiceth her husband: and shall fulfil the years of his life in peace.
- 68A 26 3 A good wife is a good portion, she shall be given in the portion of them that fear God, to a man for his good deeds.
- 68A 26 4 Rich or poor, if his heart is good, his countenance shall be cheerful at all times.
- 68A 26 5 Of three things my heart hath been afraid, and at the fourth my face hath trembled:
- 68A 26 6 The accusation of a city, and the gathering together of the people:
- 68A 26 7 And a false calumny, all are more grievous than death.
- 68A 26 8 A jealous woman is the grief and mourning of the heart.
- 68A 26 9 With a jealous woman is a scourge of the tongue which communicateth with all.
- 68A 26 10 As a yoke of oxen that is moved to and fro, so also is a wicked woman: he that hath hold of her, is as he that taketh hold of a scorpion.
- 68A 26 11 A drunken woman is a great wrath: and her reproach and shame shall not be hid.
- 68A 26 12 The fornication of a woman shall be known by the haughtiness of her eyes, and by her eyelids.
- 68A 26 13 On a daughter that turneth not away herself, set a strict watch: lest finding an opportunity she abuse herself.
- 68A 26 14 Take heed of the impudence of her eyes, and wonder not if she slight thee.
- 68A 26 15 She will open her mouth as a thirsty traveller to the fountain, and will drink of every water near her, and will sit down by every hedge, and open her quiver against every arrow, until she fail.
- 68A 26 16 The grace of a diligent woman shall delight her husband, and shall fat his bones.
- 68A 26 17 Her discipline is the gift of God.
- 68A 26 18 Such is a wise and silent woman, and there is nothing so much worth as a well instructed soul.
- 68A 26 19 A holy and shamefaced woman is grace upon grace.
- 68A 26 20 And no price is worthy of a continent soul.
- 68A 26 21 As the sun when it riseth to the world in the high places of God, so is the beauty of a good wife for the ornament of her house.
- 68A 26 22 As the lamp shining upon the holy candlestick, so is the beauty of the face in a ripe age.
- 68A 26 23 As golden pillars upon bases of silver, so are the firm feet upon the soles of a steady woman.
- 68A 26 24 As everlasting foundations upon a solid rock, so the commandments of God In the heart of a holy woman.
- 68A 26 25 At two things my heart is grieved, and the third bringeth anger upon me:
- 68A 26 26 A man of was fainting through poverty: and a man of sense despised:

68A 26 27 And he that passeth over from justice to sin, God hath prepared such an one for the sword.

68A 26 28 Two sorts of callings have appeared to me hard and dangerous: a merchant is hardly free from negligence: and a huckster shall not be justified from the sins of the lips.

68A 27 1 Through poverty many have sinned: and he that seeketh to be enriched, turneth away his eye.

68A 27 2 As a stake sticketh fast in the midst of the joining of stones, so also in the midst of selling and buying, sin shall stick fast.

68A 27 3 Sin shall be destroyed with the sinner.

68A 27 4 Unless thou hold thyself diligently in the fear of the Lord, thy house shall quickly be overthrown.

68A 27 5 As when one sifteth with a sieve, the dust will remain: so will the perplexity of a man in his thoughts.

68A 27 6 The furnace trieth the potter's vessels, and the trial of affliction just men.

68A 27 7 Be the dressing of a tree sheweth the fruit thereof, so a word out of the thought of the heart of man.

68A 27 8 Praise not a man before he speaketh, for this is the trial of men.

68A 27 9 If thou followest justice, thou shalt obtain her: and shalt put her on as a long robe of honour, and thou shalt dwell with her: and she shall protect thee for ever, and in the day of acknowledgment thou shalt find a strong foundation.

68A 27 10 Birds resort unto their like: so truth will return to them that practise her.

68A 27 11 The lion always lieth in wait for prey: so do sine for them that work iniquities.

68A 27 12 A holy man continueth in wisdom as the sun: but a fool is changed as the moon.

68A 27 13 In the midst of the unwise keep in the word till its time: but be continually among men that think.

68A 27 14 The discourse of sinners is hateful, and their laughter is at the pleasures of sin.

68A 27 15 The speech that sweareth much shall make the hair of the head stand upright: and its irreverence shall make one stop his ears.

68A 27 16 Is the quarrels of the proud is the shedding of blood: and their cursing is a grievous hearing.

68A 27 17 He that discloseth the secret of a friend loseth his credit, and shall never find a friend to his mind.

68A 27 18 Love thy neighbour, and be joined to him with fidelity.

68A 27 19 But if thou discover his secrets, follow no more after him.

68A 27 20 For as a man that destroyeth his friend, so also is he that destroyeth the friendship of his neighbour.

68A 27 21 And as one that letteth a bird go out of his hand, so hast thou let thy neighbour go, and thou shalt not get him again.

68A 27 22 Follow after him no more, for he is gone afar off, he is fled, as a roe escaped out of the snare: because his soul is wounded.

68A 27 23 Thou canst no more bind him up. And of a curse there is reconciliation:

68A 27 24 But to disclose the secrets of a friend, leaveth no hope to an unhappy soul.

68A 27 25 He that winketh with the eye forgeth wicked things, and no man will cast him off:

68A 27 26 In the sight of thy eyes he will sweeten his mouth, and will admire thy words: but at the last he will writhe his mouth, and on thy words he will lay a stumblingblock.

68A 27 27 I have hated many things, but not like him, and the Lord will hate him.

68A 27 28 If one cast a stone on high, it will fall upon his own head: and the deceitful stroke will wound the deceitful.

68A 27 29 He that diggeth a pit, shall fall into it: and he that setteth a stone for his neighbour, shall stumble upon it: and he that layeth a snare for another, shall perish in it.
 68A 27 30 A mischievous counsel shall be rolled back upon the author, and he shall not know from whence it cometh to him.
 68A 27 31 Mockery and reproach are of the proud, and vengeance as a lion shall lie in wait for him.
 68A 27 32 They shall perish in a snare that are delighted with the fall of the just: and sorrow shall consume them before they die.
 68A 27 33 Anger and fury are both of them abominable, and the sinful man shall be subject to them.
 68A 28 1 He that seeketh to revenge himself, shall find vengeance from the Lord, and he will surely keep his sins in remembrance.
 68A 28 2 Forgive thy neighbour if he hath hurl thee: and then shall thy sins be forgiven to thee when thou prayest.
 68A 28 3 Man to man reserveth anger, and doth he seek remedy of God?
 68A 28 4 He hath no mercy on a man like himself, and doth he entreat for his own sins?
 68A 28 5 He that is but flesh, nourisheth anger, and doth he ask forgiveness of God? who shall obtain pardon for his sins?
 68A 28 6 Remember thy last things, and let enmity cease:
 68A 28 7 For corruption and death hang over in his commandments.
 68A 28 8 Remember the fear of God, and be not angry with thy neighbour.
 68A 28 9 Remember the covenant of the most High, and overlook the ignorance of thy neighbour.
 68A 28 10 Refrain from strife, and thou shalt diminish thy sine:
 68A 28 11 For a passionate man kindleth strife, and a sinful man will trouble his friends, and bring in debate in the midst of them that are at peace.
 68A 28 12 For as the wood of the forest is, so the fire burneth: and as a man's strength is, so shall his anger be, and according to his riches he shall increase his anger.
 68A 28 13 A hasty contention kindleth a fire: and a hasty quarrel sheddeth blood: and a tongue that beareth witness bringeth death.
 68A 28 14 If thou blow the spark, it shall burn as a fire: and if thou spit upon it, it shall be quenched: both come out of the mouth.
 68A 28 15 The whisperer and the double tongued is accursed: for he hath troubled many that were at peace.
 68A 28 16 The tongue of a third person hath disquieted many, and scattered them from nation to nation.
 68A 28 17 It hath destroyed the strong cities of the rich, and hath overthrown the houses of great men.
 68A 28 18 It hath cut in pieces the forces of people, and undone strong nations.
 68A 28 19 The tongue of a third person hath cast out valiant women, and deprived them of their labours.
 68A 28 20 He that hearkeneth to it, shall never have rest, neither shall he have a friend in whom he may repose.
 68A 28 21 The stroke of a whip maketh a blue mark: but the stroke of the tongue will break the bones.
 68A 28 22 Many have fallen by the edge of the sword, but not so many as have perished by their own tongue.
 68A 28 23 Blessed is he that is defended from a wicked tongue, that hath not passed into the wrath thereof, and that hath not drawn the yoke thereof, and hath not been bound in its bands.
 68A 28 24 For its yoke is a yoke of iron: and its bands are bands of brass.
 68A 28 25 The death thereof is a most evil death: and hell is preferable to it.
 68A 28 26 Its continuance shall not be for a long time, but it shall possess the ways of the unjust: and the just shall not be burnt with its flame.

68A 28 27 They that forsake God shall fall into it, and it shall burn in them, and shall not be quenched, and it shall be sent upon them as a lion, and as a leopard it shall tear them.

68A 28 28 Hedge in thy ears with thorns, hear not a wicked tongue, and make doors and bars to thy mouth.

68A 28 29 Melt down thy gold and silver, and make a balance for thy words, and a just bridle for thy mouth:

68A 28 30 And take heed lest thou slip with thy tongue, and fall in the sight of thy enemies who lie in wait for thee, and thy fall be incurable unto death.

68A 29 1 He that sheweth mercy, lendeth to his neighbour: and he that is stronger in hand, keepeth the commandments.

68A 29 2 Lend to thy neighbour in the time of his need, and pay thou thy neighbour again in due time.

68A 29 3 Reap thy word, and deal faithfully with him: and thou shalt always find that which is necessary for thee.

68A 29 4 Many have looked upon a thing lent as a thing found, and have given trouble to them that helped them.

68A 29 5 Till they receive, they kiss the hands of the lender, and in promises they humble their voice:

68A 29 6 But when they should repay, they will ask time, and will return tedious and murmuring words, and will complain of the time:

68A 29 7 And if he be able to pay, he will stand off, he will scarce pay one half, and will count it as if he had found it:

68A 29 8 But if not, he will defraud him of his money, and he shall get him for an enemy without cause:

68A 29 9 And he will pay him with reproaches and curses, and instead of honour and good turn will repay him injuries.

68A 29 10 Many have refused to lend, not out of wickedness, but they were afraid to be defrauded without cause.

68A 29 11 But yet towards the poor be thou more hearty, and delay not to shew him mercy.

68A 29 12 Help the poor because of the commandment: and send him not away empty handed because of his poverty.

68A 29 13 Lose thy money for thy brother and thy friend: and hide it not under a stone to be lost.

68A 29 14 Place thy treasure in the commandments of the most High, and it shall bring thee more profit than gold.

68A 29 15 Shut up alms in the heart of the poor, and it shall obtain help for thee against all evil.

68A 29 16 Better than the shield of the mighty, and better than the spear:

68A 29 17 It shall fight for thee against thy enemy.

68A 29 18 A good man is surety for his neighbour: and he that hath lost shame, will leave him to himself.

68A 29 19 Forget not the kindness of thy surety: for he hath given his life for thee.

68A 29 20 The sinner and the unclean fleeth from his surety.

68A 29 21 A sinner attributeth to himself the goods of his surety: and he that is of an unthankful mind will leave him that delivered him.

68A 29 22 A man is surety for his neighbour: and when he hath lost all shame, he shall forsake him.

68A 29 23 Evil suretyship hath undone many of good estate, and hath tossed them as a wave of the sea.

68A 29 24 It hath made powerful men to go from place to place round about, and they have wandered in strange countries.

68A 29 25 A sinner that transgresseth the commandment of the Lord, shall fall into an evil suretyship: and he that undertaketh many things, shall fall into judgment.

68A 29 26 Recover thy neighbour according to thy power, and take heed to thyself that thou fall not.

68A 29 27 The chief thing for man's life is water and bread, and clothing, and a house to cover shame.

68A 29 28 Better is the poor man's fare under a roof of boards, than sumptuous cheer abroad in another man's house.

68A 29 29 Be contented with little instead of much, and thou shalt not hear the reproach of going abroad.

68A 29 30 It is a miserable life to go as a guest from house to house: for where a man is a stranger, he shall not deal confidently, nor open his mouth.

68A 29 31 He shall entertain and feed, and give drink to the unthankful, and moreover he shall hear bitter words.

68A 29 32 Go, stranger, and furnish the table, and give others to eat what thou hast in thy hand.

68A 29 33 Give place to the honourable presence of my friends: for I want my house, my brother being to be lodged with me.

68A 29 34 These things are grievous to a man of understanding: the upbraiding of houseroom, and the reproaching of the lender.

68A 30 1 He that loveth his son, frequently chastiseth him, that he may rejoice in his latter end, and not grope after the doors of his neighbours.

68A 30 2 He that instructeth his son shall be praised in him, and shall glory in him in the midst of them of his household.

68A 30 3 He that teacheth his son, maketh his enemy jealous, and in the midst of his friends he shall glory in him.

68A 30 4 His father is dead, and he is as if he were not dead: for he hath left one behind him that is like himself.

68A 30 5 While he lived he saw and rejoiced in him: and when he died he was not sorrowful, neither was he confounded before his enemies.

68A 30 6 For he left behind him a defender of his house against his enemies, and one that will requite kindness to his friends.

68A 30 7 For the souls of his sons he shall bind up his wounds, and at every cry his bowels shall be troubled.

68A 30 8 A horse not broken becometh stubborn, and a child left to himself will become headstrong.

68A 30 9 Give thy son his way, and he shall make thee afraid: play with him, and he shall make thee sorrowful.

68A 30 10 Laugh not with him, lest thou have sorrow, and at the last thy teeth be set on edge.

68A 30 11 Give him not liberty in his youth, and wink not at his devices.

68A 30 12 Bow down his neck while he is young, and beat his sides while he is a child, lest he grow stubborn, and regard thee not, and so be a sorrow of heart to thee.

68A 30 13 Instruct thy son, and labour about him, lest his lewd behaviour be an offence to thee.

68A 30 14 Better is a poor man who is sound, and strong of constitution, than a rich man who is weak and afflicted with evils.

68A 30 15 Health of the soul in holiness of justice, is better than all gold and silver: and a sound body, than immense revenues.

68A 30 16 There is no riches above the riches of the health of the body: and there is no pleasure above the joy of the heart.

68A 30 17 Better is death than a bitter life: and everlasting rest, than continual sickness.
 68A 30 18 Good things that are hidden in a mouth that is shut, are as masses of meat set about a grave.
 68A 30 19 What good shall an offering do to an idol? for it can neither eat, nor smell:
 68A 30 20 So is he that is persecuted by the Lord, bearing the reward of his iniquity:
 68A 30 21 He seeth with his eyes, and groaneth, as an eunuch embracing a virgin, and sighing.
 68A 30 22 Give not up thy soul to sadness, and afflict not thyself in thy own counsel.
 68A 30 23 The joyfulness of the heart, is the life of a man, and a never failing treasure of holiness: and the joy of a man is length of life.
 68A 30 24 Have pity on thy own soul, pleasing God, and contain thyself: gather up thy heart in his holiness: and drive away sadness far from thee.
 68A 30 25 For sadness hath killed many, and there is no profit in it.
 68A 30 26 Envy and anger shorten a man's days, and pensiveness will bring old age before the time.
 68A 30 27 A Cheerful and good heart is always feasting: for his banquets are prepared with diligence.
 68A 31 1 Watching for riches consumeth the flesh, and the thought thereof driveth away sleep.
 68A 31 2 The thinking beforehand turneth away the understanding, and a grievous sickness maketh the soul sober.
 68A 31 3 The rich man hath laboured in gathering riches together, and when he resteth he shall be filled with his goods.
 68A 31 4 The poor man hath laboured in his low way of life, and in the end he is still poor.
 68A 31 5 He that loveth gold, shall not be justified: and he that followeth after corruption, shall be filled with it.
 68A 31 6 Many have been brought to fall for gold, and the beauty thereof hath been their ruin.
 68A 31 7 Gold is a stumblingblock to them that sacrifice to it: woe to them that eagerly follow after it, and every fool shall perish by it.
 68A 31 8 Blessed is the rich man that is found without blemish: and that hath not gone after gold, nor put his trust in money nor in treasures.
 68A 31 9 Who is he, and we will praise him? for he hath done wonderful things in his life.
 68A 31 10 Who hath been tried thereby, and made perfect, he shall have glory everlasting. He that could have transgressed, and hath not transgressed: and could do evil things, and hath not done them:
 68A 31 11 Therefore are his goods established in the Lord, and all the church of the saints shall declare his alms.
 68A 31 12 Art thou set at a great table? be not the first to open thy mouth upon it.
 68A 31 13 Say not: There are many things which are upon it.
 68A 31 14 Remember that a wicked eye is evil.
 68A 31 15 What is created more wicked than an eye? therefore shall it weep over all the face when it shall see.
 68A 31 16 Stretch not out thy hand first, lest being disgraced with envy thou be put to confusion.
 68A 31 17 Be not hasty in a feast.
 68A 31 18 Judge of the disposition of thy neighbour by thyself.
 68A 31 19 Use as a frugal man the things that are set before thee: lest if thou eatest much, thou be hated.
 68A 31 20 Leave off first, for manners' sake: and exceed not, lest thou offend.

68A 31 21 21And if thou sittest among many, reach not thy hand out first of all: and be not the first to ask for drink.

68A 31 22 How sufficient is a little wine for a man well taught, and in sleeping thou shalt not be uneasy with it, and thou shalt feel no pain.

68A 31 23 Watching, and choler, and gripes, are with an intemperate man:

68A 31 24 Sound and wholesome sleep with a moderate man: he shall sleep till morning, and his soul shall be delighted with him.

68A 31 25 And if thou hast been forced to eat much, arise, go out, and vomit: and it shall refresh thee, and thou shalt not bring sickness upon thy body.

68A 31 26 Hear me, my son, and despise me not: and in the end thou shalt find my words.

68A 31 27 In all thy works be quick, and no infirmity shall come to thee.

68A 31 28 The lips of many shall bless him that is liberal of his bread, and the testimony of his truth is faithful.

68A 31 29 Against him that is niggardly of his bread, the city will murmur, and the testimony of his niggardliness is true.

68A 31 30 Challenge not them that love wine: for wine hath destroyed very many.

68A 31 31 Fire trieth hard iron: so wine drunk to excess shall rebuke the hearts of the proud.

68A 31 32 Wine taken with sobriety is equal lire to men: if thou drink it moderately, thou shalt be sober.

68A 31 33 What is his life, who is diminished with wine?

68A 31 34 What taketh away life? death.

68A 31 35 Wine was created from the beginning to make men joyful, and not to make them drunk.

68A 31 36 Wine drunken with moderation is the joy of the soul and the heart.

68A 31 37 Sober drinking is health to soul and body.

68A 31 38 Wine drunken with excess raiseth quarrels; and wrath, and many ruins.

68A 31 39 Wine drunken with excess is bitterness of the soul.

68A 31 40 The heat of drunkenness is the stumblingblock of the fool, lessening strength and causing wounds.

68A 31 41 Rebuke not thy neighbour in a banquet of wine: and despise him not in hip mirth.

68A 31 42 Speak not to him words of reproach: and press him not in demanding again.

68A 32 1 Have they made thee ruler? be not lifted up: be among them as one of them.

68A 32 2 Have care of them, and so sit down, and when thou hast acquitted thyself of all thy charge, take thy place :

68A 32 3 That thou mayst rejoice for them, and receive a crown as an ornament of grace, and get the honour of the contribution.

68A 32 4 Speak, thou that art elder: for it becometh thee,

68A 32 5 To speak the first word with care knowledge, and hinder not music.

68A 32 6 Where there is no hearing, pour out words, and be not lifted up out season with thy wisdom.

68A 32 7 7A concert of music in a banquet wine is as a carbuncle set in gold.

68A 32 8 As a signet of an emerald in a work of gold: so is the melody of music with pleasant and moderate wine.

68A 32 9 Hear in silence, and for thy reverence good grace shall come to thee.

68A 32 10 Young man, scarcely speak in thy own cause.

68A 32 11 If thou be asked twice, let thy answer be short.

68A 32 12 In many things be as if thou wert ignorant, and hear in silence and withal seeking.

68A 32 13 In the company of great men bide not upon thee: and when the ancients are present, speak not much.

68A 32 14 Before a storm goeth lightning: and before shamefacedness goeth favour: and for thy reverence good grace shall come to thee.

68A 32 15 And at the time of rising be not slack: but be first to run home to thy house, and there withdraw thyself, and there take thy pastime.

68A 32 16 And do what thou hast a mind, but not in sin or proud speech.

68A 32 17 And for all these things bless the Lord, that made thee, and that replenisheth thee with all his good things.

68A 32 18 He that feareth the Lord, will receive his discipline: and they that will seek him early, shall find a blessing.

68A 32 19 He that seeketh the law, shall be filled with it: and he that dealeth deceitfully, shall meet with a stumblingblock therein.

68A 32 20 They that fear the Lord, shall find just judgment, and shall kindle justice as a light.

68A 32 21 A sinful man will flee reproof, and will find an excuse according to his will.

68A 32 22 A man of counsel will not neglect understanding, a strange and proud man will not dread fear:

68A 32 23 Even after he hath done with fear without counsel, he shall be controlled by the things of his own seeking.

68A 32 24 My son, do thou nothing without counsel, and thou shalt not repent when thou hast done.

68A 32 25 Go not in the way of ruin, and thou shalt not stumble against the stones; trust not thyself to a rugged way, lest thou set a stumblingblock to thy soul.

68A 32 26 And beware of thy own children, and take heed of them of thy household.

68A 32 27 In every work of thine regard thy soul in faith: for this is the keeping of the commandments.

68A 32 28 He that believeth God, taketh heed to the commandments: and he that trusteth in him, shall fare never the worse.

68A 33 1 No evils shall happen to him that feareth the Lord, but in temptation God will keep him, and deliver him from evils.

68A 33 2 A wise man hateth not the commandments and justices, and he shall not be dashed in pieces as a ship in a storm.

68A 33 3 A man of understanding is faithful to the law of God, and the law is faithful to him.

68A 33 4 He that cleareth up a question, shall prepare what to say, and so having prayed he shall be heard, and shall keep discipline, and then he shall answer.

68A 33 5 The heart of a fool is as a wheel of a cart: and his thoughts are like a rolling axletree.

68A 33 6 A friend that is a mocker, is like a stallion horse: he neigheth under every one that sitteth upon him.

68A 33 7 Why doth one day excel another, and one light another, and one year another year, when all come of the sun?

68A 33 8 By the knowledge of the Lord they were distinguished, the sun being made, and keeping his commandment.

68A 33 9 And he ordered the seasons, and holidays of them, and in them they celebrated festivals at an hour.

68A 33 10 Some of them God made high and great days, and some of them he put in the number of ordinary days. And all men are from the ground, and out of the earth, from whence Adam was created.

68A 33 11 With much knowledge the Lord hath divided them and diversified their ways.

68A 33 12 Some of them hath he blessed, and exalted: and some of them hath he sanctified, and set near himself: and some of them hath he cursed and brought low, and turned them from their station.

68A 33 13 As the potter's clay is in his hand, to fashion and order it:

68A 33 14 All his ways are according to his ordering: so man is in the hand of him that made him, and he will render to him according to his judgment.

68A 33 15 Good is set against evil, and life against death: so also is the sinner against a just man. And so look upon all the works of the most High. Two and two, and one against another.

68A 33 16 And I awaked last of all, and as one that gathereth after the grapegatherers.

68A 33 17 In the blessing of God I also have hoped: and as one that gathereth grapes, have I filled the winepress.

68A 33 18 See that I have not laboured for myself only, but for all that seek discipline.

68A 33 19 Hear me, ye great men, and all ye people, and hearken with your ears, ye rulers of the church.

68A 33 20 Give not to son or wife, brother or friend, power over thee while thou livest; and give not thy estate to another, lest then repent, and thou entreat for the same.

68A 33 21 As long as thou livest, and hast breath in thee, let no man change thee.

68A 33 22 For it is better that thy children should ask of thee, than that thou look toward the hands of thy children.

68A 33 23 In all thy works keep the pre-eminence.

68A 33 24 Let no stain sully thy glory. In the time when thou shalt end the days of thy life, and in the time of thy decease, distribute thy inheritance.

68A 33 25 Fodder, and a wand, and a burden are for an ass: bread, and correction, and work for a slave.

68A 33 26 He worketh under correction, and seeketh to rest: let his hands be idle, and he seeketh liberty.

68A 33 27 The yoke and the thong bend a stiff neck, and continual labours bow a slave.

68A 33 28 Torture and fetters are for a malicious slave: send him to work, that he be not idle:

68A 33 29 For idleness hath taught much evil.

68A 33 30 Set him to work: for so it is fit for him. And if he be not obedient, bring him down with fetters, but be not excessive towards any one: and do no grievous thing without judgment.

68A 33 31 If thou have a faithful servant, let him be to thee as thy own soul: treat him as a brother: because in the blood of thy soul thou hast gotten him.

68A 33 32 If thou hurt him unjustly, he will run away:

68A 33 33 And if he rise up and depart, thou knowest not whom to ask, and in what way to seek him.

68A 34 1 The hopes of a man that is void of understanding are vain and deceitful: and dreams lift up fools.

68A 34 2 The man that giveth heed to lying visions, is like to him that catcheth at a shadow, and followeth after the wind.

68A 34 3 The vision of dreams is the resemblance of one thing to another: as when a man's likeness is before the face of a man.

68A 34 4 What can be made clean by the unclean? and what truth can come from that which is false?

68A 34 5 Deceitful divinations and lying omens and the dreams of evildoers, are vanity:

68A 34 6 And the heart fancieth as that of a woman in travail: except it be a vision sent forth from the most High, set no thy heart upon them.

68A 34 7 For dreams have deceived many, and they have failed that put their trust in them.

68A 34 8 The word of the law shall be fulfilled without a lie, and wisdom shall be made plain in the mouth of the faithful.

68A 34 9 What doth he know, that hath not been tried? A man that hath much experience, shall think of many things: and he that hath learned many things, shall shew forth understanding.

68A 34 10 He that hath no experience, knoweth little: and he that hath been experienced in many things, multiplieth prudence.

68A 34 11 He that hath not been tried, what manner of things doth he know? he that hath been surprised, shall abound with subtlety.

68A 34 12 I have seen many things by travelling, and many customs of things.

68A 34 13 Sometimes I have been in danger of death for these things, and I have been delivered by the grace of God.

68A 34 14 The spirit of those that fear God; is sought after, and by his regard shall be blessed.

68A 34 15 For their hope is on him that saveth them, and the eyes of God are upon them that love him.

68A 34 16 He that feareth the Lord shall tremble at nothing, and shall not be afraid for he is his hope.

68A 34 17 The soul of him that feareth the Lord is blessed.

68A 34 18 To whom doth he look, and who in his strength?

68A 34 19 The eyes of the Lord are upon them that fear him, he is their powerful protector, and strong stay, a defence from the heat, and a cover from the sun at noon, 68A 34 20 A preservation from stumbling, and a help from falling; he raiseth up the soul, and enlighteneth the eyes, and giveth health, and life, and blessing.

68A 34 21 The offering of him that sacrificeth of a thing wrongfully gotten, is stained, and the mockeries of the unjust are not acceptable.

68A 34 22 The Lord is only for them that wait upon him in the way of truth and justice.

68A 34 23 The most High approveth not the gifts of the wicked: neither hath he respect to the oblations of the unjust, nor will he be pacified for sine by the multitude of their sacrifices.

68A 34 24 He that offereth sacrifice of the goods of the poor, is as one that sacrificeth the son in the presence of his father.

68A 34 25 The bread of the needy, is the life of the poor: he that defraudeth them thereof, is a man of blood.

68A 34 26 He that taketh away the bread gotten by sweat, is like him that killeth his neighbour.

68A 34 27 He that sheddeth blood, and he that defraudeth the labourer of his hire, are brothers.

68A 34 28 When one buildeth up, and another pulleth down: what profit have they but the labour?

68A 34 29 When one prayeth, and another curseth: whose voice will God hear?

68A 34 30 He that washeth himself after touching the dead, if he toucheth him again, what doth his washing avail?

68A 34 31 So a man that fasteth for his sins, and doth the same again, what doth his humbling himself profit him? who will hear his prayer?

68A 35 1 He that keepeth the law, multiplieth offerings.

68A 35 2 It is a wholesome sacrifice to take heed to the commandments, and to depart from all iniquity. _J

68A 35 3 And to depart from injustice, is to offer a propitiatory sacrifice for injustices, and a begging of pardon for sins.

68A 35 4 He shall return thanks, that offereth fine flour: and he that doth mercy, offereth sacrifice.

68A 35 5 To depart from iniquity is that which pleaseth the Lord, and to depart from injustice, is an entreaty for sins.

68A 35 6 Thou shalt not appear empty in the sight of the Lord.

68A 35 7 For all these things are to be done because of the commandment of God.
 68A 35 8 The oblation of the just maketh the altar fat, and is an odour of sweetness in the sight of the most High.
 68A 35 9 The sacrifice of the just is acceptable, and the Lord will not forget the memorial thereof.
 68A 35 10 Give glory to God with a good heart: and diminish not the firstfruits of thy hands.
 68A 35 11 In every gift shew a cheerful countenance, and sanctify thy tithes with joy.
 68A 35 12 Give to the most High according to what he hath given to thee, and with a good eye do according to the ability of thy hands:
 68A 35 13 For the Lord maketh recompense, and will give thee seven times as much.
 68A 35 14 Do not offer wicked gifts, for such he will not receive.
 68A 35 15 And look not upon an unjust sacrifice, for the Lord is judge, and there is not with him respect of person.
 68A 35 16 The Lord will not accept any person against a poor man, and he will hear the prayer of him that is wronged.
 68A 35 17 He will not despise the prayers of the fatherless; nor the widow, when she poureth out her complaint.
 68A 35 18 Do not the widow's tears run down the cheek, and her cry against him that causeth them to fall?
 68A 35 19 For from the cheek they go up even to heaven, and the Lord that heareth will not be delighted with them.
 68A 35 20 He that adoreth God with joy, shall be accepted, and his prayer shall approach even to the clouds.
 68A 35 21 The prayer of him that humbleth himself, shall pierce the clouds: and till it come nigh he will not be comforted: and he will not depart till the most High behold.
 68A 35 22 And the Lord will not be slack, but will judge for the just, and will do judgment: and the Almighty will not have patience with them, that he may crush their back:
 68A 35 23 And he will repay vengeance to the Gentiles, till he have taken away the multitude of the proud, and broken the sceptres of the unjust,
 68A 35 24 Till he have rendered to men according to their deeds: and according to the works of Adam, and according to his presumption,
 68A 35 25 Till he have judged the cause of his people, and he shall delight the just with his mercy.
 68A 35 26 The mercy of God is beautiful in the time of affliction, as a cloud of rain in the time of drought.
 68A 36 1 Have mercy upon us, O God of all, and behold us, and shew us the light of thy mercies:
 68A 36 2 And send thy fear upon the nations, that have not sought after thee: that they may know that there is no God beside thee, and that they may shew forth thy wonders.
 68A 36 3 Lift up thy hand over the strange nations, that they may see thy power.
 68A 36 4 For as thou hast been sanctified in us in their sight, so thou shalt be magnified among them in our presence,
 68A 36 5 That they may know thee, as we also have known thee, that there is no God beside thee, O Lord.
 68A 36 6 Renew thy signs, and work new miracles.
 68A 36 7 Glorify thy hand, and thy right arm.
 68A 36 8 Raise up indignation, and pour out wrath.
 68A 36 9 Take away the adversary, and crush the enemy.
 68A 36 10 Hasten the time, and remember the end, that they may declare thy wonderful works.
 68A 36 11 Let him that escapeth be consumed by the rage of the fire: and let them perish that oppress thy people.

68A 36 12 Crush the head of the princes of the enemies that say: There is no other beside us.

68A 36 13 Gather together all the tribes of Jacob: that they may know that there is no God besides thee, and may declare thy great works: and thou shalt inherit them as from the beginning.

68A 36 14 Have mercy on thy people, upon whom thy name is invoked: and upon Israel, in whom thou hast raised up to be thy firstborn.

68A 36 15 Have mercy on Jerusalem, the city which thou hast sanctified, the city of thy rest.

68A 36 16 Fill Sion with thy unspeakable words, and thy people with thy glory.

68A 36 17 Give testimony to them that are thy creatures from the beginning, and raise up the prophecies which the former prophets spoke in thy name.

68A 36 18 Reward them that patiently wait for thee, that thy prophets may be found faithful: and hear the prayers of thy servants,

68A 36 19 According to the blessing of Aaron over thy people, and direct us into the way of justice, and let all know that dwell upon the earth, that thou art God the beholder of all ages.

68A 36 20 The belly will devour all meat, yet one is better than another.

68A 36 21 The palate tasteth venison and the wise heart false speeches.

68A 36 22 A perverse heart will cause grief, and a man of experience will resist it.

68A 36 23 A woman will receive every man: yet one daughter is better than another.

68A 36 24 The beauty of a woman cheereth the countenance of her husband, and a man desireth nothing more.

68A 36 25 If she have a tongue that can cure, and likewise mitigate and shew mercy: her husband is not like other men.

68A 36 26 He that possesseth a good wife, beginneth a possession: she is a help like to himself, and a pillar of rest.

68A 36 27 Where there is no hedge, the possession shall be spoiled: and where there is no wife, he mourneth that is in want.

68A 36 28 Who will trust him that hath no rest, and that lodgeth wheresoever the night taketh him, as a robber well appointed, that skippeth from city to city.

68A 37 1 Every friend will say: I also am his friend: but there is a friend, that is only a friend in name. Is not this a grief even to death?

68A 37 2 But a companion and a friend shall be turned to an enemy.

68A 37 3 O wicked presumption, whence camest thou to cover the earth with thy malice, and deceitfulness?

68A 37 4 There is a companion who rejoiceth with his friend in his joys, but in the time of trouble, he will be against him.

68A 37 5 There is a companion who condoleth with his friend for his belly's sake, and he will take up a shield against enemy.

68A 37 6 Forget not thy friend in thy mind, and be not unmindful of him in thy riches.

68A 37 7 Consult not with him that layeth a snare for thee, and hide thy counsel from them that envy thee.

68A 37 8 Every counsellor giveth out counsel, but there is one that is a counsellor for himself.

68A 37 9 Beware of a counsellor. And know before what need he hath: for he will devise to his own mind:

68A 37 10 Lest he thrust a stake into the ground, and say to thee:

68A 37 11 Thy way is good; and then stand on the other side to see what shall befall thee.

68A 37 12 Treat not with a man without religion concerning holiness, nor with an unjust man concerning justice, nor with a woman touching her of whom she is jealous, nor with a coward concerning war, nor with a merchant about traffic, nor with a buyer of selling, nor with an envious man of giving thanks,

68A 37 13 Nor with the ungodly of piety, nor with the dishonest of honesty, nor with the held labourer of every work

68A 37 14 Nor with him that worketh by the year of the finishing of the year, nor with an idle servant of much business: give no heed to these in any matter of counsel.

68A 37 15 But be continually with a holy man, whomsoever thou shalt know to observe the fear of God, 68A 37 16 Whose soul is according to thy own soul: and who, when thou shalt stumble in the dark, will be sorry for thee.

68A 37 17 And establish within thyself a heart of good counsel: for there is no other thing of more worth to thee than it.

68A 37 18 The soul of a holy man discovereth sometimes true things, more than seven watchmen that sit in a high piece to watch.

68A 37 19 But above all these things pray to the most High, that he may direct thy way in truth.

68A 37 20 In all thy works let the true word go before thee, and steady counsel before every action.

68A 37 21 A wicked word shall change the beast: out of which four manner of things arise, good and evil, life and death: and the tongue is continually the ruler of them. There is a man that is subtle and a teacher of many, and yet is unprofitable to his own soul.

68A 37 22 A skilful man hath taught many, and is sweet to his own soul.

68A 37 23 He that speaketh sophistically, is hateful: he shall be destitute of every thing.

68A 37 24 Grace is not given him from the Lord: for he is deprived of all wisdom.

68A 37 25 There is a wise man that is wise to his own soul: and the fruit of his understanding is commendable.

68A 37 26 A wise man instructeth his own people, and the fruits of his understanding are faithful.

68A 37 27 A wise man shall be filled with blessings, and they that see shall praise him.

68A 37 28 The life of a man is in the number of his days: but the days of Israel are innumerable.

68A 37 29 A wise man shall inherit honour among his people, and his name shall live for ever.

68A 37 30 My son, prove thy soul in thy life: and if it be wicked, give it no power:

68A 37 31 For all things are not expedient for all, and every kind pleaseth not every soul.

68A 37 32 Be not greedy in any feasting, and pour not out thyself upon any meat:

68A 37 33 For in many meats there will be sickness, and greediness will turn to choler.

68A 37 34 By surfeiting many have perished: but he that is temperate, shall prolong life.

68A 38 1 Honour the physician for the need thou hast of him: for the most High hath created him.

68A 38 2 For all healing is from God, and he shall receive gifts of the king.

68A 38 3 The skill of the physician shall lift up his head, and in the sight of great men he shall be praised.

68A 38 4 The most High hath created medicines out of the earth, and a wise man will not abhor them.

68A 38 5 Was not bitter water made sweet with wood?

68A 38 6 The virtue of these things is come to the knowledge of men, and the meet High hath given knowledge to men, that he may be honoured in his wonders.

68A 38 7 By these he shall cure and shall allay their pains, and of these the apothecary shall make sweet confections, and shall make up ointments of health, and of his works there shall be no end.

68A 38 8 For the peace of God is over all the face of the earth.

68A 38 9 My son, in thy sickness neglect not thyself, but pray to the Lord, and he shall heal thee.

68A 38 10 Turn away from sin and order thy hands aright, and cleanse thy heart from all offence.

68A 38 11 Give a sweet savour, and a memorial of fine flour, and make a fat offering, and then give place to the physician.

68A 38 12 For the Lord created him: and let him not depart from thee, for his works are necessary.

68A 38 13 For there is a time when thou must fall into their hands:

68A 38 14 And they shall beseech the Lord, that he would prosper what they give for ease and remedy, for their conversation.

68A 38 15 He that sinneth in the sight of his Maker, shall fall into the hands of the physician.

68A 38 16 My son, shed tears over the dead, and begin to lament as if thou hadst suffered some great harm, and according to judgment cover his body, and neglect not his burial.

68A 38 17 And for fear of being ill spoken of weep bitterly for a day, and then comfort thyself in thy sadness.

68A 38 18 And make mourning for him according to his merit for a day, or two, for fear of detraction.

68A 38 19 For of sadness cometh death, and it overwhelmeth the strength, and the sorrow of the heart boweth down the neck.

68A 38 20 In withdrawing aside sorrow remaineth: and the substance of the poor is according to his heart.

68A 38 21 Give not up thy heart to sadness, but drive it from thee: and remember the latter end.

68A 38 22 Forget it not: for there is no returning, and thou shalt do him no good, and shalt hurt thyself.

68A 38 23 Remember my judgment: for also shall be so: yesterday for me, and to day for thee.

68A 38 24 When the dead is at rest, let his remembrance rest, and comfort him in the departing of his spirit.

68A 38 25 The wisdom of a scribe cometh by his time of leisure: and he that is less in action, shall receive wisdom.

68A 38 26 With what wisdom shall he be furnished that holdeth the plough, and that glorieth in the goad, that driveth the oxen therewith, and is occupied in their labours, and his whole talk is about the offspring of bulls?

68A 38 27 He shall give his mind to turn up furrows, and his care is to give the kine fodder.

68A 38 28 So every craftsman and workmaster that laboureth night and day, he who maketh graven seals, and by his continual diligence varieth the figure: he shall give his mind to the resemblance of the picture, and by his watching shall finish the work.

68A 38 29 So doth the smith sitting by the anvil and considering the iron work. The vapour of the fire wasteth his flesh, and he fighteth with the heat of the furnace.

68A 38 30 The noise of the hammer is always in his ears, and his eye is upon the pat tern of the vessel he maketh.

68A 38 31 He setteth his mind to finish his work, and his watching to polish them, to perfection.

68A 38 32 So doth the potter sitting at his work, turning the wheel about with his feet, who is always carefully set to his work, and maketh all his work by number:

68A 38 33 He fashioneth the clay with his arm, and boweth down his strength before his feet:

68A 38 34 He shall give his mind to finish the glazing, and his watching to make clean the furnace.

68A 38 35 All these trust to their hands, and every one is wise in his own art.

68A 38 36 Without these a city is not built.

68A 38 37 And they shall not dwell, nor walk about therein, and they shall not go up into the assembly.

68A 38 38 Upon the judges' seat they shall not sit, and the ordinance of judgment they shall not understand, neither shall they declare discipline and judgment, and they shall not be found where parables are spoken:

68A 38 39 But they shall strengthen the state of the world, and their prayer shall be in the work of their craft, applying their soul, and searching in the law of the most High.

68A 39 1 The wise men will seek out the wisdom of all the ancients, and will be occupied in the prophets.

68A 39 2 He will keep the sayings of renowned men, and will enter withal into the subtilties of parables.

68A 39 3 He will search out the hidden meanings of proverbs, and will be conversant in the secrets of parables.

68A 39 4 He shall serve among great men, and: appear before the governor.

68A 39 5 He shall pass into strange countries: for he shall try good and evil among men.

68A 39 6 He will give his heart to resort early to the Lord that made him, and he will pray in the sight of the most High.

68A 39 7 He will open his mouth in prayer, and will make supplication for his sins.

68A 39 8 For if it shall please the great Lord, he will fill him with the spirit of understanding:

68A 39 9 And he will pour forth the words of his wisdom as showers, and in his prayer he will confess to the Lord.

68A 39 10 And he shall direct his counsel, and his knowledge, and in his secrets shall he meditate.

68A 39 11 He shall shew forth the discipline he hath learned, and shall glory in the law of the covenant of the Lord.

68A 39 12 Many shall praise his wisdom, and it shall never be forgotten.

68A 39 13 The memory of him shall not depart away, and his name shall be in request from generation to generation.

68A 39 14 Nations shall declare his wisdom, and the church shall shew forth his praise.

68A 39 15 If he continue, he shall leave a name above a thousand: and if he rest, it shall be to his advantage.

68A 39 16 I will yet meditate that I may declare: for I am filled as with a holy transport.

68A 39 17 By a voice he saith: Hear me, ye divine offspring, and bud forth as the rose planted by the brooks of waters.

68A 39 18 Give ye a sweet odour as frankincense.

68A 39 19 Send forth flowers, as the lily, and yield a smell, and bring forth leaves in grace, and praise with canticles, and bless the Lord in his works.

68A 39 20 Magnify his name, and give glory to him with the voice of your lips, and with the canticles of your mouths, and with harps, and in praising him, you shall say in this manner:

68A 39 21 All the works of the Lord are exceeding good.

68A 39 22 At his word the waters stood as a heap: and at the words of his mouth the receptacles of waters:

68A 39 23 For at his commandment favour is shewn, and there is no diminishing of his salvation.

68A 39 24 The works of all flesh are before him, and there is nothing hid from his eyes.

68A 39 25 He seeth from eternity to eternity, and there is nothing wonderful before him.

68A 39 26 There is no saying: What is this, or what is that? for all things shall be sought in their time.

68A 39 27 His blessing hath overflowed like a river.

68A 39 28 And as a flood hath watered the earth; so shall his wrath inherit the nations, that have not sought after him:

68A 39 29 Even as he turned the waters into a dry land, and the earth was made dry: and his ways were made plain for their journey: so to sinners they are stumblingblocks in his wrath.

68A 39 30 Good things were created for the good from the beginning, so for the wicked, good and evil things.

68A 39 31 The principal things necessary for the life of men, are water, fire, and iron, salt, milk, and bread of flour, and honey, and the cluster of the grape, and oil, and clothing.

68A 39 32 All these things shall be for good to the holy, so to the sinners and the ungodly they shall be turned into evil.

68A 39 33 There are spirits that are created for vengeance, and in their fury they lay on grievous torments.

68A 39 34 In the time of destruction they shall pour out their force: and they shall appease the wrath of him that made them.

68A 39 35 Fire, hail, famine, and death, all these were created for vengeance.

68A 39 36 The teeth of beasts, and scorpions, and serpents, and the sword taking vengeance upon the ungodly unto destruction.

68A 39 37 In his commandments they shall feast, and they shall be ready upon earth when need is, and when their time is come they shall not transgress his word.

68A 39 38 Therefore from the beginning I was resolved, and I have meditated, and thought on these things and left them in writing.

68A 39 39 All the works of the Lord are good, and he will furnish every work in due time.

68A 39 40 It is not to be said: This is worse than that: for all shall be well approved in their time.

68A 39 41 Now therefore with the whole heart and mouth praise ye him, and bless the name of the Lord.

68A 40 1 Great labour is created for all men, and a heavy yoke is upon the children of Adam, from the day of their coming out of their mother's womb, until the day of their burial into the mother of all.

68A 40 2 Their thoughts, and fears of the heart, their imagination of things to come, and the day of their end:

68A 40 3 From him that sitteth on a glorious throne, unto him that is humbled in earth and ashes:

68A 40 4 From him that weareth purple, and beareth the crown, even to him that is covered with rough linen: wrath, envy, trouble, inquietness, and the fear of death, continual anger, and strife, 68A 40 5 And in the time of rest upon his bed, the sleep of the night changeth his knowledge.

68A 40 6 A little and as nothing is his rest, and afterward in sleep, as in the day of keeping watch.

68A 40 7 He is troubled in the vision of his heart, as if he had escaped in the day of battle. In the time of his safety he rose up, and wondereth that there is no fear:

68A 40 8 Such things happen to all flesh, from man even to beast, and upon sinners are sevenfold mere.

68A 40 9 Moreover, death, and bloodshed, strife, and sword, oppressions, famine, and affliction, and scourges:

68A 40 10 All these things are created for the wicked, and for their sakes came the flood.

68A 40 11 All things that are of the earth, shall return to the earth again, and all waters shall return to the sea.

68A 40 12 All bribery, and injustice shall blotted out, and fidelity shall stand for ever.
 68A 40 13 The riches of the unjust shall be dried up like a river, and shall pass sway a noise like a great thunder in rain.
 68A 40 14 While he openeth his hands he shall rejoice: but transgressors shall pine away in the end.
 68A 40 15 The offspring of the ungodly shall not bring forth many branches, and make a noise as unclean roots upon the top of a rock.
 68A 40 16 The weed growing over every water, and at the bank of the river, shall be pulled up before all grass.
 68A 40 17 Grace is like a paradise in blessings, and mercy remaineth for ever.
 68A 40 18 The life of a labourer that is content with what he hath, shall be sweet, and in it thou shalt find a treasure.
 68A 40 19 Children, and the building of a city shall establish a name, but a blameless wife shall be counted above them both.
 68A 40 20 Wine and music rejoice the heart, but the love of wisdom is above them both.
 68A 40 21 The flute and the psaltery make a sweet melody, but a pleasant tongue is above them both.
 68A 40 22 Thy eye desireth favour and beauty, but more than these green sown fields.
 68A 40 23 A friend and companion meeting together in season, but above them both is a wife with her husband.
 68A 40 24 Brethren are a help in the time of trouble, but mercy shall deliver more than they.
 68A 40 25 Gold and silver make the feet stand sure: but wise counsel is above them both.
 68A 40 26 Riches and strength lift up the heart: but above these is the fear of the Lord.
 68A 40 27 There is no want in the fear of the Lord, and it needeth not to seek for help.
 68A 40 28 The fear of the Lord is like a paradise of blessing, and they have covered it above all glory.
 68A 40 29 My son, in thy lifetime be not indigent: for it is better to die than to want.
 68A 40 30 The life of him that looketh toward another man's table is not to be counted a life: for he feedeth his soul with another man's meat.
 68A 40 31 But a man, well instructed and taught, will look to himself.
 68A 40 32 Begging will be sweet in the mouth of the unwise, but in his belly there shall burn a fire.
 68A 41 1 The children will complain of an ungodly father, because for his sake they are in reproach.
 68A 41 11 Woe to you, ungodly men, who have forsaken the law of the most high Lord.
 68A 41 12 And if you be born, you shall be born in malediction: and if you die, in malediction shall be your portion.
 68A 41 13 All things that are of the earth, shall return into the earth: so the ungodly shall from malediction to destruction.
 68A 41 14 The mourning of men is about their body, but the name of the ungodly shall be blotted out.
 68A 41 15 Take care of a good name: for this shall continue with thee, more than a thousand treasures precious and great.
 68A 41 16 A good life hath its number of days: but a good name shall continue for ever.
 68A 41 17 My children, keep discipline in peace: for wisdom that is hid, and a treasure that is not seen, what profit is there in them both?
 68A 41 18 Better is the man that hideth his folly, then the man that hideth his wisdom.
 68A 41 19 Wherefore have a shame of these things I am now going to speak of.
 68A 41 20 For it is not good to keep all shamefacedness: and all things do not please all men in opinion.

68A 41 21 Be ashamed of fornication before father and mother: and of a lie before a governor and a man in power:

68A 41 22 Of an offence before a prince, and a judge: of iniquity before a congregation and a people:

68A 41 23 Of injustice before a companion and friend: and in regard to the place where thou dwellest,

68A 41 24 Of theft, and of the truth of God, and the covenant: of leaning with thy elbow over meat, and of deceit in giving and taking:

68A 41 25 Of silence before them that salute thee: of looking upon a harlot: and of turning away thy face from thy kinsman.

68A 41 26 Turn not sway thy face from thy neighbour, and of taking away a portion and not restoring.

68A 41 27 Gaze not upon another man's wife, and be not inquisitive after his handmaid, and approach not her bed.

68A 41 28 Be ashamed of upbraiding speeches before friends: and after thou hast given, upbraid not.

68A 42 1 Repeat not the word which thou hast heard, and disclose not the thing that is secret; so shalt thou be truly without confusion, and shalt find favour before all men: be not ashamed of any of these things, and accept no person to sin thereby:

68A 42 2 Of the law of the most High, and of his covenant, and of judgment to justify the ungodly:

68A 42 3 Of the affair of companions and travellers, and of the gift of the inheritance of friends:

68A 42 4 Of exactness of balance and weights, of getting much or little:

68A 42 5 Of the corruption of buying, and of merchants, and of much correction of children, and to make the side of a wicked slave to bleed.

68A 42 6 Sure keeping is good over a wicked wife.

68A 42 7 Where there are many hands, shut up, and deliver all things in number, and weight: and put all in writing that thou givest out or receivest in.

68A 42 8 Be not ashamed to inform the unwise and foolish, and the aged, that are judged I by young men: and thou shalt be well instructed in all things, and well approved in the sight of all men living.

68A 42 9 The father waketh for the daughter when no man knoweth, and the care for her taketh away his sleep, when she is young, lest she pass away the flower of her age, and when she is married, lest she should be hateful:

68A 42 10 In her virginity, lest she should be corrupted, and be found with child in her father's house: and having a husband, lest she should misbehave herself, or at the least become barren.

68A 42 11 Keep a sure watch over a shameless daughter: lest at any time she make thee become a laughingstock to thy enemies, and a byword in the city, and a reproach among the people, and she make thee ashamed before all the multitude.

68A 42 12 Behold not everybody's beauty: and tarry not among women.

68A 42 13 For from garments cometh a moth, and from a woman the iniquity of a man.

68A 42 14 For better is the iniquity of a man, than a woman doing a good turn, and a woman bringing shame and reproach.

68A 42 15 I will now remember the works of the Lord, and I will declare the things I have seen. By the words of the Lord are his works.

68A 42 16 The sun giving light hath looked upon all things, and full of the glory of the Lord is his work.

68A 42 17 Hath not the Lord made the saints to declare all his wonderful works, which the Lord Almighty hath firmly settled to be established for his glory?

68A 42 18 He hath searched out the deep, and the heart of men: and considered their crafty devices.

68A 42 19 For the Lord knoweth all knowledge, and hath beheld the signs of the world, he declareth the things that are past, and the things that are to come, and revealeth the traces of hidden things.

68A 42 20 No thought escapeth him, and no word can hide itself from him.

68A 42 21 He hath beautified the glorious works of his wisdom: and he is from eternity to eternity, and to him nothing may be added, 68A 42 22 Nor can he be diminished, and he hath no need of any counsellor.

68A 42 23 O how desirable are all his works, and what we can know is but as a spark!

68A 42 24 All these things live, and remain for ever, and for every use all things obey him.

68A 42 25 All things are double, one against another, and he hath made nothing defective.

68A 42 26 He hath established the good things of every one. And who shall be filled with beholding his glory?

68A 43 1 The firmament on high is his beauty, the beauty of heaven with its glorious shew.

68A 43 2 The sun when he appeareth shewing forth at his rising, an admirable instrument, the work of the most High.

68A 43 3 At noon he burneth the earth, and who can abide his burning heat? As one keeping a furnace in the works of heat:

68A 43 4 The sun three times as much, burneth the mountains, breathing out fiery vapours, and shining with his beams, he blindeth the eyes.

68A 43 5 Great is the Lord that made him, and at his words he hath hastened his course.

68A 43 6 And the moon in all in her season, is for a declaration of times and a sign of the world.

68A 43 7 From the moon is the sign of the festival day, a light that decreaseth in her perfection.

68A 43 8 The month is called after her name, increasing wonderfully in her perfection

68A 43 9 Being an instrument of the armies on high, shining gloriously in the Armament of heaven.

68A 43 10 The glory of the stars is the beauty of heaven; the Lord enlighteneth the world on high.

68A 43 11 By the words of the holy one they shall stand in judgment, and shall never fail in their watches.

68A 43 12 Look upon the rainbow, and bless him that made it: it is very beautiful in its brightness.

68A 43 13 It encompasseth the heaven about with the circle of its glory, the hands of the most High have displayed it.

68A 43 14 By his commandment he maketh the snow to fall apace, and sendeth forth swiftly the lightnings of his judgment.

68A 43 15 Through this are the treasures opened, and the clouds fly out like birds.

68A 43 16 By his greatness he hath fixed the clouds, and the hailstones are broken.

68A 43 17 At his sight shall the mountains be shaken, and at his will the south wind shall blow.

68A 43 18 The noise of his thunder shall strike the earth, so doth the northern storm, and the whirlwind:

68A 43 19 And as the birds lighting upon the earth, he scattereth snow, and the falling thereof, is as the coming down of locusts.

68A 43 20 The eye admireth at the beauty of the whiteness thereof, and the heart is astonished at the shower thereof.

68A 43 21 He shall pour frost as salt upon the earth: and when it freezeth, it shall become like the tops of thistles.

68A 43 22 The cold north wind bloweth, and the water is congealed into crystal; upon every gathering together of waters it shall rest, and shall clothe the waters as a breastplate.

68A 43 23 And it shall devour the mountains, and burn the wilderness, and consume all that is green as with fire.

68A 43 24 A present remedy of all is the speedy coming of a cloud, and a dew that meeteth it, by the heat that cometh, shall overpower it.

68A 43 25 At his word the wind is still, and with his thought he appeaseth the deep, and the Lord hath planted islands therein.

68A 43 26 Let them that sail on the sea, tell the dangers thereof: and when we hear with our ears, we shall admire.

68A 43 27 There are great and wonderful works: a variety of beasts, and of all living things, and the monstrous creatures of whales.

68A 43 28 Through him is established the end of their journey, and by his word all things are regulated.

68A 43 29 We shall say much, and yet shall want words: but the sum of our words is, He is all.

68A 43 30 What shall we be able to do to glorify him? for the Almighty himself is above all his works.

68A 43 31 31The Lord is terrible, and exceeding great, and his power is admirable.

68A 43 32 Glorify the Lord as much as ever you can, for he will yet far exceed, and his magnificence is wonderful.

68A 43 33 Blessing the Lord, exalt him as much as you can: for he is above all praise.

68A 43 34 When you exalt him put forth all your strength, and be not weary: for you can never go far enough.

68A 43 35 Who shall see him, and declare him? and who shall magnify him as he is from the beginning?

68A 43 36 There are many things hidden from us that are greater than these: for we have seen but a few of his works.

68A 43 37 But the Lord hath made all things, and to the godly he hath given wisdom.

68A 44 1 Let us now praise men of renown, and our fathers in their generation.

68A 44 2 The Lord hath wrought great glory through his magnificence from the beginning.

68A 44 3 Such as have borne rule in their dominions, men of great power, and endued with their wisdom, shewing forth in the prophets the dignity of prophets, 68A 44 4 And ruling over the present people, and by the strength of wisdom instructing the people in most holy words.

68A 44 5 Such as by their skill sought out musical tunes, and published canticles of the scriptures.

68A 44 6 Rich men in virtue, studying beautifulness: living at peace in their houses.

68A 44 7 All these have gained glory in their generations, and were praised in their days.

68A 44 8 They that were born of them have left a name behind them, that their praises might be related:

68A 44 9 And there are some, of whom there is no memorial: who are perished, as if they had never been: and are become as if they had never been born, and their children with them.

68A 44 10 But these were men of mercy, whose godly deeds have not failed:

68A 44 11 Good things continue with their seed,

68A 44 12 Their posterity are a holy inheritance, and their seed hath stood in the covenants.

68A 44 13 And their children for their sakes remain for ever: their seed and their glory shall not be forsaken.

68A 44 14 Their bodies are buried in peace, and their name liveth unto generation and generation.
 68A 44 15 Let the people shew forth their wisdom, and the church declare their praise.
 68A 44 16 Henoch pleased God, and was translated into paradise, that he may give repentance to the nations.
 68A 44 17 Noe was found perfect, just, and in the time of wrath he was made a reconciliation.
 68A 44 18 Therefore was there a remnant left to the earth, when the flood came.
 68A 44 19 The covenants of the world were made with him, that all flesh should no more be destroyed with the hood.
 68A 44 20 Abraham was the great father of a multitude of nations, and there was not found the like to him in glory, who kept the law of the most High, and was in covenant with him.
 68A 44 21 In his flesh he established the covenant, and in temptation he was found faithful.
 68A 44 22 Therefore by an oath he gave him glory in his posterity, that he should increase as the dust of the earth,
 68A 44 23 And that he would exalt his seed as the stars, and they should inherit from sea to sea, and from the river to the ends of the earth.
 68A 44 24 And he did in like manner with Isaac for the sake of Abraham his father.
 68A 44 25 The Lord gave him the blessing of all nations, and confirmed his covenant upon the head of Jacob.
 68A 44 26 He acknowledged him in his blessings, and gave him an inheritance, and divided him his portion in twelve tribes.
 68A 44 27 And he preserved for him men of mercy, that found grace in the eyes of all flesh.
 68A 45 1 Moses was beloved of God, and men: whose memory is in benediction.
 68A 45 2 He made him like the saints in glory, and magnified him in the fear of his enemies, and with his words he made prodigies to cease.
 68A 45 3 He glorified him in the sight of kings, and gave him commandments in the sight of his people, and shewed him his glory.
 68A 45 4 He sanctified him in his faith, and meekness, and chose him out of all flesh.
 68A 45 5 For he heard him, and his voice, and brought him into a cloud.
 68A 45 6 And he gave him commandments before his face, and a law of life and instruction, that he might teach Jacob his covenant, and Israel his judgments.
 68A 45 7 He exalted Aaron his brother, and like to himself of the tribe of Levi:
 68A 45 8 He made an everlasting covenant with him, and gave him the priesthood of the nation, and made him blessed in glory,
 68A 45 9 And he girded him about with a glorious girdle, and clothed him with a robe of glory, and crowned him with majestic attire.
 68A 45 10 He put upon him a garment to the feet, and breeches, and as ephod, and he compassed him with many little bells of gold all round about,
 68A 45 11 That as he went there might be a sound, and a noise made that might be heard in the temple, for a memorial to the children of his people.
 68A 45 12 He gave him a holy robe of gold, and blue, and purple, a woven work of a wise man, endued with judgment and truth:
 68A 45 13 Of twisted scarlet the work of an artist, with precious stones cut and set in gold, and graven by the work of a lapidary for a memorial, according to the number of the tribes of Israel.
 68A 45 14 And a crown of gold upon his mitre wherein was engraved Holiness, an ornament of honour: a work of power, and delightful to the eyes for its beauty.
 68A 45 15 Before him there were none so beautiful, even from the beginning.
 68A 45 16 No stranger was ever clothed with them, but only his children alone, and his grandchildren for ever.

68A 45 17 His sacrifices were consumed with fire every day.

68A 45 18 Moses filled his hands and anointed him with holy oil.

68A 45 19 This was made to him for an everlasting testament, and to his seed as the days of heaven, to execute the office of the priesthood, and to have praise, and to glorify his people in his name.

68A 45 20 He chose him out of all men living, to offer sacrifice to God, incense, and a good savour, for a memorial to make reconciliation for his people:

68A 45 21 And he gave him power in his commandments, in the covenants of his judgments, that he should teach Jacob his testimonies, and give light to Israel in his law.

68A 45 22 And strangers stood up against him, and through envy the men that were with Dathan and Abiron, compassed him about in the wilderness, and the congregation of Core in their wrath.

68A 45 23 The Lord God saw and it pleased him not, and they were consumed in his wrathful indignation.

68A 45 24 He wrought wonders upon them, and consumed them with a flame of fire.

68A 45 25 And he added glory to Aaron, and gave him an inheritance, and divided unto him the firstfruits of the increase of the earth.

68A 45 26 He prepared them bread in the first place unto fulness: for the sacrifices also of the Lord they shall eat, which he gave to him, and to his seed.

68A 45 27 But he shall not inherit among the people in the land, and he hath no portion among the people: for he himself is his portion and inheritance.

68A 45 28 Phinees the son of Eleazar is the third in glory, by imitating him in the fear of the Lord:

68A 45 29 And he stood up in the shameful fall of the people: in the goodness and readiness of his soul he appeased God for Israel.

68A 45 30 Therefore he made to him a covenant of peace, to be the prince of the sanctuary, and of his people, that the dignity of priesthood should be to him and to his seed for ever.

68A 45 31 And a covenant to David the king, the son of Jesse of the tribe of Juda, an inheritance to him and to his seed, that he might give wisdom into our heart to judge his people in justice, that their good things might not be abolished, and he made their glory in their nation everlasting.

68A 46 1 Valiant in war was Jesus the son of Nave, who was successor of Moses among the prophets, who was great according to his name, 68A 46 2 Very great for the saving the elect of God, to overthrow the enemies that rose up against them, that he might get the inheritance for Israel.

68A 46 3 How great glory did he gain when he lifted up his hands, and stretched out swords against the cities?

68A 46 4 Who before him hath so resisted? for the Lord himself brought the enemies.

68A 46 5 Was not the sun stopped in his anger, and one day made as two?

68A 46 6 He called upon the most high Sovereign when the enemies assaulted him on every side, and the great and holy God heard him by hailstones of exceeding great force.

68A 46 7 He made a violent assault against the nation of his enemies, and in the descent he destroyed the adversaries.

68A 46 8 That the nations might know his power, that it is not easy to fight against God. And he followed the mighty one:

68A 46 9 And in the days of Moses he did a work of mercy, he and Caleb the son of Jephone, in standing against the enemy, and withholding the people from sins, and appeasing the wicked murmuring.

68A 46 10 And they two being appointed, were delivered out of the danger from among the number of six hundred thousand men on foot, to bring them into their inheritance, into the land that floweth with milk and honey.

68A 46 11 And the Lord gave strength also to Caleb, and his strength continued even to his old age, so that he went up to the high places of the land, and his seed obtained it for an inheritance:

68A 46 12 That all the children of Israel might see, that it is good to obey the holy God.

68A 46 13 Then all the judges, every one by name, whose heart was not corrupted: who turned not away from the Lord,

68A 46 14 That their memory might be blessed, and their bones spring up out of their place,

68A 46 15 And their name continue for ever, the glory of the holy men remaining unto their children.

68A 46 16 Samuel the prophet of the Lord, the beloved of the Lord his God, established a new government, and anointed princes over his people.

68A 46 17 By the law of the Lord he judged the congregation, and the God of Jacob beheld, and by his fidelity he was proved a prophet.

68A 46 18 And he was known to be faithful in his words, because he saw the God of light:

68A 46 19 And called upon the name of the Lord Almighty, in fighting against the enemies who beset him on every side, when he offered a lamb without blemish.

68A 46 20 And the Lord thundered from heaven, and with a great noise made his voice to be heard.

68A 46 21 And he crushed the princes of the Tyrians, and all the lords of the Philistines:

68A 46 22 And before the time of the end of his life in the world, he protested before the Lord, and his anointed: money, or any thing else, even to a shoe, he had not taken of any man, and no man did accuse him.

68A 46 23 And after this he slept, and he made known to the king, and shewed him the end of his life, and he lifted up his voice from the earth in prophecy to blot out the wickedness of the nation.

68A 47 1 Then Nathan the prophet arose in the days of David.

68A 47 1 the Lord the Almighty, and he gave strength in his right hand, to take away the mighty warrior, and to set up the horn of his nation.

68A 47 2 And as the fat taken away from the flesh, so was David chosen from among the children of Israel.

68A 47 3 He played with lions as with lambs: and with bears he did in like manner as with the lambs of the flock, in his youth.

68A 47 4 Did not he kill the giant, and take away reproach from his people?

68A 47 5 In lifting up his hand, with the stone in the sling he beat down the boasting of Goliath:

68A 47 6 For he called upon

68A 47 7 So in ten thousand did he glorify him, and praised him in the blessings of the Lord, in offering to him a crown of glory:

68A 47 8 For he destroyed the enemies on every side, and extirpated the Philistines the adversaries unto this day: he broke their horn for ever.

68A 47 9 In all his works he gave thanks to the holy one, and to the most High, with words of glory.

68A 47 10 With his whole heart he praised the Lord, and loved God that made him: and he gave him power against his enemies:

68A 47 11 And he set singers before the altar, and by their voices he made sweet melody.

68A 47 12 And to the festivals he added beauty, and set in order the solemn times even to the end of his life, that they should praise the holy name of the Lord, and magnify the holiness of God in the morning.

68A 47 13 The Lord took away his sin, and exalted his horn for ever: and he gave him a covenant of the kingdom, and a throne of glory in Israel.

68A 47 14 After him arose up a wise son, and for his sake he cast down all the power of the enemies.

68A 47 15 Solomon reigned in days of peace, and God brought all his enemies under him, that he might build a house in his name, and prepare a sanctuary for ever: O how wise wast thou in thy youth!

68A 47 16 And thou wast filled as a river with wisdom, and thy soul covered the earth.

68A 47 17 And thou didst multiply riddles in parables: thy name went abroad to the islands far off, and thou wast beloved in thy peace.

68A 47 18 The countries wondered at thee for thy canticles, and proverbs, and parables, and interpretations, 68A 47 19 And at the name of the Lord God, whose surname is, God of Israel.

68A 47 20 Thou didst gather gold as copper, and didst multiply silver as lead, 68A 47 21 And thou didst bow thyself to women: and by thy body thou wast brought under subjection.

68A 47 22 Thou hast stained thy glory, and defiled thy seed so as to bring wrath upon thy children, and to have thy folly kindled, 68A 47 23 That thou shouldst make the kingdom to be divided, and out of Ephraim a rebellious kingdom to rule.

68A 47 24 But God will not leave off his mercy, and he will not destroy, nor abolish his own works, neither will he cut up by the roots the offspring of his elect: and he will not utterly take away the seed of him that loveth the Lord.

68A 47 25 Wherefore he gave a remnant to Jacob, and to David of the same stock.

68A 47 26 And Solomon had an end with his fathers.

68A 47 27 And he left behind him of his seed, the folly of the nation,

68A 47 28 Even Roboam that had little wisdom, who turned away the people through his counsel:

68A 47 29 And Jeroboam the son of Nabat, who caused Israel to sin, and shewed Ephraim the way of sin, and their sins were multiplied exceedingly.

68A 47 30 They removed them far away from their land.

68A 47 31 And they sought out all iniquities, till vengeance came upon them, and put an end to all their sines.

68A 48 1 And Elias the prophet stood up, as a fire, and his word burnt like a torch.

68A 48 2 He brought a famine upon them, and they that provoked him in their envy, were reduced to a small number, for they could not endure the commandments of the Lord.

68A 48 3 By the word of the Lord he shut up the heaven, and he brought down fire from heaven thrice.

68A 48 4 Thus was Elias magnified in his wondrous works. And who can glory like to thee?

68A 48 5 Who raisedst up a dead man from below, from the lot of death, by the word of the Lord God.

68A 48 6 Who broughtest down kings to destruction, and brokest easily their power in pieces, and the glorious from their bed.

68A 48 7 Who heardest judgment in Sina, and in Horeb the judgments of vengeance.

68A 48 8 Who anointedst kings to penance, and madest prophets successors after thee.

68A 48 9 Who wast taken up in a whirlwind of fire, in a chariot of fiery horses.

68A 48 10 Who art registered in the judgments of times to appease the wrath of the Lord, to reconcile the heart of the father to the son, and to restore the tribes of Jacob.

68A 48 11 Blessed are they that saw thee, and were honoured with thy friendship.

68A 48 12 For we live only in our life, but after death our name shall not be such.

68A 48 13 Elias was indeed covered with the whirlwind, and his spirit was filled up in Eliseus: in his days he feared not the prince, and no man was more powerful than he.

68A 48 14 No word could overcome him, and after death his body prophesied.

68A 48 15 In his life he did great wonders, and in death he wrought miracles.
 68A 48 16 For all this the people repented not, neither did they depart from their sins till they were cast out of their land, and were scattered through all the earth.
 68A 48 17 And there was left but a small people, and a prince in the house of David.
 68A 48 18 Some of these did that which pleased God: but others committed many sins.
 68A 48 19 Ezechias fortified his city, and brought in water into the midst thereof, and he digged a rock with iron, and made a well for water.
 68A 48 20 In his days Sennacherib came up, and sent Rabshakes, and lifted up his hand against them, and he stretched out his hand against Sion, and became proud through his power.
 68A 48 21 Then their hearts and hands trembled, and they were in pain as women in travail.
 68A 48 22 And they called upon the Lord who is merciful, and spreading their hands, they lifted them up to heaven: and the holy Lord God quickly heard their voice.
 68A 48 23 He was not mindful of their sins, neither did he deliver them up to their enemies, but he purified them by the hand of Isaiahs, the holy prophet.
 68A 48 24 He overthrew the army of the Assyrians, and the angel of the Lord destroyed them.
 68A 48 25 For Ezechias did that which pleased God, and walked valiantly in the way of David his father, which Isaiahs, the great prophet, and faithful in the sight of God, had commanded him.
 68A 48 26 In his days the sun went backward, and he lengthened the king's life.
 68A 48 27 With a great spirit he saw the things that are to come to pass at last, and comforted the mourners in Sion.
 68A 48 28 He shewed what should come to pass for ever, and secret things before they came.
 68A 49 1 The memory of Josias is like the composition of a sweet smell made by the art of a perfumer:
 68A 49 2 His remembrance shall be sweet as honey in every mouth, and as music at a banquet of wine.
 68A 49 3 He was directed by God unto the repentance of the nation, and he took away the abominations of wickedness.
 68A 49 4 And he directed his heart towards the Lord, and in the days of sinners he strengthened godliness.
 68A 49 5 Except David, and Ezechias, and Josias, all committed sin.
 68A 49 6 For the kings of Juda forsook the law of the most High, and despised the fear of God.
 68A 49 7 So they gave their kingdom to others, and their glory to a strange nation.
 68A 49 8 They burnt the chosen city of holiness, and made the streets thereof desolate according to the prediction of Jeremias.
 68A 49 9 For they treated him evil, who was consecrated a prophet from his mother's womb, to overthrow, and pluck up, and destroy, and to build again, and renew.
 68A 49 10 It was Ezechiel that saw the glorious vision, which was shewn him upon the chariot of cherubims.
 68A 49 11 For he made mention of the enemies under the figure of rain, and of doing good to them that shewed right ways.
 68A 49 12 And may the bones of the twelve prophets spring up out of their place: for they strengthened Jacob, and re-deemed themselves by strong faith.
 68A 49 13 How shall we magnify Zorobabel? for he was as a signet on the right hand;
 68A 49 14 In like manner Jesus the son of Josedec? who in their days built the house, and set up a holy temple to the Lord, prepared for everlasting glory.
 68A 49 15 And let Nehemias be a long time remembered, who raised up for us our walls that were cast down, and set up the gates and the bars, who rebuilt our houses.

68A 49 16 No man was born upon earth like Henoch: for he also was taken up from the earth.

68A 49 17 Nor as Joseph, who was a man born prince of his brethren, the support of his family, the ruler of his brethren, the stay of the people:

68A 49 18 And his bones were visited, and after death they prophesied.

68A 49 19 Seth and Sem obtained glory among men: and above every soul Adam in the beginning.

68A 50 1 Simon the high priest, the son of Onias, who in his life propped up the house, and in his days fortified the temple.

68A 50 2 By him also the height of the temple was founded, the double building and the high walls of the temple.

68A 50 3 In his days the wells of water flowed out, and they were filled as the sea above measure.

68A 50 4 He took care of his nation, and delivered it from destruction.

68A 50 5 He prevailed to enlarge the city, and obtained glory in his conversation with the people: and enlarged the entrance of the house and the court.

68A 50 6 He shone in his days as the morning star in the midst of a cloud, and as the moon at the full.

68A 50 7 And as the sun when it shineth, so did he shine in the temple of God.

68A 50 8 And as the rainbow giving light in the bright clouds, and as the flower of roses in the days of the spring, and as the lilies that are on the brink of the water, and as the sweet smelling frankincense in the time of summer.

68A 50 9 As a bright Are, and frankincense burning in the fire.

68A 50 10 As a massy vessel of gold, adorned with every precious stone.

68A 50 11 As an olive tree budding forth, and a cypress tree rearing itself on high, when he put on the robe of glory, and was clothed with the perfection of power.

68A 50 12 When he went up to the holy altar, he honoured the vesture of holiness.

68A 50 13 And when he took the portions out of the hands of the priests, he himself stood by the altar. And about him was the ring of his brethren: and as the cedar planted in mount Libanus, 68A 50 14 And as branches of palm trees, they stood round about him, and all the sons of Aaron in their glory.

68A 50 15 And the oblation of the Lord was in their hands, before all the congregation of Israel: and finishing his service, on the altar, to honour the offering of the most high Ring, 68A 50 16 He stretched forth his hand to make a libation, and offered of the blood of the grape.

68A 50 17 He poured out at the foot of the altar a divine odour to the most high Prince.

68A 50 18 Then the sons of Aaron shouted, they sounded with beaten trumpets, and made a great noise to be heard for a remembrance before God.

68A 50 19 Then all the people together made haste, and fell down to the earth upon their faces, to adore the Lord their God, and to pray to the Almighty God the most High.

68A 50 20 And the singers lifted up their voices. and in the great house the sound of sweet melody was increased.

68A 50 21 And the people in prayer besought the Lord the most High, until the worship of the Lord was perfected, and they had finished their office.

68A 50 22 Then coming down, he lifted up his hands over all the congregation of the children of Israel, to give glory to God with his lips, and to glory in his name:

68A 50 23 And he repeated his prayer, willing to shew the power of God.

68A 50 24 And now pray ye to the God of all, who hath done great things in all the earth, who hath increased our days from our mother's womb, and hath done with us according to his mercy.

68A 50 25 May he grant us joyfulness of heart, and that there be peace in our days in Israel for ever:

- 68A 50 26 That Israel may believe that the mercy of God is with us, to deliver us in his days.
- 68A 50 27 There are two nations which my soul abhorreth: and the third is no nation, which I hate:
- 68A 50 28 They that sit on mount Seir, and the Philistines, and the foolish people that dwell in Sichem.
- 68A 50 29 Jesus the son of Sirach, of Jerusalem, hath written in this book the doctrine of wisdom and instruction, who renewed wisdom from his heart.
- 68A 50 30 Blessed is he that is conversant in these good things: and he that layeth them up in his heart, shall be wise always.
- 68A 50 31 For if he do them, he shall be strong to do all things: because the light of God guideth his steps.
- 68A 51 1 They compassed me on every side, and there was no one that would help me. I looked for the succour of men, and there was none.
- 68A 51 11 I remembered thy mercy, O Lord, and thy works, which are from the beginning of the world.
- 68A 51 12 How thou deliverest them that wait for thee, O Lord, and savest them out of the hands of the nations.
- 68A 51 13 Thou hast exalted my dwelling place upon the earth and I have prayed for death to pass away.
- 68A 51 14 I called upon the Lord, the father of my Lord, that he would not leave me in the day of my trouble, and in the time of the proud without help.
- 68A 51 15 I will praise thy name continually, and will praise it with thanksgiving, and my prayer was heard.
- 68A 51 16 And thou hast saved me from destruction, and hast delivered me from the evil time.
- 68A 51 17 Therefore I will give thanks, and praise thee, and bless the name of the Lord.
- 68A 51 18 When I was yet young, before I wandered about, I sought for wisdom openly in my prayer.
- 68A 51 19 I prayed for her before the temple, and unto the very end I will seek after her, and she flourished as a grape soon ripe.
- 68A 51 20 My heart delighted in her, my foot walked in the right way, from my youth up I sought after her.
- 68A 51 21 I bowed down my ear a little, and received her.
- 68A 51 22 I found much wisdom in myself, and I profited much therein.
- 68A 51 23 To him that giveth me wisdom, will I give glory.
- 68A 51 24 For I have determined to follow her: I have had a zeal for good, and shall not be confounded.
- 68A 51 25 My soul hath wrestled for her, and in doing it I have been confirmed.
- 68A 51 26 I stretched forth my hands on high, and I bewailed my ignorance of her.
- 68A 51 27 I directed my soul to her, and in knowledge I found her.
- 68A 51 28 I possessed my heart with her from the beginning: therefore I shall not be forsaken.
- 68A 51 29 My entrails were troubled in seeking her: therefore shall I possess a good possession.
- 68A 51 30 The Lord hath given me a tongue for my reward: and with it I will praise him.
- 68A 51 31 Draw near to me, ye unlearned, and gather yourselves together into the house of discipline.
- 68A 51 32 Why are ye slow? and what do you say of these things? your souls are exceeding thirsty.
- 68A 51 33 I have opened my mouth, and have spoken: buy her for yourselves without silver,

68A 51 34 And submit your neck to the yoke, and let your soul receive discipline: for she is near at hand to be found.

68A 51 35 Behold with your eyes how I have laboured a little, and have found much rest to myself.

68A 51 36 Receive ye discipline as a great sum of money, and possess abundance of gold by her.

68A 51 37 Let your soul rejoice in his mercy, and you shall not be confounded in his praise.

68A 51 38 Work your work before the time, and he will give you your reward in his time.

71A 1 1 Now Arphaxad king of the Medes had brought many nations under his dominions, and he built a very strong city, which he called Ecbatana, 71A 1 2 Of stones squared and hewed: he made the walls thereof seventy cubits broad, and thirty cubits high, and the towers thereof he made a hundred cubits high. But on the square of them, each side was extended the space of twenty feet.

71A 1 3 And he made the gates thereof according to the height of the towers:

71A 1 4 And he gloried as a mighty one in the force of his army and in the glory of his chariots.

71A 1 5 Now in the twelfth year of his reign, Nabuchodonosor king of the Assyrians, who reigned in Ninive the great city, fought against Arphaxad and overcame him, 71A 1 6 In the great plain which is called Ragua, about the Euphrates, and the Tigris, and the Jadason, in the plain of Erioch the king of the Elicians.

71A 1 7 Then was the kingdom of Nabuchodonosor exalted, and his heart was elevated: and he sent to all that dwelt in Cilicia and Damascus, and Libanus,

71A 1 8 And to the nations that are in Carmelus, and Cedar, and to the inhabitants of Galilee in the great plain of Asdrelon, 71A 1 9 And to all that were in Samaria, and beyond the river Jordan even to Jerusalem, and all the land of Jesse till you come to the borders of Ethiopia.

71A 1 10 To all these Nabuchodonosor king of the Assyrians, sent messengers:

71A 1 11 But they all with one mind refused, and sent them back empty, and rejected them without honour.

71A 1 12 Then king Nabuchodonosor being angry against all that land, swore by his throne and kingdom that he would revenge himself of all those countries.

71A 2 1 In the thirteenth year of the reign of Nabuchodonosor, the two and twentieth day of the first month, the word was given out in the house of Nabuchodonosor king of the Assyrians, that he would revenge himself.

71A 2 2 And he called all the ancients, and all the governors, and his officers of war, and communicated to them the secret of his counsel:

71A 2 3 And he said that his thoughts were to bring all the earth under his empire.

71A 2 4 And when this saying pleased them all, Nabuchodonosor, the king, called Holofernes the general of his armies, 71A 2 5 And said to him: Go out against all the kingdoms of the west, and against them especially that despised my commandment.

71A 2 6 Thy eye shall not spare any kingdom, and all the strong cities thou shalt bring under my yoke.

71A 2 7 Then Holofernes called the captains and officers of the power of the Assyrians: and he mustered men for the expedition, as the king commanded him, a hundred and twenty thousand fighting men on foot, and twelve thousand archers, horsemen.

71A 2 8 And he made all his warlike preparations to go before with a multitude of innumerable camels, with all provisions sufficient for the armies in abundance, and herds of oxen, and flocks of sheep, without number.

71A 2 9 He appointed corn to be prepared out of all Syria in his passage.
 71A 2 10 But gold and silver he took out of the king's house in great abundance.
 71A 2 11 And he went forth he and all the army, with the chariots, and horsemen, and archers, who covered the face of the earth, like locusts.
 71A 2 12 And when he had passed through the borders of the Assyrians, he came to the great mountains of Ange, which are on the left of Cilicia: and he went up to all their castles, and took all the strong places.
 71A 2 13 And he took by assault the renowned city of Melothus, and pillaged all the children of Tharsis, and the children of Ismahel, who were over against the face of the desert, and on the south of the land of Cellon.
 71A 2 14 And he passed over the Euphrates and came into Mesopotamia: and he forced all the stately cities that were there, from the torrent of Mambre, till one comes to the sea:
 71A 2 15 And he took the borders thereof from Cilicia to the coasts of Japheth, which are towards the south.
 71A 2 16 And he carried away all the children of Madian, and stripped them of all their riches, and all that resisted him he slew with the edge of the sword.
 71A 2 17 And after these things he went down into the plains of Damascus in the days of the harvest, and he set all the corn on fire, and he caused all the trees and vineyards to be cut down
 71A 2 18 And the fear of them fell upon alit the inhabitants of the land.
 71A 3 1 Then the kings and the princes of all the cities and provinces, of Syria, Mesopotamia, and Syria Sobal, and Libya, and Cilicia sent their ambassadors, who coming to Holofernes, said:
 71A 3 2 Let thy indignation towards us cease: for it is better for us to live and serve Nabuchodonosor the great king, and be subject to thee, than to die and to perish, or suffer the miseries of slavery.
 71A 3 3 All our cities and our possessions, all mountains and hills, and fields, and herds of oxen, and flocks of cheep, and goats, and horses, and camels, and all our goods, and families are in thy sight:
 71A 3 4 Let all we have be subject to thy law.
 71A 3 5 Both we and our children are thy servants.
 71A 3 6 Come to us a peaceable lord, and use our service as it shall please thee.
 71A 3 7 Then he came down from the mountains with horsemen, in great power, and made himself master of every city, and all the inhabitants of the land.
 71A 3 8 And from all the cities he took auxiliaries valiant men, and chosen for war.
 71A 3 9 And so great a fear lay upon all those provinces, that the inhabitants of all the cities, both princes and nobles, as well as the people, went out to meet him at his coming.
 71A 3 10 And received him with garlands, and lights, and dances, and tumbrels, and flutes.
 71A 3 11 And though they did these things, they could not for all that mitigate the fierceness of his heart:
 71A 3 12 For he both destroyed their cities and cut down their groves.
 71A 3 13 For Nabuchodonosor the king had commanded him to destroy all the gods of the earth, that he only might be called God by those nations which could be brought under him by the power of Holofernes.
 71A 3 14 And when he had passed through all Syria Sobal, and all Apamea, and all Mesopotamia, he came to the Idumeans into the land of Gabaa, 71A 3 15 And he took possession of their cities, and stayed there for thirty days, in which days he commanded all the troops of his army to be united.
 71A 4 1 Then the children of Israel, who dwelt in the land of Juda, hearing these things, were exceedingly afraid of him.
 71A 4 2 Dread and horror seized upon their minds, lest he should do the same to Jerusalem and to the temple of the Lord, that he had done to other cities and their temples.

71A 4 3 And they sent into all Samaria round about, as far as Jericho, and seized upon all the tops of the mountains:

71A 4 4 And they compassed their towns with walls, and gathered together corn for provision for war.

71A 4 5 And Eliachim the priest wrote to all that were over against Esdrelon, which faceth the great plain near Dothain, and to all by whom there might be a passage of way, that they should take possession of the ascents of the mountains, by which there might be any way to Jerusalem, and should keep watch where the way was narrow between the mountains.

71A 4 6 And the children of Israel did as the priest of the Lord Eliachim had appointed them, 71A 4 7 And all the people cried to the Lord with great earnestness, and they humbled their souls in fastings, and prayers, both they and their wives.

71A 4 8 And the priests put on haircloths, and they caused the little children to lie prostrate before the temple of the Lord, and the altar of the Lord they covered with haircloth.

71A 4 9 And they cried to the Lord the God of Israel with one accord, that their children might not be made a prey, and their wives carried off, and their cities destroyed, and their holy things profaned, and that they might not be made a reproach to the Gentiles.

71A 4 10 Then Eliachim the high priest of the Lord went about all Israel and spoke to them, 71A 4 11 Saying: Know ye that the Lord will hear your prayers, if you continue with perseverance in fastings and prayers in the sight of the Lord.

71A 4 12 Remember Moses the servant of the Lord, who overcame Amalec that trusted in his own strength, and in his power, and in his army, and in his shields, and in his chariots, and in his horsemen, not by fighting with the sword, but by holy prayers:

71A 4 13 So shall all the enemies of Israel be, if you persevere in this work which you have begun.

71A 4 14 So they being moved by this exhortation of his, prayed to the Lord, and continued in the sight of the Lord.

71A 4 15 So that even they who offered the holocausts to the Lord, offered the sacrifices to the Lord girded with haircloths, and with ashes upon their head.

71A 4 16 And they all begged of God with all their heart, that he would visit his people Israel.

71A 5 1 And it was told Holofernes the general of the army of the Assyrians, that the children of Israel prepared themselves to resist, and had shut up the ways of the mountains.

71A 5 2 And he was transported with exceeding great fury and indignation, and he called all the princes of Moab and the leaders of Amman.

71A 5 3 And he said to them: Tell me what is this people that besetteth the mountains: or what are their cities, and of what sort, and how great: also what is their power, or what is their multitude: or who is the king over their warfare:

71A 5 4 And why they above all that dwell in the east, have despised us, and have not come out to meet us, that they might receive us with peace?

71A 5 5 Then Achior captain of all the children of Ammon answering, said: If thou vouch safe, my lord, to hear, I will tell the truth in thy sight concerning this people, that dwelleth in the mountains, and there shall not a false word come out of my mouth.

71A 5 6 This people is of the offspring of the Chaldeans.

71A 5 7 They dwelt first in Mesopotamia, because they would not follow the gods of their fathers, who were in the land of the Chaldeans.

71A 5 8 Wherefore forsaking the ceremonies of their fathers, which consisted in the worship of many gods,

71A 5 9 They worshipped one God of heaven, who also commanded them to depart from thence, and to dwell in Charan. And when there was a famine over all the land, they went down into Egypt, and there for four hundred years were so multiplied, that the army of them could not be numbered.

71A 5 10 And when the king of Egypt oppressed them, and made slaves of them to labour in clay and brick, in the building of his cities, they cried to their Lord, and he struck the whole land of Egypt with divers plagues.

71A 5 11 And when the Egyptians had cast them out from them, and the plague had ceased from them, and they had a mind to take them again, and bring them back to their service, 71A 5 12 The God of heaven opened the sea to them in their flight, so that the waters were made to stand firm as a wall on either side, and they walked through the bottom of the sea and passed it dry foot.

71A 5 13 And when an innumerable army of the Egyptians pursued after them in that place, they were so overwhelmed with the waters, that there was not one left, to tell what had happened to posterity.

71A 5 14 And after they came out of the Red Sea, they abode in the deserts of mount Sina, in which never man could dwell, or son of man rested.

71A 5 15 There bitter fountains were made sweet for them to drink, and for forty years they received food from heaven.

71A 5 16 Wheresoever they went in without bow and arrow, and without shield and sword, their God fought for them and overcame.

71A 5 17 And there was no one that triumphed over this people, but when they departed from the worship of the Lord their God.

71A 5 18 But as often as beside their own God, they worshipped any other, they were given to spoil, and to the sword, and to reproach.

71A 5 19 And as often as they were penitent for having revolted from the worship of their God, the God of heaven gave them power to resist.

71A 5 20 So they overthrew the king of the Chanaanites, and of the Jebusites, and of the Pherezites, and of the Hethites, and of the Hevites, and of the Amorrhites, and all the mighty ones in Hesebon, and they possessed their lands, and their cities:

71A 5 21 And as long as they sinned not in the sight of their God, it was well with them: for their God hateth iniquity.

71A 5 22 And even some years ago when they had revolted from the way which God had given them to walk therein, they were destroyed in battles by many nations, and very many of them were led away captive into a strange land.

71A 5 23 But of late returning to the Lord their God, from the different places wherein they were scattered, they are come together and are gone up into all these mountains, and possess Jerusalem again, where their holies are

71A 5 24 Now therefore, my lord, search if there be any iniquity of theirs in the sight of their God: let us go up to them, because their God will surely deliver them to thee, and they shall be brought under the yoke of thy power:

71A 5 25 But if there be no offense of this people in the sight of their God, we can not resist them, because their God will defend them: and we shall be a reproach to the whole earth.

71A 5 26 And it came to pass, when Achior had ceased to speak these words, all the great men of Holofernes were angry, and they had a mind to kill him, saying to each other:

71A 5 27 Who is this, that saith the children of Israel can resist king Nabuchodonosor, and his armies, men unarmed, and without force, and without skill in the art of war?

71A 5 28 That Achior therefore may know that he deceiveth us, let us go up into the mountains: and when the bravest of them shall be taken, then shall he with them be stabbed with the sword:

71A 5 29 That every nation may know that Nabuchodonosor is god of the earth, and besides him there is no other.

71A 6 1 And it came to pass when they had left off speaking, that Holofernes being in a violent passion, said to Achior:

71A 6 2 Because thou hast prophesied unto us, saying: That the nation of Israel is defended by their God, to shew thee that there is no God, but Nabuehodonosor:

71A 6 3 When we shall slay them all as one man, then thou also shalt die with them by the sword of the Assyrians, and all Israel shall perish with thee:

71A 6 4 And thou shalt find that Nabuchodonosor is lord of the whole earth: and then the sword of my soldiers shall pass through thy sides, and thou shalt be stabbed and fall among the wounded of Israel, and thou shalt breathe no more till thou be destroyed with them.

71A 6 5 But if thou think thy prophecy true, let not thy countenance sink, and let the paleness that is in thy face, depart from thee, if thou imaginest these my words cannot be accomplished.

71A 6 6 And that thou mayst know that thou shalt experience these things together with them, behold from this hour thou shalt be associated to their people, that when they shall receive the punishment they deserve from my sword, thou mayst fall under the same vengeance.

71A 6 7 Then Holofernes commanded his servants to take Achior, and to lead him to Bethulia, and to deliver him into the hands of the children of Israel.

71A 6 8 And the servants of Holofernes taking him, went through the plains: but when they came near the mountains, the slingers came out against them.

71A 6 9 Then turning out of the way by the side of the mountain, they tied Achior to a tree hand and foot, and so left him bound with ropes, and returned to their master.

71A 6 10 And the children of Israel coming down from Bethulia, came to him, and loosing him they brought him to Bethulia, and setting him in the midst of the people, asked him what was the matter, that the Assyrians had left him bound.

71A 6 11 In those days the rulers there, were Ozias the son of Micha of the tribe of Simeon, and Charmi, called also Gothoniël.

71A 6 12 And Achior related in the midst of the ancients, and in the presence of all the people, all that he had said being asked by Holofernes: and how the people of Holofernes would have killed him for this word, 71A 6 13 And how Holofernes himself being angry had commanded him to be delivered for this cause to the Israelites: that when he should overcome the children of Israel, then he might command Achior also himself to be put to death by diverse torments, for having said: The God of heaven is their defender.

71A 6 14 And when Achior had declared all these things, all the people fell upon their faces, adoring the Lord, and all of them together mourning and weeping poured out their prayers with one accord to the Lord,

71A 6 15 Saying: O Lord God of heaven and earth, behold their pride, and look on our low condition, and have regard to the face of thy saints, and shew that thou forsakes not them that trust on thee, and that thou humblest them that presume of themselves, and glory in their own strength.

71A 6 16 So when their weeping was ended, and the peoples prayer, in which they continued all the day, was concluded, they comforted Achior, 71A 6 17 Saying: the God of our fathers, whose power thou hast set forth, will make this return to thee, that thou rather shalt see their destruction.

71A 6 18 And when the Lord our God shall give this liberty to his servants, let God be with thee also in the midst of us: that as it shall please thee, so thou with all thine mayst converse with us.

71A 6 19 Then Ozias, after the assembly was broken up, received him into his house, and made him a great supper.

71A 6 20 And all the ancients were invited, and they refreshed themselves together after their fast was over.

71A 6 21 And afterwards all the people were called together, and they prayed all the night long within the church, desiring help of the God of Israel.

71A 7 1 But Holofernes on the next day gave orders to his army, to go up against Bethulia.

71A 7 2 Now there were in his troops a hundred and twenty thousand footmen, and two and twenty thousand horsemen, besides the preparations of those men who had been taken, and who had been brought away out of the provinces and cities of all the youth.

71A 7 3 All these prepared themselves together to fight against the children of Israel, and they came by the hillside to the top, which looketh toward Dothain, from the place which is called Behlma, unto Chelmon, which is over against Esdrelon.

71A 7 4 But the children of Israel, when they saw the multitude of them, prostrated themselves upon the ground, putting ashes upon their heads, praying with one accord, that the God of Israel would shew his mercy upon his people.

71A 7 5 And taking their arms of war, they posted themselves at the places, which by a narrow pathway lead directly between the mountains, and they guarded them all day and night.

71A 7 6 Now Holofernes, in going round about, found that the fountains which supplied them with water, ran through an aqueduct without the city on the south side: and he commanded their aqueduct to be cut off.

71A 7 7 Nevertheless there were springs not far from the walls, out of which they were seen secretly to draw water, to refresh themselves a little rather than to drink their fill.

71A 7 8 But the children of Ammon and Moab came to Holofernes, saying: The children of Israel trust not in their spears, nor in their arrows, but the mountains are their defense, and the steep hires and precipices guard them.

71A 7 9 Wherefore that thou mayst overcome them without joining battle, set guards at the springs that they may not draw water out of them, and thou shalt destroy them without sword, or at least being wearied out they will yield up their city, which they suppose, because it is situate in the mountains, to be impregnable.

71A 7 10 And these words pleased Holofernes, and his officers, and he placed all round about a hundred men at every spring.

71A 7 11 And when they had kept this watch for full twenty days, the cisterns, and the reserve of waters failed among all the inhabitants of Bethulia, so that there was not within the city, enough to satisfy them, no not for one day, for water was daily given out to the people by measure.

71A 7 12 Then all the men and women, young men, and children, gathering themselves together to Ozias, all together with one voice, 71A 7 13 Said: God be judge between us and thee, for thou hast done evil against us, in that thou wouldst not speak peaceably with the Assyrians, and for this cause God hath sold us into their hands.

71A 7 14 And therefore there is no one to help us, while we are cast down before their eyes in thirst, and sad destruction.

71A 7 15 And now assemble ye all that are in the city, that we may of our own accord yield ourselves all up to the people of Holofernes.

71A 7 16 For it is better, that being captives we should live and bless the Lord, than that we should die, and be a reproach to all flesh, after we have seen our wives and our infants die before our eyes.

71A 7 17 We call to witness this day heaven and earth, and the God of our fathers, who taketh vengeance upon us according to our sins, conjuring you to deliver now the city into the hand of the army of Holofernes, that our end may be short by the edge of the sword, which is made longer by the drought of thirst.

71A 7 18 And when they had said these things, there was great weeping and lamentation of all in the assembly, and for many hours with one voice they cried to God, saying:

71A 7 19 We have sinned with our fathers we have done unjustly, we have committed iniquity:

71A 7 20 Have thou mercy on us, because thou art good, or punish our iniquities by chastising us thyself, and deliver not them that trust in thee to a people that knoweth not thee, 71A 7 21 That they may not say among the gentiles: Where is their God?

71A 7 22 And when being wearied with these cries, and tired with these weepings, they held their peace, 71A 7 23 Ozias rising up all in tears, said: Be of good courage, my brethren, and let us wait these five days for mercy from the Lord.

71A 7 24 For perhaps he will put a stop to his indignation, and will give glory to his own name.

71A 7 25 But if after five days be past there come no aid, we will do the things which you leave spoken.

71A 8 1 Now it came to pass, when Judith a widow had heard these words, who was the daughter of Merari, the son of Idox, the son of Joseph, the son of Ozias, the son of Elai, the son of Jamnor, the son of Gedeon, the son of Raphaim, the son of Achitob, the son of Melehias, the son of Enan, the son of Nathanias, the son of Salathiel, the son of Simeon, the son of Ruben:

71A 8 2 And her husband was Manasses, who died in the time of the barley harvest:

71A 8 3 For he was standing over them that bound sheaves in the field ; and the heat came upon his head, and he died in Bethulia his own city, and was buried there with his fathers.

71A 8 4 And Judith his relict was a widow now three years and six months.

71A 8 5 And she made herself a private chamber in the upper part of her house, in which she abode shut up with her maids.

71A 8 6 And she wore haircloth upon her loins, and fasted all the days of her life, except the sabbaths, and new moons, and the feasts of the house of Israel.

71A 8 7 And she was exceedingly beautiful, and her husband left her great riches, and very many servants, and large possessions of herds of oxen, and flocks of sheep.

71A 8 8 And she was greatly renowned among all, because she feared the Lord very much, neither was there any one that spoke an ill word of her.

71A 8 9 When therefore she had heard that Ozias had promised that he would deliver up the city after the fifth day, she sent to the ancients Chabri and Charmi.

71A 8 10 And they came to her, and she said to them: What is this word, by which Ozias hath consented to give up the city to the Assyrians, if within five days there come no aid to us?

71A 8 11 And who are you that tempt the Lord?

71A 8 12 This is not a word that may draw down mercy, but rather that may stir up wrath, and enkindle indignation.

71A 8 13 You have set a time for the mercy of the Lord, and you have appointed him a day, according to your pleasure.

71A 8 14 But forasmuch as the Lord is patient, let us be penitent for this same thing, and with many tears let us beg his pardon:

71A 8 15 For God will not threaten like man, nor be inflamed to anger like the son of man.

71A 8 16 And therefore let us humble our souls before him, and continuing in an humble spirit, in his service:

71A 8 17 Let us ask the Lord with tears, that according to his will so he would shew his mercy to us: that as our heart is troubled by their pride, so also we may glorify in our humility.

71A 8 18 For we have not followed the sins of our fathers, who forsook their God, and worshipped strange gods.

71A 8 19 For which crime they were given up to their enemies, to the sword, and to pillage, and to confusion: but we know no other God but him.

71A 8 20 Let us humbly wait for his consolation, and the Lord our God will require our blood of the afflictions of our enemies, and he will humble all the nations that shall rise up against us, and bring them to disgrace.

71A 8 21 And now, brethren, as you are the ancients among the people of God, and their very soul resteth upon you: comfort their hearts by your speech, that they may be mindful how our fathers were tempted that they might be proved, whether they worshipped their God truly.

71A 8 22 They must remember how our father Abraham was tempted, and being proved by many tribulations, was made the friend of God.

71A 8 23 go Isaac, so Jacob, so Moses, and all that have pleased God, passed through many tribulations, remaining faithful.

71A 8 24 But they that did not receive the trials with the fear of the Lord, but uttered their impatience and the reproach of their murmuring against the Lord, 71A 8 25 Were destroyed by the destroyer, and perished by serpents.

71A 8 26 As for us therefore let us not revenge ourselves for these things which we suffer

71A 8 27 But esteeming these very punishments to be less than our sins deserve, let us believe that these scourges of the Lord, with which like servants we are chastised, have happened for our amendment, and not for our destruction.

71A 8 28 And Ozias and the ancients said to her: All things which thou hast spoken are true, and there is nothing to be reprehended in thy words.

71A 8 29 Now therefore pray for us, for thou art a holy woman, and one fearing God.

71A 8 30 And Judith said to them: As you know that what I have been able to say is of God:

71A 8 31 So that which I intend to do prove ye if it be of God, and pray that God may strengthen my design.

71A 8 32 You shall stand at the gate this night, and I will go out with my maidservant: and pray ye, that as you have said, in five days the Lord may look down upon his people Israel.

71A 8 33 But I desire that you search not into what I am doing, and till I bring you word let nothing else be done but to pray for me to the Lord our God.

71A 8 34 And Ozias the prince of Juda said to her: Go in peace, and the Lord be with thee to take revenge of our enemies. So returning they departed.

71A 9 1 And when they were gone, Judith went into her oratory: and putting on haircloth, laid ashes on her head: and falling down prostrate before the Lord, she cried to the Lord, saying:

71A 9 2 O Lord God of my father Simeon, who gavest him a sword to execute vengeance against strangers, who had defiled by their uncleanness, and uncovered the virgin unto confusion:

71A 9 3 And who gavest their wives to be made a prey, and their daughters into captivity: and all their spoils to be divided to thy servants, who were zealous with thy zeal: assist, I beseech thee, O Lord God, me a widow.

71A 9 4 For thou hast done the things of old, and hast devised one thing after another: and what thou hast designed hath been done.

71A 9 5 For all thy ways are prepared, and in thy providence thou hast placed thy judgments.

71A 9 6 Look upon the camp of the Assyrians now, as thou wast pleased to look upon the camp of the Egyptians, when they pursued armed after thy servants, trusting in their chariots, and in their horsemen, and in a multitude of warriors.

71A 9 7 But thou lookedst over their camp, and darkness wearied them.

71A 9 8 The deep held their feet, and the waters overwhelmed them.

71A 9 9 So may it be with these also, O Lord, who trust in their multitude, and in their chariots, and in their pikes, and in their shields, and in their arrows, and glory in their spears, 71A 9 10 And know not that thou art our God, who destroyest wars from the beginning, and the Lord is thy name.

71A 9 11 Lift up thy arm as from the beginning, and crush their power with thy power: let their power fall in their wrath, who promise themselves to violate thy sanctuary, and defile the dwelling place of thy name, and to beat down with their sword the horn of thy altar.

71A 9 12 Bring to pass, O Lord, that his pride may be cut off with his own sword.

71A 9 13 Let him be caught in the net of his own eyes in my regard, and do thou strike him by the graces of the words of my lips.

71A 9 14 Give me constancy in my mind, that I may despise him: and fortitude that I may overthrow him.

71A 9 15 For this will be a glorious monument for thy name, when he shall fall by the hand of a woman.

71A 9 16 For thy power, O Lord, is not in a multitude, nor is thy pleasure in the strength of horses, nor from the beginning have the proud been acceptable to thee: but the prayer of the humble and the meek hath always pleased thee.

71A 9 17 O God of the heavens, creator of the waters, and Lord of the whole creation, hear me a poor wretch, making supplication to thee, and presuming of thy mercy.

71A 9 18 Remember, O Lord, thy covenant, and put thou words in my mouth, and strengthen the resolution in my heart, that thy house may continue in thy holiness:

71A 9 19 And all nations may acknowledge that thou art God, and there is no other besides thee.

71A 10 1 And it came to pass, when she had ceased to cry to the Lord, that she rose from the place wherein she lay prostrate before the Lord.

71A 10 2 And she called her maid, and going down into her house she took off her haircloth, and put away the garments of her widowhood, 71A 10 3 And she washed her body, and anointed herself with the best ointment, and plaited the hair of her head, and put a bonnet upon her head, and clothed herself with the garments of her gladness, and put sandals on her feet, and took her bracelets, and lilies, and earlets, and rings, and adorned herself with all her ornaments.

71A 10 4 And the Lord also gave her more beauty: because all this dressing up did not proceed from sensuality, lent from virtue: and therefore the Lord increased this her beauty, so that she appeared to all men's eyes incomparably lovely.

71A 10 5 And she gave to her maid a bottle of wine to carry, and a vessel of oil, and parched corn, and dry figs, and bread and cheese, and went out.

71A 10 6 And when they came to the gate of the city, they found Ozias, and the ancients of the city waiting.

71A 10 7 And when they saw her they were astonished, and admired her beauty exceedingly.

71A 10 8 But they asked her no question, only they let her pass, saying: The God of our fathers give thee grace, and may he strengthen all the counsel of thy heart with his power, that Jerusalem may glory in thee, and thy name may be in the number of the holy and just.

71A 10 9 And they that were there said, all with one voice: So be it, so be it.

71A 10 10 But Judith praying to the Lord, passed through the gates, she and her maid.

71A 10 11 And it came to pass, when she went down the hill, about break of day, that the watchmen of the Assyrians met her and stopped her, saying: Whence comest thou? or whither goest thou?

71A 10 12 And she answered: I am a daughter of the Hebrews, and I am fled from them, because I knew they would be made a prey to you, because they despised you, and would not of their own accord yield themselves, that they might find mercy in your sight.

71A 10 13 For this reason I thought with myself, saying: I will go to the presence of the prince Holofernes, that I may tell him their secrets, and shew him by what way he may take them, without the loss of one man of his army.

71A 10 14 And when the men had heard her words, they beheld her face, and their eyes were amazed, for they wondered exceedingly at her beauty.

71A 10 15 And they said to her: Thou hast saved thy life by taking this resolution, to come down to our lord.

71A 10 16 And be assured of this, that when thou shalt stand before him, he will treat thee well, and thou wilt be most acceptable to his heart. And they brought her to the tent of Holofernes, telling him of her.

71A 10 17 And when she was come into his presence, forthwith Holofernes was caught by his eyes.

71A 10 18 And his officers said to him: Who can despise the people of the Hebrews who have such beautiful women, that we should not think it worth our while for their sakes to fight against them?

71A 10 19 And Judith seeing Holofernes sitting under a canopy, which was woven of purple and gold, with emeralds and precious stones:

71A 10 20 After she had looked on his face bowed down to him, prostrating herself to the ground. And the servants of Holofernes lifted her up, by the command of their master.

71A 11 1 Then Holofernes said to her: Be of good comfort, and fear not in thy heart: for I have never hurt a man that was willing to serve Nabuchodonosor the king.

71A 11 2 And if thy people had not despised me, I would never have lifted up my spear against them.

71A 11 3 But now tell me, for what cause hast thou left them, and why it hath pleased thee to come to us?

71A 11 4 And Judith said to him: Receive the words of thy handmaid, for if thou wilt follow the words of thy handmaid, the Lord will do with thee a perfect thing.

71A 11 5 For as Nabuchodonosor the king of the earth liveth, and his power liveth which is in thee for chastising of all straying souls: not only men serve him through thee, but also the beasts of the field obey him.

71A 11 6 For the industry of thy mind is spoken of among all nations, and it is told through the whole world, that thou only art excellent, and mighty in all his kingdom, and thy discipline is cried up in all provinces.

71A 11 7 It is known also what Achior said, nor are we ignorant of what thou hast commanded to be done to him.

71A 11 8 For it is certain that our God is so offended with sins, that he hath sent word by his prophets to the people, that he will deliver them up for their sins.

71A 11 9 And because the children of Israel know they have offended their God, thy dread is upon them.

71A 11 10 Moreover also a famine hath come upon them, and for drought of water they are already to be counted among the dead.

71A 11 11 And they have a design even to kill their cattle, and to drink the blood of them.

71A 11 12 And the consecrated things of the Lord their God which God forbade them to touch, in corn, wine, and oil, these have they purposed to make use of, and they design to consume the things which they ought not to touch with their hands: therefore because they do these things, it is certain they will be given up to destruction.

71A 11 13 And I thy handmaid knowing this, am fled from them, and the Lord hath sent me to tell thee these very things.

71A 11 14 For I thy handmaid worship God even now that I am with thee, and thy handmaid will go out, and I will pray to God,

71A 11 15 And he will tell me when he will repay them for their sins, and I will come and tell thee, so that I may bring thee through the midst of Jerusalem, and thou shalt have all the people of Israel, as sheep that have no shepherd, and there shall not so much as one dog bark against thee:

71A 11 16 Because these things are told me by the providence of God.

71A 11 17 And because God is angry with them, I am sent to tell these very things to thee.

71A 11 18 And all these words pleased Holofernes, and his servants, and they admired her wisdom, and they said one to another:

71A 11 19 There is not such another woman upon earth in look, in beauty, and in sense of words.

71A 11 20 And Holofernes said to her: God hath done well who sent thee before the people, that thou mightest give them into our hands:

71A 11 21 And because thy promise is good, if thy God shall do this for me, he shall also be my God, and thou shalt be great in the house of Nabuchodonosor, and thy name shall be renowned through all the earth.

71A 12 1 Then he ordered that she should go in where his treasures were laid up, and bade her tarry there, and he appointed what should be given her from his own table.

71A 12 2 And Judith answered him and said: Now I cannot eat of these things which thou commandest to be given me, lest sin come upon me: but I will eat of the things which I have brought.

71A 12 3 And Holofernes said to her: If these things which thou hast brought with thee fail thee, what shall we do for thee?

71A 12 4 And Judith said: As thy soul liveth, my lord, thy handmaid shall not spend all these things till God do by my hand that which I have purposed. And his servants brought her into the tent which he had commanded.

71A 12 5 And when she was going in, she desired that she might have liberty to go out at night and before day to prayer, and to beseech the Lord.

71A 12 6 And he commanded his chamberlains, that she might go out and in, to adore her God as she pleased, for three days.

71A 12 7 And she went out in the nights into the valley of Bethulia, and washed herself in a fountain of water.

71A 12 8 And as she came up, she prayed to the Lord the God of Israel, that he would direct her way to the deliverance of his people.

71A 12 9 And going in, she remained pure in the tent, until she took her own meat in the evening.

71A 12 10 And it came to pass on the fourth day, that Holofernes made a supper for his servants, and said to Vagao his eunuch: so, and persuade that Hebrew woman, to consent of her own accord to dwell with me.

71A 12 11 For it is looked upon as shameful among the Assyrians, if a woman mock a man, by doing so as to pass free from him.

71A 12 12 Then Vagao went in to Judith, and said: Let not my good maid be afraid to go in to my lord, that she may be honoured before his face, that she may eat with him and drink wine and be merry.

71A 12 13 And Judith answered him: Who am I, that I should gainsay my lord?

71A 12 14 All that shall be good and best before his eyes, I will do. And whatsoever shall please him, that shall be best to me all the days of my life.

71A 12 15 And she arose and dressed herself out with her garments, and going in she stood before his face.

71A 12 16 And the heart of Holofernes was smitten, for he was burning with the desire of her.

71A 12 17 And Holofernes said to her: Drink now, and sit down and be merry for thou hast found favour before me.

71A 12 18 And Judith said: I will drink my lord, because my life is magnified this day above all my days.

71A 12 19 And she took and ate and drank before him what her maid had prepared for her.

71A 12 20 And Holofernes was made merry on her occasion, and drank exceeding much wine, so much as he had never drunk in his life.

71A 13 1 And when it was grown late, his servants made haste to their lodgings, and Vagao shut the chamber doors, and went his way.

71A 13 2 And they were all overcharged with wine.

71A 13 3 And Judith was alone in the chamber.

71A 13 4 But Holofernes lay on his bed, fast asleep, being exceedingly drunk.

71A 13 5 And Judith spoke to her maid to stand without before the chamber, and to watch:

71A 13 6 And Judith stood before the bed praying with tears, and the motion of her lips in silence,

71A 13 7 Saying: Strengthen me, O Lord God of Israel, and in this hour look on the works of my hands, that as thou hast promised, thou mayst raise up Jerusalem thy city: and that I may bring to pass that which I have purposed, having a belief that it might be done by thee.

71A 13 8 And when she had said this, she went to the pillar that was at his bed's head, and loosed his sword that hung tied upon it.

71A 13 9 And when she had drawn it out, she took him by the hair of his head, and said: Strengthen me, O Lord God, at this hour.

71A 13 10 And she struck twice upon his neck, and out off his head, and took off his canopy from the pillars, and rolled away his headless body.

71A 13 11 And after a while she went out, and delivered the head of Holofernes to her maid, and bade her put it into her wallet.

71A 13 12 And they two went out according to their custom, as it were to prayer, and they passed the camp, and having compassed the valley, they came to the gate of the city.

71A 13 13 And Judith from afar off cried to the watchmen upon the walls: Open the gates for God is with us, who hath shewn his power in Israel.

71A 13 14 And it came to pass, when the men had heard her voice, that they called the ancients of the city.

71A 13 15 And all ran to meet her from the least to the greatest: for they now had no hopes that she would come.

71A 13 16 And lighting up lights they all gathered round about her: and she went up to a higher place, and commanded silence to be made. And when all had held their peace, 71A 13 17 Judith said: Praise ye the Lord our God, who hath not forsaken them that hope in him.

71A 13 18 And by me his handmaid he hath fulfilled his mercy, which he promised to the house of Israel: and he hath killed the enemy of his people by my hand this night.

71A 13 19 Then she brought forth the head of Holofernes out of the wallet, and shewed it them, saying: Behold the head of Holofernes the general of the army of the Assyrians, and behold his canopy, wherein he lay in his drunkenness, where the Lord our God slew him by the hand of a woman.

71A 13 20 But as the same Lord liveth, his angel hath been my keeper both going hence, and abiding there, and returning from thence hither: and the Lord hath not suffered me his handmaid to be defiled, but hath brought me back to you without pollution of sin, rejoicing for his victory, for my escape, and for your deliverance.

71A 13 21 Give all of you glory to him, because he is good, because his mercy endureth for ever.

71A 13 22 And they all adored the Lord, and said to her: The Lord hath blessed thee by his power, because by thee he hath brought our enemies to nought.

71A 13 23 And Ozias the prince of the people of Israel, said to her: Blessed art thou, O daughter, by the Lord the most high God, above all women upon the earth.

71A 13 24 Blessed be the Lord who made heaven and earth, who hath directed thee to the cutting off the head of the prince of our enemies.

71A 13 25 Because he hath so magnified thy name this day, that thy praise shall not depart out of the mouth of men who shall be mindful of the power of the Lord for ever, for that thou hast not spared thy life, by reason of the distress and tribulation of thy people, but hast prevented our ruin in the presence of our God.

71A 13 26 And all the people said: So be it, so be it.

71A 13 27 And Achior being called for came, and Judith said to him: The God of Israel, to whom thou gavest testimony, that he revengeth himself of his enemies, he hath cut off the head of all the unbelievers this night by my hand.

71A 13 28 And that thou mayst find that it is so, behold the head of Holofernes, who in the contempt of his pride despised the God of Israel: and threatened thee with death, saying: When the people of Israel shall be taken, I will command thy sides to be pierced with a sword.

71A 13 29 Then Achior seeing the head of Holofernes, being seized with a great fear he fell on his face upon the earth, and his soul swooned away.

71A 13 30 But after he had recovered his spirits he fell down at her feet, and revered her and said:

71A 13 31 Blessed art thou by thy God in every tabernacle of Jacob, for in every nation which shall hear thy name, the God of Israel shall be magnified on occasion of thee.

71A 14 1 And Judith said to all the people: Hear me, my brethren, hang ye up this head upon our walls.

71A 14 2 And as soon as the sun shall rise, let every man take his arms, and rush ye out, not as going down beneath, but as making an assault.

71A 14 3 Then the watchmen must needs run to awake their prince for the battle.

71A 14 4 And when the captains of them shall run to the tent of Holofernes, and shall find him without his head wallowing in his blood, fear shall fall upon them.

71A 14 5 And when you shall know that they are fleeing, go after them securely, for the Lord will destroy them under your feet.

71A 14 6 Then Achior seeing the power that the God of Israel had wrought, leaving the religion of the gentiles, he believed God, and circumcised the flesh of his foreskin, and was joined to the people of Israel, with all the succession of his kindred until this present day.

71A 14 7 And immediately at break of day, they hung up the head of Holofernes upon the walls, and every man took his arms, and they sent out with a great noise and shouting.

71A 14 8 And the watchmen seeing this, ran to the tent of Holofernes.

71A 14 9 And they that were in the tent came, and made a noise before the door of the chamber to awake him, endeavoring by art to break his rest, that Holofernes might awake, not by their calling him, but by their noise.

71A 14 10 For no man durst knock, or open and go into the chamber of the general of the Assyrians.

71A 14 11 But when his captains and tribunes were come, and all the chiefs of the army of the king of the Assyrians, they said to the chamberlains

71A 14 12 Go in, and awake him, for the mice coming out of their holes, have presumed to challenge us to fight.

71A 14 13 Then Vagao going into his chamber, stood before the curtain, and made a clapping with his hands: for he thought that he was sleeping with Judith.

71A 14 15 And he went into the tent of Judith, and not finding her, he ran out to the people, 71A 14 16 And said: One Hebrew woman hath made confusion in the house of king Nabuchodonosor: for behold Holofernes lieth upon the ground, and his head is not upon him.

71A 14 17 Now when the chiefs of the army of the Assyrians had heard this, they all rent their garments, and an intolerable fear and dread fell upon them, and their minds were troubled exceedingly.

71A 14 18 And there was a very great cry in the midst of their camp.

71A 15 1 And when all the army heard that Holofernes was beheaded, courage and counsel fled from them, and being seized with trembling and fear they thought only to save themselves by flight:

71A 15 2 So that no one spoke to his neighbor, but hanging down the head, leaving all things behind, they made haste to escape from the Hebrews, who, as they heard, were coming armed upon them, and fled by the ways of the fields, and the paths of the hills.

71A 15 3 So the children of Israel seeing them fleeing, followed after them. And they went down sounding with trumpets and shouting after them.

71A 15 4 And because the Assyrians were not united together, they went without order in their flight ; but the children of Israel pursuing in one body, defeated all that they could find.

71A 15 5 And Ozias sent messengers through all the cities and countries of Israel.

71A 15 6 And every country, and every city, sent their chosen young men armed after them, and they pursued them with the edge of the sword until they came to the extremities of their confines.

71A 15 7 And the rest that were in Bethulia went into the camp of the Assyrians, and took away the spoils, which the Assyrians in their flight had left behind them, and they were laden exceedingly.

71A 15 8 But they that returned conquerors to Bethulia, brought with them all things that were theirs, so that there was no numbering of their cattle, and beasts, and all their moveables, insomuch that from the least to the greatest all were made rich by their spoils.

71A 15 9 And Joachim the high priest came from Jerusalem to Bethulia with all his ancients to see Judith.

71A 15 10 And when she was come out to him, they all blessed her with one voice, saying: Thou art the glory of Jerusalem, thou art the joy of Israel, thou art the honour of our people:

71A 15 11 For thou hast done manfully, and thy heart has been strengthened, because thou hast loved chastity, and after thy husband hast not known any other: therefore also the hand of the Lord hath strengthened thee, and therefore thou shalt be blessed for ever.

71A 15 12 And all the people said: So be it, so be it

71A 15 13 And thirty days were scarce sufficient for the people of Israel to gather up the spoils of the Assyrians.

71A 15 14 But all those things that were proved to be the peculiar goods of Holofernes, they gave to Judith in gold, and silver, and garments and precious stones, and all household stuff, and they all were delivered to her by the people.

71A 15 15 And all the people rejoiced, with the women, and virgins, and young men, playing on instruments and harps.

71A 16 1 Then Judith sung this canticle to the Lord, saying:

71A 16 2 Begin ye to the Lord with timbrels, sing ye to the Lord with cymbals, tune unto him a new psalm, extol and call upon his name.

71A 16 3 The Lord putteth an end to wars, the Lord is his name.

71A 16 4 He hath set his camp in the midst of his people, to deliver us from the hand of all our enemies.

71A 16 5 The Assyrians came out of the mountains from the north in the multitude of his strength: his multitude stopped up the torrents, and their horses covered the valleys.

71A 16 6 He bragged that he would set my borders on fire, and kill my young men with the sword, to make my infants a prey, and my virgins captives.

71A 16 7 But the almighty Lord hath struck him, and hath delivered him into the hands of a woman, and hath slain him.

71A 16 8 For their mighty one did not fall by young men, neither did the sons of Titan strike him, nor tall giants oppose themselves to him, but Judith the daughter of Merari weakened him with the beauty of her face.

71A 16 9 For she put off her the garments of widowhood, and put on her the garments of joy, to give joy to the children of Israel.

71A 16 10 She anointed her face with ointment, and bound up her locks with a crown, she took a new robe to deceive him.

71A 16 11 Her sandals ravished his eyes, her beauty made his soul her captive, with a sword she cut off his head.

71A 16 12 The Persians quaked at her constancy, and the Medes at her boldness.

71A 16 13 Then the camp of the Assyrians howled, when my lowly ones appeared, parched with thirst.

71A 16 14 The sons of the damsels have pierced them through, and they have killed them like children fleeing away: they perished in battle before the face of the Lord my God.

71A 16 15 Let us sing a hymn to the Lord, let us sing a new hymn to our God.

71A 16 16 O Adonai, Lord, great art thou, and glorious in thy power, and no one can overcome thee.

71A 16 17 Let all thy creatures serve thee: because thou hast spoken, and they were made: thou didst send forth thy spirit, and they were created, and there is no one that can resist thy voice.

71A 16 18 The mountains shall be moved from the foundations with the waters: the rocks shall melt as wax before thy face.

71A 16 19 But they that fear thee, shall be great with thee in all things.

71A 16 20 Woe be to the nation that riseth up against my people: for the Lord almighty will take revenge on them, in the day of judgment he will visit them.

71A 16 21 For he will give fire, and worms into their flesh, that they may burn, and may feel for ever.

71A 16 22 And it came to pass after these things, that all the people, after the victory, came to Jerusalem to adore the Lord: and as soon as they were purified, they all offered holocausts, and vows, and their promises.

71A 16 23 And Judith offered for an anathema of oblivion all the arms of Holofernes, which the people gave her, and the canopy that she had taken away out of his chamber.

71A 16 24 And the people were joyful in the sight of the sanctuary, and for three months the joy of this victory was celebrated with Judith.

71A 16 25 And after those days every man returned to his house, and Judith was made great in Bethulia, and she was most renowned in all the land of Israel.

71A 16 26 And chastity was joined to her virtue, so that she knew no man all the days of her life, after the death of Manasses her husband.

71A 16 27 And on festival days she came forth with great glory.

71A 16 28 And she abode in her husband's house a hundred and five years, and made her handmaid free, and she died, and was buried with her husband in Bethulia.

71A 16 29 And all the people mourned for seven days.

71A 16 30 And all the time of her life there was none that troubled Israel, nor many years after her death.

71A 16 31 But the day of the festivity of this victory is received by the Hebrews in the number of holy days, and is religiously observed by the Jews from that time until this day.

73A 1 1 Now it came to pass, after that Alexander the son of Philip the Macedonian, who first reigned in Greece, coming out of the land of Cethim, had overthrown Darius king of the Persians and Medes:

73A 1 2 He fought many battles, and took the strong holds of all, and slew the kings of the earth:

73A 1 3 And he went through even to the ends of the earth, and took the spoils of many nations: and the earth was quiet before him.

73A 1 4 And he gathered a power, and a very strong army: and his heart was exalted and lifted up.

73A 1 5 And he subdued countries of nations, and princes: and they became tributaries to him.

73A 1 6 And after these things, he fell down upon his bed, and knew that he should die.

73A 1 7 And he called his servants the nobles that were brought up with him from his youth: and he divided his kingdom among them, while he was yet alive.

73A 1 8 And Alexander reigned twelve years, and he died.

73A 1 9 And his servants made themselves kings every one in his place:

73A 1 10 And they all put crowns upon themselves after his death, and their sons after them many years, and evils were multiplied in the earth.

73A 1 11 And there came out of them a wicked root, Antiochus the Illustrious, the son of king Antiochus, who had been a hostage at Rome: and he reigned in the hundred and thirty-seventh year of the kingdom of the Greeks.

73A 1 12 In those days there went out of Israel wicked men, and they persuaded many, saying: Let us go, and make a covenant with the heathens that are round about us: for since we departed from them, many evils have befallen us.

73A 1 13 And the word seemed good in their eyes.

73A 1 14 And some of the people determined to do this, and went to the king: and he gave them license to do after the ordinances of the heathens.

73A 1 15 And they built a place of exercise in Jerusalem, according to the laws of the nations:

73A 1 16 And they made themselves prepuces, and departed from the holy covenant, and joined themselves to the heathens, and were sold to do evil.

73A 1 17 And the kingdom was established before Antiochus, and he had a mind to reign over the land of Egypt, that he might reign over two kingdoms.

73A 1 18 And he entered into Egypt with a great multitude, with chariots and elephants, and horsemen, and a great number of ships:

73A 1 19 And he made war against Ptolemee king of Egypt, but Ptolemee was afraid at his presence, and fled, and many were wounded unto death.

73A 1 20 And he took the strong cities in the land of Egypt: and he took the spoils of the land of Egypt.

73A 1 21 And after Antiochus had ravaged Egypt in the hundred and forty-third year, he returned and went up against Israel.

73A 1 22 And he went up to Jerusalem with a great multitude.

73A 1 23 And he proudly entered into the sanctuary, and took away the golden altar, and the candlestick of light, and all the vessels thereof, and the table of proposition, and the pouring vessels, and the vials, and the little mortars of gold, and the veil, and the crowns, and the golden ornament that was before the temple: and he broke them all in pieces.

73A 1 24 And he took the silver and gold, and the precious vessels: and he took the hidden treasures which he found: and when he had taken all away he departed into his own country.

73A 1 25 And he made a great slaughter of men, and spoke very proudly.

73A 1 26 And there was great mourning in Israel, and in every place where they were.

73A 1 27 And the princes, and the ancients mourned, and the virgins and the young men were made feeble, and the beauty of the women was changed.

73A 1 28 Every bridegroom took up lamentation: and the bride that set in the marriage bed, mourned:

73A 1 29 And the land was moved for the inhabitants thereof, and all the house of Jacob was covered with confusion.

73A 1 30 And after two full years the king sent the chief collector of his tributes to the cities of Juda, and he came to Jerusalem with a great multitude.

73A 1 31 And he spoke to them peaceable words in deceit: and they believed him.

73A 1 32 And he fell upon the city suddenly, and struck it with a great slaughter, and destroyed much people in Israel.

73A 1 33 And he took the spoils of the city, and burnt it with fire, and threw down the houses thereof, and the walls thereof round about:

73A 1 34 And they took the women captive, and the children, and the cattle they possessed.

73A 1 35 And they built the city of David with a great and strong wall, and with strong towers, and made it a fortress for them:

73A 1 36 And they placed there a sinful nation, wicked men, and they fortified themselves therein: and they stored up armour, and victuals, and gathered together the spoils of Jerusalem;

73A 1 37 And laid them up there: and they became a great snare.

73A 1 38 And this was a place to lie in wait against the sanctuary, and an evil devil in Israel.

73A 1 39 And they shed innocent blood round about the sanctuary, and defiled the holy place.

73A 1 40 And the inhabitants of Jerusalem fled away by reason of them, and the city was made the habitation to strangers, and she became a stranger to her own seed, and her children forsook her.

73A 1 41 Her sanctuary was desolate like a wilderness, her festival days were turned into mourning, her sabbaths into reproach, her honours were brought to nothing.

73A 1 42 Her dishonour was increased according to her glory, and her excellency was turned into mourning.

73A 1 43 And king Antiochus wrote to all his kingdom, that all the people should be one: and every one should leave his own law.

73A 1 44 And all nations consented according to the word of king Antiochus.

73A 1 45 And many of Israel consented to his service, and they sacrificed to idols, and profaned the sabbath.

73A 1 46 And the king sent letters by the hands of messengers to Jerusalem, and to all the cities of Juda: that they should follow the law of the nations of the earth, 73A 1 47 And should forbid holocausts and sacrifices, and atonements to be made in the temple of God.

73A 1 48 And should prohibit the sabbath, and the festival days, to be celebrated.

73A 1 49 And he commanded the holy places to be profaned, and the holy people of Israel.

73A 1 50 And he commanded altars to be built, and temples, and idols, and swine's flesh to be immolated, and unclean beasts.

73A 1 51 And that they should leave their children uncircumcised, and let their souls be defiled with all uncleannesses, and abominations, to the end that they should forget the law, and should change all the justifications of God.

73A 1 52 And that whosoever would not do according to the word of king Antiochus should be put to death.

73A 1 53 According to all these words he wrote to his whole kingdom, and he appointed rulers over the people that should force them to do these things.

73A 1 54 And they commanded the cities of Juda to sacrifice.

73A 1 55 Then many of the people were gathered to them that had forsaken the law of the Lord: and they committed evils in the land:

73A 1 56 And they drove away the people of Israel into lurking holes, and into the secret places of fugitives.

73A 1 57 On the fifteenth day of the month Casleu, in the hundred and forty-fifth year, king Antiochus set up the abominable idol of desolation upon the altar of God, and they built altars throughout all the cities of Juda round about:

73A 1 58 And they burnt incense, and sacrificed at the doors of the houses, and in the streets.

73A 1 59 And they cut in pieces, and burnt with fire the books of the law of God:

73A 1 60 And every one with whom the books of the testament of the Lord were found, and whosoever observed the law of the Lord, they put to death, according to the edict of the king.

73A 1 61 Thus by their power did they deal with the people of Israel, that were found in the cities month after month.

73A 1 62 And on the five and twentieth day of the month they sacrificed upon the altar of the idol that was over against the altar of God.

73A 1 63 Now the women that circumcised their children, were slain according to the commandment of king Antiochus.

73A 1 64 And they hanged the children about their necks in all their houses: and those that had circumcised them, they put to death.

73A 1 65 And many of the people of Israel determined with themselves, that they would not eat unclean things: and they chose rather to die than to be defiled with unclean meats.

73A 1 66 And they would not break the holy law of God, and they were put to death:

73A 1 67 And there was very great wrath upon the people.

73A 2 1 In those days arose Mathathias the son of John, the son of Simeon, a priest of the sons of Joarib, from Jerusalem, and he abode in the mountain of Modin.

73A 2 2 And he had five sons: John who was surnamed Gaddis:

73A 2 3 And Simon, who was surnamed Thasi:

73A 2 4 And Judas, who was called Machabeus:

73A 2 5 And Eleazar, who was surnamed Abaron: and Jonathan, who was surnamed Apphus.

73A 2 6 These saw the evils that were done in the people of Juda, and in Jerusalem.

73A 2 7 And Mathathias said: Woe is me, wherefore was I born to see the ruin of my people, and the ruin of the holy city, and to dwell there, when it is given into the hands of the enemies?

73A 2 8 The holy places are come into the hands of strangers: her temple is become as a man without honour.

73A 2 9 The vessels of her glory are carried away captive: her old men are murdered in the streets, and her young men are fallen by the sword of the enemies.

73A 2 10 What nation hath not inherited her kingdom, and gotten of her spoils?

73A 2 11 All her ornaments are taken away. She that was free is made a slave.

73A 2 12 And behold our sanctuary, and our beauty, and our glory is laid waste, and the Gentiles have defiled them.

73A 2 13 To what end then should we live any longer?

73A 2 14 And Mathathias and his sons rent their garments, and they covered themselves with haircloth, and made great lamentation.

73A 2 15 And they that were sent from king Antiochus came thither, to compel them that were fled into the city of Modin, to sacrifice, and to burn incense, and to depart from the law of God.

73A 2 16 And many of the people of Israel consented, and came to them: but Mathathias and his sons stood firm.

73A 2 17 And they that were sent from Antiochus, answering, said to Mathathias: Thou art a ruler, and an honourable, and great man in this city, and adorned with sons, and brethren.

73A 2 18 Therefore come thou first, and obey the king's commandment, as all nations have done, and the men of Juda, and they that remain in Jerusalem: and thou, and thy sons, shall be in the number of the king's friends, and enriched with gold, and silver, and many presents.

73A 2 19 Then Mathathias answered, and said with a loud voice: Although all nations obey king Antiochus, so as to depart every man from the service of the law of his fathers, and consent to his commandments:

73A 2 20 I and my sons, and my brethren will obey the law of our fathers.

73A 2 21 God be merciful unto us: it is not profitable for us to forsake the law, and the justices of God:

73A 2 22 We will not hearken to the words of king Antiochus, neither will we sacrifice, and transgress the commandments of our law, to go another way.

73A 2 23 Now as he left off speaking these words, there came a certain Jew in the sight of all to sacrifice to the idols upon the altar in the city of Modin, according to the king's commandment.

73A 2 24 And Mathathias saw and was grieved, and his reins trembled, and his wrath was kindled according to the judgment of the law, and running upon him he slew him upon the altar:

73A 2 25 Moreover the man whom king Antiochus had sent, who compelled them to sacrifice, he slew at the same time, and pulled down the altar.

73A 2 26 And shewed zeal for the law, as Phinees did by Zamri the son of Salomi.

73A 2 27 And Mathathias cried out in the city with a loud voice, saying: Every one that hath zeal for the law, and maintaineth the testament, let him follow me.

73A 2 28 So he, and his sons fled into the mountains, and left all that they had in the city.

73A 2 29 Then many that sought after judgment, and justice, went down into the desert:

73A 2 30 And they abode there, they and their children, and their wives, and their cattle: because afflictions increased upon them.

73A 2 31 And it was told to the king's men, and to the army that was in Jerusalem in the city of David, that certain men who had broken the king's commandment, were gone away into the secret places in the wilderness, and that many were gone after them.

73A 2 32 And forthwith they went out towards them, and made war against them on the sabbath day, 73A 2 33 And they said to them: Do you still resist? come forth, and do according to the edict of king Antiochus, and you shall live.

73A 2 34 And they said: We will not come forth, neither will we obey the king's edict, to profane the sabbath day.

73A 2 35 And they made haste to give them battle.

73A 2 36 But they answered them not, neither did they cast a stone at them, nor stopped up the secret places,

73A 2 37 Saying: Let us all die in our innocency: and heaven and earth shall be witnesses for us, that you put us to death wrongfully.

73A 2 38 So they gave them battle on the sabbath: and they were slain with their wives, and their children, and their cattle, to the number of a thousand persons.

73A 2 39 And Mathathias and his friends heard of it, and they mourned for them exceedingly.

73A 2 40 And every man said to his neighbour: If we shall all do as our brethren have done, and not fight against the heathens for our lives, and our justifications: they will now quickly root us out of the earth.

73A 2 41 And they determined in that day, saying: Whosoever shall come up against us to fight on the sabbath day, we will fight against him: and we will not all die, as our brethren that were slain in the secret places.

73A 2 42 Then was assembled to them the congregation of the Assideans, the stoutest of Israel, every one that had a good will for the law.

73A 2 43 And all they that fled from the evils, joined themselves to them, and were a support to them.

73A 2 44 And they gathered an army, and slew the sinners in their wrath, and the wicked men in their indignation: and the rest fled to the nations for safety.

73A 2 45 And Mathathias and his friends went round about, and they threw down the altars:

73A 2 46 And they circumcised all the children whom they found in the confines of Israel that were uncircumcised: and they did valiantly.

73A 2 47 And they pursued after the children of pride, and the work prospered in their hands:

73A 2 48 And they recovered the law out of the hands of the nations, and out of the hands of the kings: and they yielded not the horn to the sinner.

73A 2 49 Now the days drew near that Mathathias should die, and he said to his sons: Now hath pride and chastisement gotten strength, and the time of destruction, and the wrath of indignation:

73A 2 50 Now therefore, O my sons, be ye zealous for the law, and give your lives for the covenant of your fathers.

73A 2 51 And call to remembrance the works of the fathers, which they have done in their generations: and you shall receive great glory, and an everlasting name.

73A 2 52 Was not Abraham found faithful in temptation, and it was reputed to him unto justice?

73A 2 53 Joseph in the time of his distress kept the commandment, and he was made lord of Egypt.

73A 2 54 Phinees our father, by being fervent in the zeal of God, received the covenant of an everlasting priesthood.

73A 2 55 Jesus, whilst he fulfilled the word, was made ruler in Israel.

73A 2 56 Caleb, for bearing witness before the congregation, received an inheritance.

73A 2 57 David by his mercy obtained the throne of an everlasting kingdom.

73A 2 58 Elias, while he was full of zeal for the law, was taken up into heaven.

73A 2 59 Ananias and Azarias and Misael by believing, were delivered out of the flame.

73A 2 60 Daniel in his innocency was delivered out of the mouth of the lions.

73A 2 61 And thus consider through all generations: that none that trust in him fail in strength.

73A 2 62 And fear not the words of a sinful man, for his glory is dung, and worms:

73A 2 63 To day he is lifted up, and to morrow he shall not be found, because he is returned into his earth; and his thought is come to nothing.

73A 2 64 You therefore, my sons, take courage, and behave manfully in the law: for by it you shall be glorious.

73A 2 65 And behold, I know that your brother Simon is a man of counsel: give ear to him always, and he shall be a father to you.

73A 2 66 And Judas Machabeus who is valiant and strong from his youth up, let him be the leader of your army, and he shall manage the war of the people.

73A 2 67 And you shall take to you all that observe the law: and revenge ye the wrong of your people.

73A 2 68 Render to the Gentiles their reward, and take heed to the precepts of the law.

73A 2 69 And he blessed them, and was joined to his fathers.

73A 2 70 And he died in the hundred and forty-sixth year: and he was buried by his sons in the sepulchres of his fathers in Modin, and all Israel mourned for him with great mourning.

73A 3 1 Then his son Judas, called Machabeus, rose up in his stead.

73A 3 2 And all his brethren helped him, and all they that had joined themselves to his father, and they fought with cheerfulness the battle of Israel.

73A 3 3 And he got his people great honour, and put on a breastplate as a giant, and girt his warlike armour about him in battles, and protected the camp with his sword.

73A 3 4 In his acts he was like a lion, and like a lion's whelp roaring for his prey.

73A 3 5 And he pursued the wicked and sought them out, and them that troubled his people he burnt with fire:

73A 3 6 And his enemies were driven away for fear of him, and all the workers of iniquity were troubled: and salvation prospered in his hand.

73A 3 7 And he grieved many kings, and made Jacob glad with his works, and his memory is blessed for ever.

73A 3 8 And he went through the cities of Juda, and destroyed the wicked out of them, and turned away wrath from Israel.

73A 3 9 And he was renowned even to the utmost part of the earth, and he gathered them that were perishing.

73A 3 10 And Apollonius gathered together the Gentiles, and a numerous and great army from Samaria, to make war against Israel.

73A 3 11 And Judas understood it, and went forth to meet him: and he overthrew him, and killed him: and many fell down slain, the rest fled away.

73A 3 12 And he took their spoils, and Judas took the sword of Apollonius, and fought with it all his lifetime.

73A 3 13 And Seron captain of the army of Syria heard that Judas had assembled a company of the faithful, and a congregation with him, 73A 3 14 And he said: I will get me a name, and will be glorified in the kingdom, and will overthrow Judas, and those that are with him, that have despised the edict of the king.

73A 3 15 And he made himself ready: and the host of the wicked went up with him, strong succours, to be revenged of the children of Israel.

73A 3 16 And they approached even as far as Bethoron: and Judas went forth to meet him, with a small company.

73A 3 17 But when they saw the army coming to meet them, they said to Judas: How shall we, being few, be able to fight against so great a multitude and so strong, and we are ready to faint with fasting today?

73A 3 18 And Judas said: It is an easy matter for many to be shut up in the hands of a few: and there is no difference in the sight of the God of heaven to deliver with a great multitude, or with a small company:

73A 3 19 For the success of war is not in the multitude of the army, but strength cometh from heaven.

73A 3 20 They come against us with an insolent multitude, and with pride, to destroy us, and our wives, and our children, and to take our spoils.

73A 3 21 But we will fight for our lives and our laws:

73A 3 22 And the Lord himself will overthrow them before our face: but as for you, fear them not.

73A 3 23 And as soon as he had made an end of speaking, he rushed suddenly upon them: and Seron and his host were overthrown before him:

73A 3 24 And he pursued him by the descent of Bethoron even to the plain, and there fell of them eight hundred men, and the rest fled into the land of the Philistines.

73A 3 25 And the fear of Judas and of his brethren, and the dread of them fell upon all the nations round about them.

73A 3 26 And his fame came to the king, and all nations told of the battles of Judas.

73A 3 27 Now when king Antiochus heard these words, he was angry in his mind: and he sent and gathered the forces of all his kingdom, an exceeding strong army.

73A 3 28 And he opened his treasury, and gave out pay to the army for a year: and he commanded them, that they should be ready for all things.

73A 3 29 And he perceived that the money of his treasures failed, and that the tributes of the country were small because of the dissension, and the evil that he had brought upon the land, that he might take away the laws of old times:

73A 3 30 And he feared that he should not have as formerly enough, for charges and gifts, which he had given before with a liberal hand: for he had abounded more than the kings that had been before him.

73A 3 31 And he was greatly perplexed in mind, and purposed to go into Persia, and to take tributes of the countries, and to gather much money.

73A 3 32 And he left Lysias, a nobleman of the blood royal, to oversee the affairs of the kingdom, from the river Euphrates even to the river of Egypt:

73A 3 33 And to bring up his son Antiochus, till he came again.

73A 3 34 And he delivered to him half the army, and the elephants: and he gave him charge concerning all that he would have done, and concerning the inhabitants of Judea, and Jerusalem:

73A 3 35 And that he should send an army against them, to destroy and root out the strength of Israel, and the remnant of Jerusalem, and to take away the memory of them from that place:

73A 3 36 And that he should settle strangers to dwell in all their coasts, and divide their land by lot.

73A 3 37 So the king took the half of the army that remained, and went forth from Antioch the chief city of his kingdom, in the hundred and forty-seventh year: and he passed over the river Euphrates, and went through the higher countries.

73A 3 38 Then Lysias chose Ptolemee the son of Dorymenus, and Nicanor, and Gorgias, mighty men of the king's friends.

73A 3 39 And he sent with them forty thousand men, and seven thousand horsemen: to go into the land of Juda, and to destroy it according to the king's orders.

73A 3 40 So they went forth with all their power, and came, and pitched near Emmaus in the plain country.

73A 3 41 And the merchants of the countries heard the fame of them: and they took silver and gold in abundance, and servants: and they came into the camp, to buy the children of Israel for slaves: and there were joined to them the forces of Syria, and of the land of the strangers.

73A 3 42 And Judas and his brethren saw that evils were multiplied, and that the armies approached to their borders: and they knew the orders the king had given to destroy the people and utterly abolish them.

73A 3 43 And they said every man to his neighbour: Let us raise up the low condition of our people, and let us fight for our people, and our sanctuary.

73A 3 44 And the assembly was gathered that they might be ready for battle: and that they might pray, and ask mercy and compassion.

73A 3 45 Now Jerusalem was not inhabited, but was like a desert: there was none of her children that went in or out: and the sanctuary was trodden down: and the children of strangers were in the castle, there was the habitation of the Gentiles: and joy was taken away from Jacob, and the pipe and harp ceased there.

73A 3 46 And they assembled together, and came to Maspha over against Jerusalem: for in Maspha was a place of prayer heretofore in Israel.

73A 3 47 And they fasted that day, and put on haircloth, and put ashes upon their heads: and they rent their garments:

73A 3 48 And they laid open the books of the law, in which the Gentiles searched for the likeness of their idols:

73A 3 49 And they brought the priestly ornaments, and the firstfruits and tithes, and stirred up the Nazarites that had fulfilled their days:

73A 3 50 And they cried with a loud voice toward heaven, saying: What shall we do with these, and whither shall we carry them?

73A 3 51 For thy holies are trodden down, and are profaned, and thy priests are in mourning, and are brought low.

73A 3 52 And behold the nations are come together against us to destroy us: thou knowest what they intend against us.

73A 3 53 How shall we be able to stand before their face, unless thou, O God, help us?

73A 3 54 Then they sounded with trumpets, and cried out with a loud voice.

73A 3 55 And after this Judas appointed captains over the people, over thousands, and over hundreds, and over fifties, and over tens.

73A 3 56 And he said to them that were building houses, or had betrothed wives, or were planting vineyards, or were fearful, that they should return every man to his house, according to the law.

73A 3 57 So they removed the camp, and pitched on the south side of Emmaus.

73A 3 58 And Judas said: Gird yourselves, and be valiant men, and be ready against the morning, that you may fight with these nations that are assembled against us to destroy us and our sanctuary.

73A 3 59 For it is better for us to die in battle, than to see the evils of our nation, and of the holies:

73A 3 60 Nevertheless as it shall be the will of God in heaven so be it done.

73A 4 1 Then Gorgias took five thousand men, and a thousand of the best horsemen: and they removed out of the camp by night.

73A 4 2 That they might come upon the camp of the Jews, and strike them suddenly: and the men that were of the castle were their guides.

73A 4 3 And Judas heard of it, and rose up, he and the valiant men, to attack the king's forces that were in Emmaus.

73A 4 4 For as yet the army was dispersed from the camp.

73A 4 5 And Gorgias came by night into the camp of Judas, and found no man, and he sought them in the mountains: for he said: These men flee from us.

73A 4 6 And when it was day, Judas shewed himself in the plain with three thousand men only, who neither had armour nor swords.

73A 4 7 And they saw the camp of the Gentiles that it was strong, and the men in breastplates, and the horsemen round about them, and these were trained up to war.

73A 4 8 And Judas said to the men that were with him: Fear ye not their multitude, neither be ye afraid of their assault.

73A 4 9 Remember in what manner our fathers were saved in the Red Sea, when Pharaos pursued them with a great army.

73A 4 10 And now let us cry to heaven: and the Lord will have mercy on us, and will remember the covenant of our fathers, and will destroy this army before our face this day:

73A 4 11 And all nations shall know that there is one that redeemeth and delivereth Israel.

73A 4 12 And the strangers lifted up their eyes, and saw them coming against them.

73A 4 13 And they went out of the camp to battle, and they that were with Judas sounded the trumpet.

73A 4 14 And they joined battle: and the Gentiles were routed, and fled into the plain.

73A 4 15 But all the hindmost of them fell by the sword, and they pursued them as far as Gezeron, and even to the plains of Idumea, and of Azotus, and of Jamnia: and there fell of them to the number of three thousand men.

73A 4 16 And Judas returned again with his army that followed him,

73A 4 17 And he said to the people: Be not greedy of the spoils: for there is war before us:

73A 4 18 And Gorgias and his army are near us in the mountain: but stand ye now against our enemies, and overthrow them, and you shall take the spoils afterwards with safety.

73A 4 19 And as Judas was speaking these words, behold part of them appeared looking forth from the mountain.

73A 4 20 And Gorgias saw that his men were put to flight, and that they had set fire to the camp: for the smoke that was seen declared what was done.

73A 4 21 And when they had seen this, they were seized with great fear, seeing at the same time Judas and his army in the plain ready to fight.

73A 4 22 So they all fled away into the land of the strangers.

73A 4 23 And Judas returned to take the spoils of the camp, and they got much gold, and silver, and blue silk, and purple of the sea, and great riches.

73A 4 24 And returning home they sung a hymn, and blessed God in heaven, because he is good, because his mercy endureth for ever.

73A 4 25 So Israel had a great deliverance that day.

73A 4 26 And such of the strangers as escaped, went and told Lysias all that had happened.

73A 4 27 And when he heard these things, he was amazed and discouraged: because things had not succeeded in Israel according to his mind, and as the king had commanded.

73A 4 28 So the year following Lysias gathered together threescore thousand chosen men, and five thousand horsemen, that he might subdue them.

73A 4 29 And they came into Judea, and pitched their tents in Bethoron, and Judas met them with ten thousand men.

73A 4 30 And they saw that the army was strong, and he prayed, and said: Blessed art thou, O Saviour of Israel, who didst break the violence of the mighty by the hand of thy servant David, and didst deliver up the camp of the strangers into the hands of Jonathan the son of Saul and of his armourbearer.

73A 4 31 Shut up this army in the hands of thy people Israel, and let them be confounded in their host and their horsemen.

73A 4 32 Strike them with fear, and cause the boldness of their strength to languish, and let them quake at their own destruction.

73A 4 33 Cast them down with the sword of them that love thee: and let all that know thy name, praise thee with hymns.

73A 4 34 And they joined battle: and there fell of the army of Lysias five thousand men.

73A 4 35 And when Lysias saw that his men were put to flight, and how bold the Jews were, and that they were ready either to live, or to die manfully, he went to Antioch, and chose soldiers, that they might come again into Judea with greater numbers.

73A 4 36 Then Judas, and his brethren said: Behold our enemies are discomfited: let us go up now to cleanse the holy places and to repair them.

73A 4 37 And all the army assembled together, and they went up into mount Sion.

73A 4 38 And they saw the sanctuary desolate, and the altar profaned, and the gates burnt, and shrubs growing up in the courts as in a forest, or on the mountains, and the chambers joining to the temple thrown down.

73A 4 39 And they rent their garments, and made great lamentation, and put ashes on their heads:

73A 4 40 And they fell face down to the ground on their faces, and they sounded with the trumpets of alarm, and they cried towards heaven.

73A 4 41 Then Judas appointed men to fight against them that were in the castle, till they had cleansed the holy places.

73A 4 42 And he chose priests without blemish, whose will was set upon the law of God:

73A 4 43 And they cleansed the holy places, and took away the stones that had been defiled into an unclean place.

73A 4 44 And he considered about the altar of holocausts that had been profaned, what he should do with it.

73A 4 45 And a good counsel came into their minds, to pull it down: lest it should be a reproach to them, because the Gentiles had defiled it; so they threw it down.

73A 4 46 And they laid up the stones in the mountain of the temple in a convenient place, till there should come a prophet, and give answer concerning them.

73A 4 47 Then they took whole stones according to the law, and built a new altar according to the former:

73A 4 48 And they built up the holy places, and the things that were within the temple: and they sanctified the temple, and the courts.

73A 4 49 And they made new holy vessels, and brought in the candlestick, and the altar of incense, and the table into the temple.

73A 4 50 And they put incense upon the altar, and lighted up the lamps that were upon the candlestick, and they gave light in the temple.

73A 4 51 And they set the loaves upon the table, and hung up the veils, and finished all the works that they had begun to make.

73A 4 52 And they arose before the morning on the five and twentieth day of the ninth month (which is the month of Casleu) in the hundred and forty-eighth year.

73A 4 53 And they offered sacrifice according to the law upon the new altar of holocausts which they had made.

73A 4 54 According to the time, and according to the day wherein the heathens had defiled it, in the same was it dedicated anew with canticles, and harps, and lutes, and cymbals.

73A 4 55 And all the people fell upon their faces, and adored, and blessed up to heaven, him that had prospered them.

73A 4 56 And they kept the dedication of the altar eight days, and they offered holocausts with joy, and sacrifices of salvation, and of praise.

73A 4 57 And they adorned the front of the temple with crowns of gold, and escutcheons, and they renewed the gates, and the chambers, and hanged doors upon them.

73A 4 58 And there was exceeding great joy among the people, and the reproach of the Gentiles was turned away.

73A 4 59 And Judas, and his brethren, and all the church of Israel decreed, that the day of the dedication of the altar should be kept in its season from year to year for eight days, from the five and twentieth day of the month of Casleu, with joy and gladness.

73A 4 60 They built up also at that time mount Sion, with high walls, and strong towers round about, lest the Gentiles should at any time come, and tread it down as they did before.

73A 4 61 And he placed a garrison there to keep it, and he fortified it to secure Bethsura, that the people might have a defence against Idumea.

73A 5 1 Now it came to pass, when the nations round about heard that the altar and the sanctuary were built up as before, that they were exceeding angry.

73A 5 2 And they thought to destroy the generation of Jacob that were among them, and they began to kill some of the people, and to persecute them.

73A 5 3 Then Judas fought against the children of Esau in Idumea, and them that were in Acrabathane: because they beset the Israelites around about, and he made a great slaughter of them.

73A 5 4 And he remembered the malice of the children of Bean: who were a snare and a stumblingblock to the people, by lying in wait for them in the way.

73A 5 5 And they were shut up by him in towers, and he set upon them, and devoted them to utter destruction, and burnt their towers with fire, and all that were in them.

73A 5 6 Then he passed over to the children of Ammon, where he found a mighty power, and much people, and Timotheus was their captain:

73A 5 7 And he fought many battles with them, and they were discomfited in their sight, and he smote them:

73A 5 8 And he took the city of Gazer and her towns, and returned into Judea.

73A 5 9 And the Gentiles that were in Galaad, assembled themselves together against the Israelites that were in their quarters to destroy them: and they fled into the fortress of Datheman.

73A 5 10 And they sent letters to Judas and his brethren, saying, The heathens that are round about are gathered together against us, to destroy us:

73A 5 11 And they are preparing to come, and to take the fortress into which we are fled: and Timotheus is the captain of their host.

73A 5 12 Now therefore come, and deliver us out of their hands, for many of us are slain.

73A 5 13 And all our brethren that were in the places of Tubin, are killed: and they have carried away their wives, and their children, captives, and taken their spoils, and they have slain there almost a thousand men.

73A 5 14 And while they were yet reading these letters, behold there came other messengers out Galilee with their garments rent, who related according to these words:

73A 5 15 Saying, that they of Ptolemais, and of Tyre, and of Sidon, were assembled against them, and all Galilee is filled with strangers, in order to consume us.

73A 5 16 Now when Judas and all the people heard these words, a great assembly met together to consider what they should do for their brethren that were in trouble, and were assaulted by them.

73A 5 17 And Judas said to Simon his brother: Choose thee men, and go, and deliver they brethren in Galilee: and I, and my brother Jonathan will go into the country of Galaad.

73A 5 18 And he left Joseph the son of Zacharias, and Azarias captains of the people with the remnant of the army in Judea to keep it:

73A 5 19 And he commanded them, saying: Take ye the charge of this people: but make no war against the heathens, till we return.

73A 5 20 Now three thousand men were allotted to Simon, to go into Gallilee: and eight thousand to Judas to go into the land of Galaad.

73A 5 21 And Simon went into Galilee, and fought many battles with the heathens: and the heathens were discomfited before his face, and he pursued them even to the gate of Ptolemais.

73A 5 22 And there fell of the heathens almost three thousand men, and he took the spoils of them,

73A 5 23 And he took with him those that were in Galilee and in Arbatis with their wives, and children, and all that they had, and he brought them into Judea with great joy.

73A 5 24 And Judas Machabeus, and Jonathan his brother passed over the Jordan, and went three days' journey through the desert.

73A 5 25 And the Nabutheans met them, and received them in a peaceable manner, and told them all that happened to their brethren in the land of Galaad, 73A 5 26 And that many of them were shut up in Barasa, and in Bosor, and in Alima, and in Casphor, and in Mageh, and in Carnaim: all these strong and great cities.

73A 5 27 Yea, and that they were kept shut up in the rest of the cities of Galaad, and that they had appointed to bring their army on the morrow near to these cities, and to take them and to destroy them all in one day.

73A 5 28 Then Judas and his army suddenly turned their march into the desert, to Bosor, and took the city: and he slew every male by the edge of the sword, and took all their spoils, and burnt it with fire.

73A 5 29 And they removed from thence by night, and went till they came to the fortress.

73A 5 30 And it came to pass that early in the morning, when they lifted up their eyes, behold there were people without number, carrying ladders and engines to take the fortress, and assault them.

73A 5 31 And Judas saw that the fight was begun, and the cry of the battle went up to heaven like a trumpet, and a great cry out of the city:

73A 5 32 And he said to his host: Fight ye to day for your brethren.

73A 5 33 And he came with three companies behind them, and they sounded their trumpets, and cried out in prayer.

73A 5 34 And the host of Timotheus understood that it was Machabeus, and they fled away before his face: and they made a great slaughter of them: and there fell of them in that day almost eight thousand men.

73A 5 35 And Judas turned aside to Maspha, and assaulted, and took it, and he slew every male thereof, and took the spoils thereof, and burnt it with fire.

73A 5 36 From thence he marched, and took Casbon, and Mageh, and Bosor, and the rest of the cities of Galaad.

73A 5 37 But after this Timotheus gathered another army, and camped over against Raphon beyond the torrent.

73A 5 38 And Judas sent men to view the army: and they brought him word, saying: All the nations, that are round about us, are assembled unto him an army exceeding great:

73A 5 39 And they have hired the Arabians to help them, and they have pitched their tents beyond the torrent, ready to come to fight against thee. And Judas went to meet them.

73A 5 40 And Timotheus said to the captains of his army: When Judas and his army come near the torrent of water, if he pass over unto us first, we shall not be able to withstand him: for he will certainly prevail over us.

73A 5 41 But if he be afraid to pass over, and camp on the other side of the river, we will pass over to them and shall prevail against him.

73A 5 42 Now when Judas came near the torrent of water, he set the scribes of the people by the torrent, and commanded them, saying: Suffer no man to stay behind: but let all come to the battle.

73A 5 43 And he passed over to them first, and all the people after him, and all the heathens were discomfited before them, and they threw away their weapons, and fled to the temple that was in Carnaim.

73A 5 44 And he took that city, and the temple he burnt with fire, with all things that were therein: and Carnaim was subdued, and could not stand against the face of Judas.

73A 5 45 And Judas gathered together all the Israelites that were in the land of Galaad, from the least even to the greatest, and their wives, and children, and an army exceeding great, to come into the land of Juda.

73A 5 46 And they came as far as Ephron: now this was a great city situate in the way, strongly fortified, and there was no means to turn from it on the right hand or on the left, but the way was through the midst of it.

73A 5 47 And they that were in the city, shut themselves in, and stopped up the gates with stones: and Judas sent to them with peaceable words, 73A 5 48 Saying: Let us pass through your land, to go into our country: and no man shall hurt you: we will only pass through on foot. But they would not open to them.

73A 5 49 Then Judas commanded proclamation to be made in the camp, that they should make an assault every man in the place where he was.

73A 5 50 And the men of the army drew near, and he assaulted that city all the day, and all the night, and the city was delivered into his hands:

73A 5 51 And they slew every male with the edge of the sword, and he razed the city, and took the spoils thereof, and passed through all the city over them that were slain.

73A 5 52 Then they passed over the Jordan to the great plain that is over against Bethsan.

73A 5 53 And Judas gathered together the hindmost, and he exhorted the people all the way through, till they came into the land of Juda.

73A 5 54 And they went up to mount Sion with joy and gladness, and offered holocausts, because not one of them was slain, till they had returned in peace.

73A 5 55 Now in the days that Judas and Jonathan were in the land of Galaad, and Simon his brother in Galilee before Ptolemais, 73A 5 56 Joseph the son of Zacharias, and Azarias captain of the soldiers, heard of the good success, and the battles that were fought.

73A 5 57 And he said: Let us also get us a name, and let us go fight against the Gentiles that are round about us.

73A 5 58 And he gave charge to them that were in his army, and they went towards Jamnia.

73A 5 59 And Gorgias and his men went out of the city, to give them battle.

73A 5 60 And Joseph and Azarias were put to flight, and were pursued unto the borders of Judea: and there fell, on that day, of the people of Israel about two thousand men, and there was a great overthrow of the people:

73A 5 61 Because they did not hearken to Judas, and his brethren, thinking that they should do manfully.

73A 5 62 But they were not of the seed of those men by whom salvation was brought to Israel.

73A 5 63 And the men of Juda were magnified exceedingly in the sight of all Israel, and of all the nations where their name was heard.

73A 5 64 And people assembled to them with joyful acclamations.

73A 5 65 Then Judas and his brethren went forth and attacked the children of Esau, in the land toward the south, and he took Chebron, and her towns: and he burnt the walls thereof and the towers all round it.

73A 5 66 And he removed his camp to go into the land of the aliens, and he went through Samaria.

73A 5 67 In that day some priests fell in battle, while desiring to do manfully they went out unadvisedly to fight.

73A 5 68 And Judas turned to Azotus into the land of the strangers, and he threw down their altars, and he burnt the statues of their gods with fire: and he took the spoils of the cities, and returned into the land of Juda.

73A 6 1 Now king Antiochus was going through the higher countries, and he heard that the city of Elymais in Persia was greatly renowned, and abounding in silver and gold.

73A 6 2 And that there was in it a temple, exceeding rich: and coverings of gold, and breastplates, and shields which king Alexander, son of Philip the Macedonian that reigned first in Greece, had left there.

73A 6 3 Lo, he came, and sought to take the city and to pillage it: But he was not able, because the design was known to them that were in the city.

73A 6 4 And they rose up against him in battle, and he fled away from thence, and departed with great sadness, and returned towards Babylonia.

73A 6 5 And whilst he was in Persia, there came one that told him, how the armies that were in the land of Juda were put to flight:

73A 6 6 And that Lysias went with a very great power, and was put to flight before the face of the Jews, and that they were grown strong by the armour, and power, and store of spoils, which they had gotten out of the camps which they had destroyed:

73A 6 7 And that they had thrown down the abomination which he had set up upon the altar in Jerusalem, and that they had compassed about the sanctuary with high walls as before, and Bethsura also his city.

73A 6 8 And it came to pass when the king heard these words, that he was struck with fear, and exceedingly moved: and he laid himself down upon his bed, and fell sick for grief, because it had not fallen out to him as he imagined.

73A 6 9 And he remained there many days: for great grief came more and more and more upon him, and he made account that he should die.

73A 6 10 And he called for all his friends, and said to them: Sleep is gone from my eyes, and I am fallen away, and my heart is cast down for anxiety.

73A 6 11 And I said in my heart: Into how much tribulation am I come, and into what floods of sorrow, wherein now I am: I that was pleasant and beloved in my power!

73A 6 12 But now I remember the evils that I have done in Jerusalem, from whence also I took away all the spoils of gold, and of silver that were in it, and I sent to destroy the inhabitants of Juda without cause.

73A 6 13 I know therefore that for this cause these evils have found me: and behold I perish with great grief in a strange land.

73A 6 14 Then he called Philip, one of his friends, and he made him regent over all his kingdom.

73A 6 15 And he gave him the crown, and his robe, and his ring, that he should go to Antiochus his son, and should bring him up for the kingdom.

73A 6 16 So king Antiochus died there in the year one hundred and forty-nine.

73A 6 17 And Lysias understood that the king was dead, and he set up Antiochus his son to reign, whom he brought up young: and he called his name Eupator.

73A 6 18 Now they that were in the castle, had shut up the Israelites round about the holy places: and they were continually seeking their hurt, and to strengthen the Gentiles.

73A 6 19 And Judas purposed to destroy them: and he called together all the people, to besiege them.

73A 6 20 And they came together, and besieged them in the year one hundred and fifty, and they made battering slings and engines.

73A 6 21 And some of the besieged got out: and some wicked men of Israel joined themselves unto them.

73A 6 22 And they went to the king, and said: How long dost thou delay to execute the judgment, and to revenge our brethren?

73A 6 23 We determined to serve thy father and to do according to his orders, and obey his edicts:

73A 6 24 And for this they of our nation are alienated from us, and have slain as many of us as they could find, and have spoiled our inheritances.

73A 6 25 Neither have they put forth their hand against us only, but also against all our borders.

73A 6 26 And behold they have approached this day to the castle of Jerusalem to take it, and they have fortified the stronghold of Bethsura:

73A 6 27 And unless thou speedily prevent them, they will do greater things than these, and thou shalt not be able to subdue them.

73A 6 28 Now when the king heard this, he was angry: and he called together all his friends, and the captains of his army, and them that were over the horsemen.

73A 6 29 There came also to him from other realms, and from the islands of the sea hired troops.

73A 6 30 And the number of his army was an hundred thousand footmen, and twenty thousand horsemen, and thirty-two elephants, trained to battle.

73A 6 31 And they went through Idumea, and approached to Bethsura, and fought many days, and they made engines: but they sallied forth and burnt them with fire, and fought manfully.

73A 6 32 And Judas departed from the castle, and removed the camp to Bethzacharam, over against the king's camp.

73A 6 33 And the king rose before it was light, and made his troops march on fiercely towards the way of Bethzacharam: and the armies made themselves ready for the battle, and they sounded the trumpets:

73A 6 34 And they shewed the elephants the blood of grapes, and mulberries to provoke them to fight.

73A 6 35 And they distributed the beasts by the legions: and there stood by every elephant a thousand men in coats of mail, and with helmets of brass on their heads: and five hundred horsemen set in order were chosen for every beast.

73A 6 36 These before the time wheresoever the beast was, the were there: and withersoever it went, they went, and they departed not from it.

73A 6 37 And upon the beast, there were strong wooden towers, which covered every one of them: and engines upon them: and upon every one thirty-two valiant men, who fought from above; and an Indian to rule the beast.

73A 6 38 And the rest of the horsemen he placed on this side and on that side at the two wings, with trumpets to stir up the army, and to hasten them forward that stood thick together in the legions thereof.

73A 6 39 Now when the sun shone upon the shields of gold, and of brass, the mountains glittered therewith, and they shone like lamps of fire.

73A 6 40 And part of the king's army was distinguished by the high mountains, and the other part by the low places: and they marched on warily and orderly.

73A 6 41 And all the inhabitants of the land were moved at the noise of their multitude, and the marching of the company, and the rattling of the armour, for the army was exceeding great and strong.

73A 6 42 And Judas and his army drew near for battle: and there fell of the king's army six hundred men.

73A 6 43 And Eleazar the son of Saura saw one of the beasts harnessed with the king's harness: and it was higher than the other beasts: and it seemed to him that the king was on it:

73A 6 44 And he exposed himself to deliver his people and to get himself an everlasting name.

73A 6 45 And he ran up to it boldly in the midst of the legion, killing on the right hand, and on the left, and they fell by him on this side and that side.

73A 6 46 And he went between the feet of the elephant, and put himself under it: and slew it, and it fell to the ground upon him, and he died there.

73A 6 47 Then they seeing the strength of the king and the fierceness of his army, turned away from them.

73A 6 48 But the king's army went up against them to Jerusalem: and the king's army pitched their tents against Judea and mount Sion.

73A 6 49 And he made peace with them that were in Bethsura: and they came forth out of the city, because they had no victuals, being shut up there, for it was the year of rest to the land.

73A 6 50 And the king took Bethsura: and he placed there a garrison to keep it.

73A 6 51 And he turned his army against the sanctuary for many days: and he set up there battering slings, and engines and instruments to cast fire, and engines to cast stones and javelins, and pieces to shoot arrows, and slings.

73A 6 52 And they also made engines against their engines, and they fought for many days.

73A 6 53 But there were no victuals in the city, because it was the seventh year: and such as had stayed in Judea of them that came from among the nations, had eaten the residue of all that which had been stored up.

73A 6 54 And there remained in the holy places but a few, for the famine had prevailed over them: and they were dispersed every man to his own place.

73A 6 55 Now Lysias heard that Philip, whom king Antiochus while he lived had appointed to bring up his son Antiochus, and to reign, to be king,

73A 6 56 Was returned from Persia, and Media, with the army that went with him, and that he sought to take upon him the affairs of the kingdom:

73A 6 57 Wherefore he made haste to go, and say to the king and to the captains of the army: We decay daily, and our provision of victuals is small, and the place that we lay siege to is strong, and it lieth upon us to take order for the affairs of the kingdom.

73A 6 58 Now therefore let us come to an agreement with these men, and make peace with them and with all their nation.

73A 6 59 And let us covenant with them, that they may live according to their own laws as before. For because of our despising their laws, they have been provoked, and have done all these things.

73A 6 60 And the proposal was acceptable in the sight of the king, and of the princes: and he sent to them to make peace: and they accepted of it.

73A 6 61 And the king and the princes swore to them: and they came out of the stronghold.

73A 6 62 Then the king entered into mount Sion, and saw the strength of the place: and he quickly broke the oath that he had taken, and gave commandment to throw down the wall round about.

73A 6 63 And he departed in haste, and returned to Antioch, where he found Philip master of the city: and he fought against him, and took the city.

73A 7 1 In the hundred and fifty-first year Demetrius the son of Seleucus departed from the city of Rome, and came up with a few men into a city of the sea coast, and reigned there.

73A 7 2 And it came to pass, as he entered into the house of the kingdom of his fathers, that the army seized upon Antiochus, and Lysias, to bring them unto him.

73A 7 3 And when he knew it, he said: Let me not see their face.

73A 7 4 So the army slew them. And Demetrius sat upon the throne of his kingdom:

73A 7 5 And there came to him the wicked and ungodly men of Israel: And Alcimus was at the head of them, who desired to be made high priest.

73A 7 6 And they accused the people to the king, saying: Judas and his brethren have destroyed all thy friends, and he hath driven us out of our land.

73A 7 7 Now therefore send some man whom thou trustest, and let him go, and see all the havock he hath made amongst us, and in the king's lands: and let him punish all his friends and their helpers.

73A 7 8 Then the king chose Bacchides, one of his friends that ruled beyond the great river in the kingdom, and was faithful to the king: and he sent him, 73A 7 9 To see the havock that Judas had made: and the wicked Alcimus he made high priest, and commanded him to take revenge upon the children of Israel.

73A 7 10 And they arose, and came with a great army into the land of Juda: and they sent messengers, and spoke to Judas and his brethren with peaceable words deceitfully.

73A 7 11 But they gave no heed to their words: for they saw that they were come with a great army.

73A 7 12 Then there assembled to Alcimus and Bacchides a company of the scribes to require things that are just:

73A 7 13 And first the Assideans that were among the children of Israel, and they sought peace of them.

73A 7 14 For they said: One that is a priest of the seed of Aaron is come, he will not deceive us.

73A 7 15 And he spoke to them peaceably: and he swore to them, saying: We will do you no harm nor your friends.

73A 7 16 And they believed him. And he took threescore of them, and slew them in one day, according to the word that is written:

73A 7 17 The flesh of thy saints, and the blood of them they have shed round about Jerusalem, and there was none to bury them.

73A 7 18 Then fear and trembling fell upon all the people: for they said: There is no truth, nor justice among them: for they have broken the covenant, and the oath which they made.

73A 7 19 And Bacchides removed the camp from Jerusalem, and pitched in Bethzecha: and he sent, and took many of them that were fled away from him, and some of the people he killed, and threw them into a great pit.

73A 7 20 Then he committed the country to Alcimus, and left with him troops to help him. So Bacchides went away to the king:

73A 7 21 But Alcimus did what he could to maintain his chief priesthood.

73A 7 22 And they that disturbed the people resorted to him, and they got the land of Juda into their power, and did much hurt in Israel.

73A 7 23 And Judas saw all the evils that Alcimus, and they that were with him, did to the children of Israel, much more than the Gentiles.

73A 7 24 And he went out into all the coasts of Juda round about, and took vengeance upon the men that had revolted, and they ceased to go forth any more into the country.

73A 7 25 And Alcimus saw that Judas, and they that were with him prevailed: and he knew that he could not stand against them, and he went back to the king, and accused them of many crimes.

73A 7 26 And the king sent Nicanor one of his principal lords, who was a great enemy to Israel: and he commanded him to destroy the people.

73A 7 27 And Nicanor came to Jerusalem with a great army, and he sent to Judas and to his brethren deceitfully with friendly words, 73A 7 28 Saying: Let there be no fighting between me and you: I will come with a few men to see your faces with peace.

73A 7 29 And he came to Judas, and they saluted one another peaceably: and the enemies were prepared to take away Judas by force.

73A 7 30 And the thing was known to Judas that he was come to him with deceit: and he was much afraid of him, and would not see his face any more.

73A 7 31 And Nicanor knew that his counsel was discovered: and he went out to fight against Judas near Capharsalama.

73A 7 32 And there fell of Nicanor's army almost five thousand men, and they fled into the city of David.

73A 7 33 And after this Nicanor went up into mount Sion: and some of the priests and the people came out to salute him peaceably, and to shew him the holocausts that were offered for the king.

73A 7 34 But he mocked them and despised them, and abused them: and he spoke proudly, 73A 7 35 And swore in anger, saying: Unless Judas and his army be delivered into my hands, as soon as ever I return in peace, I will burn this house. And he went out in a great rage.

73A 7 36 And the priests went in, and stood before the face of the altar and the temple: and weeping, they said:

73A 7 37 Thou, O Lord, hast chosen this house for thy name to be called upon therein, that it might be a house of prayer and supplication for thy people.

73A 7 38 Be avenged of this man, and his army, and let them fall by the sword: remember their blasphemies, and suffer them not to continue any longer.

73A 7 39 Then Nicanor went out from Jerusalem, and encamped near to Bethoron: and an army of Syria joined him.

73A 7 40 But Judas pitched in Adarsa with three thousand men: and Judas prayed, and said:

73A 7 41 O Lord, when they that were sent by king Sennacherib blasphemed thee, an angel went out, and slew of them a hundred and eighty-five thousand:

73A 7 42 Even so destroy this army in our sight to day, and let the rest know that he hath spoken ill against thy sanctuary: and judge thou him according to his wickedness.

73A 7 43 And the armies joined battle on the thirteenth day of the month Adar: and the army of Nicanor was defeated, and he himself was first slain in the battle.

73A 7 44 And when his army saw that Nicanor was slain, they threw away their weapons, and fled:

73A 7 45 And they pursued after them one day's journey from Adazer, even till ye come to Gazara, and they sounded the trumpets after them with signals.

73A 7 46 And they went forth out of all the towns of Judea round about, and they pushed them with the horns, and they turned again to them, and they were all slain with the sword, and there was not left of them so much as one.

73A 7 47 And they took the spoils of them for a booty, and they cut off Nicanor's head, and his right hand, which he had proudly stretched out, and they brought it, and hung it up over against Jerusalem.

73A 7 48 And the people rejoiced exceedingly, and they spent that day with great joy.

73A 7 49 And he ordained that this day should be kept every year, being the thirteenth of the month of Adar.

73A 7 50 And the land of Juda was quiet for a short time.

73A 8 1 Now Judas heard of the fame of the Romans, that they are powerful and strong, and willingly agree to all things that are requested of them: and that whosoever have come to them, they have made amity with them, and that they are mighty in power.

73A 8 2 And they heard of their battles, and their noble acts, which they had done in Galatia, how they conquered them, and brought them under tribute:

73A 8 3 And how great things they had done in the land of Spain, and that they had brought under their power the mines of silver and of gold that are there, and had gotten possession of all the place by their counsel and patience:

73A 8 4 And had conquered places that were very far off from them, and kings that came against them from the ends of the earth, and had overthrown them with great slaughter: and the rest pay them tribute every year.

73A 8 5 And that they had defeated in battle Philip, and Perses the king of the Ceteans, and the rest that had borne arms against them, and had conquered them:

73A 8 6 And how Antiochus the great king of Asia, who went to fight against them, having a hundred and twenty elephants, with horsemen, and chariots, and a very great army, was routed by them:

73A 8 7 And how they took him alive, and appointed to him, that both he and they that should reign after him, should pay a great tribute, and that he should give hostages, and that which was agreed upon,

73A 8 8 And the country of the Indians, and of the Medes, and of the Lydians, some of their best provinces: and those which they had taken from them they gave to king Eumenes.

73A 8 9 And that they who were in Greece had a mind to go and to destroy them: and they had knowledge thereof, 73A 8 10 And they sent a general against them, and fought with them, and many of them were slain, and they carried away their wives and their children captives, and spoiled them, and took possession of their land, and threw down their walls, and brought them to be their servants unto this day.

73A 8 11 And the other kingdoms, and islands, that at any time had resisted them, they had destroyed and brought under their power.

73A 8 12 But with their friends, and such as relied upon them, they kept amity, and had conquered kingdoms that were near, and that were far off: for all that heard their name, were afraid of them.

73A 8 13 That whom they had a mind to help to a kingdom, those reigned: and whom they would, they deposed from a kingdom: and they were greatly exalted.

73A 8 14 And none of all these wore a crown, or was clothed in purple, to be magnified thereby.

73A 8 15 And that they made themselves a senate house, and consulted daily three hundred and twenty men, that sat in council always for the people, that they might do the things that were right.

73A 8 16 And that they committed their government to one man every year, to rule over all their country, and they all obey one, and there is no envy, nor jealousy amongst them.

73A 8 17 So Judas chose Eupolemus the son of John, the son of Jacob, and Jason the son of Eleazar, and he sent them to Rome to make a league of amity and confederacy with them.

73A 8 18 And that they might take off from them the yoke of the Grecians, for they saw that they oppressed the kingdom of Israel with servitude.

73A 8 19 And they went to Rome, a very long journey, and they entered into the senate house, and said:

73A 8 20 Judas Machabeus, and his brethren, and the people of the Jews have sent us to you, to make alliance and peace with you, and that we may be registered your confederates and friends.

73A 8 21 And the proposal was pleasing in their sight.

73A 8 22 And this is the copy of the writing that they wrote back again, graven in tables of brass, and sent to Jerusalem, that it might be with them there for a memorial of the peace and alliance.

73A 8 23 GOOD SUCCESS BE TO THE ROMANS, and to the people of the Jews, by sea and by land for ever: and far be the sword and enemy from them.

73A 8 24 But if there come first any war upon the Romans, or any of their confederates, in all their dominions:

73A 8 25 The nation of the Jews shall help them according as the time shall direct, with all their heart:

73A 8 26 Neither shall they give them, whilst they are fighting, or furnish them with wheat, or arms, or money, or ships, as it hath seemed good to the Romans: and they shall obey their orders, without taking any thing of them.

73A 8 27 In like manner also if war shall come first upon the nation of the Jews, the Romans shall help them with all their heart, according as the time shall permit them.

73A 8 28 And there shall not be given to them that come to their aid, either wheat, or arms, or money, or ships, as it hath seemed good to the Romans: and they shall observe their orders without deceit.

73A 8 29 According to these articles did the Romans covenant with the people of the Jews.

73A 8 30 And if after this one party or the other shall have a mind to add to these articles, or take away anything, they may do it at their pleasure: and whatsoever they shall add, or take away, shall be ratified.

73A 8 31 Moreover concerning the evils that Demetrius the king hath done against them, we have written to him, saying: Why hast thou made thy yoke heavy upon our friends, and allies, the Jews?

73A 8 32 If therefore they come again to us complaining of thee, we will do them justice, and will make war against thee by sea and land.

73A 9 1 In the mean time when Demetrius heard that Nicanor and his army were fallen in battle, he sent again Bacchides and Alcimus into Judea; and the right wing of his army with them.

73A 9 2 And they took the road that leadeth to Galgal, and they camped in Masaloth, which is in Arabella: and they made themselves masters of it, and slew many people.

73A 9 3 In the first month of the hundred and fifty-second year they brought the army to Jerusalem:

73A 9 4 And they arose, and went to Berea with twenty thousand men, and two thousand horsemen.

73A 9 5 Now Judas had pitched his tents in Laisa, and three thousand chosen men with him:

73A 9 6 And they saw the multitude of the army that they were many, and they were seized with great fear: and many withdrew themselves out of the camp, and there remained of them no more than eight hundred men.

73A 9 7 And Judas saw that his army slipped away, and the battle pressed upon him, and his heart was cast down: because he had not time to gather them together, and he was discouraged.

73A 9 8 Then he said to them that remained: Let us arise, and go against our enemies, if we may be able to fight against them.

73A 9 9 But they dissuaded him, saying: We shall not be able, but let us save our lives now, and return to our brethren, and then we will fight against them: for we are but few.

73A 9 10 Then Judas said: God forbid we should do this thing, and flee away from them: but if our time be come, let us die manfully for our brethren, and let us not stain our glory.

73A 9 11 And the army removed out of the camp, and they stood over against them: and the horsemen were divided into two troops, and the slingers, and the archers went before the army, and they that were in the front were all men of valour.

73A 9 12 And Bacchides was in the right wing, and the legion drew near on two sides, and they sounded the trumpets:

73A 9 13 And they also were on Judas' side, even they also cried out, and the earth shook at the noise of the armies: and the battle was fought from morning even unto the evening.

73A 9 14 And Judas perceived that the stronger part of the army of Bacchides was on the right side, and all the stout of heart came together with him:

73A 9 15 And the right wing was discomfited by them, and he pursued them even to the mount Azotus.

73A 9 16 And they that were in the left wing saw that the right wing was discomfited, and they followed after Judas, and them that were with him, at their back:

73A 9 17 And the battle was hard fought, and there fell many wounded of the one side and of the other.

73A 9 18 And Judas was slain, and the rest fled away.

73A 9 19 And Jonathan and Simon took Judas their brother, and buried him in the sepulchre of their fathers in the city of Modin.

73A 9 20 And all the people of Israel bewailed him with great lamentation, and they mourned for him many days.

73A 9 21 And said: How is the mighty man fallen, that saved the people of Israel!

73A 9 22 But the rest of the words of the wars of Judas, and of the noble acts that he did, and of his greatness, are not written: for they were very many.

73A 9 23 And it came to pass after the death of Judas, that the wicked began to put forth their heads in all the confines of Israel, and all the workers of iniquity rose up.

73A 9 24 In those days there was a very great famine, and they and all their country yielded to Bacchides.

73A 9 25 And Bacchides chose the wicked men, and made them lords of the country:

73A 9 26 And they sought out, and made diligent search after the friends of Judas, and brought them to Bacchides, and he took vengeance of them, and abused them.

73A 9 27 And there was a great tribulation in Israel, such as was not since the day, that there was no prophet seen in Israel.

73A 9 28 And all the friends of Judas came together, and said to Jonathan:

73A 9 29 Since thy brother Judas died, there is not a man like him to go forth against our enemies, Bacchides, and them that are the enemies of our nation.

73A 9 30 Now therefore we have chosen thee this day to be our prince, and captain in his stead to fight our battles.

73A 9 31 So Jonathan took upon him the government at that time, and rose up in the place of Judas his brother.

73A 9 32 And Bacchides had knowledge of it, and sought to kill him.

73A 9 33 And Jonathan and Simon his brother, knew it, and all that were with them: and they fled into the desert of Thecua, and they pitched by the water of the lake of Asphar, 73A 9 34 And Bacchides understood it, and he came himself with all his army over the Jordan on the sabbath day.

73A 9 35 And Jonathan sent his brother a captain of the people, to desire the Nabutheans his friends, that they would lend them their equipage, which was copious.

73A 9 36 And the children of Jambri came forth out of Madaba, and took John, and all that he had, and went away with them.

73A 9 37 After this it was told Jonathan, and Simon his brother, that the children of Jambri made a great marriage, and were bringing the bride out of Madaba, the daughter of one of the great princes of Chanaan, with great pomp.

73A 9 38 And they remembered the blood of John their brother: and they went up, and hid themselves under the covert of the mountain.

73A 9 39 And they lifted up their eyes, and saw: and behold a tumult, and great preparation: and the bridegroom came forth, and his friends, and his brethren to meet them with timbrels, and musical instruments, and many weapons.

73A 9 40 And they rose up against them from the place where they lay in ambush, and slew them, and there fell many wounded, and the rest fled into the mountains, and they took all their spoils:

73A 9 41 And the marriage was turned into mourning, and the noise of their musical instruments into lamentation.

73A 9 42 And they took revenge for the blood of their brother: and they returned to the bank of the Jordan.

73A 9 43 And Bacchides heard it, and he came on the sabbath day even to the bank of the Jordan with a great power.

73A 9 44 And Jonathan said to his company: Let us arise, and fight against our enemies: for it is not now as yesterday, and the day before.

73A 9 45 And behold the battle is before us, and the water of the Jordan on this side and on that side, and banks, and marshes, and woods: and there is no place for us to turn aside.

73A 9 46 Now therefore cry ye to heaven, that ye may be delivered from the hand of your enemies. And they joined battle.

73A 9 47 And Jonathan stretched forth his hand to strike Bacchides, but he turned away from him backwards.

73A 9 48 And Jonathan, and they that were with him leaped into the Jordan, and swam over the Jordan to them:

73A 9 49 And there fell of Bacchides' side that day a thousand man: and they returned to Jerusalem,

73A 9 50 And they built strong cities in Judea, the fortress that was in Jericho, and in Ammaus, and in Bethoron, and in Bethel, and Thamnata, and Phara, and Thopo, with high walls, and gates, and bars.

73A 9 51 And he placed garrisons in them, that they might wage war against Israel:

73A 9 52 And he fortified the city of Bethsura, and Gazara, and the castle, and set garrisons in them, and provisions of victuals:

73A 9 53 And he took the sons of the chief men of the country for hostages, and put them in the castle in Jerusalem in custody.

73A 9 54 Now in the year one hundred and fifty-three, the second month, Alcimus commanded the walls of the inner court of the sanctuary to be thrown down, and the works of the prophets to be destroyed: and he began to be destroyed: and he began to destroy.

73A 9 55 At that time Alcimus was struck: and his works were hindered, and his mouth was stopped, and he was taken with a palsy, so that he could no more speak a word, nor give order concerning his house.

73A 9 56 And Alcimus died at that time in great torment.

73A 9 57 And Bacchides saw that Alcimus was dead: and he returned to the king, and the land was quiet for two years.

73A 9 58 And all the wicked held a council, saying: Behold Jonathan, and they that are with him, dwell at ease, and without fear: now therefore let us bring Bacchides hither, and he shall take them all in one night.

73A 9 59 So they went, and gave him counsel.

73A 9 60 And he arose to come with a great army: and he sent secretly letters to his adherents that were in Judea, to seize upon Jonathan, and them that were with him: but they could not, for their design was known to them.

73A 9 61 And he apprehended of the men of the country, that were the principal authors of the mischief, fifty men, and slew them.

73A 9 62 And Jonathan, and Simon, and they that were with him retired into Bethbessen, which is in the desert: and he repaired the breaches thereof, and they fortified it.

73A 9 63 And when Bacchides knew it, he gathered together all his multitude: and sent word to them that were of Judea.

73A 9 64 And he came, and camped above Bethbessen, and fought against it many days, and made engines.

73A 9 65 But Jonathan left his brother Simon in the city, and went forth into the country: and came with a number of men.

73A 9 66 And struck Odares, and his brethren, and the children of Phaseron in their tents, and he began to slay, and to increase in forces.

73A 9 67 But Simon and they that were with him, sallied out of the city, and burnt the engines.

73A 9 68 And they fought against Bacchides, and he was discomfited by them: and they afflicted him exceedingly, for his counsel, and his enterprise was in vain.

73A 9 69 And he was angry with the wicked men that had given him counsel to come into their country, and he slew many of them: and he purposed to return with the rest into their country.

73A 9 70 And Jonathan had knowledge of it, and he sent ambassadors to him to make peace with him, and to restore to him the prisoners.

73A 9 71 And he accepted it willingly, and did according to his words, and swore that he would do him no harm all the days of his life.

73A 9 72 And he restored to him the prisoners which he before had taken out of the land of Juda: and he returned and went away into his own country, and he came no more into their borders.

73A 9 73 So the sword ceased from Israel: and Jonathan dwelt in Machmas, and Jonathan began there to judge the people, and he destroyed the wicked out of Israel.

73A 10 1 Now in the hundred and sixtieth year Alexander the son of Antiochus, surnamed the Illustrious, came up and took Ptolemais, and they received him, and he reigned there.

73A 10 2 And king Demetrius heard of it, and gathered together an exceeding great army, and went forth against him to fight.

73A 10 3 And Demetrius sent a letter to Jonathan with peaceable words, to magnify him.

73A 10 4 For he said: Let us first make a peace with him, before he make one with Alexander against us.

73A 10 5 For he will remember all the evils that we have done against him, and against his brother, and against his nation.

73A 10 6 And he gave him authority to gather together an army, and to make arms, and that he should be his confederate: and the hostages that were in the castle, he commanded to be delivered to him.

73A 10 7 And Jonathan came to Jerusalem, and read the letters in the hearing of all the people, and of them that were in the castle.

73A 10 8 And they were struck with great fear, because they heard that the king had given him authority to gather together an army.

73A 10 9 And the hostages were delivered to Jonathan, and he restored them to their parents.

73A 10 10 And Jonathan dwelt in Jerusalem, and began to build, and to repair the city.

73A 10 11 And he ordered workmen to build the walls, and mount Sion round about with square stones for fortification: and so they did.

73A 10 12 And the strangers that were in the strong holds, which Bacchides had built, fled away.

73A 10 13 And every man left his place, and departed into his own country:

73A 10 14 Only in Bethsura there remained some of them, that had forsaken the law, and the commandments of God: for this was a place of refuge for them.

73A 10 15 And king Alexander heard of the promises that Demetrius had made Jonathan: and they told him of the battles, and the worthy acts that he, and his brethren had done, and the labours that they had endured.

73A 10 16 And he said: Shall we find such another man? now therefore we will make him our friend and our confederate.

73A 10 17 So he wrote a letter, and sent it to him according to these words, saying:

73A 10 18 King Alexander to his brother Jonathan, greeting.

73A 10 19 We have heard of thee, that thou art a man of great power, and fit to be our friend:

73A 10 20 Now therefore we make thee this day high priest of thy nation, and that thou be called the king's friend, (and he sent him a purple robe, and a crown of gold,) and that thou be of one mind with us in our affairs, and keep friendship with us.

73A 10 21 Then Jonathan put on the holy vestment in the seventh month, in the year one hundred and threescore, at the feast day of the tabernacles: and he gathered together an army, and made a great number of arms.

73A 10 22 And Demetrius heard these words, and was exceeding sorry, and said:

73A 10 23 What is this that we have done, that Alexander hath prevented us to gain the friendship of the Jews to strengthen himself?

73A 10 24 I also will write to them words of request, and offer dignities, and gifts: that they may be with me to aid me.

73A 10 25 And he wrote to them in these words: King Demetrius to the nation of the Jews, greeting.

73A 10 26 Whereas you have kept covenant with us, and have continued in our friendship, and have not joined with our enemies, we have heard of it, and are glad.

73A 10 27 Wherefore now continue still to keep fidelity towards us, and we will reward you with good things, for what you have done in our behalf.

73A 10 28 And we will remit to you many charges, and will give you gifts.

73A 10 29 And now I free you, and all the Jews from tributes, and I release you from the customs of salt, and remit the crowns, and the thirds of the seed:

73A 10 30 And the half of the fruit of trees, which is my share, I leave to you from this day forward, so that it shall not be taken of the land of Juda, and of the three cities that are added thereto out of Samaria and Galilee, from this day forth and for ever:

73A 10 31 And let Jerusalem be holy and free, with the borders thereof: and let the tenths, and tributes be for itself.

73A 10 32 I yield up also the power of the castle that is in Jerusalem, and I give it to the high priest, to place therein such men as he shall choose to keep it.

73A 10 33 And every soul of the Jews that hath been carried captive from the land of Juda in all my kingdom, I set at liberty freely, that all be discharged from tributes even of their cattle.

73A 10 34 And I will that all the feasts, and the sabbaths, and the new moons, and the days appointed, and three days before the solemn day, and three days after the solemn day, be all days of immunity and freedom, for all the Jews that are in my kingdom:

73A 10 35 And no man shall have power to do any thing against them, or to molest any of them, in any cause.

73A 10 36 And let there be enrolled in the king's army to the number of thirty thousand of the Jews: and allowance shall be made them as is due to all the king's forces, and certain of them shall be appointed to be in the fortresses of the great king:

73A 10 37 And some of them shall be set over the affairs of the kingdom, that are of trust, and let the governors be taken from among themselves, and let them walk in their own laws, as the king hath commanded in the land of Juda.

73A 10 38 And the three cities that are added to Judea, out of the country of Samaria, let them be accounted with Judea: that they may be under one, and obey no other authority but that of the high priest:

73A 10 39 Ptolemais, and the confines thereof, I give as a free gift to the holy places, that are in Jerusalem, for the necessary charges of the holy things.

73A 10 40 And I give every year fifteen thousand sicles of silver out of the king's accounts, of what belongs to me:

73A 10 41 And all that is above, which they that were over the affairs the years before, had not paid, from this time they shall give it to the works of the house.

73A 10 42 Moreover the five thousand sicles of silver which they received from the account of the holy places, every year, shall also belong to the priests that execute the ministry.

73A 10 43 And whosoever shall flee into the temple that is in Jerusalem, and in all the borders thereof, being indebted to the king for any matter, let them be set at liberty, and all that they have in my kingdom, let them have it free.

73A 10 44 For the building also, or repairing the works of the holy places, the charges shall be given out of the king's revenues:

73A 10 45 For the building also of the walls of Jerusalem, and the fortifying thereof round about, the charges shall be given out of the king's account, as also for the building of the walls in Judea.

73A 10 46 Now when Jonathan, and the people heard these words, they gave no credit to them nor received them: because they remembered the great evil that he had done in Israel, for he had afflicted them exceedingly.

73A 10 47 And their inclinations were towards Alexander, because he had been the chief promoter of peace in their regard, and him they always helped.

73A 10 48 And king Alexander gathered together a great army, and moved his camp near to Demetrius.

73A 10 49 And the two kings joined battle, and the army of Demetrius fled away, and Alexander pursued after him, and pressed them close.

73A 10 50 And the battle was hard fought till the sun went down: and Demetrius was slain that day.

73A 10 51 And Alexander sent ambassadors to Ptolemee king of Egypt, with words to this effect, saying:

73A 10 52 Forasmuch as I am returned into my kingdom, and am set in the throne of my ancestors and have gotten the dominion, and have overthrown Demetrius, and possessed our country,

73A 10 53 And have joined battle with him, and both he and his army have been destroyed by us, and we are placed in the throne of his kingdom:

73A 10 54 Now therefore let us make friendship one with another: and give me now thy daughter to wife, and I will be thy son in law, and I will give both thee and her gifts worthy of thee.

73A 10 55 And king Ptolemee answered, saying: Happy is the day wherein thou didst return to the land of thy fathers, and satest in the throne of their kingdom.

73A 10 56 And now I will do to thee as thou hast written: but meet me at Ptolemais, that we may see one another, and I may give her to thee as thou hast said.

73A 10 57 So Ptolemee went out of Egypt, with Cleopatra his daughter, and he came to Ptolemais in the hundred and sixty-second year.

73A 10 58 And king Alexander met him, and he gave him his daughter Cleopatra: and he celebrated her marriage at Ptolemais, with great glory, after the manner of kings.

73A 10 59 And king Alexander wrote to Jonathan, that he should come and meet him.

73A 10 60 And he went honourably to Ptolemais, and he met there the two kings, and he gave them much silver, and gold, and presents: and he found favour in their sight.

73A 10 61 And some pestilent men of Israel, men of a wicked life, assembled themselves against him to accuse him: and the king gave no heed to them.

73A 10 62 And he commanded that Jonathan's garments should be taken off, and that he should be clothed with purple: and they did so. And the king made him sit by himself.

73A 10 63 And he said to his princes: Go out with him into the midst of the city, and make proclamation, that no man complain against him of any matter, and that no man trouble him for any manner of cause.

73A 10 64 So when his accusers saw his glory proclaimed, and him clothed with purple, they all fled away.

73A 10 65 And the king magnified him, and enrolled him amongst his chief friends, and made him governor and partaker of his dominion.

73A 10 66 And Jonathan returned into Jerusalem with peace and joy.

73A 10 67 In the year one hundred and sixty-five Demetrius the son of Demetrius came from Crete into the land of his fathers.

73A 10 68 And king Alexander heard of it, and was much troubled, and returned to Antioch.

73A 10 69 And king Demetrius made Apollonius his general, who was governor of Celesyria: and he gathered together a great army, and came to Jamnia: and he sent to Jonathan the high priest, 73A 10 70 Saying: Thou alone standest against us, and I am laughed at, and reproached, because thou shewest thy power against us in the mountains.

73A 10 71 Now therefore if thou trustest in thy forces, come down to us into the plain, and there let us try one another: for with me is the strength of war.

73A 10 72 Ask, and learn who I am, and the rest that help me, who also say that your foot cannot stand before our face, for thy fathers have twice been put to flight in their own land:

73A 10 73 And now how wilt thou be able to abide the horsemen, and so great an army in the plain, where there is no stone, nor rock, nor place to flee to?

73A 10 74 Now when Jonathan heard the words of Apollonius, he was moved in his mind: and he chose ten thousand men, and went out of Jerusalem, and Simon his brother met him to help him.

73A 10 75 And they pitched their tents near Joppe, but they shut him out of the city: because a garrison of Apollonius was in Joppe, and he laid siege to it.

73A 10 76 And they that were in the city being affrighted, opened the gates to him: so Jonathan took Joppe.

73A 10 77 And Apollonius heard of it, and he took three thousand horsemen, and a great army.

73A 10 78 And he went to Azotus as one that was making a journey, and immediately he went forth into the plain: because he had a great number of horsemen, and he trusted in them. And Jonathan followed after him to Azotus, and they joined battle.

73A 10 79 And Apollonius left privately in the camp a thousand horsemen behind them.

73A 10 80 And Jonathan knew that there was an ambush behind him, and they surrounded his army, and cast darts at the people from morning till evening.

73A 10 81 But the people stood still, as Jonathan had commanded them: and so their horses were fatigued.

73A 10 82 Then Simon drew forth his army, and attacked the legion: for the horsemen were wearied: and they were discomfited by him, and fled.

73A 10 83 And they that were scattered about the plain, fled into Azotus, and went into Bethdagon their idol's temple, there to save themselves.

73A 10 84 But Jonathan set fire to Azotus, and the cities that were around it, and took the spoils of them, and the temple of Dagon: and all them that were fled into it, he burnt with fire.

73A 10 85 So they that were slain by the sword, with them that were burnt, were almost eight thousand men.

73A 10 86 And Jonathan removed his army from thence, and camped against Ascalon: and they went out of the city to meet him with great honour.

73A 10 87 And Jonathan returned into Jerusalem with his people, having many spoils.

73A 10 88 And it came to pass: When Alexander the king heard these words, that he honoured Jonathan yet more.

73A 10 89 And he sent him a buckle of gold, as the custom is, to be given to such as are of the royal blood. And he gave him Accaron and all the borders thereof in possession.

73A 11 1 And the king of Egypt gathered together an army, like the sand that lieth upon the sea shore, and many ships: and he sought to get the kingdom of Alexander by deceit, and join it to his own kingdom.

73A 11 2 And he went out into Syria with peaceable words, and they opened to him the cities, and met him: for king Alexander had ordered them to go forth to meet him, because he was his father in law.

73A 11 3 Now when Ptolemee entered into the cities, he put garrisons of soldiers in every city.

73A 11 4 And when he came near to Azotus, they shewed him the temple of Dagon that was burnt with fire, and Azotus, and the suburbs thereof that were destroyed, and the bodies that were cast abroad, and the graves of them that were slain in the battle, which they had made near the way.

73A 11 5 And they told the king that Jonathan had done these things, to make him odious: but the king held his peace.

73A 11 6 And Jonathan came to meet the king at Joppe with glory, and they saluted one another, and they lodged there.

73A 11 7 And Jonathan went with the king as far as the river, called Eleutherus: and he returned into Jerusalem.

73A 11 8 And king Ptolemee got the dominion of the cities by the sea side, even to Seleucia, and he devised evil designs against Alexander.

73A 11 9 And he sent ambassadors to Demetrius, saying: Come, let us make a league between us, and I will give thee my daughter whom Alexander hath, and thou shalt reign in the kingdom of thy father.

73A 11 10 For I repent that I have given him my daughter: for he hath sought to kill me.

73A 11 11 And he slandered him, because he coveted his kingdom.

73A 11 12 And he took away his daughter, and gave her to Demetrius, and alienated himself from Alexander, and his enmities were made manifest.

73A 11 13 And Ptolemee entered into Antioch, and set two crowns upon his head, that of Egypt, and that of Asia.

73A 11 14 Now king Alexander was in Cilicia at that time: because they that were in those places had rebelled.

73A 11 15 And when Alexander heard of it, he came to give him battle, and king Ptolemee brought forth his army, and met him with a strong power, and put him to flight.

73A 11 16 And Alexander fled into Arabia, there to be protected: and king Ptolemee was exalted.

73A 11 17 And Zabdiel the Arabian took off Alexander's head, and sent it to Ptolemee.

73A 11 18 And king Ptolemee died the third day after: and they that were in the strong holds were destroyed by them that were within the camp.

73A 11 19 And Demetrius reigned in the hundred and sixty-seventh year.

73A 11 20 In those days Jonathan gathered together them that were in Judea, to take the castle that was in Jerusalem: and they made many engines of war against it.

73A 11 21 Then some wicked men that hated their own nation, went away to king Demetrius, and told him that Jonathan was besieging the castle.

73A 11 22 And when he heard it, he was angry: and forthwith he came to Ptolemais, and wrote to Jonathan, that he should not besiege the castle, but should come to him in haste, and speak to him.

73A 11 23 But when Jonathan heard this, he bade them besiege it still: and he chose some of the ancients of Israel, and of the priests, and put himself in danger.

73A 11 24 And he took gold, and silver, and raiment, and many other presents, and went to the king to Ptolemais, and he found favour in his sight.

73A 11 25 And certain wicked men of his nation made complaints against him.

73A 11 26 And the king treated him as his predecessor had done before: and he exalted him in the sight of all his friends.

73A 11 27 And he confirmed him in the high priesthood, and all the honours he had before, and he made him the chief of his friends.

73A 11 28 And Jonathan requested of the king that he would make Judea free from tribute, and the three governments, and Samaria, and the confines thereof: and he promised him three hundred talents.

73A 11 29 And the king consented: and he wrote letters to Jonathan of all these things to this effect.

73A 11 30 King Demetrius to his brother Jonathan, and to the nation of the Jews, greeting.

73A 11 31 We send you here a copy of the letter, which we have written to Lasthenes our parent concerning you, that you might know it.

73A 11 32 King Demetrius to Lasthenes his parent, greeting.

73A 11 33 We have determined to do good to the nation of the Jews who are our friends, and keep the things that are just with us, for their good will which they bear towards us.

73A 11 34 We have ratified therefore unto them all the borders of Judea, and the three cities, Apherema, Lydda, and Ramatha, which are added to Judea, out of Samaria, and all their confines, to be set apart to all them that sacrifice in Jerusalem, instead of the payments which the king received of them every year, and for the fruits of the land, and of the trees.

73A 11 35 And as for other things that belonged to us of the tithes, and of the tributes, from this time we discharge them of them: the saltpans also, and the crowns that were presented to us.

73A 11 36 We give all to them, and nothing hereof shall be revoked from this time forth and for ever.

73A 11 37 Now therefore see that thou make a copy of these things, and let it be given to Jonathan, and set upon the holy mountain, in a conspicuous place.

73A 11 38 And king Demetrius seeing that the land was quiet before him, and nothing resisted him, sent away all his forces, every man to his own place, except the foreign army, which he had drawn together from the islands of the nations: so all the troops of his fathers hated him.

73A 11 39 Now there was one Tryphon who had been of Alexander's party before: who seeing that all the army murmured against Demetrius, went to Emalchuel the Arabian, who brought up Antiochus the son of Alexander.

73A 11 40 And he pressed him much to deliver him to him, that he might be king in his father's place: and he told him all that Demetrius had done, and how his soldiers hated him. And he remained there many days.

73A 11 41 And Jonathan sent to king Demetrius, desiring that he would cast out them that were in the castle in Jerusalem, and those that were in the strong holds: because they fought against Israel.

73A 11 42 And Demetrius sent to Jonathan, saying: I will not only do this for thee, and for thy people, but I will greatly honour thee, and thy nation, when opportunity shall serve.

73A 11 43 Now therefore thou shalt do well if thou send me men to help me: for all my army is gone from me.

73A 11 44 And Jonathan sent him three thousand valiant men to Antioch: and they came to the king, and the king was very glad of their coming.

73A 11 45 And they that were of the city assembled themselves together, to the number of a hundred and twenty thousand men, and would have killed the king.

73A 11 46 And the king fled into the palace, and they of the city kept the passages of the city, and began to fight.

73A 11 47 And the king called the Jews to his assistance: and they came to him all at once, and they all dispersed themselves through the city.

73A 11 48 And they slew in that day a hundred thousand men, and they set fire to the city, and got many spoils that day, and delivered the king.

73A 11 49 And they that were of the city saw that the Jews had got the city as they would: and they were discouraged in their minds, and cried to the king, making supplication, and saying:

73A 11 50 Grant us peace, and let the Jews cease from assaulting us, and the city.

73A 11 51 And they threw down their arms, and made peace, and the Jews were glorified in the sight of the king, and in the sight of all that were in his realm, and were renowned throughout the kingdom, and returned to Jerusalem with many spoils.

73A 11 52 So king Demetrius sat in the throne of his kingdom: and the land was quiet before him.

73A 11 53 And he falsified all whatsoever he had said, and alienated himself from Jonathan, and did not reward him according to the benefits he had received from him, but gave him great trouble.

73A 11 54 And after this Tryphon returned, and with him Antiochus the young boy, who was made king, and put on the diadem.

73A 11 55 And there assembled unto him all the hands which Demetrius had sent away, and they fought against Demetrius, who turned his back and fled.

73A 11 56 And Tryphon took the elephants, and made himself master of Antioch.

73A 11 57 And young Antiochus wrote to Jonathan, saying: I confirm thee in the high priesthood, and I appoint thee ruler over the four cities, and to be one of the king's friends.

73A 11 58 And he sent him vessels of gold for his service, and he gave him leave to drink in gold, and to be clothed in purple, and to wear a golden buckle:

73A 11 59 And he made his brother Simon governor from the borders of Tyre even to the confines of Egypt.

73A 11 60 Then Jonathan went forth and passed through the cities beyond the river: and all the forces of Syria gathered themselves to him to help him, and he came to Ascalon, and they met him honourably out of the city.

73A 11 61 And he went from thence to Gaza: and they that were in Gaza shut him out: and he besieged it, and burnt all the suburbs round about, and took the spoils.

73A 11 62 And the men of Gaza made supplication to Jonathan, and he gave them the right hand: and he took their sons for hostages, and sent them to Jerusalem: and he went through the country as far as Damascus.

73A 11 63 And Jonathan heard that the generals of Demetrius were come treacherously to Cades, which is in Galilee, with a great army, purposing to remove him from the affairs of the kingdom:

73A 11 64 And he went against them: but left his brother Simon in the country.

73A 11 65 And Simon encamped against Bethsura, and assaulted it many days, and shut them up.

73A 11 66 And they desired him to make peace, and he granted it them: and he cast them out from thence, and took the city, and placed a garrison in it.

73A 11 67 And Jonathan, and his army encamped by the water of Genesar, and before it was light they were ready in the plain of Asor.

73A 11 68 And behold the army of the strangers met him in the plain, and they laid an ambush for him in the mountains: but he went out against them.

73A 11 69 And they that lay in ambush arose out of their places, and joined battle.

73A 11 70 And all that were on Jonathan's side fled, and none was left of them, but Mathathias the son of Absalom, and Judas the son of Calphi, chief captain of the army.

73A 11 71 And Jonathan rent his garments, and cast earth upon his head, and prayed.

73A 11 72 And Jonathan turned again to them to battle, and he put them to flight, and they fought.

73A 11 73 And they of his part that fled saw this, and they turned again to him, and they all with him pursued the enemies even to Cades to their own camp, and they came even thither.

73A 11 74 And there fell of the aliens in that day three thousand men: and Jonathan returned to Jerusalem.

73A 12 1 And Jonathan saw that the time served him, and he chose certain men and sent them to Rome, to confirm and to renew the amity with them:

73A 12 2 And he sent letters to the Spartans, and to other places according to the same form.

73A 12 3 And they went to Rome, and entered into the senate house, and said: Jonathan the high priest, and the nation of the Jews have sent us to renew the amity, and alliance as it was before.

73A 12 4 And they gave them letters to their governors in every place, to conduct them into the land of Juda with peace.

73A 12 5 And this is a copy of the letters which Jonathan wrote to the Spartans:

73A 12 6 Jonathan the high priest, and the ancients of the nation, and the priests, and the rest of the people of the Jews, to the Spartans, their brethren, greeting.

73A 12 7 There were letters sent long ago to Onias the high priest from Arius who reigned then among you, to signify that you are our brethren, as the copy here underwritten doth specify.

73A 12 8 And Onias received the ambassador with honour: and received the letters wherein there was mention made of the alliance, and amity.

73A 12 9 We, though we needed none of these things, having for our comfort the holy books that are in our hands,

73A 12 10 Chose rather to send to you to renew the brotherhood and friendship, lest we should become strangers to you altogether: for there is a long time passed since you sent to us.

73A 12 11 We therefore at all times without ceasing, both in our festivals, and other days, wherein it is convenient, remember you in the sacrifices that we offer, and in our observances, as it is meet, and becoming to remember brethren.

73A 12 12 And we rejoice at your glory.

73A 12 13 But we have had many troubles and wars on every side, and the kings that are round about us, have fought against us.

73A 12 14 But we would not be troublesome to you, nor the rest of our allies and friends in these wars.

73A 12 15 For we have had help from heaven, and we have been delivered, and our enemies are humbled.

73A 12 16 We have chosen therefore Numenius the son of Antiochus, and Antipater the son of Jason, and have sent them to the Romans to renew with them the former amity and alliance.

73A 12 17 And we have commanded them to go also to you, and to salute you, and to deliver you our letters, concerning the renewing of our brotherhood.

73A 12 18 And now you shall do well to give us an answer hereto.

73A 12 19 And this is the copy of the letter which he had sent to Onias:

73A 12 20 Arius king of the Spartans to Onias the high priest, greeting.

73A 12 21 It is found in writing concerning the Spartans, and the Jews, that they are brethren, and that they are of the stock of Abraham.

73A 12 22 And now since this is come to our knowledge, you do well to write to us of your prosperity.

73A 12 23 And we also have written back to you: That our cattle, and our possessions are yours: and yours, ours. We therefore have commanded that these things should be told you.

73A 12 24 Now Jonathan heard that the generals of Demetrius were come again with a greater army than before to fight against him.

73A 12 25 So he went out from Jerusalem, and met them in the land of Amath: for he gave them no time to enter into his country.

73A 12 26 And he sent spies into their camp, and they came back and brought him word that they designed to come upon them in the night.

73A 12 27 And when the sun was set, Jonathan commanded his men to watch, and to be in arms all night long ready to fight, and he set sentinels round about the camp.

73A 12 28 And the enemies heard that Jonathan and his men were ready for battle, and they were struck with fear, and dread in their heart: and they kindled fires in their camp.

73A 12 29 But Jonathan and they that were with him knew it not till the morning: for they saw the lights burning.

73A 12 30 And Jonathan pursued after them, but overtook them not: for they had passed the river Eleutherus.

73A 12 31 And Jonathan turned upon the Arabians that are called Zabadeans: and he defeated them, and took the spoils of them.

73A 12 32 And he went forward, and came to Damascus, and passed through all that country.

73A 12 33 Simon also went forth, and came as far as Ascalon, and the neighbouring fortresses, and he turned aside to Joppe, and took possession of it, 73A 12 34 (For he heard that they designed to deliver the hold to them that took part with Demetrius,) and he put a garrison there to keep it.

73A 12 35 And Jonathan came back, and called together the ancients of the people, and he took a resolution with them to build fortresses in Judea, 73A 12 36 And to build up walls in Jerusalem, and raise a mount between the castle and the city, to separate it from the city, that so it might have no communication, and that they might neither buy nor sell.

73A 12 37 And they came together to build up the city: for the wall that was upon the brook towards the east was broken down, and he repaired that which is called Caphetetha:

73A 12 38 And Simon built Adiada in Sephela, and fortified it, and set up gates and bars.

73A 12 39 Now when Tryphon had conceived a design to make himself king of Asia, and to take the crown, and to stretch out his hand against king Antiochus:

73A 12 40 Fearing lest Jonathan would not suffer him, but would fight against him: he sought to seize upon him, and to kill him. So he rose up and came to Bethsan.

73A 12 41 And Jonathan went out to meet him with forty thousand men chosen for battle, and came to Bethsan.

73A 12 42 Now when Tryphon saw that Jonathan came with a great army, he durst not stretch forth his hand against him, 73A 12 43 But received him with honour, and commended him to all his friends, and gave him presents: and he commanded his troops to obey him, as himself.

73A 12 44 And he said to Jonathan: Why hast thou troubled all the people, whereas we have no war?

73A 12 45 Now therefore send them back to their own houses: and choose thee a few men that may be with thee, and come with me to Ptolemais, and I will deliver it to thee, and the rest of the strong holds, and the army, and all that have any charge, and I will return and go away: for this is the cause of my coming.

73A 12 46 And Jonathan believed him, and did as he said: and sent away his army, and they departed into the land of Juda:

73A 12 47 But he kept with him three thousand men: of whom he sent two thousand into Galilee, and one thousand went with him.

73A 12 48 Now as soon as Jonathan entered into Ptolemais, they of Ptolemais shut the gates of the city, and took him: and all them that came in with him they slew with the sword.

73A 12 49 Then Tryphon sent an army and horsemen into Galilee, and into the great plain to destroy all Jonathan's company.

73A 12 50 But they, when they understood that Jonathan and all that were with him were taken and slain, encouraged one another, and went out ready for battle.

73A 12 51 Then they that had come after them, seeing that they stood for their lives, returned back.

73A 12 52 Whereupon they all came peaceably into the land of Juda. And they bewailed Jonathan, and them that had been with him, exceedingly: and Israel mourned with great lamentation.

73A 12 53 Then all the heathens that were round about them, sought to destroy them. For they said:

73A 12 54 They have no prince, nor any to help them: now therefore let us make war upon them, and take away the memory of them from amongst men.

73A 13 1 Now Simon heard that Tryphon was gathering together a very great army, to invade the land of Juda, and to destroy it.

73A 13 2 And seeing that the people was in dread, and in fear, he went up to Jerusalem, and assembled the people:

73A 13 3 And exhorted them, saying: You know what great battles I and my brethren, and the house of my father, have fought for the laws, and the sanctuary, and the distresses that we have seen:

73A 13 4 By reason whereof all my brethren have lost their lives for Israel's sake, and I am left alone.

73A 13 5 And now far be it from me to spare my life in any time of trouble: for I am not better than my brethren.

73A 13 6 I will avenge then my nation and the sanctuary, and our children, and wives: for all the heathens are gathered together to destroy us out of mere malice.

73A 13 7 And the spirit of the people was enkindled as soon as they heard these words.

73A 13 8 And they answered with a loud voice, saying: Thou art our leader in the place of Judas, and Jonathan thy brother.

73A 13 9 Fight thou our battles, and we will do whatsoever thou shalt say to us.

73A 13 10 So gathering together all the men of war, he made haste to finish all the walls of Jerusalem, and he fortified it round about.

73A 13 11 And he sent Jonathan the son of Absalom, and with him a new army into Joppe, and he cast out them that were in it, and himself remained there.

73A 13 12 And Tryphon removed from Ptolemais with a great army, to invade the land of Juda, and Jonathan was with him in custody.

73A 13 13 But Simon pitched in Addus, over against the plain.

73A 13 14 And when Tryphon understood that Simon was risen up in the place of his brother Jonathan, and that he meant to join battle with him, he sent messengers to him,

73A 13 15 Saying: We have detained thy brother Jonathan for the money that he owed in the king's account, by reason of the affairs which he had the management of.

73A 13 16 But now send a hundred talents of silver, and his two sons for hostages, that when he is set at liberty he may not revolt from us, and we will release him.

73A 13 17 Now Simon knew that he spoke deceitfully to him, nevertheless he ordered the money, and the children to be sent: lest he should bring upon himself a great hatred of the people of Israel, who might have said:

73A 13 18 Because he sent not the money, and the children, therefore is he lost.

73A 13 19 So he sent the children, and the hundred talents: and he lied, and did not let Jonathan go.

73A 13 20 And after this Tryphon entered within the country, to destroy it: and they went about by the way that leadeth to Ador: and Simon and his army marched to every place whithersoever they went.

73A 13 21 And they that were in the castle, sent messengers to Tryphon, that he should make haste to come through the desert, and sent them victuals.

73A 13 22 And Tryphon made ready all his horsemen to come that night: but there fell a very great snow, and he came not into the country of Galaad.

73A 13 23 And when he approached to Bascama, he slew Jonathan and his sons there.

73A 13 24 And Tryphon returned, and went into his own country.

73A 13 25 And Simon sent, and took the bones of Jonathan his brother, and buried them in Modin, in the city of his fathers.

73A 13 26 And all Israel bewailed him with great lamentation: and they mourned for him many days.

73A 13 27 And Simon built over the sepulchre of his father and of his brethren, a building lofty to the sight, of polished stone behind and before:

73A 13 28 And he set up seven pyramids one against another for his father and his mother, and his four brethren:

73A 13 29 And round about these he set great pillars: and upon the pillars arms for a perpetual memory: and by the arms ships carved, which might be seen by all that sailed on the sea.

73A 13 30 This is the sepulchre that he made in Modin even unto this day.

73A 13 31 But Tryphon when he was upon a journey with the young king Antiochus, treacherously slew him.

73A 13 32 And he reigned in his place, and put on the crown of Asia: and brought great evils upon the land.

73A 13 33 And Simon built up the strong holds of Judea, fortifying them with high towers, and great walls, and gates, and bars: and he stored up victuals in the fortresses.

73A 13 34 And Simon chose men and sent to king Demetrius, to the end that he should grant an immunity to the land: for all that Tryphon did was to spoil.

73A 13 35 And king Demetrius in answer to this request, wrote a letter in this manner:

73A 13 36 King Demetrius to Simon the high priest, and friend of kings, and to the ancients, and to the nation of the Jews, greeting.

73A 13 37 The golden crown, and the palm, which you sent, we have received: and we are ready to make a firm peace with you, and to write to the king's chief officers to release you the things that we have released.

73A 13 38 For all that we have decreed in your favour, shall stand in force. The strong holds that you have built, shall be your own.

73A 13 39 And as for any oversight or fault committed unto this day, we forgive it, and the crown which you owed: and if any other thing were taxed in Jerusalem, now let it not be taxed.

73A 13 40 And if any of you be fit to be enrolled among ours, let them be enrolled, and let there be peace between us.

73A 13 41 In the year one hundred and seventy the yoke of the Gentiles was taken off from Israel.

73A 13 42 And the people of Israel began to write in the instruments, and public records, The first year under Simon the high priest, the great captain and prince of the Jews.

73A 13 43 In those days Simon besieged Gaza, and camped round about it, and he made engines, and set them to the city, and he struck one tower, and took it.

73A 13 44 And they that were within the engine leaped into the city: and there was a great uproar in the city.

73A 13 45 And they that were in the city went up with their wives and children upon the wall, with their garments rent, and they cried with a loud voice, beseeching Simon to grant them peace.

73A 13 46 And they said: Deal not with us according to our evil deeds, but according to thy mercy.

73A 13 47 And Simon being moved, did not destroy them: but yet he cast them out of the city, and cleansed the houses wherein there had been idols, and then he entered into it with hymns, blessing the Lord.

73A 13 48 And having cast out of it all uncleanness, he placed in it men that should observe the law: and he fortified it, and made it his habitation.

73A 13 49 But they that were in the castle of Jerusalem were hindered from going out and coming into the country, and from buying and selling: and they were straitened with hunger, and many of them perished through famine.

73A 13 50 And they cried to Simon form peace, and he granted it to them: and he cast them out from thence, and cleansed the castle from uncleannesses.

73A 13 51 And they entered into it the three and twentieth day of the second month, in the year one hundred and seventy-one, with thanksgiving, and branches of palm trees, and harps, and cymbals, and psalteries, and hymns, and canticles, because the great enemy was destroyed out of Israel.

73A 13 52 And he ordained that these days should be kept every year with gladness.

73A 13 53 And he fortified the mountain of the temple that was near the castle, and he dwelt there himself, and they that were with him.

73A 13 54 And Simon saw that John his son was a valiant man for war: and he made him captain of all the forces: and he dwelt in Gazara.

73A 14 1 In the year one hundred and seventy-two, king Demetrius assembled his army, and went into Media to get him succours to fight against Tryphon.

73A 14 2 And Arsaces the king of Persia and Media heard that Demetrius was entered within his borders, and he sent one of his princes to take him alive, and bring him to him.

73A 14 3 And he went and defeated the army of Demetrius: and took him, and brought him to Arsaces, and he put him into custody.

73A 14 4 And all the land of Juda was at rest all the days of Simon, and he sought the good of his nation: and his power, and his glory pleased them well all his days.

73A 14 5 And with all his glory he took Joppe for a haven, and made an entrance to the isles of the sea.

73A 14 6 And he enlarged the bounds of his nation, and made himself master of the country.

73A 14 7 And he gathered together a great number of captives, and had the dominion of Gazara, and of Bethsura, and of the castle: and took away all uncleanness out of it and there was none that resisted him.

73A 14 8 And every man tilled his land with peace: and the land of Juda yielded her increase, and the trees of the fields their fruit.

73A 14 9 The ancient men sat all in the streets, and treated together of the good things of the land, and the young men put on them glory, and the robes of war.

73A 14 10 And he provided victuals for the cities, and he appointed that they should be furnished with ammunition, so that the fame of his glory was renowned even to the end of the earth.

73A 14 11 He made peace in the land, and Israel rejoiced with great joy.

73A 14 12 And every man sat under his vine, and under his fig tree: and there was none to make them afraid.

73A 14 13 There was none left in the land to fight against them: kings were discomfited in those days.

73A 14 14 And he strengthened all those of his people that were brought low, and he sought the law, and took away every unjust and wicked man.

73A 14 15 He glorified the sanctuary, and multiplied the vessels of the holy places.

73A 14 16 And it was heard at Rome, and as far as Sparta, that Jonathan was dead: and they were very sorry.

73A 14 17 But when they heard that Simon his brother was made high priest in his place, and was possessed of all the country, and the cities therein:

73A 14 18 They wrote to him in tables of brass, to renew the friendship and alliance which they had made with Judas, and with Jonathan his brethren.

73A 14 19 And they were read before the assembly in Jerusalem. And this is the copy of the letters that the Spartans sent.

73A 14 20 The princes and the cities of the Spartans to Simon the high priest, and to the ancients, and the priests, and the rest of the people of the Jews their brethren, greeting.

73A 14 21 The ambassadors that were sent to our people, have told us of your glory, and honour, and joy: and we rejoice at their coming.

73A 14 22 And we registered what was said by them in the councils of the people in this manner: Numenius the son of Antiochus, and Antipater the son of Jason, ambassadors of the Jews, came to us to renew the former friendship with us.

73A 14 23 And it pleased the people to receive the men honourably, and to put a copy of their words in the public records, to be a memorial to the people of the Spartans. And we have written a copy of them to Simon the high priest.

73A 14 24 And after this Simon sent Numenius to Rome, with a great shield of gold the weight of a thousand pounds, to confirm the league with them. And when the people of Rome had heard 73A 14 25 These words, they said: What thanks shall we give to Simon, and his sons?

73A 14 26 For he hath restored his brethren, and hath driven away in fight the enemies of Israel from them: and they decreed him liberty, and registered it in tables of brass, and set it upon pillars in mount Sion.

73A 14 27 And this is a copy of the writing: The eighteenth day of the month Elul, in the year one hundred and seventy-two, being the third year under Simon the high priest at Asaramel,

73A 14 28 In a great assembly of the priests, and of the people, and the princes of the nation, and the ancients of the country, these things were notified: Forasmuch as there have often been wars in our country,

73A 14 29 And Simon the son of Mathathias of the children of Jarib, and his brethren have put themselves in danger, and have resisted the enemies of their nation, for the maintenance of their holy places, and the law: and have raised their nation to great glory.

73A 14 30 And Jonathan gathered together his nation, and was made their high priest, and he was laid to his people.

73A 14 31 And their enemies desired to tread down and destroy their country, and to stretch forth their hands against their holy places.

73A 14 32 Then Simon resisted and fought for his nation, and laid out much of his money, and armed the valiant men of his nation, and gave them wages:

73A 14 33 And he fortified the cities of Judea, and Bethsura that lieth in the borders of Judea, where the armour of the enemies was before: and he placed there a garrison of Jews.

73A 14 34 And he fortified Joppe which lieth by the sea: and Gazara, which bordereth upon Azotus, wherein the enemies dwelt before, and he placed Jews here: and furnished them with all things convenient for their reparation.

73A 14 35 And the people seeing the acts of Simon, and to what glory he meant to bring his nation, made him their prince, and high priest, because he had done all these things, and for the justice, and faith, which he kept to his nation, and for that he sought by all means to advance his people.

73A 14 36 And in his days things prospered in his hands, so that the heathens were taken away out of their country, and they also that were in the city of David in Jerusalem in the castle, out of which they issued forth, and profaned all places round about the sanctuary, and did much evil to its purity.

73A 14 37 And he placed therein Jews for the defence of the country, and of the city, and he raised up the walls of Jerusalem.

73A 14 38 And king Demetrius confirmed him in the high priesthood.

73A 14 39 According to these things he made him his friend, and glorified him with great glory.

73A 14 40 For he had heard that the Romans had called the Jews their friends, and confederates, and brethren, and that they had received Simon's ambassadors with honour:

73A 14 41 And that the Jews, and their priests, had consented that he should be their prince, and high priest for ever, till there should arise a faithful prophet:

73A 14 42 And that he should be chief over them, and that he should have the charge of the sanctuary, and that he should appoint rulers over their works, and over the country, and over the armour, and over the strong holds.

73A 14 43 And that he should have care of the holy places: and that he should be obeyed by all, and that all the writings in the country should be made in his name: and that he should be clothed with purple, and gold:

73A 14 44 And that it should not be lawful for any of the people, or of the priests, to disannul any of these things, or to gainsay his words, or to call together an assembly in the country without him: or to be clothed with purple, or to wear a buckle of gold:

73A 14 45 And whosoever shall do otherwise, or shall make void any of these things shall be punished.

73A 14 46 And it pleased all the people to establish Simon, and to do according to these words.

73A 14 47 And Simon accepted thereof, and was well pleased to execute the office of the high priesthood, and to be captain, and prince of the nation of the Jews, and of the priests, and to be chief over all.

73A 14 48 And they commanded that this writing should be put in tables of brass, and that they should be set up within the compass of the sanctuary, in a conspicuous place:

73A 14 49 And that a copy thereof should be put in the treasury, that Simon and his sons may have it.

73A 15 1 And king Antiochus the son of Demetrius sent letters from the isles of the sea to Simon the priest, and prince of the nation of the Jews, and to all the people:

73A 15 2 And the contents were these: King Antiochus to Simon the high priest, and to the nation of the Jews, greeting.

73A 15 3 Forasmuch as certain pestilent men have usurped the kingdom of our fathers, and my purpose is to challenge the kingdom, and to restore it to its former estate: and I have chosen a great army, and have built ships of war.

73A 15 4 And I design to go through the country that I may take revenge of them that have destroyed our country, and that have made many cities desolate in my realm.

73A 15 5 Now therefore I confirm unto thee all the oblations which all the kings before me remitted to thee, and what other gifts soever they remitted to thee:

73A 15 6 And I give thee leave to coin thy own money in thy country:

73A 15 7 And let Jerusalem be holy and free, and all the armour that hath been made, and the fortresses which thou hast built, and which thou keepest in thy hands, let them remain to thee.

73A 15 8 And all that is due to the king, and what should be the king's hereafter, from this present and for ever, is forgiven thee.

73A 15 9 And when we shall have recovered our kingdom, we will glorify thee, and thy nation, and the temple with great glory, so that your glory shall be made manifest in all the earth.

73A 15 10 In the year one hundred and seventy-four Antiochus entered into the land of this fathers, and all the forces assembled to him, so that few were left with Tryphon.

73A 15 11 And king Antiochus pursued after him, and he fled along by the sea coast and came to Dora.

73A 15 12 For he perceived that evils were gathered together upon him, and his troops had forsaken him.

73A 15 13 And Antiochus camped above Dora with a hundred and twenty thousand men of war, and eight thousand horsemen:

73A 15 14 And he invested the city, and the ships drew near by sea: and they annoyed the city by land, and by sea, and suffered none to come in, or to go out.

73A 15 15 And Numenius, and they that had been with him, came from the city of Rome, having letters written to the kings, and countries, the contents whereof were these:

73A 15 16 Lucius the consul of the Romans, to king Ptolemee, greeting.

73A 15 17 The ambassadors of the Jews our friends came to us, to renew the former friendship and alliance, being sent from Simon the high priest, and the people of the Jews.

73A 15 18 And they brought also a shield of gold of a thousand pounds.

73A 15 19 It hath seemed good therefore to us to write to the kings, and countries, that they should do them no harm, nor fight against them, their cities, or countries: and that they should give no aid to them that fight against them.

73A 15 20 And it hath seemed good to us to received the shield of them.

73A 15 21 If therefore any pestilent men are fled out of their country to you, deliver them to Simon the high priest, that he may punish them according to their law.

73A 15 22 These same things were written to king Demetrius, and to Attalus, and to Ariarathes, and to Arsaces, 73A 15 23 And to all the countries; and to Lampsacus, and to the Spartans, and to Delus, and Myndus, and Sicyon, and Caria, and Samus, and Pamphylia, and Lycia, and Alicarnassus, and Cos, and Side, and Aradus, and Rhodes, and Phaselis, and Gortyna, and Gnidus, and Cyprus, and Cyrene.

73A 15 24 And they wrote a copy thereof to Simon the high priest, and to the people of the Jews.

73A 15 25 But king Antiochus moved his camp to Dora the second time, assaulting it continually, and making engines: and shut up Tryphon, that he could not go out.

73A 15 26 And Simon sent to him two thousand chosen men to aid him, silver also, and gold, and abundance of furniture.

73A 15 27 And he would not receive them, but broke all the covenant that he had made with him before, and alienated himself from him.

73A 15 28 And he sent to him Athenobius one of his friends, to treat with him, saying: You hold Joppe, and Gazara, and the castle that is in Jerusalem, which are cities of my kingdom:

73A 15 29 Their borders you have wasted, and you have made great havock in the land, and have got the dominion of many places in my kingdom.

73A 15 30 Now therefore deliver up the cities that you have taken, and the tributes of the places whereof you have gotten the dominion without the borders of Judea.

73A 15 31 But if not, give me for them five hundred talents of silver, and for the havock that you have made, and the tributes of the cities other five hundred talents: or else we will come and fight against you.

73A 15 32 So Athenobius the king's friend came to Jerusalem, and saw the glory of Simon and his magnificence in gold, and silver, and his great equipage, and he was astonished, and told him the king's words.

73A 15 33 And Simon answered him, and said to him: We have neither taken other men's land, neither do we hold that which is other men's: but the inheritance of our fathers, which was for some time unjustly possessed by our enemies.

73A 15 34 But we having opportunity claim the inheritance of our fathers.

73A 15 35 And as to thy complaints concerning Joppe and Gazara, they did great harm to the people, and to our country: yet for these we will give a hundred talents. And Athenobius answered him not a word:

73A 15 36 But returning in a rage to the king, made report to him of these words, and of the glory of Simon, and of all that he had seen, and the king was exceeding angry.

73A 15 37 And Tryphon fled away by ship to Orthosias.

73A 15 38 And the king appointed Cendebeus captain of the sea coast, and gave him an army of footmen and horsemen.

73A 15 39 And he commanded him to march with his army towards Judea: and he commanded him to build up Gedor, and to fortify the gates of the city, and to war against the people. But the king himself pursued after Tryphon.

73A 15 40 And Cendebeus came to Jamnia, and began to provoke the people, and to ravage Judea, and to take the people prisoners, and to kill, and to build Gedor.

73A 15 41 And he placed there horsemen, and an army: that they might issue forth, and make incursions upon the ways of Judea, as the king had commanded him.

73A 16 1 Then John came up from Gazara, and told Simon his father what Cendebeus had done against their people.

73A 16 2 And Simon called his two eldest sons, Judas and John, and said to them: I and my brethren, and my father's house, have fought against the enemies of Israel from our youth even to this day: and things have prospered so well in our hands that we have delivered Israel oftentimes.

73A 16 3 And now I am old, but be you instead of me, and my brethren, and go out, and fight for our nation: and the help from heaven be with you.

73A 16 4 Then he chose out of the country twenty thousand fighting men, and horsemen, and they went forth against Cendebeus: and they rested in Modin.

73A 16 5 And they arose in the morning, and went into the plain: and behold a very great army of footmen and horsemen came against them, and there was a running river between them.

73A 16 6 And he and his people pitched their camp over against them, and he saw that the people were afraid to go over the river, so he went over first: then the men seeing him, passed over after him.

73A 16 7 And he divided the people, and set the horsemen in the midst of the footmen: but the horsemen of the enemies were very numerous.

73A 16 8 And they sounded the holy trumpets: and Cendebeus and his army were put to flight: and there fell many of them wounded, and the rest fled into the strong hold.

73A 16 9 At that time Judas John's brother was wounded: but John pursued after them, till he came to Cedron, which he had built:

73A 16 10 And they fled even to the towers that were in the fields of Azotus, and he burnt them with fire. And there fell of them two thousand men, and he returned into Judea in peace.

73A 16 11 Now Ptolemee the son of Abobus was appointed captain in the plain of Jericho, and he had abundance of silver and gold, 73A 16 12 For he was son in law of the high priest.

73A 16 13 And his heart was lifted up, and he designed to make himself master of the country, and he purposed treachery against Simon, and his sons, to destroy them.

73A 16 14 Now Simon, as he was going through the cities that were in the country of Judea, and taking care for the good ordering of them, went down to Jericho, he and Mathathias and Judas his sons, in the year one hundred and seventy-seven, the eleventh month: the same is the month Sabath.

73A 16 15 And the son of Abobus received them deceitfully into a little fortress, that is called Doch which he had built: and he made them a great feast, and hid men there.

73A 16 16 And when Simon and his sons had drunk plentifully, Ptolemee and his men rose up and took their weapons, and entered into the banqueting place, and slew him, and his two sons, and some of his servants.

73A 16 17 And he committed a great treachery in Israel, and rendered evil for good.

73A 16 18 And Ptolemee wrote these things and sent to the king that he should send him an army to aid him, and he would deliver him the country, and their cities, and tributes.

73A 16 19 And he sent others to Gazara to kill John: and to the tribunes he sent letters to come to him, and that he would give them silver, and gold, and gifts.

73A 16 20 And he sent others to take Jerusalem, and the mountain of the temple.

73A 16 21 Now one running before, told John in Gazara, that his father and his brethren were slain, and that he hath sent men to kill thee also.

73A 16 22 But when he heard it he was exceedingly afraid: and he apprehended the men that came to kill him, and he put them to death: for he knew that they sought to make him away.

73A 16 23 And as concerning the rest of the acts of John, and his wars, and the worthy deeds, which he bravely achieved, and the building of the walls, which he made, and the things that he did:

73A 16 24 Behold these are written in the book of the days of his priesthood, from the time he was made high priest after his father.

74A 1 1 To the brethren the Jews that are I throughout Egypt, the brethren, the Jews that are in Jerusalem, and in the land of Judea, send health, and good peace.

74A 1 2 May God be gracious to you, and remember his covenant that he made with Abraham, and Isaac, and Jacob, his faithful servants:

74A 1 3 And give you all a heart to worship him, and to do his will with a great heart, and a willing mind.

74A 1 4 May he open your heart in his law, and in his commandments, and send you peace.

74A 1 5 May he hear your prayers, and be reconciled unto you, and never forsake you in the evil time.

74A 1 6 And now here we are praying for you.

74A 1 7 When Demetrius reigned, in the year one hundred and sixty-nine, we Jews wrote to you, in the trouble, and violence, that came upon us in those years, after Jason withdrew himself from the holy land, and from the kingdom.

74A 1 8 They burnt the gate, and shed innocent blood: then we prayed to the Lord, and were heard, and we offered sacrifices, and fine flour, and lighted the lamps, and set forth the leaves.

74A 1 9 And now celebrate ye the days of Scenopogia in the month of Casleu.

74A 1 10 In the year Bone hundred and eighty- eight, the people that is at Jerusalem, and in Judea, and the senate, and Judas, to Aristobolus, the preceptor of king Ptolemee, who is of the stock of the anointed priests, and to the Jews that are in Egypt, health and welfare.

74A 1 11 Having been delivered by God out of great dangers, we give him great thanks, forasmuch as we have been in war with such a king.

74A 1 12 For he made numbers of men swarm out of Persia that have fought against us, and the holy city.

74A 1 13 For when the leader himself was in Persia, and with him a very great army, he fell in the temple of Nanea, being deceived by the counsel of the priests of Nanea.

74A 1 14 For Antiochus, with his friends, came to the place as though he would marry her, and that he might receive great sums of money under the title of a dowry.

74A 1 15 And when the priests of Nanea had set it forth, and he with a small company had entered into the compass of the temple, they shut the temple,

74A 1 16 When Antiochus was came in: and opening a secret entrance of the temple, they cast stones and slew the leader, and them that were with him, and hewed them in pieces, and cutting off their heads they threw them forth.

74A 1 17 Blessed be God in all things, who hath delivered up the wicked.

74A 1 18 Therefore whereas we purpose to keep the purification of the temple on the five and twentieth day of the month of Casleu, we thought it necessary to signify it to you: that you also may keep the day of Scenopogia, and the day of the fire, that was given when Nehemias offered sacrifice, after the temple and the altar was built.

74A 1 19 For when our fathers were led in Persia, the priests that then were worshippers of God took privately the fire from the altar, and hid it in a valley where there was a deep pit without water, and there they kept it safe, 74A 1 20 But when many years had passed, and it pleased God that Nehemias should be sent by the king of Persia, he sent some of the posterity of those priests that had hid it, to seek for the fire: and as they told us, they found no fire, but thick water.

74A 1 21 Then he bade them draw it up, and bring it to him: and the priest Nehemias commanded the sacrifices that were laid on, to be sprinkled with the same water, both the wood, and the things that were laid upon it.

74A 1 22 And when this was done, and the time came that the sun shone out, which before was in a cloud, there was a great fire kindled, so that all wondered.

74A 1 23 And all the priests made prayer, while the sacrifice was consuming, Jonathan beginning, and the rest answering.

74A 1 24 And the prayer of Nehemias was after this manner: O Lord God, Creator of all things, dreadful and strong, just and merciful, who alone art the goad king,

74A 1 25 Who alone art gracious, who alone art just, and almighty, and eternal, who deliverest Israel from all evil, who didst choose the fathers and didst sanctify them :

74A 1 26 Receive the sacrifice for all thy people Israel, and preserve thy own portion, and sanctify it.

74A 1 27 Gather together our scattered people, deliver them that are slaves to the Gentiles, and look upon them that are despised and abhorred: that the Gentiles may know that thou art our God.

74A 1 28 Punish them that oppress us, and that treat us injuriously with pride.

74A 1 29 Establish thy people in thy holy place, as Moses hath spoken.

74A 1 30 And the priests sung hymns till the sacrifice was consumed.

74A 1 31 And when the sacrifice was consumed, Nehemias commanded the water that was left to be poured out upon the great stones.

74A 1 32 Which being done, there -was kindled a dame from them: but it was consumed by the light that shined from the altar.

74A 1 33 And when this matter became public, it was told to the king of Persia, that in the place where the priests that were led away, had hid the fire, there appeared water, with which Nehemias and they that were with him had purified the sacrifices.

74A 1 34 And the king considering, and diligently examining the matter, made a temple for it, that he might prove what had happened.

74A 1 35 And when he had proved it, he gave the priests many goods, and divers presents, and he took end distributed them to them with his own hand.

74A 1 36 And Nehemias called this place Nephthar, which is interpreted purification. But many call it Nephi.

74A 1 90 that the place was unknown to all men.

74A 2 1 Now it is found in the descriptions of Jeremias the prophet, that he commanded them that went into captivity, to take the fire, as it hath been signified, and how he gave charge to them that were carried away into captivity.

74A 2 2 And how he gave them the law that they should not forget the commandments of the Lord, and that they should not err in their minds, seeing the idols of gold, and silver, and the ornaments of them.

74A 2 3 And with other such like speeches, he exhorted them that they would not remove the law from their heart.

74A 2 4 It was also contained in the same writing, how the prophet, being warned by God, commanded that the tabernacle and the ark should accompany him, till he came forth to the mountain " where Moses went up, and saw the inheritance of God.

74A 2 5 And when Jeremias came thither he found a hollow cave: and he carried in thither the tabernacle, and the ark, and the altar of incense, and so stopped the door.

74A 2 6 Then some of them that followed him, came up to mark the place: but they could not And it.

74A 2 7 And when Jeremias perceived it, he blamed them, saying: The place shall be unknown, till God gather together the congregation of the people, and receive them to mercy.

74A 2 8 And then the Lord will shew these things, and the majesty of the Lord shall appear, and there shall be a cloud as it was also shewed to Moses, "and he shewed it when Solomon prayed that the place might be sanctified to the great God.

74A 2 9 For he treated wisdom in a magnificent manner: and like a wise man, he offered the sacrifice of the dedication, and of the finishing of the temple.

74A 2 10 And as Moses prayed to the Lord and fire came down from heaven, and consumed the holocaust: so Solomon also prayed, and fire came down from heaven and consumed the holocaust.

74A 2 11 And Moses said: Because the sin offering was not eaten, it was consumed.

74A 2 12 So Solomon also celebrated the dedication eight days.

74A 2 13 And these same things were set down in the memoirs and commentaries of Nehemias: and how he made a library, and gathered together out of the countries, the books both of the prophets, and of David, and the epistles of the kings. and concerning the holy gifts.

74A 2 14 And in like manner Judas also gathered together all such things as were lost by the war we had, and they are in our possession.

74A 2 15 Wherefore if you want these things, send some that may fetch them to you.

74A 2 16 As we are then about to celebrate the purification, we have written unto you: and you shall do well, if you keep the same days.

74A 2 17 And we hope that God who hath delivered his people, and hath rendered to all the inheritance, and the kingdom, and the priesthood, and the sanctuary, 74A 2 18 As he promised in the law, will shortly have mercy upon us, and will gather us together from every land under heaven into the holy place.

74A 2 19 For he hath delivered us out of great perils, and hath cleansed the place.

74A 2 20 Now as concerning Judas Machabeus. and his brethren, and the purification of the great temple, and the dedication o the altar:

74A 2 21 As also the wars against Antioch the Illustrious, and his son Eupator:

74A 2 22 And the manifestations that from heaven to them, that behaved themselves manfully on the behalf of the Jews, so that, being but a few, they made themselves masters of the whole country, and put to flight; the barbarous multitude :

74A 2 23 And recovered again the most renowned temple in all the world, and delivered the city, and restored the laws that were abolished, the Lord with all clemency shewing mercy to them.

74A 2 24 And all such things as have been comprised in five books by Jason of Cyrene, we have attempted to abridge in one book.

74A 2 25 For considering the multitude of books, and the difficulty that they find that desire to undertake the narrations of histories, because of the multitude of the matter,

74A 2 26 We have taken care for those indeed that are willing to read, that it might be a pleasure of mind: and for the studious, that they may more easily commit to memory: and that all that read might receive profit.

74A 2 27 And as to ourselves indeed, in under- taking this work of abridging, we have taken in hand no easy task, yea rather a business full of watching and sweat.

74A 2 28 But as they that prepare a feast, and seek to satisfy the will of others: for the sake of many, we willingly undergo the labour.

74A 2 29 Leaving to the authors the exact handling of every particular, and as for ourselves, according to the plan pro- posed, studying to be brief.

74A 2 30 For as the master builder of a new house must have care of the whole building: but he that taketh care to paint it, must seek out fit things for the adorning of it: so must it be judged for us.

74A 2 31 For to collect all that is to be known, to put the discourse in order, and curiously to discuss every particular point, is the duty of the author of a history:

74A 2 32 But to pursue brevity of speech, and to avoid nice declarations of things, is to be granted to him that maketh an abridgment.

74A 2 33 Here then we will begin the narration: let this be enough by way of a preface: for it is a foolish thing to make a long prologue, and to be short in the story itself.

74A 3 1 Therefore when the holy city was inhabited with all peace, and the laws as yet were very well kept, because of the godliness of Onias the high priest, and the hatred his soul had of evil,

74A 3 2 It came to pass that even the kings themselves, and the princes esteemed the place worthy of the highest honour, and glorified the temple with very great gifts:

74A 3 3 So that Seleucus king of Asia allowed out of his revenues all the charges belonging to the ministry of the sacrifices.

74A 3 4 But one Simon of the tribe of Benjamin, who was appointed overseer of the temple, strove in opposition to the high priest, to bring about some unjust thing in the city.

74A 3 5 And when he could not overcome Onias he went to Apollonius the son of Tharseas, who at that time was governor of Celesyria and Phenicia:

74A 3 6 And told him, that the treasury in Jerusalem was full of immense sums of money, and the common store was infinite, which did not belong to the account of the sacrifices: and that it was possible to bring all into the king's hands.

74A 3 7 Now when Apollonius had given the king notice concerning the money that he was told of, he called for Heliodorus, who had the charge over his affairs, and sent him with commission to bring him the foresaid money.

74A 3 8 So Heliodorus forthwith began his journey, under a colour of visiting the cities of Celesyria and Phenicia, but in- deed to fulfil the king's purpose.

74A 3 9 And when he was come to Jerusalem, and had been courteously received in the city by the high priest, he told him what information had been given concerning the money: and declared the cause for which he was come: and asked if these things were so indeed.

74A 3 10 Then the high priest told him that these were sums deposited, and provisions for the subsistence of the widows and the fatherless.

74A 3 11 And that some part of that which wicked Simon had given intelligence of, belonged to Hircanus son of Tobias, a man of great dignity: and that the whole was four hundred talents of silver, and two hundred of gold:

74A 3 12 But that to deceive them who had trusted to the place and temple which is honoured throughout the whole world, for the reverence and holiness of it, was a thing which could not by any means be done.

74A 3 13 But he, by reason of the orders he had received from the king, said that by :all means the money must be carried to the king.

74A 3 14 So on the day he had appointed, Heliodorus entered in to order this mat- tar. But there was no small terror throughout the whole city.

74A 3 15 And the priests prostrated them- selves before the altar in their priests' vestments, and called upon him from heaven, who made the law concerning things given to be kept, that he would preserve them safe, for them that had deposited them.

74A 3 16 Now whosoever saw the countenance of the high priest, was wounded in heart: for his face, and the changing of his colour declared the inward sorrow of his mind.

74A 3 17 For the man was so compassed with sadness and horror of the body, that it was manifest to them that beheld him, what sorrow he had in his heart.

74A 3 18 Others also came hocking together out of their houses, praying and making public supplication, because the place was like to come into contempt.

74A 3 19 And the women, girded with haircloth about their breasts, came together in the streets. And the virgins also that were shut up, came forth, some to Onias, and some to the walls, and others looked out of the windows.

74A 3 20 And all holding up their hands towards heaven, made supplication.

74A 3 21 For the expectation of the mixed multitude, and of the high priest who was in an agony, would have moved any one to pity.

74A 3 22 And these indeed called upon al- mighty God, to preserve the things that had been committed to them, safe and sure for those that had committed them.

74A 3 23 But Heliodorus executed that which he had resolved on, himself being present in the same place with his guard about the treasury.

74A 3 24 But the spirit of the almighty God gave a great evidence of his presence, so that all that had presumed to obey him, falling down by the power of God, were struck with fainting and dread.

74A 3 25 For there appeared to them a horse with a terrible rider upon him, adorned with a very rich covering: and he ran fiercely and struck Heliodorus with his fore feet, and he that sat upon him seemed to have armour of gold.

74A 3 26 Moreover there appeared two other young men beautiful and strong, bright and glorious, and in comely apparel: who stood by him, on either side, and scourged him without ceasing with many stripes.

74A 3 27 Arid Heliodorus suddenly fell to the ground, and they took him up covered with great darkness, and having put him into a litter they carried him out.

74A 3 28 So he that came with many servants, and all his guard into the aforesaid treasury, was carried out, no one being able to help him, the manifest power of God being known.

74A 3 29 And he indeed by the power of God lay speechless, and without all hope of recovery.

74A 3 30 But they praised the Lord because he had glorified his place: and the temple, that a little before was full of fear and trouble, when the almighty Lord appeared, was filled with joy and gladness.

74A 3 31 Then some of the friends of Heliodorus forthwith begged of Onias, that he would call upon the most High to grant him his life, who was ready to give up the ghost.

74A 3 32 So the high priest considering that the king might perhaps suspect that some mischief had been done to Heliodorus by the Jews, offered a sacrifice of health for the recovery of the man.

74A 3 33 And when the high priest was praying, the same young men in the same clothing stood by Heliodorus, and said to him: Give thanks to Onias the priest: because for his sake the Lord hath granted thee life.

74A 3 34 And thou having been scourged by God, declare unto all men the great works and the power of God. And having spoken thus, they appeared no more.

74A 3 35 So Heliodorus after he had offered a sacrifice to God, and made great vows to him, that had granted him life, and given thanks to Onias, taking his troops with him, returned to the king.

74A 3 36 And he testified to all men the works of the great God, which he had seen with his own eyes.

74A 3 37 And when the king asked Heliodorus, who might be a fit man to be sent yet once more to Jerusalem, he said:

74A 3 38 If thou hast any enemy or traitor to thy kingdom, send him thither, and thou shalt receive him again scourged, if so be he escape: for there is undoubtedly in that place a certain power of God.

74A 3 39 For he that hath his dwelling in the heavens, is the visitor, and protector of that place, and he striketh and destroyeth them that come to do evil to it.

74A 3 40 And the things concerning Heliodorus, and the keeping of the treasury fell out in this manner.

74A 4 1 But Simon, of whom we spoke before, and of his country, spoke ill of Onias, as though he had incited Heliodorus to do these things, and had been the promoter of evils:

74A 4 2 And he presumed to call him a traitor to the kingdom, who provided for the city, and defended his nation, and wed zealous for the law of God.

74A 4 3 But when the enmities proceeded so far, that murders also were committed by some of Simon's friends:

74A 4 4 Onias considering the danger of this contention, and that Apollonius, who was the governor of Celesyria and Phenicia, was outrageous, which increased the malice of Simon, went to the king, 74A 4 5 Not to be an accuser of his countrymen, but with a view to the common good of all the people.

74A 4 6 For he saw that, except the king took care, it was impossible that matters should be settled in peace, or that Simon would cease from his folly.

74A 4 7 But after the death of Seleucus, when Antiochus, who was called the Illustrious, had taken possession of the kingdom, Jason the brother of Onias ambitiously sought the high priesthood:

74A 4 8 And went to the king, promising him three hundred and sixty talents of silver, and out of other revenues four- score talents.

74A 4 9 Besides this he promised also a hundred and fifty more, if he might have license to set him up a place for exercise, and a place for youth, and to entitle them, that were at Jerusalem, Antiochians.

74A 4 10 Which when the king had granted, and he had gotten the rule into his hands, forthwith he began to bring over his countrymen to the fashion of the heathens.

74A 4 11 And abolishing those things, which had been decreed of special favour by the kings in behalf of the Jews, by the means of John the father of that Eupolemus, who went ambassador to Rome to make amity and alliance, he disannulled the lawful ordinances of the citizens, and brought in fashions that were perverse.

74A 4 12 For he had the boldness to set up, U under the very castle, a place of exercise, and to put all the choicest youths in brothel houses.

74A 4 13 Now this was not the beginning, but an increase, and progress of heathenish and foreign manners, through the abominable and unheard of wickedness of Jason, that impious wretch and no priest.

74A 4 14 Insomuch that the priests were not now occupied about the offices of the altar, but despising the temple and neglecting the sacrifices, hastened to be partakers of the games, and of the unlawful allowance thereof, and of the exercise of the discus.

74A 4 15 And setting nought by the honours of their fathers, they esteemed the Grecian glories for the best:

74A 4 16 For the sake of which they incurred a dangerous contention, and followed earnestly their ordinances, and in all things they coveted to be like them, who were their enemies and murderers.

74A 4 17 For acting wickedly against the laws of God doth not pass unpunished: but this the time following will declare.

74A 4 18 Now when the game that was used every fifth year was kept at Tyre, the king being present, 74A 4 19 The wicked Jason sent from Jerusalem sinful men to carry three hundred didrachmas of silver for the sacrifice of Hercules; but the bearers thereof desired it might not be bestowed on the sacrifices, because it was not necessary, but might be deputed for other charges.

74A 4 20 So the money was appointed by him that sent it to the sacrifice of Hercules: but because of them that carried it was employed for the making of galleys.

74A 4 21 Now when Apollonius the son of Mnestheus was sent into Egypt to treat with the nobles of king Philometor, and Antiochus understood that he was wholly excluded from the affairs of the kingdom, consulting his own interest, he departed thence and came to Joppe, and from thence to Jerusalem:

74A 4 22 Where he was received in a, magnificent manner by Jason, and the city, and came in with torch lights, and with praises, end from thence he returned with his army into Phenicia.

74A 4 23 Three years afterwards Jason sent Menelaus, brother of the aforesaid Simon, to carry money to the king, and to bring answers from him concerning certain necessary affairs.

74A 4 24 But he being recommended to the king, when he had magnified the appearance of his power, got the high priesthood for himself, by offering more than Jason by three hundred talents of silver.

74A 4 25 So having received the king's mandate, he returned bringing nothing worthy of the high priesthood: but having the mind of a cruel tyrant, and the rage of a savage beast.

74A 4 26 Then Jason, who had undermined his own brother, being himself undermined, was driven out a fugitive into the country of the Ammonites

74A 4 27 So Menelaus got the principality: but as for the money he had promised to the king he took no care, when Sostratus the governor of the castle called for 74A 4 28 For to him appertained the gathering of the taxes: wherefore they were both called before the king.

74A 4 29 And Menelaus was removed from the priesthood, Lysimachus his brother succeeding: and Sostratus was made governor of the Cyprians.

74A 4 30 When these things were in doing, it fell out that they of Tharsus and Mallos raised a sedition, because they were given for a gift to Antiochis, the king's concubine.

74A 4 31 The king therefore went in all haste to appease them, leaving Andronicus, one of his nobles, for his deputy.

74A 4 32 Then Menelaus supposing that he had found a convenient time, having stolen certain vessels of gold out of the temple, gave them to Andronicus, and others he had sold at Tyre, and in the neighbouring cities.

74A 4 33 Which when Onias understood most certainly, he reproved him, keeping himself in a safe place at Antioch beside Daphne.

74A 4 34 Whereupon Menelaus coming to Andronicus, desired him to kill Onias. And he went to Onias, and gave him his right hand with an oath, and (though he were suspected by him) persuaded him to come forth out of the sanctuary, and immediately slew him, without any regard to justice.

74A 4 35 For which cause not only the Jews, but also the other nations, conceived indignation, and were much grieved for the unjust murder of so great a man.

74A 4 36 And when the king was come back from the places of Cilicia, the Jews that were at Antioch, and also the Creaks went to him: complaining of the unjust murder of Onias.

74A 4 37 Antiochus therefore was grieved in his mind for Onias, and being moved to pity, shed tears, remembering the sobriety and modesty of the deceased.

74A 4 38 And being inflamed to anger, he commanded Andronicus to be stripped of his purple, and to be led about through all the city: and that in the same place wherein he had committed the impiety against Onias, the sacrilegious wretch should be put to death, the Lord repaying him his deserved punishment.

74A 4 39 Now when many sacrileges had been committed by Lysimachus in the temple by the counsel of Menelaus, and the rumour of it was spread abroad, the multitude gathered themselves together against Lysimachus, a great quantity of gold being already carried away.

74A 4 40 Wherefore the multitude making an insurrection, and their minds being filled with anger, Lysimachus armed about three thousand men, and began to use violence, one Tyrannus being captain, a man far gone both in age, and in madness.

74A 4 41 But when they perceived the attempt of Lysimachus, some caught up stones, some strong clubs: and some threw ashes upon Lysimachus, 74A 4 42 And many of them were wounded, and some struck down to the ground, but all were put to flight: and as for the sacrilegious fellow himself, they slew him beside the treasury.

74A 4 43 Now concerning these matters, an accusation was laid against Menelaus.

74A 4 44 And when the king was come to Tyre, three men were sent from the ancients to plead the cause before him.

74A 4 45 But Menelaus being convicted, promised Ptolemee to give him much money to persuade the king to favour him.

74A 4 46 So Ptolemee went to the king in a certain court where he was, as it were to cool himself, and brought him to be of another mind:

74A 4 47 So Menelaus who was guilty of all the evil, was acquitted by him of the accusations: and those poor men, who, if they had pleaded their cause even before Scythians, should have been judged innocent, were condemned to death.

74A 4 48 Thus they that prosecuted the cause for the city, and for the people, and the sacred vessels, did soon suffer unjust punishment.

74A 4 49 Wherefore even the Tyrians being moved with indignation, were liberal towards their burial.

74A 4 50 And so through the covetousness of them that were in power, Menelaus continued in authority, increasing in malice to the betraying of the citizens.

74A 5 1 At the same time Antiochus prepared for a second journey into Egypt.

74A 5 2 And it came to pass that through the whole city of Jerusalem for the space of forty days there were seen horsemen running in the air, in gilded raiment, and armed with spears, like bands of soldiers.

74A 5 3 And horses set in order by ranks, running one against another, with the shakings of shields, and a multitude of men in helmets, with drawn swords, and casting of darts, and glittering of golden armour, and of harnesses of all sorts.

74A 5 4 Wherefore all men prayed that these prodigies might turn to good.

74A 5 6 But Jason slew his countrymen without mercy, not considering that prosperity against one's own kindred is a very great evil, thinking they had been enemies, and not citizens, whom he conquered.

74A 5 7 Yet he did not gee the principality, but received confusion at tile end, for the reward of his treachery, and fled again into the country of the Ammonites.

74A 5 8 At the last having been shut up by Aretas the king of the Arabians, in order for his destruction, flying from city to city, hated by all men, as a forsaker of the laws, and execrable, as an enemy of his country and countrymen, he was thrust out into Egypt:

74A 5 9 And he that had driven many out of their country, perished in a strange land, going to Lacedemon, as if for kindred sake he should have refuge there:

74A 5 10 But he that had cast out many unburied, was himself cast forth both unlamented and unburied, neither having foreign burial, nor being partaker of the sepulchre of his fathers.

74A 5 11 Now when these things were done, the king suspected that the Jews would forsake the alliance: whereupon departing out of Egypt with a furious mind, he took the city by force of arms.

74A 5 12 And commanded the soldiers to kill, and not to spare any that came in their way, and to go up into the houses slay.

74A 5 13 Thus there was a slaughter of young and old, a destruction of women children, and killing of virgins and infants.

74A 5 14 And there were slain in the space o three whole days fourscore thousand, forty thousand were made prisoners, and as many sold.

74A 5 15 But this was not enough; he presumed also to enter into the temple, the most holy in all the world, Menelaus, that traitor to the laws, and to his country, being his guide.

74A 5 16 And taking in his wicked hands the holy vessels, which were given by other kings and cities, for the ornament and the glory of the place, he unworthily handled and profaned them.

74A 5 17 Thus Antiochus going astray in mind, did not consider that God was angry for a while, because of the sins of the habitants of the city: and therefore contempt had happened to the place:

74A 5 18 Otherwise had they not been involved in many sins, as Heliodorus, who was sent by king Seleucus to rob treasury, so this man also, as soon as had come, had been forthwith scourged, and put back from his presumption.

74A 5 19 But God did not choose the people for the place's sake, but the place for the people's sake.

74A 5 20 And therefore the place also itself was made partaker of the evils of the people: but afterward shall communicate in the good things thereof, and as it was forsaken in the wrath of almighty God, shall be exalted again with great glory, when the great Lord shall be reconciled.

74A 5 21 So when Antiochus had taken away out of the temple a thousand and eight hundred talents, he went back in all haste to Antioch, thinking through pride, that he might now make the land navigable, and the sea passable on foot: such was the haughtiness of his mind.

74A 5 22 He left also governors to afflict the people: at Jerusalem, Philip, a Phrygian by birth, but in manners more barbarous than he that set him there:

74A 5 23 And in Gazarim, Andronicus and Menelaus, who bore a more heavy hand upon the citizens than the rest.

74A 5 24 And whereas he was set against the Jews, he sent that hateful prince Apollonius with an army of two and twenty thousand men, commanding him to kill all that were of perfect age, and to sell the women and the younger sort.

74A 5 25 Who when he was come to Jerusalem, pretending peace, rested till the holy day of the sabbath: and then the Jews keeping holiday, he commanded his men to take arms.

74A 5 26 And he slew all that were come forth to see: and running through the city with armed men, he destroyed a very great multitude.

74A 5 27 But Judas Machabeus, who was the tenth, had withdrawn himself into a desert place, and there lived amongst wild beasts in the mountains with his company: and they continued feeding on herbs, that they might not be partakers of the pollution.

74A 6 1 But not long after the king sent a certain old man of Antioch, to compel the Jews to depart from the laws of their fathers and of God:

74A 6 2 And to defile the temple that was in Jerusalem, and to call it the temple of Jupiter Olympius: and that in Gazarim of Jupiter Hospitalis, according as they were that inhabited the place.

74A 6 3 And very bad was this invasion of evils and grievous to all.

74A 6 4 For the temple was full of the riot and revellings of the Gentiles: and of men lying with lewd women. And women thrust themselves of their accord into the holy places, and brought in things that were not lawful.

74A 6 5 The altar also was filled with unlawful things, which were forbidden by the laws.

74A 6 6 And neither were the sabbaths kept, nor the solemn days of the fathers observed, neither did any man plainly profess himself to be a Jew.

74A 6 7 But they were led by bitter constraint on the king's birthday to the sacrifices: and when the feast of Bacchus was kept, they wore compelled to go about crowned with ivy in honour of Bacchus.

74A 6 8 And there went out a decree into the neighbouring cities of the Gentiles, by the suggestion of the Ptolemeans, that they also should act in like manner against the Jews, to oblige them to sacrifice:

74A 6 9 And whosoever would not conform themselves to the ways of the Gentiles, should be put to death: then was misery to be seen.

74A 6 10 For two women were accused to have circumcised their children: whom, when they had openly led about through the city with the infants hanging at their breasts, they threw down headlong from the walls.

74A 6 11 And others that had met together in caves that were near, and were keeping the sabbath day privately, being discovered by Philip, were burnt with fire, because they made a conscience to help themselves with their hands, by reason of the religious observance of the day.

74A 6 12 Now I beseech those that shall read this book, that they be not shocked at these calamities, but that they consider the things that happened, not as being for the destruction, but for the correction of our nation.

74A 6 13 For it is a token of great goodness when sinners are not suffered to go on in their ways for a long time, but are presently punished.

74A 6 14 For, not as with other nations (whom the Lord patiently expecteth, that when the day of judgment shall come, he may punish them in the fulness of their sins:)

74A 6 15 Doth he also deal with us, so as to suffer our sins to come to their height, and then take vengeance on us.

74A 6 16 And therefore he never withdraweth his mercy from us: but though he chastise his people with adversity, he forsaketh them not.

74A 6 17 But let this suffice in a few words for a warning to the readers. And now we must come to the narration.

74A 6 18 Eleazar one of the chief of the scribes, a man advanced in years, and of a comely countenance, was pressed to open his mouth to eat swine's flesh.

74A 6 19 But he, choosing rather a most glorious death than a hateful life, went forward voluntarily to the torment.

74A 6 20 And considering in what manner he was come to ii:, patiently bearing, he determined not to do any unlawful things for the love of life.

74A 6 21 But they that stood by, being moved with wicked pity, for the old friendship they had with the man, taking him aside, desired that flesh might be brought, which it was lawful for him to eat, that he might make as if he had eaten, as the king had commanded of the flesh of the sacrifice:

74A 6 22 That by so doing he might be delivered from death: and for the sake of their old friendship with the man they did him this courtesy.

74A 6 23 But he began to consider the dignity of his age, and his ancient years, and the inbred honour of his grey head, and his good life and conversation from a child: and he answered without delay, according to the ordinances of the holy law made by God, saying, that he would rather be sent into the other world.

74A 6 24 For it doth not become our age, said he, to dissemble: whereby many young persons might think that Eleazar, at the age of fourscore and ten years, was gone over to the life of the heathens:

74A 6 25 And so they, through my dissimulation, and for a little time of a corruptible life, should be deceived, and hereby I should bring a stain and a curse upon my old age.

74A 6 26 For though, for the present time, I should be delivered from the punishments of men, yet should I not escape the hand of the Almighty neither alive nor dead.

74A 6 27 Wherefore by departing manfully out of this life, I shall shew myself worthy of my old age:

74A 6 28 And I shall leave an example of fortitude to young men, if with a ready mind and constancy I suffer an honourable death, for the most venerable and most holy laws. And having spoken thus, he was forthwith carried to execution.

74A 6 29 And they that led him, and had been a little before more mild, were changed to wrath for the words he had spoken, which they thought were uttered out of arrogance.

74A 6 30 But when he was now ready to die with the stripes, he groaned, and said: O Lord, who hast the holy knowledge, thou knowest manifestly that whereas I might be delivered from death, I suffer grievous pains in body: but in soul am well content to suffer these things because I fear thee.

74A 6 31 Thus did this man die, leaving not only to young men, but also to the whole nation, the memory of his death for an example of virtue and fortitude.

74A 7 1 To come to pass also, that seven brethren, together with their mother, were apprehended, and compelled by the king to eat swine's flesh against the law, for which end they were tormented with whips and scourges.

74A 7 1 have from heaven, but for the laws of God I now despise them: because I hope to receive them again from him.

74A 7 2 But one of them, who was the eldest, said thus: What wouldst thou ask, or learn of us? we are ready to die rather than to transgress the laws of God, received from our fathers.

74A 7 3 Then the king being angry commanded fryingpans, and brazen caldrons to be made hot: which forthwith being heated,

74A 7 4 He commanded to cut out the tongue of him that had spoken first: and the skin of his head being drawn off, to chop off also the extremities of his hands and feet, the rest of his brethren, and his mother, looking on.

74A 7 5 And when he was now maimed in all parts, he commanded him, being yet alive, to be brought to the Are, and to be fried in the fryingpan: and while he was suffering therein long torments, the rest, together with the mother, exhorted one another to die manfully, 74A 7 6 Saying: The Lord God will look upon the truth, and will take pleasure in us, "as Moses declared in the profession of the canticle: And In his servants he will take pleasure.

74A 7 7 So when the first was dead after this manner, they brought the next to make him a, mocking stock: and when they had pulled off the skin of his head with the hair, they asked him if he would eat, before he were punished throughout the whole body in every limb.

74A 7 8 But he answered in his own language, and said: I will not do it. Wherefore Ire also in the next place, received the torments of the first:

74A 7 9 And when he was at the last gasp, he said thus: Thou indeed, O most wicked man, destroyest us out of this present life: but the King of the world will raise us up, who die for his laws, in the resurrection of eternal life.

74A 7 10 After him the third was made a mocking stock, and when he was required, he quickly put forth his tongue, and courageously stretched out his hands:

74A 7 11 And said with confidence: These

74A 7 12 So that the king, and they that were with him, wondered at the young man's courage, because he esteemed the torments as nothing.

74A 7 13 And after he was thus dead, they tormented the fourth in the like manner

74A 7 14 And when he was now ready to die, he spoke thus: It is better, being put to death by men, to look for hope from God, to be raised up again by him: for, as to thee thou shalt have no resurrection unto life.

74A 7 15 And when they had brought the fifth, they tormented him. But he looking upon the king, 74A 7 16 Said: Whereas thou hast power among men, though thou art corruptible, thou dost what thou wilt: but think not that our nation is forsaken by God.

74A 7 17 But stay patiently a while, and thou shalt see his great power, in what manner he will torment thee and thy seed.

74A 7 18 After him they brought the sixth, and he being ready to die, spoke thus: Be not deceived without cause: for we suffer these things for ourselves, having sinned against our God, and things worthy of admiration are done to us:

74A 7 19 But do not think that thou s escape unpunished, for that thou attempted to fight against God.

74A 7 20 Now the mother was to be ad above measure, and worthy to be remembered by good men, who beheld seven sons slain in the space of one day, and bore it with a good courage, for the hope that she had in God:

74A 7 21 And she bravely exhorted every o of them in her own language, being filled with wisdom: and joining a man's heart to a woman's thought,

74A 7 22 She said to them: I know not how you were formed in my womb: for I neither gave you breath, nor soul, nor life, neither did I frame the limbs of every one of you.

74A 7 23 But the Creator of the world, that formed the nativity of man, and that found out the origin of all, he will re- store to you again in his mercy, both breath and life, as now you despise your- selves for the sake of his laws.

74A 7 24 Now Antiochus, thinking himself despised, and withal despising the voice of the upbraider, when the youngest was yet alive, did not only exhort him by words, but also assured him with an oath, that he would make him a rich and a happy man, and, if he would turn from the laws of his fathers, would take him for a friend, and furnish him with things necessary.

74A 7 25 But when the young man was not moved with these things, the king called the mother, and counselled her to deal with the young man to save his life.

74A 7 26 And when he had exhorted her with many words, she promised that she would counsel her son.

74A 7 27 So bending herself towards him, mocking the cruel tyrant, she said her own language: My son, have pi upon me, that bore thee nine months my womb, and save thee suck years, and nourished thee, and b thee up unto this age.

74A 7 28 I beseech thee, my son, look upon heaven and earth, and all that is in them: and consider that God made the out of nothing, and mankind also:

74A 7 29 So thou shalt not fear this tormentor, but being made a worthy partner with thy brethren, receive death, that in that mercy I may receive thee again with thy brethren.

74A 7 30 While she was yet speaking these words, the young man said: For whom do you stay ? I will not obey the commandment of the king, but the commandment of the law, which was given us by Moses.

74A 7 31 But thou that hast been the author of all mischief against the Hebrews, shalt not escape the hand of God.

74A 7 32 For we suffer thus for our sine.

74A 7 33 And though the Lord our God is angry with us a little while for our chastisement and correction: yet he will be reconciled again to his servants.

74A 7 34 But thou, O wicked and of all men most flagitious, be not lifted up without cause with vain hopes, whilst thou art raging against his servants.

74A 7 35 For thou hast not yet escaped the judgment of the almighty God, who beholdeth all things.

74A 7 36 For my brethren, having now undergone a short pain, are under the covenant of eternal life: but thou by the judgment of God shalt receive just punishment for thy pride.

74A 7 37 But I, like my brethren, offer up my life and my body for the laws of our fathers: calling upon God to be speedily merciful to our nation, and that thou by torments and stripes mayst confess that he alone is God.

74A 7 38 But in me and in my brethren the wrath of the Almighty, which hath justly been brought upon all our nation, shall cease.

74A 7 39 Then the king being incensed with anger, raged against him more cruelly than all the rest, taking it grievously that he was mocked.

74A 7 40 So this man also died undefiled, wholly trusting in the Lord.

74A 7 41 And last of all after the sons the mother also was consumed.

74A 7 42 But now there is enough said of the sacrifices, and of the excessive cruelties.

74A 8 1 But Judas Machabeus, and they that were with him, went privately into the towns: and calling together their kinsmen and friends, and taking unto them such as continued in the Jews' religion, they assembled six thousand men.

74A 8 2 And they called upon the Lord that he would look upon his people that was trodden down by all, and would have pity on the temple, that was defiled by the wicked:

74A 8 3 That he would have pity also upon the city that was destroyed, that was ready to be made even with the ground, and would hear the voice of the blood that cried to him:

74A 8 4 That he would remember also the most unjust deaths of innocent children, and the blasphemies offered to his name, and would shew his indignation on this occasion.

74A 8 5 Now when Machabeus had gathered a multitude, he could not be withstood by the heathens: for the wrath of the Lord was turned into mercy.

74A 8 6 So coming unawares upon the towns and cities, he set them on fire, and taking possession of the most commodious places, he made no small slaughter of the enemies ·

74A 8 7 And especially in the nights he went upon these expeditions, and the fame of his valour was spread abroad every where.

74A 8 8 Then Philip, seeing that the man gained ground by little and little, and that things for the most part succeeded prosperously with him, wrote to Ptolemee the governor of Celsyria and Phenicia, to send aid to the king's affairs.

74A 8 9 And he with all speed sent Nicanor the son of Patroclus, one of his special friends, giving him no fewer than twenty thousand armed men of different nations, to root out the whole race of the Jews, joining also with him Gorgias, a good soldier, and of great experience in matters of war.

74A 8 10 And Nicanor purposed to raise for the king the tribute of two thousand talents, that was to be given to the Romans, by making so much money of the captive Jews:

74A 8 11 Wherefore he sent immediately to the cities upon the sea coast, to invite men together to buy up the Jewish slaves, promising that they should have ninety slaves for one talent, not reflecting on the vengeance, which was to follow him from the Almighty.

74A 8 12 Now when Judas found that Nicanor was coming, he imparted to the Jews that were with him, that the enemy was at hand.

74A 8 13 And some of them being afraid, and distrusting the justice of God, fled away:

74A 8 14 Others sold all that they had left, and withal besought the Lord, that he would deliver them from the wicked Nicanor, who had sold them before he came near them:

74A 8 15 And if not for their sakes, yet for the covenant that he had made with their fathers, and for the sake of his holy and glorious name that was invoked upon them.

74A 8 16 But Machabeus calling together seven thousand that were with him, exhorted them not to be reconciled to the enemies, nor to fear the multitude of the enemies who came wrongfully against them, but to fight manfully:

74A 8 17 Setting before their eyes the injury they had unjustly done the holy place, and also the injury they had done to the city, which had been shamefully abused, besides their destroying the ordinances of the fathers.

74A 8 18 For, said he, they trust in their weapons, and in their boldness: but we trust in the Almighty Lord, who at a beck can utterly destroy both them that come against us, and the whole world.

74A 8 19 Moreover he put them in mind also of the helps their fathers had received from God: and how under Sennacherib a hundred and eighty-five thousand had been destroyed.

74A 8 20 And of the battle that they had fought against the Galatians in Babylonia, how they, being in all but six thousand, when it came to the point, and Macedonians their companions were a stand, slew a hundred and twenty thousand, because of the help they had from heaven, and for this they received many favours.

74A 8 21 With these words they were greatly encouraged, and disposed even to die for the laws and their country.

74A 8 22 So he appointed his brethren cap over each division of his army, Simon, and Joseph, and Jonathan, giving to one fifteen hundred men.

74A 8 23 And after the holy Book had been read to them by Esdras, and he had given them for a watchword, The help of God: himself leading the first band, he joined battle with Nicanor:

74A 8 24 And the Almighty being their helper, they slew above nine thousand men: and having wounded and disabled the greater part of Nicanor's army, they obliged them to fly.

74A 8 25 And they took the money of them that came to buy them, and they pursued them on every side.

74A 8 26 But they came back for want of time: for it was the day before the sabbath: and therefore they did not continue the pursuit.

74A 8 27 But when they had gathered together their arms and their spoils, they kept the sabbath: blessing the Lord who had delivered them that day, distilling the beginning of mercy upon them.

74A 8 28 Then after the sabbath they divided the spoils to the feeble and the orphans, and the widows: and the rest they took for themselves and their servants.

74A 8 29 When this was done, and they had all made a common supplication, they besought the merciful Lord to be reconciled to his servants unto the end.

74A 8 30 Moreover they slew above twenty thousand of them that were with Timotheus and Bacchides who fought them, and they made themselves masters of the high strong holds: and they divided amongst them many spoils, giving equal portions to the feeble, the fatherless and the widows, yea and the aged also.

74A 8 31 And when they had carefully gathered together their arms, they laid them all up in convenient places, and the residue of their spoils they carried to Jerusalem :

74A 8 32 They slew also Philarches who was with Timotheus, a wicked man, who had many ways afflicted the Jews.

74A 8 33 And when they kept the feast of the victory at Jerusalem, they burnt Callisthenes, that had set fire to the holy gates, who had taken refuge in a certain house, rendering to him a worthy reward for his impieties:

74A 8 34 But as for that most wicked man Nicanor, who had brought a thousand merchants to the sale of the Jews,

74A 8 35 Being through the help of the Lord brought down by them, of whom he had made no account, laying; aside his garment of glory, fleeing through the midland country, he came alone to Antioch, being rendered very unhappy by the destruction of his army.

74A 8 36 And he that had promised to levy the tribute for the Romans by the means of the captives of Jerusalem, now professed that the Jews had God for their protector, and therefore they could not be hurt, because they followed the laws appointed by him.

74A 9 1 At that time Antiochus returned with dishonour out of Persia.

74A 9 2 For he had entered into the city called Persepolis, and attempted to rob the temple, and to oppress the city: but the multitude running together to arms, put them to flight: and so it fell out that Antiochus being put to flight returned with disgrace.

74A 9 3 Now when he was come about Ecbatana, he received the news of what had happened to Nicanor and Timotheus.

74A 9 4 And swelling with anger he thought to revenge upon the Jews the injury done by them that had put him to flight. And therefore he commanded his chariot to be driven, without stopping in his journey, the judgment of heaven urging him forward, because he had spoken so proudly, that he would come to Jerusalem, and make it a common burying place of the Jews.

74A 9 5 But the Lord the God of Israel, that seeth all things, struck him with an incurable and an invisible plague. For as soon as he had ended these words, a dreadful pain in his bowels came upon him, and bitter torments of the inner parts.

74A 9 6 And indeed very justly, seeing he had tormented the bowels of others with many and new torments, albeit he by no means ceased from his malice.

74A 9 7 Moreover being filled with pride, breathing out fire in his rage against the Jews, and commanding the matter to be hastened, it happened as he was going with violence that he fell from the chariot, so that his limbs were much pained by a grievous bruising of the body.

74A 9 8 Thus he that seemed to himself to command even the waves of the sea, being proud above the condition of man, and to weigh the heights of the mountains in a balance, now being cast down to the ground, was carried in a litter, bearing witness to the manifest power of God in himself:

74A 9 9 So that worms swarmed out of the body of this man, and whilst he lived in sorrow and pain, his flesh fell off, and the filthiness of his smell was noisome to the army.

74A 9 10 And the man that thought a little to before he could reach the stars of heaven, no man could endure to carry, for the intolerable stench.

74A 9 11 And by this means, being brought from his great pride, he began to come to the knowledge of himself, being admonished by the scourge of God, his pains increasing every moment

74A 9 12 And when he himself could not now abide his own stench, he spoke thus: It is just to be subject to God, and that a mortal man should not equal himself to God.

74A 9 13 Then this wicked man prayed to the Lord, of whom he was not like to obtain mercy.

74A 9 14 And the city to which he was going in haste to lay it even with the ground, and to make it a, common buryingplace, he now desireth to make free.

74A 9 15 And the Jews whom he said he would not account worthy to be so much as buried, but would give them up to be devoured by the birds and wild beasts, and would utterly destroy them with their children, he now promiseth to make equal with the Athenians.

74A 9 16 The holy temple also which before he had spoiled, he promiseth to adorn with goodly gifts, and to multiply the holy vessels, and to allow out of his revenues the charges pertaining to the sacrifices.

74A 9 17 Yea also, that he would become a Jew himself, and would go through every place of the earth, and declare the power of God.

74A 9 18 But his pains not ceasing (for the just judgment of God was come upon him) despairing of life he wrote to the Jews in the manner of a supplication, a letter in these words:

74A 9 19 To his very good subjects the Jews, Antiochus king and ruler wisheth much health and welfare, and happiness.

74A 9 20 If you and your children are well, and if all matters go with you to your mind, we give very great thanks.

74A 9 21 As for me, being infirm, but yet kindly remembering you, returning out of the places of Persia, and being taken with a grievous disease, I thought it necessary to take care for the common good:

74A 9 22 Not distrusting my life, but having great hope to escape the sickness.

74A 9 23 But considering that my father also, at what time she led an army into the higher countries, appointed who should reign after him:

74A 9 24 To the end that if any thing contrary to expectation should fall out, or ally bad tidings should be brought, they that were in the countries, knowing to whom the whole government was left, might not be troubled.

74A 9 25 Moreover, considering that neighbouring princes and borderers wait for opportunities, and expect what shall be the event, I have appointed my son Antiochus king, whom I often recommended to many of you, when I went into the higher provinces: and I have written to him what I have joined here below.

74A 9 26 I pray you therefore, and request of you, that remembering favours both public and private, you will every man of you continue to be faithful to me and to my son.

74A 9 27 For I trust that he will behave with I moderation and humanity, and following my intentions, will be gracious unto you.

74A 9 28 Thus the murderer and blasphemer, being grievously struck, as himself had treated others, died a miserable death in a strange country among the mountains.

74A 9 29 But Philip that was brought up with him, carried away his body: and out of fear of the son of Antiochus, went into Egypt to Ptolemee Philometor.

74A 10 1 But Machabeus, and they that were with him, by the protection of the Lord, recovered the temple and the city again.

74A 10 2 But he threw down the altars, which the heathens had set up in the streets, as also the temples of the idols.

74A 10 3 And having purified the temple, they made another altar: and taking fire out of the fiery stones, they offered sacrifices after two years, and set forth incense, and lamps, and the leaves of proposition.

74A 10 4 And when they had done these things, they besought the Lord, lying prostrate on the ground, that they might no more fall into such evils; but if they should at any time sin, that they might be chastised by him more gently, and not be delivered up to barbarians and blasphemous men.

74A 10 5 Now upon the same day that the temple had been polluted by the strangers, on the very same day it was cleansed again, to wit, on the five and twentieth day of the month of Casleu.

74A 10 6 And they kept eight days with joy, after the manner of the feast of the tabernacles, remembering that not long before they had kept the feast of the tabernacles when they were in the mountains, and in dens like wild beasts.

74A 10 7 Therefore they now, carried boughs, and green branches, and palms for Him that had given them good success in cleansing his place.

74A 10 8 And they ordained by a common statute, and decree, that all the nation of the Jews should keep those days every year.

74A 10 9 And this was the end of Antiochus that was called the Illustrious.

74A 10 10 But now we will relate the acts of Eupator the son of that wicked Antiochus, abridging the account of the evils that happened in the wars.

74A 10 11 For when he was come to the crown. he appointed over the affairs of his realm one Lysias, general of the army of Phenicia and Syria.

74A 10 12 For Ptolemee that was called Macer, was determined to be strictly just to the Jews, and especially by reason of the wrong that had been done them, and to deal peaceably with them.

74A 10 13 But being accused for this to Eupator by his friends, and being oftentimes called traitor, because he had left Cyprus which Philometor had committed to him, and coming over to Antiochus the Illustrious, had revolted also from him, he put an end to his life by poison.

74A 10 14 But Gorgias, who was governor of the holds, taking with him the strangers, often fought against the Jews.

74A 10 15 And the Jews that occupied the most commodious hold, received those that were driven out of Jerusalem, and attempted to make war.

74A 10 16 Then they that were with Machabeus, beseeching the Lord by prayers to be their helper, made a strong attack upon the strong holds of the Idumeans:

74A 10 17 And assaulting them with great force, won the holds, killed them that came in the way, and slew altogether no fewer than twenty thousand.

74A 10 18 And whereas some were fled into very strong towers, having all manner of provision to sustain a siege, 74A 10 19 Machabeus left Simon and Joseph, and Zacheus, and them that were with them in sufficient number to besiege them, and departed to those expeditions which urged more.

74A 10 20 Now they that were with Simon, being led with covetousness, were persuaded For the sake of money by some that were in the towers: and taking seventy thousand didrachmas, let some of them escape.

74A 10 21 But when it was told Machabeus what was done, he assembled the rulers of the people, and accused those men that they had sold their brethren for money, having let their adversaries escape.

74A 10 22 So he put these traitors to death, and forthwith took the two towers.

74A 10 23 And having good success in arms and in all things he took in hand, he slew more than twenty thousand in the two holds.

74A 10 24 But Timotheus who before had been overcome by the Jews, having called together a multitude of foreign troops, and assembled horsemen out of Asia, came as though he would take Judea by force of arms.

74A 10 25 But Machabeus and they that were with him, when he drew near, prayed to the Lord, sprinkling earth upon their heads and girding their loins with hair-cloth, 74A 10 26 And lying prostrate at the foot of the altar, besought him to be merciful to them, and to be an enemy to their enemies, and an adversary to their adversaries, as the law saith.

74A 10 27 And so after prayer taking their arms, they went forth further from the city, and when they were come very near the enemies they rested.

74A 10 28 But as soon as the sun was risen both sides joined battle: the one part having with their valour the Lord for a surety of victory and success: but the other side making their rage their leader in battle.

74A 10 29 But when they were in the heat of the engagement there appeared to the enemies from heaven five men upon horses, comely with golden bridles, conducting the Jews:

74A 10 30 Two of whom took Machabeus between them, and covered him on every side with their arms, and kept him safe: but cast darts and fireballs against the enemy, so that they fell down, being both confounded with blindness, and filled with trouble.

74A 10 31 And there were slain twenty thousand five hundred, and six hundred horsemen.

74A 10 32 But Timotheus fled into Gazara a strong hold, where Chereas was governor.

74A 10 33 Then Machabeus, and they that were with him, cheerfully laid siege to the fortress four days.

74A 10 34 But they that were within, trusting to the strength of the place, blasphemed exceedingly, and cast forth abominable words.

74A 10 35 But when the fifth day appeared, twenty young men of them that were with Machabeus, inflamed in their minds because of the blasphemy, approached manfully to the wall, and pushing forward with fierce courage got up upon it.

74A 10 36 Moreover others also getting up after them, went to set Are to the towers and the gates, and to burn the blasphemers alive.

74A 10 37 And having for two days together pillaged and sacked the fortress, they killed Timotheus, who was found hid in a certain place: they slew also his brother Chereas, and Apollophanes.

74A 10 38 And when this was done, they blessed the Lord with hymns and thanksgiving, who had done great things in Israel, and given them the victory.

74A 11 1 A short time after this Lysias the king's lieutenant, and cousin, and who had chief charge over all the affairs, being greatly displeased with what had happened,

74A 11 2 Gathered together fourscore thousand men, and all the horsemen, and came against the Jews, thinking to take the city, and make it a habitation of the Gentiles :

74A 11 3 And to make a gain of the temple, as of the other temples of the Gentiles, and to set the high priesthood to sale every year:

74A 11 4 Never considering the power of God, but puffed up in mind, and trusting in the multitude of his foot soldiers, and the thousands of his horsemen, and his four- score elephants.

74A 11 5 So he came into Judea, and approaching to Bethsura, which was in a narrow place, the space of five furlongs from Jerusalem, he laid siege to that fortress.

74A 11 6 But when Machabeus and they that were with him, understood that the strong holds were besieged, they and all the people besought the Lord with lamentations and tears, that he would send a good angel to save Israel.

74A 11 7 Then Machabeus himself, first taking his arms, exhorted the rest to expose themselves together with him, to the danger, and to succour their brethren.

74A 11 8 And when they were going forth together with a willing mind, there appeared at Jerusatem a horseman going before them in white clothing, with golden armour, shaking a spear.

74A 11 9 Then they all together blessed merciful Lord, and took great courage, being ready to break through not only men, but also the fiercest beasts, walls of iron.

74A 11 10 So they went on courageously, having a helper from Peaven, and the who shewed mercy to them.

74A 11 11 And rushing violently upon the my, like lions, they slew of them eleven thousand footmen, and one thousand hundred horsemen:

74A 11 12 And put all the rest to flight: many of them being wounded, escaped naked: yea and Lysias himself fled away shamefully, and escaped.

74A 11 13 And as he was a man of understanding considering with himself, the loss he had suffered, and perceiving that the Hebrews could not be overcome, because they relied upon the help of the Almighty God, he sent to them:

74A 11 14 And promised that he would agree to all things that are just, and that he would persuade the king to be their friend.

74A 11 15 Then Machabeus consented to the request of Lysias, providing for the common Food in all things, and whatsoever Machabeus wrote to Lysias concerning the Jews, the king allowed of.

74A 11 16 For there were letters written to the Jews from Lysias, to this effect: Lysias to the people of the Jews, greeting.

74A 11 17 John and Abesalom who were sent from you, delivering your writings, requested that I would accomplish those things which were signified by them.

74A 11 18 Therefore whatsoever things could be reported to the king I have represented to him: and he hath granted as much as the matter permitted.

74A 11 19 If therefore you will keep yourselves loyal in affairs, hereafter also I will endeavour to be a means of your good.

74A 11 20 But as concerning other particulars, I have given orders by word both to these, and to them that are sent by me, to commune with you.

74A 11 21 Fare ye well. In the year one hundred and forty-eight, the four and twentieth day of the month of Dioscorus.

74A 11 22 But the king's letter contained these words: King Antiochus to Lysias his brother, greeting.

74A 11 23 Our father being translated amongst the gods, we are desirous that they that are in our realm should live quietly, and apply themselves diligently to their own concerns,

74A 11 24 And we have heard that the Jews would not consent to my father to turn to the rites of the Greeks, but that they would keep to their own manner of living, and therefore that they request us to allow them to live after their own laws.

74A 11 25 Wherefore being desirous that this nation also should be at rest, we have ordained and decreed, that the temple should be restored to them, and that they may live according to the custom of their ancestors.

74A 11 26 Thou shalt do well therefore to send to them, and grant them peace, that our pleasure being known, they may be of good comfort, and look to their own affairs.

74A 11 27 But the king's letter to the Jews was in this manner: King Antiochus to the senate of the Jews, and to the rest of the Jews, greeting.

74A 11 28 If you are well, you are as we desire, we ourselves also are well.

74A 11 29 Menelaus came to us, saying that you desired to come down to your countrymen, that are with us.

74A 11 30 We grant therefore a safe conduct to all that come and go, until the thirtieth day of the month of Xanthicus, 74A 11 31 That the Jews may use their own Bind of meats, and their own laws as before, and that none of them any manner of ways be molested for things which have been done by ignorance.

74A 11 32 And we have sent also Menelaus to speak to you.

74A 11 33 Fare ye well. In the year one hundred and forty-eight, the fifteenth day of the month of Xanthicus.

74A 11 34 The Romans also sent them a letter, to this effect. Quintus Memmius, and Titus Manilius, ambassadors of the Romans, to the people of the Jews, greeting.

74A 11 35 Whatsoever Lysias the king's cousin hath granted you, we also have granted.

74A 11 36 But touching such things as he thought should be referred to the king, after you have diligently conferred among yourselves, send some one forthwith, that we may decree as it is convenient for you: for we are going to Antioch.

74A 11 37 And therefore make haste to write back, that we may know of what mind you are.

74A 11 38 Fare ye well. In the year one hundred and forty-eight, the fifteenth day of the month of Xanthicus.

74A 12 1 When these covenants were made, Lysias went to the king, and the Jews gave themselves to husbandry.

74A 12 2 But they that were behind, namely, Timotheus and Apollonius the son of Genneus, also Hieronymus, and Demophon, and besides them Nicanor the governor of Cyprus, would not suffer them to live in peace, and to be quiet.

74A 12 3 The men of Joppe also were guilty of this kind of wickedness: they desired the Jews who dwelt among them to go with their wives and children into the boats, which they had prepared, as though they had no enmity to them.

74A 12 4 Which when they had consented to, according to the common decree of the city, suspecting nothing, because of the peace : when they were gone forth into the deep, they drowned no fewer than two hundred of them.

74A 12 5 But as soon as Judas heard of this cruelty done to his countrymen, he commanded the men that were with him: and after having called upon God the just judge, 74A 12 6 He came against those murderers of his brethren, and set the haven on fire in the night, burnt the boats, and slew with the sword them that escaped from the fire.

74A 12 7 And when he had done these things in this manner, he departed as if he would return again, and root out all the Joppites.

74A 12 8 But when he understood that the men of Jamnia also designed to do in like manner to the Jews that dwelt among them, 74A 12 9 He came upon the Jamnites also by night, and set the haven on fire with the ships, so that the light of the fire was seen at Jerusalem two hundred and forty furlongs off.

74A 12 10 And when they were now gone from thence nine furlongs, and were marching towards Timotheus, five thousand footmen and Ave hundred horsemen of the Arabians set upon them.

74A 12 11 And after a hard fight, in which by the help of God they got the victory, the rest of the Arabians being overcome, besought Judas for peace, promising to give him pastures, and to assist him in other things.

74A 12 12 And Judas thinking that they might be profitable indeed in many things, promised them peace, and after having joined hands, they departed to their tents.

74A 12 13 He also laid siege to a certain strong city, encompassed with bridges and walls, and inhabited by multitudes of different nations, the name of which is Casphin.

74A 12 14 But they that were within it, trusting in the strength of the walls, and the provision of victuals, behaved in a more negligent manner, and provoked Judas with railing and blaspheming, and uttering such words as were not to be spoken.

74A 12 15 But Machabeus calling upon the great Lord of the world, who without any rams or engines of war threw down the walls of Jericho in the time of Josue, fiercely assaulted the walls.

74A 12 16 And having taken the city by the will of the Lord, he made an unspeakable slaughter, so that a pool adjoining of two furlongs broad seemed to run with the blood of the slain.

74A 12 17 From thence they departed seven hundred and fifty furlongs, and came to Characa to the Jews that are called Tubianites.

74A 12 18 But as for Timotheus, they found him not in those places, for before he had dispatched any thing he went back, having left a very strong garrison in a certain hold :

74A 12 19 But Dositheus, and Sosipater, who were captains with Machabeus, slew them that were left by Timotheus in the hold, to the number of ten thousand men.

74A 12 20 And Machabeus having set in order about him six thousand men, and divided them by bands, went forth against Timetheus, who had with him a hundred and twenty thousand footmen, and two thousand five hundred horsemen.

74A 12 21 Now when Timotheus had knowledge of the coming of Judas, he sent the women and children, and the other baggage before him into a fortress, called Carnion: for it was impregnable and hard to come at, by reason of the straitness of the places.

74A 12 22 But when the first band of Judas came in sight, the enemies were struck with fear, by the presence of God, who seeth all things, and they were put to flight one from another, so that they were often thrown down by their own companions, and wounded with the strokes of their own swords.

74A 12 23 But Judas was vehemently earnest in punishing the profane, of whom he slew thirty thousand men.

74A 12 24 And Timotheus himself fell into the hands of the band of Dositheus and Sosipater, and with many prayers he besought them to let him go with his life, because he had the parents and brethren of many of the Jews, who, by his death, might happen to be deceived.

74A 12 25 And when he had given his faith that he would restore them according to the agreement, they let him go without hurt, for the saving of their brethren.

74A 12 26 Then Judas went away to Carnion, where he slew five and twenty thousand persons.

74A 12 27 And after he had put to flight and destroyed these, he removed his army to Ephron, a strong city, wherein there dwelt a multitude of divers nations: and stout young men standing upon the walls made a vigorous resistance: and in this place there were many engines of war, and a provision of darts.

74A 12 28 But when they had invocated the Almighty, who with his power breaketh the strength of the enemies, they took the city; and slew five and twenty thousand of them that were within.

74A 12 29 From thence they departed to Scythopolis, which lieth six hundred furlongs from Jerusalem.

74A 12 30 But the Jews that were among the Scythopolitans testifying that they were used kindly by them, and that even in the times of their adversity they had treated them with humanity:

74A 12 31 They gave them thanks exhorting them to be still friendly to their nation, and so they came to Jerusalem, the feast of the weeks being at hand.

74A 12 32 And after Pentecost they marched against Gorgias the governor of Idumea.

74A 12 33 And he came out with three thousand footmen, and four hundred horsemen.

74A 12 34 And when they had joined battle, it happened that a few of the Jews were slain.

74A 12 35 But Dositheus, a horseman, one of Bacenor's band, a valiant man, took hold of Gorgias: and when he would have taken him alive, a certain horseman of the Thracians came upon him, and cut off his shoulder: and so Gorgias escaped to Maresa.

74A 12 36 But when they that were with Esdrin had fought long, and were weary, Judas called upon the Lord to be their helper, and leader of the battle:

74A 12 37 Then beginning in his own language, and singing hymns with a loud voice, he put Gorgias' soldiers to flight.

74A 12 38 So Judas having gathered together his army, came into the city Odollam: and when the seventh day came, they purified themselves according to the custom, and kept the sabbath in the place.

74A 12 39 And the day following Judas cam with his company, to take away the bodies of them that were slain, and to bury them with their kinsmen, in the sepulchres of their fathers.

74A 12 40 And they found under the coats o the slain some of the donaries of the idols of Jamnia, which the law forbiddeth the Jews:

74A 12 41 Then they all blessed the just judgment of the Lord, who had discovered the things that were hidden.

74A 12 42 And so betaking themselves to prayers, they besought him, that the sin which had been committed might be forgotten. But the most valiant Judas exhorted the people to keep themselves from sin, forasmuch as they saw before their eyes what had happened, because of the sins of those that were slain.

74A 12 43 And making a gathering, he twelve thousand drachms of silver to Jerusalem for sacrifice to be offered for the sins of the dead, thinking well and religiously concerning the resurrection,

74A 12 44 (For if he had not hoped that the that were slain should rise again, it would have seemed superfluous and vain to pray for the dead,)

74A 12 45 And because he considered that the who had fallen asleep with godliness, had great grace laid up for them.

74A 12 46 It is therefore a holy and wholesome thought to pray for the dead, that they may be loosed from sins.

74A 12 90 that all plainly saw, for this cause they were slain.

74A 13 1 In the year one hundred and forty- nine, Judas understood that Antiochus Eupator was coming with a multitude against Judea, 74A 13 2 And with him Lysias the regent, who had charge over the affairs of the realm, having with him a hundred and ten thousand footmen, five thousand horse- men, twenty-two elephants, and three hundred chariots armed with hooks.

74A 13 3 Menelaus also joined himself with them: and with great deceitfulness besought Antiochus, not for the welfare of his country, but in hopes that he should be appointed chief ruler.

74A 13 4 But the King of kings stirred up the mind of Antiochus against the sinner, and upon Lysias suggesting that he was the cause of all the evils, he commanded (as the custom is with them) that he should be apprehended and put to death in the same place.

74A 13 5 Now there was in that place a tower fifty cubits high, having a heap of ashes on every side: this had a prospect steep down.

74A 13 6 From thence he commanded the sacrilegious wretch to be thrown down into the ashes, all men thrusting him forward unto death.

74A 13 7 And by such a law it happened that Menelaus the transgressor of the law was put to death: not having so much as burial in the earth.

74A 13 8 And indeed very justly, for insomuch as he had committed many sins against the altar of God, the fire and ashes of which were holy: he was condemned to die in ashes.

74A 13 8 taste of the hardness of the Jews, attempted to take the strong places by policy:

74A 13 9 But the king, with his mind full of rage, came on to shew himself worse to the Jews than his father was.

74A 13 10 Which, when Judas understood, he commanded the people to call upon the Lord day and night, that as he had always done, so now also he would help them:

74A 13 11 Because they were afraid to be deprived of the law, and of their country, and of the holy temple: and that he would not suffer the people, that had of late taken breath for a little while, to be again in subjection to blasphemous nations.

74A 13 12 So when they had all done this together, and had craved mercy of the Lord with weeping and fasting, lying prostrate on the ground for three days continually, Judas exhorted them to make themselves ready.

74A 13 13 But he with the ancients determined, before the king should bring his army into Judea, and make himself master of the city, to go out, and to commit the event of the thing to the judgment of the Lord.

74A 13 14 So committing all to God, the creator of the world, and having exhorted his people to fight manfully, and to stand up even to death for the laws, the temple, the city, their country, and citizens: he placed his army about Modin.

74A 13 15 And having given his company for a watchword, The victory of God, with most valiant chosen young men, he set upon the king's quarter by night, and slew four thousand men in the camp, and the greatest of the elephants, with them that had been upon him, 74A 13 16 And having filled the camp of the enemies with exceeding greet fear and tumult, they went off with good success.

74A 13 17 Now this was done at the break of day, by the protection and help of the Lord.

74A 13 18 18; But the king having taken

74A 13 19 And he marched with his army to Bethsura, which was a strong hold of the Jews: but he was repulsed, he failed, he rest his men.

74A 13 20 Now Judas sent necessities to them that were within.

74A 13 21 But Rhodocus, one of the Jews' army, disclosed the secrets to the enemies, so he was sought out, and taken up, and put in prison.

74A 13 22 Again the king treated with them that were in Bethsura: gave his right hand: took theirs: and went away.

74A 13 23 He fought with Jucias: and was overcome. And when he understood that Philip, who had been left over the affairs, had rebelled at Antioch, he was in a consternation of mind, and entreating the Jews, and yielding to them, he swore to all things that seemed reasonable, and, being reconciled, offered sacrifices, honoured the temple, and left gifts.

74A 13 24 He embraced Machabeus, and made him governor and prince from Ptolemais unto the Cerrenians.

74A 13 25 But when he was come to Ptolemais, the men of that city were much displeased with the conditions of the peace, being angry for fear they should break the covenant.

74A 13 26 Then Lysias went up to the judgment seat, and set forth the reason, and appeased the people, and returned to Antioch: and thus matters went with regard to the king's coming and his return.

74A 14 1 But after the space of three years Judas, and they that were with him, understood that Demetrius the son of Seleucus was come up with a great power, and a navy by the haven of Tripolis to places proper for his purpose.

74A 14 2 And had made himself master of the countries against Antiochus, and his general Lysias.

74A 14 3 Now one Alcimus, who had been chief priest, but had wilfully defiled himself in the time of mingling with the heathens, seeing that there was no safety for him, nor access to the altar,

74A 14 4 Came to king Demetrius in the year one hundred and fifty, presenting unto him a crown of gold, and a palm, and besides these, some boughs which seemed to belong to the temple. And that day indeed he held his peace.

74A 14 5 But having gotten a convenient time to further his madness, being called to counsel by Demetrius, and asked what the Jews relied upon, and what were their counsels, 74A 14 6 He answered thereunto: They among the Jews that are called Assideans, of whom Judas Machabeus is captain, nourish wars, and raise seditions, and will not suffer the realm to be in peace.

74A 14 7 For I also being deprived of my ancestors' glory (I mean of the high priesthood) am now come hither:

74A 14 8 Principally indeed out of fidelity to the king's interests, but in the next place also to provide for the good of my countrymen: for all our nation suffereth much from the evil proceedings of those men.

74A 14 9 Wherefore, O king, seeing thou know- eat all these things, take care, I beseech thee, both of the country, and of our nation, according to thy humanity which is known to all men, 74A 14 10 For as long as Judas liveth, it is not possible that the state should be quiet.

74A 14 11 Now when this man had spoken to this effect, the rest also of the king's friends, who were enemies of Judas, incensed Demetrius against him.

74A 14 12 And forthwith he sent Nicanor, the commander over the elephants, governor into Judea:

74A 14 13 Giving him in charge, to take Judas himself: and disperse all them that were with him, and to make Alcimus the high priest of the great temple.

74A 14 14 Then the Gentiles who had fled out of Judea from Judas, came to Nicanor by docks, thinking the miseries and calamities of the Jews to be the welfare of their affairs.

74A 14 15 Now when the Jews heard of Nicanor's coming, and that the nations were assembled against them, they cast earth upon their heads, and made supplication to him, who chose his people to keep them for ever, and who protected his portion by evident signs.

74A 14 16 Then at the commandment of their captain, they forthwith removed from the place where they were, and went to the town of Dessau, to meet them.

74A 14 17 Now Simon the brother of Judas had joined battle with Nicanor, but was frightened with the sudden coming of the adversaries.

74A 14 18 Nevertheless Nicanor hearing of the valour of Judas' companions, and the greatness of courage with which they fought for their country, was afraid to try the matter by the sword.

74A 14 19 Wherefore he sent Posidonius, and Theodotius, and Matthias before to present and receive the right hands.

74A 14 20 And when there had been a consultation thereupon, and the captain had acquainted the multitude with it, the) were all of one mind to consent to covenants.

74A 14 21 So they appointed a day upon which they might commune together by themselves: and seats were brought out, and set for each one.

74A 14 22 But Judas ordered men to be ready in convenient places, lest some mischief might he suddenly practised by the enemies: so they made an agreeable conference.

74A 14 23 And Nicanor abode in Jerusalem, and did no wrong, but sent away the flocks of the multitudes that had been gathered together.

74A 14 24 And Judas was always dear to him from the heart, and he was well affected to the man.

74A 14 25 And he desired him to marry a wife, and to have children. So he married: he lived quietly, and they lived in common.

74A 14 26 But Alcimus seeing the love they had one to another, and the covenants, came to Demetrius, and told him that Nicanor assented to the foreign interest, for that he meant to make Judas, who was a traitor to the kingdom, his successor.

74A 14 27 Then the king being in a rage and provoked with this man's wicked accusations, wrote to Nicanor, signifying, that he was greatly displeased with the covenant of friendship: and that he commanded him nevertheless to send Machabeus prisoner in all haste to Antioch.

74A 14 28 When this was known, Nicanor was in a consternation, and took it grievously that he should make void the articles that were agreed upon, having received no injury from the man.

74A 14 29 But because he could not oppose the king, he watched an opportunity to comply with the orders.

74A 14 30 But when Machabeus perceived that Nicanor was more stern to him, and that when they met together as usual he behaved himself in a rough manner: and was sensible that this rough behaviour came not of good, he gathered together a few of his men, and hid himself from Nicanor.

74A 14 31 But he finding himself notably prevented by the man, came to the great and holy temple: and commanded the priests that were offering the accustomed sacrifices, to deliver him the man.

74A 14 32 And when they swore unto him, that they knew not where the man was whom he sought, he stretched out his hand to the temple,

74A 14 33 And swore, saying: Unless you deliver Judas prisoner to me, I will lay this temple of God even with the ground, and will beat down the altar, and I will dedicate this temple to Bacchus.

74A 14 34 And when he had spoken thus he departed. But the priests stretching forth their hands to heaven, called upon him that was ever the defender of their nation, saying in this manner:

74A 14 35 Thou, O Lord of all things, who wantest nothing, wast pleased that the temple of thy habitation should be amongst us.

74A 14 36 Therefore now, O Lord the holy of all holies, keep this house for ever undefiled which was lately cleansed.

74A 14 37 Now Razias, one of the ancients of Jerusalem, was accused to Nicanor, a man that was a lover of the city, and of good report, who for his affection was called the father of the Jews.

74A 14 38 This man, for a long time, had held fast his purpose of keeping himself pure in the Jews' religion, and was ready to expose his body and life, that he might persevere therein.

74A 14 39 So Nicanor being willing to declare the hatred that he bore the Jews, sent five hundred soldiers to take him.

74A 14 40 For he thought by insnaring him to hurt the Jews very much.

74A 14 41 Now as the multitude sought to rush into his house, and to break open the door, and to set fire to it, when he was ready to be taken, he struck himself with his sword:

74A 14 42 Choosing to die nobly rather than to fall into the hands of the wicked, and to suffer abuses unbecoming his noble birth.

74A 14 43 But whereas through haste he missed of giving himself a sure wound, and the crowd was breaking into the doors, he ran boldly to the wall, and manfully threw himself down to the crowd:

74A 14 44 But they quickly making room for his fall, he came upon the midst of the neck.

74A 14 45 And as he had yet breath in him, being inflamed in mind he arose: and while his blood ran down with a great stream, and he was grievously wounded, he ran through the crowd:

74A 14 46 And standing upon a steep rock, when he was now almost without blood, grasping his bowels with both hands, he cast them upon the throng, calling upon the Lord of life and spirit, to restore these to him again: and so he departed this life.

74A 15 1 But when Nicanor understood that Judas was in the places of Samaria, he purposed to set upon him with all violence on the sabbath day.

74A 15 2 And when the Jews that were constrained to follow him, said: Do not act so fiercely and barbarously, but give honour to the day that is sanctified: and reverence him that beholdeth all things:

74A 15 3 That unhappy man asked, if there were a mighty One in heaven, that had commanded the sabbath day to be kept.

74A 15 4 And when they answered: There is the living Lord himself in heaven, the mighty One, that commanded the seventh day to be kept,

74A 15 5 Then he said: And I am mighty upon the earth, and I command to take arms, and to do the king's business. Nevertheless he prevailed not to accomplish his design.

74A 15 6 So Nicanor being puffed up with exceeding great pride, thought to set up a public monument of his victory over Judas.

74A 15 7 But Machabeus ever trusted with all hope that God would help them.

74A 15 8 And he exhorted his people not to fear the coming of the nations, but to remember the help they had before received from heaven, and now to hope for victory from the Almighty.

74A 15 9 And speaking to them out of the law, and the prophets, and withal putting them in mind of the battles they had fought before, he made them more cheerful:

74A 15 10 Then after he had encouraged them, he shewed withal the falsehood of the Gentiles, and their breach of oaths.

74A 15 11 So he armed every one of them, not with defence of shield and spear, but with very good speeches and exhortations, and told them a dream worthy to be believed, whereby he rejoiced them all.

74A 15 12 Now the vision was in this manner: Onias who had been high priest, a good and virtuous man, modest in his looks, gentle in his manners, and graceful in his speech, and who from a child was exercised in virtues, holding up his hands, prayed for all the people of the Jews:

74A 15 13 After this there appeared also another man, admirable for age, and glory, and environed with great beauty and majesty :

74A 15 14 Then Onias answering, said: This is a lover of his brethren, and of the people of Israel: this is he that prayeth much for the people, and for all the holy city, Jeremias the prophet of God.

74A 15 15 Whereupon Jeremias stretched forth his right hand, and gave to Judas a sword of gold, saying:

74A 15 16 Take this holy sword a gift from God, wherewith thou shalt overthrow the adversaries of my people Israel.

74A 15 17 Thus being exhorted with the words of Judas, which were very good, and proper to stir up the courage, and strengthen the hearts of the young men, they resolved to fight, and to set upon them manfully : that valour might decide the matter, because the holy city and the temple were in danger.

74A 15 18 For their concern was less for their wives, and children, and for their brethren, and kinsfolks: but their greatest and principal fear was for the holiness of the temple.

74A 15 19 And they also that were in the city, had no little concern for them that were to be engaged in battle.

74A 15 20 And now when all expected what judgment would be given, and the enemies were at hand, and the army was set in array, the beasts and the horsemen ranged in convenient places,

74A 15 21 Machabeus considering the coming of the multitude, and the divers preparations of armour, and the fierceness of the beasts, stretching out his hands to heaven, called upon the Lord, that worketh wonders, who giveth victory to them that are worthy, not according to the power of their arms, but according as it seemeth good to him.

74A 15 22 And in his prayer he said after this manner: Thou, O Lord, who didst send thy angel in the time of Ezechias king of Juda, and didst kill a hundred and eighty-five thousand of the army of Sennacherib:

74A 15 23 Send now also, O Lord of heaven, thy good angel before us, for the fear and dread of the greatness of thy arm, 74A 15 24 That they may be afraid, who come with blasphemy against thy holy people. And thus he concluded his prayer.

74A 15 25 But Nicanor, and they that were with him came forward, with trumpets and songs.

74A 15 26 But Judas, and they that were with him, encountered them, calling upon God by prayers:

74A 15 27 So fighting with their hands, but praying to the Lord with their hearts, they slew no less than five and thirty thousand, being greatly cheered with the presence of God.

74A 15 28 And when the battle was over, and they were returning with joy, they understood that Nicanor was slain in his armour.

74A 15 29 Then making a shout, and a great noise, they blessed the Almighty Lord in their own language.

74A 15 30 And Judas, who was altogether ready, in body and mind, to die for his countrymen, commanded that Nicanor's head, and his hand with the shoulder should be cut off, and carried to Jerusalem.

74A 15 31 And when he was come thither, having called together his countrymen, and the priests to the altar, he sent also for them that were in the castle,

74A 15 32 And shewing them the head of Nicanor, and the wicked hand, which he had stretched out, with proud boasts, against the holy house of the Almighty God, 74A 15 33 He commanded also, that the tongue of the wicked Nicanor, should be cut out and given by pieces to birds, and the hand of the furious man to be hanged up over against the temple.

74A 15 34 Then all blessed the Lord of heaven, saying: Blessed be he that hath kept his own place undefiled.

74A 15 35 And he hung up Nicanor's head in the top of the castle, that it might be an evident and manifest sign of the help of God.

74A 15 36 And they all ordained by a common decree, by no means to let this day pass without solemnity:

74A 15 37 But to celebrate the thirteenth day of the month of Adar, called, in the Syrian language, the day before Mardocheas' day.

74A 15 38 So these things being done with relation to Nicanor, and from that time the city being possessed by the Hebrews, I also will here make an end of my narration.

74A 15 39 Which if I have done well, and as it becometh the history, it is what I desired: but if not so perfectly, it must be pardoned me.

74A 15 40 For as it is hurtful to drink always wine, or always water, but pleasant to use sometimes the one, and sometimes the other: so if the speech be always nicely framed, it will not be grateful to the readers. But here it shall be ended.

79A 1 1 Tobias of the tribe and city of Nephtali, (which is in the upper parts of Galilee above Naasson, beyond the way that leadeth to the west, having on the right hand the city of Sephet,) 79A 1 2 When he was made captive in the days of Salmanasar king of the Assyrians, even in his captivity, forsook not the way of truth,

79A 1 3 But every day gave all he could get to his brethren his fellow captives, that were of his kindred.

79A 1 4 And when he was younger than any of the tribe of Nephtali, yet did he no childish thing in his work.

79A 1 5 Moreover when all went to the golden calves which Jeroboam king of Israel had made, he alone fled the company of all,

79A 1 6 And went to Jerusalem to the temple of the Lord, and there adored the Lord God of Israel, offering faithfully all his firstfruits, and his tithes, 79A 1 7 So that in the third year he gave all his tithes to the proselytes, and strangers.

79A 1 8 These and such like things did he observe when but a boy according to the law of God.

79A 1 9 But when he was a man, he took to wife Anna of his own tribe, and had a son by her, whom he called after his own name, 79A 1 10 And from his infancy he taught him to fear God, and to abstain from all sin.

79A 1 11 And when by the captivity he with his wife and his son and all his tribe was come to the city of Ninive, 79A 1 12 (When all ate of the meats of the Gentiles) he kept his soul and never was defiled with their meats.

79A 1 13 And because he was mindful of the Lord with all his heart, God gave him favour in the sight of Salmanasar the king.

79A 1 14 And he gave him leave to go whithersoever he would, with liberty to do whatever he had a mind.

79A 1 15 He therefore went to all that were in captivity, and gave them wholesome admonitions.

79A 1 16 And when he was come to Rages a city of the Medes, and had ten talents of silver of that with which he had been honoured by the king:

79A 1 17 And when amongst a great multitude of his kindred, he saw Gabelus in want, who was one of his tribe, taking a note of his hand he gave him the aforesaid sum of money.

79A 1 18 But after a long time, Salmanasar the king being dead, when Sennacherib his son, who reigned in his place, had a hatred for the children of Israel:

79A 1 19 Tobias daily went among all his kindred, and comforted them, and distributed to every one as he was able, out of his goods:

79A 1 20 He fed the hungry, and gave clothes to the naked, and was careful to bury the dead, and they that were slain.

79A 1 21 And when king Sennacherib was come back, fleeing from Judea by reason of the slaughter that God had made about him for his blasphemy, and being angry slew many of the children of Israel, Tobias buried their bodies.

79A 1 22 But when it was told the king, he commanded him to be slain, and took away all his substance.

79A 1 23 But Tobias fleeing naked away with his son and with his wife, lay concealed, for many loved him.

79A 1 24 But after forty-five days, the king was killed by his own sons.

79A 1 25 And Tobias returned to his house, and all his substance was restored to him.

79A 2 1 But after this, when there was a festival of the Lord, and a good dinner was prepared in Tobias's house, 79A 2 2 He said to his son: Go, and bring some of our tribe that fear God, to feast with us.

79A 2 3 And when he had gone, returning he told him, that one of the children of Israel lay slain in the street. And he forthwith leaped up from his place at the table, and left his dinner, and came fasting to the body:

79A 2 4 And taking it up carried it privately to his house, that after the sun was down, he might bury him cautiously.

79A 2 5 And when he had hid the body, he ate bread with mourning and fear, 79A 2 6 Remembering the word which the Lord spoke by Amos the prophet: Your festival days shall be turned into lamentation and mourning.
 79A 2 7 So when the sun was down, he went and buried him.
 79A 2 8 Now all his neighbours blamed him, saying: Once already commandment was given for thee to be slain because of this matter, and thou didst scarce escape the sentence of death, and dost thou again bury the dead?
 79A 2 9 But Tobias fearing God more than the king, carried off the bodies of them that were slain, and hid them in his house, and at midnight buried them.
 79A 2 10 Now it happened one day, that being wearied with burying, he came to his house, and cast himself down by the wall and slept, 79A 2 11 And as he was sleeping, hot dung out of a swallow's nest fell upon his eyes, and he was made blind.
 79A 2 12 Now this trial the Lord therefore permitted to happen to him, that an example might be given to posterity of his patience, as also of holy Job.
 79A 2 13 For whereas he had always feared God from his infancy, and kept his commandments, he repined not against God because the evil of blindness had befallen him, 79A 2 14 But continued immoveable in the fear of God, giving thanks to God all the days of his life.
 79A 2 15 For as the kings insulted over holy Job: so his relations and kinsmen mocked at his life, saying:
 79A 2 16 Where is thy hope, for which thou gavest alms, and buriedst the dead?
 79A 2 17 But Tobias rebuked them, saying: Speak not so:
 79A 2 18 For we are the children of the saints, and look for that life which God will give to those that never change their faith from him.
 79A 2 19 Now Anna his wife went daily to weaving work, and she brought home what she could get for their living by the labour of her hands.
 79A 2 20 Whereby it came to pass, that she received a young kid, and brought it home:
 79A 2 21 And when her husband heard it bleating, he said: Take heed, lest perhaps it be stolen: restore ye it to its owners, for it is not lawful for us either to eat or to touch any thing that cometh by theft.
 79A 2 22 At these words his wife being angry answered: It is evident thy hope is come to nothing, and thy alms now appear.
 79A 2 23 And with these, and other such like words she upbraided him.
 79A 3 1 Then Tobias sighed, and began to pray with tears,
 79A 3 2 Saying: Thou art just, O Lord, and all thy judgments are just, and all thy ways mercy, and truth, and judgment:
 79A 3 3 And now, O Lord, think of me, and take not revenge of my sins, neither remember my offenses, nor those of my parents.
 79A 3 4 For we have not obeyed thy commandments, therefore are we delivered to spoil and to captivity, and death, and are made a fable, and a reproach to all nations, amongst which thou hast scattered us.
 79A 3 5 And now, O Lord, great are thy judgments, because we have not done according to thy precepts, and have not walked sincerely before thee:
 79A 3 6 And now, O Lord, do with me according to thy will, and command my spirit to be received in peace: for it is better for me to die, than to live.
 79A 3 7 Now it happened on the same day, that Sara daughter of Raguel, in Rages a city of the Medes, received a reproach from one of her father's servant maids, 79A 3 8 Because she had been given to seven husbands, and a devil named Asmodeus had killed them, at their first going in unto her.
 79A 3 9 So when she reproved the maid for her fault, she answered her, saying: May we never see son, or daughter of thee upon the earth, thou murderer of thy husbands.

79A 3 10 Wilt thou kill me also, as thou hast already killed seven husbands? At these words she went into an upper chamber of her house: and for three days and three nights did neither eat nor drink:

79A 3 11 But continuing in prayer with tears besought God, that he would deliver her from this reproach.

79A 3 12 And it came to pass on the third day, when she was making an end of her prayer, blessing the Lord, 79A 3 13 She said: Blessed is thy name, O God of our fathers: who when thou hast been angry, wilt shew mercy, and in the time of tribulation forgivest the sins of them that call upon thee.

79A 3 14 To thee, O Lord, I turn my face, to thee I direct my eyes.

79A 3 15 I beg, O Lord, that thou loose me from the bond of this reproach, or else take me away from the earth.

79A 3 16 Thou knowest, O Lord, that I never coveted a husband, and have kept my soul clean from all lust.

79A 3 17 Never have I joined myself with them that play: neither have I made myself partaker with them that walk in lightness.

79A 3 18 But a husband I consented to take, with thy fear, not with my lust.

79A 3 19 And either I was unworthy of them, or they perhaps were not worthy of me: because perhaps thou hast kept me for another man.

79A 3 20 For thy counsel is not in man's power.

79A 3 21 But this every one is sure of that worshippeth thee, that his life, if it be under trial, shall be crowned: and if it be under tribulation, it shall be delivered: and if it be under correction, it shall be allowed to come to thy mercy.

79A 3 22 For thou art not delighted in our being lost: because after a storm thou makest a calm, and after tears and weeping thou pourest in joyfulness.

79A 3 23 Be thy name, O God of Israel, blessed for ever.

79A 3 24 At that time the prayers of them both were heard in the sight of the glory of the most high God:

79A 3 25 And the holy angel of the Lord, Raphael was sent to heal them both, whose prayers at one time were rehearsed in the sight of the Lord.

79A 4 1 Therefore when Tobias thought that his prayer was heard that he might die, he called to him Tobias his son, 79A 4 2 And said to him: Hear, my son, the words of my mouth, and lay them as a foundation in thy heart.

79A 4 3 When God shall take my soul, thou shalt bury my body: and thou shalt honour thy mother all the days of her life:

79A 4 4 For thou must be mindful what and how great perils she suffered for thee in her womb.

79A 4 5 And when she also shall have ended the time of her life, bury her by me.

79A 4 6 And all the days of thy life have God in thy mind: and take heed thou never consent to sin, nor transgress the commandments of the Lord our God.

79A 4 7 Give alms out of thy substance, and turn not away thy face from any poor person: for so it shall come to pass that the face of the Lord shall not be turned from thee.

79A 4 8 According to thy ability be merciful.

79A 4 9 If thou have much give abundantly: if thou have a little, take care even so to bestow willingly a little.

79A 4 10 For thus thou storest up to thyself a good reward for the day of necessity.

79A 4 11 For alms deliver from all sin, and from death, and will not suffer the soul to go into darkness.

79A 4 12 Alms shall be a great confidence before the most high God, to all them that give it.

79A 4 13 Take heed to keep thyself, my son, from all fornication, and beside thy wife never endure to know a crime.

79A 4 14 Never suffer pride to reign in thy mind, or in thy words: for from it all perdition took its beginning.

79A 4 15 If any man hath done any work for thee, immediately pay him his hire, and let not the wages of thy hired servant stay with thee at all.

79A 4 16 See thou never do to another what thou wouldst hate to have done to thee by another.

79A 4 17 Eat thy bread with the hungry and the needy, and with thy garments cover the naked.

79A 4 18 Lay out thy bread, and thy wine upon the burial of a just man, and do not eat and drink thereof with the wicked.

79A 4 19 Seek counsel always of a wise man.

79A 4 20 Bless God at all times: and desire of him to direct thy ways, and that all thy counsels may abide in him.

79A 4 21 I tell thee also, my son, that I lent ten talents of silver, while thou wast yet a child, to Gabelus, in Rages a city of the Medes, and I have a note of his hand with me:

79A 4 22 Now therefore inquire how thou mayst go to him, and receive of him the foresaid sum of money, and restore to him the note of his hand.

79A 4 23 Fear not, my son: we lead indeed a poor life, but we shall have many good things if we fear God, and depart from all sin, and do that which is good.

79A 5 1 Then Tobias answered his father, and said: I will do all things, father, which thou hast commanded me.

79A 5 2 But how I shall get this money, I cannot tell; he knoweth me not, and I know not him: what token shall I give him? nor did I ever know the way which leadeth thither.

79A 5 3 Then his father answered him, and said: I have a note of his hand with me, which when thou shalt shew him, he will presently pay it.

79A 5 4 But go now, and seek thee out some faithful man, to go with thee for his hire: that thou mayst receive it, while I yet live.

79A 5 5 Then Tobias going forth, found a beautiful young man, standing girded, and as it were ready to walk.

79A 5 6 And not knowing that he was an angel of God, he saluted him, and said: From whence art thou, good young man?

79A 5 7 But he answered: Of the children of Israel. And Tobias said to him: Knowest thou the way that leadeth to the country of the Medes?

79A 5 8 And he answered: I know it: and I have often walked through all the ways thereof, and I have abode with Gabelus our brother, who dwelleth at Rages a city of the Medes, which is situate in the mount of Ecbatana.

79A 5 9 And Tobias said to him: Stay for me, I beseech thee, till I tell these same things to my father.

79A 5 10 Then Tobias going in told all these things to his father. Upon which his father being in admiration, desired that he would come in unto him.

79A 5 11 So going in he saluted him, and said: Joy be to thee always.

79A 5 12 And Tobias said: What manner of joy shall be to me, who sit in darkness, and see not the light of heaven?

79A 5 13 And the young man said to him: Be of good courage, thy cure from God is at hand.

79A 5 14 And Tobias said to him: Canst thou conduct my son to Gabelus at Rages, a city of the Medes? and when thou shalt return, I will pay thee thy hire.

79A 5 15 And the angel said to him: I will conduct him thither, and bring him back to thee.

79A 5 16 And Tobias said to him: I pray thee, tell me, of what family, or what tribe art thou?

79A 5 17 And Raphael the angel answered: Dost thou seek the family of him thou hirest, or the hired servant himself to go with thy son?

79A 5 18 But lest I should make thee uneasy, I am Azarias the son of the great Ananias.

79A 5 19 And Tobias answered: Thou art of a great family. But I pray thee be not angry that I desired to know thy family.

79A 5 20 And the angel said to him: I will lead thy son safe, and bring him to thee again safe.

79A 5 21 And Tobias answering, said: May you have a good journey, and God be with you in your way, and his angel accompany you.

79A 5 22 Then all things being ready, that were to be carried in their journey, Tobias bade his father and his mother farewell, and they set out both together.

79A 5 23 And when they were departed, his mother began to weep, and to say: Thou hast taken the staff of our old age, and sent him away from us.

79A 5 24 I wish the money for which thou hast sent him, had never been.

79A 5 25 For poverty was sufficient for us, that we might account it as riches, that we saw our son.

79A 5 26 And Tobias said to her: Weep not, our son will arrive thither safe, and will return safe to us, and thy eyes shall see him.

79A 5 27 For I believe that the good angel of God doth accompany him, and doth order all things well that are done about him, so that he shall return to us with joy.

79A 5 28 At these words his mother ceased weeping, and held her peace.

79A 6 1 And Tobias went forward, and the dog followed him, and he lodged the first night by the river of Tigris.

79A 6 2 And he went out to wash his feet, and behold a monstrous fish came up to devour him.

79A 6 3 And Tobias being afraid of him, cried out with a loud voice, saying: Sir, he cometh upon me.

79A 6 4 And the angel said to him: Take him by the gill, and draw him to thee. And when he had done so, he drew him out upon the land, and he began to pant before his feet.

79A 6 5 Then the angel said to him: Take out the entrails of the fish, and lay up his heart, and his gall, and his liver for thee: for these are necessary for useful medicines.

79A 6 6 And when he had done so, he roasted the flesh thereof, and they took it with them in the way: the rest they salted as much as might serve them, till they came to Rages the city of the Medes.

79A 6 7 Then Tobias asked the angel, and said to him: I beseech thee, brother Azarias, tell me what remedies are these things good for, which thou hast bid me keep of the fish?

79A 6 8 And the angel, answering, said to him: If thou put a little piece of its heart upon coals, the smoke thereof driveth away all kind of devils, either from man or from woman, so that they come no more to them.

79A 6 9 And the gall is good for anointing the eyes, in which there is a white speck, and they shall be cured.

79A 6 10 And Tobias said to him: Where wilt thou that we lodge?

79A 6 11 And the angel answering, said: Here is one whose name is Raguel, a near kinsman of thy tribe, and he hath a daughter named Sara, but he hath no son nor any other daughter beside her.

79A 6 12 All his substance is due to thee, and thou must take her to wife.

79A 6 13 Ask her therefore of her father, and he will give her thee to wife.

79A 6 14 Then Tobias answered, and said: I hear that she hath been given to seven husbands, and they all died: moreover I have heard, that a devil killed them.

79A 6 15 Now I am afraid, lest the same thing should happen to me also: and whereas I am the only child of my parents, I should bring down their old age with sorrow to hell.

79A 6 16 Then the angel Raphael said to him: Hear me, and I will shew thee who they are, over whom the devil can prevail.

79A 6 17 For they who in such manner receive matrimony, as to shut out God from themselves, and from their mind, and to give themselves to their lust, as the horse and mule, which have not understanding, over them the devil hath power.

79A 6 18 But thou when thou shalt take her, go into the chamber, and for three days keep thyself continent from her, and give thyself to nothing else but to prayers with her.

79A 6 19 And on that night lay the liver of the fish on the fire, and the devil shall be driven away.

79A 6 20 But the second night thou shalt be admitted into the society of the holy Patriarchs.

79A 6 21 And the third night thou shalt obtain a blessing that sound children may be born of you.

79A 6 22 And when the third night is past, thou shalt take the virgin with the fear of the Lord, moved rather for love of children than for lust, that in the seed of Abraham thou mayst obtain a blessing in children.

79A 7 1 And they went in to Raguel, and Raguel received them with joy.

79A 7 2 And Raguel looking upon Tobias, said to Anna his wife: How like is this young man to my cousin?

79A 7 3 And when he had spoken these words, he said: Whence are ye young men our brethren?

79A 7 4 But they said: We are of the tribe of Nephtali, of the captive of Ninive.

79A 7 5 And Raguel said to them: Do you know Tobias my brother? And they said: We know him.

79A 7 6 And when he was speaking many good things of him, the angel said to Raguel: Tobias concerning whom thou inquirest is this young man's father.

79A 7 7 And Raguel went to him, and kissed him with tears, and weeping upon his neck, said: A blessing be upon thee, my son, because thou art the son of a good and most virtuous man.

79A 7 8 And Anna his wife, and Sara their daughter wept.

79A 7 9 And after they had spoken, Raguel commanded a sheep to be killed, and a feast to be prepared. And when he desired them to sit down to dinner, 79A 7 10 Tobias said: I will not eat nor drink here this day, unless thou first grant me my petition, and promise to give me Sara thy daughter.

79A 7 11 Now when Raguel heard this he was afraid, knowing what had happened to those seven husbands, that went in unto her: and he began to fear lest it might happen to him also in like manner: and as he was in suspense, and gave no answer to his petition, 79A 7 12 The angel said to him: Be not afraid to give her to this man, for to him who feareth God is thy daughter due to be his wife: therefore another could not have her.

79A 7 13 Then Raguel said: I doubt not but God hath regarded my prayers and tears in his sight.

79A 7 14 And I believe he hath therefore made you come to me, that this maid might be married to one of her own kindred, according to the law of Moses: and now doubt not but I will give her to thee.

79A 7 15 And taking the right hand of his daughter, he gave it into the right hand of Tobias, saying: The God of Abraham, and the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob be with you, and may he join you together, and fulfil his blessing in you.

79A 7 16 And taking paper they made a writing of the marriage.

79A 7 17 And afterwards they made merry, blessing God.

79A 7 18 And Raguel called to him Anna his wife, and bade her prepare another chamber.

79A 7 19 And she brought Sara her daughter in thither, and she wept.

79A 7 20 And she said to her: Be of good cheer, my daughter: the Lord of heaven give thee joy for the trouble thou hast undergone.

79A 8 1 And after they had supped, they brought in the young man to her.

79A 8 2 And Tobias remembering the angel's word, took out of his bag part of the liver, and laid it upon burning coals.

79A 8 3 Then the angel Raphael took the devil, and bound him in the desert of upper Egypt.

79A 8 4 Then Tobias exhorted the virgin, and said to her: Sara, arise, and let us pray to God to day, and to morrow, and the next day: because for these three nights we are joined to God: and when the third night is over, we will be in our own wedlock.

79A 8 5 For we are the children of saints, and we must not be joined together like heathens that know not God.

79A 8 6 So they both arose, and prayed earnestly both together that health might be given them, 79A 8 7 And Tobias said: Lord God of our father, may the heavens and the earth, and the sea, and the fountains, and the rivers, and all thy creatures that are in them, bless thee.

79A 8 8 Thou madest Adam of the slime of the earth, and gavest him Eve for a helper.

79A 8 9 And now, Lord, thou knowest, that not for fleshly lust do I take my sister to wife, but only for the love of posterity, in which thy name may be blessed for ever and ever.

79A 8 10 Sara also said: Have mercy on us, O Lord, have mercy on us, and let us grow old both together in health.

79A 8 11 And it came to pass about the cockcrowing, Raguel ordered his servants to be called for, and they went with him together to dig a grave.

79A 8 12 For he said: Lest perhaps it may have happened to him, in like manner as it did to the other seven husbands, that went in unto her.

79A 8 13 And when they had prepared the pit, Raguel went back to his wife, and said to her:

79A 8 14 Send one of thy maids, and let her see if he be dead, that I may bury him before it be day.

79A 8 15 So she sent one of her maidservants, who went into the chamber, and found them safe and sound, sleeping both together.

79A 8 16 And returning she brought the good news: and Raguel and Anna his wife blessed the Lord, 79A 8 17 And said: We bless thee, O Lord God of Israel, because it hath not happened as we suspected.

79A 8 18 For thou hast shewn thy mercy to us, and hast shut out from us the enemy that persecuted us.

79A 8 19 And thou hast taken pity upon two only children. Make them, O Lord, bless thee more fully: and to offer up to thee a sacrifice of thy praise, and of their health, that all nations may know, that thou alone art God in all the earth.

79A 8 20 And immediately Raguel commanded his servants, to fill up the pit they had made, before it was day.

79A 8 21 And he spoke to his wife to make ready a feast, and prepare all kind of provisions that are necessary for such as go a journey.

79A 8 22 He caused also two fat kine, and four wethers to be killed, and a banquet to be prepared for all his neighbours, and all his friends.

79A 8 23 And Raguel adjured Tobias, to abide with him two weeks.

79A 8 24 And of all things which Raguel possessed, he gave one half to Tobias, and made him a writing, that the half that remained should after their decease come also to Tobias.

79A 9 1 Then Tobias called the angel to him, whom he took to be a man, and said to him: Brother Azarias, I pray thee hearken to my words:

79A 9 2 If I should give myself to be thy servant I should not make a worthy return for thy care.

79A 9 3 However, I beseech thee, to take with thee beasts and servants, and to go to Gabelus to Rages the city of the Medes: and to restore to him his note of hand, and receive of him the money, and desire him to come to my wedding.

79A 9 4 For thou knowest that my father numbereth the days: and if I stay one day more, his soul will be afflicted.

79A 9 5 And indeed thou seest how Raguel hath adjured me, whose adjuring I cannot despise.

79A 9 6 Then Raphael took four of Raguel's servants, and two camels, and went to Rages the city of the Medes: and finding Gabelus, gave him his note of hand, and received of him all the money.

79A 9 7 And he told him concerning Tobias the son of Tobias, all that had been done: and made him come with him to the wedding.

79A 9 8 And when he was come into Raguel's house he found Tobias sitting at the table: and he leaped up, and they kissed each other: and Gabelus wept, and blessed God,

79A 9 9 And said: The God of Israel bless thee, because thou art the son of a very good and just man, and that feareth God, and doth almsdeeds:

79A 9 10 And may a blessing come upon thy wife and upon your parents.

79A 9 11 And may you see your children, and your children's children, unto the third and fourth generation: and may your seed be blessed by the God of Israel, who reigneth for ever and ever.

79A 9 12 And when all had said, Amen, they went to the feast: but the marriage feast they celebrated also with the fear of the Lord.

79A 10 1 But as Tobias made longer stay upon occasion of the marriage, Tobias his father was solicitous, saying: Why thinkest thou doth my son tarry, or why is he detained there?

79A 10 2 Is Gabelus dead, thinkest thou, and no man will pay him the money?

79A 10 3 And he began to be exceeding sad, both he and Anna his wife with him: and they began both to weep together: because their son did not return to them on the day appointed.

79A 10 4 But his mother wept and was quite disconsolate, and said: Woe, woe is me, my son; why did we send thee to go to a strange country, the light of our eyes, the staff of our old age, the comfort of our life, the hope of our posterity?

79A 10 5 We having all things together in thee alone, ought not to have let thee go from us.

79A 10 6 And Tobias said to her: Hold thy peace, and be not troubled, our son is safe: that man with whom we sent him is very trusty.

79A 10 7 But she could by no means be comforted, but daily running out looked round about, and went into all the ways by which there seemed any hope he might return, that she might if possible see him coming afar off.

79A 10 8 But Raguel said to his son in law: Stay here, and I will send a messenger to Tobias thy father, that thou art in health.

79A 10 9 And Tobias said to him: I know that my father and mother now count the days, and their spirit is grievously afflicted within them.

79A 10 10 And when Raguel had pressed Tobias with many words, and he by no means would hearken to him, he delivered Sara unto him, and half of all his substance in menservants, and womenservants, in cattle, in camels, and in kine, and in much money, and sent him away safe and joyful from him.

79A 10 11 Saying: The holy angel of the Lord be with you in your journey, and bring you through safe, and that you may find all things well about your parents, and my eyes see your children before I die.

79A 10 12 And the parents taking their daughter kissed her, and let her go:

79A 10 13 Admonishing her to honour her father and mother in law, to love her husband, to take care of the family, to govern the house, and to behave herself irreprehensibly.

79A 11 1 And as they were returning they came to Charan, which is in the midway to Ninive, the eleventh day.

79A 11 2 And the angel said: Brother Tobias, thou knowest how thou didst leave thy father.

79A 11 3 If it please thee therefore, let us go before, and let the family follow softly after us, together with thy wife, and with the beasts.

79A 11 4 And as this their going pleased him, Raphael said to Tobias: Take with thee of the gall of the fish, for it will be necessary. So Tobias took some of that gall and departed.

79A 11 5 But Anna sat beside the way daily, on the top of a hill, from whence she might see afar off.

79A 11 6 And while she watched his coming from that place, she saw him afar off, and presently perceived it was her son coming: and returning she told her husband, saying: Behold thy son cometh.

79A 11 7 And Raphael said to Tobias: As soon as thou shalt come into thy house, forthwith adore the Lord thy God: and giving thanks to him, go to thy father, and kiss him.

79A 11 8 And immediately anoint his eyes with this gall of the fish, which thou carriest with thee. For be assured that his eyes shall be presently opened, and thy father shall see the light of heaven, and shall rejoice in the sight of thee.

79A 11 9 Then the dog, which had been with them in the way, ran before, and coming as if he had brought the news, shewed his joy by his fawning and wagging his tail.

79A 11 10 And his father that was blind, rising up, began to run stumbling with his feet: and giving a servant his hand, went to meet his son.

79A 11 11 And receiving him kissed him, as did also his wife, and they began to weep for joy.

79A 11 12 And when they had adored God, and given him thanks, they sat down together.

79A 11 13 Then Tobias taking of the gall of the fish, anointed his father's eyes.

79A 11 14 And he stayed about half an hour: and a white skin began to come out of his eyes, like the skin of an egg.

79A 11 15 And Tobias took hold of it, and drew it from his eyes, and immediately he recovered his sight.

79A 11 16 And they glorified God, both he and his wife and all that knew them.

79A 11 17 And Tobias said: I bless thee, O Lord God of Israel, because thou hast chastised me, and thou hast saved me: and behold I see Tobias my son.

79A 11 18 And after seven days Sara his son's wife, and all the family arrived safe, and the cattle, and the camels, and an abundance of money of his wife's: and that money also which he had received of Gabelus:

79A 11 19 And he told his parents all the benefits of God, which he had done to him by the man that conducted him.

79A 11 20 And Achior and Nabath the kinsmen of Tobias came, rejoicing for Tobias, and congratulating with him for all the good things that God had done for him.

79A 11 21 And for seven days they feasted and rejoiced all with great joy.

79A 12 1 Then Tobias called to him his son, and said to him: What can we give to this holy man, that is come with thee?

79A 12 2 Tobias answering, said to his father: Father, what wages shall we give him? or what can be worthy of his benefits?

79A 12 3 He conducted me and brought me safe again, he received the money of Gabelus, he caused me to have my wife, and he chased from her the evil spirit, he gave joy to her parents, myself he delivered from being devoured by the fish, thee also he hath made to see the light of heaven, and we are filled with all good things through him. What can we give him sufficient for these things?

79A 12 4 But I beseech thee, my father, to desire him, that he would vouchsafe to accept one half of all things that have been brought.

79A 12 5 So the father and the son, calling him, took him aside: and began to desire him that he would vouchsafe to accept of half of all things that they had brought.

79A 12 6 Then he said to them secretly: Bless ye the God of heaven, give glory to him in the sight of all that live, because he hath shewn his mercy to you.

79A 12 7 For it is good to hide the secret of a king: but honourable to reveal and confess the works of God.

79A 12 8 Prayer is good with fasting and alms more than to lay up treasures of gold:

79A 12 9 For alms delivereth from death, and the same is that which purgeth away sins, and maketh to find mercy and life everlasting.

79A 12 10 But they that commit sin and iniquity, are enemies to their own soul.

79A 12 11 I discover then the truth unto you, and I will not hide the secret from you.

79A 12 12 When thou didst pray with tears, and didst bury the dead, and didst leave thy dinner, and hide the dead by day in thy house, and bury them by night, I offered thy prayer to the Lord.

79A 12 13 And because thou wast acceptable to God, it was necessary that temptation should prove thee.

79A 12 14 And now the Lord hath sent me to heal thee, and to deliver Sara thy son's wife from the devil.

79A 12 15 For I am the angel Raphael, one of the seven, who stand before the Lord.

79A 12 16 And when they had heard these things, they were troubled, and being seized with fear they fell upon the ground on their face.

79A 12 17 And the angel said to them: Peace be to you, fear not.

79A 12 18 For when I was with you, I was there by the will of God: bless ye him, and sing praises to him.

79A 12 19 I seemed indeed to eat and to drink with you: but I use an invisible meat and drink, which cannot be seen by men.

79A 12 20 It is time therefore that I return to him that sent me: but bless ye God, and publish all his wonderful works.

79A 12 21 And when he had said these things, he was taken from their sight, and they could see him no more.

79A 12 22 Then they lying prostrate for three hours upon their face, blessed God: and rising up, they told all his wonderful works.

79A 13 1 And Tobias the elder opening his mouth, blessed the Lord, and said: Thou art great, O Lord, for ever, and thy kingdom is unto all ages:

79A 13 2 For thou scourgest, and thou savest: thou ledest down to hell, and bringest up again: and there is none that can escape thy hand.

79A 13 3 Give glory to the Lord, ye children of Israel, and praise him in the sight of the Gentiles:

79A 13 4 Because he hath therefore scattered you among the Gentiles, who know not him, that you may declare his wonderful works, and make them know that there is no other almighty God besides him.

79A 13 5 He hath chastised us for our iniquities: and he will save us for his own mercy.

79A 13 6 See then what he hath done with us, and with fear and trembling give ye glory to him: and extol the eternal King of worlds in your works.

79A 13 7 As for me, I will praise him in the land of my captivity: because he hath shewn his majesty toward a sinful nation.

79A 13 8 Be converted therefore, ye sinners, and do justice before God, believing that he will shew his mercy to you.

79A 13 9 And I and my soul will rejoice in him.

79A 13 10 Bless ye the Lord, all his elect, keep days of joy, and give glory to him.

79A 13 11 Jerusalem, city of God, the Lord hath chastised thee for the works of thy hands.

79A 13 12 Give glory to the Lord for thy good things, and bless the God eternal, that he may rebuild his tabernacle in thee, and may call back all the captives to thee, and thou mayst rejoice for ever and ever.

79A 13 13 Thou shalt shine with a glorious light: and all the ends of the earth shall worship thee.

79A 13 14 Nations from afar shall come to thee: and shall bring gifts, and shall adore the Lord in thee, and shall esteem thy land as holy.

79A 13 15 For they shall call upon the great name in thee.

79A 13 16 They shall be cursed that shall despise thee: and they shall be condemned that shall blaspheme thee: and blessed shall they be that shall build thee up.

79A 13 17 But thou shalt rejoice in thy children, because they shall all be blessed, and shall be gathered together to the Lord.

79A 13 18 Blessed are all they that love thee, and that rejoice in thy peace.

79A 13 19 My soul, bless thou the Lord, because the Lord our God hath delivered Jerusalem his city from all her troubles.

79A 13 20 Happy shall I be if there shall remain of my seed, to see the glory of Jerusalem.

79A 13 21 The gates of Jerusalem shall be built of sapphire, and of emerald, and all the walls thereof round about of precious stones.

79A 13 22 All its streets shall be paved with white and clean stones: and Alleluia shall be sung in its streets.

79A 13 23 Blessed be the Lord, who hath exalted it, and may he reign over it for ever and ever, Amen.

79A 14 1 And the words of Tobias were ended. And after Tobias was restored to his sight, he lived two and forty years, and saw the children of his grandchildren.

79A 14 2 And after he had lived a hundred and two years, he was buried honourably in Ninive.

79A 14 3 For he was six and fifty years old when he lost the sight of his eyes, and sixty when he recovered it again.

79A 14 4 And the rest of his life was in joy, and with great increase of the fear of God he departed in peace.

79A 14 5 And at the hour of his death he called unto him his son Tobias and his children, seven young men, his grandsons, and said to them:

79A 14 6 The destruction of Ninive is at hand: for the word of the Lord must be fulfilled: and our brethren, that are scattered abroad from the land of Israel, shall return to it.

79A 14 7 And all the land thereof that is desert shall be filled with people, and the house of God which is burnt in it, shall again be rebuilt: and all that fear God shall return thither.

79A 14 8 And the Gentiles shall leave their idols, and shall come into Jerusalem, and shall dwell in it.

79A 14 9 And all the kings of the earth shall rejoice in it, adoring the King of Israel.

79A 14 10 Harken therefore, my children, to your father: serve the Lord in truth, and seek to do the things that please him:

79A 14 11 And command your children that they do justice and almsdeeds, and that they be mindful of God, and bless him at all times in truth, and with all their power.

79A 14 12 And now, children, hear me, and do not stay here: but as soon as you shall bury your mother by me in one sepulchre, without delay direct your steps to depart hence:

79A 14 13 For I see that its iniquity will bring it to destruction.

79A 14 14 And it came to pass that after the death of his mother, Tobias departed out of Ninive with his wife, and children, and children's children, and returned to his father and mother in law.

79A 14 15 And he found them in health in a good old age: and he took care of them, and he closed their eyes: and all the inheritance of Raguel's house came to him: and he saw his children's children to the fifth generation.

79A 14 16 And after he had lived ninety-nine years in the fear of the Lord, with joy they buried him.

79A 14 17 And all his kindred, and all his generation continued in good life, and in holy conversation, so that they were acceptable both to God, and to men, and to all that dwelt in the land.

80A 1 1 Love justice, you that are the judges of the earth. Think of the Lord in goodness, and seek him in simplicity of heart.

80A 1 2 For he is found by them that tempt him not: and he sheweth himself to them that have faith in him.

80A 1 3 For perverse thoughts separate from God: and his power, when it is tried, reproveth the unwise:

80A 1 4 For wisdom will not enter into a malicious soul, nor dwell in a body subject to sins.

80A 1 5 For the Holy Spirit of discipline will flee from the deceitful, and will withdraw himself from thoughts that are without understanding, and he shall not abide when iniquity cometh in.

80A 1 6 For the spirit of wisdom is benevolent, and will not acquit the evil speaker from his lips: for God is witness of his reins, and he is a true searcher of his heart, and a hearer of his tongue.

80A 1 7 For the spirit of the Lord hath filled the whole world: and that, which containeth all things, hath knowledge of the voice.

80A 1 8 Therefore he that speaketh unjust things cannot be hid, neither shall the chastising judgment pass him by.

80A 1 9 For inquisition shall be made into the thoughts of the ungodly: and the hearing of his words shall come to God, to the chastising of his iniquities.

80A 1 10 For the ear of jealousy heareth all things, and the tumult of murmuring shall not be hid.

80A 1 11 Keep yourselves therefore from murmuring, which profiteth nothing, and refrain your tongue from detraction, for an obscure speech shall not go for nought: and the mouth that believeth, killeth the soul.

80A 1 12 Seek not death in the error of your life, neither procure ye destruction by the works of your hands.

80A 1 13 For God made not death, neither hath he pleasure in the destruction of the living.

80A 1 14 For he created all things that they might be: and he made the nations of the earth for health: and there is no poison of destruction in them, nor kingdom of hell upon the earth.

80A 1 15 For justice is perpetual and immortal.

80A 1 16 But the wicked with works and words have called it to them: and esteeming it a friend have fallen away, and have made a covenant with it: because they are worthy to be of the part thereof.

80A 2 1 For they have said, reasoning with themselves, but not right: The time of our life is short and tedious, and in the end of a man there is no remedy, and no man hath been known to have returned from hell:

80A 2 2 For we are born of nothing, and after this we shall be as if we had not been: for the breath in our nostrils is smoke: and speech a spark to move our heart,

80A 2 3 Which being put out, our body shall be ashes, and our spirit shall be poured abroad as soft air, and our life shall pass away as the trace of a cloud, and shall be dispersed as a mist, which is driven away by the beams of the sun, and overpowered with the heat thereof:

80A 2 4 And our name in time shall be forgotten, and no man shall have any remembrance of our works.

80A 2 5 For our time is as the passing of a shadow, and there is no going back of our end: for it is fast sealed, and no man returneth.

80A 2 6 Come therefore, and let us enjoy the good things that are present, and let us speedily use the creatures as in youth.

80A 2 7 Let us fill ourselves with costly wine, and ointments: and let not the flower of the time pass by us.

80A 2 8 Let us crown ourselves with roses, before they be withered: let no meadow escape our riot.

80A 2 9 Let none of us go without his part in luxury: let us everywhere leave tokens of joy: for this is our portion, and this our lot.

80A 2 10 Let us oppress the poor just man, and not spare the widow, nor honour the ancient grey hairs of the aged.

80A 2 11 But let our strength be the law of justice: for that which is feeble, is found to be nothing worth.

80A 2 12 Let us therefore lie in wait for the just, because he is not for our turn, and he is contrary to our doings, and upbraideth us with transgressions of the law, and divulgeth against us the sins of our way of life.

80A 2 13 He boasteth that he hath the knowledge of God, and calleth himself the son of God.

80A 2 14 He is become a censurer of our thoughts.

80A 2 15 He is grievous unto us, even to behold: for his life is not like other men's, and his ways are very different.

80A 2 16 We are esteemed by him as triflers, and he abstaineth from our ways as from filthiness, and he preferreth the latter end of the just, and glorieth that he hath God for his father.

80A 2 17 Let us see then if his words be true, and let us prove what shall happen to him, and we shall know what his end shall be.

80A 2 18 For if he be the true son of God, he will defend him, and will deliver him from the hands of his enemies.

80A 2 19 Let us examine him by outrages and tortures, that we may know his meekness and try his patience.

80A 2 20 Let us condemn him to a most shameful death: for there shall be respect had unto him by his words.

80A 2 21 These things they thought, and were deceived: for their own malice blinded them.

80A 2 22 And they knew not the secrets of God, nor hoped for the wages of justice, nor esteemed the honour of holy souls.

80A 2 23 For God created man incorruptible, and to the image of his own likeness he made him.

80A 2 24 But by the envy of the devil, death came into the world:

80A 2 25 And they follow him that are of his side.

80A 3 1 But the souls of the just are in the hand of God, and the torment of death shall not touch them.

80A 3 2 In the sight of the unwise they seemed to die: and their departure was taken for misery:

80A 3 3 And their going away from us, for utter destruction: but they are in peace.

80A 3 4 And though in the sight of men they suffered torments, their hope is full of immortality.

80A 3 5 Afflicted in few things, in many they shall be well rewarded: because God hath tried them, and found them worthy of himself.

80A 3 6 As gold in the furnace he hath proved them, and as a victim of a holocaust he hath received them, and in time there shall be respect had to them.

80A 3 7 The just shall shine, and shall run to and fro like sparks among the reeds.

80A 3 8 They shall judge nations, and rule over people, and their Lord shall reign for ever.

80A 3 9 They that trust in him, shall understand the truth: and they that are faithful in love shall rest in him: for grace and peace is to his elect.

80A 3 10 But the wicked shall be punished according to their own devices: who have neglected the just, and have revolted from the Lord.

80A 3 11 For he that rejecteth wisdom, and discipline, is unhappy: and their hope is vain, and their labours without fruit, and their works unprofitable.

80A 3 12 Their wives are foolish, and their children wicked.

80A 3 13 Their offspring is cursed: for happy is the barren: and the undefiled, that hath not known bed in sin: she shall have fruit in the visitation of holy souls.

80A 3 14 And the eunuch, that hath not wrought iniquity with his hands, nor thought wicked things against God: for the precious gift of faith shall be given to him, and a most acceptable lot in the temple of God.

80A 3 15 For the fruit of good labours is glorious, and the root of wisdom never faileth.

80A 3 16 But the children of adulterers shall not come to perfection, and the seed of the unlawful bed shall be rooted out.

80A 3 17 And if they live long, they shall be nothing regarded, and their last old age shall be without honour.

80A 3 18 And if they die quickly, they shall have no hope, nor speech of comfort in the day of trial.

80A 3 19 For dreadful are the ends of a wicked race.

80A 4 1 O how beautiful is the chaste generation with glory: for the memory thereof is immortal: because it is known both with God and with men.

80A 4 2 When it is present, they imitate it: and they desire it when it hath withdrawn itself, and it triumpheth crowned for ever, winning the reward of undefiled conflicts.

80A 4 3 But the multiplied brood of the wicked shall not thrive, and bastard slips shall not take deep root, nor any fast foundation.

80A 4 4 And if they flourish in branches for a time, yet standing not fast, they shall be shaken with the wind, and through the force of winds they shall be rooted out.

80A 4 5 For the branches not being perfect, shall be broken, and their fruits shall be unprofitable, and sour to eat, and fit for nothing.

80A 4 6 For the children that are born of unlawful beds, are witnesses of wickedness against their parents in their trial.

80A 4 7 But the just man, if he be prevented with death, shall be in rest.

80A 4 8 For venerable old age is not that of long time, nor counted by the number of years: but the understanding of a man is grey hairs.

80A 4 9 And a spotless life is old age.

80A 4 10 He pleased God and was beloved, and living among sinners he was translated.

80A 4 11 He was taken away lest wickedness should alter his understanding, or deceit beguile his soul.

80A 4 12 For the bewitching of vanity obscureth good things, and the wandering of concupiscence overturneth the innocent mind.

80A 4 13 Being made perfect in a short space, he fulfilled a long time:

80A 4 14 For his soul pleased God: therefore he hastened to bring him out of the midst of iniquities: but the people see this, and understand not, nor lay up such things in their hearts:

80A 4 15 That the grace of God, and his mercy is with his saints, and that he hath respect to his chosen.

80A 4 16 But the just that is dead, condemneth the wicked that are living, and youth soon ended, the long life of the unjust.

80A 4 17 For they shall see the end of the wise man, and shall not understand what God hath designed for him, and why the Lord hath set him in safety.

80A 4 18 They shall see him, and shall despise him: but the Lord shall laugh them to scorn.

80A 4 19 And they shall fall after this without honour, and be a reproach among the dead for ever: for he shall burst them puffed up and speechless, and shall shake them from the foundations, and they shall be utterly laid waste: they shall be in sorrow, and their memory shall perish.

80A 4 20 They shall come with fear at the thought of their sins, and their iniquities shall stand against them to convict them.

80A 5 1 Then shall the just stand with great constancy against those that have afflicted them, and taken away their labours.

80A 5 2 These seeing it, shall be troubled with terrible fear, and shall be amazed at the suddenness of their unexpected salvation.

80A 5 3 Saying within themselves, repenting, and groaning for anguish of spirit: These are they, whom we had some time in derision, and for a parable of reproach.

80A 5 4 We fools esteemed their life madness, and their end without honour.

80A 5 5 Behold how they are numbered among the children of God, and their lot is among the saints.

80A 5 6 Therefore we have erred from the way of truth, and the light of justice hath not shined unto us, and the sun of understanding hath not risen upon us.

80A 5 7 We wearied ourselves in the way of iniquity and destruction, and have walked through hard ways, but the way of the Lord we have not known.

80A 5 8 What hath pride profited us? or what advantage hath the boasting of riches brought us?

80A 5 9 All those things are passed away like a shadow, and like a post that runneth on,

80A 5 10 And as a ship that passeth through the waves: whereof when it is gone by, the trace cannot be found, nor the path of its keel in the waters:

80A 5 11 Or as when a bird flieth through the air, of the passage of which no mark can be found, but only the sound of the wings beating the light air, and parting it by the force of her flight; she moved her wings, and hath flown through, and there is no mark found afterwards of her way:

80A 5 12 Or as when an arrow is shot at a mark, the divided air presently cometh together again, so that the passage thereof is not known:

80A 5 13 So we also being born, forthwith ceased to be: and have been able to shew no mark of virtue: but are consumed in our wickedness.

80A 5 14 Such things as these the sinners said in hell:

80A 5 15 For the hope of the wicked is as dust, which is blown away with the wind, and as a thin froth which is dispersed by the storm: and a smoke that is scattered abroad by the wind: and as the remembrance of a guest of one day that passeth by.

80A 5 16 But the just shall live for evermore: and their reward is with the Lord, and the care of them with the most High.

80A 5 17 Therefore shall they receive a kingdom of glory, and a crown of beauty at the hand of the Lord: for with his right hand he will cover them, and with his holy arm he will defend them.

80A 5 18 And his zeal will take armour, and he will arm the creature for the revenge of his enemies.

80A 5 19 He will put on justice as a breastplate, and will take true judgment instead of a helmet.

80A 5 20 He will take equity for an invincible shield:

80A 5 21 And he will sharpen his severe wrath for a spear, and the whole world shall fight with him against the unwise.

80A 5 22 Then shafts of lightning shall go directly from the clouds, as from a bow well bent, they shall be shot out, and shall fly to the mark.

80A 5 23 And thick hail shall be cast upon them from the stone casting wrath: the water of the sea shall rage against them, and the rivers shall run together in a terrible manner.

80A 5 24 A mighty wind shall stand up against them, and as a whirlwind shall divide them: and their iniquity shall bring all the earth to a desert, and wickedness shall overthrow the thrones of the mighty.

80A 6 1 Wisdom is better than strength, and a wise man is better than a strong man.

80A 6 2 Hear therefore, ye kings, and understand: learn, ye that are judges of the ends of the earth.

80A 6 3 Give ear, you that rule the people, and that please yourselves in multitudes of nations:

80A 6 4 For power is given you by the Lord, and strength by the most High, who will examine your works, and search out your thoughts:

80A 6 5 Because being ministers of his kingdom, you have not judged rightly, nor kept the law of justice, nor walked according to the will of God.

80A 6 6 Horribly and speedily will he appear to you: for a most severe judgment shall be for them that bear rule.

80A 6 7 For to him that is little, mercy is granted: but the mighty shall be mightily tormented.

80A 6 8 For God will not except any man's person, neither will he stand in awe of any man's greatness: for he made the little and the great, and he hath equally care of all.

80A 6 9 But a greater punishment is ready for the more mighty.

80A 6 10 To you, therefore, O kings, are these my words, that you may learn wisdom, and not fall from it.

80A 6 11 For they that have kept just things justly, shall be justified: and they that have learned these things, shall find what to answer.

80A 6 12 Covet ye therefore my words, and love them, and you shall have instruction.

80A 6 13 Wisdom is glorious, and never fadeth away, and is easily seen by them that love her, and is found by them that seek her.

80A 6 14 She preventeth them that covet her, so that she first sheweth herself unto them.

80A 6 15 He that awaketh early to seek her, shall not labour: for he shall find her sitting at his door.

80A 6 16 To think therefore upon her, is perfect understanding: and he that watcheth for her, shall quickly be secure.

80A 6 17 For she goeth about seeking such as are worthy of her, and she sheweth herself to them cheerfully in the ways, and meeteth them with all providence.

80A 6 18 For the beginning of her is the most true desire of discipline.

80A 6 19 And the care of discipline is love: and love is the keeping of her laws: and the keeping of her laws is the firm foundation of incorruption:

80A 6 20 And incorruption bringeth near to God.

80A 6 21 Therefore the desire of wisdom bringeth to the everlasting kingdom.

80A 6 22 If then your delight be in thrones, and sceptres, O ye kings of the people, love wisdom, that you may reign for ever.

80A 6 23 Love the light of wisdom, all ye that bear rule over peoples.

80A 6 24 Now what wisdom is, and what was her origin, I will declare: and I will not hide from you the mysteries of God, but will seek her out from the beginning of her birth, and bring the knowledge of her to light, and will not pass over the truth:

80A 6 25 Neither will I go with consuming envy: for such a man shall not be partaker of wisdom.

80A 6 26 Now the multitude of the wise is the welfare of the whole world: and a wise king is the upholding of the people.

80A 6 27 Receive therefore instruction by my words, and it shall be profitable to you.

80A 7 1 I myself also am a mortal man, like all others, and of the race of him, that was first made of the earth, and in the womb of my mother I was fashioned to be flesh.

80A 7 2 In the time of ten months I was compacted in blood, of the seed of man, and the pleasure of sleep concurring.

80A 7 3 And being born I drew in the common air, and fell upon the earth, that is made alike, and the first voice which I uttered was crying, as all others do.

80A 7 4 I was nursed in swaddling clothes, and with great cares.

80A 7 5 For none of the kings had any other beginning of birth.

80A 7 6 For all men have one entrance into life, and the like going out.

80A 7 7 Wherefore I wished, and understanding was given me: and I called upon God, and the spirit of wisdom came upon me:

80A 7 8 And I preferred her before kingdoms and thrones, and esteemed riches nothing in comparison of her.

80A 7 9 Neither did I compare unto her any precious stone: for all gold in comparison of her, is as a little sand, and silver in respect to her shall be counted as clay.

80A 7 10 I loved her above health and beauty, and chose to have her instead of light: for her light cannot be put out.

80A 7 11 Now all good things came to me together with her, and innumerable riches through her hands, 80A 7 12 And I rejoiced in all these: for this wisdom went before me, and I knew not that she was the mother of them all.

80A 7 13 Which I have learned without guile, and communicate without envy, and her riches I hide not.

80A 7 14 For she is an infinite treasure to men! which they that use, become the friends of God, being commended for the gift of discipline.

80A 7 15 And God hath given to me to speak as I would, and to conceive thoughts worthy of those things that are given me: because he is the guide of wisdom, and the director of the wise:

80A 7 16 For in his hand are both we, and our words, and all wisdom, and the knowledge and skill of works.

80A 7 17 For he hath given me the true knowledge of the things that are: to know the disposition of the whole world, and the virtues of the elements,

80A 7 18 The beginning, and ending, and midst of the times, the alterations of their courses, and the changes of seasons,

80A 7 19 The revolutions of the year, and the dispositions of the stars,

80A 7 20 The natures of living creatures, and rage of wild beasts, the force of winds, and reasonings of men, the diversities of plants, and the virtues of roots,

80A 7 21 And all such things as are hid and not foreseen, I have learned: for wisdom, which is the worker of all things, taught me.

80A 7 22 For in her is the spirit of understanding: holy, one, manifold, subtile, eloquent, active, undefiled, sure, sweet, loving that which is good, quick, which nothing hindereth, beneficent, 80A 7 23 Gentle, kind, steadfast, assured, secure, having all power, overseeing all things, and containing all spirits, intelligible, pure, subtile.

80A 7 24 For wisdom is more active than all active things: and reacheth everywhere by reason of her purity.

80A 7 25 For she is a vapour of the power of God, and a certain pure emanation of the glory of the almighty God: and therefore no defiled thing cometh into her.

80A 7 26 For she is the brightness of eternal light, and the unspotted mirror of God's majesty, and the image of his goodness.

80A 7 27 And being but one, she can do all things: and remaining in herself the same, she reneweth all things, and through nations conveyeth herself into holy souls, she maketh the friends of God and prophets.

80A 7 28 For God loveth none but him that dwelleth with wisdom.

80A 7 29 For she is more beautiful than the sun, and above all the order of the stars: being compared with the light, she is found before it.

80A 7 30 For after this cometh night, but no evil can overcome wisdom.

80A 8 1 She reacheth therefore from end to end mightily, and ordereth all things sweetly.

80A 8 2 Her have I loved, and have sought her out from my youth, and have desired to take her for my spouse, and I became a lover of her beauty.

80A 8 3 She glorifieth her nobility by being conversant with God: yea and the Lord of all things hath loved her.

80A 8 4 For it is she that teacheth the knowledge of God, and is the chooser of his works.

80A 8 5 And if riches be desired in life, what is richer than wisdom, which maketh all things?

80A 8 6 And if sense do work: who is a more artful worker than she of those things that are?

80A 8 7 And if a man love justice: her labours have great virtues; for she teacheth temperance, and prudence, and justice, and fortitude, which are such things as men can have nothing more profitable in life.

80A 8 8 And if a man desire much knowledge: she knoweth things past, and judgeth of things to come: she knoweth the subtilties of speeches, and the solutions of arguments: she knoweth signs and wonders before they be done, and the events of times and ages.

80A 8 9 I purposed therefore to take her to me to live with me: knowing that she will communicate to me of her good things, and will be a comfort in my cares and grief.

80A 8 10 For her sake I shall have glory among the multitude, and honour with the ancients, though I be young:

80A 8 11 And I shall be found of a quick conceit in judgment, and shall be admired in the sight of the mighty, and the faces of princes shall wonder at me.

80A 8 12 They shall wait for me when I hold my peace, and they shall look upon me when I speak, and if I talk much they shall lay their hands on their mouths.

80A 8 13 Moreover by the means of her I shall have immortality: and shall leave behind me an everlasting memory to them that come after me.

80A 8 14 I shall set the people in order: and nations shall be subject to me.

80A 8 15 Terrible kings hearing shall be afraid of me: among the multitude I shall be found good, and valiant in war.

80A 8 16 When I go into my house, I shall repose myself with her: for her conversation hath no bitterness, nor her company any tediousness, but joy and gladness.

80A 8 17 Thinking these things with myself, and pondering them in my heart, that to be allied to wisdom is immortality,

80A 8 18 And that there is great delight in her friendship, and inexhaustible riches in the works of her hands, and in the exercise of conference with her, wisdom, and glory in the communication of her words: I went about seeking, that I might take her to myself.

80A 8 19 And I was a witty child and had received a good soul.

80A 8 20 And whereas I was more good, I came to a body undefiled.

80A 8 21 And as I knew that I could not otherwise be continent, except God gave it, and this also was a point of wisdom, to know whose gift it was: I went to the Lord, and besought him, and said with my whole heart:

80A 9 1 God of my fathers, and Lord of mercy, who hast made all things with thy word,

80A 9 2 And by thy wisdom hast appointed man, that he should have dominion over the creature that was made by thee,

80A 9 3 That he should order the world according to equity and justice, and execute justice with an upright heart:

80A 9 4 Give me wisdom, that sitteth by thy throne, and cast me not off from among thy children:

80A 9 5 For I am thy servant, and the son of thy handmaid, a weak man, and of short time, and falling short of the understanding of judgment and laws.

80A 9 6 For if one be perfect among the children of men, yet if thy wisdom be not with him, he shall be nothing regarded.

80A 9 7 Thou hast chosen me to be king of thy people, and a judge of thy sons and daughters.

80A 9 8 And hast commanded me to build a temple on thy holy mount, and an altar in the city of thy dwelling place, a resemblance of thy holy tabernacle, which thou hast prepared from the beginning:

80A 9 9 And thy wisdom with thee, which knoweth thy works, which then also was present when thou madest the world, and knew what was agreeable to thy eyes, and what was right in thy commandments.

80A 9 10 Send her out of thy holy heaven, and from the throne of thy majesty, that she may be with me, and may labour with me, that I may know what is acceptable with thee:

80A 9 11 For she knoweth and understandeth all things, and shall lead me soberly in my works, and shall preserve me by her power.

80A 9 12 So shall my works be acceptable, and I shall govern thy people justly, and shall be worthy of the throne of my father.

80A 9 13 For who among men is he that can know the counsel of God? or who can think what the will of God is?

80A 9 14 For the thoughts of mortal men are fearful, and our counsels uncertain.

80A 9 15 For the corruptible body is a load upon the soul, and the earthly habitation presseth down the mind that museth upon many things.

80A 9 16 And hardly do we guess aright at things that are upon earth: and with labour do we find the things that are before us. But the things that are in heaven, who shall search out?

80A 9 17 And who shall know thy thought, except thou give wisdom, and send thy Holy Spirit from above:

80A 9 18 And so the ways of them that are upon earth may be corrected, and men may learn the things that please thee?

80A 9 19 For by wisdom they were healed, whosoever have pleased thee, O Lord, from the beginning.

80A 10 1 She preserved him, that was first formed by God the father of the world, when he was created alone, 80A 10 2 And she brought him out of his sin, and gave him power to govern all things.

80A 10 3 But when the unjust went away from her in his anger, he perished by the fury wherewith he murdered his brother.

80A 10 4 For whose cause, when water destroyed the earth, wisdom healed it again, directing the course of the just by contemptible wood.

80A 10 5 Moreover when the nations had conspired together to consent to wickedness, she knew the just, and preserved him without blame to God, and kept him strong against the compassion for his son.

80A 10 6 She delivered the just man who fled from the wicked that were perishing, when the fire came down upon Pentapolis:

80A 10 7 Whose land for a testimony of their wickedness is desolate, and smoketh to this day, and the trees bear fruits that ripen not, and a standing pillar of salt is a monument of an incredulous soul.

80A 10 8 For regarding not wisdom, they did not only slip in this, that they were ignorant of good things, but they left also unto men a memorial of their folly, so that in the things in which they sinned, they could not so much as lie hid.

80A 10 9 But wisdom hath delivered from sorrow them that attend upon her.

80A 10 10 She conducted the just, when he fled from his brother's wrath, through the right ways, and shewed him the kingdom of God, and gave him the knowledge of the holy things, made him honourable in his labours, and accomplished his labours.

80A 10 11 In the deceit of them that overreached him, she stood by him, and made him honourable.

80A 10 12 She kept him safe from his enemies, and she defended him from seducers, and gave him a strong conflict, that he might overcome, and know that wisdom is mightier than all.

80A 10 13 She forsook not the just when he was sold, but delivered him from sinners: she went down with him into the pit.

80A 10 14 And in bands she left him not, till she brought him the sceptre of the kingdom, and power against those that oppressed him: and shewed them to be liars that had accused him, and gave him everlasting glory.

80A 10 15 She delivered the just people, and blameless seed from the nations that oppressed them.

80A 10 16 She entered into the soul of the servant of God, and stood against dreadful kings in wonders and signs.

80A 10 17 And she rendered to the just the wages of their labours, and conducted them in a wonderful way: and she was to them for a covert by day, and for the light of stars by night:

80A 10 18 And she brought them through the Red Sea, and carried them over through a great water.

80A 10 19 But their enemies she drowned in the sea, and from the depth of hell she brought them out. Therefore the just took the spoils of the wicked.

80A 10 20 And they sung to thy holy name, O Lord, and they praised with one accord thy victorious hand.

80A 10 21 For wisdom opened the mouth of the dumb, and made the tongues of infants eloquent.

80A 11 1 She prospered their works in the hands of the holy prophet.

80A 11 2 They went through wildernesses that were not inhabited, and in desert places they pitched their tents.

80A 11 3 They stood against their enemies, and revenged themselves of their adversaries.

80A 11 4 They were thirsty, and they called upon thee, and water was given them out of the high rock, and a refreshment of their thirst out of the hard stone.

80A 11 5 For by what things their enemies were punished, when their drink failed them, while the children of Israel abounded therewith and rejoiced:

80A 11 6 By the same things they in their need were benefited.

80A 11 7 For instead of a fountain of an ever running river, thou gavest human blood to the unjust.

80A 11 8 And whilst they were diminished for a manifest reproof of their murdering the infants, thou gavest to thine abundant water unlooked for:

80A 11 9 Shewing by the thirst that was then, how thou didst exalt thine, and didst kill their adversaries.

80A 11 10 For when they were tried, and chastised with mercy, they knew how the wicked were judged with wrath and tormented.

80A 11 11 For thou didst admonish and try them as a father: but the others, as a severe king, thou didst examine and condemn.

80A 11 12 For whether absent or present, they were tormented alike.

80A 11 13 For a double affliction came upon them, and a groaning for the remembrance of things past.

80A 11 14 For when they heard that by their punishments the others were benefited, they remembered the Lord, wondering at the end of what was come to pass.

80A 11 15 For whom they scorned before, when he was thrown out at the time of his being wickedly exposed to perish, him they admired in the end, when they saw the event: their thirsting being unlike to that of the just.

80A 11 16 But for the foolish devices of their iniquity, because some being deceived worshipped dumb serpents and worthless beasts, thou didst send upon them a multitude of dumb beasts for vengeance.

80A 11 17 That they might know that by what things a man sinneth, by the same also he is tormented.

80A 11 18 For thy almighty hand, which made the world of matter without form, was not unable to send upon them a multitude of bears, or fierce lions,

80A 11 19 Or unknown beasts of a new kind, full of rage: either breathing out a fiery vapour, or sending forth a stinking smoke, or shooting horrible sparks out of their eyes:

80A 11 20 Whereof not only the hurt might be able to destroy them, but also the very sight might kill them through fear.

80A 11 21 Yea and without these, they might have been slain with one blast, persecuted by their own deeds, and scattered by the breath of thy power: but thou hast ordered all things in measure, and number, and weight.

80A 11 22 For great power always belonged to thee alone: and who shall resist the strength of thy arm?

80A 11 23 For the whole world before thee is as the least grain of the balance, and as a drop of the morning dew, that falleth down upon the earth:

80A 11 24 But thou hast mercy upon all, because thou canst do all things, and overlookest the sins of men for the sake of repentance.

80A 11 25 For thou lovest all things that are, and hatest none of the things which thou hast made: for thou didst not appoint, or make any thing hating it.

80A 11 26 And how could any thing endure, if thou wouldst not? or be preserved, if not called by thee.

80A 11 27 But thou sparest all: because they are thine, O Lord, who lovest souls.

80A 12 1 O how good and sweet is thy spirit, O Lord, in all things!

80A 12 2 And therefore thou chastisest them that err, by little and little: and admonishest them, and speakest to them, concerning the things wherein they offend: that leaving their wickedness, they may believe in thee, O Lord.

80A 12 3 For those ancient inhabitants of thy holy land, whom thou didst abhor,

80A 12 4 Because they did works hateful to thee by their sorceries, and wicked sacrifices,

80A 12 5 And those merciless murderers of their own children, and eaters of men's bowels, and devourers of blood from the midst of thy consecration,

80A 12 6 And those parents sacrificing with their own hands helpless souls, it was thy will to destroy by the hands of our parents,

80A 12 7 That the land which of all is most dear to thee might receive a worthy colony of the children of God.

80A 12 8 Yet even those thou sparedst as men, and didst send wasps, forerunners of thy host, to destroy them by little and little.

80A 12 9 Not that thou wast unable to bring the wicked under the just by war, or by cruel beasts, or with one rough word to destroy them at once:

80A 12 10 But executing thy judgments by degrees thou gavest them place of repentance, not being ignorant that they were a wicked generation, and their malice natural, and that their thought could never be changed.

80A 12 11 For it was a cursed seed from the beginning: neither didst thou for fear of any one give pardon to their sins.

80A 12 12 For who shall say to thee: What hast thou done? or who shall withstand thy judgment? or who shall come before thee to be a revenger of wicked men? or who shall accuse thee, if the nations perish, which thou hast made?

80A 12 13 For there is no other God but thou, who hast care of all, that thou shouldst shew that thou dost not give judgment unjustly.

80A 12 14 Neither shall king, nor tyrant in thy sight inquire about them whom thou hast destroyed.

80A 12 15 For so much then as thou art just, thou orderest all things justly: thinking it not agreeable to thy power, to condemn him who deserveth not to be punished.

80A 12 16 For thy power is the beginning of justice: and because thou art Lord of all, thou makest thyself gracious to all.

80A 12 17 For thou shewest thy power, when men will not believe thee to be absolute in power, and thou convincest the boldness of them that know thee not.

80A 12 18 But thou being master of power, judgest with tranquillity; and with great favour disposest of us: for thy power is at hand when thou wilt.

80A 12 19 But thou hast taught thy people by such works, that they must be just and humane, and hast made thy children to be of a good hope: because in judging thou givest place for repentance for sins.

80A 12 20 For if thou didst punish the enemies of thy servants, and that deserved to die, with so great deliberation, giving them time and place whereby they might be changed from their wickedness:

80A 12 21 With what circumspection hast thou judged thy own children, to whose parents thou hast sworn and made covenants of good promises?

80A 12 22 Therefore whereas thou chastisest us, thou scourgest our enemies very many ways, to the end that when we judge we may think on thy goodness: and when we are judged, we may hope for thy mercy.

80A 12 23 Wherefore thou hast also greatly tormented them who in their life have lived foolishly and unjustly, by the same things which they worshipped.

80A 12 24 For they went astray for a long time in the ways of error, holding those things for gods which are the most worthless among beasts, living after the manner of children without understanding.

80A 12 25 Therefore thou hast sent a judgment upon them as senseless children to mock them.

80A 12 26 But they that were not amended by mockeries and reprehensions, experienced the worthy judgment of God.

80A 12 27 For seeing with indignation that they suffered by those very things which they took for gods, when they were destroyed by the same, they acknowledged him the true God, whom in time past they denied that they knew: for which cause the end also of their condemnation came upon them.

80A 13 1 But all men are vain, in whom there is not the knowledge of God: and who by these good things that are seen, could not understand him that is, neither by attending to the works have acknowledged who was the workman:

80A 13 2 But have imagined either the fire, or the wind, or the swift air, or the circle of the stars, or the great water, or the sun and moon, to be the gods that rule the world.

80A 13 3 With whose beauty, if they, being delighted, took them to be gods: let them know how much the Lord of them is more beautiful than they: for the first author of beauty made all those things.

80A 13 4 Or if they admired their power and their effects, let them understand by them, that he that made them, is mightier than they:

80A 13 5 For by the greatness of the beauty, and of the creature, the creator of them may be seen, so as to be known thereby.

80A 13 6 But yet as to these they are less to be blamed. For they perhaps err, seeking God, and desirous to find him.

80A 13 7 For being conversant among his works, they search: and they are persuaded that the things are good which are seen.

80A 13 8 But then again they are not to be pardoned.

80A 13 9 For if they were able to know so much as to make a judgment of the world: how did they not more easily find out the Lord thereof?

80A 13 10 But unhappy are they, and their hope is among the dead, who have called gods the works of the hands of men, gold and silver, the inventions of art, and the resemblances of beasts, or an unprofitable stone the work of an ancient hand.

80A 13 11 Or if an artist, a carpenter, hath cut down a tree proper for his use in the wood, and skilfully taken off all the bark thereof, and with his art, diligently formeth a vessel profitable for the common uses of life,

80A 13 12 And useth the chips of his work to dress his meat:

80A 13 13 And taking what was left thereof, which is good for nothing, being a crooked piece of wood, and full of knots, carveth it diligently when he hath nothing else to do, and by the skill of his art fashioneth it and maketh it like the image of a man:

80A 13 14 Or the resemblance of some beast, laying it over with vermillion, and painting it red, and covering every spot that is in it:

80A 13 15 And maketh a convenient dwelling place for it, and setting it in a wall, and fastening it with iron,

80A 13 16 Providing for it, lest it should fall, knowing that it is unable to help itself: for it is an image, and hath need of help.

80A 13 17 And then maketh prayer to it, inquiring concerning his substance, and his children, or his marriage. And he is not ashamed to speak to that which hath no life:

80A 13 18 And for health he maketh supplication to the weak, and for life prayeth to that which is dead, and for help calleth upon that which is unprofitable:

80A 13 19 And for a good journey he petitioneth him that cannot walk: and for getting, and for working, and for the event of all things he asketh him that is unable to do any thing.

80A 14 1 Again, another designing to sail, and beginning to make his voyage through the raging waves, calleth upon a piece of wood more frail than the wood that carrieth him.

80A 14 2 For this the desire of gain devised, and the workman built it by his skill.

80A 14 3 But thy providence, O Father, governeth it: for thou hast made a way even in the sea, and a most sure path among the waves, 80A 14 4 Shewing that thou art able to save out of all things, yea though a man went to sea without art.

80A 14 5 But that the works of thy wisdom might not be idle: therefore men also trust their lives even to a little wood, and passing over the sea by ship are saved.

80A 14 6 And from the beginning also when the proud giants perished, the hope of the world fleeing to a vessel, which was governed by thy hand, left to the world seed of generation.

80A 14 7 For blessed is the wood, by which justice cometh.

80A 14 8 But the idol that is made by hands, is cursed, as well it, as he that made it: he because he made it; and it because being frail it is called a god.

80A 14 9 But to God the wicked and his wickedness are hateful alike.

80A 14 10 For that which is made, together with him that made it, shall suffer torments.

80A 14 11 Therefore there shall be no respect had even to the idols of the Gentiles: because the creatures of God are turned to an abomination, and a temptation to the souls of men, and a snare to the feet of the unwise.

80A 14 12 For the beginning of fornication is the devising of idols: and the invention of them is the corruption of life.

80A 14 13 For neither were they from the beginning, neither shall they be for ever.

80A 14 14 For by the vanity of men they came into the world: and therefore they shall be found to come shortly to an end.

80A 14 15 For a father being afflicted with bitter grief, made to himself the image of his son who was quickly taken away: and him who then had died as a man, he began now to worship as a god, and appointed him rites and sacrifices among his servants.

80A 14 16 Then in process of time, wicked custom prevailing, this error was kept as a law, and statues were worshipped by the commandment of tyrants.

80A 14 17 And those whom men could not honour in presence, because they dwelt far off, they brought their resemblance from afar, and made an express image of the king whom they had a mind to honour: that by this their diligence, they might honour as present, him that was absent.

80A 14 18 And to worshipping of these, the singular diligence also of the artificer helped to set forward the ignorant.

80A 14 19 For he being willing to please him that employed him, laboured with all his art to make the resemblance in the best manner.

80A 14 20 And the multitude of men, carried away by the beauty of the work, took him now for a god that a little before was but honoured as a man.

80A 14 21 And this was the occasion of deceiving human life: for men serving either their affection, or their kings, gave the incommunicable name to stones and wood.

80A 14 22 And it was not enough for them to err about the knowledge of God, but whereas they lived in a great war of ignorance, they call so many and so great evils peace.

80A 14 23 For either they sacrifice their own children, or use hidden sacrifices, or keep watches full of madness,

80A 14 24 So that now they neither keep life, nor marriage undefiled, but one killeth another through envy, or grieveth him by adultery:

80A 14 25 And all things are mingled together, blood, murder, theft and dissimulation, corruption and unfaithfulness, tumults and perjury, disquieting of the good,

80A 14 26 Forgetfulness of God, defiling of souls, changing of nature, disorder in marriage, and the irregularity of adultery and uncleanness.

80A 14 27 For the worship of abominable idols is the cause, and the beginning and end of all evil.

80A 14 28 For either they are mad when they are merry: or they prophesy lies, or they live unjustly, or easily forswear themselves.

80A 14 29 For whilst they trust in idols, which are without life, though they swear amiss, they look not to be hurt.

80A 14 30 But for two things they shall be justly punished, because they have thought not well of God, giving heed to idols, and have sworn unjustly, in guile despising justice.

80A 14 31 For it is not the power of them, by whom they swear, but the just vengeance of sinners always punisheth the transgression of the unjust.

80A 15 1 But thou, our God, art gracious and true, patient, and ordering all things in mercy.

80A 15 2 For if we sin, we are thine, knowing thy greatness: and if we sin not, we know that we are counted with thee.

80A 15 3 For to know thee is perfect justice: and to know thy justice, and thy power, is the root of immortality.

80A 15 4 For the invention of mischievous men hath not deceived us, nor the shadow of a picture, a fruitless labour, a graven figure with divers colours,

80A 15 5 The sight whereof enticeth the fool to lust after it, and he loveth the lifeless figure of a dead image.

80A 15 6 The lovers of evil things deserve to have no better things to trust in, both they that make them, and they that love them, and they that worship them.

80A 15 7 The potter also tempering soft earth, with labour fashioneth every vessel for our service, and of the same clay he maketh both vessels that are for clean uses, and likewise such as serve to the contrary: but what is the use of these vessels, the potter is the judge.

80A 15 8 And of the same clay by a vain labour he maketh a god: he who a little before was made of earth himself, and a little after returneth to the same out of which he was taken, when his life which was lent him shall be called for again.

80A 15 9 But his care is, not that he shall labour, nor that his life is short, but he striveth with the goldsmiths and silversmiths: and he endeavoureth to do like the workers in brass, and counteth it a glory to make vain things.

80A 15 10 For his heart is ashes, and his hope vain earth, and his life more base than clay:

80A 15 11 Forasmuch as he knew not his maker and him that inspired into him the soul that worketh, and that breathed into him a living spirit.

80A 15 12 Yea and they have counted our life a pastime, and the business of life to be gain, and that we must be getting every way, even out of evil.

80A 15 13 For that man knoweth that he offendeth above all others, who of earthly matter maketh brittle vessels, and graven gods.

80A 15 14 But all the enemies of thy people that hold them in subjection, are foolish, and unhappy, and proud beyond measure:

80A 15 15 For they have esteemed all the idols of the heathens for gods, which neither have the use of eyes to see, nor noses to draw breath, nor ears to hear, nor fingers of hands to handle, and as for their feet, they are slow to walk.

80A 15 16 For man made them: and he that borroweth his own breath, fashioned them. For no man can make a god like to himself.

80A 15 17 For being mortal himself, he formeth a dead thing with his wicked hands. For he is better than they whom he worshippeth, because he indeed hath lived, though he were mortal, but they never.

80A 15 18 Moreover they worship also the vilest creatures: but things without sense compared to these, are worse than they.

80A 15 19 Yea, neither by sight can any man see good of these beasts. But they have fled from the praise of God, and from his blessing.

80A 16 1 For these things, and by the like things to these, they were worthily punished, and were destroyed by a multitude of beasts.

80A 16 2 Instead of which punishment, dealing well with thy people, thou gavest them their desire of delicious food, of a new taste, preparing for them quails for their meat:

80A 16 3 To the end that they indeed desiring food, by means of those things that were shewn and sent among them, might loathe even that which was necessary to satisfy their desire. But these, after suffering want for a short time, tasted a new meat.

80A 16 4 For it was requisite that inevitable destruction should come upon them that exercised tyranny: but to these it should only be shewn how their enemies were destroyed.

80A 16 5 For when the fierce rage of beasts came upon these, they were destroyed with the bitings of crooked serpents.

80A 16 6 But thy wrath endured not for ever, but they were troubled for a short time for their correction, having a sign of salvation to put them in remembrance of the commandment of thy law.

80A 16 7 For he that turned to it, was not healed by that which he saw, but by thee the Saviour of all.

80A 16 8 And in this thou didst shew to our enemies, that thou art he who deliverest from all evil.

80A 16 9 For the bitings of locusts, and of flies killed them, and there was found no remedy for their life: because they were worthy to be destroyed by such things.

80A 16 10 But not even the teeth of venomous serpents overcame thy children: for thy mercy came and healed them.

80A 16 11 For they were examined for the remembrance of thy words, and were quickly healed, lest falling into deep forgetfulness, they might not be able to use thy help.

80A 16 12 For it was neither herb, nor mollifying plaster that healed them, but thy word,

O Lord, which healeth all things.

80A 16 13 For it is thou, O Lord, that hast power of life and death, and ledest down to the gates of death, and bringest back again:

80A 16 14 A man indeed killeth through malice, and when the spirit is gone forth, it shall not return, neither shall he call back the soul that is received:

80A 16 15 But it is impossible to escape thy hand.

80A 16 16 For the wicked that denied to know thee, were scourged by the strength of thy arm, being persecuted by strange waters, and hail, and rain, and consumed by fire.

80A 16 17 And which was wonderful, in water, which extinguisheth all things, the fire had more force: for the world fighteth for the just.

80A 16 18 For at one time, the fire was mitigated, that the beasts which were sent against the wicked might not be burned, but that they might see and perceive that they were persecuted by the judgment of God.

80A 16 19 And at another time the fire, above its own power, burned in the midst of water, to destroy the fruits of a wicked land.

80A 16 20 Instead of which things thou didst feed thy people with the food of angels, and gavest them bread from heaven prepared without labour; having in it all that is delicious, and the sweetness of every taste.

80A 16 21 For thy sustenance shewed thy sweetness to thy children, and serving every man's will, it was turned to what every man liked.

80A 16 22 But snow and ice endured the force of fire, and melted not: that they might know that fire burning in the hail and flashing in the rain destroyed the fruits of the enemies.

80A 16 23 But this same again, that the just might be nourished, did even forget its own strength.

80A 16 24 For the creature serving thee the Creator, is made fierce against the unjust for their punishment; and abateth its strength for the benefit of them that trust in thee.

80A 16 25 Therefore even then it was transformed into all things, and was obedient to thy grace that nourisheth all, according to the will of them that desired it of thee.

80A 16 26 That thy children, O Lord, whom thou lovedst, might know that it is not the growing of fruits that nourisheth men, but thy word preseveth them that believe in thee:

80A 16 27 For that which could not be destroyed by fire, being warmed with a little sunbeam presently melted away:

80A 16 28 That it might be known to all, that we ought to prevent the sun to bless thee, and adore thee at the dawning of the light.

80A 16 29 For the hope of the unthankful shall melt away as the winter's ice, and shall run off as unprofitable water.

80A 17 1 For thy judgments, O Lord, are great, and thy words cannot be expressed: therefore undisciplined souls have erred.

80A 17 2 For while the wicked thought to be able to have dominion over the holy nation, they themselves being fettered with the bonds of darkness, and a long night, shut up in their houses, lay there exiled from the eternal providence.

80A 17 3 And while they thought to lie hid in their obscure sins, they were scattered under a dark veil of forgetfulness, being horribly afraid and troubled with exceeding great astonishment.

80A 17 4 For neither did the den that held them, keep them from fear: for noises coming down troubled them, and sad visions appearing to them, affrighted them.

80A 17 5 And no power of fire could give them light, neither could the bright flames of the stars enlighten that horrible night.

80A 17 6 But there appeared to them a sudden fire, very dreadful: and being struck with the fear of that face, which was not seen, they thought the things which they saw to be worse:

80A 17 7 And the delusions of their magic art were put down, and their boasting of wisdom was reproachfully rebuked.

80A 17 8 For they who promised to drive away fears and troubles from a sick soul, were sick themselves of a fear worthy to be laughed at.

80A 17 9 For though no terrible thing disturbed them: yet being scared with the passing by of beasts, and hissing of serpents, they died for fear: and denying that they saw the air, which could by no means be avoided.

80A 17 10 For whereas wickedness is fearful, it beareth witness of its condemnation: for a troubled conscience always forecasteth grievous things.

80A 17 11 For fear is nothing else but a yielding up of the succours from thought.

80A 17 12 And while there is less expectation from within, the greater doth it count the ignorance of that cause which bringeth the torment.

80A 17 13 But they that during that night, in which nothing could be done, and which came upon them from the lowest and deepest hell, slept the same sleep.

80A 17 14 Were sometimes molested with the fear of monsters, sometimes fainted away, their soul failing them: for a sudden and unlooked for fear was come upon them.

80A 17 15 Moreover if any of them had fallen down, he was kept shut up in prison without irons.

80A 17 16 For if any one were a husbandman, or a shepherd, or a labourer in the field, and was suddenly overtaken, he endured a necessity from which he could not fly.

80A 17 17 For they were all bound together with one chain of darkness. Whether it were a whistling wind, or the melodious voice of birds, among the spreading branches of trees, or a fall of water running down with violence, 80A 17 18 Or the mighty noise of stones tumbling down, or the running that could not be seen of beasts playing together, or the roaring voice of wild beasts, or a rebounding echo from the highest mountains: these things made them to swoon for fear.

80A 17 19 For the whole world was enlightened with a clear light, and none were hindered in their labours.

80A 17 20 But over them only was spread a heavy night, an image of that darkness which was to come upon them. But they were to themselves more grievous than the darkness.

80A 18 1 But thy saints had a very great light, and they heard their voice indeed, but did not see their shape. And because they also did not suffer the same things, they glorified thee:

80A 18 2 And they that before had been wronged, gave thanks, because they were not hurt now: and asked this gift, that there might be a difference.

80A 18 3 Therefore they received a burning pillar of fire for a guide of the way which they knew not, and thou gavest them a harmless sun of a good entertainment.

80A 18 4 The others indeed were worthy to be deprived of light, and imprisoned in darkness, who kept thy children shut up, by whom the pure light of the law was to be given to the world.

80A 18 5 And whereas they thought to kill the babes of the just, one child being cast forth, and saved, to reprove them, thou tookest away a multitude of their children, and destroyedst them all together in a mighty water.

80A 18 6 For that night was known before by our fathers, that assuredly knowing what oaths they had trusted to, they might be of better courage.

80A 18 7 So thy people received the salvation of the just, and destruction of the unjust.

80A 18 8 For as thou didst punish the adversaries: so thou didst also encourage and glorify us.

80A 18 9 For the just children of good men were offering sacrifice secretly, and they unanimously ordered a law of justice: that the just should receive both good and evil alike, singing now the praises of the fathers.

80A 18 10 But on the other side there sounded an ill according cry of the enemies, and a lamentable mourning was heard for the children that were bewailed.

80A 18 11 And the servant suffered the same punishment as the master, and a common man suffered in like manner as the king.

80A 18 12 So all alike had innumerable dead, with one kind of death. Neither were the living sufficient to bury them; for in one moment the noblest offspring of them was destroyed.

80A 18 13 For whereas they would not believe any thing before by reason of the enchantments, then first upon the destruction of the firstborn, they acknowledged the people to be of God.

80A 18 14 For while all things were in quiet silence, and the night was in the midst of her course, 80A 18 15 Thy almighty word leapt down from heaven from thy royal throne, as a fierce conqueror into the midst of the land of destruction.

80A 18 16 With a sharp sword carrying thy unfeigned commandment, and he stood and filled all things with death, and standing on the earth reached even to heaven.

80A 18 17 Then suddenly visions of evil dreams troubled them, and fears unlooked for came upon them.

80A 18 18 And one thrown here, another there, half dead, shewed the cause of his death.

80A 18 19 For the visions that troubled them foreshewed these things, lest they should perish and not know why they suffered these evils.

80A 18 20 But the just also were afterwards touched by an assault of death, and there was a disturbance of the multitude in the wilderness: but thy wrath did not long continue.

80A 18 21 For a blameless man made haste to pray for the people, bringing forth the shield of his ministry, prayer, and by incense making supplication, withstood the wrath, and put an end to the calamity, shewing that he was thy servant.

80A 18 22 And he overcame the disturbance, not by strength of body nor with force of arms, but with a word he subdued him that punished them, alleging the oaths and covenant made with the fathers.

80A 18 23 For when they were now fallen down dead by heaps one upon another, he stood between and stayed the assault, and cut off the way to the living.

80A 18 24 For in the priestly robe which he wore, was the whole world: and in the four rows of the stones the glory of the fathers was graven, and thy majesty was written upon the diadem of his head.

80A 18 25 And to these the destroyer gave place, and was afraid of them: for the proof only of wrath was enough.

80A 19 1 But as to the wicked, even to the end there came upon them wrath without mercy. For he knew before also what they would do:

80A 19 2 For when they had given them leave to depart, and had sent them away with great care, they repented, and pursued after them.

80A 19 3 For whilst they were yet mourning, and lamenting at the graves of the dead, they took up another foolish device: and pursued them as fugitives whom they had pressed to be gone:

80A 19 4 For a necessity, of which they were worthy, brought them to this end: and they lost the remembrance of those things which had happened, that their punishment might fill up what was wanting to their torments:

80A 19 5 And that thy people might wonderfully pass through, but they might find a new death.

80A 19 6 For every creature according to its kind was fashioned again as from the beginning, obeying thy commandments, that thy children might be kept without hurt.

80A 19 7 For a cloud overshadowed their camp, and where water was before, dry land appeared, and in the Red Sea a way without hinderance, and out of the great deep a springing field:

80A 19 8 Through which all the nation passed which was protected with thy hand, seeing thy miracles and wonders.

80A 19 9 For they fed on their food like horses, and they skipped like lambs, praising thee, O Lord, who hadst delivered them.

80A 19 10 For they were yet mindful of those things which had been done in the time of their sojourning, how the ground brought forth flies instead of cattle, and how the river cast up a multitude of frogs instead of fishes.

80A 19 11 And at length they saw a new generation of birds, when being led by their appetite they asked for delicate meats.

80A 19 12 For to satisfy their desire, the quail came up to them from the sea: and punishments came upon the sinners, not without foregoing signs by the force of thunders: for they suffered justly according to their own wickedness.

80A 19 13 For they exercised a more detestable inhospitality than any: others indeed received not strangers unknown to them, but these brought their guests into bondage that had deserved well of them.

80A 19 14 And not only so, but in another respect also they were worse: for the others against their will received the strangers.

80A 19 15 But these grievously afflicted them whom they had received with joy, and who lived under the same laws.

80A 19 16 But they were struck with blindness: as those others were at the doors of the just man, when they were covered with sudden darkness, and every one sought the passage of his own door.

80A 19 17 For while the elements are changed in themselves, as in an instrument the sound of the quality is changed, yet all keep their sound: which may clearly be perceived by the very sight.

80A 19 18 For the things of the land were turned into things of the water: and the things before swam in the water passed upon the land.

80A 19 19 The fire had power in water above its own virtue, and the water forgot its quenching nature.

80A 19 20 On the other side, the flames wasted not the flesh of corruptible animals walking therein, neither did they melt that good food, which was apt to melt as ice. For in all things thou didst magnify thy people, O Lord, and didst honour them, and didst not despise them, but didst assist them at all times, and in every place.

83A 1 1 And they walked in the midst of the flame, praising God and blessing the Lord.

83A 1 2 Then Azarias standing up prayed in this manner, and opening his mouth in the midst of the fire, he said:

83A 1 3 Blessed art thou, O Lord, the God of our fathers, and thy name is worthy of praise, and glorious for ever:

83A 1 4 For thou art just in all that thou hast done to us, and all thy works are true, and thy ways right, and all thy judgments true.

83A 1 5 For thou hast executed true judgments in all the things that thou hast brought upon us, and upon Jerusalem the holy city of our fathers: for according to truth and judgment, thou hast brought all these things upon us for our sins.

83A 1 6 For we have sinned, and committed iniquity, departing from thee: and we have trespassed in all things:

83A 1 7 And we have not hearkened to thy commandments, nor have we observed nor done as thou hadst commanded us, that it might go well with us.

83A 1 8 Wherefore all that thou hast brought upon us, and every thing that thou hast done to us, thou hast done in true judgment:

83A 1 9 And thou hast delivered us into the hands of our enemies that are unjust, and most wicked, and prevaricators, and to a king unjust, and most wicked beyond all that axe upon the earth.

83A 1 10 And now we cannot open our mouths: we are become a shame and reproach to thy servants, and to them that worship thee.

83A 1 11 Deliver us not up for ever, we beseech thee, for thy name's sake, and abolish not thy covenant.

83A 1 12 And take not away thy mercy from us for the sake of Abraham thy beloved, and Isaac thy servant, and Israel thy holy one:

83A 1 13 To whom thou hast spoken, promising that thou wouldst multiply their seed as the stars of heaven, and as the sand that is on the sea shore.

83A 1 14 For we, O Lord, are diminished more than any nation, and are brought low in all the earth this day for our sins.

83A 1 15 Neither is there at this time prince, or leader, or prophet, or holocaust, or sacrifice, or oblation, or incense, or place of firstfruits before thee,

83A 1 16 That we may find thy mercy: nevertheless in a contrite heart and humble spirit let us be accepted.

83A 1 17 As in holocausts of rams, and bullocks, and as in thousands of fat lambs: so let our sacrifice be made in thy sight this day, that it may please thee: for there is no confusion to them that trust in thee.

83A 1 18 And now we follow thee with all our heart, and we fear thee, and seek thy face.

83A 1 19 Put us not to confusion, but deal with us according to thy meekness, and according to the multitude of thy mercies.

83A 1 20 And deliver us according to thy wonderful works, and give glory to thy name, O Lord:

83A 1 21 And let all them be confounded that shew evils to thy servants, let them be confounded in all thy might, and let their strength be broken.

83A 1 22 And let them know that thou art the Lord, the only God, and glorious over all the world.

83A 1 23 Now the king's servants that had cast them in, ceased not to heat the furnace with brimstone, and tow, and pitch, and dry sticks,

83A 1 24 And the flame mounted up above the furnace nine and forty cubits:

83A 1 25 And it broke forth, and burnt such of the Chaldeans as it found near the furnace.

83A 1 26 But the angel of the Lord went down with Azarias and his companions into the furnace: and he drove the flame of the fire out of the furnace, 83A 1 27 And made the midst of the furnace like the blowing of a wind bringing dew, and the fire touched them not at all, nor troubled them, nor did them any harm.

83A 1 28 Then these three as with one mouth praised, and glorified, and blessed God in the furnace, saying:

83A 1 29 Blessed art thou, O Lord the God of our fathers: and worthy to be praised, and glorified, and exalted above all for ever: and blessed is the holy name of thy glory: and worthy to be praised, and exalted above all in all ages.

83A 1 30 Blessed art thou in the holy temple of thy glory: and exceedingly to be praised, and exceeding glorious for ever.

83A 1 31 Blessed art thou on the throne of thy kingdom, and exceedingly to be praised, and exalted above all for ever.

83A 1 32 Blessed art thou, that beholdest the depths, and sittest upon the cherubims: and worthy to be praised and exalted above all for ever.

83A 1 33 Blessed art thou in the firmament of heaven: and worthy of praise, and glorious for ever.

83A 1 34 All ye works of the Lord, bless the Lord: praise and exalt him above all for ever.

83A 1 35 O ye angels of the Lord, bless the Lord: praise and exalt him above all for ever.

83A 1 36 O ye heavens, bless the Lord: praise and exalt him above all for ever.

83A 1 37 O all ye waters that are above the heavens, bless the Lord; praise and exalt him above all for ever.

83A 1 38 O all ye powers of the Lord, bless the Lord: praise and exalt him above all for ever.
 83A 1 39 O ye sun and moon, bless the Lord: praise and exalt him above all for ever.
 83A 1 40 O ye stars of heaven, bless the Lord: praise and exalt him above all for ever.
 83A 1 41 O every shower and dew, bless ye the Lord: praise and exalt him above all for ever.
 83A 1 42 O all ye spirits of God, bless the Lord: praise and exalt him above all for ever.
 83A 1 43 O ye fire and heat, bless the Lord: praise and exalt him above all for ever.
 83A 1 44 O ye cold and heat, bless the Lord: praise and exalt him above all for ever.
 83A 1 45 O ye dews and hoar frosts, bless the Lord: praise and exalt him above all for ever.
 83A 1 46 O ye frost and cold, bless the Lord: praise and exalt him above all for ever.
 83A 1 47 O ye ice and snow, bless the Lord: praise and exalt him above all for ever.
 83A 1 48 O ye nights and days, bless the Lord: praise and exalt him above all for ever.
 83A 1 49 O ye light and darkness, bless the Lord: praise and exalt him above all for ever.
 83A 1 50 O ye lightnings and clouds, bless the Lord: praise and exalt him above all for ever.
 83A 1 51 O let the earth bless the Lord: let it praise and exalt him above all for ever.
 83A 1 52 O ye mountains and hills, bless the Lord: praise and exalt him above all for ever.
 83A 1 53 O all ye things that spring up in the earth, bless the Lord: praise and exalt him above all for ever.
 83A 1 54 O ye fountains, bless the Lord: praise and exalt him above all for ever.
 83A 1 55 O ye seas and rivers, bless the Lord: praise and exalt him above all for ever.
 83A 1 56 O ye whales, and all that move in the waters, bless the Lord: praise and exalt him above all for ever.
 83A 1 57 O all ye fowls of the air, bless the Lord: praise and exalt him above all for ever.
 83A 1 58 O all ye beasts and cattle, bless the Lord: praise and exalt him above all for ever.
 83A 1 59 O ye sons of men, bless the Lord., praise and exalt him above all for ever.
 83A 1 60 O let Israel bless the Lord: let them praise and exalt him above all for ever.
 83A 1 61 O ye priests of the Lord, bless the Lord: praise and exalt him above all for ever.
 83A 1 62 O ye servants of the Lord, bless the Lord: praise and exalt him above all for ever.
 83A 1 63 O ye spirits and souls of the just, bless the Lord: praise and exalt him above all for ever.
 83A 1 64 O ye holy and humble of heart, bless the Lord: praise and exalt him above all for ever.
 83A 1 65 O Ananias, Azarias, and Misael, bless ye the Lord: praise and exalt him above all for ever. For he hath delivered us from hell, and saved us out of the hand of death, and delivered us out of the midst of the burning flame, and saved us out of the midst of the fire.
 83A 1 66 O give thanks to the Lord, because he is good: because his mercy endureth for ever and ever.
 83A 1 67 O all ye religious, bless the Lord the God of gods: praise him and give him thanks, because his mercy endureth for ever and ever.
 86A 10 4 Then Mardochai said: God hath done these things.
 86A 10 5 I remember a dream that I saw, which signified these same things: and nothing thereof hath failed.
 86A 10 6 The little fountain which grew into a river, and was turned into a light, and into the sun, and abounded into many waters, is Esther, whom the king married, and made queen.

86A 10 7 But the two dragons are I and Aman.

86A 10 8 The nations that were assembled are they that endeavoured to destroy the name of the Jews.

86A 10 9 And my nation is Israel, who cried to the Lord, and the Lord saved his people: and he delivered us from all evils, and hath wrought great signs and wonders among the nations:

86A 10 10 And he commanded that there should be two lots, one of the people of God, and the other of all the nations.

86A 10 11 And both lots came to the day appointed already from that time before God to all nations:

86A 10 12 And the Lord remembered his people, and had mercy on his inheritance.

86A 10 13 And these days shall be observed in the month of Adar on the fourteenth, and fifteenth day of the same month. with all diligence, and joy of the people gathered into one assembly, throughout all the generations hereafter of the people of Israel.

86A 11 1 In the fourth year of the reign of Ptolemy and Cleopatra, Dositheus, who said he was a priest, and of the Levitical race, and Ptolemy his son brought this epistle of Phurim, which they said Lysimachus the son of Ptolemy had interpreted in Jerusalem.

86A 11 2 In the second year of the reign of Artaxerxes the great, in the first day of the month Nisan, Mardochai the son of Jair, the son of Semei, the son of Cis, of the tribe of Benjamin:

86A 11 3 A Jew who dwelt in the city of Susan, a great man and among the first of the king's court, had it dream.

86A 11 4 Now he was of the number of the captives, whom Nabuchodonosor king of Babylon had carried away from Jerusalem with Jechonias king of Juda:

86A 11 5 And this was his dream: Behold there were voices, and tumults, and thunders, and earthquakes, and a disturbance upon the earth.

86A 11 6 And behold two great dragons came forth ready to fight one against another.

86A 11 7 And at their cry all nations were stirred up to fight against the nation of the just.

86A 11 8 And that was a day of darkness and danger, of tribulation and distress, and great fear upon the earth.

86A 11 9 And the nation of the just was troubled fearing their own evils, and was prepared for death.

86A 11 10 And they cried to God: and as they were crying, a little fountain grew into a very great river, and abounded into many waters.

86A 11 11 The light and the sun rose up, and the humble were exalted, and they devoured the glorious.

86A 11 12 And when Mardochai had seen this, and arose out of his bed, he was thinking what God would do: and he kept it fixed in his mind, desirous to know what the dream should signify.

86A 12 1 And he abode at that time in the king's court with Bagatha and Thara the king's eunuchs, who were porters of the palace.

86A 12 2 And when he understood their designs, and had diligently searched into their projects, he learned that they went about to lay violent hands on king Artaxerxes, and he told the king thereof.

86A 12 3 Then the king had them both examined, and after they had confessed, commanded them to be put to death.

86A 12 4 But the king made a record of what was done: and Mardochai also committed the memory of the thing to writing.

86A 12 5 And the king commanded him, to abide in the court of the palace, and gave him presents for the information.

86A 12 6 But Aman the son of Amadathi the Bugite was in great honour with the king, and sought to hurt Mardochai and his people, because of the two eunuchs of the king who were put to death.

86A 13 1 And this was the copy of the letter: Artaxerxes the great king who reigneth from India to Ethiopia, to the princes and governors of the hundred and twenty-seven provinces, that are subject to his empire, greeting.

86A 13 2 Whereas I reigned over many nations, and had brought all the world under my dominion, I was not willing to abuse the greatness of my power, but to govern my subjects with clemency and lenity, that they might live quietly without any terror. and might enjoy peace, which is desired by all men.

86A 13 3 But when I asked my counsellors how this might be accomplished, one that excelled the rest in wisdom and fidelity, and was second after the king, Aman by name, 86A 13 4 Told me that there was a people scattered through the whole world, which used new laws, and acted against the customs of all nations, despised the commandments of kings, and violated by their opposition the concord of all nations.

86A 13 5 Wherefore having learned this, and seeing one nation in opposition to all mankind using perverse laws, and going against our commandments, and disturbing the peace and concord of the provinces subject to us,

86A 13 6 We have commanded that all whom Aman shall mark out, who is chief over all the provinces, and second after the king, and whom we honour as a father, shall be utterly destroyed by their enemies, with their wives and children, and that none shall have pity on them. on the fourteenth day of the twelfth month Adar of this present year:

86A 13 7 That these wicked men going down to hell in one day, may restore to our empire the peace which they had disturbed.

86A 13 8 But Mardochai besought the Lord, remembering all his works, 86A 13 9 And said: O Lord, Lord, almighty king, for all things are in thy power, and there is none that can resist thy will, if thou determine to save Israel.

86A 13 10 Thou hast made heaven and earth, and all things that are under the cope of heaven.

86A 13 11 Thou art Lord of all, and there is none that can resist thy majesty.

86A 13 12 Thou knowest all things, and thou knowest that it was not out of pride and contempt, or any desire of glory, that I refused to worship the proud Aman,

86A 13 13 (For I would willingly and readily for the salvation of Israel have kissed even the steps of his feet,)

86A 13 14 But I feared lest I should transfer the honour of my God to a man, and lest I should adore any one except my God.

86A 13 15 And now, O Lord, O king, O God of Abraham, have mercy on thy people, because our enemies resolve to destroy us, and extinguish thy inheritance.

86A 13 16 Despise not thy portion, which thou hast redeemed for thyself out of Egypt.

86A 13 17 Hear my supplication, and be merciful to thy lot and inheritance, and turn our mourning into joy, that we may live and praise thy name, O Lord, and shut not the mouths of them that sing to thee.

86A 13 18 And all Israel with like mind and supplication cried to the Lord, because they saw certain death hanging over their heads.

86A 14 1 Queen Esther also, fearing the danger that was at hand, had recourse to the Lord.

86A 14 2 And when she had laid away her royal apparel, she put on garments suitable for weeping and mourning: instead of divers precious ointments, she covered her head with ashes and dung, and she humbled her body with fasts: and all the places in which before she was accustomed to rejoice, she filled with her torn hair.

86A 14 3 And she prayed to the Lord the God of Israel, saying: O my Lord, who alone art our king, help me a desolate woman, and who have no other helper but thee.

86A 14 4 My danger is in my hands.

86A 14 5 I have heard of my father that thou, O Lord, didst take Israel from among all nations, and our fathers from all their predecessors, to possess them as an everlasting inheritance, and thou hast done to them as thou hast promised.

86A 14 6 We have sinned in thy sight, and therefore thou hast delivered us into the hands of our enemies:

86A 14 7 For we have worshipped their gods. Thou art just, O Lord.

86A 14 8 And now they are not content to oppress us with most hard bondage, but attributing the strength of their hands to the power of their idols,

86A 14 9 They design to change thy promises, and destroy thy inheritance, and shut the mouths of them that praise thee, and extinguish the glory of thy temple and altar,

86A 14 10 That they may open the mouths of Gentiles, and praise the strength of idols, and magnify for ever a carnal king.

86A 14 11 Give not, O Lord, thy sceptre to them that are not, lest they laugh at our ruin: but turn their counsel upon themselves, and destroy him that hath begun to rage against us.

86A 14 12 Remember, O Lord, and shew thyself to us in the time of our tribulation, and give me boldness, O Lord, king of gods, and of all power:

86A 14 13 Give me a well ordered speech in my mouth in the presence of the lion, and turn his heart to the hatred of our enemy, that both he himself may perish, and the rest that consent to him.

86A 14 14 But deliver us by thy hand, and help me, who have no other helper, but thee, O Lord, who hast the knowledge of all things.

86A 14 15 And thou knowest that I hate the glory of the wicked, and abhor the bed of the uncircumcised, and of every stranger.

86A 14 16 Thou knowest my necessity, that I abominate the sign of my pride and glory, which is upon my head in the days of my public appearance, and detest it as a menstruous rag, and wear it not in the days of my silence,

86A 14 17 And that I have not eaten at Aman's table, nor hath the king's banquet pleased me, and that I have not drunk the wine of the drink offerings:

86A 14 18 And that thy handmaid hath never rejoiced, since I was brought hither unto this day, but in thee, O Lord, the God of Abraham.

86A 14 19 O God, who art mighty above all, hear the voice of them, that have no other hope, and deliver us from the hand of the wicked, and deliver me from my fear.

86A 15 1 And he commanded her (no doubt but he was Mardochai) to go to the king, and petition for her people, and for her country.

86A 15 2 Remember, (said he,) the days of thy low estate, how thou wast brought up by my hand, because Aman the second after the king hath spoken against us unto death.

86A 15 3 And do thou call upon the Lord, and speak to the king for us, and deliver us from death.

86A 15 4 And on the third day she laid away the garments she wore, and put on her glorious apparel.

86A 15 5 And glittering in royal robes, after she had called upon God the ruler and Saviour of all, she took two maids with her,

86A 15 6 And upon one of them she leaned, as if for delicateness and overmuch tenderness she were not able to bear up her own body.

86A 15 7 And the other maid followed her lady, bearing up her train flowing on the ground.

86A 15 8 But she with a rosy colour in her face, and with gracious and bright eyes, hid a mind full of anguish, and exceeding great fear.

86A 15 9 So going in she passed through all the doors in order, and stood before the king, where he sat upon his royal throne, clothed with his royal robes, and glittering with gold, and precious stones, and he was terrible to behold.

86A 15 10 And when he had lifted up his countenance, and with burning eyes had shewn the wrath of his heart, the queen sunk down, and her colour turned pale, and she rested her weary head upon her handmaid.

86A 15 11 And God changed the king's spirit into mildness, and all in haste and in fear he leaped from his throne, and holding her up in his arms, till she came to herself, caressed her with these words:

86A 15 12 What is the matter, Esther? I am thy brother, fear not.

86A 15 13 Thou shalt not die: for this law is not made for thee, but for all others.

86A 15 14 Come near then, and touch the sceptre.

86A 15 15 And as she held her peace, he took the golden sceptre, and laid it upon her neck, and kissed her, and said: Why dost thou not speak to me?

86A 15 16 She answered: I saw thee, my lord, as an angel of God, and my heart was troubled for fear of thy majesty.

86A 15 17 For thou, my lord, art very admirable, and thy face is full of graces.

86A 15 18 And while she was speaking, she fell down again, and was almost in a swoon.

86A 15 19 But the king was troubled, and all his servants comforted her.

86A 16 1 The great king Artaxerxes, from India to Ethiopia, to the governors and princes of a hundred and twenty- seven provinces, which obey our command, sendeth greeting.

86A 16 2 Many have abused unto pride the goodness of princes, and the honour that hath been bestowed upon them:

86A 16 3 And not only endeavour to oppress the king's subjects, but not bearing the glory that is given them, take in hand to practise also against them that gave it.

86A 16 4 Neither are they content not to return thanks for benefits received, and to violate in themselves the laws of humanity, but they think they can also escape the justice of God who seeth all things.

86A 16 5 And they break out into so great madness, as to endeavour to undermine by lies such as observe diligently the offices committed to them, and do all things in such manner as to be worthy of all men's praise,

86A 16 6 While with crafty fraud they deceive the ears of princes that are well meaning, and judge of others by their own nature.

86A 16 7 Now this is proved both from ancient histories, and by the things which are done daily, how the good designs of kings are depraved by the evil suggestions of certain men.

86A 16 8 Wherefore we must provide for the peace of all provinces.

86A 16 9 Neither must you think, if we command different things, that it cometh of the levity of our mind, but that we give sentence according to the quality and necessity of times, as the profit of the commonwealth requireth.

86A 16 10 Now that you may more plainly understand what we say, I Aman the son of Amadathi, a Macedonian both in mind and country, and having nothing of the Persian blood, but with his cruelty staining our goodness, was received being a stranger by us:

86A 16 11 And found our humanity so great towards him, that he was called our father, and was worshipped by all as the next man after the king:

86A 16 12 But he was so far puffed up with arrogancy, as to go about to deprive us of our kingdom and life.

86A 16 13 For with certain new and unheard of devices he hath sought the destruction of Mardochai, by whose fidelity and good services our life was saved, and of Esther the partner of our kingdom, with all their nation:

86A 16 14 Thinking that after they were slain, he might work treason against us left alone without friends, and might transfer the kingdom of the Persians to the Macedonians.

86A 16 15 But we have found that the Jews, who were by that most wicked man appointed to be slain, are in no fault at all, but contrariwise, use just laws, 86A 16 16 And are the children of the highest and the greatest, and the ever living God, by whose benefit the kingdom was given both to our fathers and to us, and is kept unto this day.

86A 16 17 Wherefore know ye that those letters which he sent in our name, are void and of no effect.

86A 16 18 For which crime both he himself that devised it, and all his kindred hang on gibbets, before the gates of this city Susan: not we, but God repaying him as he deserved.

86A 16 19 But this edict, which we now send, shall be published in all cities, that the Jews may freely follow their own laws.

86A 16 20 And you shall aid them that they may kill those who had prepared themselves to kill them, on the thirteenth day of the twelfth month, which is called Adar.

86A 16 21 For the almighty God hath turned this day of sadness and mourning into joy to them.

86A 16 22 Wherefore you shall also count this day among other festival days, and celebrate it with all joy, that it may be known also in times to come,

86A 16 24 And let every province and city, that will not be partaker of this solemnity, perish by the sword and by fire, and be destroyed in such manner as to be made unpassable, both to men and beasts, for an example of contempt, and disobedience
